Any Claims or Causes of Action held by the Debtors or their respective estates against the Debtors' CEO and/or CCO (regardless of any fiduciary capacity in which such individuals were acting) that are expressly related to approval of the 3AC Loan are not released pursuant to the Plan (collectively, the "Non-Released D&O Claims"), and shall be assigned and transferred to the Wind-Down Debtor to be pursued, settled, or resolved by the Wind-Down Debtor in accordance with the terms of Article IV.G of this Plan and subject to the Wind-Down Budget. Any claims against the D&O Carriers that the Debtors' insurance transactions within the 90 days prior to the Petition Date are avoidable under the Bankruptcy Code, applicable state law, or both (the "Non-Released Insurance Claims") shall be assigned and transferred to the Wind-Down Debtor to be pursued, settled, or resolved solely by the Wind-Down Debtor in accordance with the terms of Article IV.G of this Plan. The Wind-Down Debtor shall be a successor to the Debtors' rights, title, and interest in any Non-Released D&O Claims and Non-Released Insurance Claims, and the Wind-Down Debtor shall have standing to pursue the Non-Released D&O Claims and the Non-Released Insurance Claims in accordance with the terms of Article IV.G of this Plan; provided that: (i) any recovery by the Wind-Down Debtor (and the beneficiaries thereof) on account of any Non-Released D&O Claim, including in each case by way of settlement or judgment, shall be satisfied solely by and to the extent of the proceeds of the Debtors' available D&O Liability Insurance Policies (and/or from the D&O Carriers directly) after payment from such D&O Liability Insurance Policies of any and all covered costs and expenses incurred in connection with the defense of the Non-Released D&O Claims; (ii) any party, including any trustee or any beneficiary of the Wind-Down Debtor, seeking to execute, garnish, or otherwise attempt to collect on any settlement of or judgment in the Non-Released D&O Claims shall do so solely upon available insurance coverage from the Debtors' available D&O Liability Insurance Policies; and (iii) no party shall (a) record any judgment against the CEO or CCO, or (b) otherwise attempt to collect, directly or indirectly, from the personal assets of the CEO or CCO with respect to the Non-Released D&O Claims. For the avoidance of doubt, this provision does not enjoin, limit, or impair direct claims held by third parties against the Debtors' CEO or CCO (if any) other than any direct claims held by Holders of Claims or Interests that opt into the third-party release in Article VIII.B of this Plan. Only upon the occurrence of the earlier of (x) a release being given as part of any later settlement of the Non-Released D&O Claims; (y) final resolution of any coverage claims asserted against the Debtors' available D&O Liability Insurance Policies on account of the Non-Released D&O Claims; or (z) exhaustion of the available insurance coverage under the D&O Liability Insurance Policies, the Non-Released D&O Claims shall be released and discharged without the need for further action or Bankruptcy Court order. For the avoidance of doubt, any release of the Non-Released D&O Claims shall not become effective until one of the three conditions stated in the preceding sentence above has been met.

Pursuant to the D&O Settlement, CEO shall repay the $1,900,000 received from the Debtors on or around February 28, 2022, by paying the after-tax amount of such transfer (approximately $1,125,000) to OpCo in cash and assigning the right, if any, to any tax refund for the balance to the Wind-Down Debtor. CEO shall subordinate any Claims (including any indemnification claims asserted under this Art. IV.F) he holds against the Debtors until all other Holders of Claims are paid in full. CCO shall subordinate 50 percent of any Claims he holds other than indemnification claims (and 100% of any indemnification claims asserted under this Art. IV.F) against the Debtors until all other Holders of Claims are paid in full; provided, however, that in the event the D&O Carriers deny coverage to CEO or CCO under the D&O Insurance Policies on account of such subordination of any indemnification claim, then any indemnification claims by CEO or CCO shall not be so subordinated, but may be filed as an OpCo General Unsecured Claim.

CEO and CCO, each as insureds, under the D&O Liability Insurance Policies agree: (i) not to draw down on the Side-A Policy; provided, however, that should coverage continue to be available under the Side-A Policy following resolution of the Debtors' and/or the Wind-Down Debtor's claims for the avoidance of the premium paid for the policy (whether by judgment or settlement or otherwise) such officer shall be entitled to seek coverage under the Side-A Policy to the extent any such coverage remains; and (ii) not to object to any settlement by the Debtors or Wind Down Entity of avoidance claims under the Side-A Policy, even if such settlement results in termination of benefits under the Side-A Policy. For the avoidance of doubt, this agreement is not intended to and shall not alter or amend each of the insureds' duties under the D&O Liability Insurance Policies. In the event that any insurer under the D&O Liability Insurance Policies denies coverage for any reason, the Wind-Down Debtor shall have the right to bring a coverage claim against the insurer(s) in the name of the insured, the insureds shall reasonably cooperate with respect to any such claim, and the insured may participate at their election (and at their sole cost). For the avoidance of doubt, nothing contained in this Plan is intended as a waiver or release of the Debtors' and/or Wind-Down Debtor's right to assert any Non-Released D&O Claim, but rather limits such recovery in the manner set forth above.

CEO and CCO shall be entitled to receive their salary and benefits for as long as they work for the Debtors and/or the Wind-Down Debtor and retain the right to assert claims for advancement and indemnification up to the limits of any available coverage in the event any of the insurers that issued the Management Liability Policy, the Excess Policy, or the Side-A Policy denies coverage to CEO and/or CCO based upon or arising out of the lack of a formal claim for indemnification; provided, however, that any such indemnification or advancement claims shall be subordinated in full unless and until all other Holders of Claims are paid in full; provided, further, that in the event that any of the D&O Carriers deny coverage to CEO or CCO under the D&O Insurance Policies on account of such subordination of any indemnification claim, then any indemnification claims by CEO or CCO shall not be so subordinated, but may be filed as an OpCo General Unsecured Claim.

CEO and CCO shall subordinate any and all rights and entitlements under the Cornerstone A-Side Management Liability Insurance Policy to Voyager Digital Ltd., Policy Number ELU184179-22, to any recovery by the Debtors and/or the Wind-Down Debtor on account of the Debtors' and/or Wind-Down Debtor's claims for the avoidance of the premium paid for the policy. For the avoidance of doubt, should coverage continue to be available under the Side-A Policy following resolution of the Debtors' and/or the Wind-Down Debtor's claims for the avoidance of the premium paid for the policy (whether by judgment or settlement or otherwise), CEO and/or CCO shall be entitled to seek coverage under the Side-A Policy. CEO and CCO shall remain at, and continue performing the responsibilities of, their respective position(s) with the Debtors and assist with the Debtors' transition for at least 30 days from entry of the Confirmation Order; provided that CCO shall have no obligation to remain at his position with the Debtors beyond January 15, 2023 and the CEO shall have the right to pursue and engage in any employment opportunity, business venture, consulting arrangement, or investment that may become available; provided, further, that both the CEO and CCO shall be available to the Debtors and/or the Wind-Down Debtor for a maximum of five hours per month for the one year following the Effective Date.

In the event that the sworn financial disclosure statements under penalty of perjury provided to the Debtors, the Special Committee and the Committee by CEO and CCO are later determined at any time by Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court or other court of competent jurisdiction to be materially inaccurate, (a) the limitations on recovery by the Wind-Down Debtor under this Article IV.G shall no longer apply, (b) any and all release, exculpation and injunction provisions in Article VIII of this Plan with respect to CEO and/or CCO (as applicable) shall be deemed null and void, (c) all Releasing Parties' rights with respect to the CEO and/or CCO (as applicable) shall be fully intact and preserved, (d) amounts paid by CEO shall not be repaid by the Wind-Down Debtor, and (e) any applicable statute of limitations shall be deemed tolled from the Petition Date to the date of entry of the order referenced above. The Wind-Down Debtor, as successor to the Debtors, shall have standing to bring a motion seeking relief pursuant to this Article IV.G.

Entry of the Confirmation Order shall be deemed approval of the D&O Settlement and, to the extent not already approved by the Bankruptcy Court, the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, are authorized to negotiate, execute, and deliver those documents necessary or appropriate to effectuate the D&O Settlement, without further notice or order of the Bankruptcy Court, act or action under applicable law, regulation, order or rule or vote, consent, authorization, or approval of any Person, subject to such modifications as the Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, the Committee, and the Special Committee may deem to be necessary to effectuate the D&O Settlement.

H. The Wind-Down Debtor

On the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Debtor shall be formed or converted into for the benefit of the Wind-Down Debtor Beneficiaries and each of the Debtors shall transfer the Wind-Down Debtor Assets for distribution in accordance with the terms of the Plan. The Confirmation Order shall be deemed to, pursuant to sections 363 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code, authorize, among other things, all actions as may be necessary or appropriate to effect any transaction described in, approved by, contemplated by, or necessary to effectuate the Plan.

1. Establishment of a Wind-Down Debtor

Pursuant to the Plan Administrator Agreement, the Wind-Down Debtor will be established, formed, merged, or converted. The Wind-Down Debtor shall be the successor-in-interest to the Debtors, and the Wind-Down Debtor shall be a successor to the Debtors' rights, title, and interest to the Wind-Down Debtor Assets. The Wind-Down Debtor will conduct no business operations and will be charged with winding down the Debtors' Estates. The Wind-Down Debtor shall be managed by the Plan Administrator and shall be subject to the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee. The Wind-Down Debtor shall be administered in accordance with the terms of the Plan Administrator Agreement and shall be subject to the Wind-Down Budget and the Non-Released D&O Claim Budget. For the avoidance of doubt, the Wind-Down Debtor shall not have any right or interest in any Cause of Action or Claim constituting an Acquired Asset. The Wind-Down Debtor shall be administered in a manner consistent with the SEC's published guidance on liquidating trusts.

Prior to the Effective Date, any and all of the Debtors' assets shall remain assets of the Estates pursuant to section 1123(b)(3)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code and on the Effective Date the Wind-Down Debtor Assets shall, subject to the Plan Administrator Agreement, be transferred to and vest in the Wind-Down Debtor. For the avoidance of doubt, to the extent not otherwise waived in writing, released, settled, compromised, assigned or sold pursuant to a prior order or the Plan, the Wind-Down Debtor specifically retains and reserves the right to assert, after the Effective Date, any and all of the Vested Causes of Action and related rights, whether or not asserted as of the Effective Date, and all proceeds of the foregoing, subject to the terms of the Plan, including without limitation Article IV.F and Article IV.G.

Pursuant to section 1123(b)(3)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code, only the Wind-Down Debtor and the Plan Administrator shall have the right to pursue or not to pursue, or, subject to the terms hereof and the Plan Administrator Agreement, compromise or settle any Wind-Down Debtor Assets transferred to the Wind-Down Debtor. On and after the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Debtor and the Plan Administrator may, without further Bankruptcy Court approval, commence, litigate, and settle any Vested Causes of Action or Claims relating to any Wind-Down Debtor Assets transferred to the Wind-Down Debtor or rights to payment or Claims that belong to the Debtors as of the Effective Date or are instituted by the Wind-Down Debtor and the Plan Administrator on or after the Effective Date, except as otherwise expressly provided herein and in the Plan Administrator Agreement. All of the Wind-Down Debtor's activities shall be subject to the Wind-Down Budget and the Non-Released D&O Claim Budget. The Wind-Down Debtor shall be entitled to enforce all defenses and counterclaims to all Claims asserted against the Debtors and their Estates, including setoff, recoupment and any rights under section 502(d) of the Bankruptcy Code.

The Wind-Down Debtor shall be deemed hereby substituted as plaintiff, defendant, or in any other capacity for the Debtors and the Committee, as applicable, in any Causes of Action pending before the Bankruptcy Court or any other court that relates to a Wind-Down Debtor Asset without the need for filing any motion for such relief. On the Effective Date, the Debtors and the Plan Administrator shall execute the Plan Administrator Agreement and shall have established the Wind-Down Debtor pursuant hereto. In the event of any conflict between the terms of this Article IV.H and the terms of the Plan Administrator Agreement, the terms of the Plan Administrator Agreement shall control.

2. Wind-Down Debtor Assets

Notwithstanding any prohibition on assignability under applicable non-bankruptcy law, on the Effective Date and thereafter if additional Wind-Down Debtor Assets become available, the Debtors shall be deemed, subject to the Plan Administrator Agreement, to have automatically transferred to the applicable Wind-Down Debtor all of their right, title, and interest in and to all of the Wind-Down Debtor Assets, in accordance with section 1141 of the Bankruptcy Code. All such assets shall automatically vest in the Wind-Down Debtor free and clear of all Claims, Liens, and other interests, subject only to the Allowed Claims and Interests as set forth herein and the expenses of the Wind-Down Debtor as set forth herein and in the Plan Administrator Agreement. Thereupon, the Debtors shall have no interest in or with respect to the Wind-Down Debtor Assets or the Wind-Down Debtor.

3. Treatment of Wind-Down Debtor for Federal Income Tax Purposes; No Successor-in-Interest

The Wind-Down Debtor shall be established for the primary purpose of liquidating and distributing the Wind-Down Debtor Assets transferred to it, in accordance with Treas. Reg. § 301.7701-4(d), with no objective to continue or engage in the conduct of a trade or business, except to the extent reasonably necessary to, and consistent with, the liquidating purpose of the Wind-Down Debtor. Accordingly, the Plan Administrator may, in an expeditious but orderly manner, liquidate the Wind-Down Debtor Assets, make timely distributions to the Wind-Down Debtor Beneficiaries and not unduly prolong its duration. The Wind-Down Debtor shall not be deemed a successor-in-interest of the Debtors for any purpose other than as specifically set forth herein or in the Wind-Down Debtor Agreement. The record holders of beneficial interests shall be recorded and set forth in a register maintained by the Wind-Down Debtor expressly for such purpose.

The Wind-Down Debtor is intended to qualify as a "grantor trust" for federal income tax purposes to the extent reasonably practicable, with the Wind-Down Debtor Beneficiaries treated as grantors and owners of the Wind-Down Debtor. However, with respect to any of the assets of the Wind-Down Debtor that are subject to potential disputed claims of ownership or uncertain distributions, or to the extent "liquidating trust" treatment is otherwise unavailable, the Debtors anticipate that such assets will be subject to disputed ownership fund treatment under Section 1.468B-9 of the Treasury Regulations, that any appropriate elections with respect thereto shall be made, and that such treatment will also be applied to the extent possible for state and local tax purposes. Under such treatment, a separate federal income tax return shall be filed with the IRS for any such account. Any taxes (including with respect to interest, if any, earned in the account) imposed on such account shall be paid out of the assets of the respective account (and reductions shall be made to amounts disbursed from the account to account for the need to pay such taxes).

4. Appointment of Plan Administrator

The Plan Administrator shall be selected by the Committee, in consultation with the Debtors, and shall be identified in the Plan Supplement. The appointment of the Plan Administrator shall be approved in the Confirmation Order, and the Plan Administrator's duties shall commence as of the Effective Date. The Plan Administrator shall administer the distributions to the Wind-Down Debtor Beneficiaries and shall serve as a representative of the Estates under section 1123(b) of the Bankruptcy Code for the purpose of enforcing Vested Causes of Action belonging to the Estates that are not released, waived, settled, compromised, or transferred pursuant to the Plan and subject to the limitations set forth in the Plan, including Article IV.F and Article IV.G.

In accordance with the Plan Administrator Agreement, the Plan Administrator shall serve in such capacity through the earlier of (i) the date on which the Wind-Down Debtor is dissolved in accordance with the Plan Administrator Agreement, and (ii) the date on which a Plan Administrator resigns, is terminated, or is otherwise unable to serve; provided, however, that, in the event that a Plan Administrator resigns, is terminated, or is otherwise unable to serve, the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee shall appoint a successor to serve as a Plan Administrator in accordance with the Plan Administrator Agreement. If the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee does not appoint a successor within the time periods specified in the Plan Administrator Agreement, then the Bankruptcy Court, upon the motion of any party-in-interest, including counsel to the Wind-Down Debtor, shall approve a successor to serve as a Plan Administrator.

5. Responsibilities of Plan Administrator

Responsibilities of the Plan Administrator shall be as identified in the Plan Administrator Agreement and shall include, but are not limited to:

- (i) protecting and enforcing the rights to the Wind-Down Debtor Assets (including any Vested Causes of Action and Contributed Third-Party Claims) vested in the Wind-Down Debtor and Plan Administrator by the Plan Administrator Agreement by any method deemed appropriate, including, without limitation, by judicial proceedings or otherwise;

- (r) reviewing and compelling turnover of the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor's property;
- (s) calculating and making all Distributions to the holders of Allowed Claims against each Debtor and, solely to the extent of payment in full of Allowed Claims, to holders of Allowed Interests, as provided for in, or contemplated by, the Plan and the Plan Administrator Agreement; provided that because the Plan does not substantively consolidate the Debtors' Estates, the Plan Administrator shall make

Distributions from the Wind-Down Debtor Assets to the holders of Claims and Interests (if applicable) against that specific Debtor;

- (t) establishing, administering, adjusting, and maintaining the Wind-Down Reserve and the Disputed Claims Reserve;
- (u) withholding from the amount distributable to any Person the maximum amount needed to pay any tax or other charge that the Plan Administrator has determined, based upon the advice of his agents or professionals, may be required to be withheld from such Distribution under the income tax or other laws of the United States or of any state or political subdivision thereof;
- (v) in reliance upon the Debtors' Schedules, the official Claims Register maintained in the Chapter 11 Cases and the Debtors' filed lists of equity security holders, reviewing, and where appropriate, allowing or objecting to Claims and (if applicable) Interests, and supervising and administering the commencement, prosecution, settlement, compromise, withdrawal, or resolution of all objections to Disputed Claims and (if applicable) Disputed Interests required to be administered by the Wind-Down Debtor;
- (w) making all tax withholdings, filing tax information returns, filing and prosecuting tax refunds claims, making tax elections by and on behalf of the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, and filing tax returns for the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor pursuant to and in accordance with the Plan, and paying taxes, if any, payable for and on behalf of the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable; provided, however, that notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan Administrator Agreement, the Plan Administrator shall not have any responsibility or personal liability in any capacity whatsoever for the signing or accuracy of the Debtors' income tax returns that are due to be filed after the Effective Date or for any tax liability related thereto;
- (x) abandoning or donating to a charitable organization qualifying under IRC section 501(c)(3) any Wind-Down Debtor Assets that the Plan Administrator determines to be too impractical to distribute or of inconsequential value;
- (y) seeking a determination of tax liability or refund under Bankruptcy Code section 505;
- (z) establishing reserves for taxes, assessments, and other expenses of administration of the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor as may be necessary and appropriate for the proper operation of matters incident to the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor;
- (aa) paying Wind-Down Debtor Expenses;
- (bb) if the Plan Administrator deems appropriate in the Plan Administrator's sole discretion, seeking to establish a bar date for filing proofs of Interest in any Debtor or otherwise to determine the holders and extent of Allowed Interests in any Debtor;

- (cc) purchasing and carrying all insurance policies that the Plan Administrator deems reasonably necessary or advisable and paying all associated insurance premiums and costs;
- (dd) undertaking all administrative functions remaining in the Chapter 11 Cases to the extent necessary to carry out the Debtors', the Wind-Down Debtor's, or the Plan Administrator's duties under the Plan, including reporting and making required payments of fees to the U.S. Trustee and overseeing the closing of the Chapter 11 Cases;
- (ee) retaining, terminating, appointing, hiring, or otherwise employees, personnel, management, and directors at any of the Debtors to the extent necessary to carry out the purposes of the Plan Administrator Agreement and the Plan, including, without limitation, to address any disputes between the Debtors;

6. The Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee

The Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee shall consist of those parties selected by the Committee and identified in the Plan Supplement, and which, at no time shall consist of greater than seven members.

The Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee shall have the responsibility to review and advise the Plan Administrator with respect to the liquidation and distribution of the Wind-Down Debtor Assets transferred to the Wind-Down Debtor in accordance herewith and the Plan Administrator Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, in advising the Plan Administrator, the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee shall maintain the same fiduciary responsibilities as the Plan Administrator. Vacancies on the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee shall be filled by a Person designated by the Plan Administrator, subject to the unanimous consent of the remaining member or members of the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee. The Plan Administrator shall have the authority to seek an order from the Bankruptcy Court removing or replacing members of the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee for cause.

7. Expenses of Wind-Down Debtor

The Wind-Down Debtor Expenses shall be paid from the Wind-Down Debtor Assets subject to the Wind-Down Budget and the Non-Released D&O Claim Budget.

8. Insurance; Bond

The Plan Administrator may obtain insurance coverage (in the form of an errors and omissions policy or otherwise) with respect to the liabilities and obligations of the Plan Administrator and the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee under the Plan Administrator Agreement. Unless otherwise agreed to by the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee, the Plan Administrator shall serve with a bond, the terms of which shall be agreed to by the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee, and the cost and expense of which shall be paid by the Wind-Down Debtor.

9. Fiduciary Duties of the Plan Administrator

Pursuant hereto and the Plan Administrator Agreement, the Plan Administrator shall act in a fiduciary capacity on behalf of the interests of all Holders of Claims and Interests that will receive distributions pursuant to Plan.

10. Termination of the Wind-Down Debtor

The Wind-Down Debtor will terminate on the earlier of: (a) (i) the final liquidation, administration and distribution of the Wind-Down Debtor Assets in accordance with the terms of the Plan Administrator Agreement and the Plan, and its full performance of all other duties and functions as set forth herein or in the Plan Administrator Agreement and (ii) the Chapter 11 Cases of the Debtors have been closed; or (b) the Plan Administrator determines in its reasonable judgment that the Wind-Down Debtor lacks sufficient assets and financial resources, after reasonable collection efforts, to complete the duties and powers assigned to him or her under the Plan, the Confirmation Order and/or the Plan Administrator Agreement. After (x) the final distributions pursuant hereto, (y) the Filing by or on behalf of the Wind-Down Debtor of a certification of dissolution with the Bankruptcy Court, and (z) any other action deemed appropriate by the Plan Administrator, the Wind-Down Debtor shall be deemed dissolved for all purposes without the necessity for any other or further actions.

11. Liability of Plan Administrator; Indemnification

Neither the Plan Administrator, the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee, their respective members, employees, employers, designees or professionals, or any of their duly designated agents or representatives (each, a “Wind-Down Debtor Party” and collectively, the “Wind-Down Debtor Parties”) shall be liable for losses, claims, damages, liabilities or expenses in connection with the affairs of the Wind-Down Debtor or for the act or omission of any other Wind-Down Debtor Party, nor shall the Wind-Down Debtor Parties be liable for any act or omission taken or omitted to be taken pursuant to the discretion, powers and authority conferred, or in good faith believed to be conferred by the Plan Administrator Agreement or the Plan other than for specific acts or omissions resulting from such Wind-Down Debtor Party’s willful misconduct, gross negligence or actual fraud. Subject to the Plan Administrator Agreement, the Plan Administrator shall be entitled to enjoy all of the rights, powers, immunities and privileges applicable to a chapter 7 trustee, and the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee shall be entitled to enjoy all of the rights, powers, immunities and privileges of an official committee of unsecured creditors. The Plan Administrator or the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee may, in connection with the performance of its functions, and in its sole and absolute discretion, consult with its attorneys, accountants, financial advisors and agents, and shall not be liable for any act taken, omitted to be taken, or suffered to be done in accordance with advice or opinions rendered by such persons, regardless of whether such advice or opinions are provided in writing. Notwithstanding such authority, neither the Plan Administrator nor the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee shall be under any obligation to consult with its attorneys, accountants, financial advisors or agents, and their determination not to do so shall not result in the imposition of liability on the Plan Administrator, the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee, or their respective members and/or designees, unless such determination is based on willful misconduct, gross negligence, or actual fraud. The Wind-Down Debtor shall indemnify and hold harmless the Wind-Down Debtor Parties (in their capacity as such), from and against and in respect of all liabilities, losses, damages, claims, costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys’ fees, disbursements, and related expenses) that such parties may incur or to which such parties may become subject in connection with any action, suit, proceeding or investigation brought by or threatened against such parties arising out of or due to their acts or omissions, or consequences of such acts or omissions, with respect to the implementation or administration of the Wind-Down Debtor or the Plan or the discharge of their duties hereunder; provided, however, that no such indemnification will be made to such Persons for actions or omissions as a result of willful misconduct, gross negligence, or actual fraud. Persons dealing or having any relationship with the Plan Administrator shall have recourse only to the Wind-Down Debtor Assets and shall look only to the Wind-Down Debtor Assets to satisfy any liability or other obligations incurred by the Wind-Down Debtor or the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee to such Person in carrying out the terms of the Plan Administrator Agreement, and neither the Plan Administrator nor the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee, shall have any personal obligation to satisfy any such liability. The Plan Administrator and/or the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee members shall not be liable whatsoever except for the performance of such duties and obligations as are specifically set forth herein, and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into the Plan Administrator Agreement against any of them. The Wind-Down Debtor shall promptly pay expenses reasonably incurred by any Wind-Down Debtor Party in defending, participating in, or settling any action, proceeding or investigation in which such Wind-Down Debtor Party is a party or is threatened to be made a party or otherwise is participating in connection with the Plan Administrator Agreement or the duties, acts or omissions of the Plan Administrator or otherwise in connection with the affairs of the Wind-Down Debtor, upon submission of invoices therefor, whether in advance of the final disposition of such action, proceeding, or investigation or otherwise. Each Wind-Down Debtor Party hereby undertakes, and the Wind-Down Debtor hereby accepts his or her undertaking, to repay any and all such amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined that such exculpated party is not entitled to be indemnified therefor under the Plan Administrator Agreement. The foregoing indemnity in respect of any Wind-Down Debtor Party shall survive the termination of such Wind-Down Debtor Party from the capacity for which they are indemnified.

12. No Liability of the Wind-Down Debtor

On and after the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Debtor shall have no liability on account of any Claims or Interests except as set forth herein and in the Plan Administrator Agreement. All payments and all distributions made by the Plan Administrator hereunder shall be in exchange for all Claims or Interests against the Debtors.

I. Sources of Consideration for Plan Distributions

Distributions under the Plan shall be funded by (i) the proceeds of Purchaser's payment obligations under Sections 2.1 and 2.2 of the Asset Purchase Agreement and distributions of Acquired Coins pursuant to Sections 6.12, and 6.14 of the Asset Purchase Agreement, (ii) the Wind-Down Debtor from the Wind-Down Debtor Assets; provided, however, that Allowed Professional Fee Claims shall be paid from the Professional Fee Escrow Account in the first instance. The Wind-Down Debtor Assets shall be used to pay the Wind-Down Debtor Expenses (including the compensation of the Plan Administrator and any professionals retained by the Wind-Down Debtor), and to satisfy payment of Allowed Claims and Interests as set forth in the Plan.

J. Corporate Existence and Dissolution

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, each Debtor shall continue to exist after the Effective Date as a separate corporate entity, limited liability company, partnership, or other form, as the case may be, with all the powers of a corporation, limited liability company, partnership, or other form, as the case may be, pursuant to the applicable law in the jurisdiction in which each applicable Debtor is incorporated or formed and pursuant to the respective certificates or articles of incorporation, certificates of formation, certificates of organization, or certificates of limited partnership and bylaws, operating agreements, limited liability company agreements, or limited partnership agreements (or other formation documents) in effect

prior to the Effective Date, except to the extent such certificates or articles of incorporation, certificates of formation, certificates of organization, or certificates of limited partnership and bylaws, operating agreements, limited liability company agreements, or limited partnership agreements (or other formation documents) are amended pursuant to the Plan or otherwise, and to the extent such documents are amended, such documents are deemed to be amended pursuant to the Plan and require no further action or approval (other than any requisite filings under applicable state or federal law).

On and after the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Debtor will be authorized and directed to implement the Plan and any applicable orders of the Bankruptcy Court, and the Wind-Down Debtor shall have the power and authority to take any action necessary to wind down and dissolve the Debtors' Estates.

Upon a certification to be Filed with the Bankruptcy Court by the Plan Administrator of all distributions having been made and completion of all of its duties under the Plan and entry of a final decree closing the last of the Chapter 11 Cases, the Wind-Down Debtor shall be deemed to be dissolved without any further action by the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, including the Filing of any documents with the secretary of state for the state in which the Wind-Down Debtor are formed or any other jurisdiction. The Plan Administrator, however, shall have authority to take all necessary actions to dissolve the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor in and withdraw the Wind-Down Debtor from applicable states.

As soon as practicable after the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Debtor shall take such actions as the Wind-Down Debtor may determine to be necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of the Plan. Any certificate of dissolution or equivalent document may be executed by the Wind-Down Debtor on behalf of any Wind-Down Debtor without need for any action or approval by the shareholders or board of directors or managers of such Debtor. On and after the Effective Date, the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor (1) for all purposes shall be deemed to have withdrawn their business operations from any state in which the Debtors were previously conducting, or are registered or licensed to conduct, their business operations, and shall not be required to file any document, pay any sum, or take any other action in order to effectuate such withdrawal, (2) shall be deemed to have cancelled pursuant to this Plan all Interests, and (3) shall not be liable in any manner to any taxing authority for franchise, business, license, or similar taxes accruing on or after the Effective Date. Pursuant to the terms of this Plan, any Money Transmitter Licenses that have not been terminated shall be deemed withdrawn and no further action is required to be taken by the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor to effectuate such withdrawal; provided that, following the Effective Date, the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, shall use commercially reasonable efforts to comply with all state banking department requirements for the surrender of a Money Transmitter License. Nothing in this Plan shall be construed to limit the rights of creditors, Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, or regulators to pursue recoveries against surety bonds maintained by the Debtors in connection with this Money Transmitter Licenses. Notwithstanding such Debtors' dissolution, such Debtors shall be deemed to remain intact solely with respect to the preparation, filing, review, and resolution of applications for Professional Fee Claims.

K. Corporate Action

Upon the Effective Date, all actions contemplated under the Plan, Definitive Documents, and Asset Purchase Agreement shall be deemed authorized and approved in all respects, and, to the extent taken prior to the Effective Date, ratified without any requirement for further action by Holders of Claims or Interests, directors, managers, managing-members, limited or general partners, or officers of the Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor or any other Entity, including: (1) appointment of the directors, managers, members, and officers for the Wind-Down Debtor as provided herein; (2) the issuances, transfer, and distribution of the Wind-Down Debtor Assets; (3) the formation of the Wind-Down Debtor and appointment of the Plan Administrator and Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee; (4) the formation of any entities pursuant to and the implementation of the Plan and performance of all actions and transactions contemplated hereby and thereby; (5) the rejection, assumption, or assumption and assignment, as applicable, of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases; and (6) all other acts or actions contemplated by the Plan, Definitive Documents, and Asset Purchase Agreement or reasonably necessary or appropriate to promptly consummate the Restructuring Transactions (including effectuating the Restructuring Transactions Memorandum and the Customer Onboarding Protocol) (whether to occur before, on, or after the Effective Date). All matters provided for in the Plan, Definitive Documents, and Asset Purchase Agreement involving the corporate structure of the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, and any corporate action required by the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, in connection with the Plan shall be deemed to have occurred on, and shall be in effect as of, the Effective Date, without any requirement of further action by the security holders, directors, managers, or officers of the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable. On or, as applicable, prior to the Effective Date, the appropriate officers of the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, shall be authorized and, as applicable, directed to issue, execute, and deliver the agreements, documents, Securities, certificates of incorporation, certificates of formation, bylaws, operating agreements, and instruments contemplated under the Plan (or necessary or desirable to effect the transactions contemplated under the Plan) in the name of and on behalf of the Wind-Down Debtor, and any and all other agreements, documents, Securities, and instruments relating to the foregoing. The authorizations and approvals contemplated by this Article IV.K shall be effective notwithstanding any requirements under non-bankruptcy law.

L. Vesting of Assets in the Wind-Down Debtor

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, or in any agreement, instrument, or other document incorporated in the Plan, notwithstanding any prohibition of assignability under applicable non-bankruptcy law and in accordance with section 1141 of the Bankruptcy Code, on the Effective Date, all property constituting Wind-Down Debtor Assets, including all Vested Causes of Action of the Debtors (unless otherwise released, waived, compromised, settled, transferred, or discharged pursuant to the Plan), and any property acquired by any of the Debtors under the Plan shall vest in the Wind-Down Debtor, free and clear of all Liens, Claims, charges, or other encumbrances.

M. Cancellation of Notes, Instruments, Certificates, and Other Documents

On the later of the Effective Date and the date on which distributions are made pursuant to the Plan (if not made on the Effective Date), except for the purpose of evidencing a right to and allowing Holders of Claims and Interests to receive a distribution under the Plan or to the extent otherwise specifically provided for in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, or any agreement, instrument, or other document entered into in connection with or pursuant to the Plan or the Restructuring Transactions (including, without limitation, the Definitive Documents and the Asset Purchase Agreement), all notes, bonds, indentures, certificates, Securities, shares, purchase rights, options, warrants, collateral agreements, subordination agreements, intercreditor agreements, or other instruments or documents directly or indirectly evidencing, creating, or relating to any indebtedness or obligations of, or ownership interest in, the Debtors, giving rise to any Claims against or Interests in the Debtors or to any rights or obligations relating to any Claims against or Interests in the Debtors shall be deemed cancelled without any need for a Holder to take further action with respect thereto.

N. Effectuating Documents; Further Transactions

On and after the Effective Date, the Debtors, and its directors, managers, partners, officers, authorized persons, and members thereof, and the Wind-Down Debtor and Plan Administrator are authorized to and may issue, execute, deliver, file, or record such contracts, Securities, instruments, releases, and other agreements or documents and take such actions as may be necessary or appropriate to effectuate, implement, and further evidence the terms and conditions of the Plan, Definitive Documents, and Asset Purchase Agreement, in the name of and on behalf of the Debtors and Wind-Down Debtor, without the need for any approvals, authorizations, or consents except for those expressly required under the Plan.

O. Section 1146(a) Exemption

To the fullest extent permitted by section 1146(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, any transfers (whether from a Debtor to a Wind-Down Debtor, the Purchaser, or to any other Entity) of property under the Plan, Definitive Documents, and Asset Purchase Agreement or pursuant to: (1) the issuance, distribution, transfer, or exchange of any debt, equity security, or other interest in the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor; (2) the creation, modification, consolidation, termination, refinancing, and/or recording of any mortgage, deed of trust, or other security interest, or the securing of additional indebtedness by such or other means; (3) the making, assignment, or recording of any lease or sublease; or (4) the making, delivery, or recording of any deed or other instrument of transfer under, in furtherance of, or in connection with, the Plan, including any deeds, bills of sale, assignments, or other instrument of transfer executed in connection with any transaction arising out of, contemplated by, or in any way related to the Plan, including the Asset Purchase Agreement, shall not be subject to any document recording tax, stamp tax, conveyance fee, intangibles or similar tax, mortgage tax, real estate transfer tax, mortgage recording tax, sales or use tax, Uniform Commercial Code filing or recording fee, regulatory filing or recording fee, or other similar tax or governmental assessment, and upon entry of the Confirmation Order, the appropriate state or local governmental officials or agents shall forgo the collection of any such tax or governmental assessment and accept for filing and recordation any of the foregoing instruments or other documents without the payment of any such tax, recordation fee, or governmental assessment. All filing or recording officers (or any other Person with authority over any of the foregoing), wherever located and by whomever appointed, shall comply with the requirements of section 1146(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, shall forgo the collection of any such tax or governmental assessment, and shall accept for filing and recordation any of the foregoing instruments or other documents without the payment of any such tax or governmental assessment.

P. Preservation of Rights of Action

In accordance with section 1123(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Wind-Down Debtor shall succeed to all rights to commence and pursue any and all Vested Causes of Action of the Debtors, whether arising before or after the Petition Date, including, without limitation, any actions specifically enumerated in the Schedule of Retained Causes of Action other than Causes of Action released, waived, settled, compromised, or transferred. Such rights shall be preserved by the Debtors and Wind-Down Debtor and shall vest in the Wind-Down Debtor, with the Wind-Down Debtor's rights to commence, prosecute, or settle such Causes of Action preserved notwithstanding the occurrence of the Effective Date, other than the Causes of Action expressly released, waived, settled, compromised, or transferred by the Debtors pursuant to the releases and exculpations contained in the Plan, including in Article VIII of the Plan or pursuant to the Asset Purchase Agreement, which shall be deemed released and waived by the Debtors and Wind-Down Debtor as of the Effective Date.

The Wind-Down Debtor may pursue such Causes of Action, as appropriate, in accordance with the best interests of the beneficiaries of the Wind-Down Debtor and in accordance with the Plan Administrator Agreement and the Plan. No Entity may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Schedules of Assets and Liabilities or Statement of Financial Affairs, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, the Disclosure Statement, or the Schedule of Retained Causes of Action to any Cause of Action against it as any indication that the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, will not pursue any and all available Causes of Action of the Debtors against it. The Wind-Down Debtor, on behalf of the Debtors and the Wind-Down Debtor, expressly reserves all rights to prosecute any and all Causes of Action against any Entity, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, including Article VIII of the Plan. Unless any Cause of Action of the Debtors is expressly waived, relinquished, exculpated, released, compromised, or settled in the Plan or pursuant to a Final Order, the Wind-Down Debtor, on behalf of the Debtors and Wind-Down Debtor and in accordance with the Plan Administrator Agreement, expressly reserves all such Causes of Action for later adjudication, and, therefore, no preclusion doctrine, including the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, estoppel (judicial, equitable, or otherwise), or laches, shall apply to such Causes of Action upon, after, or as a consequence of Confirmation or Consummation.

The Wind-Down Debtor, on behalf of the Debtors, reserves and shall retain such Causes of Action of the Debtors notwithstanding the rejection or repudiation of any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease during the Chapter 11 Cases or pursuant to the Plan. In accordance with section 1123(b)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code, any Cause of Action that a Debtor may hold against any Entity shall vest in the Wind-Down Debtor, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, including Article VIII of the Plan. The Wind-Down Debtor, through their authorized agents or representatives, shall retain and may exclusively enforce any and all such Causes of Action. The Wind-Down Debtor shall have the exclusive right, authority, and discretion to determine and to initiate, file, prosecute, enforce, abandon, settle, compromise, release, withdraw, or litigate to judgment any such Causes of Action, or to decline to do any of the foregoing, without the consent or approval of any third party or any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court in accordance with the Plan.

Q. Election to Contribute Third-Party Claims

Because aggregating all Contributed Third-Party Claims may enable the pursuit and settlement of such litigation claims in a more efficient and effective manner, each Holder of a Claim or Interest may agree, by electing on its ballot or opt-in form, to contribute its Contributed Third-Party Claims to the Wind-Down Debtor. By electing such option on its ballot or opt-in form, each Contributing Claimant agrees that, subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date and the formation of the Wind-Down Debtor, it will be deemed, without further action, (i) to have irrevocably contributed its Contributed Third-Party Claims to the Wind-Down Debtor, and (ii) to have agreed to execute any documents reasonably requested by the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor to memorialize and effectuate such contribution.

R. Contribution of Contributed Third-Party Claims

On the Effective Date, all Contributed Third-Party Claims will be irrevocably contributed to the Wind-Down Debtor and shall thereafter be Wind-Down Debtor Assets for all purposes. No Person may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan, the Disclosure Statement, the Confirmation Order, the Plan Administrator Agreement, the Plan Supplement, or any other document as any indication that the Wind-Down Debtor will or will not pursue any and all available Contributed Third-Party Claims against such Person. The Wind-Down Debtor shall have, retain, reserve, and be entitled to assert all Contributed Third-Party Claims fully to the same extent that the Contributing Claimants could have asserted such claims prior to the Effective Date. For the avoidance of doubt, the Contributed Third-Party Claims shall not include the rights of any of the Contributing Claimants to receive the distributions under the Plan on account of their Claims or Interests.

S. Closing the Chapter 11 Cases

On and after the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Debtor shall be permitted to classify all of the Chapter 11 Cases of the Debtors except for the Chapter 11 Case of Voyager Digital, LLC, or any other Debtor identified in the Restructuring Transactions Memorandum as having its Chapter 11 Case remain open following the Effective Date, as closed, and all contested matters relating to any of the Debtors, including objections to Claims or Interests and any adversary proceedings, may be administered and heard in the Chapter 11 Case of Voyager Digital, LLC, or any other Debtor identified in the Restructuring Transactions Memorandum as having its Chapter 11 Case remain open following the Effective Date, irrespective of whether such Claims or Interests were Filed or such adversary proceeding was commenced against a Debtor whose Chapter 11 Case was closed.

ARTICLE V.

TREATMENT OF EXECUTORY CONTRACTS AND UNEXPIRED LEASES

A. Assumption and Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases

On the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided herein, each Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease not previously rejected, assumed, or assumed and assigned, including any employee benefit plans, severance plans, and other Executory Contracts under which employee obligations arise, shall be deemed automatically rejected pursuant to sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code, unless such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease: (1) is specifically described in the Plan as to be assumed in connection with confirmation of the Plan, or is specifically scheduled to be assumed or assumed and assigned pursuant to the Plan or the Plan Supplement; (2) is subject to a pending motion to assume such Unexpired Lease or Executory Contract as of the Effective Date; (3) is to be assumed by the Debtors or assumed by the Debtors and assigned to another third party, as applicable, in connection with the Sale Transaction; (4) is a contract, instrument, release, indenture, or other agreement or document entered into in connection with the Plan; or (5) is a D&O Liability Insurance Policy other than the Side-A Policy. Entry of the Confirmation Order by the Bankruptcy Court shall constitute approval of such assumptions, assignments, and rejections, including the assumption of the Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases as provided in the Plan Supplement, pursuant to sections 365(a) and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code.

B. Preexisting Obligations to the Debtors Under Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases

Rejection of any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease pursuant to the Plan or otherwise shall not constitute a termination of preexisting obligations owed to the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, under such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease. Without limiting the general nature of the foregoing, and notwithstanding any non-bankruptcy law to the contrary, the Debtors and Wind-Down Debtor expressly reserve and do not waive any right to receive, or any continuing obligation of a counterparty to provide, warranties or continued maintenance obligations on goods previously purchased by the Debtors contracting from non-Debtor counterparties to any rejected Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease.

C. Claims Based on Rejection of Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases

Counterparties to Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases listed subject to rejection under the Plan shall be served with a notice of rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases with the Plan Supplement. Unless otherwise provided by a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court, all Proofs of Claim with respect to Claims arising from the rejection of Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases, pursuant to the Plan or the Confirmation Order, if any, must be Filed with the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent and served on the Debtors or Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, no later than thirty days after the date of entry of an order of the Bankruptcy Court (including the Confirmation Order) approving such rejection. Any Claims arising from the rejection of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease not Filed with the Bankruptcy Court within such time will be automatically disallowed, forever barred from assertion, and shall not be enforceable against the Debtors, or the Wind-Down Debtor, the Estates, or their property without the need for any objection by the Wind-Down Debtor or further notice to, or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court or any other Entity, and any Claim arising out of the rejection of the Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease shall be deemed released, and be subject to the permanent injunction set forth in Article VIII.D of the Plan, including any Claims against any Debtor listed on the Debtors' schedules as unliquidated, contingent, or disputed. All Allowed Claims arising from the rejection by any Debtor of any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease shall be treated as General Unsecured Claims in accordance with Article III.C of the Plan.

D. Cure of Defaults for Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases Assumed

The Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, or the Purchaser, as applicable pursuant to the Asset Purchase Agreement, shall pay Cures, if any, on the Effective Date. The Debtors shall provide notice of the amount and timing of payment of any such Cure to the parties to the applicable assumed Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases as part of the Plan Supplement. Unless otherwise agreed upon in writing by the parties to the applicable Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, all requests for payment of Cure that differ from the ordinary course amounts paid or proposed to be paid by the Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, or the Purchaser shall be dealt with in the ordinary course of business and, if needed, shall be Filed with the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent on or before thirty days after the Effective Date. If any counterparty to an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease does not receive a notice of assumption and applicable cure amount, such counterparty shall have until on or before thirty days after the Effective Date to bring forth and File a request for payment of Cure. Any such request that is not timely Filed shall be disallowed and forever barred, estopped, and enjoined from assertion, and shall not be enforceable against any Debtor or the Wind-Down Debtor, without the need for any objection by the Wind-Down Debtor or any other party in interest or any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court. Any Cure shall be deemed fully satisfied and released upon payment by the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor or the Purchaser of the Cure in the ordinary course of business or upon and in accordance with any resolution of a Cure dispute (whether by order of the Bankruptcy Court or through settlement with the applicable Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease counterparty); provided, however, that nothing herein shall prevent the Wind-Down Debtor or the Purchaser, as applicable, from paying any Cure Claim despite the failure of the relevant counterparty to File such request for payment of such Cure. The Wind-Down Debtor or the Purchaser may also settle any Cure Claim without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court. In addition, any objection to the assumption of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease under the Plan must be Filed with the Bankruptcy Court on or before thirty days after the Effective Date. Any such objection will be scheduled to be heard by the Bankruptcy Court at the Debtors' first scheduled omnibus hearing for which such objection is timely Filed. Any counterparty to an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease that fails to timely object to the proposed assumption of any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease will be deemed to have consented to such assumption.

In the event of a dispute regarding: (1) the amount of any Cure Claim, (2) the ability of the Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, Purchaser, or any assignee to provide "adequate assurance of future performance" (within the meaning of section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code) under the Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease to be assumed (or assumed and assigned, as applicable), or (3) any other matter pertaining to assumption or assignment, then any disputed Cure payments required by section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code shall be made as soon as reasonably practicable following, and in accordance with, the entry of a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court resolving such dispute or as may be agreed upon by the Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, or Purchaser, as applicable, and the counterparty to the Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, and any such unresolved dispute shall not prevent or delay implementation of the Plan or the occurrence of the Effective Date.

Assumption of any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease pursuant to the Plan or otherwise or assignment of any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease to the Purchaser and full payment of any applicable Cure pursuant to this Article V.D, or upon and in accordance with any resolution of a Cure dispute (whether by order of the Bankruptcy Court or through settlement with the applicable Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease counterparty), shall result in the full release and satisfaction of any Cures, Claims, or defaults, whether monetary or nonmonetary, including defaults of provisions restricting the change in control or ownership interest composition or other bankruptcy-related defaults, arising under any assumed Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease at any time prior to the effective date of assumption. Any and all Proofs of Claim based upon Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases that have been assumed or assumed and assigned in the Chapter 11 Cases, including pursuant to the Confirmation Order, and for which any Cure has been fully paid pursuant to this Article V.D, in the amount and at the time in the ordinary course of business or upon and in accordance with any resolution of a Cure dispute (whether by order of the Bankruptcy Court or through settlement with the applicable Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease counterparty), shall be deemed disallowed and expunged as of the Effective Date without the need for any objection thereto or any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court. For the avoidance of doubt, in the event that any counterparty to an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease receives a notice of assumption and applicable proposed Cure amount, and disputes the Debtors' proposed Cure amount, such party shall not be required to File a Proof of Claim with respect to such dispute. Any counterparty to an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease that does not receive a notice or applicable proposed Cure amount, and believes a Cure amount is owed, shall have thirty days after the Effective Date to File a Proof of Claim with respect to such alleged Cure amount, which Claim shall not be expunged until such Cure dispute is resolved.

E. Insurance Policies

Each D&O Liability Insurance Policy (including, without limitation, any "tail policy" and all agreements, documents, or instruments related thereto) other than the Side-A Policy shall be assumed, in their entirety, without the need for any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court, as of the Effective Date, pursuant to sections 105 and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code with the Wind-Down Debtor being authorized to pursue any proceeds thereof on behalf of the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor. The Side-A Policy shall ride through these Chapter 11 Cases with the Debtors, and the Wind-Down Debtor preserves all avoidance and other actions in connection with the premium paid thereunder. All beneficiaries under the D&O Insurance Policies reserve their rights under such D&O Insurance Policies subject to the limitations set forth in this Plan.

The Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, shall not terminate or otherwise reduce the coverage under any D&O Liability Insurance Policy (including, without limitation, any "tail policy" and all agreements, documents, or instruments related thereto) in effect prior to the Effective Date, and any current and former directors, officers, managers, and employees of the Debtors who served in such capacity at any time before or after the Effective Date shall be entitled to the full benefits of any such policy for the full term of such policy subject to the terms thereof regardless of whether such directors, officers, managers, and employees remain in such positions after the Effective Date. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan, the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor shall retain the ability to supplement such D&O Liability Insurance Policy as the Debtors or Wind-Down Debtor may deem necessary, subject to the prior written consent of the Wind-Down Debtor. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Plan, the Wind-Down Debtor shall be entitled to pursue avoidance of the premium paid for the XL Specialty Insurance Company Cornerstone A-Side Management Liability Insurance Policy No. ELU184179-22, and nothing in this Plan shall be deemed a waiver or abrogation of any such rights.

The Debtors shall continue to satisfy their obligations under their insurance policies in full and continue such policies in the ordinary course of business. Each of the Debtors' insurance policies, and any agreements, documents, or instruments relating thereto shall be treated as Executory Contracts under the Plan. On the Effective Date: (a) the Debtors shall be deemed to have assumed all such insurance policies and any agreements, documents, and instruments relating thereto in their entirety; and (b) such insurance policies and any agreements, documents, or instruments relating thereto shall revert in the applicable Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor unaltered.

F. Reservation of Rights

Nothing contained in the Plan or the Plan Supplement (unless otherwise explicitly provided) shall constitute an admission by the Debtors or any other party that any contract or lease is in fact an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease or that any Debtor or the Wind-Down Debtor has any liability thereunder. If there is a dispute regarding whether a contract or lease is or was executory or unexpired at the time of assumption or rejection, the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, shall have forty-five days following entry of a Final Order resolving such dispute to alter their treatment of such contract or lease, including by rejecting such contract or lease effective as of the Confirmation Date.

G. Nonoccurrence of Effective Date

In the event that the Effective Date does not occur, the Bankruptcy Court shall retain jurisdiction with respect to any request to extend the deadline for assuming or rejecting Unexpired Leases pursuant to section 365(d)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code.

H. Contracts and Leases Entered into After the Petition Date

Contracts and leases entered into after the Petition Date by any Debtor, including any Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases assumed under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, will be performed by the applicable Debtor or Wind-Down Debtor liable thereunder in the ordinary course of its business. Such contracts and leases that are not rejected under the Plan shall survive and remain unaffected by entry of the Confirmation Order.

ARTICLE VI.

PROVISIONS GOVERNING DISTRIBUTIONS

A. Timing and Calculation of Amounts to Be Distributed

Except (1) as otherwise provided herein, (2) upon a Final Order, or (3) as otherwise agreed to by the Debtors, the Purchaser, or the Wind-Down Debtor, as the case may be, and the Holder of the applicable Claim, on the Effective Date or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter (or if a Claim is not an Allowed Claim on the Effective Date, on the next Distribution Date after such Claim becomes, as applicable, an Allowed Claim, or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter), each Holder of an Allowed Claim shall receive the full amount of distributions that the Plan provides for Allowed Claims in the applicable Class from the Distribution Agent. In the event that any payment or distribution under the Plan is required to be made or performed on a date that is not a Business Day, then the making of such payment or distribution may be completed on the next succeeding Business Day, but shall be deemed to have been completed as of the required date. Except as specifically provided in the Plan, Holders of Claims shall not be entitled to interest, dividends, or accruals on the distributions provided for in the Plan, regardless of whether such distributions are delivered on or at any time after the Effective Date.

B. Rights and Powers of Distribution Agent

1. Powers of the Distribution Agent

The Distribution Agent shall be empowered to: (a) effect all actions and execute all agreements, instruments, and other documents necessary to perform its duties and exercise its rights under the Plan; (b) make all distributions contemplated under the Plan; (c) employ professionals to represent it with respect to its responsibilities and powers; and (d) exercise such other powers as may be vested in the Distribution Agent by order of the Bankruptcy Court, pursuant to the Plan, or as deemed by the Distribution Agent to be necessary and proper to implement the provisions of the Plan.

2. Expenses Incurred on or after the Effective Date

Except as otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court, the amount of any reasonable fees and expenses incurred by the Distribution Agent on or after the Effective Date and any reasonable compensation and expense reimbursement claims (including reasonable attorney and/or other professional fees and expenses) made by such Distribution Agent shall be paid in Cash by the Wind-Down Debtor.

C. Delivery of Distributions and Undeliverable or Unclaimed Distributions

1. Distributions Generally

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan (including in paragraph 8 below), the Distribution Agent shall make distributions to Holders of Allowed Claims at the address for each such Holder as indicated on the applicable register or in the Debtors' records as of the date of any such distribution (as applicable), including the address set forth in any Proof of Claim filed by that Holder.

2. Distributions on Account of Obligations of Multiple Debtors

For all purposes associated with distributions under the Plan, all guarantees by any Debtor of the obligations of any other Debtor, as well as any joint and several liability of any Debtor with respect to any other Debtor, shall be deemed eliminated so that any obligation that could otherwise be asserted against more than one Debtor shall result in a single distribution under the Plan. Any such Claims shall be subject to all potential objections, defenses, and counterclaims, and to estimation pursuant to section 502(c) of the Bankruptcy Code.

3. Record Date of Distributions

On the Distribution Record Date, the various transfer registers for each Class of Claims or Interests as maintained by the Debtors or their respective agents shall be deemed closed, and there shall be no further changes in the record Holders of any Claims or Interests. The Distribution Agent shall have no obligation to recognize any transfer of Claims or Interests occurring on or after the Distribution Record Date. In addition, with respect to payment of any Cure amounts or disputes over any Cure amounts, neither the Debtors nor the Distribution Agent shall have any obligation to recognize or deal with any party other than the non-Debtor party to the applicable Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease as of the Effective Date, even if such non-Debtor party has sold, assigned, or otherwise transferred its Claim for a Cure amount.

4. Special Rules for Distributions to Holders of Disputed Claims and Interests

Notwithstanding any provision otherwise in the Plan and except as otherwise agreed to by the Wind-Down Debtor, on the one hand, and the Holder of a Disputed Claim or Interest, on the other hand, or as set forth in a Final Order, no partial payments and no partial distributions shall be made with respect to a Disputed Claim or Interest until all of the Disputed Claim or Interest has become an Allowed Claim or Interest or has otherwise been resolved by settlement or Final Order; provided that, if the Wind-Down Debtor does not dispute a portion of an amount asserted pursuant to an otherwise Disputed Claim or Interest, the Distribution Agent may make a partial distribution on account of that portion of such Claim or Interest that is not Disputed at the time and in the manner that the Distribution Agent makes distributions to similarly situated Holders of Allowed Claims or Interests pursuant to the Plan. Any dividends or other distributions arising from property distributed to Holders of Allowed Claims or Interests, as applicable, in a Class and paid to such Holders under the Plan shall also be paid, in the applicable amounts, to any Holder of a Disputed Claim or Interest, as applicable, in such Class that becomes an Allowed Claim or Interest after the date or dates that such dividends or other distributions were earlier paid to Holders of Allowed Claims or Interests in such Class.

5. De Minimis Distributions; Minimum Distributions

The Distribution Agent shall not make any Cash distributions to any Holder of an Allowed Claim or Interest pursuant to Article III.C.1-11 of this Plan on account of such Allowed Claim or Interest if such distribution is valued, in the reasonable discretion of the Distribution Agent, at less than $1.00, and each Holder of an Allowed Claim or Interest to which this limitation applies shall not be entitled to any distributions under the Plan. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Plan, there shall be no minimum distribution threshold on account of distributions of any Cryptocurrency to Holders of Allowed Account Holder Claims and Allowed OpCo General Unsecured Claims.

6. Undeliverable Distributions and Unclaimed Property

In the event that either (a) a distribution to any Holder is returned as undeliverable or (b) the Holder of an Allowed Claim or Interest does not respond to a request by the Debtors or the Distribution Agent for information necessary to facilitate a particular distribution, no distribution to such Holder shall be made unless and until the Distribution Agent has determined the then-current address of such Holder or received the necessary information to facilitate a particular distribution, at which time such distribution shall be made to such Holder without interest, dividends, or other accruals of any kind; provided that such distributions shall be deemed unclaimed property under section 347(b) of the Bankruptcy Code on the date that is one year after the Effective Date. After such date, all unclaimed property or interests in property shall revert to the Wind-Down Debtor automatically and without need for a further order by the Bankruptcy Court (notwithstanding any applicable local, state, federal, or foreign escheat, abandoned, or unclaimed property laws to the contrary), and the Claim or Interest of any Holder to such property or interest in property shall not be entitled to any distributions under the Plan.

7. Manner of Payment Pursuant to the Plan

At the option of the Distribution Agent, any Cash payment to be made hereunder may be made by check, wire transfer, automated clearing house, credit card, or as otherwise provided in applicable agreements.

8. Distributions of Net Owed Coins; Additional Bankruptcy Distributions

As a general matter, the Purchaser will allocate each Account Holder's Net Owed Coins to its account on the Binance.US Platform, and each Holder of OpCo General Unsecured Claim's Pro Rata share of the Distributable Cryptocurrency (in Cash) to its account on the Binance.US Platform in accordance with, and subject to, the provisions of Section 6.12 of the Asset Purchase Agreement.

Subject to the terms of the Asset Purchase Agreement, the Purchaser may make Additional Bankruptcy Distributions to Transferred Creditors, including Distributable OpCo Cash and/or other Wind-Down Debtor Assets, corresponding to their Pro Rata shares of such Additional Bankruptcy Distribution (if such Additional Bankruptcy Distribution is in Cryptocurrency, based on the Transferred Cryptocurrency Value of the Cryptocurrency included in such Additional Bankruptcy Distribution), all in accordance with any applicable Post-Bankruptcy Statement (as defined in the Asset Purchase Agreement).

If any Account Holder or Holder of an Allowed OpCo General Unsecured Claim does not become a Transferred Creditor prior to the date that is three (3) months following the later of the Closing Date or the date on which the terms and conditions for the Binance.US Platform are made available for such Person to accept (as provided in the Customer Onboarding Protocol), then Purchaser shall convert any Cryptocurrency allocable to such Person into U.S. Dollars at the then-prevailing rates (including applicable fees, spreads, costs and expenses) on the Binance.US Platform and deliver such U.S. Dollars, together with any cash or others assets in respect of such Persons, to the Debtors within five (5) Business Days, for further distribution by the Debtors in accordance with this Plan and the Customer Onboarding Protocol.

If any Account Holder or Holder of an Allowed OpCo General Unsecured Claim is located in an Unsupported Jurisdiction (as defined in the Asset Purchase Agreement), then the Net Owed Coins, Distributable Cryptocurrency (in Cash) and Additional Bankruptcy Distributions, if applicable, allocable to such Person shall be handled pursuant to Section 6.12(b) or, if applicable, Section 6.14(d) of the Asset Purchase Agreement.

Purchaser shall have no responsibility to make any distributions other than as contemplated by Sections 6.12 and 6.14 of the Asset Purchase Agreement.

D. Compliance Matters

In connection with the Plan, to the extent applicable, the Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, any Distribution Agent, and any other applicable withholding and reporting agents shall comply with all tax withholding and reporting requirements imposed on them by any Governmental Unit, and all distributions pursuant to the Plan shall be subject to such withholding and reporting requirements. Notwithstanding any provision in the Plan to the contrary, the Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, the Distribution Agent, and any other applicable withholding and reporting agents shall be authorized to take all actions necessary or appropriate to comply with such withholding and reporting requirements, including wind-down a portion of the distribution to be made under the Plan to generate sufficient funds to pay applicable withholding taxes, withholding distributions pending receipt of information necessary to facilitate such distributions, or establishing any other mechanisms that are reasonable and appropriate; provided that the Wind-Down Debtor and the Distribution Agent, as applicable, shall request appropriate documentation from the applicable distributees and allow such distributees a reasonable amount of time to respond. The Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, the Distribution Agent, and any other applicable withholding and reporting agents reserve the right to allocate all distributions made under the Plan in compliance with all applicable wage garnishments, alimony, child support, and other spousal awards, liens, and encumbrances.

E. Foreign Currency Exchange Rate

Except as otherwise provided in a Bankruptcy Court order, as of the Effective Date, any Claim, asserted in government issued currency (for the avoidance of doubt, not including any Cryptocurrency) other than U.S. dollars shall be automatically deemed converted to the equivalent U.S. dollar value using the exchange rate for the applicable currency as published in The Wall Street Journal, National Edition, on the Effective Date.

F. Claims Paid or Payable by Third Parties

1. Claims Paid by Third Parties

The Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, shall reduce a Claim or Interest, and such Claim or Interest (or portion thereof) shall be disallowed without an objection to such Claim or Interest having to be Filed and without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court, to the extent that the Holder of such Claim or Interest receives a payment on account of such Claim or Interest from a party that is not a Debtor or Wind-Down Debtor (or other Distribution Agent), as applicable, including any payments made in connection with the Sale Transaction. To the extent a Holder of a Claim or Interest receives a distribution on account of such Claim or Interest and receives payment from a party that is not a Debtor or a Wind-Down Debtor (or other Distribution Agent), including payments made in connection with the Sale Transaction, as applicable, on account of such Claim or Interest, such Holder shall, within ten Business Days of receipt thereof, repay, return, or deliver any distribution held by or transferred to the Holder to the applicable Wind-Down Debtor to the extent the Holder's total recovery on account of such Claim or Interest from the third party and under the Plan exceeds the amount of such Claim or Interest as of the date of any such distribution under the Plan. The failure of such Holder to timely repay, return, or deliver such distribution shall result in the Holder owing the applicable Wind-Down Debtor annualized interest at the Federal Judgment Rate on such amount owed for each Business Day after the ten-Business Day grace period specified above until the amount is repaid.

2. Claims Payable by Third Parties

No distributions under the Plan shall be made on account of an Allowed Claim or Interest that is payable pursuant to one of the Debtors' insurance policies until the Holder of such Allowed Claim or Interest has exhausted all remedies with respect to such insurance policy. To the extent that one or more of the Debtors' insurers agrees to satisfy in full or in part a Claim or Interest (if and to the extent adjudicated by a court of competent jurisdiction or otherwise settled), then immediately upon such payment, such Claim or Interest may be expunged or reduced on the Claims Register by the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent to the extent of any such payment without an objection to such Claim or Interest having to be Filed and without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

3. Applicability of Insurance Policies

Except as otherwise provided herein, payments to Holders of Claims or Interests shall be in accordance with the provisions of any applicable insurance policy. Nothing contained in the Plan shall constitute or be deemed a release, settlement, satisfaction, compromise, or waiver of any rights, defenses, or Cause of Action that the Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor or any other Entity may hold against any other Entity, including insurers, under any policies of insurance, agreements related thereto, or applicable indemnity, nor shall anything contained herein constitute or be deemed a waiver by such insurers of any rights or defenses, including coverage defenses, held by such insurers under the applicable insurance policies, agreements related thereto, and applicable non-bankruptcy law.

G. Setoffs and Recoupment

Except as otherwise expressly provided for herein, each Debtor, the Wind-Down Debtor, or such Entity's designee as instructed by such Debtor, the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, may, pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code (including section 553 of the Bankruptcy Code), applicable non-bankruptcy law, or as may be agreed to by the Holder of a Claim, set off against or recoup from an Allowed Claim and any distributions to be made pursuant to the Plan on account of such Allowed Claim, any Claims, rights, and Causes of Action of any nature whatsoever that the Debtor or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, may have against the Holder of such Allowed Claim, to the extent such Claims, rights, or Causes of Action have not been otherwise compromised, settled, or released on or prior to the Effective Date (whether pursuant to the Plan or otherwise). Notwithstanding the foregoing, except as expressly stated in Article VIII of this Plan, neither the failure to effect such a setoff or recoupment nor the allowance of any Claim pursuant to the Plan shall constitute a waiver or release by the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor of any such Claims, rights, or Causes of Action the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor may possess against such Holder.

H. Allocation between Principal and Accrued Interest

Except as otherwise provided herein, the aggregate consideration paid to Holders with respect to their Allowed Claims shall be treated pursuant to the Plan as allocated first to the principal amount of such Allowed Claims (to the extent thereof and as determined for federal income tax purposes) and second, to the extent the consideration exceeds the principal amount of the Allowed Claims, to the remaining portion of such Allowed Claim if any.

ARTICLE VII.

PROCEDURES FOR RESOLVING DISPUTED, CONTINGENT, AND UNLIQUIDATED CLAIMS AND INTERESTS

A. Disputed Claims Process

After the Effective Date, the Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, and any party-in-interest, shall have and retain any and all rights and defenses the applicable Debtor had with respect to any Claim or Interest immediately before the Effective Date. Except as expressly provided in the Plan or in any order entered in the Chapter 11 Cases before the Effective Date (including the Confirmation Order), no Claim or Interest shall become an Allowed Claim or Interest unless and until such Claim or Interest is deemed Allowed under the Plan or the Bankruptcy Code, or the Bankruptcy Court has entered a Final Order, including the Confirmation Order (when it becomes a Final Order), in the Chapter 11 Cases allowing such Claim or Interest. If a Holder of a Claim or Interest in Class disputes the amount of their Claim or Interest as listed in the Schedules, the Holder should notify the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor of such dispute. If the Debtors and the Holder agree to an amended Claim amount prior to the Effective Date, the Debtors shall file amended Schedules prior to the Effective Date. If between the Confirmation Date and the Effective Date, the dispute cannot be consensually resolved, the Holder may seek (by letter to the Court) to have the claim or interest dispute resolved before the Bankruptcy Court (and, with the consent of the Debtors, before any other court or tribunal with jurisdiction over the parties). After the Effective Date, the creditor may seek to have the claim dispute resolved before the Bankruptcy Court or any other court or tribunal with jurisdiction over the parties.

Notwithstanding anything in this Plan to the contrary: (1) all Claims against the Debtors that result from the Debtors' rejection of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease; (2) Claims filed to dispute the amount of any proposed Cure pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code; and (3) Claims that the Debtors seek to have determined by the Bankruptcy Court, shall in all cases be determined by the Bankruptcy Court, if not otherwise resolved through settlement with the applicable claimant.

On the Effective Date, the Debtors or Plan Administrator, as applicable, may establish one or more accounts or funds to hold and dispose of certain assets, pursue certain litigation (including the Causes of Action preserved under the Plan or otherwise vesting in the Wind-Down Debtor), and/or satisfy certain Claims (including Claims that are contingent or have not yet been Allowed). For any such account or fund, the Debtors or the Plan Administrator, as applicable, may take the position that grantor trust treatment applies in whole or in part. To the extent such treatment applies to any such account or fund, for all U.S. federal income tax purposes, the beneficiaries of any such account or fund would be treated as grantors and owners thereof, and it is intended, to the extent reasonably practicable, that any such account or fund would be classified as a liquidating trust under section 301.7701-4 of the Treasury Regulations. Alternatively, any such account or fund may be subject to the tax rules that apply to “disputed ownership funds” under 26 C.F.R. 1.468B-9. If such rules apply, such assets would be subject to entity-level taxation, and the Debtors and the Wind-Down Debtor would be required to comply with the relevant rules.

B. Objections to Claims or Interests

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan, after the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Debtor shall have the sole authority on behalf of the Debtors to: (1) File, withdraw, or litigate to judgment, any objections to Claims or Interests; and (2) settle or compromise any Disputed Claim or Interest without any further notice to or action, order, or approval by the Bankruptcy Court. For the avoidance of doubt, except as otherwise provided herein, from and after the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Debtor shall have and retain any and all rights and defenses each such Debtor had immediately prior to the Effective Date with respect to any Disputed Claim or Interest, including the Causes of Action retained pursuant to Article IV.P of the Plan.

Any objections to Claims or Interests shall be Filed on or before the Claims Objection Bar Date. For the avoidance of doubt, any party may object to any Claims or Interests prior to the Claims Objection Bar Date. Further, the Bankruptcy Court may extend the time period to object to Claims or Interests set forth in this paragraph at any time, including before or after the expiration of one hundred eighty days after the Effective Date, in its discretion or upon request by the Debtors or any party in interest.

C. Estimation of Claims

Before or after the Effective Date, the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, may (but are not required to), at any time, request that the Bankruptcy Court estimate any Disputed Claim or Interest that is contingent or unliquidated pursuant to applicable law, including pursuant to section 502(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, for any reason, regardless of whether any party previously has objected to such Disputed Claim or Interest or whether the Bankruptcy Court has ruled on any such objection, and the Bankruptcy Court shall retain jurisdiction under sections 157 and 1334 of the Judicial Code to estimate any such Disputed Claim or Interest, including during the litigation of any objection to any Disputed Claim or Interest or during the pendency of any appeal relating to such objection. Notwithstanding any provision otherwise in the Plan, a Disputed Claim or Interest that has been expunged from the Claims Register, but that either is subject to appeal or has not been the subject of a Final Order, shall be deemed to be estimated at zero dollars, unless otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court. In the event that the Bankruptcy Court estimates any contingent or unliquidated Claim or Interest, that estimated amount shall constitute a maximum limitation on such Claim or Interest for all purposes under the Plan (including for purposes of distributions) and may be used as evidence in any supplemental proceedings, and the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor may elect to pursue any supplemental proceedings to object to any ultimate distribution on such Claim. Notwithstanding section 502(j) of the Bankruptcy Code, in no event shall any Holder of a Disputed Claim or Interest that has been estimated pursuant to section 502(c) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise be entitled to seek reconsideration of such estimation unless such Holder has Filed a motion requesting the right to seek such reconsideration on or before fourteen days after the date on which such Disputed Claim or Interest is estimated.

D. No Distributions Pending Allowance

Notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan, if any portion of a Claim or Interest is a Disputed Claim or Interest, no payment or distribution provided hereunder shall be made on account of such Claim or Interest unless and until such Disputed Claim or Interest becomes an Allowed Claim or Interest; provided that if only a portion of a Claim or Interest is Disputed, such Claim or Interest shall be deemed Allowed in the amount not Disputed and payment or distribution shall be made on account of such undisputed amount.

E. Distributions After Allowance

To the extent that a Disputed Claim or Interest ultimately becomes an Allowed Claim, distributions (if any) shall be made to the Holder of such Allowed Claim or Interest in accordance with the provisions of the Plan. As soon as reasonably practicable after the date that the order or judgment of the Bankruptcy Court Allowing any Disputed Claim or Interest becomes a Final Order, the Distribution Agent shall provide to the Holder of such Allowed Claim or Interest the distribution (if any) to which such Holder is entitled under the Plan as of the Effective Date, without any interest, dividends, or accruals to be paid on account of such Allowed Claim or Interest unless required under applicable bankruptcy law.

F. No Interest

Unless otherwise specifically provided for herein or by Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court, postpetition interest shall not accrue or be paid on Claims against the Debtors, and no Holder of a Claim against the Debtors shall be entitled to interest accruing on or after the Petition Date on any such Claim. Additionally, and without limiting the foregoing, interest shall not accrue or be paid on any Disputed Claim with respect to the period from the Effective Date to the date a final distribution is made on account of such Disputed Claim, if and when such Disputed Claim becomes an Allowed Claim.

G. Adjustment to Claims and Interests without Objection

Any Claim or Interest that has been paid, satisfied, amended, superseded, cancelled, or otherwise expunged (including pursuant to the Plan) may be adjusted or expunged on the Claims Register at the direction of the Wind-Down Debtor without the Wind-Down Debtor having to File an application, motion, complaint, objection, or any other legal proceeding seeking to object to such Claim or Interest and without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court. Additionally, any Claim or Interest that is duplicative or redundant with another Claim or Interest against the same Debtor may be adjusted or expunged on the Claims Register at the direction of the Wind-Down Debtor without the Wind-Down Debtor having to File an application, motion, complaint, objection, or any other legal proceeding seeking to object to such Claim or Interest and without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

H. Time to File Objections to Claims

Any objections to Claims shall be Filed on or before the Claims Objection Bar Date.

I. Disallowance of Claims or Interests

Any Claims or Interests held by Entities from which property is recoverable under sections 542, 543, 550, or 553 of the Bankruptcy Code or that is a transferee of a transfer avoidable under sections 522(f), 522(h), 544, 545, 547, 548, 549, or 724(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, shall be deemed disallowed pursuant to section 502(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, and Holders of such Claims may not receive any distributions on account of such Claims or Interests until such time as such Causes of Action against that Entity have been settled or a Bankruptcy Court order with respect thereto has been entered and all sums due, if any, to the Debtors by that Entity have been turned over or paid to the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable.

Except as otherwise provided herein or as agreed to by the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, any and all Proofs of Claim Filed after the Bar Date shall be deemed disallowed and expunged as of the Effective Date subject to the approval of the Bankruptcy Court, and Holders of such Claims may not receive any distributions on account of such Claims, unless such late Proof of Claim has been deemed timely Filed by a Final Order.

J. Amendments to Proofs of Claim

On or after the Effective Date, except as provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, a Proof of Claim or Proof of Interest may not be Filed or amended without the prior authorization of the Bankruptcy Court or the Wind-Down Debtor, and any such new or amended Proof of Claim or Proof of Interest Filed shall be deemed disallowed in full and expunged without any further action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

ARTICLE VIII.

EFFECT OF CONFIRMATION OF THE PLAN

A. Releases by the Debtors

Notwithstanding anything contained in the Plan to the contrary, on and after the Effective Date, in exchange for good and valuable consideration, the adequacy of which is hereby confirmed, each Released Party is hereby conclusively, absolutely, unconditionally, irrevocably, and forever released and discharged by each and all of the Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, and their Estates, and in each case on behalf of themselves and their respective successors, assigns, and representatives, who may purport to assert any Cause of Action, directly or derivatively, by, through, for, or because of, the foregoing Entities, from any and all Causes of Action, including any derivative claims, asserted or assertable on behalf of any of the Debtors, whether known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, matured or unmatured, existing or hereafter arising, in law, equity, contract, tort, or otherwise, that the Debtors would have been legally entitled to assert in their own right (whether individually or collectively) or on behalf of the Holder of any Claim against, or Interest in, a Debtor, based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors (including the management, ownership, or operation thereof), their capital structure, the purchase, sale, or rescission of the purchase or sale of any Security of the Debtors, the subject matter of, or the transactions or events giving rise to, any Claim or Interest that is treated in the Plan, the business or contractual arrangements between any Debtor and any Released Party, the Chapter 11 Cases and related adversary proceedings, the Debtors' out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among a Debtor and another Debtor, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, filing, or consummation of the Definitive Documents or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Definitive Documents, the pursuit of consummation of the Plan, the administration and implementation of the Restructuring Transactions or upon any other act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence related to the Debtors taking place on or before the Effective Date.

Entry of the Confirmation Order shall constitute the Bankruptcy Court's approval, pursuant to section 1123(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 9019, of the releases described in this Article VIII.A by the Debtors, which includes by reference each of the related provisions and definitions contained in this Plan, and further, shall constitute the Bankruptcy Court's finding that each release described in this Article VIII.A is: (1) in exchange for the good and valuable consideration provided by the Released Parties; (2) a good-faith settlement and compromise of such Causes of Action; (3) in the best interests of the Debtors and all Holders of Claims and Interests; (4) fair, equitable, and reasonable; (5) given and made after due notice and opportunity for hearing; (6) a sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment; and (7) except to the extent contemplated by Article IV.E and Article IV.F of the Plan, a bar to any of the Debtors or Wind-Down Debtor or their respective Estates asserting any Cause of Action related thereto, of any kind, against any of the Released Parties or their property.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, nothing in this Plan shall release, waive, or otherwise limit the (i) rights, duties, or obligations of the Purchaser under the Asset Purchase Agreement or the Definitive Documents and (ii) the Non-Released D&O Claims, but such Non-Released D&O Claims shall remain subject to the limitations contained in Article IV.E and Article IV.F of this Plan.

B. Releases by Holders of Claims and Interests

Except as expressly set forth in the Plan, effective on the Effective Date, in exchange for good and valuable consideration, the adequacy of which is hereby confirmed, each Released Party is hereby conclusively, absolutely, unconditionally, irrevocably, and forever released and discharged by each and all of the Releasing Parties, in each case on behalf of themselves and their respective successors, assigns, and representatives, from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, matured or unmatured, existing or hereafter arising, in law, equity, contract, tort, or otherwise, including any derivative claims asserted or assertable on behalf of any of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert in its own right (whether individually or collectively or on behalf of the Holder of any Claim against, or Interest in, a Debtor or other Entity), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors (including the management, ownership, or operation thereof), their capital structure, the purchase, sale, or rescission of the purchase or sale of any security of the Debtors, the subject matter of, or the transactions or events giving rise to, any Claim or Interest that is treated in the Plan, the business or contractual arrangements between any Debtor and any Released Party, the Debtors' out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among a Debtor and another Debtor, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, filing, or consummation of the Definitive Documents or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Definitive Documents, the pursuit of consummation of the Plan, the administration and implementation of the Restructuring Transactions, or upon any other act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence related to the Debtors taking place on or before the Effective Date, provided that nothing in this Article VIII.B shall be construed to release the Released Parties from actual fraud, willful misconduct, or gross negligence as determined by a Final Order.

Entry of the Confirmation Order shall constitute the Bankruptcy Court's approval, pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019, of the releases described in this Article VIII.B, which includes by reference each of the related provisions and definitions contained in this Plan, and further, shall constitute the Bankruptcy Court's finding that each release described in this Article VIII.B is: (1) in exchange for the good and valuable consideration provided by the Released Parties; (2) a good-faith settlement and compromise of such Causes of Action; (3) in the best interests of the Debtors and all Holders of Claims and Interests; (4) fair, equitable, and reasonable; (5) given and made after due notice and opportunity for hearing; (6) a sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment; and (7) except to the extent contemplated by Article IV.F and Article IV.G of the Plan, a bar to any of the Releasing Parties or the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor or their respective Estates asserting any Cause of Action related thereto, of any kind, against any of the Released Parties or their property.

C. Exculpation

Effective as of the Effective Date, to the fullest extent permissible under applicable law and without affecting or limiting either the Debtor release or the third-party release, and except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan, no Exculpated Party shall have or incur, and each Exculpated Party is exculpated from any Cause of Action for any act or omission arising on or after the Petition Date and prior to the Effective Date based on the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation or filing, or consummation of the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Special Committee Investigation, any Definitive Documents or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Disclosure Statement or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of consummation of the Plan, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance of Securities pursuant to the Plan, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement (including, for the avoidance of doubt, providing any legal opinion requested by any Entity regarding any transaction, contract, instrument, document, or other agreement contemplated by the Plan or the reliance by any Exculpated Party on the Plan or the Confirmation Order in lieu of such legal opinion), except for Causes of Action related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order of a court of competent jurisdiction to have constituted actual fraud, willful misconduct, or gross negligence, but in all respects such Entities shall be entitled to reasonably rely upon the advice of counsel with respect to their duties and responsibilities pursuant to the Plan.

The Exculpated Parties have, and upon Consummation of the Plan shall be deemed to have, participated in good faith and in compliance with the applicable laws with regard to the solicitation of votes and distribution of consideration pursuant to the Plan and, therefore, are not, and on account of such distributions shall not be, liable at any time for the violation of any applicable law, rule, or regulation governing the solicitation of acceptances or rejections of the Plan or such distributions made pursuant to the Plan

D. Injunction

The assets of the Debtors and of the Wind-Down Debtor shall be used for the satisfaction of expense obligations and the payment of Claims and Interests only in the manner set forth in this Plan and shall not be available for any other purpose. All Persons and Entities who have held, hold, or may hold Claims or Interests based upon any act, omission, transaction, or other activity of any kind or nature related to the Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, or the Debtors' Chapter 11 Cases that occurred prior to the Effective Date, other than as expressly provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, shall be precluded and permanently enjoined on and after the Effective Date from interfering with the use and distribution of the Debtors' assets in the manner contemplated by the Plan.

In addition, as of the Effective Date and subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date, except as otherwise specifically provided in this Plan or the Confirmation Order, all Persons and Entities who have held, hold, or may hold Claims or Interests that are fully satisfied pursuant to the Plan or any Claim or Interest that is subject to the releases and exculpations set forth in Article VIII.B and Article VIII.C of this Plan shall be precluded and permanently enjoined on and after the Effective Date from enforcing, pursuing, or seeking any setoff or relief with respect to such Claims or Interests, except for the receipt of the payments or distributions that are contemplated by this Plan.

E. Release of Liens

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Plan Supplement, or any contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created pursuant to the Plan or Confirmation Order on the Effective Date, and concurrently with the applicable distributions made pursuant to the Plan, all mortgages, deeds of trust, Liens, pledges, or other security interests against any property of the Estates shall be fully released, settled, compromised, and discharged, and all of the right, title, and interest of any holder of such mortgages, deeds of trust, Liens, pledges, or other security interests against any property of the Debtors shall automatically revert to the applicable Debtor or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, and their successors and assigns, in each case, without any further approval or order of the Bankruptcy Court and without any action or Filing being required to be made by the Debtors. Any Holder of such Secured Claim (and the applicable agents for such Holder) shall be authorized and directed to release any collateral or other property of any Debtor (including any cash collateral and possessory collateral) held by such Holder (and the applicable agents for such Holder), and to take such actions as requested by the Debtors or Wind-Down Debtor to evidence the release of such Lien, including the execution, delivery, and filing or recording of such documents evidencing such releases. The presentation or filing of the Confirmation Order to or with any local, state, federal, or foreign agency or department shall constitute good and sufficient evidence of, but shall not be required to effect, the termination of such Liens.

F. OSC and SEC

Notwithstanding any language to the contrary herein, no provision shall (a) preclude the OSC or the SEC from enforcing its police or regulatory powers; or (b) enjoin, limit, impair or delay the OSC or SEC from commencing or continuing any claims, causes of action, proceeding, or investigations against any non-Debtor person or non-Debtor entity in any forum.

G. Protection against Discriminatory Treatment

As provided by section 525 of the Bankruptcy Code, and consistent with paragraph 2 of Article VI of the United States Constitution, no Entity, including Governmental Units, shall discriminate against any Debtor or the Wind-Down Debtor or deny, revoke, suspend, or refuse to renew a license, permit, charter, franchise, or other similar grant to, condition such a grant to, or discriminate with respect to such a grant against, any Debtor or the Wind-Down Debtor, or any Entity with which a Debtor or the Wind-Down Debtor has been or is associated, solely because such Debtor or the Wind-Down Debtor was a debtor under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code, may have been insolvent before the commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases (or during the Chapter 11 Cases but before such Debtor was granted or denied a discharge), or has not paid a debt that is dischargeable in the Chapter 11 Cases.

H. Document Retention

Upon the occurrence of the Effective Date, the Debtors' books and records shall be transferred to the Wind-Down Debtor, which shall continue to preserve all financial books and records, emails, and other financial documents relating to the Debtors' business that are currently in the Debtors' possession. The Wind-Down Debtor shall not destroy or otherwise abandon any such documents or records without providing advance notice to the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (c/o Therese Scheuer, U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, 100 F Street, NE, Washington, DC 20549, ScheuerT@SEC.GOV) and seeking further authorization from this Bankruptcy Court. Nothing in this Plan or the Confirmation Order shall affect the obligations of the pre-Effective Date Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, and/or any transferee or custodian to maintain all books and records that are subject to any governmental subpoena, document preservation letter, or other investigative request from a governmental agency.

I. Reimbursement or Contribution

If the Bankruptcy Court disallows a Claim for reimbursement or contribution of an Entity pursuant to section 502(e)(1)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code, then to the extent that such Claim is contingent as of the time of allowance or disallowance, such Claim shall be forever disallowed and expunged notwithstanding section 502(j) of the Bankruptcy Code, unless prior to the Confirmation Date: (1) such Claim has been adjudicated as non-contingent; or (2) the relevant Holder of a Claim has Filed a non-contingent Proof of Claim on account of such Claim and a Final Order has been entered prior to the Confirmation Date determining such Claim as no longer contingent.

J. Term of Injunctions or Stays

Unless otherwise provided in the Plan or in the Confirmation Order, all injunctions or stays in effect in the Chapter 11 Cases pursuant to sections 105 or 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, or any order of the Bankruptcy Court, and extant on the Confirmation Date (excluding any injunctions or stays contained in the Plan or the Confirmation Order), shall remain in full force and effect until the Effective Date. All injunctions or stays contained in the Plan or the Confirmation Order shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with their terms.

ARTICLE IX.

CONDITIONS PRECEDENT TO THE EFFECTIVE DATE

A. Conditions Precedent to the Effective Date

It shall be a condition to the Effective Date that the following conditions shall have been satisfied or waived pursuant to Article IX.B of the Plan:

1. The Bankruptcy Court shall have entered the Confirmation Order, which shall be in a form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Debtors and the Committee, and subject to the consent rights of Purchaser under the Asset Purchase Agreement, and such order shall be a Final Order and in full force and effect.
2. The Debtors shall have obtained all authorizations, consents, regulatory approvals, rulings, or documents that are necessary to implement and effectuate the Plan, Definitive Documents, and the Asset Purchase Agreement.
3. Each Definitive Document and each other document contained in any supplement to the Plan, including the Plan Supplement and any exhibits, schedules, amendments, modifications or supplements thereto or other documents contained therein, shall have been executed or Filed, as applicable, in form and substance consistent in all respects with the Plan, and subject to the Purchaser's consent rights under the Asset Purchase Agreement, and shall not have been modified in a manner inconsistent therewith;
4. The Professional Fee Escrow Account shall have been established and funded with Cash in accordance with Article II.B.2 of the Plan.
5. The Wind-Down Reserve shall have been established and funded with Cash in accordance with the Plan.

6. If prior to the Outside Date, the Asset Purchase Agreement shall be in full force and effect and the Sale Transaction shall have been consummated.
7. The Restructuring Transactions shall have been consummated or shall be anticipated to be consummated concurrently with the occurrence of the Effective Date in a manner consistent with the Plan, the Customer Onboarding Protocol, the other Definitive Documents, and the Asset Purchase Agreement, and the Plan shall have been substantially consummated or shall be anticipated to be substantially consummated concurrently with the occurrence of the Effective Date.

B. Waiver of Conditions Precedent

The Debtors, with the consent of the Committee and, solely to the extent related to the Asset Purchase Agreement and the Sale Transaction, prior to the Outside Date, the consent of Purchaser, may waive any of the conditions to the Effective Date set forth in Article IX.A of the Plan at any time, without any notice to any other parties in interest and without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court, and without any formal action other than proceeding to confirm and consummate the Plan.

C. Effect of Non-Occurrence of Conditions to Consummation

If the Effective Date does not occur within 120 days after the Confirmation Date, then the Plan will be null and void in all respects, any and all compromises or settlements not previously approved by Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court embodied in the Plan (including with respect to the fixing, limiting, or treatment of any Claim or Interest, including, without limitation, the Alameda Loan Facility Claims), shall be deemed null and void, and nothing contained in the Plan or the Disclosure Statement shall: (1) constitute a waiver or release of any Claims, Interests, or Causes of Action held by any Debtor or any other Entity; (2) prejudice in any manner the rights of any Debtor or any other Entity; or (3) constitute an admission, acknowledgment, offer, or undertaking of any sort by any Debtor or any other Entity in any respect.

ARTICLE X.

MODIFICATION, REVOCATION, OR WITHDRAWAL OF THE PLAN

A. Modification of Plan

NOW, THEREFORE, the Court having found that the notice of the Combined Hearing and the opportunity for any party in interest to object to approval of the Disclosure Statement and confirmation of the Plan were adequate and appropriate as to all parties affected or to be affected by the Plan and the transactions contemplated therein, and that the legal and factual bases set forth in the documents filed in support of approval of the Disclosure Statement and confirmation of the Plan and other evidence presented at the Combined Hearing and the record of the Chapter 11 Cases establish just cause for the relief granted herein; and after due deliberation thereon and good cause appearing therefor, the Court makes and issues the following findings of fact and conclusions of law, and orders:

FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

IT IS DETERMINED, FOUND, ADJUDGED, DECREED, AND ORDERED THAT:

A. Findings and Conclusions.

1. The findings and conclusions set forth herein and in the record of the Combined Hearing constitute the Court's findings of fact and conclusions of law under rule 52 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, as made applicable herein by Bankruptcy Rules 7052 and 9014. To the extent any of the following conclusions of law constitute findings of fact, or vice versa, they are adopted as such.

B. Jurisdiction, Venue, and Core Proceeding.

2. The Court has jurisdiction over these Chapter 11 Cases pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 and the Amended Standing Order of Reference from the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, entered February 1, 2012. The Court has exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether the Disclosure Statement and the Plan comply with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code and should be approved and confirmed, respectively. Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409. Confirmation of the Plan is a core proceeding within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2).

C. Eligibility for Relief.

3. The Debtors were and are entities eligible for relief under section 109 of the Bankruptcy Code.

D. Commencement and Joint Administration of the Chapter 11 Cases.

4. On the Petition Date, each of the Debtors commenced a voluntary case under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. In accordance with the Order (I) Directing Joint Administration of the Chapter 11 Cases and (II) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 18], these Chapter 11 Cases were consolidated for procedural purposes only and are being jointly administered pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1015. Since the Petition Date, the Debtors have operated their business and managed their property as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code.

E. Appointment of the Committee.

5. On July 19, 2022, the United States Trustee for the Southern District of New York (the “U.S. Trustee”) appointed an official committee of unsecured creditors pursuant to section 1102 of the Bankruptcy Code (the “Committee”) [Docket No. 106].

F. Judicial Notice, Objections Overruled.

6. The Court takes judicial notice of (and deems admitted into evidence for purposes of final approval of the Disclosure Statement and Confirmation of the Plan) the docket of the Chapter 11 Cases maintained by the clerk of the Court or its duly appointed agent, including all pleadings and other documents on file, all orders entered, all hearing transcripts, and all evidence and arguments made, proffered, or adduced at the hearings held before the Court during the pendency of these Chapter 11 Cases. All objections, statements, informal objections, and reservations of rights not consensually resolved, agreed to, or withdrawn, if any, related to the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, or Confirmation are overruled on the merits unless otherwise indicated in this Confirmation Order.

G. Conditional Disclosure Statement Order.

7. On January 13, 2023, the Court entered the Conditional Disclosure Statement Order [Docket No. 861], which, among other things, set (i) February 22, 2023, at 4:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) as (a) the Plan Objection Deadline and (b) the Voting Deadline and (ii) March 2, 2023, at 10:00 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) as the date and time for commencement of the Combined Hearing.

H. Adequacy of the Disclosure Statement.

8. The Disclosure Statement contains (a) sufficient information of a kind necessary to satisfy the disclosure requirements of all applicable nonbankruptcy laws, rules, and regulations, including the Securities Act, and (b) “adequate information” (as such term is defined in section 1125(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and used in section 1126(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code) with respect to the Debtors, the Plan, and the transactions contemplated therein. The filing of the Disclosure Statement with the clerk of the Court satisfied Bankruptcy Rule 3016(b), and the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, and the Solicitation Packages provided all parties-in-interest with sufficient notice regarding the settlement, release, exculpation, and injunction provisions contained in the Plan in compliance with Bankruptcy Rule 3016(c).

I. Burden of Proof—Confirmation of the Plan.

9. The Debtors, as proponents of the Plan, have met their burden of proving the applicable elements of sections 1129(a) and 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code by a preponderance of the evidence, which is the applicable evidentiary standard for Confirmation.

J. Notice.

10. The Debtors provided due, adequate, and sufficient notice of the Disclosure Statement, the Conditional Disclosure Statement Order, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, the Solicitation Packages, the Combined Hearing Notice, the proposed assumption and rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases and the proposed cure amounts, and all the other materials distributed by the Debtors in connection with Confirmation of the Plan, together with the Plan Objection Deadline, the Voting Deadline, and the Combined Hearing, and any applicable bar dates and hearings described in the Conditional Disclosure Statement Order, in compliance with the Bankruptcy Rules, Local Rules, and the procedures set forth in the Disclosure Statement Order. No other or further notice is or shall be required.

K. Solicitation.

11. Prior to the Combined Hearing, the Debtors filed the Voting Report. The Voting Report was admitted into evidence during the Combined Hearing. As described in the Voting Report, the solicitation of votes on the Plan complied with the Solicitation Procedures, was appropriate and satisfactory based upon the circumstances of these Chapter 11 Cases, and was in compliance with the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, and any other applicable rules, laws, and regulations.

12. As described in the Voting Report, following the Petition Date, the Solicitation Packages, the Plan Supplement, and the Combined Hearing Notice were transmitted and served, including to all Holders of Claims in Class 3 (Account Holder Claims), Class 4A (OpCo General Unsecured Claims), Class 4B (HoldCo General Unsecured Claims), and Class 4C (TopCo General Unsecured Claims) (collectively, the “Voting Classes”) that held a Claim as of January 10, 2023 (the date specified in such documents for the purpose of solicitation) (the “Voting Record Date”), in compliance with the Bankruptcy Code, including sections 1125 and 1126 thereof, the Bankruptcy Rules, including Bankruptcy Rules 3017 and 3018, the Local Rules, the Disclosure Statement Order, and any applicable nonbankruptcy law. Transmission and service of the Solicitation Packages and the Combined Hearing Notice were timely, adequate, and sufficient. The establishment and notice of the Voting Record Date were reasonable and sufficient. No other or further notice is required.

13. The period during which Holders in the Voting Classes were required to submit acceptances or rejections to the Plan was reasonable and sufficient for such Holders to make an informed decision to accept or reject the Plan.

14. As set forth in the Plan, Holders of Claims in the Voting Classes were eligible to vote on the Plan in accordance with the Solicitation Procedures. Holders of Claims in Class 1 (Secured Tax Claims) and Class 2 (Other Priority Claims) (collectively, the “Presumed Accepting Classes”) are Unimpaired and conclusively presumed to accept the Plan and, therefore, did not vote to accept or reject the Plan. Holders of Claims in Class 7 (Intercompany Claims) and Interests in Class 8 (Intercompany Interests) either are Unimpaired and conclusively presumed to have accepted the Plan (to the extent reinstated) or Impaired and conclusively deemed to have rejected the Plan, and, therefore, are not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan. Holders of Claims in Class 5 (Alameda Loan Facility Claims) and Class 6 (Section 510(b) Claims) and Interests in Class 9 (Existing Equity Claims) (collectively, the “Deemed Rejecting Classes”) are Impaired under the Plan and are deemed to have rejected the Plan. Nevertheless, the Debtors served Holders in such Deemed Rejecting Classes with the Plan, the Disclosure Statement, the Non-Voting Status Notice, and the Combined Hearing Notice.

L. Voting.

15. As evidenced by the Voting Report, votes to accept or reject the Plan have been solicited and tabulated fairly, in good faith, and in compliance with the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, the Conditional Disclosure Statement Order, and any applicable nonbankruptcy law, rule, or regulation.

16. As evidenced by the Voting Report, Class 3 (Account Holder Claims), Class 4A (OpCo General Unsecured Claims), Class 4B (HoldCo General Unsecured Claims), and Class 4C (TopCo General Unsecured Claims) voted to accept the Plan in accordance with section 1126 of the Bankruptcy Code.

17. Based on the foregoing, and as evidenced by the Voting Report, at least one Impaired Class of Claims (excluding the acceptance by any insiders of any of the Debtors) has voted to accept the Plan in accordance with the requirements of sections 1124 and 1126 of the Bankruptcy Code.

M. Plan Supplement.

18. The Plan Supplement complies with the Bankruptcy Code and the terms of the Plan, and the filing and notice of the documents included in the Plan Supplement are adequate and proper in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, the Conditional Disclosure Statement Order, and the facts and circumstances of the Chapter 11 Cases. No other or further notice is or will be required with respect to the Plan Supplement. All documents included in the Plan Supplement are integral to, part of, and incorporated by reference into the Plan. Subject to the terms of the Plan, compliance with the Bankruptcy Code and the Bankruptcy Rules, and, solely to the extent set forth under the Asset Purchase Agreement, consent of the Purchaser, and in a form reasonably acceptable to the Committee, the Debtors reserve the right to alter, amend, update, or modify the Plan Supplement before the Effective Date.

N. Modifications to the Plan.

19. Pursuant to section 1127 of the Bankruptcy Code, any modifications to the Plan since the commencement of Solicitation described or set forth herein constitute technical changes or changes with respect to particular Claims or Interests made pursuant to the agreement of the Holders of such Claims or Interests and do not materially and adversely affect or change the treatment of any other Claims or Interests. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 3019, these modifications do not require additional disclosure under section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code or the resolicitation of votes under section 1126 of the Bankruptcy Code, nor do they require that the Holders of Claims or Interests be afforded an opportunity to change previously cast acceptances or rejections of the Plan.

20. This Confirmation Order contains modifications to the Plan that were made to address objections and informal comments received from various parties in interest. Modifications to the Plan since the entry of the Conditional Disclosure Statement Order, if any, are consistent with the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code. The disclosure of any Plan modifications prior to or on the record at the Combined Hearing constitutes due and sufficient notice of any and all Plan modifications. The Plan as modified shall constitute the Plan submitted for Confirmation.

O. Bankruptcy Rule 3016.

21. The Plan and all modifications thereto are dated and identify the Entities submitting them, thereby satisfying Bankruptcy Rule 3016(a). The Debtors appropriately filed the Disclosure

Statement and the Plan with the Court, thereby satisfying Bankruptcy Rule 3016(b). The injunction, release, and exculpation provisions in the Disclosure Statement and the Plan describe, in bold font and with specific and conspicuous language, all acts to be enjoined and identify the entities that will be subject to the injunction, thereby satisfying Bankruptcy Rule 3016(c).

22. The Plan complies with all applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code as required by section 1129(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code.

23. The classification of Claims and Interests under the Plan is proper under the Bankruptcy Code. In accordance with sections 1122(a) and 1123(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, Article III of the Plan provides for the separate classification of Claims and Interests into eleven Classes. Valid business, factual, and legal reasons exist for the separate classification of such Classes of Claims and Interests. The classifications were not implemented for any improper purpose and do not unfairly discriminate between, or among, Holders of Claims or Interests. Each Class of Claims and Interests contains only Claims or Interests that are substantially similar to the other Claims or Interests within that Class. Accordingly, the Plan satisfies the requirements of sections 1122(a), 1122(b), and 1123(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code.

24. Article III of the Plan specifies that Claims in Class 1 (Secured Tax Claims) and Class 2 (Other Priority Claims) are Unimpaired under the Plan and Claims and Interests in Class 7 (Intercompany Claims) and Class 8 (Intercompany Interests), respectively, are either Impaired or Unimpaired under the Plan.

25. Article III of the Plan specifies that Claims in the following Classes are Unimpaired under the Plan within the meaning of section 1124 of the Bankruptcy Code:

Class	Designation
1	Secured Tax Claims
2	Other Priority Claims

26. Additionally, Article II of the Plan specifies that Allowed Administrative Claims, Allowed Professional Fee Claims, Allowed Priority Tax Claims, and all fees due and payable pursuant to section 1930 of title 28 of the United States Code before the Effective Date will be paid in full in accordance with the terms of the Plan, although these Claims are not separately classified under the Plan. Accordingly, the Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1123(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code.

(iii) Specified Treatment of Impaired Classes—Section 1123(a)(3).

27. The Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1123(a)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code. Article III of the Plan specifies that Claims and Interests, as applicable, in the following Classes (collectively, the “Impaired Classes”) are Impaired under the Plan within the meaning of section 1124 of the Bankruptcy Code, and describes the treatment of such Classes.

3	Account Holder Claims
4A	OpCo General Unsecured Claims
4B	HoldCo General Unsecured Claims
4C	TopCo General Unsecured Claims
5	Alameda Loan Facility Claims
6	Section 510(b) Claims
9	Existing Equity Interests

(iv) No Discrimination—Section 1123(a)(4).

28. The Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1123(a)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Plan provides for the same treatment by the Debtors for each Claim or Interest in each respective Class unless the Holder of a particular Claim or Interest has agreed to a less favorable treatment of such Claim or Interest.

29. The Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1123(a)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code. The provisions in Article IV and elsewhere in the Plan and the Plan Supplement, and in the exhibits and attachments to the Disclosure Statement provide, in detail, adequate and proper means for the Plan's implementation, including the: (a) effectuation of the Restructuring Transactions contemplated by the Plan, the Restructuring Transactions Memorandum, and the Customer Onboarding Protocol; (b) consummation of the Sale Transaction by the Outside Date pursuant to the Asset Purchase Agreement; (c) if the Sale Transaction is not consummated by the Outside Date pursuant to the Asset Purchase Agreement, then the effectuation of the Liquidation Transaction in accordance with the Liquidation Procedures; (d) adoption and implementation of the Employee Transition Plan; (e) retention of certain Claims or Causes of Action held by the Debtors or their Estates, which shall be assigned and transferred to the Wind-Down Debtor after the Effective Date; (f) effectuation of the terms of the D&O Settlement; (g) authorization for the Debtors and the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, to take all actions as may be necessary or appropriate to effectuate the Restructuring Transactions and any transaction described in, approved by, contemplated by, or necessary to effectuate the Plan; (h) establishment of the Wind-Down Debtor pursuant to the Plan Administrator Agreement and the transfer of the Wind-Down Debtor Assets to the Wind-Down Debtor after the Effective Date; (i) the funding and sources of consideration for the Plan distributions; and (j) settlement, satisfaction, and compromise of Claims and Interests as set forth in the Plan.

(vi) Voting Power of Equity Securities—Section 1123(a)(6).

30. Section 1123(a)(6) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that a debtor's corporate constituent documents prohibit the issuance of nonvoting equity securities. On the Effective Date the Wind-Down Debtor Assets shall, subject to the Plan Administrator Agreement, be transferred to and vest in the Wind-Down Debtor. The Wind-Down Debtor shall be managed by the Plan Administrator and shall be subject to a Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee. The Plan Administrator shall be responsible for, among other things: (a) implementing the Wind-Down Debtor, and making distributions contemplated by the Plan; (b) marshalling, marketing for sale, and winding down any of the Debtors' assets constituting Wind-Down Debtor Assets; (c) appointing an independent director at each Debtor to act as a fiduciary for such Debtor entity in connection with the resolution of the Intercompany Claims; (d) overseeing the accounts of the Debtors and the Wind-Down Debtor and the wind-down and dissolution of the Debtors and the Wind-Down Debtor, including effectuating the transactions described in the Restructuring Transactions Memorandum; (e) receiving, maintaining, conserving, supervising, prosecuting, collecting, settling, managing, investing, protecting, and where appropriate, causing the Wind-Down Debtor to abandon the Wind-Down Debtor Assets, including causing the Wind-Down Debtor to invest any moneys held as Wind-Down Debtor Assets; (f) opening and maintaining bank accounts on behalf of or in the name of the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, including, in the Plan Administrator's discretion, separate bank accounts for each of the Debtors; (g) entering into any agreement or executing any document or instrument required by or consistent with the Plan, this Confirmation Order, or the Plan Administrator Agreement, and to perform all obligations thereunder; (h) collecting and liquidating all Wind-Down Debtor Assets, including the sale of any Wind-Down Debtor Assets; (i) protecting and enforcing the rights to the Wind-Down Debtor Assets (including any Vested Causes of Action and Contributed Third-Party Claims) vested in the Wind-Down Debtor and Plan Administrator by the Plan Administrator Agreement by any method deemed appropriate, including, without limitation, by judicial proceedings or otherwise; (j) investigating any Wind-Down Debtor Assets, and any other potential Vested Causes of Action and Contributed Third-Party Claims; (k) reviewing, reconciling, compromising, settling, objecting, or prosecuting Claims or Interests of any kind; (l) seeking the examination of any Person pursuant to Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 2004; (m) retaining professionals, disbursing agents, and other agents, independent contractors, and third parties pursuant to the Plan Administrator Agreement and paying the reasonable compensation thereof; (n) paying all lawful expenses, debts, charges, taxes, and other liabilities, and making all other payments relating to the Wind-Down Debtor Assets, solely out of Wind-Down Debtor Assets; (o) prosecuting and settling the Vested Causes of Action, including, without limitation, the 3AC Claims, FTX Claims, Alameda Claims, Contributed Third-Party Claims, and any causes of action not included in the Asset Purchase Agreement or released under the Plan; (p) reviewing, reconciling, pursuing, commencing, prosecuting, compromising, settling, dismissing, releasing, waiving, withdrawing, abandoning, resolving, or electing not to pursue all Vested Causes of Action and Contributed Third-Party Claims; (q) acquiring litigation and other claims related to the Debtors, and prosecuting such claims; (r) reviewing and compelling turnover of the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor's property; (s) calculating and making all Distributions to the holders of Allowed Claims against each Debtor and, solely to the extent of payment in full of Allowed Claims, to holders of Allowed Interests, as provided for in, or contemplated by, the Plan and the Plan Administrator Agreement; provided that because the Plan does not substantively consolidate the Debtors' Estates, the Plan Administrator shall make Distributions from the Wind-Down Debtor Assets to the holders of Claims and Interests (if applicable) against that specific Debtor; (t) establishing, administering, adjusting, and maintaining the Wind-Down Reserve and the Disputed Claims Reserve; (u) withholding from the amount distributable to any Person the maximum amount needed to pay any tax or other charge that the Plan Administrator has determined, based upon the advice of his agents or professionals, may be required to be withheld from such Distribution under the income tax or other laws of the United States or of any state or political subdivision thereof; (v) in reliance upon the Debtors' Schedules, the official Claims Register maintained in the Chapter 11 Cases and the Debtors' filed lists of equity security holders, reviewing, and where appropriate, allowing or objecting to Claims and (if applicable) Interests, and supervising and administering the commencement, prosecution, settlement, compromise, withdrawal, or resolution of all objections to Disputed Claims and (if applicable) Disputed Interests required to be administered by the Wind-Down Debtor; (w) making all tax withholdings, filing tax information returns, filing and prosecuting tax refunds claims, making tax elections by and on behalf of the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, and filing tax returns for the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor pursuant to and in accordance with the Plan, and paying taxes, if any, payable for and on behalf of the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable; provided, however, that notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan Administrator Agreement, the Plan Administrator shall not have any responsibility or personal liability in any capacity whatsoever for the signing or accuracy of the Debtors' income tax returns that are due to be filed after the Effective Date or for any tax liability related thereto; (x) abandoning or donating to a charitable organization qualifying under IRC section 501(c)(3) any Wind-Down Debtor Assets that the Plan Administrator determines to be too impractical to distribute or of inconsequential value; (y) seeking a determination of tax liability or refund under Bankruptcy Code section 505; (z) establishing reserves for taxes, assessments, and other expenses of administration of the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor as may be necessary and appropriate for the proper operation of matters incident to the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor; paying Wind-Down Debtor Expenses; (aa) if the Plan Administrator deems appropriate in the Plan Administrator's sole discretion, seeking to establish a bar date for filing proofs of Interest in any Debtor or otherwise to determine the holders and extent of Allowed Interests in any Debtor; (bb) purchasing and carrying all insurance policies that the Plan Administrator deems reasonably necessary or advisable and paying all associated insurance premiums and costs; (cc) undertaking all administrative functions remaining in the Chapter 11 Cases to the extent necessary to carry out the Debtors', the Wind-Down Debtor's, or the Plan Administrator's duties under the Plan, including reporting and making required payments of fees to the U.S. Trustee and overseeing the closing of the Chapter 11 Cases; (dd) retaining, terminating, appointing, hiring, or otherwise employees, personnel, management, and directors at any of the Debtors to the extent necessary to carry out the purposes of the Plan Administrator Agreement and the Plan, including, without limitation, to address any disputes between the Debtors; (ee) exercising, implementing, enforcing, and discharging all of the terms, conditions, powers, duties, and other provisions of the Plan, the Confirmation Order, and the Plan Administrator Agreement; and (ff) taking all other actions consistent with the provisions of the Plan and the Plan Administrator Agreement that the Plan Administrator deems reasonably necessary or desirable to administer the Debtors and the Wind-Down Debtor. Further, on or prior to the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Debtor's organizational documents will be amended to prohibit the issuance of non-voting equity securities. Accordingly, the Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1123(a)(6) of the Bankruptcy Code.

31. The Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1123(a)(7) of the Bankruptcy Code. Article IV.J of the Plan provides that, upon filing of the certificate of dissolution (or equivalent document), the Wind-Down Debtor will be dissolved. Article IV.H of the Plan provides for the formation of the Wind-Down Debtor for the benefit of the Wind-Down Debtor Beneficiaries. The Wind-Down Debtor shall be managed by the Plan Administrator and shall be subject to a Wind-Down Debtor Committee. The selection of the Plan Administrator by the Committee, in consultation with the Debtors, is consistent with the interests of Holders of Claims and Interests and public policy. The appointment of the Plan Administrator identified in the Plan Supplement is approved, and the Plan Administrator's duties shall commence as of the Effective Date. In accordance with the Plan Administrator Agreement, the Plan Administrator shall serve in such capacity through the earlier of (i) the date on which the Wind-Down Debtor is dissolved in accordance with the Plan Administrator Agreement, and (ii) the date on which the Plan Administrator resigns, is terminated, or is otherwise unable to serve; provided, however, that, in the event that the Plan Administrator resigns, is terminated, or is otherwise unable to serve, the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee shall appoint a successor to serve as the Plan Administrator in accordance with the Plan Administrator Agreement. If the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee does not appoint a successor within the time periods specified in the Plan Administrator Agreement, then the Court, upon the motion of any party-in-interest, including counsel to the Wind-Down Debtor, shall approve a successor to serve as the Plan Administrator. Accordingly, the Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1123(a)(7) of the Bankruptcy Code.

32. The Plan is consistent with section 1123(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. Article III of the Plan leaves each Class of Claims and Interests Impaired or Unimpaired.

33. The Plan is consistent with section 1123(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code. Article V of the Plan provides that, on the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, each

Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease not previously rejected, assumed, or assumed and assigned, including any employee benefit plans, severance plans, and other Executory Contracts under which employee obligations arise, shall be deemed automatically rejected pursuant to sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code, unless such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease: (1) is specifically described in the Plan as to be assumed in connection with Confirmation of the Plan, or is specifically scheduled to be assumed or assumed and assigned pursuant to the Plan or the Plan Supplement; (2) is subject to a pending motion to assume such Unexpired Lease or Executory Contract as of the Effective Date; (3) is to be assumed by the Debtors or assumed by the Debtors and assigned to another third party, as applicable, in connection with the Sale Transaction; (4) is a contract, instrument, release, indenture, or other agreement or document entered into in connection with the Plan; or (5) is a D&O Liability Insurance Policy other than the Side-A Policy. Each of the Debtors' determinations regarding the assumption and rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases is based on and within the sound business judgment of the Debtors, is necessary to the implementation of the Plan, and is in the best interests of the Debtors, their Estates, Holders of Claims and Interests, and other parties in interest in these Chapter 11 Cases.

(x) Settlement, Releases, Exculpation, Injunction, and Preservation of Claims and Causes of Action—Section 1123(b)(3).

34. The Plan is consistent with section 1123(b)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code. Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, pursuant to section 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 9019, and in consideration for the classification, distributions, releases, and other benefits provided under the Plan, on the Effective Date, the provisions of the Plan shall constitute a good-faith compromise and settlement of all Claims, Interests, Causes of Action, and controversies settled, compromised, satisfied, or otherwise resolved pursuant to the Plan. The Plan is deemed a motion to approve the good-faith compromise and settlement of all such Claims, Interests, Causes of Action, and controversies pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019, and the entry of this Confirmation Order constitutes the Court's approval of such compromise and settlement under section 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 9019 of all such Claims, Interests, Causes of Action, and controversies, as well as a finding that such compromise and settlement is fair, equitable, reasonable, and in the best interests of the Debtors, their Estates, and Holders of Claims and Interests. Subject to Article VI of the Plan, all distributions made to Holders of Allowed Claims and Interests in any Class are intended to be and shall be final.

35. The other discretionary provisions of the Plan are appropriate and consistent with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, thereby satisfying section 1123(b)(6) of the Bankruptcy Code.

Q. Debtor Compliance with the Bankruptcy Code—Section 1129(a)(2).

36. The Debtors have complied with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, except as otherwise provided or permitted by orders of the Court, and thus, satisfied the requirements of section 1129(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code. Specifically, each Debtor:

- a. is an eligible debtor under section 109, and a proper proponent of the Plan under section 1121(a), of the Bankruptcy Code; and
- b. complied with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, including sections 1125 and 1126, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, any applicable nonbankruptcy law, rule and regulation, the Conditional Disclosure Statement Order, and all other applicable law, in transmitting the Solicitation Packages and related documents and notices, and in soliciting and tabulating the votes on the Plan.

R. Plan Proposed in Good Faith—Section 1129(a)(3).

37. The Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1129(a)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors have proposed the Plan in good faith and not by any means forbidden by law. In so determining, the Court has examined the totality of the circumstances surrounding the filing of these Chapter 11 Cases, the Plan itself, the process leading to Confirmation, including the support of Holders of Claims and Interests for the Plan, and the transactions to be implemented pursuant thereto. These Chapter 11 Cases were filed, and the Plan was proposed, with the legitimate purpose of allowing the Debtors to implement the Restructuring Transactions and maximize the value of the Estates and the recoveries of Holders of Claims and Interests.

S. Payment for Services or Costs and Expenses—Section 1129(a)(4).

38. The procedures set forth in the Plan for the Court's review and ultimate determination of the fees and expenses to be paid by the Debtors in connection with these Chapter 11 Cases, or in connection with the Plan and incident to these Chapter 11 Cases, satisfy the objectives of, and are in compliance with, section 1129(a)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code.

T. Directors, Officers, and Insiders—Section 1129(a)(5).

39. Because the Plan provides for the winding down and dissolution of the Debtors, section 1129(a)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code does not apply to the Debtors. To the extent section 1129(a)(5) applies to the Wind-Down Debtor, the requirements of this provision are satisfied by, among other things, disclosing the identity and terms of compensation of the Plan Administrator and the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee.

U. No Rate Changes—Section 1129(a)(6).

40. Section 1129(a)(6) of the Bankruptcy Code is not applicable to these Chapter 11 Cases. The Plan does not propose any rate change subject to the jurisdiction of any governmental regulatory commission.

V. Best Interest of Creditors—Section 1129(a)(7).

41. The Plan is in the best interests of the Debtors' creditors and satisfies the requirements of section 1129(a)(7) of the Bankruptcy Code. The liquidation analysis attached to the Disclosure Statement and the other evidence related thereto in support of the Plan that was proffered or adduced in the Declarations or at, prior to, or in connection with the Combined Hearing: (a) are reasonable, persuasive, credible, and accurate as of the dates such analysis or evidence was prepared, presented, or proffered; (b) utilize reasonable and appropriate methodologies and assumptions; (c) have not been controverted by other evidence; and (d) establish that Holders of Allowed Claims and Interests in each Class will recover at least as much under the Plan on account of such Claim or Interest, as of the Effective Date, as such Holder would receive if the Debtors were liquidated, on the Effective Date, under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code.

W. Acceptance by Certain Classes—Section 1129(a)(8).

42. Class 1 (Secured Tax Claims) and Class 2 (Other Priority Claims) are Unimpaired under the Plan and are deemed to have accepted the Plan pursuant to section 1126(f) of the Bankruptcy Code. Class 3 (Account Holder Claims), Class 4A (OpCo General Unsecured Claims), Class 4B (HoldCo General Unsecured Claims), and Class 4C (TopCo General Unsecured Claims) are impaired under the Plan and voted to accept the Plan. Class 5 (Alameda Loan Facility Claims), Class 6 (Section 510(b) Claims), and Class 9 (Existing Equity Holders) are impaired under the Plan and are deemed to reject the Plan. Because the Plan has not been accepted by the Deemed Rejecting Classes, the Debtors seek Confirmation under section 1129(b), solely with respect to the Deemed Rejecting Classes, rather than section 1129(a)(8) of the Bankruptcy Code. Although section 1129(a)(8) has not been satisfied with respect to the Deemed Rejecting Classes, the Plan is confirmable because the Plan does not discriminate unfairly and is fair and equitable with respect to the Deemed Rejecting Classes and thus satisfies section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy

Code with respect to such Classes as described further below. As a result, the requirements of section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code are satisfied.

X. Treatment of Claims Entitled to Priority Under Section 507(a) of the Bankruptcy Code—Section 1129(a)(9).

43. The treatment of Allowed Administrative Claims, Allowed Professional Fee Claims, and Allowed Priority Tax Claims under Article II of the Plan, and of Allowed Other Priority Claims under Article III of the Plan, satisfies the requirements of, and complies in all respects with, section 1129(a)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code.

Y. Acceptance by At Least One Impaired Class—Section 1129(a)(10).

44. The Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1129(a)(10) of the Bankruptcy Code. As evidenced by the Voting Report, the Voting Classes voted to accept the Plan by the requisite numbers and amounts of Claims, determined without including any acceptance of the Plan by any insider (as that term is defined in section 101(31) of the Bankruptcy Code), specified under the Bankruptcy Code.

Z. Feasibility—Section 1129(a)(11).

45. The Plan satisfies section 1129(a)(11) of the Bankruptcy Code. The evidence supporting the Plan proffered or adduced by the Debtors at or before the Combined Hearing: (a) is reasonable, persuasive, credible, and accurate as of the dates such evidence was prepared, presented, or proffered; (b) has not been controverted by other persuasive evidence; (c) establishes that the Plan is feasible and Confirmation of the Plan is not likely to be followed by liquidation or the need for further financial reorganization; (d) establishes that the Distribution Agent, or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, will have sufficient funds available to meet their obligations under the Plan—including sufficient amounts of Cash, Cryptocurrency, or other consideration, as applicable, to reasonably ensure payment of, among other things, Allowed Administrative Claims, Allowed Professional Fee Claims, Allowed Priority Tax Claims, Allowed Other Priority Claims, Allowed Account Holder Claims, and Allowed General Unsecured Claims, as applicable, pursuant to the terms of the Plan and in accordance with section 507(a) of the Bankruptcy Code; and (e) establishes that the Wind-Down Debtor will have the financial wherewithal to satisfy their obligations following the Effective Date.

AA. Payment of Statutory Fees—Section 1129(a)(12).

46. The Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1129(a)(12) of the Bankruptcy Code. Article XII.C of the Plan provides for the payment of all fees due and payable under 28 U.S.C. § 1930 by each of the Wind-Down Debtor (or the Distribution Agent on behalf of the Wind-Down Debtor).

BB. Continuation of Employee Benefits—Section 1129(a)(13).

47. The Debtors do not have any remaining obligations to pay retiree benefits (as defined in section 1114 of the Bankruptcy Code). Therefore, section 1129(a)(13) of the Bankruptcy Code is inapplicable to these Chapter 11 Cases or the Plan.

CC. Non-Applicability of Certain Sections—Sections 1129(a)(14), (15), and (16).

48. Sections 1129(a)(14), 1129(a)(15), and 1129(a)(16) of the Bankruptcy Code do not apply to these Chapter 11 Cases. The Debtors owe no domestic support obligations, are not individuals, and are not nonprofit corporations.

DD. “Cram Down” Requirements—Section 1129(b).

49. The Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. Notwithstanding the fact that the Deemed Rejecting Classes have not accepted the Plan, the Plan may be confirmed pursuant to section 1129(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. First, all of the requirements of section 1129(a) of the Bankruptcy Code other than section 1129(a)(8) have been met. Second, the Plan is fair and equitable with respect to Class 5 (Alameda Loan Facility Claims),

Class 6 (Section 510(b) Claims), and Class 9 (Existing Equity Interests). The Plan has been proposed in good faith, is reasonable, and meets the requirements that (a) no Holder of any Claim or Interest that is junior to each such Class will receive or retain any property under the Plan on account of such junior Claim or Interest, and (b) no Holder of a Claim or Interest in a Class senior to such Classes is receiving more than payment in full on account of its Claim or Interest. Specifically, to the extent Class 8 (Intercompany Interests) are Reinstated, such treatment is provided for administrative convenience and efficiency, and not on account of such Interests, and will not alter the treatment provided for any other Holder of any Claim or Interest. Further, Class 7 (Intercompany Claims) will receive the treatment as determined by the Court. Accordingly, the Plan is fair and equitable towards all Holders of Claims and Interests in the Deemed Rejecting Classes. Third, the Plan does not discriminate unfairly with respect to the Deemed Rejecting Classes because similarly situated Claim and Interest Holders will receive substantially similar treatment on account of their Claims or Interests, as applicable, in such class. Therefore, the Plan may be confirmed despite the fact that not all Impaired Classes have voted to accept the Plan.

EE. Only One Plan—Section 1129(c).

50. The Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1129(c) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Plan is the only chapter 11 plan filed in each of these Chapter 11 Cases.

FF. Principal Purpose of the Plan—Section 1129(d).

51. The Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1129(d) of the Bankruptcy Code. The principal purpose of the Plan is not the avoidance of taxes or the avoidance of the application of section 5 of the Securities Act.

GG. Not Small Business Cases—Section 1129(e).

52. The Chapter 11 Cases are not small business cases and, accordingly, section 1129(e) of the Bankruptcy Code does not apply to the Chapter 11 Cases.

HH. Good Faith Solicitation—Section 1125(e).

53. The Debtors have acted in “good faith” within the meaning of section 1125(e) of the Bankruptcy Code and in compliance with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules in connection with all of their respective activities relating to support and consummation of the Plan, including the solicitation and receipt of acceptances of the Plan, and are entitled to the protections afforded by section 1125(e) of the Bankruptcy Code.

II. Satisfaction of Confirmation Requirements.

54. Based on the foregoing, the Plan satisfies the requirements for Confirmation set forth in section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code.

JJ. Likelihood of Satisfaction of Conditions Precedent to the Effective Date.

55. Each of the conditions precedent to the Effective Date, as set forth in Article IX.A of the Plan, has been or is reasonably likely to be satisfied or, as applicable, waived in accordance with Article IX.B of the Plan.

KK. Implementation.

56. All documents and agreements necessary to implement the transactions contemplated by the Plan, including those contained or summarized in the Plan Supplement, and all other relevant and necessary documents (including the Asset Purchase Agreement) have been negotiated in good faith and at arm’s length, are in the best interests of the Debtors, and shall, upon completion of documentation and execution, be valid, binding, and enforceable agreements and shall not be in conflict with any federal, state, or local law. The Debtors are authorized to take any action reasonably necessary or appropriate to consummate such agreements and the transactions contemplated thereby.

LL. Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases.

57. The Debtors' decisions to assume or reject certain Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases, as provided in Article V of the Plan and in the Plan Supplement, are reasonable exercises of the Debtors' business judgment. The Debtors have demonstrated adequate assurance of future performance of the assumed Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases within the meaning of section 365(b)(1)(C) of the Bankruptcy Code by the Wind-Down Debtor.

58. Except with respect to the Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases discussed in the following paragraph of this Confirmation Order, the amounts set forth in the Plan Supplement (the "Cure Amounts") are the sole amounts necessary to be paid upon assumption of the associated Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases under section 365(b)(1)(A) and (B) of the Bankruptcy Code, and the payment of such amounts will effect a cure of all defaults existing under such Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases and compensate the counterparties to such Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases for any actual pecuniary loss resulting from all defaults existing under such Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases as of the Effective Date.

59. The objections of counterparties to the assumption of their Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases, to the extent that such objection was timely raised in accordance with Article V.C of the Plan, are preserved and will be considered by the Court at a date and time to be scheduled. As provided in the Conditional Disclosure Statement Order and the Solicitation Packages, the Debtors and the Wind-Down Debtor have reserved the right to (a) add any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease to the Assumed Contract Schedule and assume such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease pursuant to the terms of the Plan, or remove any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease from the Assumed Contract Schedule, in each case, up until the Effective Date and (b) contest any Claim asserted in connection with rejection of any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease.

MM. Disclosure of Facts.

60. The Debtors have disclosed all material facts regarding the Plan, including with respect to consummation of the Sale Transaction and the Liquidation Transaction, as applicable.

NN. Appropriate Exercise of Business Judgment.

61. The Debtors' decision to effectuate the Sale Transaction or the Liquidation Transaction, as applicable, is an appropriate exercise of their business judgment.

OO. Good Faith.

62. The Debtors, the Released Parties, and the Releasing Parties have been and will be acting in good faith if they proceed to: (a) consummate the Plan and the agreements, settlements, transactions, and transfers contemplated thereby; and (b) take the actions authorized and directed by this Confirmation Order to wind-down the Debtors' businesses and effect the Sale Transaction or the Liquidation Transaction, as applicable, and the other Restructuring Transactions. The Released Parties have made a substantial contribution to these Chapter 11 Cases.

PP. Essential Elements of the Plan.

63. The Sale Transaction is an essential element of the Plan, and consummation of the Sale Transaction is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, and their creditors. The Debtors have exercised sound business judgment in selecting the Purchaser and the Debtors have done so without collusion and in good faith. The Purchaser is consummating the Sale Transaction in good faith and is a good faith buyer within the meaning of section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Purchaser has proceeded in good faith and without collusion in all respects in connection with the Sale Transaction. The Purchaser is therefore entitled to all of the protections afforded under section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code, and the Sale Transaction, to the extent consummated, may not be avoided pursuant to section 363(n) of the Bankruptcy Code.

64. The Debtors' marketing process with respect to the Sale Transaction afforded a full, fair, and reasonable opportunity for any party to make a higher or otherwise better offer. No other party or parties has offered to purchase the Acquired Assets for greater overall value to the Debtors' Estates than the Purchaser. The Asset Purchase Agreement will provide a greater recovery for the Debtors' Estates than would be provided by any other available alternative. The Debtors' determination that the Sale Transaction is the most value-maximizing transaction is a valid and sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment. Consummation of the Sale Transaction is in the best interests of the Debtors' Estates, their creditors, and other parties in interest.

65. The consideration provided by the Purchaser pursuant to the Asset Purchase Agreement (a) is fair and reasonable, (b) constitutes the best offer for the Acquired Assets, and (c) constitutes reasonably equivalent value (as those terms are defined in each of the Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act, Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act, and section 548 of the Bankruptcy Code) and fair consideration under the Bankruptcy Code and under the laws of the United States, any state, territory, possession, or the District of Columbia.

66. The Purchaser is not a mere continuation or substantial continuation of the Debtors or their Estates and there is no continuity of enterprise or common identity between the Purchaser and any of the Debtors. The Purchaser is not holding itself out to the public as a continuation of any of the Debtors. The Purchaser is not a successor to the Debtors or their Estates by reason of any theory of law or equity, and the Sale Transaction does not amount to a consolidation, merger, or de facto merger of the Purchaser with or into any of the Debtors. The Purchaser has entered into the Asset Purchase Agreement in material reliance on and with fair consideration provided for the Sale Transaction being free and clear of all claims and interests relating to the Debtors arising prior to the closing of the Sale Transaction, including any successor or vicarious liabilities of any kind or nature, as set forth herein and in the Asset Purchase Agreement, and would not have entered into the Asset Purchase Agreement or the Sale Transaction without such terms and the findings herein.

67. The conditions of section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code have been satisfied in full; therefore, the Debtors may sell, and upon the Closing of the Sale Transaction shall be deemed to have sold, assets and property pursuant to the Asset Purchase Agreement free and clear of any claims, liens, encumbrances, or other interests of any kind or nature whatsoever other than as expressly provided under the Asset Purchase Agreement. In addition to and without limiting the foregoing, the proposed Sale Transaction is to be consummated under the Plan, and the assets and property to be sold pursuant to the Sale Transaction are dealt with by the Plan; therefore, except as expressly provided under the Asset Purchase Agreement, the Debtors may sell, and upon the Closing of the Sale Transaction shall be deemed to have sold, assets and property pursuant to the Asset Purchase Agreement free and clear of any claims, liens, encumbrances, or other interests of any kind or nature whatsoever pursuant to section 1141(c) of the Bankruptcy Code.

68. The Debtors may sell, and upon the Closing of the Sale Transaction shall be deemed to have sold, such assets free and clear of all claims, liens, encumbrances, and other interests of any kind or nature whatsoever (other than as expressly permitted under the Asset Purchase Agreement) because, in each case, one or more of the standards set forth in sections 363(f)(1)–(5), 1129(b)(2)(A)(ii), 1141(a), or 1141(c) of the Bankruptcy Code has been satisfied. All holders of such claims, liens, encumbrances, or other interests against the Debtors, their Estates, or any of the assets subject to the Sale Transaction (a) who did not object, or who withdrew their objections, to the Sale Transaction are deemed to have consented pursuant to section 363(f)(2) of the Bankruptcy

Code and (b) are bound by the Plan pursuant to section 1141(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. All holders of such claims, liens, encumbrances, or other interests are adequately protected by having their claims, liens, encumbrances, or other interests, if any, in each instance against the Debtors, their Estates, or any of the assets subject to the Sale Transaction, attach to the proceeds of the Sale Transaction ultimately attributable to the assets in which such creditor alleges a claim, lien, encumbrance, or other interest, in the same order of priority, with the same validity, force, and effect that such claim, lien, encumbrance, or other interest had prior to consummation of the Sale Transaction, subject to any claims and defenses the Debtors and their Estates may possess with respect thereto, and with such claims, liens, encumbrances, or other interests being treated in accordance with the Plan.

69. Article VIII.A of the Plan describes certain releases granted by the Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, and the Debtors' and the Wind-Down Debtor's Estates (the "Debtor Release"). The Debtors have satisfied the business judgment standard with respect to the propriety of the Debtor Release. Such release is a necessary and integral element of the Plan, and is fair, reasonable, and in the best interests of the Debtors, the Debtors' Estates, and Holders of Claims and Interests. The Debtors', the Wind-Down Debtor's and their Estates' pursuit of any such claims against the Released Parties is not in the best interests of the Estates' various constituencies because the costs involved would likely outweigh any potential benefit from pursuing such claims. Additionally, including for the reasons set forth in the Declarations, the Debtor Release is: (a) in exchange for the good and valuable consideration provided by the Released Parties following extensive, arm's-length negotiations between sophisticated parties represented by able counsel; (b) a good-faith settlement and compromise of such Causes of Action released by the Debtor Release, which bore a substantial likelihood of complex and protracted litigation, with attendant expense, inconvenience, and delay; (c) in the best interests of the Debtors and all Holders of Claims and Interests; (d) fair, equitable, and reasonable; (e) given and made after due notice and opportunity for hearing; (f) a sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment; and (g) except to the extent contemplated by Article IV.F of the Plan, a bar to any of the Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor or their Estates asserting any Cause of Action related thereto, of any kind, against any of the Released Parties or their property.

70. Article IV.G of the Plan describes the D&O Settlement. The D&O Settlement constitutes a good-faith compromise and settlement of all Claims, Causes of Action, disputes, and controversies released, settled, compromised, or otherwise resolved between the Debtors and the CEO and CCO. The D&O Settlement is fair, equitable, and reasonable and in the best interests of the Debtors, their Estates, and Holders of Claims and Interests.

71. Article VIII.B of the Plan describes certain releases granted by the Releasing Parties (the "Third-Party Release"). The Third-Party Release provides finality for the Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, and the other Released Parties. The Third-Party Release is consensual with respect to the Releasing Parties. The Combined Hearing Notice sent to Holders of Claims and Interests and published in The New York Times (National Edition) and the Financial Times (International Edition) on February 3, 2023, and the ballots and notices, as applicable, sent to Holders of Claims and Interests unambiguously stated that the Plan contains the Third-Party Release and that each Holder of Claims or Interests may elect not to grant such Third-Party Release. Such release provisions of the Plan were conspicuous, emphasized with boldface type in the Plan, the Disclosure Statement, and the ballots and notices. Among other things, the Plan provides appropriate and specific disclosure with respect to the claims and Causes of Action that are subject to the Third-Party Release, and no other disclosure or notice is necessary. The Third-

Party Release is a necessary and integral element of the Plan, and is fair, equitable, reasonable, and in the best interests of the Debtors, the Debtors' Estates, and all Holders of Claims and Interests. Also, the Third-Party Release is: (a) in exchange for the good and valuable consideration provided by the Released Parties; (b) a good-faith settlement and compromise of such the Claims released by the Third-Party Releases; (c) in the best interests of the Debtors and all Holders of Claims and Interests; (d) fair, equitable, and reasonable; (e) given and made after due notice and opportunity for hearing; (f) a sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment; and (g) except to the extent contemplated by Article IV.E and Article IV.F of the Plan, a bar to any of the Debtors or Wind-Down Debtor or their respective Estates asserting any Cause of Action related thereto, of any kind, against any of the Released Parties or their property.

72. The Third-Party Releases are consensual and those Holders of Claims and Interests who are bound by the Third-Party Releases voluntarily opted-in to the Third-Party Releases. The Plan does not release any third party's direct claims against non-Debtors (to the extent such direct claims exist) without such third party's express consent. Holders of Claims and Interests also had the ability to affirmatively elect to "contribute" their claims to the Wind-Down Debtor and vest the Wind-Down Debtor with authority to pursue such claims against the Debtors.

73. The exculpation described in Article VIII.C of the Plan (the "Exculpation") is appropriate under applicable law because it was proposed in good faith, was formulated following extensive good-faith, arm's-length negotiations with key constituents, and is appropriately limited in scope. Without limiting anything in the Exculpation, each Exculpated Party has participated in these Chapter 11 Cases in good faith and, except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan, no Exculpated Party shall have or incur, and each Exculpated Party is hereby released and exculpated as set forth in the Plan; provided that the foregoing "Exculpation" shall have no effect on the liability of any entity that results from any such act or omission that is determined by a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud, gross negligence, or willful misconduct, but in all respects such entities shall be entitled to reasonably rely upon the advice of counsel with respect to their duties and responsibilities pursuant to the Plan. The Exculpated Parties have participated in any and all activities potentially underlying any Exculpated Claim in good faith and in compliance with the applicable laws. The Exculpation, including its carve-out for actual fraud, gross negligence, or willful misconduct, is consistent with established practice in this jurisdiction and others.

74. The injunction provision set forth in Article VIII.D of the Plan is necessary to prevent interference with the payment of Claims and Interests in the manner set forth in the Plan and is narrowly tailored to achieve these purposes.

75. Article IV.P of the Plan provides that, in accordance with section 1123(b)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code, any Cause of Action that a Debtor may hold against any Entity shall vest in the Wind-Down Debtor, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, including Article VIII of the Plan. The Wind-Down Debtor, through their authorized agents or representatives, shall retain and may exclusively enforce any and all such Causes of Action. The Wind-Down Debtor shall have the exclusive right, authority, and discretion to determine and to initiate, file, prosecute, enforce, abandon, settle, compromise, release, withdraw, or litigate to judgment any such Causes of Action, or to decline to do any of the foregoing, without the consent or approval of any third party or any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Court in accordance with the Plan. The provisions regarding the preservation of Causes of Action in the Plan, including the Plan Supplement, are appropriate, fair, equitable, and reasonable, and are in the best interests of the Debtors, the Debtors' estates, and Holders of Claims and Interests.

76. The full release and discharge of all mortgages, deeds of trust, Liens, pledges, or other security interests against any property of the Estates described in Article VIII.E of the Plan (the “Lien Release”) is necessary to implement the Plan. The provisions of the Lien Release are appropriate, fair, equitable, and reasonable and are in the best interests of the Debtors, the Debtors’ estates, and Holders of Claims and Interests.

ORDER

BASED ON THE FOREGOING FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED, DECREED, AND DETERMINED THAT:

79. Solicitation. To the extent applicable, the solicitation of votes on the Plan complied with sections 1125 and 1126 of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules 3017 and 3018, all other provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, and all other applicable rules, laws, and regulations, and was appropriate and satisfactory and is approved in all respects.

80. Notice of Combined Hearing. The Notice of Combined Hearing was appropriate and satisfactory and is approved in all respects.

81. Confirmation of the Plan. The Plan is approved in its entirety and CONFIRMED under section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code. The terms of the Plan, including the Plan Supplement, are incorporated by reference into and are an integral part of this Confirmation Order.

82. Objections. All objections and all reservations of rights pertaining to Confirmation of the Plan and approval of the Disclosure Statement that have not been withdrawn, waived, or consensually resolved are overruled on the merits unless otherwise indicated in this Confirmation Order. 83. All parties have had a full and fair opportunity to litigate all issues raised or that might have been raised in the objections to approval of the Disclosure Statement and Confirmation of the Plan, and the objections have been fully and fairly litigated or resolved, including by agreed-upon reservations of rights as set forth in this Confirmation Order.

84. Plan Modifications. The Plan Modifications do not materially adversely affect the treatment of any Claim against or Interest in any of the Debtors under the Plan, and are hereby approved pursuant to section 1127(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 3019. After giving effect to the Plan Modifications, the Plan continues to meet the requirements of sections 1122 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code. The filing with the Court on February 28, 2023 of the modifications to the Plan and the disclosure of any additional Plan Modifications on the record at the Combined Hearing constitute due and sufficient notice thereof. Accordingly, pursuant to section 1127(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 3019, the Plan Modifications do not require additional disclosure under section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code or resolicitation of votes under section 1126 of the Bankruptcy Code, nor do they require that holders of Claims be afforded an opportunity to change previously cast acceptances or rejections of the Plan.

85. Deemed Acceptance of Plan. In accordance with section 1127 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 3019, all Holders of Claims and Interests who voted to accept the Plan or who are conclusively presumed to accept the Plan are deemed to have accepted the Plan, as modified by the Plan Modifications. No Holder of a Claim or Interest shall be permitted to change its vote as a consequence of the Plan Modifications.

86. Restructuring Transactions. On or before the Effective Date, the applicable Debtors will take any action as may be necessary or advisable to effectuate the Restructuring Transactions described in the Plan, the Restructuring Transactions Memorandum, and the Customer Onboarding Protocol, including: (a) the execution and delivery of any appropriate agreements or other documents of merger, consolidation, restructuring, conversion, disposition, transfer, dissolution, or liquidation containing terms that are consistent with the terms of the Plan, and that satisfy the requirements of applicable law; (b) the execution and delivery of appropriate instruments of transfer, assignment, assumption, or delegation of any asset, property, right, liability, debt, or obligation on terms consistent with the terms of the Plan; (c) the filing of appropriate certificates or articles of incorporation, reincorporation, merger, consolidation, conversion, or dissolution pursuant to applicable state law; (d) the transfer or distribution of any Cryptocurrency or Cash pursuant to the Asset Purchase Agreement and the Plan, as applicable; (e) the execution and delivery of the Plan Administrator Agreement; (f) any transactions necessary or appropriate to form the Wind-Down Debtor; (g) such other transactions that are required to effectuate the Restructuring Transactions, including any sales, mergers, consolidations, restructurings, conversions, dispositions, transfers, formations, organizations, dissolutions, or liquidations; (h) all transactions necessary to provide for the purchase of the Acquired Assets by Purchaser under the Asset Purchase Agreement; and (i) all other actions that the applicable Entities determine to be necessary or appropriate, including making filings or recordings that may be required by applicable law.

87. This Confirmation Order shall, and shall be deemed to, pursuant to sections 1123 and 363 of the Bankruptcy Code, authorize, among other things, all actions as may be necessary or appropriate to effect any transaction described in, approved by, contemplated by, or necessary to effectuate the Plan, including, as applicable, the Sale Transaction, the Liquidation Transaction, and the Restructuring Transactions, including, for the avoidance of doubt, entry into any agreements following the Confirmation Date by the Debtors, the Purchaser, and any of the Unsupported Jurisdictions in connection with Distributions contemplated to be made by Purchaser to Users and Eligible Creditors (as such terms are defined in the Asset Purchase Agreement) located in Unsupported Jurisdictions, pursuant to and in accordance with the Plan and the Asset Purchase Agreement.

88. The Sale Transaction. The Sale Transaction and the Asset Purchase Agreement, all other ancillary documents, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, are hereby approved, pursuant to sections 105, 363, 364, and 554 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules 2002, 4001, 6004, and 9014, each as applicable. Entry of this Confirmation Order shall authorize the Debtors, the Purchaser, and the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, to undertake the transactions contemplated by the Asset Purchase Agreement, as applicable, including pursuant to sections 363, 365, 1123(a)(5)(B), and 1123(a)(5)(D) of the Bankruptcy Code.

89. Pursuant to sections 363(b) and (f) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors are authorized and empowered to take any and all actions necessary or appropriate to (a) consummate the Sale Transaction pursuant to and in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Asset Purchase Agreement, (b) close the Sale Transaction as contemplated in the Asset Purchase Agreement, and (c) execute and deliver, perform under, consummate, implement, and fully close the Asset Purchase Agreement, together with all additional instruments and documents that may be reasonably necessary or desirable to implement the Asset Purchase Agreement and the Sale Transaction.

90. Subject to the restrictions set forth in this Confirmation Order, the Plan, and the Asset Purchase Agreement, the Debtors and the Purchaser hereby are authorized to take any and all actions as may be necessary or desirable, including any actions that otherwise would require further approval by shareholders, members, or its board of directors, as the case may be, without the need of obtaining such approvals, to implement the Sale Transaction, and any actions taken by the Debtors or the Purchaser necessary or desirable to implement the Sale Transaction prior to the date of this Confirmation Order, hereby are approved and ratified.

91. This Confirmation Order and the terms and provisions of the Asset Purchase Agreement shall be binding in all respects upon the Debtors, their affiliates, their estates, all creditors of and holders of equity interests in any Debtor, any holders of Liens, Claims, or other interests (whether known or unknown) in, against, or on all or any portion of the Acquired Assets, all counterparties to any executory contract or unexpired lease of the Debtors, the Purchaser and all successors and assigns of the Purchaser, the Acquired Assets, and any trustees, examiners, or receivers, if any, subsequently appointed in any of the Debtors' chapter 11 cases or upon a conversion to chapter 7 under the Bankruptcy Code of any of the Debtors' cases. This Confirmation Order and the Asset Purchase Agreement shall inure to the benefit of the Debtors, their estates and creditors, the Purchaser, and the respective successors and assigns of each of the foregoing.

92. Pursuant to sections 105(a), 363(b), 363(f), 365(b) and 365(f) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors are authorized to transfer the Acquired Assets in accordance with the terms of the Asset Purchase Agreement and such transfer shall constitute a legal, valid, binding, and effective sale of the Acquired Assets and shall vest Purchaser with title to the Acquired Assets subject to the Asset Purchase Agreement, and the Acquired Assets shall be free and clear of all Liens, Claims, Encumbrances, and other interests of any kind or nature whatsoever (other than as expressly permitted under the Asset Purchase Agreement), with all such Liens, Claims, or other interests to attach to the cash proceeds of the Purchase Price ultimately attributable to the property against or in which such Liens, Claims, or other interests are asserted, subject to the terms thereof, with the same validity, force, and effect, and in the same order of priority, which such Liens, Claims, or other interests had prior to the Transaction, subject to any rights, claims, and defenses the Debtors or their estates, as applicable, may possess with respect thereto.

93. The sale of the Acquired Assets to the Purchaser pursuant to the Asset Purchase Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Asset Purchase Agreement do not require any consents other than as specifically provided for in the Asset Purchase Agreement. Each and every federal, state, and local governmental agency or department is hereby authorized to accept any and all documents and instruments necessary and appropriate to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Asset Purchase Agreement. A certified copy of this Confirmation Order may be filed with the appropriate clerk or recorded with the recorder of any state, county, or local authority to act to cancel any of the Liens, Claims, and other encumbrances of record.

94. If any person or entity that has filed statements or other documents evidencing Claims or Liens on, or interests in, all or any portion of the Acquired Assets shall not have delivered to the Debtors, in proper form for filing and executed by the appropriate parties, termination statements, instruments of satisfaction, releases of liens and easements, and any other documents necessary for the purpose of documenting the release of all Claims, Liens, or interests which the person or entity has or may assert with respect to all or any portion of the Acquired Assets, the Debtors are hereby authorized, and the Purchaser is hereby authorized, on behalf of the Debtors and the Debtors' creditors, to execute and file such statements, instruments, releases and other documents on behalf of such person or entity with respect to the Acquired Assets. The Debtors and the Purchaser are each authorized to file a copy of this Confirmation Order, which, upon filing, shall be conclusive evidence of the release and termination of such Claim, Lien or interest.

95. This Confirmation Order is and shall be binding upon and govern the acts of all persons and entities, including, without limitation, all filing agents, filing officers, title agents, title companies, recorders of mortgages, recorders of deeds, registrars of deeds, administrative agencies, governmental departments, secretaries of state, federal, state, and local officials, and all other persons and entities who may be required by operation of law, the duties of their office, or contract, to accept, file, register, or otherwise record or release any documents or instruments; and each of the foregoing persons and entities is hereby directed to accept for filing any and all of the documents and instruments necessary and appropriate to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Asset Purchase Agreement.

96. All persons and entities that are presently, or on the Closing may be, in possession of some or all of the Acquired Assets pursuant to the Asset Purchase Agreement are hereby directed to surrender possession of the Acquired Assets to the Purchaser unless such person or entity was a good faith, bona fide purchaser of the Acquired Assets without notice of the Debtors' rights in such property. Subject to the terms, conditions, and provisions of this Confirmation Order, all persons and entities are hereby forever prohibited and enjoined from taking any action that would adversely affect or interfere with the ability of the Debtors to sell and/or transfer the Acquired Assets to the Purchaser in accordance with the terms of the Asset Purchase Agreement and this Confirmation Order.

97. Except as otherwise permitted by the Asset Purchase Agreement, the Plan, or this Confirmation Order, all persons and entities, including, but not limited to, all debt security holders, equity security holders, governmental, tax and regulatory authorities, lenders, trade creditors, litigation claimants, and other creditors, holding Liens, Claims, or other interests of any kind or nature whatsoever against or in all or any portion of the Acquired Assets (whether legal or equitable, secured or unsecured, matured or unmatured, contingent or non-contingent, liquidated or unliquidated, senior or subordinate), arising under or out of, in connection with, or in any way relating to the Debtors, the Acquired Assets, the operation of the Debtors' business prior to the closing of the Sale Transaction, or the transfer of the Acquired Assets to the Purchaser, hereby are forever barred, estopped and permanently enjoined from asserting against the Purchaser, any of the foregoing's affiliates, successors, or assigns, their property or the Acquired Assets, such persons' or entities' Liens, Claims, or interests in and to the Acquired Assets, including, without limitation, the following actions: (a) commencing or continuing in any manner any action or other proceeding against the Purchaser and each of its affiliates, successors, assets or properties; (b) enforcing, attaching, collecting, or recovering in any manner any judgment, award, decree, or order against the Purchaser and each of its affiliates, successors, assets, or properties; (c) creating, perfecting, or enforcing any Lien or other Claim against the Purchaser and each of its affiliates, successors, assets, or properties; (d) asserting any setoff, right of subrogation, or recoupment of any kind against any obligation due the Purchaser, its affiliates or its successors; or (e) commencing or continuing any action, in any manner or place, that does not comply or is inconsistent with the provisions of this Confirmation Order, or the agreements or actions contemplated or taken in respect thereof.

98. All persons and entities are hereby forever prohibited and enjoined from taking any action that would adversely affect or interfere with the ability of the Debtors to sell and transfer the Acquired Assets to the Purchaser in accordance with the terms of the Asset Purchase Agreement, the Plan, and this Confirmation Order.

99. Purchaser shall have no Liability (as defined in the Asset Purchase Agreement) for any Excluded Liability, and, other than as expressly set forth in the Asset Purchase Agreement, Purchaser is not assuming, by virtue of the consummation of the Sale Transaction, nor shall the Purchaser be liable or responsible for, as a successor or otherwise (including under any theory of successor or vicarious liability of any kind or character or any other theory of law or equity, including any theory of antitrust, environmental successor or transferee liability, labor law, de facto merger, or substantial continuity (including under applicable Money Transmitter Requirements or any securities or commodities Laws of any Governmental Body)):

- (i) any Liability (as defined in the Asset Purchase Agreement), debts, commitments, or obligations of the Debtors or any of their predecessors or affiliates or any obligations of the Debtors or their predecessors or affiliates, in all cases whether known or unknown, disclosed or undisclosed, now existing or hereafter arising, asserted or unasserted, fixed or contingent,

(ii) any Liability (as defined in the Asset Purchase Agreement) calculable by reference to the Debtors or their assets or operations, or relating to the operation of the Debtors' businesses prior to the Closing of the Sale Transaction, or relating to continuing conditions existing, including with respect to any of Debtors' predecessors or affiliates, which liabilities, debts, commitments, and obligations are hereby extinguished insofar as they may give rise to successor liability, without regard to whether the claimant asserting any such liabilities, debts, commitments, or obligations has delivered to the Purchaser a release thereof.

Binance.US Platform in accordance with the Asset Purchase Agreement (notwithstanding any terms and conditions of the Binance.US Platform to the contrary, if any) through and including such time as such Coins and Cash are returned or distributed to Seller or such User and Eligible Creditor, as applicable, and such Coins and Cash shall be held by Purchaser solely in a custodial capacity in trust and solely for the benefit of Seller or the applicable User or Eligible Creditor.

100. The Asset Purchase Agreement and any related documents or other instruments may be modified, amended, or supplemented by the parties thereto and in accordance with the terms thereof, without further order of the Court.

101. Paragraphs 88–100 of this Confirmation Order shall be deemed to be excised from this Confirmation Order in the event that the Asset Purchase Agreement is terminated prior to Closing. For the avoidance of doubt, subject to the requirements set forth in the Asset Purchase Agreement (including, without limitation, Sections 6.22 and 5.2(c) thereof), the Debtors may exercise the “fiduciary out” in Section 8.1(g) of the Asset Purchase Agreement at any time prior to Closing.

102. Corporate Action. Upon the Effective Date, all actions contemplated under the Plan shall be deemed authorized and approved in all respects, and, to the extent taken prior to the Effective Date, ratified without any requirement for further action by Holders of Claims or Interests, directors, managers, managing-members, limited or general partners, or officers of the Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, or any other Entity.

103. All matters provided for in the Plan involving the corporate structure of the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, and any corporate action required by the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, in connection with the Plan shall be deemed to have occurred on, and shall be in effect as of, the Effective Date, without any requirement of further action by the security holders, directors, managers, or officers of the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable. On or, as applicable, prior to the Effective Date, the appropriate officers of the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, shall be authorized and, as applicable, directed to issue, execute, and deliver the agreements, documents, certificates of incorporation, certificates of formation, bylaws, operating agreements, and instruments contemplated under the Plan (or necessary or desirable to effect the transactions contemplated under the Plan) in the name of and on behalf of the Wind-Down Debtor, and any and all other agreements, documents, and instruments relating to the foregoing. The authorizations and approvals contemplated by Article IV.J of the Plan shall be effective notwithstanding any requirements under non-bankruptcy law.

104. As soon as practicable after the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Debtor shall take such actions as the Wind-Down Debtor may determine to be necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of the Plan. Any certificate of dissolution or equivalent document may be executed by the Wind-Down Debtor on behalf of any Wind-Down Debtor without need for any action or approval by the shareholders or board of directors or managers of such Debtor. On and after the Effective Date, the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor (1) for all purposes shall be deemed to have withdrawn their business operations from any state in which the Debtors were previously conducting, or are registered or licensed to conduct, their business operations, and shall not be required to file any document, pay any sum, or take any other action in order to effectuate such withdrawal, (2) shall be deemed to have cancelled pursuant to the Plan all Interests, and (3) shall not be liable in any manner to any taxing authority for franchise, business, license, or similar taxes accruing on or after the Effective Date. Pursuant to the terms of the Plan, any Money Transmitter Licenses that have not been terminated shall be deemed withdrawn and no further action is required to be taken by the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor to effectuate such withdrawal; provided that, following the Effective Date, the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, shall use commercially reasonable efforts to comply with all state banking department requirements for the surrender of a Money Transmitter License. Notwithstanding such Debtors' dissolution, such Debtors shall be deemed to remain intact solely with respect to the preparation, filing, review, and resolution of applications for Professional Fee Claims.

105. Binding Effect. Upon the occurrence of the Effective Date, the terms of the Plan are immediately effective and enforceable and deemed binding on the Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, any and all Holders of Claims or Interests (regardless of whether such Holders of Claims or Interests have, or are deemed to have, accepted the Plan), all Entities that are parties to or are subject to the settlements, compromises, releases, and injunctions described in the Plan, each Entity acquiring property under the Plan or this Confirmation Order, and any and all non-Debtor parties to Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases with the Debtors. All Claims and debts shall be as fixed, adjusted, or compromised, as applicable, pursuant to the Plan regardless of whether any Holder of a Claim or debt has voted on the Plan.

106. Pursuant to section 1141 of the Bankruptcy Code, subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date and subject to the terms of the Plan and this Confirmation Order, all prior orders entered in these Chapter 11 Cases and all documents and agreements executed by the Debtors as authorized and directed thereunder as of the Effective Date shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the Debtors, the Purchaser, or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, and their respective successors and assigns.

107. Vesting of Assets. Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, this Confirmation Order, the Asset Purchase Agreement, the Schedule of Retained Causes of Action, or in any agreement, instrument, or other documented incorporated herein or therein, or in any agreement, instrument, or other document incorporated in the Plan or the Plan Supplement, notwithstanding any prohibition of assignability under applicable non-bankruptcy law and in accordance with section 1141 of the Bankruptcy Code, on the Effective Date, all property constituting Wind-Down Debtor Assets, including all Vested Causes of Action of the Debtors (unless otherwise released, waived, compromised, settled, satisfied, or transferred pursuant to the Plan) shall vest in the Wind-Down Debtor, free and clear of all Liens, Claims, charges, or other encumbrances.

108. Prior to the Effective Date, any and all of the Debtors' assets shall remain assets of the Estates pursuant to section 1123(b)(3)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code and on the Effective Date the Wind-Down Debtor Assets shall, subject to the Plan Administrator Agreement, be transferred to and vest in the Wind-Down Debtor. For the avoidance of doubt, to the extent not otherwise waived in writing, released, settled, compromised, assigned, or sold pursuant to a prior order or the Plan, the Plan Administrator specifically retains and reserves the right to assert, after the Effective Date, any and all of the Vested Causes of Action and related rights, whether or not asserted as of the Effective Date, and all proceeds of the foregoing, subject to the terms of the Plan, including without limitation Article IV.F.

109. Pursuant to section 1123(b)(3)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code, only the Wind-Down Debtor and the Plan Administrator shall have the right to pursue or not to pursue, or, subject to the terms hereof and the Plan Administrator Agreement, compromise or settle any Wind-Down Debtor Assets transferred to the Wind-Down Debtor. On and after the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Debtor and the Plan Administrator may, without further Court approval, commence, litigate, and settle any Vested Causes of Action or Claims relating to any Wind-Down Debtor Assets transferred to the Wind-Down Debtor or rights to payment or Claims that belong to the Debtors as of the Effective Date or are instituted by the Wind-Down Debtor and Plan Administrator on or after the Effective Date, except as otherwise expressly provided herein and in the Plan Administrator Agreement. The Wind-Down Debtor shall be entitled to enforce all defenses and counterclaims to all Claims asserted against the Debtors and their Estates, including setoff, recoupment and any rights under section 502(d) of the Bankruptcy Code.

110. Notwithstanding any prohibition on assignability under applicable non-bankruptcy law, on the Effective Date and thereafter if additional Wind-Down Debtor Assets become available, the Debtors shall be deemed, subject to the Plan Administrator Agreement, to have automatically transferred to the applicable Wind-Down Debtor all of their right, title, and interest in and to all of the Wind-Down Debtor Assets, in accordance with section 1141 of the Bankruptcy Code. All such assets shall automatically vest in the Wind-Down Debtor free and clear of all Claims, Liens, and other interests, subject only to the Allowed Claims and Interests as set forth in the Plan and the expenses of the Wind-Down Debtor as set forth in the Plan and in the Plan Administrator Agreement. Thereupon, the Debtors shall have no interest in or with respect to the Wind-Down Debtor Assets or the Wind-Down Debtor.

111. On the Effective Date, the Debtors or Plan Administrator, as applicable, may establish one or more accounts or funds to hold and dispose of certain assets, pursue certain litigation (including the Vested Causes of Action), and/or satisfy certain Claims (including Claims that are contingent or have not yet been Allowed). For any such account or fund, the Debtors or the Plan Administrator, as applicable, may take the position that grantor trust treatment applies in whole or in part. To the extent such treatment applies to any such account or fund, for all U.S. federal income tax purposes, the beneficiaries of any such account or fund would be treated as grantors and owners thereof, and it is intended, to the extent reasonably practicable, that any such account or fund would be classified as a liquidating trust under section 301.7701-4 of the Treasury

Regulations. Alternatively, any such account or fund may be subject to the tax rules that apply to “disputed ownership funds” under 26 C.F.R. 1.468B–9. If such rules apply, such assets would be subject to entity-level taxation, and the Debtors and Plan Administrator would be required to comply with the relevant rules.

112. Effectiveness of All Actions. All actions contemplated by the Plan, including all actions in connection with the Sale Transaction or the Liquidation Transaction, as applicable, are hereby effective and authorized to be taken on, prior to, or after the Effective Date, as applicable, under this Confirmation Order, without further application to, or order of the Court, or further action by the respective officers, directors, managers, members, or equity holders of the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor and with the effect that such actions had been taken by unanimous action of such officers, directors, managers, members, or equity holders.

113. Cancellation of Notes, Instruments, Certificates, and Other Documents. On the later of the Effective Date and the date on which distributions are made pursuant to the Plan (if not made on the Effective Date), except for the purpose of evidencing a right to and allowing Holders of Claims and Interests to receive a distribution under the Plan or to the extent otherwise specifically provided for in the Plan, this Confirmation Order, or any agreement, instrument, or other document entered into in connection with or pursuant to the Plan or the Restructuring Transactions, all notes, bonds, indentures, certificates, Securities, shares, purchase rights, options, warrants, collateral agreements, subordination agreements, intercreditor agreements, or other instruments or documents directly or indirectly evidencing, creating, or relating to any indebtedness or obligations of, or ownership interest in, the Debtors, giving rise to any Claims against or Interests in the Debtors or to any rights or obligations relating to any Claims against or Interests in the

Debtors shall be deemed cancelled without any need for a Holder to take further action with respect thereto.

114. For the avoidance of doubt, cancellation of Existing Equity Interests pursuant to the Plan shall not affect the rights of the Holders of Existing Equity Interests to receive distributions, if any, under the Plan on account of such Existing Equity Interests. Holders of Existing Equity Interests shall continue to possess all rights, powers, privileges, and standing associated with such Existing Equity Interests as if those Existing Equity Interests continue to exist subject to the terms of the Plan and this Confirmation Order.

115. Distributions. The procedures governing distributions contained in Article VI of the Plan shall be, and hereby are, approved in their entirety. Except as otherwise set forth in the Plan or this Confirmation Order, the Plan Administrator shall make all distributions required under the Plan and the timing of distributions required under the Plan or this Confirmation Order shall be made in accordance with and as set forth in the Plan, this Confirmation Order, or the Plan Administrator Agreement, as applicable; provided that, if a creditor does not timely provide the Plan Administrator with its taxpayer identification number in the manner and by the deadline established by the Plan Administrator and/or the Plan, the creditor shall be deemed to have forfeited its right to any current, reserved or future distributions provided for under the Plan and such creditor's Claim or Interest shall be disallowed and expunged without further order of the Court. Any such forfeited distribution shall be deemed to have reverted back to the Wind-Down Debtor for all purposes, including for distributions to other holders of Allowed Claims or Allowed Interests (as applicable) against the particular Debtor in respect of which the forfeited distribution was made, notwithstanding any federal, provincial or state escheat, abandoned or unclaimed property law to the contrary.

116. Claims Register. Any Claim or Interest that has been paid, satisfied, amended, superseded, cancelled, or otherwise expunged (including pursuant to the Plan) may be adjusted or expunged, as applicable, on the Claims Register at the direction of the Debtors or Wind-Down Debtor without the Debtors or Wind-Down Debtor having to File an application, motion, complaint, objection, or any other legal proceeding seeking to object to such Claim or Interest and without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Court.

117. Preservation of Rights of Action. In accordance with section 1123(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Wind-Down Debtor shall succeed to all rights to commence and pursue any and all Vested Causes of Action of the Debtors, whether arising before or after the Petition Date, including, without limitation, any actions specifically enumerated in the Schedule of Retained Causes of Action other than Causes of Action released, waived, settled, compromised, or transferred. Such rights shall be preserved by the Debtors and Wind-Down Debtor and shall vest in the Wind-Down Debtor, with the Wind-Down Debtor's rights to commence, prosecute, or settle such Causes of Action preserved notwithstanding the occurrence of the Effective Date, other than the Causes of Action expressly released, waived, settled, compromised, or transferred by the Debtors pursuant to the releases and exculpations contained in the Plan, including in Article VIII of the Plan or pursuant to the Asset Purchase Agreement, which shall be deemed released and waived by the Debtors and the Wind-Down Debtor as of the Effective Date.

118. The Wind-Down Debtor may pursue such Causes of Action, as appropriate, in accordance with the best interests of the beneficiaries of the Wind-Down Debtor and in accordance with the Plan Administrator Agreement and the Plan. No Entity may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Schedules of Assets and Liabilities or Statement of Financial Affairs, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, the Disclosure Statement, or the Schedule of Retained Causes of Action to any Cause of Action against it as any indication that the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor will not pursue any and all available Causes of Action against it. The Wind-Down Debtor, on behalf of the Debtors and the Wind-Down Debtor, expressly reserves all rights to prosecute any and all Causes of Action against any Entity, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, including Article VIII of the Plan. Unless any Cause of Action of the Debtors is expressly waived, relinquished, exculpated, released, compromised, or settled in the Plan or pursuant to a Final Order, the Wind-Down Debtor, on behalf of the Debtors and Wind-Down Debtor and in accordance with the Plan Administrator Agreement, expressly reserves all such Causes of Action for later adjudication, and, therefore, no preclusion doctrine, including the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, estoppel (judicial, equitable, or otherwise), or laches, shall apply to such Causes of Action upon, after, or as a consequence of Confirmation.

119. The Wind-Down Debtor, on behalf of the Debtors and the Wind-Down Debtor, reserves and shall retain such Causes of Action of the Debtors notwithstanding the rejection or repudiation of any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease during the Chapter 11 Cases or pursuant to the Plan. In accordance with section 1123(b)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code, any Cause of Action that a Debtor may hold against any Entity shall vest in the Wind-Down Debtor, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, including Article VIII of the Plan. The Wind-Down Debtor, through their authorized agents or representatives, shall retain and may exclusively enforce any and all such Causes of Action. The Wind-Down Debtor shall have the exclusive right, authority, and discretion to determine and to initiate, file, prosecute, enforce, abandon, settle, compromise, release, withdraw, or litigate to judgment any such Causes of Action, or to decline to do any of the foregoing, without the consent or approval of any third party or any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Court in accordance with the Plan.

120. Subordination. Except as expressly provided in the Plan, the allowance, classification, and treatment of all Allowed Claims against and Allowed Interests in the Debtors and the respective distributions and treatments under the Plan take into account and conform to the relative priority and rights of the Claims and Interests in each Class in connection with any contractual, legal, and equitable subordination rights relating thereto, whether arising under general principles of equitable subordination, section 510(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, or otherwise. Pursuant to section 510 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors and the Wind-Down Debtor reserve the right to reclassify any Allowed Claim or Allowed Interest in accordance with any contractual, legal, or equitable subordination relating thereto.

121. Release of Liens. Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Plan Supplement, or any contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created pursuant to the Plan or this Confirmation Order on the Effective Date, and concurrently with the applicable distributions made pursuant to the Plan, all mortgages, deeds of trust, Liens, pledges, or other security interests against any property of the Estates shall be fully released, settled, and compromised, and all of the right, title, and interest of any holder of such mortgages, deeds of trust, Liens, pledges, or other security interests against any property of the Debtors shall automatically revert to the applicable Debtor or Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, and their successors and assigns, in each case, without any further approval or order of the Court and without any action or Filing being required to be made by the Debtors. The presentation or filing of this Confirmation Order to or with any local, state, federal, or foreign agency or department shall constitute good and sufficient evidence of, but shall not be required to effect, the termination of such Liens.

122. Governance of the Wind-Down Debtor. The Plan Administrator shall appoint an independent director at each Debtor to act as a fiduciary for such Debtor entity in connection with the resolution of the Intercompany Claims.

123. Intercompany Claims. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Confirmation Order or the Plan shall have any impact on the validity, extent, priority, or treatment of the Intercompany Claims. Any determination as to the validity, extent, priority, or treatment of the Intercompany Claims shall be determined by the Court in a separate matter on proper notice to parties in interest. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Confirmation Order or the Plan, the rights of the ad hoc group of equityholders (the “AHG”) to continue or participate in any adjudication of the Intercompany Claims are preserved, and any party reserves any and all rights, claims, and defenses in connection therewith, including without limitation, the Debtors and/or the Wind-Down Debtor’s right to challenge the AHG’s standing with respect thereto; provided that such right, claim, or defense is not based on any provision in this Confirmation Order or the Plan.

124. FTX Settlement. Pursuant to the terms of the FTX Settlement, the Debtors shall reserve and hold the amount of $445 million in Cash on account of the Preference Claims (as defined in the FTX Settlement) asserted by FTX, Alameda, and their estates in the FTX Bankruptcy Proceeding, subject to all defenses and counterclaims thereto, until the final resolution of the Preference Claims by settlement or a final and unappealable order by the court in the FTX Bankruptcy Proceeding, including any appeals therefrom.

125. General Settlement of Claims and Interests. As discussed in detail in the Disclosure Statement and as otherwise provided in the Plan, pursuant to section 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 9019, and in consideration for the classification, distributions, releases, and other benefits provided under the Plan, on the Effective Date, the provisions of the Plan shall constitute a good-faith compromise and settlement of all Claims, Interests, Causes of Action, and controversies released, settled, compromised, or otherwise resolved pursuant to the Plan. The Plan shall be deemed a motion to approve the good-faith compromise and settlement of all such Claims, Interests, Causes of Action, and controversies pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019, and the entry of this Confirmation Order shall constitute the Court's approval of such compromise and settlement under section 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 9019 of all such Claims, Interests, Causes of Action, and controversies, as well as a finding by the Court that such compromise and settlement is fair, equitable, reasonable, and in the best interests of the Debtors, their Estates, and Holders of Claims and Interests. Subject to Article VI of the Plan, all distributions made to Holders of Allowed Claims and Interests in any Class are intended to be and shall be final.

126. Third-Party Releases. For the avoidance of doubt, any party that did not affirmatively "opt in" to the Third-Party Releases contained in the Plan shall not be deemed to grant such Third-Party Releases contained in the Plan.

127. Contributed Third Party Claims. For the avoidance of doubt, any party that did not affirmatively "opt in" to contribute their Contributed Third-Party Claims to the Wind-Down Debtor shall not be deemed to contribute their claims to the Wind-Down Debtor; provided, however, that any party may contribute their Contributed Third-Party Claims to the Wind-Down Debtor on or after the Effective Date by separate agreement with the Plan Administrator and Wind-Down Debtor. Any such agreement shall be valid to the same extent as if the party affirmatively opted in to contribute their Contributed Third-Party Claims to the Wind-Down Debtor.

128. Operations After Closing. On and after the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor may use, acquire, or dispose of property and compromise or settle any Claims, Interests, or Causes of Action without supervision or approval by the Court and free of any restrictions of the Bankruptcy Code or Bankruptcy Rules.

129. Assumption and Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases. On the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, each Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease not previously rejected, assumed, or assumed and assigned, including any employee benefit plans, severance plans, and other Executory Contracts under which employee obligations arise, shall be deemed automatically rejected pursuant to sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code, unless such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease: (a) is specifically described in the Plan as to be assumed in connection with confirmation of the Plan, or is specifically scheduled to be assumed or assumed and assigned pursuant to the Plan or the Plan Supplement; (b) is subject to a pending motion to assume such Unexpired Lease or Executory Contract as of the Effective Date; (c) is to be assumed by the Debtors or assumed by the Debtors and assigned to another third party, as applicable, in connection with the Sale Transaction; (d) is a contract, instrument, release, indenture, or other agreement or document entered into in connection with the Plan; or (e) is a D&O Liability Insurance Policy other than the Side-A Policy. Entry of this Confirmation Order constitutes approval of such assumptions, assignments, and rejections, including the assumption of the Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases as provided in the Plan Supplement, pursuant to sections 365(a) and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code. Except as otherwise provided in this Confirmation Order, any and all objections or reservations of rights in connection with the rejection of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease under the Plan, if any, are overruled on their merits.

130. Waiver or Estoppel. Each Holder of a Claim or an Interest shall be deemed to have waived any right to assert any argument, including the right to argue that its Claim or Interest should be Allowed in a certain amount, in a certain priority, Secured or not subordinated by virtue of an agreement made with the Debtors or their counsel, or any other Entity, if such agreement was not disclosed in the Plan, the Disclosure Statement, or papers Filed prior to the Confirmation Date.

131. Insurance Policies and Surety Bonds. Each D&O Liability Insurance Policy (including, without limitation, any “tail policy” and all agreements, documents, or instruments related thereto) other than the Side-A Policy shall be assumed, in their entirety, without the need for any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Court, as of the Effective Date, pursuant to sections 105 and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code with the Wind-Down Debtor being authorized to pursue any proceeds thereof on behalf of the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor. The Side-A Policy shall remain in effect during these Chapter 11 Cases with the Debtors, and the Wind-Down Debtor preserves all avoidance and other actions in connection with the premium paid thereunder. All beneficiaries under the D&O Insurance Policies reserve their rights under such D&O Insurance Policies subject to the limitations set forth in the Plan.

132. The Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, shall not terminate or otherwise reduce the coverage under any D&O Liability Insurance Policy (including, without limitation, any “tail policy” and all agreements, documents, or instruments related thereto) in effect prior to the Effective Date, and subject in all respects to the D&O Settlement, any current and former directors, officers, managers, and employees of the Debtors who served in such capacity at any time before or after the Effective Date shall be entitled to the full benefits of any such policy for the full term of such policy subject to the terms thereof regardless of whether such directors, officers, managers, and employees remain in such positions after the Effective Date. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan, the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor shall retain the ability to supplement such D&O Liability Insurance Policy as the Debtors or Wind-Down Debtor may deem necessary, subject to the prior written consent of the Wind-Down Debtor.

133. The Debtors shall continue to satisfy their obligations under their insurance policies in full and continue such programs in the ordinary course of business. Each of the Debtors' insurance policies, and any agreements, documents, or instruments relating thereto shall be treated as Executory Contracts under the Plan. On the Effective Date: (a) the Debtors shall be deemed to have assumed all such insurance policies and any agreements, documents, and instruments relating thereto in their entirety and (b) such insurance policies and any agreements, documents, or instruments relating thereto shall revert in the applicable Wind-Down Debtor(s) unaltered.

134. Authorization to Consummate. The Debtors are authorized to consummate the Plan at any time after the entry of this Confirmation Order subject to satisfaction or waiver (by the required parties) of the conditions precedent to consummation as set forth in Article IX of the Plan.

135. Professional Compensation. All final requests for payment of Professional Fee Claims for services rendered and reimbursement of expenses incurred prior to the Confirmation Date must be Filed no later than sixty (60) days after the Effective Date. The Court shall determine the Allowed amounts of such Professional Fee Claims after notice and a hearing in accordance with the procedures established by the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules. The Wind-Down Debtor shall pay Professional Fee Claims in Cash to such Professionals in the amount the Court allows, including from funds held in the Professional Fee Escrow Account as soon as reasonably practicable after such Professional Fee Claims are Allowed by entry of an order of the Court; provided that the Debtors' and the Wind-Down Debtor's obligations to pay Allowed Professional

Fee Claims shall not be limited or deemed limited to funds held in the Professional Fee Escrow Account.

136. No later than the Effective Date, the Debtors shall establish and fund the Professional Fee Escrow Account with Cash equal to the Professional Fee Escrow Amount. The Professional Fee Escrow Account shall be maintained in trust solely for the Professionals and for no other Entities until all Professional Fee Claims Allowed by the Court have been irrevocably paid in full to the Professionals pursuant to one or more Final Orders of the Court. No Liens, claims, or interests shall encumber the Professional Fee Escrow Account or Cash held in the Professional Fee Escrow Account in any way. No funds held in the Professional Fee Escrow Account shall be property of the Estates of the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor. When all Professional Fee Claims Allowed by the Court have been irrevocably paid in full to the Professionals pursuant to one or more Final Orders of the Court, any remaining funds held in the Professional Fee Escrow Account shall be turned over to the Wind-Down Debtor without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Court or any other Entity.

137. The Professionals shall deliver to the Debtors a reasonable and good-faith estimate of their unpaid fees and expenses incurred in rendering services to the Debtors before and as of the Confirmation Date projected to be outstanding as of the anticipated Effective Date, and shall deliver such estimate no later than five Business Days prior to the anticipated Effective Date. For the avoidance of doubt, no such estimate shall be considered or deemed an admission or limitation with respect to the amount of the fees and expenses that are the subject of a Professional's final request for payment of Professional Fee Claims Filed with the Court, and such Professionals are not bound to any extent by the estimates. If a Professional does not provide an estimate, the Debtors may estimate the unpaid and unbilled fees and expenses of such Professional. The total aggregate amount so estimated to be outstanding as of the anticipated Effective Date shall be utilized by the Debtors to determine the amount to be funded to the Professional Fee Escrow Account; provided that the Wind-Down Debtor shall use Cash on hand to increase the amount of the Professional Fee Escrow Account to the extent fee applications are Filed after the Effective Date in excess of the amount held in the Professional Fee Escrow Account based on such estimates.

138. Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan, from and after the Confirmation Date, the Debtors and/or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, shall, in the ordinary course of business and without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Court, pay in Cash the reasonable and documented legal, professional, or other fees and expenses related to implementation of the Plan and Consummation incurred by the Wind-Down Debtor. Upon the Confirmation Date, any requirement that Professionals comply with sections 327 through 331, 363, and 1103 of the Bankruptcy Code in seeking retention or compensation for services rendered after such date shall terminate, and the Wind-Down Debtor may employ and pay any Professional in the ordinary course of business for the period after the Confirmation Date without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Court.

139. Return of Deposits. All utilities, including, but not limited to, any Person or Entity that received a deposit or other form of adequate assurance of performance under section 366 of the Bankruptcy Code during these Chapter 11 Cases, must return such deposit or other form of adequate assurance of performance to the Wind-Down Debtor promptly following the occurrence of the Effective Date, if not returned or applied earlier.

140. Release, Exculpation, and Injunction Provisions. The release, exculpation, injunction, opt in, and related provisions set forth in the Plan are approved and authorized in their entirety, and such provisions are effective and binding on all Persons and Entities to the extent provided therein except as otherwise provided in this Confirmation Order, provided, however, that nothing in the exculpation related provisions of the Plan shall release the Debtors from the provisions of the Plan governing satisfaction of Allowed Claims including Allowed Administrative Expense Claims or change the standard for liability on Allowed Claims or Allowed Administrative Expense Claims, subject to any applicable bankruptcy and non-bankruptcy law.

141. For the avoidance of doubt, the Debtors are not seeking a discharge under section 1141(d).

142. Governmental Units. Nothing in this Confirmation Order or the Plan shall effect a release by the United States, the States or any of their agencies of any claim arising under the Internal Revenue Code, the environmental laws or any civil or criminal laws of the United States or the States, or under any rules or regulations enforced by the United States, the States or any of their agencies against the Released Parties, nor shall anything in the Confirmation Order or the Plan enjoin the United States or the States from bringing any claim, suit, action or other proceedings against the Released Parties for any liability for any claim, suit or action arising under the Internal Revenue Code, the environmental laws or any civil or criminal laws of the United States or the States, or under any rules or regulations enforced by the United States, the States or any of their agencies, nor shall anything in the Confirmation Order or the Plan exculpate any such party from any liability to the United States, the States or any of their agencies, arising under the Internal Revenue Code, the environmental laws or any civil or criminal laws of the United States or the States, or under any rules or regulations enforced by the United States, the States or any of their agencies; provided, however, that nothing in this Confirmation Order or the Plan shall modify in any respect the relief previously granted in the Bar Date Order and thus no person or entity, including the United States, the States or any of their agencies, can seek or receive a direct or indirect distribution of any property of the Debtors' estates unless they filed a Proof of Claim prior to the Governmental Bar Date; provided, further, that the United States, the States, and their agencies may not, and will not, allege that the Restructuring Transactions are a violation of any rules or regulations enforced by the United States, the States or any of their agencies, nor will they bring any claim against any Person on account of or relating to the Restructuring Transactions.

143. Nothing in this Confirmation Order, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, or the Asset Purchase Agreement releases, precludes, or enjoins: (i) any liability to any governmental unit as defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(27) ("Governmental Unit") that is not a "claim" as defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(5) ("Claim"); (ii) any Claim of a Governmental Unit arising on or after the Effective Date; or (iii) any liability to a Governmental Unit on the part of any non-Debtor (except to the extent set forth in paragraphs 97 and 99 herein); provided, however, that nothing in this Confirmation Order or the Plan shall modify in any respect the relief previously granted in the Bar Date Order; provided, further, that no Governmental Unit will allege that the Restructuring Transactions are a violation of any rules or regulations enforced by the United States, the States or any of their agencies, nor will they bring any claim against any Person on account of or relating to the Restructuring Transactions. Nothing in this Confirmation Order, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, or the Asset Purchase Agreement authorizes the transfer or assignment of any governmental (a) license, (b) permit, (c) registration, (d) authorization, or (e) approval, without compliance with all applicable legal requirements.

144. Securities and Exchange Commission Provisions. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Confirmation Order, or any findings announced at the Combined Hearing, nothing in this Confirmation Order, or announced at the Combined Hearing, constitutes a finding under the federal securities laws as to whether crypto tokens or transactions involving crypto tokens are securities, and the right of the SEC to challenge transactions involving crypto tokens on any basis is expressly reserved.

145. Notwithstanding any provision herein to the contrary, nothing in this Confirmation Order or the Plan grants this Court jurisdiction over any police and regulatory actions by the SEC, and the SEC shall retain the power and authority to commence and continue any such actions against any person or entity, including without limitation, the Debtors, in any forum with jurisdiction; provided, however, that nothing in this Confirmation Order or the Plan shall modify in any respect the relief previously granted in the Bar Date Order; provided, however, that the SEC will not allege that the Restructuring Transactions are a violation of any rules or regulations enforced by the SEC, nor will they bring any claim against any Person on account of or relating to the Restructuring Transactions.

146. Upon the occurrence of the Effective Date, the Debtors' books and records shall be transferred to the Wind-Down Debtor, which shall continue to preserve all financial books and records, emails, and other financial documents relating to the Debtors' business that are currently in the Debtors' possession. The Wind-Down Debtor shall not destroy or otherwise abandon any such documents or records without providing advance notice to the SEC (c/o Therese Scheuer, U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, 100 F Street, NE, Washington, DC 20549, ScheuerT@SEC.GOV) and seeking further authorization from this Court. Nothing in the Plan or this Confirmation Order shall affect the obligations of the pre-Effective Date Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, and/or any transferee or custodian to maintain all books and records that are subject to any governmental subpoena, document preservation letter, or other investigative request from a governmental agency.

147. Notwithstanding any language to the contrary herein, no provision in the Plan or this Confirmation Order shall (a) preclude the OSC or the SEC from enforcing its police or regulatory powers or (b) enjoin, limit, impair or delay the OSC or SEC from commencing or continuing any claims, causes of action, proceeding, or investigations against any non-Debtor person or non-Debtor entity in any forum.

148. Employee Transition Plan. The Employee Transition Plan, the terms of which are included in the Plan Supplement as Exhibit H, will be implemented following the Effective Date and is not subject to the Court's approval.

149. Compliance with Tax Requirements. In connection with the Plan, to the extent applicable, the Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, any Distribution Agent, and any other applicable withholding and reporting agents shall comply with all tax withholding and reporting requirements imposed on them by any Governmental Unit, and all distributions pursuant to the Plan shall be subject to such withholding and reporting requirements. Notwithstanding any provision in the Plan to the contrary, the Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, the Distribution Agent, and any other applicable withholding and reporting agents shall be authorized to take all actions necessary or appropriate to comply with such withholding and reporting requirements, including winding-down a portion of the distribution to be made under the Plan to generate sufficient funds to pay applicable withholding taxes, withholding distributions pending receipt of information necessary to facilitate such distributions, or establishing any other mechanisms that are reasonable and appropriate; provided that the Wind-Down Debtor and the Distribution Agent, as applicable, shall request appropriate documentation from the applicable distributees and allow such distributees a reasonable amount of time to respond. The Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, the Distribution Agent, and any other applicable withholding and reporting agents reserve the right to allocate all distributions made under the Plan in compliance with all applicable wage garnishments, alimony, child support, and other spousal awards, liens, and encumbrances.

150. Exemption from Certain Taxes and Fees. To the fullest extent permitted by section 1146(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, any transfers (whether from a Debtor to a Debtor, the Wind-Down Debtor, the Purchaser, or to any other Entity) of property under the Plan or pursuant to: (a) the issuance, distribution, transfer, or exchange of any debt, equity security, or other interest in the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor; (b) the creation, modification, consolidation, termination, refinancing, and/or recording of any mortgage, deed of trust, or other security interest, or the securing of additional indebtedness by such or other means; (c) the making, assignment, or recording of any lease or sublease; or (d) the making, delivery, or recording of any deed or other instrument of transfer under, in furtherance of, or in connection with, the Plan, including any deeds, bills of sale, assignments, or other instrument of transfer executed in connection with any transaction arising out of, contemplated by, or in any way related to the Plan, including the Asset Purchase Agreement, shall not be subject to any document recording tax, stamp tax, conveyance fee, intangibles or similar tax, mortgage tax, real estate transfer tax, mortgage recording tax, sales or use tax, Uniform Commercial Code filing or recording fee, regulatory filing or recording fee, or other similar tax or governmental assessment, and upon entry of this Confirmation Order, the appropriate state or local governmental officials or agents shall forgo the collection of any such tax or governmental assessment and accept for filing and recordation any of the foregoing instruments or other documents without the payment of any such tax, recordation fee, or governmental assessment. All filing or recording officers (or any other Person with authority over any of the foregoing), wherever located and by whomever appointed, shall comply with the requirements of section 1146(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, shall forgo the collection of any such tax or governmental assessment, and shall accept for filing and recordation any of the foregoing instruments or other documents without the payment of any such tax or governmental assessment.

151. Termination of Asset Purchase Agreement. If the Asset Purchase Agreement is terminated and the Sale Transaction is not consummated, all provisions in this Confirmation Order relating to the Asset Purchase Agreement, the Sale Transaction, and the Purchaser shall be of no force and effect, and the Debtors are authorized to consummate the Liquidation Transaction without further order of the Court.

152. The Liquidation Transaction. If the Asset Purchase Agreement is terminated, the Debtors shall pursue the Liquidation Transaction contemplated under the Plan and shall provide all Holders of Claims and Interests with the treatment afforded to such Holders under the Plan. In the event that the Debtors determine to pursue the Liquidation Transaction contemplated under Article IV of the Plan, the Debtors shall promptly notify the Court and all parties in interest. The Plan shall be deemed to satisfy all requirements under the Bankruptcy Code with respect to either the Sale Transaction or the Liquidation Transaction pursuant to this Confirmation Order.

153. Documents, Mortgages, and Instruments. Each federal, state, commonwealth, local, foreign, or other governmental agency is authorized to accept any and all documents, mortgages, and instruments necessary or appropriate to effectuate, implement, or consummate the Plan, including the Restructuring Transactions, and this Confirmation Order.

154. The BNY Objection. This Confirmation Order confirms that the Deed of Trust and Assignment of Rents recorded January 5, 2023 Official Records of Orange County (the “Deed”) transferring title of 37 Black Hawk, Irvine, California 92603 (the “Property”) from Michael G. Beason and Mickey L. Wiebeis (collectively, the “Property Borrowers”) to Voyager Digital, LLC is void. This Confirmation Order may be recorded against the Property as evidence and confirmation that the Deed is void. The Bank Of New York Mellon f/k/a the Bank Of New York, As Trustee For The Certificateholders Of CWALT, Inc., Alternative Loan Trust 2005-38, Mortgage Pass-Through Certificates, Series 2005-38 as Serviced by Shellpoint Mortgage Servicing (“Shellpoint”) shall be permitted to take any other the necessary actions to void the Deed. To the extent necessary, the automatic stay is lifted solely as it pertains to Shellpoint’s rights to take action against the Property and shall be effective immediately upon entry of this Confirmation Order. The Debtor(s) shall not be party to any foreclosure or other proceeding related to the Property as they lack any interest in the Property. Shellpoint shall release the Debtors and the Wind-Down Debtor of any costs and claims incurred on account of the Property, including any actions taken in any foreclosure or other proceeding or associated with voiding the Deed. This Confirmation Order shall in no way prevent Shellpoint from pursuing any and all lawful rights and remedies as to the Property Borrowers.

155. Continued Effect of Stays and Injunction. Unless otherwise provided in the Plan or this Confirmation Order, all injunctions or stays arising under or entered during these Chapter 11 Cases under section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise and in existence on the Confirmation Date, shall remain in full force and effect until the later of the Effective Date and the date indicated in the order providing for such injunction or stay.

156. Non-Severability. Each term and provision of the Plan, as it may have been altered or interpreted in accordance with the foregoing, is: (a) valid and enforceable pursuant to its terms; (b) integral to the Plan and may not be deleted or modified without the Debtors’ consent, consistent with the terms set forth herein; and (c) non-severable and mutually dependent.

157. Notice of Subsequent Pleadings. Except as otherwise provided in the Plan or in this Confirmation Order, notice of all subsequent pleadings in these Chapter 11 Cases after the Effective Date will be limited to the following parties: (a) the Wind-Down Debtor and its counsel; (b) the U.S. Trustee; (c) counsel to the Purchaser; (d) any party known to be directly affected by the relief sought by such pleadings; and (e) any party that specifically requests additional notice in writing to the Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, or the Plan Administrator, as applicable, or files a request for notice under Bankruptcy Rule 2002 after the Effective Date. The Notice and Claims Agent shall not be required to file updated service lists.

158. Post-Confirmation Modifications. Subject to the limitations and terms contained in the Plan and Purchaser's consent rights under the Asset Purchase Agreement, the Debtors, with the consent of the Committee, reserve the right to (a) amend or modify the Plan before the entry of this Confirmation Order, in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code and the Bankruptcy Rules and (b) after the entry of this Confirmation Order, the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, may, upon order of the Court, amend or modify the Plan, in accordance with section 1127(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, to remedy any defect or omission, or reconcile any inconsistency in the Plan in such manner as may be necessary to carry out the purpose and intent of the Plan consistent with the terms set forth in the Plan.

159. Plan Classification Controlling. The terms of the Plan shall solely govern the classification of Claims and Interests for purposes of the distributions to be made thereunder and the classifications set forth on the ballots tendered to or returned by the Holders of Claims or Interests in connection with voting on the Plan: (a) were set forth thereon solely for purposes of voting to accept or reject the Plan; (b) do not necessarily represent, and in no event shall be deemed to modify or otherwise affect, the actual classification of Claims and Interests under the Plan for distribution purposes; (c) may not be relied upon by any Holder of a Claim or Interest as representing the actual classification of such Claim or Interest under the Plan for distribution purposes; and (d) shall not be binding on the Debtors except for voting purposes.

160. Choice of Law. Unless a rule of law or procedure is supplied by federal law (including the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules) or unless otherwise specifically stated, the laws of the State of New York, without giving effect to the principles of conflict of laws, shall govern the rights, obligations, construction, and implementation of the Plan and any agreements, documents, instruments, or contracts executed or entered into in connection with the Plan (except as otherwise set forth in those agreements, documents, instruments, or contracts, in which case the governing law of such agreement shall control); provided that corporate, limited liability company, or partnership governance matters relating to the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, shall be governed by the laws of the jurisdiction of incorporation or formation of the relevant Debtor or Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable.

161. Applicable Nonbankruptcy Law. The provisions of this Confirmation Order, the Plan and related documents, or any amendments or modifications thereto, shall apply and be enforceable notwithstanding any otherwise applicable nonbankruptcy law.

162. Waiver of Filings. Any requirement under section 521 of the Bankruptcy Code or Bankruptcy Rule 1007 obligating the Debtors to file any list, schedule, or statement with the Court or the Office of the U.S. Trustee is permanently waived as to any such list, schedule, or statement not filed as of the Confirmation Date.

163. Governmental Approvals Not Required. This Confirmation Order shall constitute all approvals and consents required, if any, by the laws, rules, or regulations of any state, federal, or other governmental authority with respect to the dissemination, implementation, or consummation of the Plan and the Disclosure Statement, any certifications, documents, instruments or agreements, and any amendments or modifications thereto, and any other acts referred to in, or contemplated by, the Plan and the Disclosure Statement. As provided in section 525 of the Bankruptcy Code, no governmental unit may revoke or suspend any permit or license of the Debtors or Wind-Down Debtor on account of the filing or pendency of the Chapter 11 Cases.

164. Protection Against Discriminatory Treatment. As provided by section 525 of the Bankruptcy Code, and consistent with paragraph 2 of Article VI of the United States Constitution, no Entity, including Governmental Units, shall discriminate against any Wind-Down Debtor or deny, revoke, suspend, or refuse to renew a license, permit, charter, franchise, or other similar grant to, condition such a grant to, or discriminate with respect to such a grant against, any Wind-Down Debtor, or any Entity with which a Wind-Down Debtor has been or is associated, solely because such Wind-Down Debtor was a debtor under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code or may have been insolvent before the commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases (or during the Chapter 11 Cases).

165. Notices of Confirmation and Effective Date. The Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, shall serve notice of entry of this Confirmation Order, of the occurrence of the Effective Date, and of applicable deadlines (the “Notice of Confirmation”) in accordance with Bankruptcy Rules 2002 and 3020(c) on all parties served with the Combined Hearing Notice seven Business Days after the Effective Date; provided that no notice of any kind shall be required to be mailed or made upon any Entity to whom the Debtors mailed notice of the Combined Hearing, but received such notice returned marked “undeliverable as addressed,” “moved, left no forwarding address,” or “forwarding order expired,” or similar reason, unless the Debtors have been informed in writing by such Entity, or are otherwise aware, of that Entity’s new address. For those parties receiving electronic service, filing on the docket is deemed sufficient to satisfy such service and notice requirements.

166. No later than ten Business Days after the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Debtor shall cause the Notice of Confirmation, modified for publication, to be published on one occasion in The New York Times (national edition) and USA Today (national edition). Mailing and publication of the Notice of Confirmation in the time and manner set forth in this paragraph will be good, adequate, and sufficient notice under the particular circumstances and in accordance with the requirements of Bankruptcy Rules 2002 and 3020(c). No further notice is necessary.

167. The Notice of Confirmation will have the effect of an order of the Court, will constitute sufficient notice of the entry of this Confirmation Order to filing and recording officers, and will be a recordable instrument notwithstanding any contrary provision of applicable nonbankruptcy law. The above-referenced notices are adequate under the particular circumstances of these Chapter 11 Cases and no other or further notice is necessary.

168. Dissolution of Statutory Committees. On the Effective Date, any statutory committee appointed in the Chapter 11 Cases shall dissolve, and the members thereof shall be released and discharged from all rights and duties arising from, or related to, the Chapter 11 Cases; provided, however, that such committees will remain in existence for the limited purposes of (a) pursuing, supporting, or otherwise participating in, any outstanding appeals in the Chapter 11 Cases; and (b) filing, objecting, or otherwise participating in, any final fee applications of Professionals.

169. Exemption from Registration. The Plan Administrator shall hold the equity of the Voyager Digital Ltd., to the extent that any new equity is issued, in an agency capacity, for the benefit of and to facilitate the rights of Holders of Interests provided under the Plan; provided that such equity, if issued, shall be uncertificated and non-transferable.

170. Distributions to Holders of Claims and Interests in accordance with the Plan shall not be deemed to be unlicensed money transmission.

171. Effect of Non-Occurrence of Conditions to Confirmation. If the Effective Date does not occur within 120 days after the Confirmation Date, then the Plan will be null and void in all respects, any and all compromises or settlements not previously approved by Final Order of the Court embodied in the Plan (including with respect to the fixing, limiting, or treatment of any Claim or Interest), shall be deemed null and void, and nothing contained in the Plan or the Disclosure Statement shall: (a) constitute a waiver or release of any Claims, Interests, or Causes of Action held by any Debtor or any other Entity; (b) prejudice in any manner the rights of any Debtor or any other Entity; or (c) constitute an admission, acknowledgment, offer, or undertaking of any sort by any Debtor or any other Entity in any respect.

172. Substantial Consummation. On the Effective Date, the Plan shall be deemed to have been substantially consummated or shall be anticipated to be substantially consummated concurrent with the occurrence of the Effective Date.

173. Waiver of Stay. For good cause shown, the stay of this Confirmation Order provided by any Bankruptcy Rule is waived, and this Confirmation Order shall be effective and enforceable immediately upon its entry by the Court.

174. Immediate Binding Effect. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rules 3020(e), 6004(h), or 7062 or otherwise, upon the occurrence of the Effective Date, the terms of the Plan shall be immediately effective and enforceable and deemed binding upon the Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, and any and all Holders of Claims or Interests (irrespective of whether such Claims or Interests are deemed to have accepted the Plan), all Entities that are parties to or are subject to the settlements, compromises, releases, exculpations, and injunctions described in the Plan, each Entity acquiring property under the Plan, and any and all non-Debtor parties to Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases with the Debtors. All Claims against and Interests in the Debtors shall be as fixed, adjusted, or compromised, as applicable, pursuant to the Plan regardless of whether any Holder of a Claim or Interest has voted on the Plan.

175. References to and Omissions of Plan Provisions. References to articles, sections, and provisions of the Plan are inserted for convenience of reference only and are not intended to be a part of or to affect the interpretation of the Plan. The failure to specifically include or to refer to any particular article, section, or provision of the Plan in this Confirmation Order shall not diminish or impair the effectiveness of such article, section, or provision, it being the intent of the Court that the Plan be confirmed in its entirety, except as expressly modified herein, and incorporated herein by reference.

176. Headings. Headings utilized herein are for convenience and reference only, and do not constitute a part of the Plan or this Confirmation Order for any other purpose.

177. Effect of Conflict. This Confirmation Order supersedes any Court order issued prior to the Confirmation Date that may be inconsistent with this Confirmation Order. If there is any inconsistency between the terms of the Plan and the terms of this Confirmation Order, the terms of this Confirmation Order shall govern and control. For the avoidance of doubt, the Stipulation and Agreed Order Between the Debtors and Metropolitan Commercial Bank [Docket No. 821] remains in effect and is not superseded by this Confirmation Order.

The Court having:

NOW, THEREFORE, the Court having found that the notice of the Combined Hearing and the opportunity for any party in interest to object to approval of the Disclosure Statement and confirmation of the Plan were adequate and appropriate as to all parties affected or to be affected by the Plan and the transactions contemplated therein, and that the legal and factual bases set forth in the documents filed in support of approval of the Disclosure Statement and confirmation of the Plan and other evidence presented at the Combined Hearing and the record of the Chapter 11 Cases establish just cause for the relief granted herein; and after due deliberation thereon and good cause appearing therefor, the Court makes and issues the following findings of fact and conclusions of law, and orders:

FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

IT IS DETERMINED, FOUND, ADJUDGED, DECREED, AND ORDERED THAT:

A. Findings and Conclusions.

1. The findings and conclusions set forth herein and in the record of the Combined Hearing constitute the Court's findings of fact and conclusions of law under rule 52 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, as made applicable herein by Bankruptcy Rules 7052 and 9014. To the extent any of the following conclusions of law constitute findings of fact, or vice versa, they are adopted as such.

B. Jurisdiction, Venue, and Core Proceeding.

2. The Court has jurisdiction over these Chapter 11 Cases pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 and the Amended Standing Order of Reference from the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, entered February 1, 2012. The Court has exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether the Disclosure Statement and the Plan comply with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code and should be approved and confirmed, respectively. Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409. Confirmation of the Plan is a core proceeding within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2).

C. Eligibility for Relief.

3. The Debtors were and are entities eligible for relief under section 109 of the Bankruptcy Code.

D. Commencement and Joint Administration of the Chapter 11 Cases.

4. On the Petition Date, each of the Debtors commenced a voluntary case under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. In accordance with the Order (I) Directing Joint Administration of the Chapter 11 Cases and (II) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 18], these

Chapter 11 Cases were consolidated for procedural purposes only and are being jointly administered pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1015. Since the Petition Date, the Debtors have operated their business and managed their property as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code.

E. Appointment of the Committee.

5. On July 19, 2022, the United States Trustee for the Southern District of New York (the “U.S. Trustee”) appointed an official committee of unsecured creditors pursuant to section 1102 of the Bankruptcy Code (the “Committee”) [Docket No. 106].

F. Judicial Notice, Objections Overruled.

6. The Court takes judicial notice of (and deems admitted into evidence for purposes of final approval of the Disclosure Statement and Confirmation of the Plan) the docket of the Chapter 11 Cases maintained by the clerk of the Court or its duly appointed agent, including all pleadings and other documents on file, all orders entered, all hearing transcripts, and all evidence and arguments made, proffered, or adduced at the hearings held before the Court during the pendency of these Chapter 11 Cases. All objections, statements, informal objections, and reservations of rights not consensually resolved, agreed to, or withdrawn, if any, related to the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, or Confirmation are overruled on the merits unless otherwise indicated in this Confirmation Order.

G. Conditional Disclosure Statement Order.

7. On January 13, 2023, the Court entered the Conditional Disclosure Statement Order [Docket No. 861], which, among other things, set (i) February 22, 2023, at 4:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) as (a) the Plan Objection Deadline and (b) the Voting Deadline and

(ii) March 2, 2023, at 10:00 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) as the date and time for commencement of the Combined Hearing.

H. Adequacy of the Disclosure Statement.

8. The Disclosure Statement contains (a) sufficient information of a kind necessary to satisfy the disclosure requirements of all applicable nonbankruptcy laws, rules, and regulations, including the Securities Act, and (b) “adequate information” (as such term is defined in section 1125(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and used in section 1126(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code) with respect to the Debtors, the Plan, and the transactions contemplated therein. The filing of the Disclosure Statement with the clerk of the Court satisfied Bankruptcy Rule 3016(b), and the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, and the Solicitation Packages provided all parties-in-interest with sufficient notice regarding the settlement, release, exculpation, and injunction provisions contained in the Plan in compliance with Bankruptcy Rule 3016(c).

I. Burden of Proof—Confirmation of the Plan.

9. The Debtors, as proponents of the Plan, have met their burden of proving the applicable elements of sections 1129(a) and 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code by a preponderance of the evidence, which is the applicable evidentiary standard for Confirmation.

J. Notice.

10. The Debtors provided due, adequate, and sufficient notice of the Disclosure Statement, the Conditional Disclosure Statement Order, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, the Solicitation Packages, the Combined Hearing Notice, the proposed assumption and rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases and the proposed cure amounts, and all the other materials distributed by the Debtors in connection with Confirmation of the Plan, together with the Plan Objection Deadline, the Voting Deadline, and the Combined Hearing, and any applicable bar dates and hearings described in the Conditional Disclosure Statement Order, in compliance with the Bankruptcy Rules, Local Rules, and the procedures set forth in the Disclosure Statement Order. No other or further notice is or shall be required.

K. Solicitation.

11. Prior to the Combined Hearing, the Debtors filed the Voting Report. The Voting Report was admitted into evidence during the Combined Hearing. As described in the Voting Report, the solicitation of votes on the Plan complied with the Solicitation Procedures, was appropriate and satisfactory based upon the circumstances of these Chapter 11 Cases, and was in compliance with the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, and any other applicable rules, laws, and regulations.

12. As described in the Voting Report, following the Petition Date, the Solicitation Packages, the Plan Supplement, and the Combined Hearing Notice were transmitted and served, including to all Holders of Claims in Class 3 (Account Holder Claims), Class 4A (OpCo General Unsecured Claims), Class 4B (HoldCo General Unsecured Claims), and Class 4C (TopCo General Unsecured Claims) (collectively, the “Voting Classes”) that held a Claim as of January 10, 2023 (the date specified in such documents for the purpose of solicitation) (the “Voting Record Date”), in compliance with the Bankruptcy Code, including sections 1125 and 1126 thereof, the Bankruptcy Rules, including Bankruptcy Rules 3017 and 3018, the Local Rules, the Disclosure Statement Order, and any applicable nonbankruptcy law. Transmission and service of the Solicitation Packages and the Combined Hearing Notice were timely, adequate, and sufficient. The establishment and notice of the Voting Record Date were reasonable and sufficient. No other or further notice is required.

13. The period during which Holders in the Voting Classes were required to submit acceptances or rejections to the Plan was reasonable and sufficient for such Holders to make an informed decision to accept or reject the Plan.

14. As set forth in the Plan, Holders of Claims in the Voting Classes were eligible to vote on the Plan in accordance with the Solicitation Procedures. Holders of Claims in Class 1 (Secured Tax Claims) and Class 2 (Other Priority Claims) (collectively, the “Presumed Accepting Classes”) are Unimpaired and conclusively presumed to accept the Plan and, therefore, did not vote to accept or reject the Plan. Holders of Claims in Class 7 (Intercompany Claims) and Interests in Class 8 (Intercompany Interests) either are Unimpaired and conclusively presumed to have accepted the Plan (to the extent reinstated) or Impaired and conclusively deemed to have rejected the Plan, and, therefore, are not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan. Holders of Claims in Class 5 (Alameda Loan Facility Claims) and Class 6 (Section 510(b) Claims) and Interests in Class 9 (Existing Equity Claims) (collectively, the “Deemed Rejecting Classes”) are Impaired under the Plan and are deemed to have rejected the Plan. Nevertheless, the Debtors served Holders in such Deemed Rejecting Classes with the Plan, the Disclosure Statement, the Non-Voting Status Notice, and the Combined Hearing Notice.

L. Voting.

15. As evidenced by the Voting Report, votes to accept or reject the Plan have been solicited and tabulated fairly, in good faith, and in compliance with the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, the Conditional Disclosure Statement Order, and any applicable nonbankruptcy law, rule, or regulation.

16. As evidenced by the Voting Report, Class 3 (Account Holder Claims), Class 4A \(OpCo General Unsecured Claims\), Class 4B \(HoldCo General Unsecured Claims\), and Class 4C (TopCo General Unsecured Claims) voted to accept the Plan in accordance with section 1126 of the Bankruptcy Code.

17. Based on the foregoing, and as evidenced by the Voting Report, at least one Impaired Class of Claims (excluding the acceptance by any insiders of any of the Debtors) has voted to accept the Plan in accordance with the requirements of sections 1124 and 1126 of the Bankruptcy Code.

M. Plan Supplement.

18. The Plan Supplement complies with the Bankruptcy Code and the terms of the Plan, and the filing and notice of the documents included in the Plan Supplement are adequate and proper in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, the Conditional Disclosure Statement Order, and the facts and circumstances of the Chapter 11 Cases. No other or further notice is or will be required with respect to the Plan Supplement. All documents included in the Plan Supplement are integral to, part of, and incorporated by reference into the Plan. Subject to the terms of the Plan, compliance with the Bankruptcy Code and the Bankruptcy Rules, and, solely to the extent set forth under the Asset Purchase Agreement, consent of the Purchaser, and in a form reasonably acceptable to the Committee, the Debtors reserve the right to alter, amend, update, or modify the Plan Supplement before the Effective Date.

N. Modifications to the Plan.

19. Pursuant to section 1127 of the Bankruptcy Code, any modifications to the Plan since the commencement of Solicitation described or set forth herein constitute technical changes or changes with respect to particular Claims or Interests made pursuant to the agreement of the Holders of such Claims or Interests and do not materially and adversely affect or change the treatment of any other Claims or Interests. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 3019, these modifications do not require additional disclosure under section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code or the resolicitation of votes under section 1126 of the Bankruptcy Code, nor do they require that the Holders of Claims or Interests be afforded an opportunity to change previously cast acceptances or rejections of the Plan.

20. This Confirmation Order contains modifications to the Plan that were made to address objections and informal comments received from various parties in interest. Modifications to the Plan since the entry of the Conditional Disclosure Statement Order, if any, are consistent with the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code. The disclosure of any Plan modifications prior to or on the record at the Combined Hearing constitutes due and sufficient notice of any and all Plan modifications. The Plan as modified shall constitute the Plan submitted for Confirmation.

O. Bankruptcy Rule 3016.

21. The Plan and all modifications thereto are dated and identify the Entities submitting them, thereby satisfying Bankruptcy Rule 3016(a). The Debtors appropriately filed the Disclosure Statement and the Plan with the Court, thereby satisfying Bankruptcy Rule 3016(b). The injunction, release, and exculpation provisions in the Disclosure Statement and the Plan describe, in bold font and with specific and conspicuous language, all acts to be enjoined and identify the entities that will be subject to the injunction, thereby satisfying Bankruptcy Rule 3016(c).

22. The Plan complies with all applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code as required by section 1129(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code.

23. The classification of Claims and Interests under the Plan is proper under the Bankruptcy Code. In accordance with sections 1122(a) and 1123(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, Article III of the Plan provides for the separate classification of Claims and Interests into eleven Classes. Valid business, factual, and legal reasons exist for the separate classification of such Classes of Claims and Interests. The classifications were not implemented for any improper purpose and do not unfairly discriminate between, or among, Holders of Claims or Interests. Each Class of Claims and Interests contains only Claims or Interests that are substantially similar to the other Claims or Interests within that Class. Accordingly, the Plan satisfies the requirements of sections 1122(a), 1122(b), and 1123(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code.

24. Article III of the Plan specifies that Claims in Class 1 (Secured Tax Claims) and Class 2 (Other Priority Claims) are Unimpaired under the Plan and Claims and Interests in Class 7 (Intercompany Claims) and Class 8 (Intercompany Interests), respectively, are either Impaired or Unimpaired under the Plan.

25. Article III of the Plan specifies that Claims in the following Classes are Unimpaired under the Plan within the meaning of section 1124 of the Bankruptcy Code:

Class	Designation
1	Secured Tax Claims
2	Other Priority Claims

26. Additionally, Article II of the Plan specifies that Allowed Administrative Claims, Allowed Professional Fee Claims, Allowed Priority Tax Claims, and all fees due and payable pursuant to section 1930 of title 28 of the United States Code before the Effective Date will be paid in full in accordance with the terms of the Plan, although these Claims are not separately classified under the Plan. Accordingly, the Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1123(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code.

(iii) Specified Treatment of Impaired Classes—Section 1123(a)(3).

27. The Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1123(a)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code. Article III of the Plan specifies that Claims and Interests, as applicable, in the following Classes (collectively, the “Impaired Classes”) are Impaired under the Plan within the meaning of section 1124 of the Bankruptcy Code, and describes the treatment of such Classes.

3	Account Holder Claims
4A	OpCo General Unsecured Claims
4B	HoldCo General Unsecured Claims
4C	TopCo General Unsecured Claims
5	Alameda Loan Facility Claims
6	Section 510(b) Claims

(iv) No Discrimination—Section 1123(a)(4).

28. The Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1123(a)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Plan provides for the same treatment by the Debtors for each Claim or Interest in each respective Class unless the Holder of a particular Claim or Interest has agreed to a less favorable treatment of such Claim or Interest.

29. The Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1123(a)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code. The provisions in Article IV and elsewhere in the Plan and the Plan Supplement, and in the exhibits and attachments to the Disclosure Statement provide, in detail, adequate and proper means for the Plan’s implementation, including the: (a) effectuation of the Restructuring Transactions contemplated by the Plan, the Restructuring Transactions Memorandum, and the Customer Onboarding Protocol; (b) consummation of the Sale Transaction by the Outside Date pursuant to the Asset Purchase Agreement; (c) if the Sale Transaction is not consummated by the Outside Date pursuant to the Asset Purchase Agreement, then the effectuation of the Liquidation Transaction in accordance with the Liquidation Procedures; (d) adoption and implementation of the Employee Transition Plan; (e) retention of certain Claims or Causes of Action held by the Debtors or their Estates, which shall be assigned and transferred to the Wind-Down Debtor after the Effective Date; (f) effectuation of the terms of the D&O Settlement; (g) authorization for the Debtors and the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, to take all actions as may be necessary or appropriate to effectuate the Restructuring Transactions and any transaction described in, approved by, contemplated by, or necessary to effectuate the Plan; (h) establishment of the Wind-Down Debtor pursuant to the Plan Administrator Agreement and the transfer of the Wind-Down Debtor Assets to the Wind-Down Debtor after the Effective Date; (i) the funding and sources of consideration for the Plan distributions; and (j) settlement, satisfaction, and compromise of Claims and Interests as set forth in the Plan.

(vi) Voting Power of Equity Securities—Section 1123(a)(6).

30. Section 1123(a)(6) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that a debtor's corporate constituent documents prohibit the issuance of nonvoting equity securities. On the Effective Date the Wind-Down Debtor Assets shall, subject to the Plan Administrator Agreement, be transferred to and vest in the Wind-Down Debtor. The Wind-Down Debtor shall be managed by the Plan Administrator and shall be subject to a Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee. The Plan Administrator shall be responsible for, among other things: (a) implementing the Wind-Down Debtor, and making distributions contemplated by the Plan; (b) marshalling, marketing for sale, and winding down any of the Debtors' assets constituting Wind-Down

Debtor Assets; (c) appointing an independent director at each Debtor to act as a fiduciary for such Debtor entity in connection with the resolution of the Intercompany Claims; (d) overseeing the accounts of the Debtors and the Wind-Down Debtor and the wind-down and dissolution of the Debtors and the Wind-Down Debtor, including effectuating the transactions described in the Restructuring Transactions Memorandum; (e) receiving, maintaining, conserving, supervising, prosecuting, collecting, settling, managing, investing, protecting, and where appropriate, causing the Wind-Down Debtor to abandon the Wind-Down Debtor Assets, including causing the Wind-Down Debtor to invest any moneys held as Wind-Down Debtor Assets; (f) opening and maintaining bank accounts on behalf of or in the name of the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, including, in the Plan Administrator's discretion, separate bank accounts for each of the Debtors; (g) entering into any agreement or executing any document or instrument required by or consistent with the Plan, this Confirmation Order, or the Plan Administrator Agreement, and to perform all obligations thereunder; (h) collecting and liquidating all Wind-Down Debtor Assets, including the sale of any Wind-Down Debtor Assets; (i) protecting and enforcing the rights to the Wind-Down Debtor Assets (including any Vested Causes of Action and Contributed Third-Party Claims) vested in the Wind-Down Debtor and Plan Administrator by the Plan Administrator Agreement by any method deemed appropriate, including, without limitation, by judicial proceedings or otherwise; (j) investigating any Wind-Down Debtor Assets, and any other potential Vested Causes of Action and Contributed Third-Party Claims; (k) reviewing, reconciling, compromising, settling, objecting, or prosecuting Claims or Interests of any kind; (l) seeking the examination of any Person pursuant to Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 2004; (m) retaining professionals, disbursing agents, and other agents, independent contractors, and third parties pursuant to the Plan Administrator Agreement and paying the reasonable compensation thereof; (n) paying all lawful expenses, debts, charges, taxes, and other liabilities, and making all other payments relating to the Wind-Down Debtor Assets, solely out of Wind-Down Debtor Assets; (o) prosecuting and settling the Vested Causes of Action, including, without limitation, the 3AC Claims, FTX Claims, Alameda Claims, Contributed Third-Party Claims, and any causes of action not included in the Asset Purchase Agreement or released under the Plan; (p) reviewing, reconciling, pursuing, commencing, prosecuting, compromising, settling, dismissing, releasing, waiving, withdrawing, abandoning, resolving, or electing not to pursue all Vested Causes of Action and Contributed Third-Party Claims; (q) acquiring litigation and other claims related to the Debtors, and prosecuting such claims; (r) reviewing and compelling turnover of the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor's property; (s) calculating and making all Distributions to the holders of Allowed Claims against each Debtor and, solely to the extent of payment in full of Allowed Claims, to holders of Allowed Interests, as provided for in, or contemplated by, the Plan and the Plan Administrator Agreement; provided that because the Plan does not substantively consolidate the Debtors' Estates, the Plan Administrator shall make Distributions from the Wind-Down Debtor Assets to the holders of Claims and Interests (if applicable) against that specific Debtor; (t) establishing, administering, adjusting, and maintaining the Wind-Down Reserve and the Disputed Claims Reserve; (u) withholding from the amount distributable to any Person the maximum amount needed to pay any tax or other charge that the Plan Administrator has determined, based upon the advice of his agents or professionals, may be required to be withheld from such Distribution under the income tax or other laws of the United States or of any state or political subdivision thereof; (v) in reliance upon the Debtors' Schedules, the official Claims Register maintained in the Chapter 11 Cases and the Debtors' filed lists of equity security holders, reviewing, and where appropriate, allowing or objecting to Claims and (if applicable) Interests, and supervising and administering the commencement, prosecution, settlement, compromise, withdrawal, or resolution of all objections to Disputed Claims and (if applicable) Disputed Interests required to be administered by the Wind-Down Debtor; (w) making all tax withholdings, filing tax information returns, filing and prosecuting tax refunds claims, making tax elections by and on behalf of the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, and filing tax returns for the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor pursuant to and in accordance with the Plan, and paying taxes, if any, payable for and on behalf of the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable; provided, however, that notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan Administrator Agreement, the Plan Administrator shall not have any responsibility or personal liability in any capacity whatsoever for the signing or accuracy of the Debtors' income tax returns that are due to be filed after the Effective Date or for any tax liability related thereto; (x) abandoning or donating to a charitable organization qualifying under IRC section 501(c)(3) any Wind-Down Debtor Assets that the Plan Administrator determines to be too impractical to distribute or of inconsequential value; (y) seeking a determination of tax liability or refund under Bankruptcy Code section 505; (z) establishing reserves for taxes, assessments, and other expenses of administration of the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor as may be necessary and appropriate for the proper operation of matters incident to the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor; paying Wind-Down Debtor Expenses; (aa) if the Plan Administrator deems appropriate in the Plan Administrator's sole discretion, seeking to establish a bar date for filing proofs of Interest in any Debtor or otherwise to determine the holders and extent of Allowed Interests in any Debtor; (bb) purchasing and carrying all insurance policies that the Plan Administrator deems reasonably necessary or advisable and paying all associated insurance premiums and costs; (cc) undertaking all administrative functions remaining in the Chapter 11

Cases to the extent necessary to carry out the Debtors', the Wind-Down Debtor's, or the Plan Administrator's duties under the Plan, including reporting and making required payments of fees to the U.S. Trustee and overseeing the closing of the Chapter 11 Cases; (dd) retaining, terminating, appointing, hiring, or otherwise employees, personnel, management, and directors at any of the Debtors to the extent necessary to carry out the purposes of the Plan Administrator Agreement and the Plan, including, without limitation, to address any disputes between the Debtors; (ee) exercising, implementing, enforcing, and discharging all of the terms, conditions, powers, duties, and other provisions of the Plan, the Confirmation Order, and the Plan Administrator Agreement; and (ff) taking all other actions consistent with the provisions of the Plan and the Plan Administrator Agreement that the Plan Administrator deems reasonably necessary or desirable to administer the Debtors and the Wind-Down Debtor. Further, on or prior to the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Debtor's organizational documents will be amended to prohibit the issuance of non-voting equity securities. Accordingly, the Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1123(a)(6) of the Bankruptcy Code.

31. The Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1123(a)(7) of the Bankruptcy Code. Article IV.J of the Plan provides that, upon filing of the certificate of dissolution (or equivalent document), the Wind-Down Debtor will be dissolved. Article IV.H of the Plan provides for the formation of the Wind-Down Debtor for the benefit of the Wind-Down Debtor Beneficiaries. The Wind-Down Debtor shall be managed by the Plan Administrator and shall be subject to a Wind-Down Debtor Committee. The selection of the Plan Administrator by the Committee, in consultation with the Debtors, is consistent with the interests of Holders of Claims and Interests and public policy. The appointment of the Plan Administrator identified in the Plan Supplement is approved, and the Plan Administrator's duties shall commence as of the Effective Date. In accordance with the Plan Administrator Agreement, the Plan Administrator shall serve in such capacity through the earlier of (i) the date on which the Wind-Down Debtor is dissolved in accordance with the Plan Administrator Agreement, and (ii) the date on which the Plan Administrator resigns, is terminated, or is otherwise unable to serve; provided, however, that, in the event that the Plan Administrator resigns, is terminated, or is otherwise unable to serve, the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee shall appoint a successor to serve as the Plan Administrator in accordance with the Plan Administrator Agreement. If the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee does not appoint a successor within the time periods specified in the Plan Administrator Agreement, then the Court, upon the motion of any party-in-interest, including counsel to the Wind-Down Debtor, shall approve a successor to serve as the Plan Administrator. Accordingly, the Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1123(a)(7) of the Bankruptcy Code.

32. The Plan is consistent with section 1123(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. Article III of the Plan leaves each Class of Claims and Interests Impaired or Unimpaired.

33. The Plan is consistent with section 1123(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code. Article V of the Plan provides that, on the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, each Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease not previously rejected, assumed, or assumed and assigned, including any employee benefit plans, severance plans, and other Executory Contracts under which employee obligations arise, shall be deemed automatically rejected pursuant to sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code, unless such Executory Contract or Unexpired

Lease: (1) is specifically described in the Plan as to be assumed in connection with Confirmation of the Plan, or is specifically scheduled to be assumed or assumed and assigned pursuant to the Plan or the Plan Supplement; (2) is subject to a pending motion to assume such Unexpired Lease or Executory Contract as of the Effective Date; (3) is to be assumed by the Debtors or assumed by the Debtors and assigned to another third party, as applicable, in connection with the Sale Transaction; (4) is a contract, instrument, release, indenture, or other agreement or document entered into in connection with the Plan; or (5) is a D&O Liability Insurance Policy other than the Side-A Policy. Each of the Debtors' determinations regarding the assumption and rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases is based on and within the sound business judgment of the Debtors, is necessary to the implementation of the Plan, and is in the best interests of the Debtors, their Estates, Holders of Claims and Interests, and other parties in interest in these Chapter 11 Cases.

34. The Plan is consistent with section 1123(b)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code. Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, pursuant to section 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 9019, and in consideration for the classification, distributions, releases, and other benefits provided under the Plan, on the Effective Date, the provisions of the Plan shall constitute a good-faith compromise and settlement of all Claims, Interests, Causes of Action, and controversies settled, compromised, satisfied, or otherwise resolved pursuant to the Plan. The Plan is deemed a motion to approve the good-faith compromise and settlement of all such Claims, Interests, Causes of Action, and controversies pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019, and the entry of this Confirmation Order constitutes the Court's approval of such compromise and settlement under section 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 9019 of all such Claims, Interests, Causes of Action, and controversies, as well as a finding that such compromise and settlement is fair, equitable, reasonable, and in the best interests of the Debtors, their Estates, and Holders of Claims and Interests. Subject to Article VI of the Plan, all distributions made to Holders of Allowed Claims and Interests in any Class are intended to be and shall be final.

35. The other discretionary provisions of the Plan are appropriate and consistent with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, thereby satisfying section 1123(b)(6) of the Bankruptcy Code.

Q. Debtor Compliance with the Bankruptcy Code—Section 1129(a)(2).

36. The Debtors have complied with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, except as otherwise provided or permitted by orders of the Court, and thus, satisfied the requirements of section 1129(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code. Specifically, each Debtor:

- a. is an eligible debtor under section 109, and a proper proponent of the Plan under section 1121(a), of the Bankruptcy Code; and
- b. complied with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, including sections 1125 and 1126, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, any applicable nonbankruptcy law, rule and regulation, the Conditional Disclosure Statement Order, and all other applicable law, in transmitting the Solicitation Packages and related documents and notices, and in soliciting and tabulating the votes on the Plan.

R. Plan Proposed in Good Faith—Section 1129(a)(3).

37. The Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1129(a)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors have proposed the Plan in good faith and not by any means forbidden by law. In so determining, the Court has examined the totality of the circumstances surrounding the filing of these Chapter 11 Cases, the Plan itself, the process leading to Confirmation, including the support of Holders of Claims and Interests for the Plan, and the transactions to be implemented pursuant thereto. These Chapter 11 Cases were filed, and the Plan was proposed, with the legitimate purpose of allowing the Debtors to implement the Restructuring Transactions and maximize the value of the Estates and the recoveries of Holders of Claims and Interests.

S. Payment for Services or Costs and Expenses—Section 1129(a)(4).

38. The procedures set forth in the Plan for the Court's review and ultimate determination of the fees and expenses to be paid by the Debtors in connection with these Chapter 11 Cases, or in connection with the Plan and incident to these Chapter 11 Cases, satisfy the objectives of, and are in compliance with, section 1129(a)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code.

T. Directors, Officers, and Insiders—Section 1129(a)(5).

39. Because the Plan provides for the winding down and dissolution of the Debtors, section 1129(a)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code does not apply to the Debtors. To the extent section 1129(a)(5) applies to the Wind-Down Debtor, the requirements of this provision are satisfied by, among other things, disclosing the identity and terms of compensation of the Plan Administrator and the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee.

U. No Rate Changes—Section 1129(a)(6).

40. Section 1129(a)(6) of the Bankruptcy Code is not applicable to these Chapter 11 Cases. The Plan does not propose any rate change subject to the jurisdiction of any governmental regulatory commission.

V. Best Interest of Creditors—Section 1129(a)(7).

41. The Plan is in the best interests of the Debtors' creditors and satisfies the requirements of section 1129(a)(7) of the Bankruptcy Code. The liquidation analysis attached to the Disclosure Statement and the other evidence related thereto in support of the Plan that was proffered or adduced in the Declarations or at, prior to, or in connection with the Combined Hearing: (a) are reasonable, persuasive, credible, and accurate as of the dates such analysis or evidence was prepared, presented, or proffered; (b) utilize reasonable and appropriate methodologies and assumptions; (c) have not been controverted by other evidence; and (d) establish that Holders of Allowed Claims and Interests in each Class will recover at least as much under the Plan on account of such Claim or Interest, as of the Effective Date, as such Holder would receive if the Debtors were liquidated, on the Effective Date, under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code.

Plan by the requisite numbers and amounts of Claims, determined without including any acceptance of the Plan by any insider (as that term is defined in section 101(31) of the Bankruptcy Code), specified under the Bankruptcy Code.

Z. Feasibility—Section 1129(a)(11).

45. The Plan satisfies section 1129(a)(11) of the Bankruptcy Code. The evidence supporting the Plan proffered or adduced by the Debtors at or before the Combined Hearing: (a) is reasonable, persuasive, credible, and accurate as of the dates such evidence was prepared, presented, or proffered; (b) has not been controverted by other persuasive evidence; (c) establishes that the Plan is feasible and Confirmation of the Plan is not likely to be followed by liquidation or the need for further financial reorganization; (d) establishes that the Distribution Agent, or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, will have sufficient funds available to meet their obligations under the Plan—including sufficient amounts of Cash, Cryptocurrency, or other consideration, as applicable, to reasonably ensure payment of, among other things, Allowed Administrative Claims, Allowed Professional Fee Claims, Allowed Priority Tax Claims, Allowed Other Priority Claims, Allowed Account Holder Claims, and Allowed General Unsecured Claims, as applicable, pursuant to the terms of the Plan and in accordance with section 507(a) of the Bankruptcy Code; and (e) establishes that the Wind-Down Debtor will have the financial wherewithal to satisfy their obligations following the Effective Date.

AA. Payment of Statutory Fees—Section 1129(a)(12).

46. The Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1129(a)(12) of the Bankruptcy Code. Article XII.C of the Plan provides for the payment of all fees due and payable under 28 U.S.C. § 1930 by each of the Wind-Down Debtor (or the Distribution Agent on behalf of the Wind-Down Debtor).

BB. Continuation of Employee Benefits—Section 1129(a)(13).

47. The Debtors do not have any remaining obligations to pay retiree benefits (as defined in section 1114 of the Bankruptcy Code). Therefore, section 1129(a)(13) of the Bankruptcy Code is inapplicable to these Chapter 11 Cases or the Plan.

CC. Non-Applicability of Certain Sections—Sections 1129(a)(14), (15), and (16).

48. Sections 1129(a)(14), 1129(a)(15), and 1129(a)(16) of the Bankruptcy Code do not apply to these Chapter 11 Cases. The Debtors owe no domestic support obligations, are not individuals, and are not nonprofit corporations.

DD. “Cram Down” Requirements—Section 1129(b).

49. The Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. Notwithstanding the fact that the Deemed Rejecting Classes have not accepted the Plan, the Plan may be confirmed pursuant to section 1129(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. First, all of the requirements of section 1129(a) of the Bankruptcy Code other than section 1129(a)(8) have been met. Second, the Plan is fair and equitable with respect to Class 5 (Alameda Loan Facility Claims), Class 6 (Section 510(b) Claims), and Class 9 (Existing Equity Interests). The Plan has been proposed in good faith, is reasonable, and meets the requirements that (a) no Holder of any Claim or Interest that is junior to each such Class will receive or retain any property under the Plan on account of such junior Claim or Interest, and (b) no Holder of a Claim or Interest in a Class senior to such Classes is receiving more than payment in full on account of its Claim or Interest. Specifically, to the extent Class 8 (Intercompany Interests) are Reinstated, such treatment is provided for administrative convenience and efficiency, and not on account of such Interests, and will not alter the treatment provided for any other Holder of any Claim or Interest. Further, Class 7 (Intercompany Claims) will receive the treatment as determined by the Court.

Accordingly, the Plan is fair and equitable towards all Holders of Claims and Interests in the Deemed Rejecting Classes. Third, the Plan does not discriminate unfairly with respect to the Deemed Rejecting Classes because similarly situated Claim and Interest Holders will receive substantially similar treatment on account of their Claims or Interests, as applicable, in such class. Therefore, the Plan may be confirmed despite the fact that not all Impaired Classes have voted to accept the Plan.

EE. Only One Plan—Section 1129(c).

50. The Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1129(c) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Plan is the only chapter 11 plan filed in each of these Chapter 11 Cases.

FF. Principal Purpose of the Plan—Section 1129(d).

51. The Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1129(d) of the Bankruptcy Code. The principal purpose of the Plan is not the avoidance of taxes or the avoidance of the application of section 5 of the Securities Act.

GG. Not Small Business Cases—Section 1129(e).

52. The Chapter 11 Cases are not small business cases and, accordingly, section 1129(e) of the Bankruptcy Code does not apply to the Chapter 11 Cases.

HH. Good Faith Solicitation—Section 1125(e).

53. The Debtors have acted in “good faith” within the meaning of section 1125(e) of the Bankruptcy Code and in compliance with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules in connection with all of their respective activities relating to support and consummation of the Plan, including the solicitation and receipt of acceptances of the Plan, and are entitled to the protections afforded by section 1125(e) of the Bankruptcy Code.

II. Satisfaction of Confirmation Requirements.

54. Based on the foregoing, the Plan satisfies the requirements for Confirmation set forth in section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code.

JJ. Likelihood of Satisfaction of Conditions Precedent to the Effective Date.

55. Each of the conditions precedent to the Effective Date, as set forth in Article IX.A of the Plan, has been or is reasonably likely to be satisfied or, as applicable, waived in accordance with Article IX.B of the Plan.

KK. Implementation.

56. All documents and agreements necessary to implement the transactions contemplated by the Plan, including those contained or summarized in the Plan Supplement, and all other relevant and necessary documents (including the Asset Purchase Agreement) have been negotiated in good faith and at arm's length, are in the best interests of the Debtors, and shall, upon completion of documentation and execution, be valid, binding, and enforceable agreements and shall not be in conflict with any federal, state, or local law. The Debtors are authorized to take any action reasonably necessary or appropriate to consummate such agreements and the transactions contemplated thereby.

LL. Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases.

57. The Debtors' decisions to assume or reject certain Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases, as provided in Article V of the Plan and in the Plan Supplement, are reasonable exercises of the Debtors' business judgment. The Debtors have demonstrated adequate assurance of future performance of the assumed Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases within the meaning of section 365(b)(1)(C) of the Bankruptcy Code by the Wind-Down Debtor.

58. Except with respect to the Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases discussed in the following paragraph of this Confirmation Order, the amounts set forth in the Plan Supplement (the “Cure Amounts”) are the sole amounts necessary to be paid upon assumption of the associated Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases under section 365(b)(1)(A) and (B) of the Bankruptcy Code, and the payment of such amounts will effect a cure of all defaults existing under such Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases and compensate the counterparties to such Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases for any actual pecuniary loss resulting from all defaults existing under such Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases as of the Effective Date.

59. The objections of counterparties to the assumption of their Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases, to the extent that such objection was timely raised in accordance with Article V.C of the Plan, are preserved and will be considered by the Court at a date and time to be scheduled. As provided in the Conditional Disclosure Statement Order and the Solicitation Packages, the Debtors and the Wind-Down Debtor have reserved the right to (a) add any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease to the Assumed Contract Schedule and assume such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease pursuant to the terms of the Plan, or remove any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease from the Assumed Contract Schedule, in each case, up until the Effective Date and (b) contest any Claim asserted in connection with rejection of any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease.

MM. Disclosure of Facts.

60. The Debtors have disclosed all material facts regarding the Plan, including with respect to consummation of the Sale Transaction and the Liquidation Transaction, as applicable.

NN. Appropriate Exercise of Business Judgment.

61. The Debtors' decision to effectuate the Sale Transaction or the Liquidation Transaction, as applicable, is an appropriate exercise of their business judgment.

OO. Good Faith.

62. The Debtors, the Released Parties, and the Releasing Parties have been and will be acting in good faith if they proceed to: (a) consummate the Plan and the agreements, settlements, transactions, and transfers contemplated thereby; and (b) take the actions authorized and directed by this Confirmation Order to wind-down the Debtors' businesses and effect the Sale Transaction or the Liquidation Transaction, as applicable, and the other Restructuring Transactions. The Released Parties have made a substantial contribution to these Chapter 11 Cases.

PP. Essential Elements of the Plan.

63. The Sale Transaction is an essential element of the Plan, and consummation of the Sale Transaction is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, and their creditors. The Debtors have exercised sound business judgment in selecting the Purchaser and the Debtors have done so without collusion and in good faith. The Purchaser is consummating the Sale Transaction in good faith and is a good faith buyer within the meaning of section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Purchaser has proceeded in good faith and without collusion in all respects in connection with the Sale Transaction. The Purchaser is therefore entitled to all of the protections afforded under section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code, and the Sale Transaction, to the extent consummated, may not be avoided pursuant to section 363(n) of the Bankruptcy Code.

64. The Debtors' marketing process with respect to the Sale Transaction afforded a full, fair, and reasonable opportunity for any party to make a higher or otherwise better offer. No other party or parties has offered to purchase the Acquired Assets for greater overall value to the Debtors' Estates than the Purchaser. The Asset Purchase Agreement will provide a greater recovery for the Debtors' Estates than would be provided by any other available alternative. The Debtors' determination that the Sale Transaction is the most value-maximizing transaction is a valid and sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment. Consummation of the Sale Transaction is in the best interests of the Debtors' Estates, their creditors, and other parties in interest.

65. The consideration provided by the Purchaser pursuant to the Asset Purchase Agreement (a) is fair and reasonable, (b) constitutes the best offer for the Acquired Assets, and (c) constitutes reasonably equivalent value (as those terms are defined in each of the Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act, Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act, and section 548 of the Bankruptcy Code) and fair consideration under the Bankruptcy Code and under the laws of the United States, any state, territory, possession, or the District of Columbia.

66. The Purchaser is not a mere continuation or substantial continuation of the Debtors or their Estates and there is no continuity of enterprise or common identity between the Purchaser and any of the Debtors. The Purchaser is not holding itself out to the public as a continuation of any of the Debtors. The Purchaser is not a successor to the Debtors or their Estates by reason of any theory of law or equity, and the Sale Transaction does not amount to a consolidation, merger, or de facto merger of the Purchaser with or into any of the Debtors. The Purchaser has entered into the Asset Purchase Agreement in material reliance on and with fair consideration provided for the Sale Transaction being free and clear of all claims and interests relating to the Debtors arising prior to the closing of the Sale Transaction, including any successor or vicarious liabilities of any kind or nature, as set forth herein and in the Asset

Purchase Agreement, and would not have entered into the Asset Purchase Agreement or the Sale Transaction without such terms and the findings herein.

67. The conditions of section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code have been satisfied in full; therefore, the Debtors may sell, and upon the Closing of the Sale Transaction shall be deemed to have sold, assets and property pursuant to the Asset Purchase Agreement free and clear of any claims, liens, encumbrances, or other interests of any kind or nature whatsoever other than as expressly provided under the Asset Purchase Agreement. In addition to and without limiting the foregoing, the proposed Sale Transaction is to be consummated under the Plan, and the assets and property to be sold pursuant to the Sale Transaction are dealt with by the Plan; therefore, except as expressly provided under the Asset Purchase Agreement, the Debtors may sell, and upon the Closing of the Sale Transaction shall be deemed to have sold, assets and property pursuant to the Asset Purchase Agreement free and clear of any claims, liens, encumbrances, or other interests of any kind or nature whatsoever pursuant to section 1141(c) of the Bankruptcy Code.

68. The Debtors may sell, and upon the Closing of the Sale Transaction shall be deemed to have sold, such assets free and clear of all claims, liens, encumbrances, and other interests of any kind or nature whatsoever (other than as expressly permitted under the Asset Purchase Agreement) because, in each case, one or more of the standards set forth in sections 363(f)(1)–(5), 1129(b)(2)(A)(ii), 1141(a), or 1141(c) of the Bankruptcy Code has been satisfied. All holders of such claims, liens, encumbrances, or other interests against the Debtors, their Estates, or any of the assets subject to the Sale Transaction (a) who did not object, or who withdrew their objections, to the Sale Transaction are deemed to have consented pursuant to section 363(f)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code and (b) are bound by the Plan pursuant to section

1141(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. All holders of such claims, liens, encumbrances, or other interests are adequately protected by having their claims, liens, encumbrances, or other interests, if any, in each instance against the Debtors, their Estates, or any of the assets subject to the Sale Transaction, attach to the proceeds of the Sale Transaction ultimately attributable to the assets in which such creditor alleges a claim, lien, encumbrance, or other interest, in the same order of priority, with the same validity, force, and effect that such claim, lien, encumbrance, or other interest had prior to consummation of the Sale Transaction, subject to any claims and defenses the Debtors and their Estates may possess with respect thereto, and with such claims, liens, encumbrances, or other interests being treated in accordance with the Plan.

69. Article VIII.A of the Plan describes certain releases granted by the Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, and the Debtors' and the Wind-Down Debtor's Estates (the "Debtor Release"). The Debtors have satisfied the business judgment standard with respect to the propriety of the Debtor Release. Such release is a necessary and integral element of the Plan, and is fair, reasonable, and in the best interests of the Debtors, the Debtors' Estates, and Holders of Claims and Interests. The Debtors', the Wind-Down Debtor's and their Estates' pursuit of any such claims against the Released Parties is not in the best interests of the Estates' various constituencies because the costs involved would likely outweigh any potential benefit from pursuing such claims. Additionally, including for the reasons set forth in the Declarations, the Debtor Release is: (a) in exchange for the good and valuable consideration provided by the Released Parties following extensive, arm's-length negotiations between sophisticated parties represented by able counsel; (b) a good-faith settlement and compromise of such Causes of Action released by the Debtor Release, which bore a substantial likelihood of complex and protracted litigation, with attendant expense, inconvenience, and delay; (c) in the best interests of the Debtors and all Holders of Claims and Interests; (d) fair, equitable, and reasonable; (e) given and made after due notice and opportunity for hearing; (f) a sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment; and (g) except to the extent contemplated by Article IV.F of the Plan, a bar to any of the Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor or their Estates asserting any Cause of Action related thereto, of any kind, against any of the Released Parties or their property.

70. Article IV.G of the Plan describes the D&O Settlement. The D&O Settlement constitutes a good-faith compromise and settlement of all Claims, Causes of Action, disputes, and controversies released, settled, compromised, or otherwise resolved between the Debtors and the CEO and CCO. The D&O Settlement is fair, equitable, and reasonable and in the best interests of the Debtors, their Estates, and Holders of Claims and Interests.

71. Article VIII.B of the Plan describes certain releases granted by the Releasing Parties (the "Third-Party Release"). The Third-Party Release provides finality for the Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, and the other Released Parties. The Third-Party Release is consensual with respect to the Releasing Parties. The Combined Hearing Notice sent to Holders of Claims and Interests and published in The New York Times (National Edition) and the Financial Times (International Edition) on February 3, 2023, and the ballots and notices, as applicable, sent to Holders of Claims and Interests unambiguously stated that the Plan contains the Third-Party Release and that each Holder of Claims or Interests may elect not to grant such Third-Party Release. Such release provisions of the Plan were conspicuous, emphasized with boldface type in the Plan, the Disclosure Statement, and the ballots and notices. Among other things, the Plan provides appropriate and specific disclosure with respect to the claims and Causes of Action that are subject to the Third-Party Release, and no other disclosure or notice is necessary. The Third-Party Release is a necessary and integral element of the Plan, and is fair, equitable, reasonable, and in the best interests of the Debtors, the Debtors' Estates, and all Holders of Claims and Interests. Also, the Third-Party Release is: (a) in exchange for the good and valuable consideration provided by the Released Parties; (b) a good-faith settlement and compromise of such the Claims released by the Third-Party Releases; (c) in the best interests of the Debtors and all Holders of Claims and Interests; (d) fair, equitable, and reasonable; (e) given and made after due notice and opportunity for hearing; (f) a sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment; and (g) except to the extent contemplated by Article IV.E and Article IV.F of the Plan, a bar to any of the Debtors or Wind-Down Debtor or their respective Estates asserting any Cause of Action related thereto, of any kind, against any of the Released Parties or their property.

72. The Third-Party Releases are consensual and those Holders of Claims and Interests who are bound by the Third-Party Releases voluntarily opted-in to the Third-Party Releases. The Plan does not release any third party's direct claims against non-Debtors (to the extent such direct claims exist) without such third party's express consent. Holders of Claims and Interests also had the ability to affirmatively elect to "contribute" their claims to the Wind-Down Debtor and vest the Wind-Down Debtor with authority to pursue such claims against the Debtors.

73. The exculpation described in Article VIII.C of the Plan (the "Exculpation") is appropriate under applicable law because it was proposed in good faith, was formulated following extensive good-faith, arm's-length negotiations with key constituents, and is appropriately limited in scope. Without limiting anything in the Exculpation, each Exculpated Party has participated in these Chapter 11 Cases in good faith and, except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan, no Exculpated Party shall have or incur, and each Exculpated Party is hereby released and exculpated as set forth in the Plan; provided that the foregoing “Exculpation” shall have no effect on the liability of any entity that results from any such act or omission that is determined by a Final Order to have constituted actual fraud, gross negligence, or willful misconduct, but in all respects such entities shall be entitled to reasonably rely upon the advice of counsel with respect to their duties and responsibilities pursuant to the Plan. The Exculpated Parties have participated in any and all activities potentially underlying any Exculpated Claim in good faith and in compliance with the applicable laws. The Exculpation, including its carve-out for actual fraud, gross negligence, or willful misconduct, is consistent with established practice in this jurisdiction and others.

74. The injunction provision set forth in Article VIII.D of the Plan is necessary to prevent interference with the payment of Claims and Interests in the manner set forth in the Plan and is narrowly tailored to achieve these purposes.

75. Article IV.P of the Plan provides that, in accordance with section 1123(b)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code, any Cause of Action that a Debtor may hold against any Entity shall vest in the Wind-Down Debtor, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, including Article VIII of the Plan. The Wind-Down Debtor, through their authorized agents or representatives, shall retain and may exclusively enforce any and all such Causes of Action. The Wind-Down Debtor shall have the exclusive right, authority, and discretion to determine and to initiate, file, prosecute, enforce, abandon, settle, compromise, release, withdraw, or litigate to judgment any such Causes of Action, or to decline to do any of the foregoing, without the consent or approval of any third party or any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Court in accordance with the Plan. The provisions regarding the preservation of Causes of Action in the Plan, including the Plan Supplement, are appropriate, fair, equitable, and reasonable, and are in the best interests of the Debtors, the Debtors' estates, and Holders of Claims and Interests.

76. The full release and discharge of all mortgages, deeds of trust, Liens, pledges, or other security interests against any property of the Estates described in Article VIII.E of the Plan (the "Lien Release") is necessary to implement the Plan. The provisions of the Lien Release are appropriate, fair, equitable, and reasonable and are in the best interests of the Debtors, the Debtors' estates, and Holders of Claims and Interests.

ORDER

BASED ON THE FOREGOING FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED, DECREED, AND DETERMINED THAT:

77. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law. The above-referenced findings of fact and conclusions of law are hereby incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein and constitute findings of fact and conclusions of law pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 7052, made applicable herein by Bankruptcy Rule 9014. To the extent that any finding of fact is determined to be a conclusion of law, it is deemed so, and vice versa.

78. Approval of the Disclosure Statement. The Disclosure Statement, the Solicitation Packages, and the Solicitation Procedures are approved on a final basis pursuant to section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code.

79. Solicitation. To the extent applicable, the solicitation of votes on the Plan complied with sections 1125 and 1126 of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules 3017 and 3018, all other provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, and all other applicable rules, laws, and regulations, and was appropriate and satisfactory and is approved in all respects.

80. Notice of Combined Hearing. The Notice of Combined Hearing was appropriate and satisfactory and is approved in all respects.

81. Confirmation of the Plan. The Plan is approved in its entirety and CONFIRMED under section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code. The terms of the Plan, including the Plan Supplement, are incorporated by reference into and are an integral part of this Confirmation Order.

82. Objections. All objections and all reservations of rights pertaining to Confirmation of the Plan and approval of the Disclosure Statement that have not been withdrawn, waived, or consensually resolved are overruled on the merits unless otherwise indicated in this Confirmation Order. All withdrawn objections, if any, are deemed withdrawn with prejudice. All objections to approval of the Disclosure Statement and Confirmation of the Plan not filed and served prior to the Objection Deadline, if any, are deemed waived and shall not be considered by the Court.

83. All parties have had a full and fair opportunity to litigate all issues raised or that might have been raised in the objections to approval of the Disclosure Statement and Confirmation of the Plan, and the objections have been fully and fairly litigated or resolved, including by agreed-upon reservations of rights as set forth in this Confirmation Order.

84. Plan Modifications. The Plan Modifications do not materially adversely affect the treatment of any Claim against or Interest in any of the Debtors under the Plan, and are hereby approved pursuant to section 1127(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 3019. After giving effect to the Plan Modifications, the Plan continues to meet the requirements of sections 1122 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code. The filing with the Court on February 28, 2023 of the modifications to the Plan and the disclosure of any additional Plan Modifications on the record at the Combined Hearing constitute due and sufficient notice thereof. Accordingly, pursuant to section 1127(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 3019, the Plan Modifications do not require additional disclosure under section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code or resolicitation of votes under section 1126 of the Bankruptcy Code, nor do they require that holders of Claims be afforded an opportunity to change previously cast acceptances or rejections of the Plan.

85. Deemed Acceptance of Plan. In accordance with section 1127 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 3019, all Holders of Claims and Interests who voted to accept the Plan or who are conclusively presumed to accept the Plan are deemed to have accepted the Plan, as modified by the Plan Modifications. No Holder of a Claim or Interest shall be permitted to change its vote as a consequence of the Plan Modifications.

86. Restructuring Transactions. On or before the Effective Date, the applicable Debtors will take any action as may be necessary or advisable to effectuate the Restructuring Transactions described in the Plan, the Restructuring Transactions Memorandum, and the Customer Onboarding Protocol, including: (a) the execution and delivery of any appropriate agreements or other documents of merger, consolidation, restructuring, conversion, disposition, transfer, dissolution, or liquidation containing terms that are consistent with the terms of the Plan, and that satisfy the requirements of applicable law; (b) the execution and delivery of appropriate instruments of transfer, assignment, assumption, or delegation of any asset, property, right, liability, debt, or obligation on terms consistent with the terms of the Plan; (c) the filing of appropriate certificates or articles of incorporation, reincorporation, merger, consolidation, conversion, or dissolution pursuant to applicable state law; (d) the transfer or distribution of any Cryptocurrency or Cash pursuant to the Asset Purchase Agreement and the Plan, as applicable;

(e) the execution and delivery of the Plan Administrator Agreement; (f) any transactions necessary or appropriate to form the Wind-Down Debtor; (g) such other transactions that are required to effectuate the Restructuring Transactions, including any sales, mergers, consolidations, restructurings, conversions, dispositions, transfers, formations, organizations, dissolutions, or liquidations; (h) all transactions necessary to provide for the purchase of the Acquired Assets by Purchaser under the Asset Purchase Agreement; and (i) all other actions that the applicable Entities determine to be necessary or appropriate, including making filings or recordings that may be required by applicable law.

87. This Confirmation Order shall, and shall be deemed to, pursuant to sections 1123 and 363 of the Bankruptcy Code, authorize, among other things, all actions as may be necessary or appropriate to effect any transaction described in, approved by, contemplated by, or necessary to effectuate the Plan, including ~~the Restructuring Transactions~~, as applicable, the Sale Transaction, ~~and the Liquidation Transaction, as applicable~~, and the Restructuring Transactions, including, for the avoidance of doubt, entry into any agreements following the Confirmation Date by the Debtors, the Purchaser, and any of the Unsupported Jurisdictions in connection with Distributions contemplated to be made by Purchaser to Users and Eligible Creditors (as such terms are defined in the Asset Purchase Agreement) located in Unsupported Jurisdictions, pursuant to and in accordance with the Plan and the Asset Purchase Agreement.

88. The Sale Transaction. The Sale Transaction and the Asset Purchase Agreement, all other ancillary documents, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, are hereby approved, pursuant to sections 105, 363, 364, and 554 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules 2002, 4001, 6004, and 9014, each as applicable. Entry of this Confirmation Order shall authorize the Debtors, the Purchaser, and the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, to undertake the transactions contemplated by the Asset Purchase Agreement, as applicable, including pursuant to sections 363, 365, 1123(a)(5)(B), and 1123(a)(5)(D) of the Bankruptcy Code.

89. Pursuant to sections 363(b) and (f) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors are authorized and empowered to take any and all actions necessary or appropriate to (a) consummate the Sale Transaction pursuant to and in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Asset Purchase Agreement, (b) close the Sale Transaction as contemplated in the Asset Purchase Agreement, and (c) execute and deliver, perform under, consummate, implement, and fully close the Asset Purchase Agreement, together with all additional instruments and documents that may be reasonably necessary or desirable to implement the Asset Purchase Agreement and the Sale Transaction.

90. Subject to the restrictions set forth in this Confirmation Order, the Plan, and the Asset Purchase Agreement, the Debtors and the Purchaser hereby are authorized to take any and all actions as may be necessary or desirable, including any actions that otherwise would require further approval by shareholders, members, or its board of directors, as the case may be, without the need of obtaining such approvals, to implement the Sale Transaction, and any actions taken by the Debtors or the Purchaser necessary or desirable to implement the Sale Transaction prior to the date of this Confirmation Order, hereby are approved and ratified.

91. This Confirmation Order and the terms and provisions of the Asset Purchase Agreement shall be binding in all respects upon the Debtors, their affiliates, their estates, all creditors of and holders of equity interests in any Debtor, any holders of Liens, Claims, or other interests (whether known or unknown) in, against, or on all or any portion of the Acquired Assets, all counterparties to any executory contract or unexpired lease of the Debtors, the Purchaser and all successors and assigns of the Purchaser, the Acquired Assets, and any trustees, examiners, or receivers, if any, subsequently appointed in any of the Debtors' chapter 11 cases or upon a conversion to chapter 7 under the Bankruptcy Code of any of the Debtors' cases. This Confirmation Order and the Asset Purchase Agreement shall inure to the benefit of the Debtors, their estates and creditors, the Purchaser, and the respective successors and assigns of each of the foregoing.

92. Pursuant to sections 105(a), 363(b), 363(f), 365(b) and 365(f) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors are authorized to transfer the Acquired Assets in accordance with the terms of the Asset Purchase Agreement and such transfer shall constitute a legal, valid, binding, and effective sale of the Acquired Assets and shall vest Purchaser with title to the Acquired Assets subject to the Asset Purchase Agreement, and the Acquired Assets shall be free and clear of all Liens, Claims, Encumbrances, and other interests of any kind or nature whatsoever (other than as expressly permitted under the Asset Purchase Agreement), with all such Liens, Claims, or other interests to attach to the cash proceeds of the Purchase Price ultimately attributable to the property against or in which such Liens, Claims, or other interests are asserted, subject to the terms thereof, with the same validity, force, and effect, and in the same order of priority, which such Liens, Claims, or other interests had prior to the Transaction, subject to any rights, claims, and defenses the Debtors or their estates, as applicable, may possess with respect thereto.

93. The sale of the Acquired Assets to the Purchaser pursuant to the Asset Purchase Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Asset Purchase Agreement do not require any consents other than as specifically provided for in the Asset Purchase Agreement. Each and every federal, state, and local governmental agency or department is hereby authorized to accept any and all documents and instruments necessary and appropriate to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Asset Purchase Agreement. A certified copy of this Confirmation Order may be filed with the appropriate clerk or recorded with the recorder of any state, county, or local authority to act to cancel any of the Liens, Claims, and other encumbrances of record.

94. If any person or entity that has filed statements or other documents evidencing Claims or Liens on, or interests in, all or any portion of the Acquired Assets shall not have delivered to the Debtors, in proper form for filing and executed by the appropriate parties, termination statements, instruments of satisfaction, releases of liens and easements, and any other documents necessary for the purpose of documenting the release of all Claims, Liens, or interests which the person or entity has or may assert with respect to all or any portion of the Acquired Assets, the Debtors are hereby authorized, and the Purchaser is hereby authorized, on behalf of the Debtors and the Debtors' creditors, to execute and file such statements, instruments, releases and other documents on behalf of such person or entity with respect to the Acquired Assets. The Debtors and the Purchaser are each authorized to file a copy of this Confirmation Order, which, upon filing, shall be conclusive evidence of the release and termination of such Claim, Lien or interest.

95. This Confirmation Order is and shall be binding upon and govern the acts of all persons and entities, including, without limitation, all filing agents, filing officers, title agents, title companies, recorders of mortgages, recorders of deeds, registrars of deeds, administrative agencies, governmental departments, secretaries of state, federal, state, and local officials, and all other persons and entities who may be required by operation of law, the duties of their office, or contract, to accept, file, register, or otherwise record or release any documents or instruments; and each of the foregoing persons and entities is hereby directed to accept for filing any and all of the documents and instruments necessary and appropriate to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Asset Purchase Agreement.

96. All persons and entities that are presently, or on the Closing may be, in possession of some or all of the Acquired Assets pursuant to the Asset Purchase Agreement are hereby directed to surrender possession of the Acquired Assets to the Purchaser unless such person or entity was a good faith, bona fide purchaser of the Acquired Assets without notice of the Debtors' rights in such property. Subject to the terms, conditions, and provisions of this Confirmation Order, all persons and entities are hereby forever prohibited and enjoined from taking any action that would adversely affect or interfere with the ability of the Debtors to sell and/or transfer the Acquired Assets to the Purchaser in accordance with the terms of the Asset Purchase Agreement and this Confirmation Order.

97. Except as otherwise permitted by the Asset Purchase Agreement, the Plan, or this Confirmation Order, all persons and entities, including, but not limited to, all debt security holders, equity security holders, governmental, tax and regulatory authorities, lenders, trade creditors, litigation claimants, and other creditors, holding Liens, Claims, or other interests of any kind or nature whatsoever against or in all or any portion of the Acquired Assets (whether legal or equitable, secured or unsecured, matured or unmatured, contingent or non-contingent, liquidated or unliquidated, senior or subordinate), arising under or out of, in connection with, or in any way relating to the Debtors, the Acquired Assets, the operation of the Debtors' business prior to the closing of the Sale Transaction, or the transfer of the Acquired Assets to the Purchaser, hereby are forever barred, estopped and permanently enjoined from asserting against the Purchaser, any of the foregoing's affiliates, successors, or assigns, their property or the Acquired Assets, such persons' or entities' Liens, Claims, or interests in and to the Acquired

Assets, including, without limitation, the following actions: (a) commencing or continuing in any manner any action or other proceeding against the Purchaser and each of its affiliates, successors, assets or properties; (b) enforcing, attaching, collecting, or recovering in any manner any judgment, award, decree, or order against the Purchaser and each of its affiliates, successors, assets, or properties; (c) creating, perfecting, or enforcing any Lien or other Claim against the Purchaser and each of its affiliates, successors, assets, or properties; (d) asserting any setoff, right of subrogation, or recoupment of any kind against any obligation due the Purchaser, its affiliates or its successors; or (e) commencing or continuing any action, in any manner or place, that does not comply or is inconsistent with the provisions of this Confirmation Order, or the agreements or actions contemplated or taken in respect thereof.

98. All persons and entities are hereby forever prohibited and enjoined from taking any action that would adversely affect or interfere with the ability of the Debtors to sell and transfer the Acquired Assets to the Purchaser in accordance with the terms of the Asset Purchase Agreement, the Plan, and this Confirmation Order.

99. Purchaser shall have no Liability (as defined in the Asset Purchase Agreement) for any Excluded Liability, and, other than as expressly set forth in the Asset Purchase Agreement, Purchaser is not assuming, by virtue of the consummation of the Sale Transaction, nor shall the Purchaser be liable or responsible for, as a successor or otherwise (including under any theory of successor or vicarious liability of any kind or character or any other theory of law or equity, including any theory of antitrust, environmental successor or transferee liability, labor law, de facto merger, or substantial continuity (including under applicable Money Transmitter Requirements or any securities or commodities Laws of any Governmental Body)):

- (i) any Liability (as defined in the Asset Purchase Agreement), debts, commitments, or obligations of the Debtors or any of their predecessors or affiliates or any obligations of the Debtors or their predecessors or affiliates, in all cases whether known or unknown, disclosed or undisclosed, now existing or hereafter arising, asserted or unasserted, fixed or contingent, choate or inchoate, liquidated or unliquidated, and in all cases to the extent relating to or arising from, in any way whatsoever, the Acquired Assets or the Debtors' operation of their businesses or use of the Acquired Assets or any such liabilities, debts, commitments, or obligations that in any way whatsoever are to be observed, paid, satisfied, compromised, or performed (in each case, including any liabilities that result from, relate to or arise out of tort or product liability claims), or
- (ii) any Liability (as defined in the Asset Purchase Agreement) calculable by reference to the Debtors or their assets or operations, or relating to the operation of the Debtors' businesses prior to the Closing of the Sale Transaction, or relating to continuing conditions existing, including with respect to any of Debtors' predecessors or affiliates, which liabilities, debts, commitments, and obligations are hereby extinguished insofar as they may give rise to successor liability, without regard to whether the claimant asserting any such liabilities, debts, commitments, or obligations has delivered to the Purchaser a release thereof.

For the avoidance of doubt, (i) nothing herein shall release the Purchaser with respect to its obligations as Distribution Agent of Cryptocurrency and Cash to Holders of Account Holder Claims and OpCo General Unsecured Creditor Claims as provided in, and subject to the terms and conditions of, the Asset Purchase Agreement and the Plan, and (ii) notwithstanding the transfer to Purchaser, pursuant to the Asset Purchase Agreement, of any Acquired Assets that constitute Coins or Cash, each User and Eligible Creditor shall retain, from and after the Closing of the Sale Transaction, all right, title, and interest in and to such Coins and Cash allocated to it on the Binance.US Platform in accordance with the Asset Purchase Agreement (notwithstanding any terms and conditions of the Binance.US Platform to the contrary, if any) through and including such time as such Coins and Cash are returned or distributed to Seller or such User and Eligible Creditor, as applicable, and such Coins and Cash shall be held by Purchaser solely in a custodial capacity in trust and solely for the benefit of Seller or the applicable User or Eligible Creditor.

100. The Asset Purchase Agreement and any related documents or other instruments may be modified, amended, or supplemented by the parties thereto and in accordance with the terms thereof, without further order of the Court.

101. Paragraphs 88–100 of this Confirmation Order shall be deemed to be excised from this Confirmation Order in the event that the Asset Purchase Agreement is terminated prior to Closing. For the avoidance of doubt, subject to the requirements set forth in the Asset Purchase Agreement (including, without limitation, Sections 6.22 and 5.2(c) thereof), the Debtors may exercise the “fiduciary out” in Section 8.1(g) of the Asset Purchase Agreement at any time prior to Closing.

102. Corporate Action. Upon the Effective Date, all actions contemplated under the Plan shall be deemed authorized and approved in all respects, and, to the extent taken prior to the Effective Date, ratified without any requirement for further action by Holders of Claims or Interests, directors, managers, managing-members, limited or general partners, or officers of the Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, or any other Entity.

103. All matters provided for in the Plan involving the corporate structure of the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, and any corporate action required by the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, in connection with the Plan shall be deemed to have occurred on, and shall be in effect as of, the Effective Date, without any requirement of further action by the security holders, directors, managers, or officers of the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable. On or, as applicable, prior to the Effective Date, the appropriate officers of the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, shall be authorized and, as applicable, directed to issue, execute, and deliver the agreements, documents, certificates of incorporation, certificates of formation, bylaws, operating agreements, and instruments contemplated under the Plan (or necessary or desirable to effect the transactions contemplated under the Plan) in the name of and on behalf of the Wind-Down Debtor, and any and all other agreements, documents, and instruments relating to the foregoing. The authorizations and approvals contemplated by Article IV.J of the Plan shall be effective notwithstanding any requirements under non-bankruptcy law.

104. As soon as practicable after the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Debtor shall take such actions as the Wind-Down Debtor may determine to be necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of the Plan. Any certificate of dissolution or equivalent document may be executed by the Wind-Down Debtor on behalf of any Wind-Down Debtor without need for any action or approval by the shareholders or board of directors or managers of such Debtor. On and after the Effective Date, the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor (1) for all purposes shall be deemed to have withdrawn their business operations from any state in which the Debtors were previously conducting, or are registered or licensed to conduct, their business operations, and shall not be required to file any document, pay any sum, or take any other action in order to effectuate such withdrawal, (2) shall be deemed to have cancelled pursuant to the Plan all Interests, and (3) shall not be liable in any manner to any taxing authority for franchise, business, license, or similar taxes accruing on or after the Effective Date. Pursuant to the terms of the Plan, any Money Transmitter Licenses that have not been terminated shall be deemed withdrawn and no further action is required to be taken by the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor to effectuate such withdrawal; provided that, following the Effective Date, the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, shall use commercially reasonable efforts to comply with all state banking department requirements for the surrender of a Money Transmitter License. Notwithstanding such Debtors' dissolution, such Debtors shall be deemed to remain intact solely with respect to the preparation, filing, review, and resolution of applications for Professional Fee Claims.

105. Binding Effect. Upon the occurrence of the Effective Date, the terms of the Plan are immediately effective and enforceable and deemed binding on the Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, any and all Holders of Claims or Interests (regardless of whether such Holders of Claims or Interests have, or are deemed to have, accepted the Plan), all Entities that are parties to or are subject to the settlements, compromises, releases, and injunctions described in the Plan, each Entity acquiring property under the Plan or this Confirmation Order, and any and all non-Debtor parties to Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases with the Debtors. All Claims and debts shall be as fixed, adjusted, or compromised, as applicable, pursuant to the Plan regardless of whether any Holder of a Claim or debt has voted on the Plan.

106. Pursuant to section 1141 of the Bankruptcy Code, subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date and subject to the terms of the Plan and this Confirmation Order, all prior orders entered in these Chapter 11 Cases and all documents and agreements executed by the Debtors as authorized and directed thereunder as of the Effective Date shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the Debtors, the Purchaser, or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, and their respective successors and assigns.

107. Vesting of Assets. Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, this Confirmation Order, the Asset Purchase Agreement, the Schedule of Retained Causes of Action, or in any agreement, instrument, or other documented incorporated herein or therein, or in any agreement, instrument, or other document incorporated in the Plan or the Plan Supplement, notwithstanding any prohibition of assignability under applicable non-bankruptcy law and in accordance with section 1141 of the Bankruptcy Code, on the Effective Date, all property constituting Wind-Down Debtor Assets, including all Vested Causes of Action of the Debtors (unless otherwise released, waived, compromised, settled, satisfied, or transferred pursuant to the Plan) shall vest in the Wind-Down Debtor, free and clear of all Liens, Claims, charges, or other encumbrances.

108. Prior to the Effective Date, any and all of the Debtors' assets shall remain assets of the Estates pursuant to section 1123(b)(3)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code and on the Effective

Date the Wind-Down Debtor Assets shall, subject to the Plan Administrator Agreement, be transferred to and vest in the Wind-Down Debtor. For the avoidance of doubt, to the extent not otherwise waived in writing, released, settled, compromised, assigned, or sold pursuant to a prior order or the Plan, the Plan Administrator specifically retains and reserves the right to assert, after the Effective Date, any and all of the Vested Causes of Action and related rights, whether or not asserted as of the Effective Date, and all proceeds of the foregoing, subject to the terms of the Plan, including without limitation Article IV.F.

109. Pursuant to section 1123(b)(3)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code, only the Wind-Down Debtor and the Plan Administrator shall have the right to pursue or not to pursue, or, subject to the terms hereof and the Plan Administrator Agreement, compromise or settle any Wind-Down Debtor Assets transferred to the Wind-Down Debtor. On and after the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Debtor and the Plan Administrator may, without further Court approval, commence, litigate, and settle any Vested Causes of Action or Claims relating to any Wind-Down Debtor Assets transferred to the Wind-Down Debtor or rights to payment or Claims that belong to the Debtors as of the Effective Date or are instituted by the Wind-Down Debtor and Plan Administrator on or after the Effective Date, except as otherwise expressly provided herein and in the Plan Administrator Agreement. The Wind-Down Debtor shall be entitled to enforce all defenses and counterclaims to all Claims asserted against the Debtors and their Estates, including setoff, recoupment and any rights under section 502(d) of the Bankruptcy Code.

110. Notwithstanding any prohibition on assignability under applicable non-bankruptcy law, on the Effective Date and thereafter if additional Wind-Down Debtor Assets become available, the Debtors shall be deemed, subject to the Plan Administrator Agreement, to have automatically transferred to the applicable Wind-Down Debtor all of their right, title, and interest in and to all of the Wind-Down Debtor Assets, in accordance with section 1141 of the Bankruptcy Code. All such assets shall automatically vest in the Wind-Down Debtor free and clear of all Claims, Liens, and other interests, subject only to the Allowed Claims and Interests as set forth in the Plan and the expenses of the Wind-Down Debtor as set forth in the Plan and in the Plan Administrator Agreement. Thereupon, the Debtors shall have no interest in or with respect to the Wind-Down Debtor Assets or the Wind-Down Debtor.

111. On the Effective Date, the Debtors or Plan Administrator, as applicable, may establish one or more accounts or funds to hold and dispose of certain assets, pursue certain litigation (including the Vested Causes of Action), and/or satisfy certain Claims (including Claims that are contingent or have not yet been Allowed). For any such account or fund, the Debtors or the Plan Administrator, as applicable, may take the position that grantor trust treatment applies in whole or in part. To the extent such treatment applies to any such account or fund, for all U.S. federal income tax purposes, the beneficiaries of any such account or fund would be treated as grantors and owners thereof, and it is intended, to the extent reasonably practicable, that any such account or fund would be classified as a liquidating trust under section 301.7701-4 of the Treasury Regulations. Alternatively, any such account or fund may be subject to the tax rules that apply to “disputed ownership funds” under 26 C.F.R. 1.468B-9. If such rules apply, such assets would be subject to entity-level taxation, and the Debtors and Plan Administrator would be required to comply with the relevant rules.

112. Effectiveness of All Actions. All actions contemplated by the Plan, including all actions in connection with the Sale Transaction or the Liquidation Transaction, as applicable, are hereby effective and authorized to be taken on, prior to, or after the Effective Date, as applicable, under this Confirmation Order, without further application to, or order of the Court, or further action by the respective officers, directors, managers, members, or equity holders of the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor and with the effect that such actions had been taken by unanimous action of such officers, directors, managers, members, or equity holders.

113. Cancellation of Notes, Instruments, Certificates, and Other Documents. On the later of the Effective Date and the date on which distributions are made pursuant to the Plan (if not made on the Effective Date), except for the purpose of evidencing a right to and allowing Holders of Claims and Interests to receive a distribution under the Plan or to the extent otherwise specifically provided for in the Plan, this Confirmation Order, or any agreement, instrument, or other document entered into in connection with or pursuant to the Plan or the Restructuring Transactions, all notes, bonds, indentures, certificates, Securities, shares, purchase rights, options, warrants, collateral agreements, subordination agreements, intercreditor agreements, or other instruments or documents directly or indirectly evidencing, creating, or relating to any indebtedness or obligations of, or ownership interest in, the Debtors, giving rise to any Claims against or Interests in the Debtors or to any rights or obligations relating to any Claims against or Interests in the Debtors shall be deemed cancelled without any need for a Holder to take further action with respect thereto.

114. For the avoidance of doubt, cancellation of Existing Equity Interests pursuant to the Plan shall not affect the rights of the Holders of Existing Equity Interests to receive distributions, if any, under the Plan on account of such Existing Equity Interests. Holders of Existing Equity Interests shall continue to possess all rights, powers, privileges, and standing associated with such Existing Equity Interests as if those Existing Equity Interests continue to exist subject to the terms of the Plan and this Confirmation Order.

115. Distributions. The procedures governing distributions contained in Article VI of the Plan shall be, and hereby are, approved in their entirety. Except as otherwise set forth in the Plan or this Confirmation Order, the Plan Administrator shall make all distributions required under the Plan and the timing of distributions required under the Plan or this Confirmation Order shall be made in accordance with and as set forth in the Plan, this Confirmation Order, or the Plan Administrator Agreement, as applicable; provided that, if a creditor does not timely provide the Plan Administrator with its taxpayer identification number in the manner and by the deadline established by the Plan Administrator and/or the Plan, the creditor shall be deemed to have forfeited its right to any current, reserved or future distributions provided for under the Plan and such creditor's Claim or Interest shall be disallowed and expunged without further order of the Court. Any such forfeited distribution shall be deemed to have reverted back to the Wind-Down Debtor for all purposes, including for distributions to other holders of Allowed Claims or Allowed Interests (as applicable) against the particular Debtor in respect of which the forfeited distribution was made, notwithstanding any federal, provincial or state escheat, abandoned or unclaimed property law to the contrary.

116. Claims Register. Any Claim or Interest that has been paid, satisfied, amended, superseded, cancelled, or otherwise expunged (including pursuant to the Plan) may be adjusted or expunged, as applicable, on the Claims Register at the direction of the Debtors or Wind-Down Debtor without the Debtors or Wind-Down Debtor having to File an application, motion, complaint, objection, or any other legal proceeding seeking to object to such Claim or Interest and without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Court.

117. Preservation of Rights of Action. In accordance with section 1123(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Wind-Down Debtor shall succeed to all rights to commence and pursue any and all Vested Causes of Action of the Debtors, whether arising before or after the Petition Date, including, without limitation, any actions specifically enumerated in the Schedule of Retained Causes of Action other than Causes of Action released, waived, settled, compromised, or transferred. Such rights shall be preserved by the Debtors and Wind-Down Debtor and shall vest in the Wind-Down Debtor, with the Wind-Down Debtor's rights to commence, prosecute, or settle such Causes of Action preserved notwithstanding the occurrence of the Effective Date, other than the Causes of Action expressly released, waived, settled, compromised, or transferred by the Debtors pursuant to the releases and exculpations contained in the Plan, including in Article VIII of the Plan or pursuant to the Asset Purchase Agreement, which shall be deemed released and waived by the Debtors and the Wind-Down Debtor as of the Effective Date.

118. The Wind-Down Debtor may pursue such Causes of Action, as appropriate, in accordance with the best interests of the beneficiaries of the Wind-Down Debtor and in accordance with the Plan Administrator Agreement and the Plan. No Entity may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Schedules of Assets and Liabilities or Statement of Financial Affairs, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, the Disclosure Statement, or the Schedule of Retained Causes of Action to any Cause of Action against it as any indication that the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor will not pursue any and all available Causes of Action against it. The Wind-Down Debtor, on behalf of the Debtors and the Wind-Down Debtor, expressly reserves all rights to prosecute any and all Causes of Action against any Entity, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, including Article VIII of the Plan. Unless any Cause of Action of the Debtors is expressly waived, relinquished, exculpated, released, compromised, or settled in the Plan or pursuant to a Final Order, the Wind-Down Debtor, on behalf of the Debtors and Wind-Down Debtor and in accordance with the Plan Administrator Agreement, expressly reserves all such

Causes of Action for later adjudication, and, therefore, no preclusion doctrine, including the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, estoppel (judicial, equitable, or otherwise), or laches, shall apply to such Causes of Action upon, after, or as a consequence of Confirmation.

119. The Wind-Down Debtor, on behalf of the Debtors and the Wind-Down Debtor, reserves and shall retain such Causes of Action of the Debtors notwithstanding the rejection or repudiation of any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease during the Chapter 11 Cases or pursuant to the Plan. In accordance with section 1123(b)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code, any Cause of Action that a Debtor may hold against any Entity shall vest in the Wind-Down Debtor, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, including Article VIII of the Plan. The Wind-Down Debtor, through their authorized agents or representatives, shall retain and may exclusively enforce any and all such Causes of Action. The Wind-Down Debtor shall have the exclusive right, authority, and discretion to determine and to initiate, file, prosecute, enforce, abandon, settle, compromise, release, withdraw, or litigate to judgment any such Causes of Action, or to decline to do any of the foregoing, without the consent or approval of any third party or any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Court in accordance with the Plan.

120. Subordination. Except as expressly provided in the Plan, the allowance, classification, and treatment of all Allowed Claims against and Allowed Interests in the Debtors and the respective distributions and treatments under the Plan take into account and conform to the relative priority and rights of the Claims and Interests in each Class in connection with any contractual, legal, and equitable subordination rights relating thereto, whether arising under general principles of equitable subordination, section 510(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, or otherwise. Pursuant to section 510 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors and the Wind-Down

Debtor reserve the right to reclassify any Allowed Claim or Allowed Interest in accordance with any contractual, legal, or equitable subordination relating thereto.

121. Release of Liens. Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Plan Supplement, or any contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created pursuant to the Plan or this Confirmation Order on the Effective Date, and concurrently with the applicable distributions made pursuant to the Plan, all mortgages, deeds of trust, Liens, pledges, or other security interests against any property of the Estates shall be fully released, settled, and compromised, and all of the right, title, and interest of any holder of such mortgages, deeds of trust, Liens, pledges, or other security interests against any property of the Debtors shall automatically revert to the applicable Debtor or Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, and their successors and assigns, in each case, without any further approval or order of the Court and without any action or Filing being required to be made by the Debtors. The presentation or filing of this Confirmation Order to or with any local, state, federal, or foreign agency or department shall constitute good and sufficient evidence of, but shall not be required to effect, the termination of such Liens.

122. Governance of the Wind-Down Debtor. The Plan Administrator shall appoint an independent director at each Debtor to act as a fiduciary for such Debtor entity in connection with the resolution of the Intercompany Claims.

123. Intercompany Claims. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Confirmation Order or the Plan shall have any impact on the validity, extent, priority, or treatment of the Intercompany Claims. Any determination as to the validity, extent, priority, or treatment of the Intercompany Claims shall be determined by the Court in a separate matter on proper notice to parties in interest. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Confirmation Order or the Plan, the rights of the ad hoc group of equityholders (the “AHG”) to continue or participate in any adjudication of the Intercompany Claims are preserved, and any party reserves any and all rights, claims, and defenses in connection therewith, including without limitation, the Debtors and/or the Wind-Down Debtor’s right to challenge the AHG’s standing with respect thereto; provided that such right, claim, or defense is not based on any provision in this Confirmation Order or the Plan.

124. FTX Settlement. Pursuant to the terms of the FTX Settlement, the Debtors shall reserve and hold the amount of $445 million in Cash on account of the Preference Claims (as defined in the FTX Settlement) asserted by FTX, Alameda, and their estates in the FTX Bankruptcy Proceeding, subject to all defenses and counterclaims thereto, until the final resolution of the Preference Claims by settlement or a final and unappealable order by the court in the FTX Bankruptcy Proceeding, including any appeals therefrom.

125. General Settlement of Claims and Interests. As discussed in detail in the Disclosure Statement and as otherwise provided in the Plan, pursuant to section 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 9019, and in consideration for the classification, distributions, releases, and other benefits provided under the Plan, on the Effective Date, the provisions of the Plan shall constitute a good-faith compromise and settlement of all Claims, Interests, Causes of Action, and controversies released, settled, compromised, or otherwise resolved pursuant to the Plan. The Plan shall be deemed a motion to approve the good-faith compromise and settlement of all such Claims, Interests, Causes of Action, and controversies pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019, and the entry of this Confirmation Order shall constitute the Court's approval of such compromise and settlement under section 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 9019 of all such Claims, Interests, Causes of Action, and controversies, as well as a finding by the Court that such compromise and settlement is fair, equitable, reasonable, and in the best interests of the Debtors, their Estates, and Holders of Claims and Interests. Subject to Article VI of the Plan, all distributions made to Holders of Allowed Claims and Interests in any Class are intended to be and shall be final.

126. Third-Party Releases. For the avoidance of doubt, any party that did not affirmatively “opt in” to the Third-Party Releases contained in the Plan shall not be deemed to grant such Third-Party Releases contained in the Plan.

127. Contributed Third Party Claims. For the avoidance of doubt, any party that did not affirmatively “opt in” to contribute their Contributed Third-Party Claims to the Wind-Down Debtor shall not be deemed to contribute their claims to the Wind-Down Debtor; provided, however, that any party may contribute their Contributed Third-Party Claims to the Wind-Down Debtor on or after the Effective Date by separate agreement with the Plan Administrator and Wind-Down Debtor. Any such agreement shall be valid to the same extent as if the party affirmatively opted in to contribute their Contributed Third-Party Claims to the Wind-Down Debtor.

128. Operations After Closing. On and after the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor may use, acquire, or dispose of property and compromise or settle any Claims, Interests, or Causes of Action without supervision or approval by the Court and free of any restrictions of the Bankruptcy Code or Bankruptcy Rules.

129. Assumption and Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases. On the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, each Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease not previously rejected, assumed, or assumed and assigned, including any employee benefit plans, severance plans, and other Executory Contracts under which employee obligations arise, shall be deemed automatically rejected pursuant to sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code, unless such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease: (a) is specifically described in the Plan as to be assumed in connection with confirmation of the Plan, or is specifically scheduled to be assumed or assumed and assigned pursuant to the Plan or the Plan Supplement; (b) is subject to a pending motion to assume such Unexpired Lease or Executory Contract as of the Effective Date; (c) is to be assumed by the Debtors or assumed by the Debtors and assigned to another third party, as applicable, in connection with the Sale Transaction; (d) is a contract, instrument, release, indenture, or other agreement or document entered into in connection with the Plan; or (e) is a D&O Liability Insurance Policy other than the Side-A Policy. Entry of this Confirmation Order constitutes approval of such assumptions, assignments, and rejections, including the assumption of the Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases as provided in the Plan Supplement, pursuant to sections 365(a) and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code. Except as otherwise provided in this Confirmation Order, any and all objections or reservations of rights in connection with the rejection of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease under the Plan, if any, are overruled on their merits.

130. Waiver or Estoppel. Each Holder of a Claim or an Interest shall be deemed to have waived any right to assert any argument, including the right to argue that its Claim or Interest should be Allowed in a certain amount, in a certain priority, Secured or not subordinated by virtue of an agreement made with the Debtors or their counsel, or any other Entity, if such agreement was not disclosed in the Plan, the Disclosure Statement, or papers Filed prior to the Confirmation Date.

131. Insurance Policies and Surety Bonds. Each D&O Liability Insurance Policy (including, without limitation, any “tail policy” and all agreements, documents, or instruments related thereto) other than the Side-A Policy shall be assumed, in their entirety, without the need for any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Court, as of the Effective Date, pursuant to sections 105 and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code with the Wind-Down Debtor being authorized to pursue any proceeds thereof on behalf of the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor. The Side-A Policy shall remain in effect during these Chapter 11 Cases with the Debtors, and the Wind-Down Debtor preserves all avoidance and other actions in connection with the premium paid thereunder. All beneficiaries under the D&O Insurance Policies reserve their rights under such D&O Insurance Policies subject to the limitations set forth in the Plan.

132. The Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, shall not terminate or otherwise reduce the coverage under any D&O Liability Insurance Policy (including, without limitation, any “tail policy” and all agreements, documents, or instruments related thereto) in effect prior to the Effective Date, and subject in all respects to the D&O Settlement, any current and former directors, officers, managers, and employees of the Debtors who served in such capacity at any time before or after the Effective Date shall be entitled to the full benefits of any such policy for the full term of such policy subject to the terms thereof regardless of whether such directors, officers, managers, and employees remain in such positions after the Effective Date. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan, the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor shall retain the ability to supplement such D&O Liability Insurance Policy as the Debtors or Wind-Down Debtor may deem necessary, subject to the prior written consent of the Wind-Down Debtor.

133. The Debtors shall continue to satisfy their obligations under their insurance policies in full and continue such programs in the ordinary course of business. Each of the Debtors' insurance policies, and any agreements, documents, or instruments relating thereto shall be treated as Executory Contracts under the Plan. On the Effective Date: (a) the Debtors shall be deemed to have assumed all such insurance policies and any agreements, documents, and instruments relating thereto in their entirety and (b) such insurance policies and any agreements, documents, or instruments relating thereto shall revert in the applicable Wind-Down Debtor(s) unaltered.

134. Authorization to Consummate. The Debtors are authorized to consummate the Plan at any time after the entry of this Confirmation Order subject to satisfaction or waiver (by the required parties) of the conditions precedent to consummation as set forth in Article IX of the Plan.

135. Professional Compensation. All final requests for payment of Professional Fee Claims for services rendered and reimbursement of expenses incurred prior to the Confirmation Date must be Filed no later than sixty (60) days after the Effective Date. The Court shall determine the Allowed amounts of such Professional Fee Claims after notice and a hearing in accordance with the procedures established by the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules. The Wind-Down Debtor shall pay Professional Fee Claims in Cash to such Professionals in the amount the Court allows, including from funds held in the Professional Fee Escrow Account as soon as reasonably practicable after such Professional Fee Claims are Allowed by entry of an order of the Court; provided that the Debtors' and the Wind-Down Debtor's obligations to pay Allowed Professional Fee Claims shall not be limited or deemed limited to funds held in the Professional Fee Escrow Account.

136. No later than the Effective Date, the Debtors shall establish and fund the Professional Fee Escrow Account with Cash equal to the Professional Fee Escrow Amount. The Professional Fee Escrow Account shall be maintained in trust solely for the Professionals and for no other Entities until all Professional Fee Claims Allowed by the Court have been irrevocably paid in full to the Professionals pursuant to one or more Final Orders of the Court. No Liens, claims, or interests shall encumber the Professional Fee Escrow Account or Cash held in the Professional Fee Escrow Account in any way. No funds held in the Professional Fee Escrow Account shall be property of the Estates of the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor. When all Professional Fee Claims Allowed by the Court have been irrevocably paid in full to the Professionals pursuant to one or more Final Orders of the Court, any remaining funds held in the Professional Fee Escrow Account shall be turned over to the Wind-Down Debtor without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Court or any other Entity.

137. The Professionals shall deliver to the Debtors a reasonable and good-faith estimate of their unpaid fees and expenses incurred in rendering services to the Debtors before and as of the Confirmation Date projected to be outstanding as of the anticipated Effective Date, and shall deliver such estimate no later than five Business Days prior to the anticipated Effective Date. For the avoidance of doubt, no such estimate shall be considered or deemed an admission or limitation with respect to the amount of the fees and expenses that are the subject of a Professional's final request for payment of Professional Fee Claims Filed with the Court, and such Professionals are not bound to any extent by the estimates. If a Professional does not provide an estimate, the Debtors may estimate the unpaid and unbilled fees and expenses of such Professional. The total aggregate amount so estimated to be outstanding as of the anticipated Effective Date shall be utilized by the Debtors to determine the amount to be funded to the Professional Fee Escrow Account; provided that the Wind-Down Debtor shall use Cash on hand to increase the amount of the Professional Fee Escrow Account to the extent fee applications are Filed after the Effective Date in excess of the amount held in the Professional Fee Escrow Account based on such estimates.

138. Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan, from and after the Confirmation Date, the Debtors and/or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, shall, in the ordinary course of business and without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Court, pay in Cash the reasonable and documented legal, professional, or other fees and expenses related to implementation of the Plan and Consummation incurred by the Wind-Down Debtor. Upon the Confirmation Date, any requirement that Professionals comply with sections 327 through 331, 363, and 1103 of the Bankruptcy Code in seeking retention or compensation for services rendered after such date shall terminate, and the Wind-Down Debtor may employ and pay any Professional in the ordinary course of business for the period after the Confirmation Date without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Court.

139. Return of Deposits. All utilities, including, but not limited to, any Person or Entity that received a deposit or other form of adequate assurance of performance under section 366 of the Bankruptcy Code during these Chapter 11 Cases, must return such deposit or other form of adequate assurance of performance to the Wind-Down Debtor promptly following the occurrence of the Effective Date, if not returned or applied earlier.

140. Release, Exculpation, and Injunction Provisions. The release, exculpation, injunction, opt in, and related provisions set forth in the Plan are approved and authorized in their entirety, and such provisions are effective and binding on all Persons and Entities to the extent provided therein except as otherwise provided in this Confirmation Order, provided, however, that nothing in the exculpation related provisions of the Plan shall release the Debtors from the provisions of the Plan governing satisfaction of Allowed Claims including Allowed Administrative Expense Claims or change the standard for liability on Allowed Claims or Allowed Administrative Expense Claims, subject to any applicable bankruptcy and non-bankruptcy law.

141. For the avoidance of doubt, the Debtors are not seeking a discharge under section 1141(d).

142. ~~141.~~ Governmental Units. Nothing in this Confirmation Order or the Plan shall effect a release ~~of any claim~~ by the United States, the States or any of ~~its~~their agencies of any claim arising under the Internal Revenue Code, the environmental laws or any civil or criminal laws of the United States or the States, or under any rules or regulations enforced by the United States, the States or any of ~~its~~their agencies against the Released Parties, nor shall anything in the Confirmation Order or the Plan enjoin the United States or the States from bringing any claim, suit, action or other proceedings against the Released Parties for any liability for any claim, suit or action arising under the Internal Revenue Code, the environmental laws or any civil or criminal laws of the United States or the States, or under any rules or regulations enforced by the United States, the States or any of ~~its~~their agencies, nor shall anything in the Confirmation Order or the Plan exculpate any such party from any liability to the United States, the States or any of ~~its~~their agencies, arising under the Internal Revenue Code, the environmental laws or any civil or criminal laws of the United States or the States, or under any rules or regulations enforced by the United States, the States or any of ~~its~~their agencies; provided, however, that nothing in this Confirmation Order or the Plan shall modify in any respect the relief previously granted in the Bar Date Order and thus no person or entity, including the United States, the States or any of ~~its~~their agencies, can seek or receive a direct or indirect distribution of any property of the Debtors' estates unless they filed a Proof of Claim prior to the Governmental Bar Date; provided, further, that the United States, the States, and their agencies may not, and will not, allege that the Restructuring Transactions are a violation of any rules or regulations enforced by the United States, the States or any of their agencies, nor will they bring any claim against any Person on account of or relating to the Restructuring Transactions.

143. Nothing in this Confirmation Order, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, or the Asset Purchase Agreement releases, precludes, or enjoins: (i) any liability to any governmental unit as defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(27) ("Governmental Unit") that is not a "claim" as defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(5) ("Claim"); (ii) any Claim of a Governmental Unit arising on or after the Effective Date; or (iii) any liability to a Governmental Unit on the part of any non-Debtor (except to the extent set forth in paragraphs 97 and 99 herein); provided, however, that nothing in this Confirmation Order or the Plan shall modify in any respect the relief previously granted in the Bar Date Order; provided, further, that no Governmental Unit will allege that the Restructuring Transactions are a violation of any rules or regulations enforced by the United States, the States or any of their agencies, nor will they bring any claim against any Person on account of or relating to the Restructuring Transactions. Nothing in this Confirmation Order, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, or the Asset Purchase Agreement authorizes the transfer or assignment of any governmental (a) license, (b) permit, (c) registration, (d) authorization, or (e) approval, without compliance with all applicable legal requirements.

144. ~~142.~~ Securities and Exchange Commission Provisions. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Confirmation Order, or any findings announced at the Combined Hearing, nothing in this Confirmation Order, or announced at the Combined Hearing, constitutes a finding under the federal securities laws as to whether crypto tokens or transactions involving crypto tokens are securities, and the right of the SEC to challenge transactions involving crypto tokens on any basis is expressly reserved.

145. ~~143.~~ Notwithstanding any provision herein to the contrary, nothing in this Confirmation Order or the Plan grants this Court ~~with~~ jurisdiction over any police and regulatory actions by the SEC, and the SEC shall retain the power and authority to commence and continue any such actions against any person or entity, including without limitation, the Debtors, in any forum with jurisdiction; provided, however, that nothing in this Confirmation Order or the Plan shall modify in any respect the relief previously granted in the Bar Date Order ~~and thus no person or entity, including the United States or any of its agencies, can seek or receive a direct or indirect distribution of any property of the Debtors' estates unless they filed a Proof of Claim prior to the Governmental Bar Date;~~ provided, however, that the SEC will not allege that the Restructuring Transactions are a violation of any rules or regulations enforced by the SEC, nor will they bring any claim against any Person on account of or relating to the Restructuring Transactions.

146. ~~144.~~ Upon the occurrence of the Effective Date, the Debtors' books and records shall be transferred to the Wind-Down Debtor, which shall continue to preserve all financial books and records, emails, and other financial documents relating to the Debtors' business that are currently in the Debtors' possession. The Wind-Down Debtor shall not destroy or otherwise abandon any such documents or records without providing advance notice to the SEC (c/o Therese Scheuer, U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, 100 F Street, NE, Washington, DC 20549, ScheuerT@SEC.GOV) and seeking further authorization from this Court. Nothing in the Plan or this Confirmation Order shall affect the obligations of the pre-Effective Date Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, and/or any transferee or custodian to maintain all books and records that are subject to any governmental subpoena, document preservation letter, or other investigative request from a governmental agency.

147. ~~145.~~ Notwithstanding any language to the contrary herein, no provision in the Plan or this Confirmation Order shall (a) preclude the OSC or the SEC from enforcing its police or regulatory powers or (b) enjoin, limit, impair or delay the OSC or SEC from commencing or continuing any claims, causes of action, proceeding, or investigations against any non-Debtor person or non-Debtor entity in any forum.

148. ~~146.~~ Employee Transition Plan. The Employee Transition Plan, the terms of which are included in the Plan Supplement as Exhibit H, will be implemented following the Effective Date and is not subject to the Court's approval.

149. ~~147.~~ Compliance with Tax Requirements. In connection with the Plan, to the extent applicable, the Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, any Distribution Agent, and any other applicable withholding and reporting agents shall comply with all tax withholding and reporting requirements imposed on them by any Governmental Unit, and all distributions pursuant to the Plan shall be subject to such withholding and reporting requirements. Notwithstanding any provision in the Plan to the contrary, the Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, the Distribution Agent, and any other applicable withholding and reporting agents shall be authorized to take all actions necessary or appropriate to comply with such withholding and reporting requirements, including winding-down a portion of the distribution to be made under the Plan to generate sufficient funds to pay applicable withholding taxes, withholding distributions pending receipt of information necessary to facilitate such distributions, or establishing any other mechanisms that are reasonable and appropriate; provided that the Wind-Down Debtor and the Distribution

Agent, as applicable, shall request appropriate documentation from the applicable distributees and allow such distributees a reasonable amount of time to respond. The Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, the Distribution Agent, and any other applicable withholding and reporting agents reserve the right to allocate all distributions made under the Plan in compliance with all applicable wage garnishments, alimony, child support, and other spousal awards, liens, and encumbrances.

150. ~~148.~~ Exemption from Certain Taxes and Fees. To the fullest extent permitted by section 1146(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, any transfers (whether from a Debtor to a Debtor, the Wind-Down Debtor, the Purchaser, or to any other Entity) of property under the Plan or pursuant to: (a) the issuance, distribution, transfer, or exchange of any debt, equity security, or other interest in the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor; (b) the creation, modification, consolidation, termination, refinancing, and/or recording of any mortgage, deed of trust, or other security interest, or the securing of additional indebtedness by such or other means; (c) the making, assignment, or recording of any lease or sublease; or (d) the making, delivery, or recording of any deed or other instrument of transfer under, in furtherance of, or in connection with, the Plan, including any deeds, bills of sale, assignments, or other instrument of transfer executed in connection with any transaction arising out of, contemplated by, or in any way related to the Plan, including the Asset Purchase Agreement, shall not be subject to any document recording tax, stamp tax, conveyance fee, intangibles or similar tax, mortgage tax, real estate transfer tax, mortgage recording tax, sales or use tax, Uniform Commercial Code filing or recording fee, regulatory filing or recording fee, or other similar tax or governmental assessment, and upon entry of this Confirmation Order, the appropriate state or local governmental officials or agents shall forgo the collection of any such tax or governmental assessment and accept for filing and recordation any of the foregoing instruments or other documents without the payment of any such tax, recordation fee, or governmental assessment. All filing or recording officers (or any other Person with authority over any of the foregoing), wherever located and by whomever appointed, shall comply with the requirements of section 1146(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, shall forgo the collection of any such tax or governmental assessment, and shall accept for filing and recordation any of the foregoing instruments or other documents without the payment of any such tax or governmental assessment.

151. ~~149.~~ Termination of Asset Purchase Agreement. If the Asset Purchase Agreement is terminated and the Sale Transaction is not consummated, all provisions in this Confirmation Order relating to the Asset Purchase Agreement, the Sale Transaction, and the Purchaser shall be of no force and effect, and the Debtors are authorized to consummate the Liquidation Transaction without further order of the Court.

152. ~~150.~~ The Liquidation Transaction. If the Asset Purchase Agreement is terminated, the Debtors shall pursue the Liquidation Transaction contemplated under the Plan and shall provide all Holders of Claims and Interests with the treatment afforded to such Holders under the Plan. In the event that the Debtors determine to pursue the Liquidation Transaction contemplated under Article IV of the Plan, the Debtors shall promptly notify the Court and all parties in interest. The Plan shall be deemed to satisfy all requirements under the Bankruptcy Code with respect to either the Sale Transaction or the Liquidation Transaction pursuant to this Confirmation Order.

153. ~~151.~~ Documents, Mortgages, and Instruments. Each federal, state, commonwealth, local, foreign, or other governmental agency is authorized to accept any and all documents, mortgages, and instruments necessary or appropriate to effectuate, implement, or consummate the Plan, including the Restructuring Transactions, and this Confirmation Order.

154. ~~152.~~ The BNY Objection. This Confirmation Order confirms that the Deed of Trust and Assignment of Rents recorded January 5, 2023 Official Records of Orange County (the “Deed”) transferring title of 37 Black Hawk, Irvine, California 92603 (the “Property”) from Michael G. Beason and Mickey L. Wiebeis (collectively, the “Property Borrowers”) to Voyager Digital, LLC is void. This Confirmation Order may be recorded against the Property as evidence and confirmation that the Deed is void. The Bank Of New York Mellon f/k/a the Bank Of New York, As Trustee For The Certificateholders Of CWALT, Inc., Alternative Loan Trust 2005-38, Mortgage Pass-Through Certificates, Series 2005-38 as Serviced by Shellpoint Mortgage Servicing (“Shellpoint”) shall be permitted to take any other the necessary actions to void the Deed. To the extent necessary, the automatic stay is lifted solely as it pertains to Shellpoint’s rights to take action against the Property and shall be effective immediately upon entry of this Confirmation Order. The Debtor(s) shall not be party to any foreclosure or other proceeding related to the Property as they lack any interest in the Property. Shellpoint shall release the Debtors and the Wind-Down Debtor of any costs and claims incurred on account of the Property, including any actions taken in any foreclosure or other proceeding or associated with voiding the Deed. This Confirmation Order shall in no way prevent Shellpoint from pursuing any and all lawful rights and remedies as to the Property Borrowers.

155. ~~153.~~ Continued Effect of Stays and Injunction. Unless otherwise provided in the Plan or this Confirmation Order, all injunctions or stays arising under or entered during these Chapter 11 Cases under section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise and in existence on the Confirmation Date, shall remain in full force and effect until the later of the Effective Date and the date indicated in the order providing for such injunction or stay.

156. ~~154.~~ Non-Severability. Each term and provision of the Plan, as it may have been altered or interpreted in accordance with the foregoing, is: (a) valid and enforceable pursuant to its terms; (b) integral to the Plan and may not be deleted or modified without the Debtors' consent, consistent with the terms set forth herein; and (c) non-severable and mutually dependent.

157. ~~155.~~ Notice of Subsequent Pleadings. Except as otherwise provided in the Plan or in this Confirmation Order, notice of all subsequent pleadings in these Chapter 11 Cases after the Effective Date will be limited to the following parties: (a) the Wind-Down Debtor and its counsel; (b) the U.S. Trustee; (c) counsel to the Purchaser; (d) any party known to be directly affected by the relief sought by such pleadings; and (e) any party that specifically requests additional notice in writing to the Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, or the Plan Administrator, as applicable, or files a request for notice under Bankruptcy Rule 2002 after the Effective Date. The Notice and Claims Agent shall not be required to file updated service lists.

158. ~~156.~~ Post-Confirmation Modifications. Subject to the limitations and terms contained in the Plan and Purchaser's consent rights under the Asset Purchase Agreement, the Debtors, with the consent of the Committee, reserve the right to (a) amend or modify the Plan before the entry of this Confirmation Order, in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code and the Bankruptcy Rules and (b) after the entry of this Confirmation Order, the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, may, upon order of the Court, amend or modify the Plan, in accordance with section 1127(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, to remedy any defect or omission, or reconcile any inconsistency in the Plan in such manner as may be necessary to carry out the purpose and intent of the Plan consistent with the terms set forth in the Plan.

159. ~~157.~~ Plan Classification Controlling. The terms of the Plan shall solely govern the classification of Claims and Interests for purposes of the distributions to be made thereunder and the classifications set forth on the ballots tendered to or returned by the Holders of Claims or Interests in connection with voting on the Plan: (a) were set forth thereon solely for purposes of voting to accept or reject the Plan; (b) do not necessarily represent, and in no event shall be deemed to modify or otherwise affect, the actual classification of Claims and Interests under the Plan for distribution purposes; (c) may not be relied upon by any Holder of a Claim or Interest as representing the actual classification of such Claim or Interest under the Plan for distribution purposes; and (d) shall not be binding on the Debtors except for voting purposes.

160. ~~158.~~ Choice of Law. Unless a rule of law or procedure is supplied by federal law (including the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules) or unless otherwise specifically stated, the laws of the State of New York, without giving effect to the principles of conflict of laws, shall govern the rights, obligations, construction, and implementation of the Plan and any agreements, documents, instruments, or contracts executed or entered into in connection with the Plan (except as otherwise set forth in those agreements, documents, instruments, or contracts, in which case the governing law of such agreement shall control); provided that corporate, limited liability company, or partnership governance matters relating to the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, shall be governed by the laws of the jurisdiction of incorporation or formation of the relevant Debtor or Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable.

161. ~~159.~~ Applicable Nonbankruptcy Law. The provisions of this Confirmation Order, the Plan and related documents, or any amendments or modifications thereto, shall apply and be enforceable notwithstanding any otherwise applicable nonbankruptcy law.

162. ~~160.~~ Waiver of Filings. Any requirement under section 521 of the Bankruptcy Code or Bankruptcy Rule 1007 obligating the Debtors to file any list, schedule, or statement with the Court or the Office of the U.S. Trustee is permanently waived as to any such list, schedule, or statement not filed as of the Confirmation Date.

163. ~~161.~~ Governmental Approvals Not Required. This Confirmation Order shall constitute all approvals and consents required, if any, by the laws, rules, or regulations of any state, federal, or other governmental authority with respect to the dissemination, implementation, or consummation of the Plan and the Disclosure Statement, any certifications, documents, instruments or agreements, and any amendments or modifications thereto, and any other acts referred to in, or contemplated by, the Plan and the Disclosure Statement. As provided in section 525 of the Bankruptcy Code, no governmental unit may revoke or suspend any permit or license of the Debtors or Wind-Down Debtor on account of the filing or pendency of the Chapter 11 Cases.

164. ~~162.~~ Protection Against Discriminatory Treatment. As provided by section 525 of the Bankruptcy Code, and consistent with paragraph 2 of Article VI of the United States Constitution, no Entity, including Governmental Units, shall discriminate against any Wind-Down Debtor or deny, revoke, suspend, or refuse to renew a license, permit, charter, franchise, or other similar grant to, condition such a grant to, or discriminate with respect to such a grant against, any Wind-Down Debtor, or any Entity with which a Wind-Down Debtor has been or is associated, solely because such Wind-Down Debtor was a debtor under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code or may have been insolvent before the commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases (or during the Chapter 11 Cases).

165. ~~163.~~ Notices of Confirmation and Effective Date. The Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, shall serve notice of entry of this Confirmation Order, of the occurrence of the Effective Date, and of applicable deadlines (the “Notice of Confirmation”) in accordance with Bankruptcy Rules 2002 and 3020(c) on all parties served with the Combined Hearing Notice seven Business Days after the Effective Date; provided that no notice of any kind shall be required to be mailed or made upon any Entity to whom the Debtors mailed notice of the Combined Hearing, but received such notice returned marked “undeliverable as addressed,” “moved, left no forwarding address,” or “forwarding order expired,” or similar reason, unless the Debtors have been informed in writing by such Entity, or are otherwise aware, of that Entity’s new address. For those parties receiving electronic service, filing on the docket is deemed sufficient to satisfy such service and notice requirements.

166. ~~164.~~ No later than ten Business Days after the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Debtor shall cause the Notice of Confirmation, modified for publication, to be published on one occasion in The New York Times (national edition) and USA Today (national edition). Mailing and publication of the Notice of Confirmation in the time and manner set forth in this paragraph will be good, adequate, and sufficient notice under the particular circumstances and in accordance with the requirements of Bankruptcy Rules 2002 and 3020(c). No further notice is necessary.

167. ~~165.~~ The Notice of Confirmation will have the effect of an order of the Court, will constitute sufficient notice of the entry of this Confirmation Order to filing and recording officers, and will be a recordable instrument notwithstanding any contrary provision of applicable nonbankruptcy law. The above-referenced notices are adequate under the particular circumstances of these Chapter 11 Cases and no other or further notice is necessary.

168. ~~166.~~ Dissolution of Statutory Committees. On the Effective Date, any statutory committee appointed in the Chapter 11 Cases shall dissolve, and the members thereof shall be released and discharged from all rights and duties arising from, or related to, the Chapter 11 Cases; provided, however, that such committees will remain in existence for the limited purposes of (a) pursuing, supporting, or otherwise participating in, any outstanding appeals in the Chapter 11 Cases; and (b) filing, objecting, or otherwise participating in, any final fee applications of Professionals.

169. ~~167.~~ Exemption from Registration. The Plan Administrator shall hold the equity of the Voyager Digital Ltd., to the extent that any new equity is issued, in an agency capacity, for the benefit of and to facilitate the rights of Holders of Interests provided under the Plan ~~and any~~; provided that such equity ~~shall not be deemed “securities” under applicable laws,~~
if issued, shall be uncertificated and non-transferable.

170. ~~168.~~ Distributions to Holders of Claims and Interests in accordance with the Plan shall not be deemed to be unlicensed money transmission ~~or to violate any securities laws.~~

171. ~~169.~~ Effect of Non-Occurrence of Conditions to Confirmation. If the Effective Date does not occur within 120 days after the Confirmation Date, then the Plan will be null and void in all respects, any and all compromises or settlements not previously approved by Final Order of the Court embodied in the Plan (including with respect to the fixing, limiting, or treatment of any Claim or Interest), shall be deemed null and void, and nothing contained in the Plan or the Disclosure Statement shall: (a) constitute a waiver or release of any Claims, Interests, or Causes of Action held by any Debtor or any other Entity; (b) prejudice in any manner the rights of any Debtor or any other Entity; or (c) constitute an admission, acknowledgment, offer, or undertaking of any sort by any Debtor or any other Entity in any respect.

172. ~~170.~~ Substantial Consummation. On the Effective Date, the Plan shall be deemed to have been substantially consummated or shall be anticipated to be substantially consummated concurrent with the occurrence of the Effective Date.

173. ~~171.~~ Waiver of Stay. For good cause shown, the stay of this Confirmation Order provided by any Bankruptcy Rule is waived, and this Confirmation Order shall be effective and enforceable immediately upon its entry by the Court.

174. ~~172.~~ Immediate Binding Effect. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rules 3020(e), 6004(h), or 7062 or otherwise, upon the occurrence of the Effective Date, the terms of the Plan shall be immediately effective and enforceable and deemed binding upon the Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, and any and all Holders of Claims or Interests (irrespective of whether such Claims or Interests are deemed to have accepted the Plan), all Entities that are parties to or are subject to the settlements, compromises, releases, exculpations, and injunctions described in the Plan, each Entity acquiring property under the Plan, and any and all non-Debtor parties to Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases with the Debtors. All Claims against and Interests in the Debtors shall be as fixed, adjusted, or compromised, as applicable, pursuant to the Plan regardless of whether any Holder of a Claim or Interest has voted on the Plan.

175. ~~173.~~ References to and Omissions of Plan Provisions. References to articles, sections, and provisions of the Plan are inserted for convenience of reference only and are not intended to be a part of or to affect the interpretation of the Plan. The failure to specifically include or to refer to any particular article, section, or provision of the Plan in this Confirmation

Order shall not diminish or impair the effectiveness of such article, section, or provision, it being the intent of the Court that the Plan be confirmed in its entirety, except as expressly modified herein, and incorporated herein by reference.

176. ~~174.~~ Headings. Headings utilized herein are for convenience and reference only, and do not constitute a part of the Plan or this Confirmation Order for any other purpose.

177. ~~175.~~ Effect of Conflict. This Confirmation Order supersedes any Court order issued prior to the Confirmation Date that may be inconsistent with this Confirmation Order. If there is any inconsistency between the terms of the Plan and the terms of this Confirmation Order, the terms of this Confirmation Order shall govern and control. For the avoidance of doubt, the Stipulation and Agreed Order Between the Debtors and Metropolitan Commercial Bank [Docket No. 821] remains in effect and is not superseded by this Confirmation Order.

178. ~~176.~~ Final, Appealable Order. This Confirmation Order is a final judgment, order, or decree for purposes of 28 U.S.C. § 158(a), and the period in which an appeal must be filed shall commence upon the entry hereof.

179. ~~177.~~ Retention of Jurisdiction. The Court may properly, and upon the Effective Date shall, to the full extent set forth in the Plan, retain jurisdiction over all matters arising out of, or related to, the Chapter 11 Cases and the Plan pursuant to sections 105(a) and 1142 of the Bankruptcy Code, including (i) the matters set forth in Article XI of the Plan and (ii) as set forth in Section 10.13 of the Asset Purchase Agreement.

INTRODUCTION

Voyager Digital Holdings, Inc. and its affiliated debtors and debtors in possession in the above-captioned chapter 11 cases (each a “Debtor” and, collectively, the “Debtors”) propose this third amended joint plan (the “Plan”) for the resolution of the outstanding Claims against and Interests in the Debtors pursuant to chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Plan does not contemplate substantive consolidation of any of the Debtors. Reference is made to the Disclosure Statement for a discussion of the Debtors’ history, business, properties and operations, projections, risk factors, a summary and analysis of this Plan, and certain related matters.

ALL HOLDERS OF CLAIMS ENTITLED TO VOTE ON THE PLAN ARE ENCOURAGED TO READ THE PLAN AND THE DISCLOSURE STATEMENT IN THEIR ENTIRETY BEFORE VOTING TO ACCEPT OR REJECT THE PLAN.

G. The D&O Settlement

On the Effective Date, the terms of the D&O Settlement shall be effectuated as provided in this Article IV.G.

Pursuant to the D&O Settlement, CEO shall repay the $1,900,000 received from the Debtors on or around February 28, 2022, by paying the after-tax amount of such transfer (approximately $1,125,000) to OpCo in cash and assigning the right, if any, to any tax refund for the balance to the Wind-Down Debtor. CEO shall subordinate any Claims (including any indemnification claims asserted under this Art. IV.F) he holds against the Debtors until all other Holders of Claims are paid in full. CCO shall subordinate 50 percent of any Claims he holds other than indemnification claims (and 100% of any indemnification claims asserted under this Art. IV.F) against the Debtors until all other Holders of Claims are paid in full; provided, however, that in the event the D&O Carriers deny coverage to CEO or CCO under the D&O Insurance Policies on account of such subordination of any indemnification claim, then any indemnification claims by CEO or CCO shall not be so subordinated, but may be filed as an OpCo General Unsecured Claim.

CEO and CCO, each as insureds, under the D&O Liability Insurance Policies agree: (i) not to draw down on the Side-A Policy; provided, however, that should coverage continue to be available under the Side-A Policy following resolution of the Debtors' and/or the Wind-Down Debtor's claims for the avoidance of the premium paid for the policy (whether by judgment or settlement or otherwise) such officer shall be entitled to seek coverage under the Side-A Policy to the extent any such coverage remains; and (ii) not to object to any settlement by the Debtors or Wind Down Entity of avoidance claims under the Side-A Policy, even if such settlement results in termination of benefits under the Side-A Policy. For the avoidance of doubt, this agreement is not intended to and shall not alter or amend each of the insureds' duties under the D&O Liability Insurance Policies. In the event that any insurer under the D&O Liability Insurance Policies denies coverage for any reason, the Wind-Down Debtor shall have the right to bring a coverage claim against the insurer(s) in the name of the insured, the insureds shall reasonably cooperate with respect to any such claim, and the insured may participate at their election (and at their sole cost). For the avoidance of doubt, nothing contained in this Plan is intended as a waiver or release of the Debtors' and/or Wind-Down Debtor's right to assert any Non-Released D&O Claim, but rather limits such recovery in the manner set forth above.

CEO and CCO shall be entitled to receive their salary and benefits for as long as they work for the Debtors and/or the Wind-Down Debtor and retain the right to assert claims for advancement and indemnification up to the limits of any available coverage in the event any of the insurers that issued the Management Liability Policy, the Excess Policy, or the Side-A Policy denies coverage to CEO and/or CCO based upon or arising out of the lack of a formal claim for indemnification; provided, however, that any such indemnification or advancement claims shall be subordinated in full unless and until all other Holders of Claims are paid in full; provided, further, that in the event that any of the D&O Carriers deny coverage to CEO or CCO under the D&O Insurance Policies on account of such subordination of any indemnification claim, then any indemnification claims by CEO or CCO shall not be so subordinated, but may be filed as an OpCo General Unsecured Claim.

CEO and CCO shall subordinate any and all rights and entitlements under the Cornerstone A-Side Management Liability Insurance Policy to Voyager Digital Ltd., Policy Number ELU184179-22, to any recovery by the Debtors and/or the Wind-Down Debtor on account of the Debtors' and/or Wind-Down Debtor's claims for the avoidance of the premium paid for the policy. For the avoidance of doubt, should coverage continue to be available under the Side-A Policy following resolution of the Debtors' and/or the Wind-Down Debtor's claims for the avoidance of the premium paid for the policy (whether by judgment or settlement or otherwise), CEO and/or CCO shall be entitled to seek coverage under the Side-A Policy. CEO and CCO shall remain at, and continue performing the responsibilities of, their respective position(s) with the Debtors and assist with the Debtors' transition for at least 30 days from entry of the Confirmation Order; provided that CCO shall have no obligation to remain at his position with the Debtors beyond January 15, 2023 and the CEO shall have the right to pursue and engage in any employment opportunity, business venture, consulting arrangement, or investment that may become available; provided, further, that both the CEO and CCO shall be available to the Debtors and/or the Wind-Down Debtor for a maximum of five hours per month for the one year following the Effective Date.

In the event that the sworn financial disclosure statements under penalty of perjury provided to the Debtors, the Special Committee and the Committee by CEO and CCO are later determined at any time by Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court or other court of competent jurisdiction to be materially inaccurate, (a) the limitations on recovery by the Wind-Down Debtor under this Article IV.G shall no longer apply, (b) any and all release, exculpation and injunction provisions in Article VIII of this Plan with respect to CEO and/or CCO (as applicable) shall be deemed null and void, (c) all Releasing Parties' rights with respect to the CEO and/or CCO (as applicable) shall be fully intact and preserved, (d) amounts paid by CEO shall not be repaid by the Wind-Down Debtor, and (e) any applicable statute of limitations shall be deemed tolled from the Petition Date to the date of entry of the order referenced above. The Wind-Down Debtor, as successor to the Debtors, shall have standing to bring a motion seeking relief pursuant to this Article IV.G.

Entry of the Confirmation Order shall be deemed approval of the D&O Settlement and, to the extent not already approved by the Bankruptcy Court, the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, are authorized to negotiate, execute, and deliver those documents necessary or appropriate to effectuate the D&O Settlement, without further notice or order of the Bankruptcy Court, act or action under applicable law, regulation, order or rule or vote, consent, authorization, or approval of any Person, subject to such modifications as the Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, the Committee, and the Special Committee may deem to be necessary to effectuate the D&O Settlement.

H. The Wind-Down Debtor

On the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Debtor shall be formed or converted into for the benefit of the Wind-Down Debtor Beneficiaries and each of the Debtors shall transfer the Wind-Down Debtor Assets for distribution in accordance with the terms of the Plan. The Confirmation Order shall be deemed to, pursuant to sections 363 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code, authorize, among other things, all actions as may be necessary or appropriate to effect any transaction described in, approved by, contemplated by, or necessary to effectuate the Plan.

1. Establishment of a Wind-Down Debtor

Pursuant to the Plan Administrator Agreement, the Wind-Down Debtor will be established, formed, merged, or converted. The Wind-Down Debtor shall be the successor-in-interest to the Debtors, and the Wind-Down Debtor shall be a successor to the Debtors' rights, title, and interest to the Wind-Down Debtor Assets. The Wind-Down Debtor will conduct no business operations and will be charged with winding down the Debtors' Estates. The Wind-Down Debtor shall be managed by the Plan Administrator and shall be subject to the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee. The Wind-Down Debtor shall be administered in accordance with the terms of the Plan Administrator Agreement and shall be subject to the Wind-Down Budget and the Non-Released D&O Claim Budget. For the avoidance of doubt, the Wind-Down Debtor shall not have any right or interest in any Cause of Action or Claim constituting an Acquired Asset. The Wind-Down Debtor shall be administered in a manner consistent with the SEC's published guidance on liquidating trusts.

Prior to the Effective Date, any and all of the Debtors' assets shall remain assets of the Estates pursuant to section 1123(b)(3)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code and on the Effective Date the Wind-Down Debtor Assets shall, subject to the Plan Administrator Agreement, be transferred to and vest in the Wind-Down Debtor. For the avoidance of doubt, to the extent not otherwise waived in writing, released, settled, compromised, assigned or sold pursuant to a prior order or the Plan, the Wind-Down Debtor specifically retains and reserves the right to assert, after the Effective Date, any and all of the Vested Causes of Action and related rights, whether or not asserted as of the Effective Date, and all proceeds of the foregoing, subject to the terms of the Plan, including without limitation Article IV.F and Article IV.G.

Pursuant to section 1123(b)(3)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code, only the Wind-Down Debtor and the Plan Administrator shall have the right to pursue or not to pursue, or, subject to the terms hereof and the Plan Administrator Agreement, compromise or settle any Wind-Down Debtor Assets transferred to the Wind-Down Debtor. On and after the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Debtor and the Plan Administrator may, without further Bankruptcy Court approval, commence, litigate, and settle any Vested Causes of Action or Claims relating to any Wind-Down Debtor Assets transferred to the Wind-Down Debtor or rights to payment or Claims that belong to the Debtors as of the Effective Date or are instituted by the Wind-Down Debtor and the Plan Administrator on or after the Effective Date, except as otherwise expressly provided herein and in the Plan Administrator Agreement. All of the Wind-Down Debtor's activities shall be subject to the Wind-Down Budget and the Non-Released D&O Claim Budget. The Wind-Down Debtor shall be entitled to enforce all defenses and counterclaims to all Claims asserted against the Debtors and their Estates, including setoff, recoupment and any rights under section 502(d) of the Bankruptcy Code.

The Wind-Down Debtor shall be deemed hereby substituted as plaintiff, defendant, or in any other capacity for the Debtors and the Committee, as applicable, in any Causes of Action pending before the Bankruptcy Court or any other court that relates to a Wind-Down Debtor Asset without the need for filing any motion for such relief. On the Effective Date, the Debtors and the Plan Administrator shall execute the Plan Administrator Agreement and shall have established the Wind-Down Debtor pursuant hereto. In the event of any conflict between the terms of this Article IV.H and the terms of the Plan Administrator Agreement, the terms of the Plan Administrator Agreement shall control.

2. Wind-Down Debtor Assets

Notwithstanding any prohibition on assignability under applicable non-bankruptcy law, on the Effective Date and thereafter if additional Wind-Down Debtor Assets become available, the Debtors shall be deemed, subject to the Plan Administrator Agreement, to have automatically transferred to the applicable Wind-Down Debtor all of their right, title, and interest in and to all of the Wind-Down Debtor Assets, in accordance with section 1141 of the Bankruptcy Code. All such assets shall automatically vest in the Wind-Down Debtor free and clear of all Claims, Liens, and other interests, subject only to the Allowed Claims and Interests as set forth herein and the expenses of the Wind-Down Debtor as set forth herein and in the Plan Administrator Agreement. Thereupon, the Debtors shall have no interest in or with respect to the Wind-Down Debtor Assets or the Wind-Down Debtor.

3. Treatment of Wind-Down Debtor for Federal Income Tax Purposes; No Successor-in-Interest

The Wind-Down Debtor shall be established for the primary purpose of liquidating and distributing the Wind-Down Debtor Assets transferred to it, in accordance with Treas. Reg. § 301.7701-4(d), with no objective to continue or engage in the conduct of a trade or business, except to the extent reasonably necessary to, and consistent with, the liquidating purpose of the Wind-Down Debtor. Accordingly, the Plan Administrator may, in an expeditious but orderly manner, liquidate the Wind-Down Debtor Assets, make timely distributions to the Wind-Down Debtor Beneficiaries and not unduly prolong its duration. The Wind-Down Debtor shall not be deemed a successor-in-interest of the Debtors for any purpose other than as specifically set forth herein or in the Wind-Down Debtor Agreement. The record holders of beneficial interests shall be recorded and set forth in a register maintained by the Wind-Down Debtor expressly for such purpose.

The Wind-Down Debtor is intended to qualify as a “grantor trust” for federal income tax purposes to the extent reasonably practicable, with the Wind-Down Debtor Beneficiaries treated as grantors and owners of the Wind-Down Debtor. However, with respect to any of the assets of the Wind-Down Debtor that are subject to potential disputed claims of ownership or uncertain distributions, or to the extent “liquidating trust” treatment is otherwise unavailable, the Debtors anticipate that such assets will be subject to disputed ownership fund treatment under Section 1.468B-9 of the Treasury Regulations, that any appropriate elections with respect thereto shall be made, and that such treatment will also be applied to the extent possible for state and local tax purposes. Under such treatment, a separate federal income tax return shall be filed with the IRS for any such account. Any taxes (including with respect to interest, if any, earned in the account) imposed on such account shall be paid out of the assets of the respective account (and reductions shall be made to amounts disbursed from the account to account for the need to pay such taxes).

4. Appointment of Plan Administrator

The Plan Administrator shall be selected by the Committee, in consultation with the Debtors, and shall be identified in the Plan Supplement. The appointment of the Plan Administrator shall be approved in the Confirmation Order, and the Plan Administrator’s duties shall commence as of the Effective Date. The Plan Administrator shall administer the distributions to the Wind-Down Debtor Beneficiaries and shall serve as a representative of the Estates under section 1123(b) of the Bankruptcy Code for the purpose of enforcing Vested Causes of Action belonging to the Estates that are not released, waived, settled, compromised, or transferred pursuant to the Plan and subject to the limitations set forth in the Plan, including Article IV.F and Article IV.G.

In accordance with the Plan Administrator Agreement, the Plan Administrator shall serve in such capacity through the earlier of (i) the date on which the Wind-Down Debtor is dissolved in accordance with the Plan Administrator Agreement, and (ii) the date on which a Plan Administrator resigns, is terminated, or is otherwise unable to serve; provided, however, that, in the event that a Plan Administrator resigns, is terminated, or is otherwise unable to serve, the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee shall appoint a successor to serve as a Plan Administrator in accordance with the Plan Administrator Agreement. If the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee does not appoint a successor within the time periods specified in the Plan Administrator Agreement, then the Bankruptcy Court, upon the motion of any party-in-interest, including counsel to the Wind-Down Debtor, shall approve a successor to serve as a Plan Administrator.

5. Responsibilities of Plan Administrator

Responsibilities of the Plan Administrator shall be as identified in the Plan Administrator Agreement and shall include, but are not limited to:

- (a) implementing the Wind-Down Debtor, and making distributions contemplated by the Plan;

- (e) receiving, maintaining, conserving, supervising, prosecuting, collecting, settling, managing, investing, protecting, and where appropriate, causing the Wind-Down Debtor to abandon the Wind-Down Debtor Assets, including causing the Wind-Down Debtor to invest any moneys held as Wind-Down Debtor Assets;
- (f) opening and maintaining bank accounts on behalf of or in the name of the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, including, in the Plan Administrator's discretion, separating bank accounts for each of the Debtors;

- (h) collecting and liquidating all Wind-Down Debtor Assets, including the sale of any Wind-Down Debtor Assets;
- (i) protecting and enforcing the rights to the Wind-Down Debtor Assets (including any Vested Causes of Action and Contributed Third-Party Claims) vested in the Wind-Down Debtor and Plan Administrator by the Plan Administrator Agreement by any method deemed appropriate, including, without limitation, by judicial proceedings or otherwise;
- (j) investigating any Wind-Down Debtor Assets, and any other potential Vested Causes of Action and Contributed Third-Party Claims;
- (k) reviewing, reconciling, compromising, settling, objecting, or prosecuting Claims or Interests of any kind;

- (q) acquiring litigation and other claims related to the Debtors, and prosecuting such claims;
- (r) reviewing and compelling turnover of the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor's property;
- (s) calculating and making all Distributions to the holders of Allowed Claims against each Debtor and, solely to the extent of payment in full of Allowed Claims, to holders of Allowed Interests, as provided for in, or contemplated by, the Plan and the Plan Administrator Agreement; provided that because the Plan does not substantively consolidate the Debtors' Estates, the Plan Administrator shall make Distributions from the Wind-Down Debtor Assets to the holders of Claims and Interests (if applicable) against that specific Debtor;
- (t) establishing, administering, adjusting, and maintaining the Wind-Down Reserve and the Disputed Claims Reserve;
- (u) withholding from the amount distributable to any Person the maximum amount needed to pay any tax or other charge that the Plan Administrator has determined, based upon the advice of his agents or professionals, may be required to be withheld from such Distribution under the income tax or other laws of the United States or of any state or political subdivision thereof;
- (v) in reliance upon the Debtors' Schedules, the official Claims Register maintained in the Chapter 11 Cases and the Debtors' filed lists of equity security holders, reviewing, and where appropriate, allowing or objecting to Claims and (if applicable) Interests, and supervising and administering the commencement, prosecution, settlement, compromise, withdrawal, or resolution of all objections to Disputed Claims and (if applicable) Disputed Interests required to be administered by the Wind-Down Debtor;
- (w) making all tax withholdings, filing tax information returns, filing and prosecuting tax refunds claims, making tax elections by and on behalf of the Debtors or the

Wind-Down Debtor, and filing tax returns for the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor pursuant to and in accordance with the Plan, and paying taxes, if any, payable for and on behalf of the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable; provided, however, that notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan Administrator Agreement, the Plan Administrator shall not have any responsibility or personal liability in any capacity whatsoever for the signing or accuracy of the Debtors' income tax returns that are due to be filed after the Effective Date or for any tax liability related thereto;

- (x) abandoning or donating to a charitable organization qualifying under IRC section 501(c)(3) any Wind-Down Debtor Assets that the Plan Administrator determines to be too impractical to distribute or of inconsequential value;
- (y) seeking a determination of tax liability or refund under Bankruptcy Code section 505;
- (z) establishing reserves for taxes, assessments, and other expenses of administration of the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor as may be necessary and appropriate for the proper operation of matters incident to the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor;
- (aa) paying Wind-Down Debtor Expenses;
- (bb) if the Plan Administrator deems appropriate in the Plan Administrator's sole discretion, seeking to establish a bar date for filing proofs of Interest in any Debtor or otherwise to determine the holders and extent of Allowed Interests in any Debtor;
- (cc) purchasing and carrying all insurance policies that the Plan Administrator deems reasonably necessary or advisable and paying all associated insurance premiums and costs;
- (dd) undertaking all administrative functions remaining in the Chapter 11 Cases to the extent necessary to carry out the Debtors', the Wind-Down Debtor's, or the Plan Administrator's duties under the Plan, including reporting and making required payments of fees to the U.S. Trustee and overseeing the closing of the Chapter 11 Cases;
- (ee) retaining, terminating, appointing, hiring, or otherwise employees, personnel, management, and directors at any of the Debtors to the extent necessary to carry out the purposes of the Plan Administrator Agreement and the Plan, including, without limitation, to address any disputes between the Debtors;

6. The Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee

The Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee shall consist of those parties selected by the Committee and identified in the Plan Supplement, and which, at no time shall consist of greater than seven members.

The Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee shall have the responsibility to review and advise the Plan Administrator with respect to the liquidation and distribution of the Wind-Down Debtor Assets transferred to the Wind-Down Debtor in accordance herewith and the Plan Administrator Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, in advising the Plan Administrator, the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee shall maintain the same fiduciary responsibilities as the Plan Administrator. Vacancies on the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee shall be filled by a Person designated by the Plan Administrator, subject to the unanimous consent of the remaining member or members of the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee. The Plan Administrator shall have the authority to seek an order from the Bankruptcy Court removing or replacing members of the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee for cause.

7. Expenses of Wind-Down Debtor

The Wind-Down Debtor Expenses shall be paid from the Wind-Down Debtor Assets subject to the Wind-Down Budget and the Non-Released D&O Claim Budget.

8. Insurance; Bond

The Plan Administrator may obtain insurance coverage (in the form of an errors and omissions policy or otherwise) with respect to the liabilities and obligations of the Plan Administrator and the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee under the Plan Administrator Agreement. Unless otherwise agreed to by the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee, the Plan Administrator shall serve with a bond, the terms of which shall be agreed to by the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee, and the cost and expense of which shall be paid by the Wind-Down Debtor.

9. Fiduciary Duties of the Plan Administrator

Pursuant hereto and the Plan Administrator Agreement, the Plan Administrator shall act in a fiduciary capacity on behalf of the interests of all Holders of Claims and Interests that will receive distributions pursuant to Plan.

10. Termination of the Wind-Down Debtor

The Wind-Down Debtor will terminate on the earlier of: (a) (i) the final liquidation, administration and distribution of the Wind-Down Debtor Assets in accordance with the terms of the Plan Administrator Agreement and the Plan, and its full performance of all other duties and functions as set forth herein or in the Plan Administrator Agreement and (ii) the Chapter 11 Cases of the Debtors have been closed; or (b) the Plan Administrator determines in its reasonable judgment that the Wind-Down Debtor lacks sufficient assets and financial resources, after reasonable collection efforts, to complete the duties and powers assigned to him or her under the Plan, the Confirmation Order and/or the Plan Administrator Agreement. After (x) the final distributions pursuant hereto, (y) the Filing by or on behalf of the Wind-Down Debtor of a certification of dissolution with the Bankruptcy Court, and (z) any other action deemed appropriate by the Plan Administrator, the Wind-Down Debtor shall be deemed dissolved for all purposes without the necessity for any other or further actions.

11. Liability of Plan Administrator; Indemnification

Neither the Plan Administrator, the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee, their respective members, employees, employers, designees or professionals, or any of their duly designated agents or representatives (each, a “Wind-Down Debtor Party” and collectively, the “Wind-Down Debtor Parties”) shall be liable for losses, claims, damages, liabilities or expenses in connection with the affairs of the Wind-Down Debtor or for the act or omission of any other Wind-Down Debtor Party, nor shall the Wind-Down Debtor Parties be liable for any act or omission taken or omitted to be taken pursuant to the discretion, powers and authority conferred, or in good faith believed to be conferred by the Plan Administrator Agreement or the Plan other than for specific acts or omissions resulting from such Wind-Down Debtor Party’s willful misconduct, gross negligence or actual fraud. Subject to the Plan Administrator Agreement, the Plan Administrator shall be entitled to enjoy all of the rights, powers, immunities and privileges applicable to a chapter 7 trustee, and the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee shall be entitled to enjoy all of the rights, powers, immunities and privileges of an official committee of unsecured creditors. The Plan Administrator or the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee may, in connection with the performance of its functions, and in its sole and absolute discretion, consult with its attorneys, accountants, financial advisors and agents, and shall not be liable for any act taken, omitted to be taken, or suffered to be done in accordance with advice or opinions rendered by such persons, regardless of whether such advice or opinions are provided in writing. Notwithstanding such authority, neither the Plan Administrator nor the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee shall be under any obligation to consult with its attorneys, accountants, financial advisors or agents, and their determination not to do so shall not result in the imposition of liability on the Plan Administrator, the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee, or their respective members and/or designees, unless such determination is based on willful misconduct, gross negligence, or actual fraud. The Wind-Down Debtor shall indemnify and hold harmless the Wind-Down Debtor Parties (in their capacity as such), from and against and in respect of all liabilities, losses, damages, claims, costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys’ fees, disbursements, and related expenses) that such parties may incur or to which such parties may become subject in connection with any action, suit, proceeding or investigation brought by or threatened against such parties arising out of or due to their acts or omissions, or consequences of such acts or omissions, with respect to the implementation or administration of the Wind-Down Debtor or the Plan or the discharge of their duties hereunder; provided, however, that no such indemnification will be made to such Persons for actions or omissions as a result of willful misconduct, gross negligence, or actual fraud. Persons dealing or having any relationship with the Plan Administrator shall have recourse only to the Wind-Down Debtor Assets and shall look only to the Wind-Down Debtor Assets to satisfy any liability or other obligations incurred by the Wind-Down Debtor or the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee to such Person in carrying out the terms of the Plan Administrator Agreement, and neither the Plan Administrator nor the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee, shall have any personal obligation to satisfy any such liability. The Plan Administrator and/or the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee members shall not be liable whatsoever except for the performance of such duties and obligations as are specifically set forth herein, and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into the Plan Administrator Agreement against any of them. The Wind-Down Debtor shall promptly pay expenses reasonably incurred by any Wind-Down Debtor Party in defending, participating in, or settling any action, proceeding or investigation in which such Wind-Down Debtor Party is a party or is threatened to be made a party or otherwise is participating in connection with the Plan Administrator Agreement or the duties, acts or omissions of the Plan Administrator or otherwise in connection with the affairs of the Wind-Down Debtor, upon submission of invoices therefor, whether in advance of the final disposition of such action, proceeding, or investigation or otherwise. Each Wind-Down Debtor Party hereby undertakes, and the Wind-Down Debtor hereby accepts his or her undertaking, to repay any and all such amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined that such exculpated party is not entitled to be indemnified therefor under the Plan Administrator Agreement. The foregoing indemnity in respect of any Wind-Down Debtor Party shall survive the termination of such Wind-Down Debtor Party from the capacity for which they are indemnified.

12. No Liability of the Wind-Down Debtor

On and after the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Debtor shall have no liability on account of any Claims or Interests except as set forth herein and in the Plan Administrator Agreement. All payments and all distributions made by the Plan Administrator hereunder shall be in exchange for all Claims or Interests against the Debtors.

I. Sources of Consideration for Plan Distributions

Distributions under the Plan shall be funded by (i) the proceeds of Purchaser's payment obligations under Sections 2.1 and 2.2 of the Asset Purchase Agreement and distributions of Acquired Coins pursuant to Sections 6.12, and 6.14 of the Asset Purchase Agreement, (ii) the Wind-Down Debtor from the Wind-Down Debtor Assets; provided, however, that Allowed Professional Fee Claims shall be paid from the Professional Fee Escrow Account in the first instance. The Wind-Down Debtor Assets shall be used to pay the Wind-Down Debtor Expenses (including the compensation of the Plan Administrator and any professionals retained by the Wind-Down Debtor), and to satisfy payment of Allowed Claims and Interests as set forth in the Plan.

J. Corporate Existence and Dissolution

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, each Debtor shall continue to exist after the Effective Date as a separate corporate entity, limited liability company, partnership, or other form, as the case may be, with all the powers of a corporation, limited liability company, partnership, or other form, as the case may be, pursuant to the applicable law in the jurisdiction in which each applicable Debtor is incorporated or formed and pursuant to the respective certificates or articles of incorporation, certificates of formation, certificates of organization, or certificates of limited partnership and bylaws, operating agreements, limited liability company agreements, or limited partnership agreements (or other formation documents) in effect prior to the Effective Date, except to the extent such certificates or articles of incorporation, certificates of formation, certificates of organization, or certificates of limited partnership and bylaws, operating agreements, limited liability company agreements, or limited partnership agreements (or other formation documents) are amended pursuant to the Plan or otherwise, and to the extent such documents are amended, such documents are deemed to be amended pursuant to the Plan and require no further action or approval (other than any requisite filings under applicable state or federal law).

On and after the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Debtor will be authorized and directed to implement the Plan and any applicable orders of the Bankruptcy Court, and the Wind-Down Debtor shall have the power and authority to take any action necessary to wind down and dissolve the Debtors' Estates.

Upon a certification to be Filed with the Bankruptcy Court by the Plan Administrator of all distributions having been made and completion of all of its duties under the Plan and entry of a final decree closing the last of the Chapter 11 Cases, the Wind-Down Debtor shall be deemed to be dissolved without any further action by the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, including the Filing of any documents with the secretary of state for the state in which the Wind-Down Debtor are formed or any other jurisdiction. The Plan Administrator, however, shall have authority to take all necessary actions to dissolve the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor in and withdraw the Wind-Down Debtor from applicable states.

As soon as practicable after the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Debtor shall take such actions as the Wind-Down Debtor may determine to be necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of the Plan. Any certificate of dissolution or equivalent document may be executed by the Wind-Down Debtor on behalf of any Wind-Down Debtor without need for any action or approval by the shareholders or board of directors or managers of such Debtor. On and after the Effective Date, the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor (1) for all purposes shall be deemed to have withdrawn their business operations from any state in which the Debtors were previously conducting, or are registered or licensed to conduct, their business operations, and shall not be required to file any document, pay any sum, or take any other action in order to effectuate such withdrawal, (2) shall be deemed to have cancelled pursuant to this Plan all Interests, and (3) shall not be liable in any manner to any taxing authority for franchise, business, license, or similar taxes accruing on or after the Effective Date. Pursuant to the terms of this Plan, any Money Transmitter Licenses that have not been terminated shall be deemed withdrawn and no further action is required to be taken by the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor to effectuate such withdrawal; provided that, following the Effective Date, the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, shall use commercially reasonable efforts to comply with all state banking department requirements for the surrender of a Money Transmitter License. Nothing in this Plan shall be construed to limit the rights of creditors, Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, or regulators to pursue recoveries against surety bonds maintained by the Debtors in connection with this Money Transmitter Licenses. Notwithstanding such Debtors' dissolution, such Debtors shall be deemed to remain intact solely with respect to the preparation, filing, review, and resolution of applications for Professional Fee Claims.

K. Corporate Action

Upon the Effective Date, all actions contemplated under the Plan, Definitive Documents, and Asset Purchase Agreement shall be deemed authorized and approved in all respects, and, to the extent taken prior to the Effective Date, ratified without any requirement for further action by Holders of Claims or Interests, directors, managers, managing-members, limited or general partners, or officers of the Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor or any other Entity, including: (1) appointment of the directors, managers, members, and officers for the Wind-Down Debtor as provided herein; (2) the issuances, transfer, and distribution of the Wind-Down Debtor Assets; (3) the formation of the Wind-Down Debtor and appointment of the Plan Administrator and Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee; (4) the formation of any entities pursuant to and the implementation of the Plan and performance of all actions and transactions contemplated hereby and thereby; (5) the rejection, assumption, or assumption and assignment, as applicable, of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases; and (6) all other acts or actions contemplated by the Plan, Definitive Documents, and Asset Purchase Agreement or reasonably necessary or appropriate to promptly consummate the Restructuring Transactions (including effectuating the Restructuring Transactions Memorandum and the Customer Onboarding Protocol) (whether to occur before, on, or after the Effective Date). All matters provided for in the Plan, Definitive Documents, and Asset Purchase Agreement involving the corporate structure of the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, and any corporate action required by the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, in connection with the Plan shall be deemed to have occurred on, and shall be in effect as of, the Effective Date, without any requirement of further action by the security holders, directors, managers, or officers of the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable. On or, as applicable, prior to the Effective Date, the appropriate officers of the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, shall be authorized and, as applicable, directed to issue, execute, and deliver the agreements, documents, Securities, certificates of incorporation, certificates of formation, bylaws, operating agreements, and instruments contemplated under the Plan (or necessary or desirable to effect the transactions contemplated under the Plan) in the name of and on behalf of the Wind-Down Debtor, and any and all other agreements, documents, Securities, and instruments relating to the foregoing. The authorizations and approvals contemplated by this Article IV.K shall be effective notwithstanding any requirements under non-bankruptcy law.

L. Vesting of Assets in the Wind-Down Debtor

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, or in any agreement, instrument, or other document incorporated in the Plan, notwithstanding any prohibition of assignability under applicable non-bankruptcy law and in accordance with section 1141 of the Bankruptcy Code, on the Effective Date, all property constituting Wind-Down Debtor Assets, including all Vested Causes of Action of the Debtors (unless otherwise released, waived, compromised, settled, transferred, or discharged pursuant to the Plan), and any property acquired by any of the Debtors under the Plan shall vest in the Wind-Down Debtor, free and clear of all Liens, Claims, charges, or other encumbrances.

M. Cancellation of Notes, Instruments, Certificates, and Other Documents

On the later of the Effective Date and the date on which distributions are made pursuant to the Plan (if not made on the Effective Date), except for the purpose of evidencing a right to and allowing Holders of Claims and Interests to receive a distribution under the Plan or to the extent otherwise specifically provided for in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, or any agreement, instrument, or other document entered into in connection with or pursuant to the Plan or the Restructuring Transactions (including, without limitation, the Definitive Documents and the Asset Purchase Agreement), all notes, bonds, indentures, certificates, Securities, shares, purchase rights, options, warrants, collateral agreements, subordination agreements, intercreditor agreements, or other instruments or documents directly or indirectly evidencing, creating, or relating to any indebtedness or obligations of, or ownership interest in, the Debtors, giving rise to any Claims against or Interests in the Debtors or to any rights or obligations relating to any Claims against or Interests in the Debtors shall be deemed cancelled without any need for a Holder to take further action with respect thereto.

N. Effectuating Documents; Further Transactions

On and after the Effective Date, the Debtors, and its directors, managers, partners, officers, authorized persons, and members thereof, and the Wind-Down Debtor and Plan Administrator are authorized to and may issue, execute, deliver, file, or record such contracts, Securities, instruments, releases, and other agreements or documents and take such actions as may be necessary or appropriate to effectuate, implement, and further evidence the terms and conditions of the Plan, Definitive Documents, and Asset Purchase Agreement, in the name of and on behalf of the Debtors and Wind-Down Debtor, without the need for any approvals, authorizations, or consents except for those expressly required under the Plan.

O. Section 1146(a) Exemption

To the fullest extent permitted by section 1146(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, any transfers (whether from a Debtor to a Wind-Down Debtor, the Purchaser, or to any other Entity) of property under the Plan, Definitive Documents, and Asset Purchase Agreement or pursuant to: (1) the issuance, distribution, transfer, or exchange of any debt, equity security, or other interest in the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor; (2) the creation, modification, consolidation, termination, refinancing, and/or recording of any mortgage, deed of trust, or other security interest, or the securing of additional indebtedness by such or other means; (3) the making, assignment, or recording of any lease or sublease; or (4) the making, delivery, or recording of any deed or other instrument of transfer under, in furtherance of, or in connection with, the Plan, including any deeds, bills of sale, assignments, or other instrument of transfer executed in connection with any transaction arising out of, contemplated by, or in any way related to the Plan, including the Asset Purchase Agreement, shall not be subject to any document recording tax, stamp tax, conveyance fee, intangibles or similar tax, mortgage tax, real estate transfer tax, mortgage recording tax, sales or use tax, Uniform Commercial Code filing or recording fee, regulatory filing or recording fee, or other similar tax or governmental assessment, and upon entry of the Confirmation Order, the appropriate state or local governmental officials or agents shall forgo the collection of any such tax or governmental assessment and accept for filing and recordation any of the foregoing instruments or other documents without the payment of any such tax, recordation fee, or governmental assessment. All filing or recording officers (or any other Person with authority over any of the foregoing), wherever located and by whomever appointed, shall comply with the requirements of section 1146(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, shall forgo the collection of any such tax or governmental assessment, and shall accept for filing and recordation any of the foregoing instruments or other documents without the payment of any such tax or governmental assessment.

P. Preservation of Rights of Action

In accordance with section 1123(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Wind-Down Debtor shall succeed to all rights to commence and pursue any and all Vested Causes of Action of the Debtors, whether arising before or after the Petition Date, including, without limitation, any actions specifically enumerated in the Schedule of Retained Causes of Action other than Causes of Action released, waived, settled, compromised, or transferred. Such rights shall be preserved by the Debtors and Wind-Down Debtor and shall vest in the Wind-Down Debtor, with the Wind-Down Debtor's rights to commence, prosecute, or settle such Causes of Action preserved notwithstanding the occurrence of the Effective Date, other than the Causes of Action expressly released, waived, settled, compromised, or transferred by the Debtors pursuant to the releases and exculpations contained in the Plan, including in Article VIII of the Plan or pursuant to the Asset Purchase Agreement, which shall be deemed released and waived by the Debtors and Wind-Down Debtor as of the Effective Date.

The Wind-Down Debtor may pursue such Causes of Action, as appropriate, in accordance with the best interests of the beneficiaries of the Wind-Down Debtor and in accordance with the Plan Administrator Agreement and the Plan. No Entity may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Schedules of Assets and Liabilities or Statement of Financial Affairs, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, the Disclosure Statement, or the Schedule of Retained Causes of Action to any Cause of Action against it as any indication that the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, will not pursue any and all available Causes of Action of the Debtors against it. The Wind-Down Debtor, on behalf of the Debtors and the Wind-Down Debtor, expressly reserves all rights to prosecute any and all Causes of Action against any Entity, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, including Article VIII of the Plan. Unless any Cause of Action of the Debtors is expressly waived, relinquished, exculpated, released, compromised, or settled in the Plan or pursuant to a Final Order, the Wind-Down Debtor, on behalf of the Debtors and Wind-Down Debtor and in accordance with the Plan Administrator Agreement, expressly reserves all such Causes of Action for later adjudication, and, therefore, no preclusion doctrine, including the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, estoppel (judicial, equitable, or otherwise), or laches, shall apply to such Causes of Action upon, after, or as a consequence of Confirmation or Consummation.

The Wind-Down Debtor, on behalf of the Debtors, reserves and shall retain such Causes of Action of the Debtors notwithstanding the rejection or repudiation of any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease during the Chapter 11 Cases or pursuant to the Plan. In accordance with section 1123(b)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code, any Cause of Action that a Debtor may hold against any Entity shall vest in the Wind-Down Debtor, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, including Article VIII of the Plan. The Wind-Down Debtor, through their authorized agents or representatives, shall retain and may exclusively enforce any and all such Causes of Action. The Wind-Down Debtor shall have the exclusive right, authority, and discretion to determine and to initiate, file, prosecute, enforce, abandon, settle, compromise, release, withdraw, or litigate to judgment any such Causes of Action, or to decline to do any of the foregoing, without the consent or approval of any third party or any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court in accordance with the Plan.

Because aggregating all Contributed Third-Party Claims may enable the pursuit and settlement of such litigation claims in a more efficient and effective manner, each Holder of a Claim or Interest may agree, by electing on its ballot or opt-in form, to contribute its Contributed Third-Party Claims to the Wind-Down Debtor. By electing such option on its ballot or opt-in form, each Contributing Claimant agrees that, subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date and the formation of the Wind-Down Debtor, it will be deemed, without further action, (i) to have irrevocably contributed its Contributed Third-Party Claims to the Wind-Down Debtor, and (ii) to have agreed to execute any documents reasonably requested by the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor to memorialize and effectuate such contribution.

R. Contribution of Contributed Third-Party Claims

On the Effective Date, all Contributed Third-Party Claims will be irrevocably contributed to the Wind-Down Debtor and shall thereafter be Wind-Down Debtor Assets for all purposes. No Person may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan, the Disclosure Statement, the Confirmation Order, the Plan Administrator Agreement, the Plan Supplement, or any other document as any indication that the Wind-Down Debtor will or will not pursue any and all available Contributed Third-Party Claims against such Person. The Wind-Down Debtor shall have, retain, reserve, and be entitled to assert all Contributed Third-Party Claims fully to the same extent that the Contributing Claimants could have asserted such claims prior to the Effective Date. For the avoidance of doubt, the Contributed Third-Party Claims shall not include the rights of any of the Contributing Claimants to receive the distributions under the Plan on account of their Claims or Interests.

S. Closing the Chapter 11 Cases

On and after the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Debtor shall be permitted to classify all of the Chapter 11 Cases of the Debtors except for the Chapter 11 Case of Voyager Digital, LLC, or any other Debtor identified in the Restructuring Transactions Memorandum as having its Chapter 11 Case remain open following the Effective Date, as closed, and all contested matters relating to any of the Debtors, including objections to Claims or Interests and any adversary proceedings, may be administered and heard in the Chapter 11 Case of Voyager Digital, LLC, or any other Debtor identified in the Restructuring Transactions Memorandum as having its Chapter 11 Case remain open following the Effective Date, irrespective of whether such Claims or Interests were Filed or such adversary proceeding was commenced against a Debtor whose Chapter 11 Case was closed.

TREATMENT OF EXECUTORY CONTRACTS AND UNEXPIRED LEASES

A. Assumption and Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases

On the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided herein, each Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease not previously rejected, assumed, or assumed and assigned, including any employee benefit plans, severance plans, and other Executory Contracts under which employee obligations arise, shall be deemed automatically rejected pursuant to sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code, unless such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease: (1) is specifically described in the Plan as to be assumed in connection with confirmation of the Plan, or is specifically scheduled to be assumed or assumed and assigned pursuant to the Plan or the Plan Supplement; (2) is subject to a pending motion to assume such Unexpired Lease or Executory Contract as of the Effective Date; (3) is to be assumed by the Debtors or assumed by the Debtors and assigned to another third party, as applicable, in connection with the Sale Transaction; (4) is a contract, instrument, release, indenture, or other agreement or document entered into in connection with the Plan; or (5) is a D&O Liability Insurance Policy other than the Side-A Policy. Entry of the Confirmation Order by the Bankruptcy Court shall constitute approval of such assumptions, assignments, and rejections, including the assumption of the Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases as provided in the Plan Supplement, pursuant to sections 365(a) and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code.

B. Preexisting Obligations to the Debtors Under Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases

Rejection of any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease pursuant to the Plan or otherwise shall not constitute a termination of preexisting obligations owed to the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, under such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease. Without limiting the general nature of the foregoing, and notwithstanding any non-bankruptcy law to the contrary, the Debtors and Wind-Down Debtor expressly reserve and do not waive any right to receive, or any continuing obligation of a counterparty to provide, warranties or continued maintenance obligations on goods previously purchased by the Debtors contracting from non-Debtor counterparties to any rejected Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease.

C. Claims Based on Rejection of Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases

Counterparties to Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases listed subject to rejection under the Plan shall be served with a notice of rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases with the Plan Supplement. Unless otherwise provided by a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court, all Proofs of Claim with respect to Claims arising from the rejection of Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases, pursuant to the Plan or the Confirmation Order, if any, must be Filed with the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent and served on the Debtors or Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, no later than thirty days after the date of entry of an order of the Bankruptcy Court (including the Confirmation Order) approving such rejection. Any Claims arising from the rejection of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease not Filed with the Bankruptcy Court within such time will be automatically disallowed, forever barred from assertion, and shall not be enforceable against the Debtors, or the Wind-Down Debtor, the Estates, or their property without the need for any objection by the Wind-Down Debtor or further notice to, or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court or any other Entity, and any Claim arising out of the rejection of the Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease shall be deemed released, and be subject to the permanent injunction set forth in Article VIII.D of the Plan, including any Claims against any Debtor listed on the Debtors' schedules as unliquidated, contingent, or disputed. All Allowed Claims arising from the rejection by any Debtor of any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease shall be treated as General Unsecured Claims in accordance with Article III.C of the Plan.

D. Cure of Defaults for Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases Assumed

The Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, or the Purchaser, as applicable pursuant to the Asset Purchase Agreement, shall pay Cures, if any, on the Effective Date. The Debtors shall provide notice of the amount and timing of payment of any such Cure to the parties to the applicable assumed Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases as part of the Plan Supplement. Unless otherwise agreed upon in writing by the parties to the applicable Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, all requests for payment of Cure that differ from the ordinary course amounts paid or proposed to be paid by the Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, or the Purchaser shall be dealt with in the ordinary course of business and, if needed, shall be Filed with the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent on or before thirty days after the Effective Date. If any counterparty to an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease does not receive a notice of assumption and applicable cure amount, such counterparty shall have until on or before thirty days after the Effective Date to bring forth and File a request for payment of Cure. Any such request that is not timely Filed shall be disallowed and forever barred, estopped, and enjoined from assertion, and shall not be enforceable against any Debtor or the Wind-Down Debtor, without the need for any objection by the Wind-Down Debtor or any other party in interest or any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court. Any Cure shall be deemed fully satisfied and released upon payment by the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor or the Purchaser of the Cure in the ordinary course of business or upon and in accordance with any resolution of a Cure dispute (whether by order of the Bankruptcy Court or through settlement with the applicable Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease counterparty); provided, however, that nothing herein shall prevent the Wind-Down Debtor or the Purchaser, as applicable, from paying any Cure Claim despite the failure of the relevant counterparty to File such request for payment of such Cure. The Wind-Down Debtor or the Purchaser may also settle any Cure Claim without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court. In addition, any objection to the assumption of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease under the Plan must be Filed with the Bankruptcy Court on or before thirty days after the Effective Date. Any such objection will be scheduled to be heard by the Bankruptcy Court at the Debtors' first scheduled omnibus hearing for which such objection is timely Filed. Any counterparty to an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease that fails to timely object to the proposed assumption of any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease will be deemed to have consented to such assumption.

In the event of a dispute regarding: (1) the amount of any Cure Claim, (2) the ability of the Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, Purchaser, or any assignee to provide "adequate assurance of future performance" (within the meaning of section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code) under the Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease to be assumed (or assumed and assigned, as applicable), or (3) any other matter pertaining to assumption or assignment, then any disputed Cure payments required by section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code shall be made as soon as reasonably practicable following, and in accordance with, the entry of a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court resolving such dispute or as may be agreed upon by the Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, or Purchaser, as applicable, and the counterparty to the Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, and any such unresolved dispute shall not prevent or delay implementation of the Plan or the occurrence of the Effective Date.

Assumption of any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease pursuant to the Plan or otherwise or assignment of any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease to the Purchaser and full payment of any applicable Cure pursuant to this Article V.D, or upon and in accordance with any resolution of a Cure dispute (whether by order of the Bankruptcy Court or through settlement with the applicable Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease counterparty), shall result in the full release and satisfaction of any Cures, Claims, or defaults, whether monetary or nonmonetary, including defaults of provisions restricting the change in control or ownership interest composition or other bankruptcy-related defaults, arising under any assumed Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease at any time prior to the effective date of assumption. Any and all Proofs of Claim based upon Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases that have been assumed or assumed and assigned in the Chapter 11 Cases, including pursuant to the Confirmation Order, and for which any Cure has been fully paid pursuant to this Article V.D, in the amount and at the time in the ordinary course of business or upon and in accordance with any resolution of a Cure dispute (whether by order of the Bankruptcy Court or through settlement with the applicable Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease counterparty), shall be deemed disallowed and expunged as of the Effective Date without the need for any objection thereto or any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court. For the avoidance of doubt, in the event that any counterparty to an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease receives a notice of assumption and applicable proposed Cure amount, and disputes the Debtors' proposed Cure amount, such party shall not be required to File a Proof of Claim with respect to such dispute. Any counterparty to an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease that does not receive a notice or applicable proposed Cure amount, and believes a Cure amount is owed, shall have thirty days after the Effective Date to File a Proof of Claim with respect to such alleged Cure amount, which Claim shall not be expunged until such Cure dispute is resolved.

E. Insurance Policies

Each D&O Liability Insurance Policy (including, without limitation, any “tail policy” and all agreements, documents, or instruments related thereto) other than the Side-A Policy shall be assumed, in their entirety, without the need for any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court, as of the Effective Date, pursuant to sections 105 and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code with the Wind-Down Debtor being authorized to pursue any proceeds thereof on behalf of the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor. The Side-A Policy shall ride through these Chapter 11 Cases with the Debtors, and the Wind-Down Debtor preserves all avoidance and other actions in connection with the premium paid thereunder. All beneficiaries under the D&O Insurance Policies reserve their rights under such D&O Insurance Policies subject to the limitations set forth in this Plan.

The Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, shall not terminate or otherwise reduce the coverage under any D&O Liability Insurance Policy (including, without limitation, any “tail policy” and all agreements, documents, or instruments related thereto) in effect prior to the Effective Date, and any current and former directors, officers, managers, and employees of the Debtors who served in such capacity at any time before or after the Effective Date shall be entitled to the full benefits of any such policy for the full term of such policy subject to the terms thereof regardless of whether such directors, officers, managers, and employees remain in such positions after the Effective Date. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan, the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor shall retain the ability to supplement such D&O Liability Insurance Policy as the Debtors or Wind-Down Debtor may deem necessary, subject to the prior written consent of the Wind-Down Debtor. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Plan, the Wind-Down Debtor shall be entitled to pursue avoidance of the premium paid for the XL Specialty Insurance Company Cornerstone A-Side Management Liability Insurance Policy No. ELU184179-22, and nothing in this Plan shall be deemed a waiver or abrogation of any such rights.

The Debtors shall continue to satisfy their obligations under their insurance policies in full and continue such policies in the ordinary course of business. Each of the Debtors’ insurance policies, and any agreements, documents, or instruments relating thereto shall be treated as Executory Contracts under the Plan. On the Effective Date: (a) the Debtors shall be deemed to have assumed all such insurance policies and any agreements, documents, and instruments relating thereto in their entirety; and (b) such insurance policies and any agreements, documents, or instruments relating thereto shall revert in the applicable Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor unaltered.

F. Reservation of Rights

Nothing contained in the Plan or the Plan Supplement (unless otherwise explicitly provided) shall constitute an admission by the Debtors or any other party that any contract or lease is in fact an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease or that any Debtor or the Wind-Down Debtor has any liability thereunder. If there is a dispute regarding whether a contract or lease is or was executory or unexpired at the time of assumption or rejection, the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, shall have forty-five days following entry of a Final Order resolving such dispute to alter their treatment of such contract or lease, including by rejecting such contract or lease effective as of the Confirmation Date.

G. Nonoccurrence of Effective Date

In the event that the Effective Date does not occur, the Bankruptcy Court shall retain jurisdiction with respect to any request to extend the deadline for assuming or rejecting Unexpired Leases pursuant to section 365(d)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code.

H. Contracts and Leases Entered into After the Petition Date

Contracts and leases entered into after the Petition Date by any Debtor, including any Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases assumed under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, will be performed by the applicable Debtor or Wind-Down Debtor liable thereunder in the ordinary course of its business. Such contracts and leases that are not rejected under the Plan shall survive and remain unaffected by entry of the Confirmation Order.

ARTICLE VI.

PROVISIONS GOVERNING DISTRIBUTIONS

A. Timing and Calculation of Amounts to Be Distributed

Except (1) as otherwise provided herein, (2) upon a Final Order, or (3) as otherwise agreed to by the Debtors, the Purchaser, or the Wind-Down Debtor, as the case may be, and the Holder of the applicable Claim, on the Effective Date or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter (or if a Claim is not an Allowed Claim on the Effective Date, on the next Distribution Date after such Claim becomes, as applicable, an Allowed Claim, or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter), each Holder of an Allowed Claim shall receive the full amount of distributions that the Plan provides for Allowed Claims in the applicable Class from the Distribution Agent. In the event that any payment or distribution under the Plan is required to be made or performed on a date that is not a Business Day, then the making of such payment or distribution may be completed on the next succeeding Business Day, but shall be deemed to have been completed as of the required date. Except as specifically provided in the Plan, Holders of Claims shall not be entitled to interest, dividends, or accruals on the distributions provided for in the Plan, regardless of whether such distributions are delivered on or at any time after the Effective Date.

B. Rights and Powers of Distribution Agent

1. Powers of the Distribution Agent

The Distribution Agent shall be empowered to: (a) effect all actions and execute all agreements, instruments, and other documents necessary to perform its duties and exercise its rights under the Plan; (b) make all distributions contemplated under the Plan; (c) employ professionals to represent it with respect to its responsibilities and powers; and (d) exercise such other powers as may be vested in the Distribution Agent by order of the Bankruptcy Court, pursuant to the Plan, or as deemed by the Distribution Agent to be necessary and proper to implement the provisions of the Plan.

From and after the Effective Date, the Distribution Agent, solely in its capacity as Distribution Agent, shall be exculpated by all Entities, including, without limitation, holders of Claims against and Interests in the Debtors and other parties in interest, from any and all Claims, Causes of Action, and other assertions of liability arising out of the discharge of the powers and duties conferred upon such Distribution Agent by the Plan or any order of the Bankruptcy Court entered pursuant to or in furtherance of the Plan, or applicable law, except for actions or omissions to act arising out of the gross negligence or willful misconduct, fraud, malpractice, criminal conduct, or ultra vires acts of such Distribution Agent. No holder of a Claim or Interest or other party in interest shall have or pursue any Claim or Cause of Action vested in a Distribution Agent by order of the Bankruptcy Court, pursuant to the Plan, or as deemed by such Distribution Agent to be necessary and proper to implement the provisions hereof.

2. Expenses Incurred on or after the Effective Date

Except as otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court, the amount of any reasonable fees and expenses incurred by the Distribution Agent on or after the Effective Date and any reasonable compensation and expense reimbursement claims (including reasonable attorney and/or other professional fees and expenses) made by such Distribution Agent shall be paid in Cash by the Wind-Down Debtor.

C. Delivery of Distributions and Undeliverable or Unclaimed Distributions

1. Distributions Generally

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan (including in paragraph 8 below), the Distribution Agent shall make distributions to Holders of Allowed Claims at the address for each such Holder as indicated on the applicable register or in the Debtors' records as of the date of any such distribution (as applicable), including the address set forth in any Proof of Claim filed by that Holder.

2. Distributions on Account of Obligations of Multiple Debtors

For all purposes associated with distributions under the Plan, all guarantees by any Debtor of the obligations of any other Debtor, as well as any joint and several liability of any Debtor with respect to any other Debtor, shall be deemed eliminated so that any obligation that could otherwise be asserted against more than one Debtor shall result in a single distribution under the Plan. Any such Claims shall be subject to all potential objections, defenses, and counterclaims, and to estimation pursuant to section 502(c) of the Bankruptcy Code.

3. Record Date of Distributions

On the Distribution Record Date, the various transfer registers for each Class of Claims or Interests as maintained by the Debtors or their respective agents shall be deemed closed, and there shall be no further changes in the record Holders of any Claims or Interests. The Distribution Agent shall have no obligation to recognize any transfer of Claims or Interests occurring on or after the Distribution Record Date. In addition, with respect to payment of any Cure amounts or disputes over any Cure amounts, neither the Debtors nor the Distribution Agent shall have any obligation to recognize or deal with any party other than the non-Debtor party to the applicable Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease as of the Effective Date, even if such non-Debtor party has sold, assigned, or otherwise transferred its Claim for a Cure amount.

4. Special Rules for Distributions to Holders of Disputed Claims and Interests

Notwithstanding any provision otherwise in the Plan and except as otherwise agreed to by the Wind-Down Debtor, on the one hand, and the Holder of a Disputed Claim or Interest, on the other hand, or as set forth in a Final Order, no partial payments and no partial distributions shall be made with respect to a Disputed Claim or Interest until all of the Disputed Claim or Interest has become an Allowed Claim or Interest or has otherwise been resolved by settlement or Final Order; provided that, if the Wind-Down Debtor does not dispute a portion of an amount asserted pursuant to an otherwise Disputed Claim or Interest, the Distribution Agent may make a partial distribution on account of that portion of such Claim or Interest that is not Disputed at the time and in the manner that the Distribution Agent makes distributions to similarly situated Holders of Allowed Claims or Interests pursuant to the Plan. Any dividends or other distributions arising from property distributed to Holders of Allowed Claims or Interests, as applicable, in a Class and paid to such Holders under the Plan shall also be paid, in the applicable amounts, to any Holder of a Disputed Claim or Interest, as applicable, in such Class that becomes an Allowed Claim or Interest after the date or dates that such dividends or other distributions were earlier paid to Holders of Allowed Claims or Interests in such Class.

5. De Minimis Distributions; Minimum Distributions

The Distribution Agent shall not make any Cash distributions to any Holder of an Allowed Claim or Interest pursuant to Article III.C.1-11 of this Plan on account of such Allowed Claim or Interest if such distribution is valued, in the reasonable discretion of the Distribution Agent, at less than $1.00, and each Holder of an Allowed Claim or Interest to which this limitation applies shall not be entitled to any distributions under the Plan. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Plan, there shall be no minimum distribution threshold on account of distributions of any Cryptocurrency to Holders of Allowed Account Holder Claims and Allowed OpCo General Unsecured Claims.

6. Undeliverable Distributions and Unclaimed Property

In the event that either (a) a distribution to any Holder is returned as undeliverable or (b) the Holder of an Allowed Claim or Interest does not respond to a request by the Debtors or the Distribution Agent for information necessary to facilitate a particular distribution, no distribution to such Holder shall be made unless and until the Distribution Agent has determined the then-current address of such Holder or received the necessary information to facilitate a particular distribution, at which time such distribution shall be made to such Holder without interest, dividends, or other accruals of any kind; provided that such distributions shall be deemed unclaimed property under section 347(b) of the Bankruptcy Code on the date that is one year after the Effective Date. After such date, all unclaimed property or interests in property shall revert to the Wind-Down Debtor automatically and without need for a further order by the Bankruptcy Court (notwithstanding any applicable local, state, federal, or foreign escheat, abandoned, or unclaimed property laws to the contrary), and the Claim or Interest of any Holder to such property or interest in property shall not be entitled to any distributions under the Plan.

7. Manner of Payment Pursuant to the Plan

At the option of the Distribution Agent, any Cash payment to be made hereunder may be made by check, wire transfer, automated clearing house, credit card, or as otherwise provided in applicable agreements.

8. Distributions of Net Owed Coins; Additional Bankruptcy Distributions

As a general matter, the Purchaser will allocate each Account Holder's Net Owed Coins to its account on the Binance.US Platform, and each Holder of OpCo General Unsecured Claim's Pro Rata share of the Distributable Cryptocurrency (in Cash) to its account on the Binance.US Platform in accordance with, and subject to, the provisions of Section 6.12 of the Asset Purchase Agreement.

Subject to the terms of the Asset Purchase Agreement, the Purchaser may make Additional Bankruptcy Distributions to Transferred Creditors, including Distributable OpCo Cash and/or other Wind-Down Debtor Assets, corresponding to their Pro Rata shares of such Additional Bankruptcy Distribution (if such Additional Bankruptcy Distribution is in Cryptocurrency, based on the Transferred Cryptocurrency Value of the Cryptocurrency included in such Additional Bankruptcy Distribution), all in accordance with any applicable Post-Bankruptcy Statement (as defined in the Asset Purchase Agreement).

If any Account Holder or Holder of an Allowed OpCo General Unsecured Claim does not become a Transferred Creditor prior to the date that is three (3) months following the later of the Closing Date or the date on which the terms and conditions for the Binance.US Platform are made available for such Person to accept (as provided in the Customer Onboarding Protocol), then Purchaser shall convert any Cryptocurrency allocable to such Person into U.S. Dollars at the then-prevailing rates (including applicable fees, spreads, costs and expenses) on the Binance.US Platform and deliver such U.S. Dollars, together with any cash or others assets in respect of such Persons, to the Debtors within five (5) Business Days, for further distribution by the Debtors in accordance with this Plan and the Customer Onboarding Protocol.

If any Account Holder or Holder of an Allowed OpCo General Unsecured Claim is located in an Unsupported Jurisdiction (as defined in the Asset Purchase Agreement), then the Net Owed Coins, Distributable Cryptocurrency (in Cash) and Additional Bankruptcy Distributions, if applicable, allocable to such Person shall be handled pursuant to Section 6.12(b) or, if applicable, Section 6.14(d) of the Asset Purchase Agreement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Asset Purchase Agreement, this Plan, or any Definitive Document, if any Account Holder or Holder of an Allowed OpCo General Unsecured Claim in an Unsupported Jurisdiction elects to not become a Transferred Creditor prior to the date that is three (3) months following the later of the Closing Date or the date on which the terms and conditions for the Binance.US Platform are made available for such Person to accept (as provided in the Customer Onboarding Protocol), then Purchaser shall on the date that is three (3) months following the later of the Closing Date or the date which the terms and conditions for the Binance.US Platform are made available for such person to accept, convert any Cryptocurrency allocable to such Person into U.S. Dollars at the then-prevailing rates (including applicable fees, spreads, costs and expenses) on the Binance.US Platform and deliver such U.S. Dollars, together with any cash or others assets in respect of such Persons, to the Debtors within five (5) Business Days, for further distribution by the Debtors in accordance with this Plan and the Customer Onboarding Protocol.

Purchaser shall have no responsibility to make any distributions other than as contemplated by Sections 6.12 and 6.14 of the Asset Purchase Agreement.

D. Compliance Matters

In connection with the Plan, to the extent applicable, the Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, any Distribution Agent, and any other applicable withholding and reporting agents shall comply with all tax withholding and reporting requirements imposed on them by any Governmental Unit, and all distributions pursuant to the Plan shall be subject to such withholding and reporting requirements. Notwithstanding any provision in the Plan to the contrary, the Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, the Distribution Agent, and any other applicable withholding and reporting agents shall be authorized to take all actions necessary or appropriate to comply with such withholding and reporting requirements, including wind-down a portion of the distribution to be made under the Plan to generate sufficient funds to pay applicable withholding taxes, withholding distributions pending receipt of information necessary to facilitate such distributions, or establishing any other mechanisms that are reasonable and appropriate; provided that the Wind-Down Debtor and the Distribution Agent, as applicable, shall request appropriate documentation from the applicable distributees and allow such distributees a reasonable amount of time to respond. The Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, the Distribution Agent, and any other applicable withholding and reporting agents reserve the right to allocate all distributions made under the Plan in compliance with all applicable wage garnishments, alimony, child support, and other spousal awards, liens, and encumbrances.

E. Securities Registration Exemption

To the extent that any Cryptocurrency (including VGX) is deemed to be a “security” (as defined in section 2(a)(1) of the Securities Act, section 101 of the Bankruptcy Code, or by any applicable laws of any Governmental Unit) by the SEC or any Governmental Unit, such Cryptocurrency to be offered, issued and distributed to Holders of Account Holder Claims or any other Holders of Claims hereunder, in each case in exchange for such Claims, shall be exempt, without any further act or action by any Entity, from registration under the Securities Act or any similar federal, state, or local law in reliance upon (i) section 1145 of the Bankruptcy Code (except with respect to an entity that is an “underwriter” as defined in subsection (b) of section 1145 of the Bankruptcy Code) or (ii) (including with respect to an entity that is an “underwriter”) pursuant to section 4(a)(2) under the Securities Act and/or Regulation D thereunder.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan, no entity may require a legal opinion regarding the validity of any transaction contemplated by the Plan, including, for the avoidance of doubt, whether the Cryptocurrency, to the extent deemed to be a “security” are exempt from registration.

F. Foreign Currency Exchange Rate

Except as otherwise provided in a Bankruptcy Court order, as of the Effective Date, any Claim, asserted in government issued currency (for the avoidance of doubt, not including any Cryptocurrency) other than U.S. dollars shall be automatically deemed converted to the equivalent U.S. dollar value using the exchange rate for the applicable currency as published in The Wall Street Journal, National Edition, on the Effective Date.

G. Claims Paid or Payable by Third Parties

1. Claims Paid by Third Parties

The Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, shall reduce a Claim or Interest, and such Claim or Interest (or portion thereof) shall be disallowed without an objection to such Claim or Interest having to be Filed and without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court, to the extent that the Holder of such Claim or Interest receives a payment on account of such Claim or Interest from a party that is not a Debtor or Wind-Down Debtor (or other Distribution Agent), as applicable, including any payments made in connection with the Sale Transaction. To the extent a Holder of a Claim or Interest receives a distribution on account of such Claim or Interest and receives payment from a party that is not a Debtor or a Wind-Down Debtor (or other Distribution Agent), including payments made in connection with the Sale Transaction, as applicable, on account of such Claim or Interest, such Holder shall, within ten Business Days of receipt thereof, repay, return, or deliver any distribution held by or transferred to the Holder to the applicable Wind-Down Debtor to the extent the Holder’s total recovery on account of such Claim or Interest from the third party and under the Plan exceeds the amount of such Claim or Interest as of the date of any such distribution under the Plan. The failure of such Holder to timely repay, return, or deliver such distribution shall result in the Holder owing the applicable Wind-Down Debtor annualized interest at the Federal Judgment Rate on such amount owed for each Business Day after the ten-Business Day grace period specified above until the amount is repaid.

2. Claims Payable by Third Parties

No distributions under the Plan shall be made on account of an Allowed Claim or Interest that is payable pursuant to one of the Debtors’ insurance policies until the Holder of such Allowed Claim or Interest has exhausted all remedies with respect to such insurance policy. To the extent that one or more of the Debtors’ insurers agrees to satisfy in full or in part a Claim or Interest (if and to the extent adjudicated by a court of competent jurisdiction or otherwise settled), then immediately upon such payment, such Claim or Interest may be expunged or reduced on the Claims Register by the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent to the extent of any such payment without an objection to such Claim or Interest having to be Filed and without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

3. Applicability of Insurance Policies

Except as otherwise provided herein, payments to Holders of Claims or Interests shall be in accordance with the provisions of any applicable insurance policy. Nothing contained in the Plan shall constitute or be deemed a release, settlement, satisfaction, compromise, or waiver of any rights, defenses, or Cause of Action that the Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor or any other Entity may hold against any other Entity, including insurers, under any policies of insurance, agreements related thereto, or applicable indemnity, nor shall anything contained herein constitute or be deemed a waiver by such insurers of any rights or defenses, including coverage defenses, held by such insurers under the applicable insurance policies, agreements related thereto, and applicable non-bankruptcy law.

H. Setoffs and Recoupment

Except as otherwise expressly provided for herein, each Debtor, the Wind-Down Debtor, or such Entity's designee as instructed by such Debtor, the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, may, pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code (including section 553 of the Bankruptcy Code), applicable non-bankruptcy law, or as may be agreed to by the Holder of a Claim, set off against or recoup from an Allowed Claim and any distributions to be made pursuant to the Plan on account of such Allowed Claim, any Claims, rights, and Causes of Action of any nature whatsoever that the Debtor or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, may have against the Holder of such Allowed Claim, to the extent such Claims, rights, or Causes of Action have not been otherwise compromised, settled, or released on or prior to the Effective Date (whether pursuant to the Plan or otherwise). Notwithstanding the foregoing, except as expressly stated in Article VIII of this Plan, neither the failure to effect such a setoff or recoupment nor the allowance of any Claim pursuant to the Plan shall constitute a waiver or release by the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor of any such Claims, rights, or Causes of Action the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor may possess against such Holder.

I. Allocation between Principal and Accrued Interest

Except as otherwise provided herein, the aggregate consideration paid to Holders with respect to their Allowed Claims shall be treated pursuant to the Plan as allocated first to the principal amount of such Allowed Claims (to the extent thereof and as determined for federal income tax purposes) and second, to the extent the consideration exceeds the principal amount of the Allowed Claims, to the remaining portion of such Allowed Claim if any.

ARTICLE VII.

A. Disputed Claims Process

After the Effective Date, the Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, and any party-in-interest, shall have and retain any and all rights and defenses the applicable Debtor had with respect to any Claim or Interest immediately before the Effective Date. Except as expressly provided in the Plan or in any order entered in the Chapter 11 Cases before the Effective Date (including the Confirmation Order), no Claim or Interest shall become an Allowed Claim or Interest unless and until such Claim or Interest is deemed Allowed under the Plan or the Bankruptcy Code, or the Bankruptcy Court has entered a Final Order, including the Confirmation Order (when it becomes a Final Order), in the Chapter 11 Cases allowing such Claim or Interest. If a Holder of a Claim or Interest in Class disputes the amount of their Claim or Interest as listed in the Schedules, the Holder should notify the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor of such dispute. If the Debtors and the Holder agree to an amended Claim amount prior to the Effective Date, the Debtors shall file amended Schedules prior to the Effective Date. If between the Confirmation Date and the Effective Date, the dispute cannot be consensually resolved, the Holder may seek (by letter to the Court) to have the claim or interest dispute resolved before the Bankruptcy Court (and, with the consent of the Debtors, before any other court or tribunal with jurisdiction over the parties). After the Effective Date, the creditor may seek to have the claim dispute resolved before the Bankruptcy Court or any other court or tribunal with jurisdiction over the parties.

Notwithstanding anything in this Plan to the contrary: (1) all Claims against the Debtors that result from the Debtors' rejection of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease; (2) Claims filed to dispute the amount of any proposed Cure pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code; and (3) Claims that the Debtors seek to have determined by the Bankruptcy Court, shall in all cases be determined by the Bankruptcy Court, if not otherwise resolved through settlement with the applicable claimant.

On the Effective Date, the Debtors or Plan Administrator, as applicable, may establish one or more accounts or funds to hold and dispose of certain assets, pursue certain litigation (including the Causes of Action preserved under the Plan or otherwise vesting in the Wind-Down Debtor), and/or satisfy certain Claims (including Claims that are contingent or have not yet been Allowed). For any such account or fund, the Debtors or the Plan Administrator, as applicable, may take the position that grantor trust treatment applies in whole or in part. To the extent such treatment applies to any such account or fund, for all U.S. federal income tax purposes, the beneficiaries of any such account or fund would be treated as grantors and owners thereof, and it is intended, to the extent reasonably practicable, that any such account or fund would be classified as a liquidating trust under section 301.7701-4 of the Treasury Regulations. Alternatively, any such account or fund may be subject to the tax rules that apply to "disputed ownership funds" under 26 C.F.R. 1.468B-9. If such rules apply, such assets would be subject to entity-level taxation, and the Debtors and the Wind-Down Debtor would be required to comply with the relevant rules.

B. Objections to Claims or Interests

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan, after the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Debtor shall have the sole authority on behalf of the Debtors to: (1) File, withdraw, or litigate to judgment, any objections to Claims or Interests; and (2) settle or compromise any Disputed Claim or Interest without any further notice to or action, order, or approval by the Bankruptcy Court. For the avoidance of doubt, except as otherwise provided herein, from and after the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Debtor shall have and retain any and all rights and defenses each such Debtor had immediately prior to the Effective Date with respect to any Disputed Claim or Interest, including the Causes of Action retained pursuant to Article IV.P of the Plan. In the event that the Wind-Down Debtor settles or otherwise compromises the Signatory Governmental Claims (as defined in the Governmental Claimant Stipulation) asserted against TopCo, any other Claim Filed or asserted by a Governmental Unit against TopCo, or any other Claim Filed or asserted against TopCo in an amount greater than $100,000, any such proposed settlement or compromise shall require approval of the Bankruptcy Court after notice and a hearing.

Any objections to Claims or Interests shall be Filed on or before the Claims Objection Bar Date. For the avoidance of doubt, any party may object to any Claims or Interests prior to the Claims Objection Bar Date. Further, the Bankruptcy Court may extend the time period to object to Claims or Interests set forth in this paragraph at any time, including before or after the expiration of one hundred eighty days after the Effective Date, in its discretion or upon request by the Debtors or any party in interest.

C. Estimation of Claims

Before or after the Effective Date, the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, may (but are not required to), at any time, request that the Bankruptcy Court estimate any Disputed Claim or Interest that is contingent or unliquidated pursuant to applicable law, including pursuant to section 502(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, for any reason, regardless of whether any party previously has objected to such Disputed Claim or Interest or whether the Bankruptcy Court has ruled on any such objection, and the Bankruptcy Court shall retain jurisdiction under sections 157 and 1334 of the Judicial Code to estimate any such Disputed Claim or Interest, including during the litigation of any objection to any Disputed Claim or Interest or during the pendency of any appeal relating to such objection. Notwithstanding any provision otherwise in the Plan, a Disputed Claim or Interest that has been expunged from the Claims Register, but that either is subject to appeal or has not been the subject of a Final Order, shall be deemed to be estimated at zero dollars, unless otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court. In the event that the Bankruptcy Court estimates any contingent or unliquidated Claim or Interest, that estimated amount shall constitute a maximum limitation on such Claim or Interest for all purposes under the Plan (including for purposes of distributions) and may be used as evidence in any supplemental proceedings, and the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor may elect to pursue any supplemental proceedings to object to any ultimate distribution on such Claim. Notwithstanding section 502(j) of the Bankruptcy Code, in no event shall any Holder of a Disputed Claim or Interest that has been estimated pursuant to section 502(c) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise be entitled to seek reconsideration of such estimation unless such Holder has Filed a motion requesting the right to seek such reconsideration on or before fourteen days after the date on which such Disputed Claim or Interest is estimated.

D. No Distributions Pending Allowance

Notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan, if any portion of a Claim or Interest is a Disputed Claim or Interest, no payment or distribution provided hereunder shall be made on account of such Claim or Interest unless and until such Disputed Claim or Interest becomes an Allowed Claim or Interest; provided that if only a portion of a Claim or Interest is Disputed, such Claim or Interest shall be deemed Allowed in the amount not Disputed and payment or distribution shall be made on account of such undisputed amount.

E. Distributions After Allowance

To the extent that a Disputed Claim or Interest ultimately becomes an Allowed Claim, distributions (if any) shall be made to the Holder of such Allowed Claim or Interest in accordance with the provisions of the Plan. As soon as reasonably practicable after the date that the order or judgment of the Bankruptcy Court Allowing any Disputed Claim or Interest becomes a Final Order, the Distribution Agent shall provide to the Holder of such Allowed Claim or Interest the distribution (if any) to which such Holder is entitled under the Plan as of the Effective Date, without any interest, dividends, or accruals to be paid on account of such Allowed Claim or Interest unless required under applicable bankruptcy law.

F. No Interest

Unless otherwise specifically provided for herein or by Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court, postpetition interest shall not accrue or be paid on Claims against the Debtors, and no Holder of a Claim against the Debtors shall be entitled to interest accruing on or after the Petition Date on any such Claim. Additionally, and without limiting the foregoing, interest shall not accrue or be paid on any Disputed Claim with respect to the period from the Effective Date to the date a final distribution is made on account of such Disputed Claim, if and when such Disputed Claim becomes an Allowed Claim.

G. Adjustment to Claims and Interests without Objection

Any Claim or Interest that has been paid, satisfied, amended, superseded, cancelled, or otherwise expunged (including pursuant to the Plan) may be adjusted or expunged on the Claims Register at the direction of the Wind-Down Debtor without the Wind-Down Debtor having to File an application, motion, complaint, objection, or any other legal proceeding seeking to object to such Claim or Interest and without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court. Additionally, any Claim or Interest that is duplicative or redundant with another Claim or Interest against the same Debtor may be adjusted or expunged on the Claims Register at the direction of the Wind-Down Debtor without the Wind-Down Debtor having to File an application, motion, complaint, objection, or any other legal proceeding seeking to object to such Claim or Interest and without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

H. Time to File Objections to Claims

Any objections to Claims shall be Filed on or before the Claims Objection Bar Date.

I. Disallowance of Claims or Interests

Any Claims or Interests held by Entities from which property is recoverable under sections 542, 543, 550, or 553 of the Bankruptcy Code or that is a transferee of a transfer avoidable under sections 522(f), 522(h), 544, 545, 547, 548, 549, or 724(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, shall be deemed disallowed pursuant to section 502(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, and Holders of such Claims may not receive any distributions on account of such Claims or Interests until such time as such Causes of Action against that Entity have been settled or a Bankruptcy Court order with respect thereto has been entered and all sums due, if any, to the Debtors by that Entity have been turned over or paid to the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable.

Except as otherwise provided herein or as agreed to by the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, any and all Proofs of Claim Filed after the Bar Date shall be deemed disallowed and expunged as of the Effective Date subject to the approval of the Bankruptcy Court, and Holders of such Claims may not receive any distributions on account of such Claims, unless such late Proof of Claim has been deemed timely Filed by a Final Order.

J. Amendments to Proofs of Claim

On or after the Effective Date, except as provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, a Proof of Claim or Proof of Interest may not be Filed or amended without the prior authorization of the Bankruptcy Court or the Wind-Down Debtor, and any such new or amended Proof of Claim or Proof of Interest Filed shall be deemed disallowed in full and expunged without any further action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

EFFECT OF CONFIRMATION OF THE PLAN

A. Releases by the Debtors

Notwithstanding anything contained in the Plan to the contrary, on and after the Effective Date, in exchange for good and valuable consideration, the adequacy of which is hereby confirmed, each Released Party is hereby conclusively, absolutely, unconditionally, irrevocably, and forever released and discharged by each and all of the Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, and their Estates, and in each case on behalf of themselves and their respective successors, assigns, and representatives, who may purport to assert any Cause of Action, directly or derivatively, by, through, for, or because of, the foregoing Entities, from any and all Causes of Action, including any derivative claims, asserted or assertable on behalf of any of the Debtors, whether known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, matured or unmatured, existing or hereafter arising, in law, equity, contract, tort, or otherwise, that the Debtors would have been legally entitled to assert in their own right (whether individually or collectively) or on behalf of the Holder of any Claim against, or Interest in, a Debtor, based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors (including the management, ownership, or operation thereof), their capital structure, the purchase, sale, or rescission of the purchase or sale of any Security of the Debtors, the subject matter of, or the transactions or events giving rise to, any Claim or Interest that is treated in the Plan, the business or contractual arrangements between any Debtor and any Released Party, the Chapter 11 Cases and related adversary proceedings, the Debtors' out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among a Debtor and another Debtor, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, filing, or consummation of the Definitive Documents or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Definitive Documents, the pursuit of consummation of the Plan, the administration and implementation of the Restructuring Transactions or upon any other act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence related to the Debtors taking place on or before the Effective Date.

Entry of the Confirmation Order shall constitute the Bankruptcy Court's approval, pursuant to section 1123(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 9019, of the releases described in this Article VIII.A by the Debtors, which includes by reference each of the related provisions and definitions contained in this Plan, and further, shall constitute the Bankruptcy Court's finding that each release described in this Article VIII.A is: (1) in exchange for the good and valuable consideration provided by the Released Parties; (2) a good-faith settlement and compromise of such Causes of Action; (3) in the best interests of the Debtors and all Holders of Claims and Interests; (4) fair, equitable, and reasonable; (5) given and made after due notice and opportunity for hearing; (6) a sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment; and (7) except to the extent contemplated by Article IV.E and Article IV.F of the Plan, a bar to any of the Debtors or Wind-Down Debtor or their respective Estates asserting any Cause of Action related thereto, of any kind, against any of the Released Parties or their property.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, nothing in this Plan shall release, waive, or otherwise limit the (i) rights, duties, or obligations of the Purchaser under the Asset Purchase Agreement or the Definitive Documents and (ii) the Non-Released D&O Claims, but such Non-Released D&O Claims shall remain subject to the limitations contained in Article IV.E and Article IV.F of this Plan.

B. Releases by Holders of Claims and Interests

Except as expressly set forth in the Plan, effective on the Effective Date, in exchange for good and valuable consideration, the adequacy of which is hereby confirmed, each Released Party is hereby conclusively, absolutely, unconditionally, irrevocably, and forever released and discharged by each and all of the Releasing Parties, in each case on behalf of themselves and their respective successors, assigns, and representatives, from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, matured or unmatured, existing or hereafter arising, in law, equity, contract, tort, or otherwise, including any derivative claims asserted or assertable on behalf of any of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert in its own right (whether individually or collectively or on behalf of the Holder of any Claim against, or Interest in, a Debtor or other Entity), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors (including the management, ownership, or operation thereof), their capital structure, the purchase, sale, or rescission of the purchase or sale of any security of the Debtors, the subject matter of, or the transactions or events giving rise to, any Claim or Interest that is treated in the Plan, the business or contractual arrangements between any Debtor and any Released Party, the Debtors' out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among a Debtor and another Debtor, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, filing, or consummation of the Definitive Documents or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Definitive Documents, the pursuit of consummation of the Plan, the administration and implementation of the Restructuring Transactions, or upon any other act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence related to the Debtors taking place on or before the Effective Date, provided that nothing in this Article VIII.B shall be construed to release the Released Parties from actual fraud, willful misconduct, or gross negligence as determined by a Final Order.

Entry of the Confirmation Order shall constitute the Bankruptcy Court's approval, pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019, of the releases described in this Article VIII.B, which includes by reference each of the related provisions and definitions contained in this Plan, and further, shall constitute the Bankruptcy Court's finding that each release described in this Article VIII.B is: (1) in exchange for the good and valuable consideration provided by the Released Parties; (2) a good-faith settlement and compromise of such Causes of Action; (3) in the best interests of the Debtors and all Holders of Claims and Interests; (4) fair, equitable, and reasonable; (5) given and made after due notice and opportunity for hearing; (6) a sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment; and (7) except to the extent contemplated by Article IV.F and Article IV.G of the Plan, a bar to any of the Releasing Parties or the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor or their respective Estates asserting any Cause of Action related thereto, of any kind, against any of the Released Parties or their property.

C. Exculpation

Effective as of the Effective Date, to the fullest extent permissible under applicable law and without affecting or limiting either the Debtor release or the third-party release, and except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan, no Exculpated Party shall have or incur, and each Exculpated Party is exculpated from any Cause of Action for any act or omission arising on or after the Petition Date and prior to the Effective Date based on the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation or filing, or consummation of the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Special Committee Investigation, any Definitive Documents or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Disclosure Statement or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of consummation of the Plan, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance of Securities pursuant to the Plan, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement (including, for the avoidance of doubt, providing any legal opinion requested by any Entity regarding any transaction, contract, instrument, document, or other agreement contemplated by the Plan or the reliance by any Exculpated Party on the Plan or the Confirmation Order in lieu of such legal opinion), except for Causes of Action related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order of a court of competent jurisdiction to have constituted actual fraud, willful misconduct, or gross negligence, but in all respects such Entities shall be entitled to reasonably rely upon the advice of counsel with respect to their duties and responsibilities pursuant to the Plan; provided that nothing in the Plan shall limit the liability of professionals to their clients pursuant to N.Y. Comp. Codes R. & Regs. tit. 22 § 1200.8 Rule 1.8(h)(1) (2009).

To the extent that any Cryptocurrency is deemed to be a "security" by the SEC or any Governmental Unit, distribution of such Cryptocurrency shall have been done in good faith and in compliance with all applicable laws, rules, and regulations and the Exculpated Parties shall not be liable at any time for the violation of any applicable law, rule, or regulation governing the distribution of Cryptocurrency whether such Cryptocurrency is deemed to be a “security” or otherwise.

The Exculpated Parties have, and upon Consummation of the Plan shall be deemed to have, participated in good faith and in compliance with the applicable laws with regard to the solicitation of votes and distribution of consideration pursuant to the Plan and, therefore, are not, and on account of such distributions shall not be, liable at any time for the violation of any applicable law, rule, or regulation governing the solicitation of acceptances or rejections of the Plan or such distributions made pursuant to the Plan.

D. Injunction

The assets of the Debtors and of the Wind-Down Debtor shall be used for the satisfaction of expense obligations and the payment of Claims and Interests only in the manner set forth in this Plan and shall not be available for any other purpose. All Persons and Entities who have held, hold, or may hold Claims or Interests based upon any act, omission, transaction, or other activity of any kind or nature related to the Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, or the Debtors’ Chapter 11 Cases that occurred prior to the Effective Date, other than as expressly provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, shall be precluded and permanently enjoined on and after the Effective Date from interfering with the use and distribution of the Debtors’ assets in the manner contemplated by the Plan.

In addition, as of the Effective Date and subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date, except as otherwise specifically provided in this Plan or the Confirmation Order, all Persons and Entities who have held, hold, or may hold Claims or Interests that are fully satisfied pursuant to the Plan or any Claim or Interest that is subject to the releases and exculpations set forth in Article VIII.B and Article VIII.C of this Plan shall be precluded and permanently enjoined on and after the Effective Date from enforcing, pursuing, or seeking any setoff or relief with respect to such Claims or Interests, except for the receipt of the payments or distributions that are contemplated by this Plan.

E. Release of Liens

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Plan Supplement, or any contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created pursuant to the Plan or Confirmation Order on the Effective Date, and concurrently with the applicable distributions made pursuant to the Plan, all mortgages, deeds of trust, Liens, pledges, or other security interests against any property of the Estates shall be fully released, settled, compromised, and discharged, and all of the right, title, and interest of any holder of such mortgages, deeds of trust, Liens, pledges, or other security interests against any property of the Debtors shall automatically revert to the applicable Debtor or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, and their successors and assigns, in each case, without any further approval or order of the Bankruptcy Court and without any action or Filing being required to be made by the Debtors. Any Holder of such Secured Claim (and the applicable agents for such Holder) shall be authorized and directed to release any collateral or other property of any Debtor (including any cash collateral and possessory collateral) held by such Holder (and the applicable agents for such Holder), and to take such actions as requested by the Debtors or Wind-Down Debtor to evidence the release of such Lien, including the execution, delivery, and filing or recording of such documents evidencing such releases. The presentation or filing of the Confirmation Order to or with any local, state, federal, or foreign agency or department shall constitute good and sufficient evidence of, but shall not be required to effect, the termination of such Liens.

F. OSC and SEC

Notwithstanding any language to the contrary herein, no provision shall (a) preclude the OSC or the SEC from enforcing its police or regulatory powers; or (b) enjoin, limit, impair or delay the OSC or SEC from commencing or continuing any claims, causes of action, proceeding, or investigations against any non-Debtor person or non-Debtor entity in any forum.

G. Protection against Discriminatory Treatment

As provided by section 525 of the Bankruptcy Code, and consistent with paragraph 2 of Article VI of the United States Constitution, no Entity, including Governmental Units, shall discriminate against any Debtor or the Wind-Down Debtor or deny, revoke, suspend, or refuse to renew a license, permit, charter, franchise, or other similar grant to, condition such a grant to, or discriminate with respect to such a grant against, any Debtor or the Wind-Down Debtor, or any Entity with which a Debtor or the Wind-Down Debtor has been or is associated, solely because such Debtor or the Wind-Down Debtor was a debtor under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code, may have been insolvent before the commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases (or during the Chapter 11 Cases but before such Debtor was granted or denied a discharge), or has not paid a debt that is dischargeable in the Chapter 11 Cases.

H. Document Retention

Upon the occurrence of the Effective Date, the Debtors' books and records shall be transferred to the Wind-Down Debtor, which shall continue to preserve all financial books and records, emails, and other financial documents relating to the Debtors' business that are currently in the Debtors' possession. The Wind-Down Debtor shall not destroy or otherwise abandon any such documents or records without providing advance notice to the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (c/o Therese Scheuer, U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, 100 F Street, NE, Washington, DC 20549, ScheuerT@SEC.GOV) and seeking further authorization from this Bankruptcy Court. Nothing in this Plan or the Confirmation Order shall affect the obligations of the pre-Effective Date Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, and/or any transferee or custodian to maintain all books and records that are subject to any governmental subpoena, document preservation letter, or other investigative request from a governmental agency.

I. Reimbursement or Contribution

If the Bankruptcy Court disallows a Claim for reimbursement or contribution of an Entity pursuant to section 502(e)(1)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code, then to the extent that such Claim is contingent as of the time of allowance or disallowance, such Claim shall be forever disallowed and expunged notwithstanding section 502(j) of the Bankruptcy Code, unless prior to the Confirmation Date: (1) such Claim has been adjudicated as non-contingent; or (2) the relevant Holder of a Claim has Filed a non-contingent Proof of Claim on account of such Claim and a Final Order has been entered prior to the Confirmation Date determining such Claim as no longer contingent.

J. Term of Injunctions or Stays

Unless otherwise provided in the Plan or in the Confirmation Order, all injunctions or stays in effect in the Chapter 11 Cases pursuant to sections 105 or 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, or any order of the Bankruptcy Court, and extant on the Confirmation Date (excluding any injunctions or stays contained in the Plan or the Confirmation Order), shall remain in full force and effect until the Effective Date. All injunctions or stays contained in the Plan or the Confirmation Order shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with their terms.

ARTICLE IX.

CONDITIONS PRECEDENT TO THE EFFECTIVE DATE

A. Conditions Precedent to the Effective Date

It shall be a condition to the Effective Date that the following conditions shall have been satisfied or waived pursuant to Article IX.B of the Plan:

1. The Bankruptcy Court shall have entered the Confirmation Order, which shall be in a form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Debtors and the Committee, and subject to the consent rights of Purchaser under the Asset Purchase Agreement, and such order shall be a Final Order and in full force and effect.
2. The Debtors shall have obtained all authorizations, consents, regulatory approvals, rulings, or documents that are necessary to implement and effectuate the Plan, Definitive Documents, and the Asset Purchase Agreement.
3. Each Definitive Document and each other document contained in any supplement to the Plan, including the Plan Supplement and any exhibits, schedules, amendments, modifications or supplements thereto or other documents contained therein, shall have been executed or Filed, as applicable, in form and substance consistent in all respects with the Plan, and subject to the Purchaser's consent rights under the Asset Purchase Agreement, and shall not have been modified in a manner inconsistent therewith;
4. The Professional Fee Escrow Account shall have been established and funded with Cash in accordance with Article II.B.2 of the Plan.
5. The Wind-Down Reserve shall have been established and funded with Cash in accordance with the Plan.
6. If prior to the Outside Date, the Asset Purchase Agreement shall be in full force and effect and the Sale Transaction shall have been consummated.
7. The Restructuring Transactions shall have been consummated or shall be anticipated to be consummated concurrently with the occurrence of the Effective Date in a manner consistent with the Plan, the Customer Onboarding Protocol, the other Definitive Documents, and the Asset Purchase Agreement, and the Plan shall have been substantially consummated or shall be anticipated to be substantially consummated concurrently with the occurrence of the Effective Date.

B. Waiver of Conditions Precedent

The Debtors, with the consent of the Committee and, solely to the extent related to the Asset Purchase Agreement and the Sale Transaction, prior to the Outside Date, the consent of Purchaser, may waive any of the conditions to the Effective Date set forth in Article IX.A of the Plan at any time, without any notice to any other parties in interest and without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court, and without any formal action other than proceeding to confirm and consummate the Plan.

If the Effective Date does not occur within 120 days after the Confirmation Date, then the Plan will be null and void in all respects, any and all compromises or settlements not previously approved by Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court embodied in the Plan (including with respect to the fixing, limiting, or treatment of any Claim or Interest, including, without limitation, the Alameda Loan Facility Claims), shall be deemed null and void, and nothing contained in the Plan or the Disclosure Statement shall: (1) constitute a waiver or release of any Claims, Interests, or Causes of Action held by any Debtor or any other Entity; (2) prejudice in any manner the rights of any Debtor or any other Entity; or (3) constitute an admission, acknowledgment, offer, or undertaking of any sort by any Debtor or any other Entity in any respect.

ARTICLE X.

MODIFICATION, REVOCATION, OR WITHDRAWAL OF THE PLAN

A. Modification of Plan

Subject to the limitations and terms contained in the Plan and Purchaser's consent rights under the Asset Purchase Agreement, the Debtors, with the consent of the Committee, reserve the right to (1) amend or modify the Plan before the entry of the Confirmation Order, in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code and the Bankruptcy Rules and (2) after the entry of the Confirmation Order, the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, may, upon order of the Bankruptcy Court, amend or modify the Plan, in accordance with section 1127(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, to remedy any defect or omission, or reconcile any inconsistency in the Plan in such manner as may be necessary to carry out the purpose and intent of the Plan consistent with the terms set forth herein.

B. Effect of Confirmation on Modifications

Entry of the Confirmation Order shall constitute approval of all modifications or amendments to the Plan occurring after the solicitation thereof pursuant to section 1127(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and a finding that such modifications to the Plan do not require additional disclosure or resolicitation under Bankruptcy Rule 3019.

C. Revocation or Withdrawal of Plan

The Debtors reserve the right, with the consent of the Committee, to revoke or withdraw the Plan with respect to any or all Debtors before the Confirmation Date and to File subsequent chapter 11 plans. If the Debtors revoke or withdraw the Plan, or if Confirmation or the Effective Date does not occur, then: (1) the Plan will be null and void in all respects; (2) any settlement or compromise not previously approved by Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court embodied in the Plan (including the fixing or limiting to an amount certain of the Claims or Classes of Claims), assumption or rejection of Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases effectuated by the Plan, and any document or agreement executed pursuant to the Plan will be null and void in all respects; and (3) nothing contained in the Plan shall (a) constitute a waiver or release of any Claims, Interests, or Causes of Action by any Entity, (b) prejudice in any manner the rights of any Debtor or any other Entity, or (c) constitute an admission, acknowledgement, offer, or undertaking of any sort by any Debtor or any other Entity.

ARTICLE XI.

7. enter and enforce any order for the sale of property pursuant to sections 363, 1123, or 1146(a) of the Bankruptcy Code;

8. grant any consensual request to extend the deadline for assuming or rejecting Unexpired Leases pursuant to section 365(d)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code;

Nothing herein limits the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court to interpret and enforce the Plan and all contracts, instruments, releases, and other agreements or documents created in connection with the Plan, or the Disclosure Statement, without regard to whether the controversy with respect to which such interpretation or enforcement relates may be pending in any state or other federal court of competent jurisdiction.

If the Bankruptcy Court abstains from exercising, or declines to exercise, jurisdiction or is otherwise without jurisdiction over any matter arising in, arising under, or related to the Chapter 11 Cases, including the matters set forth in this Article XI, the provisions of this Article XI shall have no effect on and shall not control, limit, or prohibit the exercise of jurisdiction by any other court having competent jurisdiction with respect to such matter.

Unless otherwise specifically provided herein or in a prior order of the Bankruptcy Court, the Bankruptcy Court shall have exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine disputes concerning Claims against or Interests in the Debtors that arose prior to the Effective Date.

Except as set forth in the Plan, in the event that any provision of the Disclosure Statement, the Plan Supplement, or any order (other than the Confirmation Order) referenced in the Plan (or any exhibits, schedules, appendices, supplements, or amendments to any of the foregoing), conflict with or are in any way inconsistent with any provision of the Plan, the Plan shall govern and control. Notwithstanding any such holding, alteration, or interpretation, the remainder of the terms and provisions of the Plan will remain in full force and effect and will in no way be affected, impaired, or invalidated by such holding, alteration, or interpretation. The Confirmation Order shall constitute a judicial determination and shall provide that each term and provision of the Plan, as it may have been altered or interpreted in accordance with the foregoing, is: (1) valid and enforceable pursuant to its terms; (2) integral to the Plan and may not be deleted or modified without the Debtors' consent, consistent with the terms set forth herein; and (3) non-severable and mutually dependent.

INTRODUCTION

Voyager Digital Holdings, Inc. and its affiliated debtors and debtors in possession in the above-captioned chapter 11 cases (each a “Debtor” and, collectively, the “Debtors”) propose this third amended joint plan (the “Plan”) for the resolution of the outstanding Claims against and Interests in the Debtors pursuant to chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. Capitalized terms used in the Plan and not otherwise defined shall have the meanings set forth in Article I.A of the Plan. The classifications of Claims and Interests set forth in Article III of the Plan shall be deemed to apply separately with respect to each Plan proposed by each Debtor, as applicable. The Plan does not contemplate substantive consolidation of any of the Debtors. Reference is made to the Disclosure Statement for a discussion of the Debtors’ history, business, properties and operations, projections, risk factors, a summary and analysis of this Plan, and certain related matters.

ALL HOLDERS OF CLAIMS ENTITLED TO VOTE ON THE PLAN ARE ENCOURAGED TO READ THE PLAN AND THE DISCLOSURE STATEMENT IN THEIR ENTIRETY BEFORE VOTING TO ACCEPT OR REJECT THE PLAN.

Any Claims or Causes of Action held by the Debtors or their respective estates against the Debtors' CEO and/or CCO (regardless of any fiduciary capacity in which such individuals were acting) that are expressly related to approval of the 3AC Loan are not released pursuant to the Plan (collectively, the "Non-Released D&O Claims"), and shall be assigned and transferred to the Wind-Down Debtor to be pursued, settled, or resolved by the Wind-Down Debtor in accordance with the terms of Article IV.G of this Plan and subject to the Wind-Down Budget. Any claims against the D&O Carriers that the Debtors' insurance transactions within the 90 days prior to the Petition Date are avoidable under the Bankruptcy Code, applicable state law, or both (the "Non-Released Insurance Claims") shall be assigned and transferred to the Wind-Down Debtor to be pursued, settled, or resolved solely by the Wind-Down Debtor in accordance with the terms of Article IV.G of this Plan. The Wind-Down Debtor shall be a successor to the Debtors' rights, title, and interest in any Non-Released D&O Claims and Non-Released Insurance Claims, and the Wind-Down Debtor shall have standing to pursue the Non-Released D&O Claims and the Non-Released Insurance Claims in accordance with the terms of Article IV.G of this Plan; provided that: (i) any recovery by the Wind-Down Debtor (and the beneficiaries thereof) on account of any Non-Released D&O Claim, including in each case by way of settlement or judgment, shall be satisfied solely by and to the extent of the proceeds of the Debtors' available D&O Liability Insurance Policies (and/or from the D&O Carriers directly) after payment from such D&O Liability Insurance Policies of any and all covered costs and expenses incurred in connection with the defense of the Non-Released D&O Claims; (ii) any party, including any trustee or any beneficiary of the Wind-Down Debtor, seeking to execute, garnish, or otherwise attempt to collect on any settlement of or judgment in the Non-Released D&O Claims shall do so solely upon available insurance coverage from the Debtors' available D&O Liability Insurance Policies; and (iii) no party shall (a) record any judgment against the CEO or CCO, or (b) otherwise attempt to collect, directly or indirectly, from the personal assets of the CEO or CCO with respect to the Non-Released D&O Claims. For the avoidance of doubt, this provision does not enjoin, limit, or impair direct claims held by third parties against the Debtors' CEO or CCO (if any) other than any direct claims held by Holders of Claims or Interests that opt into the third-party release in Article VIII.B of this Plan. Only upon the occurrence of the earlier of (x) a release being given as part of any later settlement of the Non-Released D&O Claims; (y) final resolution of any coverage claims asserted against the Debtors' available D&O Liability Insurance Policies on account of the Non-Released D&O Claims; or (z) exhaustion of the available insurance coverage under the D&O Liability Insurance Policies, the Non-Released D&O Claims shall be released and discharged without the need for further action or Bankruptcy Court order. IV.F) against the Debtors until all other Holders of Claims are paid in full; provided, however, that in the event the D&O Carriers deny coverage to CEO or CCO under the D&O Insurance Policies on account of such subordination of any indemnification claim, then any indemnification claims by CEO or CCO shall not be so subordinated, but may be filed as an OpCo General Unsecured Claim.

CEO and CCO, each as insureds, under the D&O Liability Insurance Policies agree: (i) not to draw down on the Side-A Policy; provided, however, that should coverage continue to be available under the Side-A Policy following resolution of the Debtors' and/or the Wind-Down Debtor's claims for the avoidance of the premium paid for the policy (whether by judgment or settlement or otherwise) such officer shall be entitled to seek coverage under the Side-A Policy to the extent any such coverage remains; and (ii) not to object to any settlement by the Debtors or Wind Down Entity of avoidance claims under the Side-A Policy, even if such settlement results in termination of benefits under the Side-A Policy. For the avoidance of doubt, this agreement is not intended to and shall not alter or amend each of the insureds' duties under the D&O Liability Insurance Policies. In the event that any insurer under the D&O Liability Insurance Policies denies coverage for any reason, the Wind-Down Debtor shall have the right to bring a coverage claim against the insurer(s) in the name of the insured, the insureds shall reasonably cooperate with respect to any such claim, and the insured may participate at their election (and at their sole cost). For the avoidance of doubt, nothing contained in this Plan is intended as a waiver or release of the Debtors' and/or Wind-Down Debtor's right to assert any Non-Released D&O Claim, but rather limits such recovery in the manner set forth above.

CEO and CCO shall be entitled to receive their salary and benefits for as long as they work for the Debtors and/or the Wind-Down Debtor and retain the right to assert claims for advancement and indemnification up to the limits of any available coverage in the event any of the insurers that issued the Management Liability Policy, the Excess Policy, or the Side-A Policy denies coverage to CEO and/or CCO based upon or arising out of the lack of a formal claim for indemnification; provided, however, that any such indemnification or advancement claims shall be subordinated in full unless and until all other Holders of Claims are paid in full; provided, further, that in the event that any of the D&O Carriers deny coverage to CEO or CCO under the D&O Insurance Policies on account of such subordination of any indemnification claim, then any indemnification claims by CEO or CCO shall not be so subordinated, but may be filed as an OpCo General Unsecured Claim.

CEO and CCO shall subordinate any and all rights and entitlements under the Cornerstone A-Side Management Liability Insurance Policy to Voyager Digital Ltd., Policy Number ELU184179-22, to any recovery by the Debtors and/or the Wind-Down Debtor on account of the Debtors' and/or Wind-Down Debtor's claims for the avoidance of the premium paid for the policy. For the avoidance of doubt, should coverage continue to be available under the Side-A Policy following resolution of the Debtors' and/or the Wind-Down Debtor's claims for the avoidance of the premium paid for the policy (whether by judgment or settlement or otherwise), CEO and/or CCO shall be entitled to seek coverage under the Side-A Policy. CEO and CCO shall remain at, and continue performing the responsibilities of, their respective position(s) with the Debtors and assist with the Debtors' transition for at least 30 days from entry of the Confirmation Order; provided that CCO shall have no obligation to remain at his position with the Debtors beyond January 15, 2023 and the CEO shall have the right to pursue and engage in any employment opportunity, business venture, consulting arrangement, or investment that may become available; provided, further, that both the CEO and CCO shall be available to the Debtors and/or the Wind-Down Debtor for a maximum of five hours per month for the one year following the Effective Date.

In the event that the sworn financial disclosure statements under penalty of perjury provided to the Debtors, the Special Committee and the Committee by CEO and CCO are later determined at any time by Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court or other court of competent jurisdiction to be materially inaccurate, (a) the limitations on recovery by the Wind-Down Debtor under this Article IV.G shall no longer apply, (b) any and all release, exculpation and injunction provisions in Article VIII of this Plan with respect to CEO and/or CCO (as applicable) shall be deemed null and void, (c) all Releasing Parties' rights with respect to the CEO and/or CCO (as applicable) shall be fully intact and preserved, (d) amounts paid by CEO shall not be repaid by the Wind-Down Debtor, and (e) any applicable statute of limitations shall be deemed tolled from the Petition Date to the date of entry of the order referenced above. The Wind-Down Debtor, as successor to the Debtors, shall have standing to bring a motion seeking relief pursuant to this Article IV.G.

Entry of the Confirmation Order shall be deemed approval of the D&O Settlement and, to the extent not already approved by the Bankruptcy Court, the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, are authorized to negotiate, execute, and deliver those documents necessary or appropriate to effectuate the D&O Settlement, without further notice or order of the Bankruptcy Court, act or action under applicable law, regulation, order or rule or vote, consent, authorization, or approval of any Person, subject to such modifications as the Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, the Committee, and the Special Committee may deem to be necessary to effectuate the D&O Settlement.

H. The Wind-Down Debtor

On the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Debtor shall be formed or converted into for the benefit of the Wind-Down Debtor Beneficiaries and each of the Debtors shall transfer the Wind-Down Debtor Assets for distribution in accordance with the terms of the Plan. The Confirmation Order shall be deemed to, pursuant to sections 363 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code, authorize, among other things, all actions as may be necessary or appropriate to effect any transaction described in, approved by, contemplated by, or necessary to effectuate the Plan.

1. Establishment of a Wind-Down Debtor

Pursuant to the Plan Administrator Agreement, the Wind-Down Debtor will be established, formed, merged, or converted. The Wind-Down Debtor shall be the successor-in-interest to the Debtors, and the Wind-Down Debtor shall be a successor to the Debtors' rights, title, and interest to the Wind-Down Debtor Assets. The Wind-Down Debtor will conduct no business operations and will be charged with winding down the Debtors' Estates. The Wind-Down Debtor shall be managed by the Plan Administrator and shall be subject to the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee. The Wind-Down Debtor shall be administered in accordance with the terms of the Plan Administrator Agreement and shall be subject to the Wind-Down Budget and the Non-Released D&O Claim Budget. For the avoidance of doubt, the Wind-Down Debtor shall not have any right or interest in any Cause of Action or Claim constituting an Acquired Asset. The Wind-Down Debtor shall be administered in a manner consistent with the SEC's published guidance on liquidating trusts.

Prior to the Effective Date, any and all of the Debtors' assets shall remain assets of the Estates pursuant to section 1123(b)(3)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code and on the Effective Date the Wind-Down Debtor Assets shall, subject to the Plan Administrator Agreement, be transferred to and vest in the Wind-Down Debtor. For the avoidance of doubt, to the extent not otherwise waived in writing, released, settled, compromised, assigned or sold pursuant to a prior order or the Plan, the Wind-Down Debtor specifically retains and reserves the right to assert, after the Effective Date, any and all of the Vested Causes of Action and related rights, whether or not asserted as of the Effective Date, and all proceeds of the foregoing, subject to the terms of the Plan, including without limitation Article IV.F and Article IV.G.

Pursuant to section 1123(b)(3)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code, only the Wind-Down Debtor and the Plan Administrator shall have the right to pursue or not to pursue, or, subject to the terms hereof and the Plan Administrator Agreement, compromise or settle any Wind-Down Debtor Assets transferred to the Wind-Down Debtor. On and after the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Debtor and the Plan Administrator may, without further Bankruptcy Court approval, commence, litigate, and settle any Vested Causes of Action or Claims relating to any Wind-Down Debtor Assets transferred to the Wind-Down Debtor or rights to payment or Claims that belong to the Debtors as of the Effective Date or are instituted by the Wind-Down Debtor and the Plan Administrator on or after the Effective Date, except as otherwise expressly provided herein and in the Plan Administrator Agreement. All of the Wind-Down Debtor's activities shall be subject to the Wind-Down Budget and the Non-Released D&O Claim Budget. The Wind-Down Debtor shall be entitled to enforce all defenses and counterclaims to all Claims asserted against the Debtors and their Estates, including setoff, recoupment and any rights under section 502(d) of the Bankruptcy Code.

The Wind-Down Debtor shall be deemed hereby substituted as plaintiff, defendant, or in any other capacity for the Debtors and the Committee, as applicable, in any Causes of Action pending before the Bankruptcy Court or any other court that relates to a Wind-Down Debtor Asset without the need for filing any motion for such relief. On the Effective Date, the Debtors and the Plan Administrator shall execute the Plan Administrator Agreement and shall have established the Wind-Down Debtor pursuant hereto. In the event of any conflict between the terms of this Article IV.H and the terms of the Plan Administrator Agreement, the terms of the Plan Administrator Agreement shall control.

2. Wind-Down Debtor Assets

Notwithstanding any prohibition on assignability under applicable non-bankruptcy law, on the Effective Date and thereafter if additional Wind-Down Debtor Assets become available, the Debtors shall be deemed, subject to the Plan Administrator Agreement, to have automatically transferred to the applicable Wind-Down Debtor all of their right, title, and interest in and to all of the Wind-Down Debtor Assets, in accordance with section 1141 of the Bankruptcy Code. All such assets shall automatically vest in the Wind-Down Debtor free and clear of all Claims, Liens, and other interests, subject only to the Allowed Claims and Interests as set forth herein and the expenses of the Wind-Down Debtor as set forth herein and in the Plan Administrator Agreement. Thereupon, the Debtors shall have no interest in or with respect to the Wind-Down Debtor Assets or the Wind-Down Debtor.

3. Treatment of Wind-Down Debtor for Federal Income Tax Purposes; No Successor-in-Interest

The Wind-Down Debtor shall be established for the primary purpose of liquidating and distributing the Wind-Down Debtor Assets transferred to it, in accordance with Treas. Reg. § 301.7701-4(d), with no objective to continue or engage in the conduct of a trade or business, except to the extent reasonably necessary to, and consistent with, the liquidating purpose of the Wind-Down Debtor. Accordingly, the Plan Administrator may, in an expeditious but orderly manner, liquidate the Wind-Down Debtor Assets, make timely distributions to the Wind-Down Debtor Beneficiaries and not unduly prolong its duration. The Wind-Down Debtor shall not be deemed a successor-in-interest of the Debtors for any purpose other than as specifically set forth herein or in the Wind-Down Debtor Agreement. The record holders of beneficial interests shall be recorded and set forth in a register maintained by the Wind-Down Debtor expressly for such purpose.

The Wind-Down Debtor is intended to qualify as a “grantor trust” for federal income tax purposes to the extent reasonably practicable, with the Wind-Down Debtor Beneficiaries treated as grantors and owners of the Wind-Down Debtor. However, with respect to any of the assets of the Wind-Down Debtor that are subject to potential disputed claims of ownership or uncertain distributions, or to the extent “liquidating trust” treatment is otherwise unavailable, the Debtors anticipate that such assets will be subject to disputed ownership fund treatment under Section 1.468B-9 of the Treasury Regulations, that any appropriate elections with respect thereto shall be made, and that such treatment will also be applied to the extent possible for state and local tax purposes. Under such treatment, a separate federal income tax return shall be filed with the IRS for any such account. Any taxes (including with respect to interest, if any, earned in the account) imposed on such account shall be paid out of the assets of the respective account (and reductions shall be made to amounts disbursed from the account to account for the need to pay such taxes).

4. Appointment of Plan Administrator

The Plan Administrator shall be selected by the Committee, in consultation with the Debtors, and shall be identified in the Plan Supplement. The appointment of the Plan Administrator shall be approved in the Confirmation Order, and the Plan Administrator’s duties shall commence as of the Effective Date. The Plan Administrator shall administer the distributions to the Wind-Down Debtor Beneficiaries and shall serve as a representative of the Estates under section 1123(b) of the Bankruptcy Code for the purpose of enforcing Vested Causes of Action belonging to the Estates that are not released, waived, settled, compromised, or transferred pursuant to the Plan and subject to the limitations set forth in the Plan, including Article IV.F and Article IV.G.

In accordance with the Plan Administrator Agreement, the Plan Administrator shall serve in such capacity through the earlier of (i) the date on which the Wind-Down Debtor is dissolved in accordance with the Plan Administrator Agreement, and (ii) the date on which a Plan Administrator resigns, is terminated, or is otherwise unable to serve; provided, however, that, in the event that a Plan Administrator resigns, is terminated, or is otherwise unable to serve, the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee shall appoint a successor to serve as a Plan Administrator in accordance with the Plan

Administrator Agreement. If the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee does not appoint a successor within the time periods specified in the Plan Administrator Agreement, then the Bankruptcy Court, upon the motion of any party-in-interest, including counsel to the Wind-Down Debtor, shall approve a successor to serve as a Plan Administrator.

5. Responsibilities of Plan Administrator

Responsibilities of the Plan Administrator shall be as identified in the Plan Administrator Agreement and shall include, but are not limited to:

- (i) protecting and enforcing the rights to the Wind-Down Debtor Assets (including any Vested Causes of Action and Contributed Third-Party Claims) vested in the Wind-Down Debtor and Plan Administrator by the Plan Administrator Agreement by any method deemed appropriate, including, without limitation, by judicial proceedings or otherwise;

- (s) calculating and making all Distributions to the holders of Allowed Claims against each Debtor and, solely to the extent of payment in full of Allowed Claims, to holders of Allowed Interests, as provided for in, or contemplated by, the Plan and the Plan Administrator Agreement; provided that because the Plan does not substantively consolidate the Debtors' Estates, the Plan Administrator shall make Distributions from the Wind-Down Debtor Assets to the holders of Claims and Interests (if applicable) against that specific Debtor;
- (t) establishing, administering, adjusting, and maintaining the Wind-Down Reserve and the Disputed Claims Reserve;
- (u) withholding from the amount distributable to any Person the maximum amount needed to pay any tax or other charge that the Plan Administrator has determined, based upon the advice of his agents or professionals, may be required to be withheld from such Distribution under the income tax or other laws of the United States or of any state or political subdivision thereof;
- (v) in reliance upon the Debtors' Schedules, the official Claims Register maintained in the Chapter 11 Cases and the Debtors' filed lists of equity security holders, reviewing, and where appropriate, allowing or objecting to Claims and (if applicable) Interests, and supervising and administering the commencement, prosecution, settlement, compromise, withdrawal, or resolution of all objections

- (y) seeking a determination of tax liability or refund under Bankruptcy Code section 505;
- (z) establishing reserves for taxes, assessments, and other expenses of administration of the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor as may be necessary and appropriate for the proper operation of matters incident to the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor;
- (aa) paying Wind-Down Debtor Expenses;
- (bb) if the Plan Administrator deems appropriate in the Plan Administrator's sole discretion, seeking to establish a bar date for filing proofs of Interest in any Debtor or otherwise to determine the holders and extent of Allowed Interests in any Debtor;
- (cc) purchasing and carrying all insurance policies that the Plan Administrator deems reasonably necessary or advisable and paying all associated insurance premiums and costs;
- (dd) undertaking all administrative functions remaining in the Chapter 11 Cases to the extent necessary to carry out the Debtors', the Wind-Down Debtor's, or the Plan Administrator's duties under the Plan, including reporting and making required payments of fees to the U.S. Trustee and overseeing the closing of the Chapter 11 Cases;
- (ee) retaining, terminating, appointing, hiring, or otherwise employees, personnel, management, and directors at any of the Debtors to the extent necessary to carry out the purposes of the Plan Administrator Agreement and the Plan, including, without limitation, to address any disputes between the Debtors;

6. The Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee

The Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee shall consist of those parties selected by the Committee and identified in the Plan Supplement, and which, at no time shall consist of greater than seven members.

The Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee shall have the responsibility to review and advise the Plan Administrator with respect to the liquidation and distribution of the Wind-Down Debtor Assets transferred to the Wind-Down Debtor in accordance herewith and the Plan Administrator Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, in advising the Plan Administrator, the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee shall maintain the same fiduciary responsibilities as the Plan Administrator. Vacancies on the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee shall be filled by a Person designated by the Plan Administrator, subject to the unanimous consent of the remaining member or members of the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee. The Plan Administrator shall have the authority to seek an order from the Bankruptcy Court removing or replacing members of the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee for cause.

7. Expenses of Wind-Down Debtor

The Wind-Down Debtor Expenses shall be paid from the Wind-Down Debtor Assets subject to the Wind-Down Budget and the Non-Released D&O Claim Budget.

8. Insurance; Bond

The Plan Administrator may obtain insurance coverage (in the form of an errors and omissions policy or otherwise) with respect to the liabilities and obligations of the Plan Administrator and the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee under the Plan Administrator Agreement. Unless otherwise agreed to by the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee, the Plan Administrator shall serve with a bond, the terms of which shall be agreed to by the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee, and the cost and expense of which shall be paid by the Wind-Down Debtor.

9. Fiduciary Duties of the Plan Administrator

Pursuant hereto and the Plan Administrator Agreement, the Plan Administrator shall act in a fiduciary capacity on behalf of the interests of all Holders of Claims and Interests that will receive distributions pursuant to Plan.

10. Termination of the Wind-Down Debtor

The Wind-Down Debtor will terminate on the earlier of: (a) (i) the final liquidation, administration and distribution of the Wind-Down Debtor Assets in accordance with the terms of the Plan Administrator Agreement and the Plan, and its full performance of all other duties and functions as set forth herein or in the Plan Administrator Agreement and (ii) the Chapter 11 Cases of the Debtors have been closed; or (b) the Plan Administrator determines in its reasonable judgment that the Wind-Down

Debtor lacks sufficient assets and financial resources, after reasonable collection efforts, to complete the duties and powers assigned to him or her under the Plan, the Confirmation Order and/or the Plan Administrator Agreement. After (x) the final distributions pursuant hereto, (y) the Filing by or on behalf of the Wind-Down Debtor of a certification of dissolution with the Bankruptcy Court, and (z) any other action deemed appropriate by the Plan Administrator, the Wind-Down Debtor shall be deemed dissolved for all purposes without the necessity for any other or further actions.

11. Liability of Plan Administrator; Indemnification

Neither the Plan Administrator, the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee, their respective members, employees, employers, designees or professionals, or any of their duly designated agents or representatives (each, a “Wind-Down Debtor Party” and collectively, the “Wind-Down Debtor Parties”) shall be liable for losses, claims, damages, liabilities or expenses in connection with the affairs of the Wind-Down Debtor or for the act or omission of any other Wind-Down Debtor Party, nor shall the Wind-Down Debtor Parties be liable for any act or omission taken or omitted to be taken pursuant to the discretion, powers and authority conferred, or in good faith believed to be conferred by the Plan Administrator Agreement or the Plan other than for specific acts or omissions resulting from such Wind-Down Debtor Party’s willful misconduct, gross negligence or actual fraud. Subject to the Plan Administrator Agreement, the Plan Administrator shall be entitled to enjoy all of the rights, powers, immunities and privileges applicable to a chapter 7 trustee, and the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee shall be entitled to enjoy all of the rights, powers, immunities and privileges of an official committee of unsecured creditors. The Plan Administrator or the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee may, in connection with the performance of its functions, and in its sole and absolute discretion, consult with its attorneys, accountants, financial advisors and agents, and shall not be liable for any act taken, omitted to be taken, or suffered to be done in accordance with advice or opinions rendered by such persons, regardless of whether such advice or opinions are provided in writing. Notwithstanding such authority, neither the Plan Administrator nor the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee shall be under any obligation to consult with its attorneys, accountants, financial advisors or agents, and their determination not to do so shall not result in the imposition of liability on the Plan Administrator, the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee, or their respective members and/or designees, unless such determination is based on willful misconduct, gross negligence, or actual fraud. The Wind-Down Debtor shall indemnify and hold harmless the Wind-Down Debtor Parties (in their capacity as such), from and against and in respect of all liabilities, losses, damages, claims, costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys’ fees, disbursements, and related expenses) that such parties may incur or to which such parties may become subject in connection with any action, suit, proceeding or investigation brought by or threatened against such parties arising out of or due to their acts or omissions, or consequences of such acts or omissions, with respect to the implementation or administration of the Wind-Down Debtor or the Plan or the discharge of their duties hereunder; provided, however, that no such indemnification will be made to such Persons for actions or omissions as a result of willful misconduct, gross negligence, or actual fraud. Persons dealing or having any relationship with the Plan Administrator shall have recourse only to the Wind-Down Debtor Assets and shall look only to the Wind-Down Debtor Assets to satisfy any liability or other obligations incurred by the Wind-Down Debtor or the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee to such Person in carrying out the terms of the Plan Administrator Agreement, and neither the Plan Administrator nor the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee, shall have any personal obligation to satisfy any such liability. The Plan Administrator and/or the Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee members shall not be liable whatsoever except for the performance of such duties and obligations as are specifically set forth herein, and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into the Plan Administrator Agreement against any of them. The Wind-Down Debtor shall promptly pay expenses reasonably incurred by any Wind-Down Debtor Party in defending, participating in, or settling any action, proceeding or investigation in which such Wind-Down Debtor Party is a party or is threatened to be made a party or otherwise is participating in connection with the Plan Administrator Agreement or the duties, acts or omissions of the Plan Administrator or otherwise in connection with the affairs of the Wind-Down Debtor, upon submission of invoices therefor, whether in advance of the final disposition of such action, proceeding, or investigation or otherwise. Each Wind-Down Debtor Party hereby undertakes, and the Wind-Down Debtor hereby accepts his or her undertaking, to repay any and all such amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined that such exculpated party is not entitled to be indemnified therefor under the Plan Administrator Agreement. The foregoing indemnity in respect of any Wind-Down Debtor Party shall survive the termination of such Wind-Down Debtor Party from the capacity for which they are indemnified.

12. No Liability of the Wind-Down Debtor

On and after the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Debtor shall have no liability on account of any Claims or Interests except as set forth herein and in the Plan Administrator Agreement. All payments and all distributions made by the Plan Administrator hereunder shall be in exchange for all Claims or Interests against the Debtors.

I. Sources of Consideration for Plan Distributions

Distributions under the Plan shall be funded by (i) the proceeds of Purchaser's payment obligations under Sections 2.1 and 2.2 of the Asset Purchase Agreement and distributions of Acquired Coins pursuant to Sections 6.12, and 6.14 of the Asset Purchase Agreement, (ii) the Wind-Down Debtor from the Wind-Down Debtor Assets; provided, however, that Allowed Professional Fee Claims shall be paid from the Professional Fee Escrow Account in the first instance. The Wind-Down Debtor Assets shall be used to pay the Wind-Down Debtor Expenses (including the compensation of the Plan Administrator and any professionals retained by the Wind-Down Debtor), and to satisfy payment of Allowed Claims and Interests as set forth in the Plan.

J. Corporate Existence and Dissolution

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, each Debtor shall continue to exist after the Effective Date as a separate corporate entity, limited liability company, partnership, or other form, as the case may be, with all the powers of a corporation, limited liability company, partnership, or other form, as the case may be, pursuant to the applicable law in the jurisdiction in which each applicable Debtor is incorporated or formed and pursuant to the respective certificates or articles of incorporation, certificates of formation, certificates of organization, or certificates of limited partnership and bylaws, operating agreements, limited liability company agreements, or limited partnership agreements (or other formation documents) in effect prior to the Effective Date, except to the extent such certificates or articles of incorporation, certificates of formation, certificates of organization, or certificates of limited partnership and bylaws, operating agreements, limited liability company agreements, or limited partnership agreements (or other formation documents) are amended pursuant to the Plan or otherwise, and to the extent such documents are amended, such documents are deemed to be amended pursuant to the Plan and require no further action or approval (other than any requisite filings under applicable state or federal law).

On and after the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Debtor will be authorized and directed to implement the Plan and any applicable orders of the Bankruptcy Court, and the Wind-Down Debtor shall have the power and authority to take any action necessary to wind down and dissolve the Debtors' Estates.

Upon a certification to be Filed with the Bankruptcy Court by the Plan Administrator of all distributions having been made and completion of all of its duties under the Plan and entry of a final decree closing the last of the Chapter 11 Cases, the Wind-Down Debtor shall be deemed to be dissolved without any further action by the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, including the Filing of any documents with the secretary of state for the state in which the Wind-Down Debtor are formed or any other jurisdiction. The Plan Administrator, however, shall have authority to take all necessary actions to dissolve the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor in and withdraw the Wind-Down Debtor from applicable states.

As soon as practicable after the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Debtor shall take such actions as the Wind-Down Debtor may determine to be necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of the Plan. Any certificate of dissolution or equivalent document may be executed by the Wind-Down Debtor on behalf of any Wind-Down Debtor without need for any action or approval by the shareholders or board of directors or managers of such Debtor. On and after the Effective Date, the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor (1) for all purposes shall be deemed to have withdrawn their business operations from any state in which the Debtors were previously conducting, or are registered or licensed to conduct, their business operations, and shall not be required to file any document, pay any sum, or take any other action in order to effectuate such withdrawal, (2) shall be deemed to have cancelled pursuant to this Plan all Interests, and (3) shall not be liable in any manner to any taxing authority for franchise, business, license, or similar taxes accruing on or after the Effective Date. Pursuant to the terms of this Plan, any Money Transmitter Licenses that have not been terminated shall be deemed withdrawn and no further action is required to be taken by the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor to effectuate such withdrawal; provided that, following the Effective Date, the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, shall use commercially reasonable efforts to comply with all state banking department requirements for the surrender of a Money Transmitter License. Nothing in this Plan shall be construed to limit the rights of creditors, Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, or regulators to pursue recoveries against surety bonds maintained by the Debtors in connection with this Money Transmitter Licenses. Notwithstanding such Debtors' dissolution, such Debtors shall be deemed to remain intact solely with respect to the preparation, filing, review, and resolution of applications for Professional Fee Claims.

K. Corporate Action

Upon the Effective Date, all actions contemplated under the Plan, Definitive Documents, and Asset Purchase Agreement shall be deemed authorized and approved in all respects, and, to the extent taken prior to the Effective Date, ratified without any requirement for further action by Holders of Claims or Interests, directors, managers, managing-members, limited or general partners, or officers of the Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor or any other Entity, including: (1) appointment of the directors, managers, members, and officers for the Wind-Down Debtor as provided herein; (2) the issuances, transfer, and distribution of the Wind-Down Debtor Assets; (3) the formation of the Wind-Down Debtor and appointment of the Plan Administrator and Wind-Down Debtor Oversight Committee; (4) the formation of any entities pursuant to and the implementation of the Plan and performance of all actions and transactions contemplated hereby and thereby; (5) the rejection, assumption, or assumption and assignment, as applicable, of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases; and (6) all other acts or actions contemplated by the Plan, Definitive Documents, and Asset Purchase Agreement or reasonably necessary or appropriate to promptly consummate the Restructuring Transactions (including effectuating the Restructuring Transactions Memorandum and the Customer Onboarding Protocol) (whether to occur before, on, or after the Effective Date). All matters provided for in the Plan, Definitive Documents, and Asset Purchase Agreement involving the corporate structure of the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, and any corporate action required by the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, in connection with the Plan shall be deemed to have occurred on, and shall be in effect as of, the Effective Date, without any requirement of further action by the security holders, directors, managers, or officers of the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable. On or, as applicable, prior to the Effective Date, the appropriate officers of the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, shall be authorized and, as applicable, directed to issue, execute, and deliver the agreements, documents, Securities, certificates of incorporation, certificates of formation, bylaws, operating agreements, and instruments contemplated under the Plan (or necessary or desirable to effect the transactions contemplated under the Plan) in the name of and on behalf of the Wind-Down Debtor, and any and all other agreements, documents, Securities, and instruments relating to the foregoing. The authorizations and approvals contemplated by this Article IV.K shall be effective notwithstanding any requirements under non-bankruptcy law.

L. Vesting of Assets in the Wind-Down Debtor

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, or in any agreement, instrument, or other document incorporated in the Plan, notwithstanding any prohibition of assignability under applicable non-bankruptcy law and in accordance with section 1141 of the Bankruptcy Code, on the Effective Date, all property constituting Wind-Down Debtor Assets, including all Vested Causes of Action of the Debtors (unless otherwise released, waived, compromised, settled, transferred, or discharged pursuant to the Plan), and any property acquired by any of the Debtors under the Plan shall vest in the Wind-Down Debtor, free and clear of all Liens, Claims, charges, or other encumbrances.

M. Cancellation of Notes, Instruments, Certificates, and Other Documents

On the later of the Effective Date and the date on which distributions are made pursuant to the Plan (if not made on the Effective Date), except for the purpose of evidencing a right to and allowing Holders of Claims and Interests to receive a distribution under the Plan or to the extent otherwise specifically provided for in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, or any agreement, instrument, or other document entered into in connection with or pursuant to the Plan or the Restructuring Transactions (including, without limitation, the Definitive Documents and the Asset Purchase Agreement), all notes, bonds, indentures, certificates, Securities, shares, purchase rights, options, warrants, collateral agreements, subordination agreements, intercreditor agreements, or other instruments or documents directly or indirectly evidencing, creating, or relating to any indebtedness or obligations of, or ownership interest in, the Debtors, giving rise to any Claims against or Interests in the Debtors or to any rights or obligations relating to any Claims against or Interests in the Debtors shall be deemed cancelled without any need for a Holder to take further action with respect thereto.

N. Effectuating Documents; Further Transactions

On and after the Effective Date, the Debtors, and its directors, managers, partners, officers, authorized persons, and members thereof, and the Wind-Down Debtor and Plan Administrator are authorized to and may issue, execute, deliver, file, or record such contracts, Securities, instruments, releases, and other agreements or documents and take such actions as may be necessary or appropriate to effectuate, implement, and further evidence the terms and conditions of the Plan, Definitive Documents, and Asset Purchase Agreement, in the name of and on behalf of the Debtors and Wind-Down Debtor, without the need for any approvals, authorizations, or consents except for those expressly required under the Plan.

O. Section 1146(a) Exemption

To the fullest extent permitted by section 1146(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, any transfers (whether from a Debtor to a Wind-Down Debtor, the Purchaser, or to any other Entity) of property under the Plan, Definitive Documents, and Asset Purchase Agreement or pursuant to: (1) the issuance, distribution, transfer, or exchange of any debt, equity security, or other interest in the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor; (2) the creation, modification, consolidation, termination, refinancing, and/or recording of any mortgage, deed of trust, or other security interest, or the securing of additional indebtedness by such or other means; (3) the making, assignment, or recording of any lease or sublease; or (4) the making, delivery, or recording of any deed or other instrument of transfer under, in furtherance of, or in connection with, the Plan, including any deeds, bills of sale, assignments, or other instrument of transfer executed in connection with any transaction arising out of, contemplated by, or in any way related to the Plan, including the Asset Purchase Agreement, shall not be subject to any document recording tax, stamp tax, conveyance fee, intangibles or similar tax, mortgage tax, real estate transfer tax, mortgage recording tax, sales or use tax, Uniform Commercial Code filing or recording fee, regulatory filing or recording fee, or other similar tax or governmental assessment, and upon entry of the Confirmation Order, the appropriate state or local governmental officials or agents shall forgo the collection of any such tax or governmental assessment and accept for filing and recordation any of the foregoing instruments or other documents without the payment of any such tax, recordation fee, or governmental assessment. All filing or recording officers (or any other Person with authority over any of the foregoing), wherever located and by whomever appointed, shall comply with the requirements of section 1146(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, shall forgo the collection of any such tax or governmental assessment, and shall accept for filing and recordation any of the foregoing instruments or other documents without the payment of any such tax or governmental assessment.

P. Preservation of Rights of Action

In accordance with section 1123(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Wind-Down Debtor shall succeed to all rights to commence and pursue any and all Vested Causes of Action of the Debtors, whether arising before or after the Petition Date, including, without limitation, any actions specifically enumerated in the Schedule of Retained Causes of Action other than Causes of Action released, waived, settled, compromised, or transferred. Such rights shall be preserved by the Debtors and Wind-Down Debtor and shall vest in the Wind-Down Debtor, with the Wind-Down Debtor's rights to commence, prosecute, or settle such Causes of Action preserved notwithstanding the occurrence of the Effective Date, other than the Causes of Action expressly released, waived, settled, compromised, or transferred by the Debtors pursuant to the releases and exculpations contained in the Plan, including in Article VIII of the Plan or pursuant to the Asset Purchase Agreement, which shall be deemed released and waived by the Debtors and Wind-Down Debtor as of the Effective Date.

The Wind-Down Debtor may pursue such Causes of Action, as appropriate, in accordance with the best interests of the beneficiaries of the Wind-Down Debtor and in accordance with the Plan Administrator Agreement and the Plan. No Entity may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Schedules of Assets and Liabilities or Statement of Financial Affairs, the Plan, the Plan Supplement, the Disclosure Statement, or the Schedule of Retained Causes of Action to any Cause of Action against it as any indication that the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, will not pursue any and all available Causes of Action of the Debtors against it. The Wind-Down Debtor, on behalf of the Debtors and the Wind-Down Debtor, expressly reserves all rights to prosecute any and all Causes of Action against any Entity, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, including Article VIII of the Plan. Unless any Cause of Action of the Debtors is expressly waived, relinquished, exculpated, released, compromised, or settled in the Plan or pursuant to a Final Order, the Wind-Down Debtor, on behalf of the Debtors and Wind-Down Debtor and in accordance with the Plan Administrator Agreement, expressly reserves all such Causes of Action for later adjudication, and, therefore, no preclusion doctrine, including the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, estoppel (judicial, equitable, or otherwise), or laches, shall apply to such Causes of Action upon, after, or as a consequence of Confirmation or Consummation.

The Wind-Down Debtor, on behalf of the Debtors, reserves and shall retain such Causes of Action of the Debtors notwithstanding the rejection or repudiation of any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease during the Chapter 11 Cases or pursuant to the Plan. In accordance with section 1123(b)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code, any Cause of Action that a Debtor may hold against any Entity shall vest in the Wind-Down Debtor, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, including Article VIII of the Plan. The Wind-Down Debtor, through their authorized agents or representatives, shall retain and may exclusively enforce any and all such Causes of Action. The Wind-Down Debtor shall have the exclusive right, authority, and discretion to determine and to initiate, file, prosecute, enforce, abandon, settle, compromise, release, withdraw, or litigate to judgment any such Causes of Action, or to decline to do any of the foregoing, without the consent or approval of any third party or any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court in accordance with the Plan.

Because aggregating all Contributed Third-Party Claims may enable the pursuit and settlement of such litigation claims in a more efficient and effective manner, each Holder of a Claim or Interest may agree, by electing on its ballot or opt-in form, to contribute its Contributed Third-Party Claims to the Wind-Down Debtor. By electing such option on its ballot or opt-in form, each Contributing Claimant agrees that, subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date and the formation of the Wind-Down Debtor, it will be deemed, without further action, (i) to have irrevocably contributed its Contributed Third-Party Claims to the Wind-Down Debtor, and (ii) to have agreed to execute any documents reasonably requested by the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor to memorialize and effectuate such contribution.

R. Contribution of Contributed Third-Party Claims

On the Effective Date, all Contributed Third-Party Claims will be irrevocably contributed to the Wind-Down Debtor and shall thereafter be Wind-Down Debtor Assets for all purposes. No Person may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan, the Disclosure Statement, the Confirmation Order, the Plan Administrator Agreement, the Plan Supplement, or any other document as any indication that the Wind-Down Debtor will or will not pursue any and all available Contributed Third-Party Claims against such Person. The Wind-Down Debtor shall have, retain, reserve, and be entitled to assert all Contributed Third-Party Claims fully to the same extent that the Contributing Claimants could have asserted such claims prior to the Effective Date. For the avoidance of doubt, the Contributed Third-Party Claims shall not include the rights of any of the Contributing Claimants to receive the distributions under the Plan on account of their Claims or Interests.

S. Closing the Chapter 11 Cases

On and after the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Debtor shall be permitted to classify all of the Chapter 11 Cases of the Debtors except for the Chapter 11 Case of Voyager Digital, LLC, or any other Debtor identified in the Restructuring Transactions Memorandum as having its Chapter 11 Case remain open following the Effective Date, as closed, and all contested matters relating to any of the Debtors, including objections to Claims or Interests and any adversary proceedings, may be administered and heard in the Chapter 11 Case of Voyager Digital, LLC, or any other Debtor identified in the Restructuring Transactions Memorandum as having its Chapter 11 Case remain open following the Effective Date, irrespective of whether such Claims or Interests were Filed or such adversary proceeding was commenced against a Debtor whose Chapter 11 Case was closed.

ARTICLE V.

TREATMENT OF EXECUTORY CONTRACTS AND UNEXPIRED LEASES

A. Assumption and Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases

On the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided herein, each Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease not previously rejected, assumed, or assumed and assigned, including any employee benefit plans, severance plans, and other Executory Contracts under which employee obligations arise, shall be deemed automatically rejected pursuant to sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code, unless such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease: (1) is specifically described in the Plan as to be assumed in connection with confirmation of the Plan, or is specifically scheduled to be assumed or assumed and assigned pursuant to the Plan or the Plan Supplement; (2) is subject to a pending motion to assume such Unexpired Lease or Executory Contract as of the Effective Date; (3) is to be assumed by the Debtors or assumed by the Debtors and assigned to another third party, as applicable, in connection with the Sale Transaction; (4) is a contract, instrument, release, indenture, or other agreement or document entered into in connection with the Plan; or (5) is a D&O Liability Insurance Policy other than the Side-A Policy. Entry of the Confirmation Order by the Bankruptcy Court shall constitute approval of such assumptions, assignments, and rejections, including the assumption of the Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases as provided in the Plan Supplement, pursuant to sections 365(a) and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code.

B. Preexisting Obligations to the Debtors Under Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases

Rejection of any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease pursuant to the Plan or otherwise shall not constitute a termination of preexisting obligations owed to the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, under such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease. Without limiting the general nature of the foregoing, and notwithstanding any non-bankruptcy law to the contrary, the Debtors and Wind-Down Debtor expressly reserve and do not waive any right to receive, or any continuing obligation of a counterparty to provide, warranties or continued maintenance obligations on goods previously purchased by the Debtors contracting from non-Debtor counterparties to any rejected Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease.

C. Claims Based on Rejection of Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases

Counterparties to Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases listed subject to rejection under the Plan shall be served with a notice of rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases with the Plan Supplement. Unless otherwise provided by a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court, all Proofs of Claim with respect to Claims arising from the rejection of Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases, pursuant to the Plan or the Confirmation Order, if any, must be Filed with the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent and served on the Debtors or Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, no later than thirty days after the date of entry of an order of the Bankruptcy Court (including the Confirmation Order) approving such rejection. Any Claims arising from the rejection of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease not Filed with the Bankruptcy Court within such time will be automatically disallowed, forever barred from assertion, and shall not be enforceable against the Debtors, or the Wind-Down Debtor, the Estates, or their property without the need for any objection by the Wind-Down Debtor or further notice to, or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court or any other Entity, and any Claim arising out of the rejection of the Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease shall be deemed released, and be subject to the permanent injunction set forth in Article VIII.D of the Plan, including any Claims against any Debtor listed on the Debtors' schedules as unliquidated, contingent, or disputed. All Allowed Claims arising from the rejection by any Debtor of any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease shall be treated as General Unsecured Claims in accordance with Article III.C of the Plan.

D. Cure of Defaults for Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases Assumed

The Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, or the Purchaser, as applicable pursuant to the Asset Purchase Agreement, shall pay Cures, if any, on the Effective Date. The Debtors shall provide notice of the amount and timing of payment of any such Cure to the parties to the applicable assumed Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases as part of the Plan Supplement. Unless otherwise agreed upon in writing by the parties to the applicable Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, all requests for payment of Cure that differ from the ordinary course amounts paid or proposed to be paid by the Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, or the Purchaser shall be dealt with in the ordinary course of business and, if needed, shall be Filed with the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent on or before thirty days after the Effective Date.

If any counterparty to an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease does not receive a notice of assumption and applicable cure amount, such counterparty shall have until on or before thirty days after the Effective Date to bring forth and File a request for payment of Cure. Any such request that is not timely Filed shall be disallowed and forever barred, estopped, and enjoined from assertion, and shall not be enforceable against any Debtor or the Wind-Down Debtor, without the need for any objection by the Wind-Down Debtor or any other party in interest or any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court. Any Cure shall be deemed fully satisfied and released upon payment by the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor or the Purchaser of the Cure in the ordinary course of business or upon and in accordance with any resolution of a Cure dispute (whether by order of the Bankruptcy Court or through settlement with the applicable Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease counterparty); provided, however, that nothing herein shall prevent the Wind-Down Debtor or the Purchaser, as applicable, from paying any Cure Claim despite the failure of the relevant counterparty to File such request for payment of such Cure. The Wind-Down Debtor or the Purchaser may also settle any Cure Claim without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court. In addition, any objection to the assumption of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease under the Plan must be Filed with the Bankruptcy Court on or before thirty days after the Effective Date. Any such objection will be scheduled to be heard by the Bankruptcy Court at the Debtors' first scheduled omnibus hearing for which such objection is timely Filed. Any counterparty to an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease that fails to timely object to the proposed assumption of any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease will be deemed to have consented to such assumption.

In the event of a dispute regarding: (1) the amount of any Cure Claim, (2) the ability of the Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, Purchaser, or any assignee to provide "adequate assurance of future performance" (within the meaning of section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code) under the Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease to be assumed (or assumed and assigned, as applicable), or (3) any other matter pertaining to assumption or assignment, then any disputed Cure payments required by section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code shall be made as soon as reasonably practicable following, and in accordance with, the entry of a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court resolving such dispute or as may be agreed upon by the Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, or Purchaser, as applicable, and the counterparty to the Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, and any such unresolved dispute shall not prevent or delay implementation of the Plan or the occurrence of the Effective Date.

Assumption of any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease pursuant to the Plan or otherwise or assignment of any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease to the Purchaser and full payment of any applicable Cure pursuant to this Article V.D, or upon and in accordance with any resolution of a Cure dispute (whether by order of the Bankruptcy Court or through settlement with the applicable Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease counterparty), shall result in the full release and satisfaction of any Cures, Claims, or defaults, whether monetary or nonmonetary, including defaults of provisions restricting the change in control or ownership interest composition or other bankruptcy-related defaults, arising under any assumed Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease at any time prior to the effective date of assumption. Any and all Proofs of Claim based upon Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases that have been assumed or assumed and assigned in the Chapter 11 Cases, including pursuant to the Confirmation Order, and for which any Cure has been fully paid pursuant to this Article V.D, in the amount and at the time in the ordinary course of business or upon and in accordance with any resolution of a Cure dispute (whether by order of the Bankruptcy Court or through settlement with the applicable Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease counterparty), shall be deemed disallowed and expunged as of the Effective Date without the need for any objection thereto or any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court. For the avoidance of doubt, in the event that any counterparty to an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease receives a notice of assumption and applicable proposed Cure amount, and disputes the Debtors' proposed Cure amount, such party shall not be required to File a Proof of Claim with respect to such dispute. Any counterparty to an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease that does not receive a notice or applicable proposed Cure amount, and believes a Cure amount is owed, shall have thirty days after the Effective Date to File a Proof of Claim with respect to such alleged Cure amount, which Claim shall not be expunged until such Cure dispute is resolved.

E. Insurance Policies

Each D&O Liability Insurance Policy (including, without limitation, any "tail policy" and all agreements, documents, or instruments related thereto) other than the Side-A Policy shall be assumed, in their entirety, without the need for any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court, as of the Effective Date, pursuant to sections 105 and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code with the Wind-Down Debtor being authorized to pursue any proceeds thereof on behalf of the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor. The Side-A Policy shall ride through these Chapter 11 Cases with the Debtors, and the Wind-Down Debtor preserves all avoidance and other actions in connection with the premium paid thereunder. All beneficiaries under the D&O Insurance Policies reserve their rights under such D&O Insurance Policies subject to the limitations set forth in this Plan.

The Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, shall not terminate or otherwise reduce the coverage under any D&O Liability Insurance Policy (including, without limitation, any "tail policy" and all agreements, documents, or instruments related thereto) in effect prior to the Effective Date, and any current and former directors, officers, managers, and employees of the Debtors who served in such capacity at any time before or after the Effective Date shall be entitled to the full benefits of any such policy for the full term of such policy subject to the terms thereof regardless of whether such directors, officers, managers, and employees remain in such positions after the Effective Date. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan, the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor shall retain the ability to supplement such D&O Liability Insurance Policy as the Debtors or Wind-Down Debtor may deem necessary, subject to the prior written consent of the Wind-Down Debtor. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Plan, the Wind-Down Debtor shall be entitled to pursue avoidance of the premium paid for the XL Specialty Insurance Company Cornerstone A-Side Management Liability Insurance Policy No. ELU184179-22, and nothing in this Plan shall be deemed a waiver or abrogation of any such rights.

The Debtors shall continue to satisfy their obligations under their insurance policies in full and continue such policies in the ordinary course of business. Each of the Debtors' insurance policies, and any agreements, documents, or instruments relating thereto shall be treated as Executory Contracts under the Plan. On the Effective Date: (a) the Debtors shall be deemed to have assumed all such insurance policies and any agreements, documents, and instruments relating thereto in their entirety; and (b) such insurance policies and any agreements, documents, or instruments relating thereto shall revert in the applicable Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor unaltered.

F. Reservation of Rights

Nothing contained in the Plan or the Plan Supplement (unless otherwise explicitly provided) shall constitute an admission by the Debtors or any other party that any contract or lease is in fact an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease or that any Debtor or the Wind-Down Debtor has any liability thereunder. If there is a dispute regarding whether a contract or lease is or was executory or unexpired at the time of assumption or rejection, the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, shall have forty-five days following entry of a Final Order resolving such dispute to alter their treatment of such contract or lease, including by rejecting such contract or lease effective as of the Confirmation Date.

G. Nonoccurrence of Effective Date

In the event that the Effective Date does not occur, the Bankruptcy Court shall retain jurisdiction with respect to any request to extend the deadline for assuming or rejecting Unexpired Leases pursuant to section 365(d)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code.

H. Contracts and Leases Entered into After the Petition Date

Contracts and leases entered into after the Petition Date by any Debtor, including any Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases assumed under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, will be performed by the applicable Debtor or Wind-Down Debtor liable thereunder in the ordinary course of its business. Such contracts and leases that are not rejected under the Plan shall survive and remain unaffected by entry of the Confirmation Order.

ARTICLE VI.

PROVISIONS GOVERNING DISTRIBUTIONS

A. Timing and Calculation of Amounts to Be Distributed

Except (1) as otherwise provided herein, (2) upon a Final Order, or (3) as otherwise agreed to by the Debtors, the Purchaser, or the Wind-Down Debtor, as the case may be, and the Holder of the applicable Claim, on the Effective Date or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter (or if a Claim is not an Allowed Claim on the Effective Date, on the next Distribution Date after such Claim becomes, as applicable, an Allowed Claim, or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter), each Holder of an Allowed Claim shall receive the full amount of distributions that the Plan provides for Allowed Claims in the applicable Class from the Distribution Agent. In the event that any payment or distribution under the Plan is required to be made or performed on a date that is not a Business Day, then the making of such payment or distribution may be completed on the next succeeding Business Day, but shall be deemed to have been completed as of the required date. Except as specifically provided in the Plan, Holders of Claims shall not be entitled to interest, dividends, or accruals on the distributions provided for in the Plan, regardless of whether such distributions are delivered on or at any time after the Effective Date.

B. Rights and Powers of Distribution Agent

1. Powers of the Distribution Agent

The Distribution Agent shall be empowered to: (a) effect all actions and execute all agreements, instruments, and other documents necessary to perform its duties and exercise its rights under the Plan; (b) make all distributions contemplated under the Plan; (c) employ professionals to represent it with respect to its responsibilities and powers; and (d) exercise such other powers as may be vested in the Distribution Agent by order of the Bankruptcy Court, pursuant to the Plan, or as deemed by the Distribution Agent to be necessary and proper to implement the provisions of the Plan.

From and after the Effective Date, the Distribution Agent, solely in its capacity as Distribution Agent, shall be exculpated by all Entities, including, without limitation, holders of Claims against and Interests in the Debtors and other parties in interest, from any and all Claims, Causes of Action, and other assertions of liability arising out of the discharge of the powers and duties conferred upon such Distribution Agent by the Plan or any order of the Bankruptcy Court entered pursuant to or in furtherance of the Plan, or applicable law, except for actions or omissions to act arising out of the gross negligence or willful misconduct, fraud, malpractice, criminal conduct, or ultra vires acts of such Distribution Agent. No holder of a Claim or Interest or other party in interest shall have or pursue any Claim or Cause of Action vested in a Distribution Agent by order of the Bankruptcy Court, pursuant to the Plan, or as deemed by such Distribution Agent to be necessary and proper to implement the provisions hereof.

2. Expenses Incurred on or after the Effective Date

Except as otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court, the amount of any reasonable fees and expenses incurred by the Distribution Agent on or after the Effective Date and any reasonable compensation and expense reimbursement claims (including reasonable attorney and/or other professional fees and expenses) made by such Distribution Agent shall be paid in Cash by the Wind-Down Debtor.

C. Delivery of Distributions and Undeliverable or Unclaimed Distributions

1. Distributions Generally

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan (including in paragraph 8 below), the Distribution Agent shall make distributions to Holders of Allowed Claims at the address for each such Holder as indicated on the applicable register or in the Debtors' records as of the date of any such distribution (as applicable), including the address set forth in any Proof of Claim filed by that Holder.

2. Distributions on Account of Obligations of Multiple Debtors

For all purposes associated with distributions under the Plan, all guarantees by any Debtor of the obligations of any other Debtor, as well as any joint and several liability of any Debtor with respect to any other Debtor, shall be deemed eliminated so that any obligation that could otherwise be asserted against more than one Debtor shall result in a single distribution under the Plan. Any such Claims shall be subject to all potential objections, defenses, and counterclaims, and to estimation pursuant to section 502(c) of the Bankruptcy Code.

3. Record Date of Distributions

On the Distribution Record Date, the various transfer registers for each Class of Claims or Interests as maintained by the Debtors or their respective agents shall be deemed closed, and there shall be no further changes in the record Holders of any Claims or Interests. The Distribution Agent shall have no obligation to recognize any transfer of Claims or Interests occurring on or after the Distribution Record Date. In addition, with respect to payment of any Cure amounts or disputes over any Cure amounts, neither the Debtors nor the Distribution Agent shall have any obligation to recognize or deal with any party other than the non-Debtor party to the applicable Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease as of the Effective Date, even if such non-Debtor party has sold, assigned, or otherwise transferred its Claim for a Cure amount.

4. Special Rules for Distributions to Holders of Disputed Claims and Interests

Notwithstanding any provision otherwise in the Plan and except as otherwise agreed to by the Wind-Down Debtor, on the one hand, and the Holder of a Disputed Claim or Interest, on the other hand, or as set forth in a Final Order, no partial payments and no partial distributions shall be made with respect to a Disputed Claim or Interest until all of the Disputed Claim or Interest has become an Allowed Claim or Interest or has otherwise been resolved by settlement or Final Order; provided that, if the Wind-Down Debtor does not dispute a portion of an amount asserted pursuant to an otherwise Disputed Claim or Interest, the Distribution Agent may make a partial distribution on account of that portion of such Claim or Interest that is not Disputed at the time and in the manner that the Distribution Agent makes distributions to similarly situated Holders of Allowed Claims or Interests pursuant to the Plan. Any dividends or other distributions arising from property distributed to Holders of Allowed Claims or Interests, as applicable, in a Class and paid to such Holders under the Plan shall also be paid, in the applicable amounts, to any Holder of a Disputed Claim or Interest, as applicable, in such Class that becomes an Allowed Claim or Interest after the date or dates that such dividends or other distributions were earlier paid to Holders of Allowed Claims or Interests in such Class.

5. De Minimis Distributions; Minimum Distributions

The Distribution Agent shall not make any Cash distributions to any Holder of an Allowed Claim or Interest pursuant to Article III.C.1-11 of this Plan on account of such Allowed Claim or Interest if such distribution is valued, in the reasonable discretion of the Distribution Agent, at less than $1.00, and each Holder of an Allowed Claim or Interest to which this limitation applies shall not be entitled to any distributions under the Plan. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Plan, there shall be no minimum distribution threshold on account of distributions of any Cryptocurrency to Holders of Allowed Account Holder Claims and Allowed OpCo General Unsecured Claims.

6. Undeliverable Distributions and Unclaimed Property

In the event that either (a) a distribution to any Holder is returned as undeliverable or (b) the Holder of an Allowed Claim or Interest does not respond to a request by the Debtors or the Distribution Agent for information necessary to facilitate a particular distribution, no distribution to such Holder shall be made unless and until the Distribution Agent has determined the then-current address of such Holder or received the necessary information to facilitate a particular distribution, at which time such distribution shall be made to such Holder without interest, dividends, or other accruals of any kind; provided that such distributions shall be deemed unclaimed property under section 347(b) of the Bankruptcy Code on the date that is one year after the Effective Date. After such date, all unclaimed property or interests in property shall revert to the Wind-Down Debtor automatically and without need for a further order by the Bankruptcy Court (notwithstanding any applicable local, state, federal, or foreign escheat, abandoned, or unclaimed property laws to the contrary), and the Claim or Interest of any Holder to such property or interest in property shall not be entitled to any distributions under the Plan.

7. Manner of Payment Pursuant to the Plan

At the option of the Distribution Agent, any Cash payment to be made hereunder may be made by check, wire transfer, automated clearing house, credit card, or as otherwise provided in applicable agreements.

8. Distributions of Net Owed Coins; Additional Bankruptcy Distributions

As a general matter, the Purchaser will allocate each Account Holder's Net Owed Coins to its account on the Binance.US Platform, and each Holder of OpCo General Unsecured Claim's Pro Rata share of the Distributable Cryptocurrency (in Cash) to its account on the Binance.US Platform in accordance with, and subject to, the provisions of Section 6.12 of the Asset Purchase Agreement.

Subject to the terms of the Asset Purchase Agreement, the Purchaser may make Additional Bankruptcy Distributions to Transferred Creditors, including Distributable OpCo Cash and/or other Wind-Down Debtor Assets, corresponding to their Pro Rata shares of such Additional Bankruptcy Distribution (if such Additional Bankruptcy Distribution is in Cryptocurrency, based on the Transferred Cryptocurrency Value of the Cryptocurrency included in such Additional Bankruptcy Distribution), all in accordance with any applicable Post-Bankruptcy Statement (as defined in the Asset Purchase Agreement).

If any Account Holder or Holder of an Allowed OpCo General Unsecured Claim does not become a Transferred Creditor prior to the date that is three (3) months following the later of the Closing Date or the date on which the terms and conditions for the Binance.US Platform are made available for such Person to accept (as provided in the Customer Onboarding Protocol), then Purchaser shall convert any Cryptocurrency allocable to such Person into U.S. Dollars at the then-prevailing rates (including applicable fees, spreads, costs and expenses) on the Binance.US Platform and deliver such U.S. Dollars, together with any cash or others assets in respect of such Persons, to the Debtors within five (5) Business Days, for further distribution by the Debtors in accordance with this Plan and the Customer Onboarding Protocol.

If any Account Holder or Holder of an Allowed OpCo General Unsecured Claim is located in an Unsupported Jurisdiction (as defined in the Asset Purchase Agreement), then the Net Owed Coins, Distributable Cryptocurrency (in Cash) and Additional Bankruptcy Distributions, if applicable, allocable to such Person shall be handled pursuant to Section 6.12(b) or, if applicable, Section 6.14(d) of the Asset Purchase Agreement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Asset Purchase Agreement, this Plan, or any Definitive Document, if any Account Holder or Holder of an Allowed OpCo General Unsecured Claim in an Unsupported Jurisdiction elects to not become a Transferred Creditor prior to the date that is three (3) months following the later of the Closing Date or the date on which the terms and conditions for the Binance.US Platform are made available for such Person to accept (as provided in the Customer Onboarding Protocol), then Purchaser shall on the date that is three (3) months following the later of the Closing Date or the date which the terms and conditions for the Binance.US Platform are made available for such person to accept, convert any Cryptocurrency allocable to such Person into U.S. Dollars at the then-prevailing rates (including applicable fees, spreads, costs and expenses) on the Binance.US Platform and deliver such U.S. Dollars, together with any cash or others assets in respect of such Persons, to the Debtors within five (5) Business Days, for further distribution by the Debtors in accordance with this Plan and the Customer Onboarding Protocol.

Purchaser shall have no responsibility to make any distributions other than as contemplated by Sections 6.12 and 6.14 of the Asset Purchase Agreement.

D. Compliance Matters

In connection with the Plan, to the extent applicable, the Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, any Distribution Agent, and any other applicable withholding and reporting agents shall comply with all tax withholding and reporting requirements imposed on them by any Governmental Unit, and all distributions pursuant to the Plan shall be subject to such withholding and reporting requirements. Notwithstanding any provision in the Plan to the contrary, the Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, the Distribution Agent, and any other applicable withholding and reporting agents shall be authorized to take all actions necessary or appropriate to comply with such withholding and reporting requirements, including wind-down a portion of the distribution to be made under the Plan to generate sufficient funds to pay applicable withholding taxes, withholding distributions pending receipt of information necessary to facilitate such distributions, or establishing any other mechanisms that are reasonable and appropriate; provided that the Wind-Down Debtor and the Distribution Agent, as applicable, shall request appropriate documentation from the applicable distributees and allow such distributees a reasonable amount of time to respond. The Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, the Distribution Agent, and any other applicable withholding and reporting agents reserve the right to allocate all distributions made under the Plan in compliance with all applicable wage garnishments, alimony, child support, and other spousal awards, liens, and encumbrances.

E. Securities Registration Exemption

To the extent that any Cryptocurrency (including VGX) is deemed to be a “security” (as defined in section 2(a)(1) of the Securities Act, section 101 of the Bankruptcy Code, or by any applicable laws of any Governmental Unit) by the SEC or any Governmental Unit, such Cryptocurrency to be offered, issued and distributed to Holders of Account Holder Claims or any other Holders of Claims hereunder, in each case in exchange for such Claims, shall be exempt, without any further act or action by any Entity, from registration under the Securities Act or any similar federal, state, or local law in reliance upon (i) section 1145 of the Bankruptcy Code (except with respect to an entity that is an “underwriter” as defined in subsection (b) of section 1145 of the Bankruptcy Code) or (ii) (including with respect to an entity that is an “underwriter”) pursuant to section 4(a)(2) under the Securities Act and/or Regulation D thereunder.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan, no entity may require a legal opinion regarding the validity of any transaction contemplated by the Plan, including, for the avoidance of doubt, whether the Cryptocurrency, to the extent deemed to be a “security” are exempt from registration.

F. ~~E.~~ Foreign Currency Exchange Rate

Except as otherwise provided in a Bankruptcy Court order, as of the Effective Date, any Claim, asserted in government issued currency (for the avoidance of doubt, not including any Cryptocurrency) other than U.S. dollars shall be automatically deemed converted to the equivalent U.S. dollar value using the exchange rate for the applicable currency as published in The Wall Street Journal, National Edition, on the Effective Date.

G. ~~F.~~ Claims Paid or Payable by Third Parties

1. Claims Paid by Third Parties

The Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, shall reduce a Claim or Interest, and such Claim or Interest (or portion thereof) shall be disallowed without an objection to such Claim or Interest having to be Filed and without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court, to the extent that the Holder of such Claim or Interest receives a payment on account of such Claim or Interest from a party that is not a Debtor or Wind-Down Debtor (or other Distribution Agent), as applicable, including any payments made in connection with the Sale Transaction. To the extent a Holder of a Claim or Interest receives a distribution on account of such Claim or Interest and receives payment from a party that is not a Debtor or a Wind-Down Debtor (or other Distribution Agent), including payments made in connection with the Sale Transaction, as applicable, on account of such Claim or Interest, such Holder shall, within ten Business Days of receipt thereof, repay, return, or deliver any distribution held by or transferred to the Holder to the applicable Wind-Down Debtor to the extent the Holder's total recovery on account of such Claim or Interest from the third party and under the Plan exceeds the amount of such Claim or Interest as of the date of any such distribution under the Plan. The failure of such Holder to timely repay, return, or deliver such distribution shall result in the Holder owing the applicable Wind-Down Debtor annualized interest at the Federal Judgment Rate on such amount owed for each Business Day after the ten-Business Day grace period specified above until the amount is repaid.

2. Claims Payable by Third Parties

No distributions under the Plan shall be made on account of an Allowed Claim or Interest that is payable pursuant to one of the Debtors' insurance policies until the Holder of such Allowed Claim or Interest has exhausted all remedies with respect to such insurance policy. To the extent that one or more of the Debtors' insurers agrees to satisfy in full or in part a Claim or Interest (if and to the extent adjudicated by a court of competent jurisdiction or otherwise settled), then immediately upon such payment, such Claim or Interest may be expunged or reduced on the Claims Register by the Claims, Noticing, and Solicitation Agent to the extent of any such payment without an objection to such Claim or Interest having to be Filed and without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

3. Applicability of Insurance Policies

Except as otherwise provided herein, payments to Holders of Claims or Interests shall be in accordance with the provisions of any applicable insurance policy. Nothing contained in the Plan shall constitute or be deemed a release, settlement, satisfaction, compromise, or waiver of any rights, defenses, or Cause of Action that the Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor or any other Entity may hold against any other Entity, including insurers, under any policies of insurance, agreements related thereto, or applicable indemnity, nor shall anything contained herein constitute or be deemed a waiver by such insurers of any rights or defenses, including coverage defenses, held by such insurers under the applicable insurance policies, agreements related thereto, and applicable non-bankruptcy law.

H. ~~G.~~ Setoffs and Recoupment

Except as otherwise expressly provided for herein, each Debtor, the Wind-Down Debtor, or such Entity's designee as instructed by such Debtor, the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, may, pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code (including section 553 of the Bankruptcy Code), applicable non-bankruptcy law, or as may be agreed to by the Holder of a Claim, set off against or recoup from an Allowed Claim and any distributions to be made pursuant to the Plan on account of such Allowed Claim, any Claims, rights, and Causes of Action of any nature whatsoever that the Debtor or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, may have against the Holder of such Allowed Claim, to the extent such Claims, rights, or Causes of Action have not been otherwise compromised, settled, or released on or prior to the Effective Date (whether pursuant to the Plan or otherwise). Notwithstanding the foregoing, except as expressly stated in Article VIII of this Plan, neither the failure to effect such a setoff or recoupment nor the allowance of any Claim pursuant to the Plan shall constitute a waiver or release by the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor of any such Claims, rights, or Causes of Action the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor may possess against such Holder.

I. ~~H.~~ Allocation between Principal and Accrued Interest

Except as otherwise provided herein, the aggregate consideration paid to Holders with respect to their Allowed Claims shall be treated pursuant to the Plan as allocated first to the principal amount of such Allowed Claims (to the extent thereof and as determined for federal income tax purposes) and second, to the extent the consideration exceeds the principal amount of the Allowed Claims, to the remaining portion of such Allowed Claim if any.

ARTICLE VII.

A. Disputed Claims Process

After the Effective Date, the Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, and any party-in-interest, shall have and retain any and all rights and defenses the applicable Debtor had with respect to any Claim or Interest immediately before the Effective Date. Except as expressly provided in the Plan or in any order entered in the Chapter 11 Cases before the Effective Date (including the Confirmation Order), no Claim or Interest shall become an Allowed Claim or Interest unless and until such Claim or Interest is deemed Allowed under the Plan or the Bankruptcy Code, or the Bankruptcy Court has entered a Final Order, including the Confirmation Order (when it becomes a Final Order), in the Chapter 11 Cases allowing such Claim or Interest. If a Holder of a Claim or Interest in Class disputes the amount of their Claim or Interest as listed in the Schedules, the Holder should notify the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor of such dispute. If the Debtors and the Holder agree to an amended Claim amount prior to the Effective Date, the Debtors shall file amended Schedules prior to the Effective Date. If between the Confirmation Date and the Effective Date, the dispute cannot be consensually resolved, the Holder may seek (by letter to the Court) to have the claim or interest dispute resolved before the Bankruptcy Court (and, with the consent of the Debtors, before any other court or tribunal with jurisdiction over the parties). After the Effective Date, the creditor may seek to have the claim dispute resolved before the Bankruptcy Court or any other court or tribunal with jurisdiction over the parties.

Notwithstanding anything in this Plan to the contrary: (1) all Claims against the Debtors that result from the Debtors' rejection of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease; (2) Claims filed to dispute the amount of any proposed Cure pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code; and (3) Claims that the Debtors seek to have determined by the Bankruptcy Court, shall in all cases be determined by the Bankruptcy Court, if not otherwise resolved through settlement with the applicable claimant.

On the Effective Date, the Debtors or Plan Administrator, as applicable, may establish one or more accounts or funds to hold and dispose of certain assets, pursue certain litigation (including the Causes of Action preserved under the Plan or otherwise vesting in the Wind-Down Debtor), and/or satisfy certain Claims (including Claims that are contingent or have not yet been Allowed). For any such account or fund, the Debtors or the Plan Administrator, as applicable, may take the position that grantor trust treatment applies in whole or in part. To the extent such treatment applies to any such account or fund, for all U.S. federal income tax purposes, the beneficiaries of any such account or fund would be treated as grantors and owners thereof, and it is intended, to the extent reasonably practicable, that any such account or fund would be classified as a liquidating trust under section 301.7701-4 of the Treasury Regulations. Alternatively, any such account or fund may be subject to the tax rules that apply to "disputed ownership funds" under 26 C.F.R. 1.468B-9. If such rules apply, such assets would be subject to entity-level taxation, and the Debtors and the Wind-Down Debtor would be required to comply with the relevant rules.

B. Objections to Claims or Interests

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan, after the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Debtor shall have the sole authority on behalf of the Debtors to: (1) File, withdraw, or litigate to judgment, any objections to Claims or Interests; and (2) settle or compromise any Disputed Claim or Interest without any further notice to or action, order, or approval by the Bankruptcy Court. For the avoidance of doubt, except as otherwise provided herein, from and after the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Debtor shall have and retain any and all rights and defenses each such Debtor had immediately prior to the Effective Date with respect to any Disputed Claim or Interest, including the Causes of Action retained pursuant to Article IV.P of the Plan. In the event that the Wind-Down Debtor settles or otherwise compromises the Signatory Governmental Claims (as defined in the Governmental Claimant Stipulation) asserted against TopCo, any other Claim Filed or asserted by a Governmental Unit against TopCo, or any other Claim Filed or asserted against TopCo in an amount greater than $100,000, any such proposed settlement or compromise shall require approval of the Bankruptcy Court after notice and a hearing.

Any objections to Claims or Interests shall be Filed on or before the Claims Objection Bar Date. For the avoidance of doubt, any party may object to any Claims or Interests prior to the Claims Objection Bar Date. Further, the Bankruptcy Court may extend the time period to object to Claims or Interests set forth in this paragraph at any time, including before or after the expiration of one hundred eighty days after the Effective Date, in its discretion or upon request by the Debtors or any party in interest.

C. Estimation of Claims

Before or after the Effective Date, the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, may (but are not required to), at any time, request that the Bankruptcy Court estimate any Disputed Claim or Interest that is contingent or unliquidated pursuant to applicable law, including pursuant to section 502(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, for any reason, regardless of whether any party previously has objected to such Disputed Claim or Interest or whether the Bankruptcy Court has ruled on any such objection, and the Bankruptcy Court shall retain jurisdiction under sections 157 and 1334 of the Judicial Code to estimate any such Disputed Claim or Interest, including during the litigation of any objection to any Disputed Claim or Interest or during the pendency of any appeal relating to such objection. Notwithstanding any provision otherwise in the Plan, a Disputed Claim or Interest that has been expunged from the Claims Register, but that either is subject to appeal or has not been the subject of a Final Order, shall be deemed to be estimated at zero dollars, unless otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court. In the event that the Bankruptcy Court estimates any contingent or unliquidated Claim or Interest, that estimated amount shall constitute a maximum limitation on such Claim or Interest for all purposes under the Plan (including for purposes of distributions) and may be used as evidence in any supplemental proceedings, and the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor may elect to pursue any supplemental proceedings to object to any ultimate distribution on such Claim. Notwithstanding section 502(j) of the Bankruptcy Code, in no event shall any Holder of a Disputed Claim or Interest that has been estimated pursuant to section 502(c) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise be entitled to seek reconsideration of such estimation unless such Holder has Filed a motion requesting the right to seek such reconsideration on or before fourteen days after the date on which such Disputed Claim or Interest is estimated.

D. No Distributions Pending Allowance

Notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan, if any portion of a Claim or Interest is a Disputed Claim or Interest, no payment or distribution provided hereunder shall be made on account of such Claim or Interest unless and until such Disputed Claim or Interest becomes an Allowed Claim or Interest; provided that if only a portion of a Claim or Interest is Disputed, such Claim or Interest shall be deemed Allowed in the amount not Disputed and payment or distribution shall be made on account of such undisputed amount.

E. Distributions After Allowance

To the extent that a Disputed Claim or Interest ultimately becomes an Allowed Claim, distributions (if any) shall be made to the Holder of such Allowed Claim or Interest in accordance with the provisions of the Plan. As soon as reasonably practicable after the date that the order or judgment of the Bankruptcy Court Allowing any Disputed Claim or Interest becomes a Final Order, the Distribution Agent shall provide to the Holder of such Allowed Claim or Interest the distribution (if any) to which such Holder is entitled under the Plan as of the Effective Date, without any interest, dividends, or accruals to be paid on account of such Allowed Claim or Interest unless required under applicable bankruptcy law.

F. No Interest

Unless otherwise specifically provided for herein or by Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court, postpetition interest shall not accrue or be paid on Claims against the Debtors, and no Holder of a Claim against the Debtors shall be entitled to interest accruing on or after the Petition Date on any such Claim. Additionally, and without limiting the foregoing, interest shall not accrue or be paid on any Disputed

Claim with respect to the period from the Effective Date to the date a final distribution is made on account of such Disputed Claim, if and when such Disputed Claim becomes an Allowed Claim.

G. Adjustment to Claims and Interests without Objection

Any Claim or Interest that has been paid, satisfied, amended, superseded, cancelled, or otherwise expunged (including pursuant to the Plan) may be adjusted or expunged on the Claims Register at the direction of the Wind-Down Debtor without the Wind-Down Debtor having to File an application, motion, complaint, objection, or any other legal proceeding seeking to object to such Claim or Interest and without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court. Additionally, any Claim or Interest that is duplicative or redundant with another Claim or Interest against the same Debtor may be adjusted or expunged on the Claims Register at the direction of the Wind-Down Debtor without the Wind-Down Debtor having to File an application, motion, complaint, objection, or any other legal proceeding seeking to object to such Claim or Interest and without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

H. Time to File Objections to Claims

Any objections to Claims shall be Filed on or before the Claims Objection Bar Date.

I. Disallowance of Claims or Interests

Any Claims or Interests held by Entities from which property is recoverable under sections 542, 543, 550, or 553 of the Bankruptcy Code or that is a transferee of a transfer avoidable under sections 522(f), 522(h), 544, 545, 547, 548, 549, or 724(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, shall be deemed disallowed pursuant to section 502(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, and Holders of such Claims may not receive any distributions on account of such Claims or Interests until such time as such Causes of Action against that Entity have been settled or a Bankruptcy Court order with respect thereto has been entered and all sums due, if any, to the Debtors by that Entity have been turned over or paid to the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable.

Except as otherwise provided herein or as agreed to by the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, any and all Proofs of Claim Filed after the Bar Date shall be deemed disallowed and expunged as of the Effective Date subject to the approval of the Bankruptcy Court, and Holders of such Claims may not receive any distributions on account of such Claims, unless such late Proof of Claim has been deemed timely Filed by a Final Order.

J. Amendments to Proofs of Claim

On or after the Effective Date, except as provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, a Proof of Claim or Proof of Interest may not be Filed or amended without the prior authorization of the Bankruptcy Court or the Wind-Down Debtor, and any such new or amended Proof of Claim or Proof of Interest Filed shall be deemed disallowed in full and expunged without any further action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

EFFECT OF CONFIRMATION OF THE PLAN

A. Releases by the Debtors

Notwithstanding anything contained in the Plan to the contrary, on and after the Effective Date, in exchange for good and valuable consideration, the adequacy of which is hereby confirmed, each Released Party is hereby conclusively, absolutely, unconditionally, irrevocably, and forever released and discharged by each and all of the Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, and their Estates, and in each case on behalf of themselves and their respective successors, assigns, and representatives, who may purport to assert any Cause of Action, directly or derivatively, by, through, for, or because of, the foregoing Entities, from any and all Causes of Action, including any derivative claims, asserted or assertable on behalf of any of the Debtors, whether known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, matured or unmatured, existing or hereafter arising, in law, equity, contract, tort, or otherwise, that the Debtors would have been legally entitled to assert in their own right (whether individually or collectively) or on behalf of the Holder of any Claim against, or Interest in, a Debtor, based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors (including the management, ownership, or operation thereof), their capital structure, the purchase, sale, or rescission of the purchase or sale of any Security of the Debtors, the subject matter of, or the transactions or events giving rise to, any Claim or Interest that is treated in the Plan, the business or contractual arrangements between any Debtor and any Released Party, the Chapter 11 Cases and related adversary proceedings, the Debtors' out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among a Debtor and another Debtor, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, filing, or consummation of the Definitive Documents or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Definitive Documents, the pursuit of consummation of the Plan, the administration and implementation of the Restructuring Transactions or upon any other act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence related to the Debtors taking place on or before the Effective Date.

Entry of the Confirmation Order shall constitute the Bankruptcy Court's approval, pursuant to section 1123(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 9019, of the releases described in this Article VIII.A by the Debtors, which includes by reference each of the related provisions and definitions contained in this Plan, and further, shall constitute the Bankruptcy Court's finding that each release described in this Article VIII.A is: (1) in exchange for the good and valuable consideration provided by the Released Parties; (2) a good-faith settlement and compromise of such Causes of Action; (3) in the best interests of the Debtors and all Holders of Claims and Interests; (4) fair, equitable, and reasonable; (5) given and made after due notice and opportunity for hearing; (6) a sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment; and (7) except to the extent contemplated by Article IV.E and Article IV.F of the Plan, a bar to any of the Debtors or Wind-Down Debtor or their respective Estates asserting any Cause of Action related thereto, of any kind, against any of the Released Parties or their property.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, nothing in this Plan shall release, waive, or otherwise limit the (i) rights, duties, or obligations of the Purchaser under the Asset Purchase Agreement or the Definitive Documents and (ii) the Non-Released D&O Claims, but such Non-Released D&O Claims shall remain subject to the limitations contained in Article IV.E and Article IV.F of this Plan.

B. Releases by Holders of Claims and Interests

Except as expressly set forth in the Plan, effective on the Effective Date, in exchange for good and valuable consideration, the adequacy of which is hereby confirmed, each Released Party is hereby conclusively, absolutely, unconditionally, irrevocably, and forever released and discharged by each and all of the Releasing Parties, in each case on behalf of themselves and their respective successors, assigns, and representatives, from any and all Causes of Action, whether known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, matured or unmatured, existing or hereafter arising, in law, equity, contract, tort, or otherwise, including any derivative claims asserted or assertable on behalf of any of the Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert in its own right (whether individually or collectively or on behalf of the Holder of any Claim against, or Interest in, a Debtor or other Entity), based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors (including the management, ownership, or operation thereof), their capital structure, the purchase, sale, or rescission of the purchase or sale of any security of the Debtors, the subject matter of, or the transactions or events giving rise to, any Claim or Interest that is treated in the Plan, the business or contractual arrangements between any Debtor and any Released Party, the Debtors' out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions between or among a Debtor and another Debtor, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation, filing, or consummation of the Definitive Documents or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Definitive Documents, the pursuit of consummation of the Plan, the administration and implementation of the Restructuring Transactions, or upon any other act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence related to the Debtors taking place on or before the Effective Date, provided that nothing in this Article VIII.B shall be construed to release the Released Parties from actual fraud, willful misconduct, or gross negligence as determined by a Final Order.

Entry of the Confirmation Order shall constitute the Bankruptcy Court's approval, pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019, of the releases described in this Article VIII.B, which includes by reference each of the related provisions and definitions contained in this Plan, and further, shall constitute the Bankruptcy Court's finding that each release described in this Article VIII.B is: (1) in exchange for the good and valuable consideration provided by the Released Parties; (2) a good-faith settlement and compromise of such Causes of Action; (3) in the best interests of the Debtors and all Holders of Claims and Interests; (4) fair, equitable, and reasonable; (5) given and made after due notice and opportunity for hearing; (6) a sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment; and (7) except to the extent contemplated by Article IV.F and Article IV.G of the Plan, a bar to any of the Releasing Parties or the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor or their respective Estates asserting any Cause of Action related thereto, of any kind, against any of the Released Parties or their property.

C. Exculpation

Effective as of the Effective Date, to the fullest extent permissible under applicable law and without affecting or limiting either the Debtor release or the third-party release, and except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan, no Exculpated Party shall have or incur, and each Exculpated Party is exculpated from any Cause of Action for any act or omission arising on or after the Petition Date and prior to the Effective Date based on the Chapter 11 Cases, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, negotiation or filing, or consummation of the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Special Committee Investigation, any Definitive Documents or any Restructuring Transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the Disclosure Statement or the Plan, the filing of the Chapter

11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of consummation of the Plan, the administration and implementation of the Plan, including the issuance of Securities pursuant to the Plan, or the distribution of property under the Plan or any other related agreement (including, for the avoidance of doubt, providing any legal opinion requested by any Entity regarding any transaction, contract, instrument, document, or other agreement contemplated by the Plan or the reliance by any Exculpated Party on the Plan or the Confirmation Order in lieu of such legal opinion), except for Causes of Action related to any act or omission that is determined in a Final Order of a court of competent jurisdiction to have constituted actual fraud, willful misconduct, or gross negligence, but in all respects such Entities shall be entitled to reasonably rely upon the advice of counsel with respect to their duties and responsibilities pursuant to the Plan; provided that nothing in the Plan shall limit the liability of professionals to their clients pursuant to N.Y. Comp. Codes R. & Regs. tit. 22 § 1200.8 Rule 1.8(h)(1) (2009).

To the extent that any Cryptocurrency is deemed to be a “security” by the SEC or any Governmental Unit, distribution of such Cryptocurrency shall have been done in good faith and in compliance with all applicable laws, rules, and regulations and the Exculpated Parties shall not be liable at any time for the violation of any applicable law, rule, or regulation governing the distribution of Cryptocurrency whether such Cryptocurrency is deemed to be a “security” or otherwise.

The Exculpated Parties have, and upon Consummation of the Plan shall be deemed to have, participated in good faith and in compliance with the applicable laws with regard to the solicitation of votes and distribution of consideration pursuant to the Plan and, therefore, are not, and on account of such distributions shall not be, liable at any time for the violation of any applicable law, rule, or regulation governing the solicitation of acceptances or rejections of the Plan or such distributions made pursuant to the Plan.

D. Injunction

The assets of the Debtors and of the Wind-Down Debtor shall be used for the satisfaction of expense obligations and the payment of Claims and Interests only in the manner set forth in this Plan and shall not be available for any other purpose. All Persons and Entities who have held, hold, or may hold Claims or Interests based upon any act, omission, transaction, or other activity of any kind or nature related to the Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, or the Debtors’ Chapter 11 Cases that occurred prior to the Effective Date, other than as expressly provided in the Plan or the Confirmation Order, shall be precluded and permanently enjoined on and after the Effective Date from interfering with the use and distribution of the Debtors’ assets in the manner contemplated by the Plan.

In addition, as of the Effective Date and subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date, except as otherwise specifically provided in this Plan or the Confirmation Order, all Persons and Entities who have held, hold, or may hold Claims or Interests that are fully satisfied pursuant to the Plan or any Claim or Interest that is subject to the releases and exculpations set forth in Article VIII.B and Article VIII.C of this Plan shall be precluded and permanently enjoined on and after the Effective Date from enforcing, pursuing, or seeking any setoff or relief with respect to such Claims or Interests, except for the receipt of the payments or distributions that are contemplated by this Plan.

E. Release of Liens

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Plan Supplement, or any contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created pursuant to the Plan or Confirmation Order on the Effective Date, and concurrently with the applicable distributions made pursuant to the Plan, all mortgages, deeds of trust, Liens, pledges, or other security interests against any property of the Estates shall be fully released, settled, compromised, and discharged, and all of the right, title, and interest of any holder of such mortgages, deeds of trust, Liens, pledges, or other security interests against any property of the Debtors shall automatically revert to the applicable Debtor or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, and their successors and assigns, in each case, without any further approval or order of the Bankruptcy Court and without any action or Filing being required to be made by the Debtors. Any Holder of such Secured Claim (and the applicable agents for such Holder) shall be authorized and directed to release any collateral or other property of any Debtor (including any cash collateral and possessory collateral) held by such Holder (and the applicable agents for such Holder), and to take such actions as requested by the Debtors or Wind-Down Debtor to evidence the release of such Lien, including the execution, delivery, and filing or recording of such documents evidencing such releases. The presentation or filing of the Confirmation Order to or with any local, state, federal, or foreign agency or department shall constitute good and sufficient evidence of, but shall not be required to effect, the termination of such Liens.

F. OSC and SEC

Notwithstanding any language to the contrary herein, no provision shall (a) preclude the OSC or the SEC from enforcing its police or regulatory powers; or (b) enjoin, limit, impair or delay the OSC or SEC from commencing or continuing any claims, causes of action, proceeding, or investigations against any non-Debtor person or non-Debtor entity in any forum.

G. Protection against Discriminatory Treatment

As provided by section 525 of the Bankruptcy Code, and consistent with paragraph 2 of Article VI of the United States Constitution, no Entity, including Governmental Units, shall discriminate against any Debtor or the Wind-Down Debtor or deny, revoke, suspend, or refuse to renew a license, permit, charter, franchise, or other similar grant to, condition such a grant to, or discriminate with respect to such a grant against, any Debtor or the Wind-Down Debtor, or any Entity with which a Debtor or the Wind-Down Debtor has been or is associated, solely because such Debtor or the Wind-Down Debtor was a debtor under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code, may have been insolvent before the commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases (or during the Chapter 11 Cases but before such Debtor was granted or denied a discharge), or has not paid a debt that is dischargeable in the Chapter 11 Cases.

H. Document Retention

Upon the occurrence of the Effective Date, the Debtors' books and records shall be transferred to the Wind-Down Debtor, which shall continue to preserve all financial books and records, emails, and other financial documents relating to the Debtors' business that are currently in the Debtors' possession. The Wind-Down Debtor shall not destroy or otherwise abandon any such documents or records without providing advance notice to the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (c/o Therese Scheuer, U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, 100 F Street, NE, Washington, DC 20549, ScheuerT@SEC.GOV) and seeking further authorization from this Bankruptcy Court. Nothing in this Plan or the Confirmation Order shall affect the obligations of the pre-Effective Date Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, and/or any transferee or custodian to maintain all books and records that are subject to any governmental subpoena, document preservation letter, or other investigative request from a governmental agency.

I. Reimbursement or Contribution

If the Bankruptcy Court disallows a Claim for reimbursement or contribution of an Entity pursuant to section 502(e)(1)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code, then to the extent that such Claim is contingent as of the time of allowance or disallowance, such Claim shall be forever disallowed and expunged notwithstanding section 502(j) of the Bankruptcy Code, unless prior to the Confirmation Date: (1) such Claim has been adjudicated as non-contingent; or (2) the relevant Holder of a Claim has Filed a non-contingent Proof of Claim on account of such Claim and a Final Order has been entered prior to the Confirmation Date determining such Claim as no longer contingent.

J. Term of Injunctions or Stays

Unless otherwise provided in the Plan or in the Confirmation Order, all injunctions or stays in effect in the Chapter 11 Cases pursuant to sections 105 or 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, or any order of the Bankruptcy Court, and extant on the Confirmation Date (excluding any injunctions or stays contained in the Plan or the Confirmation Order), shall remain in full force and effect until the Effective Date. All injunctions or stays contained in the Plan or the Confirmation Order shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with their terms.

ARTICLE IX.

CONDITIONS PRECEDENT TO THE EFFECTIVE DATE

A. Conditions Precedent to the Effective Date

It shall be a condition to the Effective Date that the following conditions shall have been satisfied or waived pursuant to Article IX.B of the Plan:

1. The Bankruptcy Court shall have entered the Confirmation Order, which shall be in a form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Debtors and the Committee, and subject to the consent rights of Purchaser under the Asset Purchase Agreement, and such order shall be a Final Order and in full force and effect.
2. The Debtors shall have obtained all authorizations, consents, regulatory approvals, rulings, or documents that are necessary to implement and effectuate the Plan, Definitive Documents, and the Asset Purchase Agreement.
3. Each Definitive Document and each other document contained in any supplement to the Plan, including the Plan Supplement and any exhibits, schedules, amendments, modifications or supplements thereto or other documents contained therein, shall have been executed or Filed, as applicable, in form and substance consistent in all respects with the Plan, and subject to the Purchaser's consent rights under the Asset Purchase Agreement, and shall not have been modified in a manner inconsistent therewith;
4. The Professional Fee Escrow Account shall have been established and funded with Cash in accordance with Article II.B.2 of the Plan.

5. The Wind-Down Reserve shall have been established and funded with Cash in accordance with the Plan.
6. If prior to the Outside Date, the Asset Purchase Agreement shall be in full force and effect and the Sale Transaction shall have been consummated.
7. The Restructuring Transactions shall have been consummated or shall be anticipated to be consummated concurrently with the occurrence of the Effective Date in a manner consistent with the Plan, the Customer Onboarding Protocol, the other Definitive Documents, and the Asset Purchase Agreement, and the Plan shall have been substantially consummated or shall be anticipated to be substantially consummated concurrently with the occurrence of the Effective Date.

B. Waiver of Conditions Precedent

The Debtors, with the consent of the Committee and, solely to the extent related to the Asset Purchase Agreement and the Sale Transaction, prior to the Outside Date, the consent of Purchaser, may waive any of the conditions to the Effective Date set forth in Article IX.A of the Plan at any time, without any notice to any other parties in interest and without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court, and without any formal action other than proceeding to confirm and consummate the Plan.

If the Effective Date does not occur within 120 days after the Confirmation Date, then the Plan will be null and void in all respects, any and all compromises or settlements not previously approved by Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court embodied in the Plan (including with respect to the fixing, limiting, or treatment of any Claim or Interest, including, without limitation, the Alameda Loan Facility Claims), shall be deemed null and void, and nothing contained in the Plan or the Disclosure Statement shall: (1) constitute a waiver or release of any Claims, Interests, or Causes of Action held by any Debtor or any other Entity; (2) prejudice in any manner the rights of any Debtor or any other Entity; or (3) constitute an admission, acknowledgment, offer, or undertaking of any sort by any Debtor or any other Entity in any respect.

ARTICLE X.

MODIFICATION, REVOCATION, OR WITHDRAWAL OF THE PLAN

A. Modification of Plan

Subject to the limitations and terms contained in the Plan and Purchaser's consent rights under the Asset Purchase Agreement, the Debtors, with the consent of the Committee, reserve the right to (1) amend or modify the Plan before the entry of the Confirmation Order, in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code and the Bankruptcy Rules and (2) after the entry of the Confirmation Order, the Debtors or the Wind-Down Debtor, as applicable, may, upon order of the Bankruptcy Court, amend or modify the Plan, in accordance with section 1127(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, to remedy any defect or omission, or reconcile any inconsistency in the Plan in such manner as may be necessary to carry out the purpose and intent of the Plan consistent with the terms set forth herein.

B. Effect of Confirmation on Modifications

Entry of the Confirmation Order shall constitute approval of all modifications or amendments to the Plan occurring after the solicitation thereof pursuant to section 1127(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and a finding that such modifications to the Plan do not require additional disclosure or resolicitation under Bankruptcy Rule 3019.

C. Revocation or Withdrawal of Plan

The Debtors reserve the right, with the consent of the Committee, to revoke or withdraw the Plan with respect to any or all Debtors before the Confirmation Date and to File subsequent chapter 11 plans. If the Debtors revoke or withdraw the Plan, or if Confirmation or the Effective Date does not occur, then: (1) the Plan will be null and void in all respects; (2) any settlement or compromise not previously approved by Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court embodied in the Plan (including the fixing or limiting to an amount certain of the Claims or Classes of Claims), assumption or rejection of Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases effectuated by the Plan, and any document or agreement executed pursuant to the Plan will be null and void in all respects; and (3) nothing contained in the Plan shall (a) constitute a waiver or release of any Claims, Interests, or Causes of Action by any Entity, (b) prejudice in any manner the rights of any Debtor or any other Entity, or (c) constitute an admission, acknowledgement, offer, or undertaking of any sort by any Debtor or any other Entity.

ARTICLE XI.

RETENTION OF JURISDICTION

Notwithstanding the entry of the Confirmation Order and the occurrence of the Effective Date, the Bankruptcy Court shall retain exclusive jurisdiction over all matters arising out of, or related to, the Chapter 11 Cases and the Plan pursuant to sections 105(a) and 1142 of the Bankruptcy Code, including jurisdiction to:

1. Allow, disallow, determine, liquidate, classify, estimate, or establish the priority, Secured or unsecured status, or amount of any Claim or Interest, including the resolution of any request for payment of any Administrative Claim and the resolution of any and all objections to the Secured or unsecured status, priority, amount, or allowance of Claims or Interests;

3. resolve any matters related to Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases, including:
(a) the assumption, assumption and assignment, or rejection of any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease to which a Debtor is party or with respect to which a Debtor may be liable and to hear, determine, and, if necessary, liquidate, any Cure Claims or other Claims arising therefrom, including pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code; (b) any potential contractual obligation under any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease that is assumed or assumed and assigned; and (c) any dispute regarding whether a contract or lease is or was executory, expired, or terminated;
4. ensure that distributions to Holders of Allowed Claims and Allowed Interests are accomplished pursuant to the provisions of the Plan and adjudicate any and all disputes arising from or relating to distributions under the Plan;

5. adjudicate, decide, or resolve any motions, adversary proceedings, contested or litigated matters, and any other matters, and grant or deny any applications involving a Debtor or the Estates that may be pending on the Effective Date;

6. enter and implement such orders as may be necessary or appropriate to execute, implement, or consummate the provisions of (a) contracts, instruments, releases, and other agreements or documents approved by Final Order in the Chapter 11 Cases and (b) the Plan, the Confirmation Order, and contracts, instruments, releases, and other agreements or documents created in connection with the Plan; provided that the Bankruptcy Court shall not retain jurisdiction over disputes concerning documents contained in the Plan Supplement that have a jurisdictional, forum selection, or dispute resolution clause that refers disputes to a different court;

7. enter and enforce any order for the sale of property pursuant to sections 363, 1123, or 1146(a) of the Bankruptcy Code;

8. grant any consensual request to extend the deadline for assuming or rejecting Unexpired Leases pursuant to section 365(d)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code;

9. issue injunctions, enter and implement other orders, or take such other actions as may be necessary or appropriate to restrain interference by any Entity with Consummation or enforcement of the Plan;

10. hear, determine, and resolve any cases, matters, controversies, suits, disputes, or Causes of Action in connection with or in any way related to the Chapter 11 Cases, including: (a) with respect to the repayment or return of distributions and the recovery of additional amounts owed by the Holder of a Claim or an Interest for amounts not timely repaid pursuant to Article VI of the Plan; (b) with respect to the releases, injunctions, and other provisions contained in Article VIII of the Plan, including entry of such orders as may be necessary or appropriate to implement such releases, injunctions, and other provisions; (c) anything that may arise in connection with the Consummation, interpretation, implementation, or enforcement of the Plan and the Confirmation Order; or (d) related to section 1141 of the Bankruptcy Code;

11. enter and implement such orders as are necessary or appropriate if the Confirmation Order is for any reason modified, stayed, reversed, revoked, or vacated;

12. adjudicate any and all disputes arising from or relating to distributions under the Plan or any transactions contemplated therein;

13. consider any modifications of the Plan, to cure any defect or omission, or to reconcile any inconsistency in any Bankruptcy Court order, including the Confirmation Order;

14. enforce all orders, judgments, injunctions, releases, exculpations, indemnifications, and rulings entered in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases with respect to any Entity, and resolve any cases, controversies, suits, or disputes that may arise in connection with any Entity's rights arising from or obligations incurred in connection with the Plan;

15. hear and determine matters concerning local, state, federal, and foreign taxes in accordance with sections 346, 505, and 1146 of the Bankruptcy Code;

16. hear and determine matters concerning exemptions from state and federal registration requirements in accordance with section 1145 of the Bankruptcy Code;

17. ~~16.~~ enter an order or Final Decree concluding or closing the Chapter 11 Cases;
18. ~~17.~~ enforce all orders previously entered by the Bankruptcy Court; and
19. ~~18.~~ hear and determine any other matters related to the Chapter 11 Cases and not inconsistent with the Bankruptcy Code or the Judicial Code.

Nothing herein limits the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court to interpret and enforce the Plan and all contracts, instruments, releases, and other agreements or documents created in connection with the Plan, or the Disclosure Statement, without regard to whether the controversy with respect to which such interpretation or enforcement relates may be pending in any state or other federal court of competent jurisdiction.

If the Bankruptcy Court abstains from exercising, or declines to exercise, jurisdiction or is otherwise without jurisdiction over any matter arising in, arising under, or related to the Chapter 11 Cases, including the matters set forth in this Article XI, the provisions of this Article XI shall have no effect on and shall not control, limit, or prohibit the exercise of jurisdiction by any other court having competent jurisdiction with respect to such matter.

Unless otherwise specifically provided herein or in a prior order of the Bankruptcy Court, the Bankruptcy Court shall have exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine disputes concerning Claims against or Interests in the Debtors that arose prior to the Effective Date.

ARTICLE XII.

All Claims against and Interests in the Debtors shall be as fixed, adjusted, or compromised, as applicable, pursuant to the Plan regardless of whether any Holder of a Claim or Interest has voted on the Plan.

B. Additional Documents

On or before the Effective Date, the Debtors may File with the Bankruptcy Court such agreements and other documents as may be necessary or appropriate to effectuate and further evidence the terms and conditions of the Plan. The Debtors, the Wind-Down Debtor, and all Holders of Claims and Interests receiving distributions pursuant to the Plan and all other parties in interest shall, from time to time, prepare, execute, and deliver any agreements or documents and take any other actions as may be necessary or advisable to effectuate the provisions and intent of the Plan.

D. Dissolution of Statutory Committees

On the Effective Date, any statutory committee appointed in the Chapter 11 Cases shall dissolve, and the members thereof shall be released and discharged from all rights and duties arising from, or related to, the Chapter 11 Cases; provided, however, that such committees will remain in existence for the limited purposes of (a) pursuing, supporting, or otherwise participating in, any outstanding appeals in the Chapter 11 Cases; and (b) filing, objecting, or otherwise participating in, any final fee applications of Professionals.

E. Reservation of Rights

Except as expressly set forth herein, the Plan shall have no force or effect unless the Bankruptcy Court shall enter the Confirmation Order, and the Confirmation Order shall have no force or effect if the Effective Date does not occur. None of the Filing of the Plan, any statement or provision contained in the Plan, or the taking of any action by any Debtor with respect to the Plan, the Disclosure Statement, or the Plan Supplement shall be or shall be deemed to be an admission or waiver of any rights of any Debtor with respect to the Holders of Claims or Interests, unless and until the Effective Date has occurred.

F. Successors and Assigns

The rights, benefits, and obligations of any Entity named or referred to in the Plan shall be binding on, and shall inure to the benefit of any heir, executor, administrator, successor or assign, Affiliate, officer, director, agent, representative, attorney, beneficiary, or guardian, if any, of each such Entity.

H. Entire Agreement; Controlling Document

Except as otherwise indicated, on the Effective Date, the Plan supersedes all previous and contemporaneous negotiations, promises, covenants, agreements, understandings, and representations with respect to the subject matter of the Plan, all of which will have become merged and integrated into the Plan; provided, however, that notwithstanding the foregoing or anything to the contrary herein, to the extent there is any conflict between the Plan and the Confirmation Order, on the one hand, and the Asset Purchase Agreement, on the other hand, the Asset Purchase Agreement shall govern solely in the event the Sale Transaction is consummated. Except as set forth in the Plan, in the event that any provision of the Disclosure Statement, the Plan Supplement, or any order (other than the Confirmation Order) referenced in the Plan (or any exhibits, schedules, appendices, supplements, or amendments to any of the foregoing), conflict with or are in any way inconsistent with any provision of the Plan, the Plan shall govern and control. In the event of any inconsistency between the Plan and the Confirmation Order, the Confirmation Order shall control.

I. Plan Supplement

All exhibits and documents included in the Plan Supplement are incorporated into and are a part of the Plan as if set forth in full in the Plan. ## J. Non-Severability

If, prior to Confirmation, any term or provision of the Plan is held by the Bankruptcy Court to be invalid, void, or unenforceable, the Bankruptcy Court, at the request of the Debtors, subject to the Purchaser's consent rights under the Asset Purchase Agreement prior to the Outside Date, shall have the power to alter and interpret such term or provision to make it valid or enforceable, consistent with the original purpose of the term or provision held to be invalid, void, or unenforceable, and such term or provision shall then be applicable as altered or interpreted. Notwithstanding any such holding, alteration, or interpretation, the remainder of the terms and provisions of the Plan will remain in full force and effect and will in no way be affected, impaired, or invalidated by such holding, alteration, or interpretation. The Confirmation Order shall constitute a judicial determination and shall provide that each term and provision of the Plan, as it may have been altered or interpreted in accordance with the foregoing, is: (1) valid and enforceable pursuant to its terms; (2) integral to the Plan and may not be deleted or modified without the Debtors' consent, consistent with the terms set forth herein; and (3) non-severable and mutually dependent.

K. Votes Solicited in Good Faith

P R O C E E D I N G S

THE COURT: Sorry for the delay.

MS. OKIKE: Good morning, Your Honor. Christine
 Okike of Kirkland & Ellis on behalf of the Debtors.

THE COURT: Good morning.

MS. OKIKE: Your Honor, I'm pleased to be before you on behalf of Voyager seeking confirmation of its Chapter 11 plan. Just as a matter of process, Your Honor, with the Court's permission, I'd like to lay out how we'd like to proceed today.

We propose starting with plan confirmation, followed by the various motions filed by pro se creditors, and Your Honor, in terms of the combined hearing I'd like to make a few opening remarks if you permit me and will save time for both the legal argument after presenting evidence.

THE COURT: Okay.

MS. OKIKE: After opening remarks, I propose then to move to the evidence. We would seek to admit the four declarations we filed in support of confirmation of the plan and will offer up the witnesses for cross and then we would move into argument if that's okay with Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. I have a number of questions for the parties and the objectors before we have evidence, just to clarify what it is we are going to need evidence on so that we're -- make sure that to the extent we need

1 evidence, we get it. I also think before we do anything
2 else, I do have a pending motion for me to recuse myself. I
3 ought to deal with that first, I think.

4 MS. OKIKE: Understood, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Is Mr. Shehadeh on the phone?

6 All right. He doesn't appear to be on the phone.
7 I've reviewed the motion which essentially says somewhat
8 correctly as a legal matter that if I have some reason that 9 gives rise to bias or lack of impartiality on my part that I
10 should recuse myself. I don't disagree with that legal 11 principle, but I don't believe that I have anything that 12 amounts to bias or a lack of impartiality in dealing with 13 this matter.

14 I understand Mr. Shehadeh is unhappy with one or 15 maybe more of my prior rulings in the case, but that's not 16 an indication of bias or lack of impartiality. So I'll deny
17 the motion to recuse myself and we can proceed with the rest
18 of the hearing.

19 MS. OKIKE: Thank you, Your Honor. Your Honor, 20 I'd just like to highlight a few points at the outset. Your 21 Honor, the plan has garnered overwhelming support from all
22 of the voting classes. Customers voted to approve the plan
23 with 97 percent in number or 59,183 customers out of 61,300
24 customers voting and 98 percent in amount representing 25 approximately 541 million out of 552 million of those

1 THE COURT: Am I remembering right that that's --

2 MS. OKIKE: And Your Honor, that --

3 THE COURT: That's higher than what you projected
4 as the recovery originally --

5 MS. OKIKE: We projected 51 percent under the 6 disclosure statement.

7 THE COURT: Okay.

8 MS. OKIKE: We also obviously have cross claims
9 against Alameda and release --

10 THE COURT: Right.

11 MS. OKIKE: -- substantial amount of collateral in 12 connection with the repayment of those loans, and so we 13 don't believe the full amount, even if they were successful,
14 would be an administrative claim.

15 THE COURT: I understand. Okay, sorry, I
16 interrupted you.

17 MS. OKIKE: No. So Your Honor, there's almost 18 $1.4 billion of value that is proposed to be distributed 19 under the Debtors' plan and there is much at stake for the 20 company and their customers today. Your Honor, our 21 understanding for Binance.US is that over 167,000 customers
22 which represent approximately 75 percent of the value on the 23 Debtors' platform have already signed up for the Binance.US
24 platform, representing approximately 1.2 billion in customer
25 claims.

1 actually voting.

2 And the plan has the support of the Committee of 3 Unsecured Creditors. General Unsecured Creditors also voted 4 overwhelmingly to accept the plan with approximately 75
5 percent in number and 100 percent in amount of OpCo general
6 unsecured claims, approximately 80 percent in number and 100
7 percent in amount of HoldCo general unsecured claims and 8 approximately 90 percent in number and 100 percent in amount 9 of TopCo general unsecured claims actually voting, voting in 10 favor.

11 Your Honor, the estimated recoveries are detailed 12 in the disclosure statement which was based off of crypto
13 prices as of December 19th, 2022, and the value of the 14 Debtors' crypto portfolio has increased significantly since 15 that time. As of February 27th, we anticipate that 16 customers will receive an estimated 73 percent recovery
17 under the sale transaction before accounting for any 18 recoveries on account of valuable claims that will remain
19 with the estate including claims against 3AC, Alameda, and 20 FTX.

21 THE COURT: And if Alameda and FTX were to succeed
22 on their preference, what would the recovery be?

23 MS. OKIKE: Your Honor, if Alameda, FTX were to 24 succeed on their preference, the recovery would be reduced,
25 I believe to 48 percent under the sale transaction.

1 Your Honor, we understand there has been a lot of 2 frustration expressed by a handful of customers, but having
3 lived with the company through this process, I can tell you
4 that the management team and employees have steadfastly
5 sought to do right by customers throughout these cases.
6 Your Honor, I won't recite the past but suffice it to say
7 that the Debtors were poised to exit Chapter 11 and 8 distribute value to stakeholders in early December, just 9 five months after commencing these cases, before FTX's
10 catastrophic collapse.

11 While we were shocked to witness FTX's collapse
12 and to subsequently learn that FTX appears to have been a
13 massive fraud, the Debtors and their advisors quickly
14 pivoted to evaluate alternative third-party transactions as 15 well as the liquidation transaction whereby the Debtors
16 would distribute crypto and cash to creditors on their own.

17 We spent about a month negotiating with parties
18 who expressed interest in the Debtors' assets and ultimately 19 determined that the bid put forth by BAM Trading Services
20 Inc. or Binance.US represented the best path forward to 21 maximize value. Your Honor, the Debtors' value the sale
22 transaction as of February 27th at approximately $1.363
23 billion, which is comprised of $1.34 billion of 24 cryptocurrency on the Debtors' platform plus an additional 25 $20 million of up-front consideration paid by Binance.US.

1 Your Honor, the Debtors believe that the sale
2 transaction provides the most value currently available for 3 the Debtors' assets and ultimately their stakeholders and 4 the fastest route to distributing such value to customers.
5 The sale transaction also provides the most tax efficient
6 path forward as Binance.US will enable users to access 100
7 percent of cryptocurrency coins on the Debtors' platform.

8 It includes the reimbursement by Binance.US of up
9 to 15 million of the Debtors' expenses in certain
10 circumstances and provides a 10 million reverse termination
11 fee payable to the Debtors by Binance.US to compensate the 12 Debtors' estates in the event they cannot consummate the 13 transaction. The sale transaction also provides for certain 14 other protections which are designed to minimize risk and to 15 protect customer distributions.

16 Your Honor, the sale transaction will effectuate
17 the expeditious sale of the Debtors' customer accounts to 18 Binance.US, provide a meaningful in-kind recovery to 19 creditors on the shortest timeline practical, and allow for 20 an efficient resolution to these Chapter 11 cases.

21 Following consummations of the sale transaction, the plan
22 provides for the orderly winddown of the debtor's estates.
23 Importantly, Your Honor, the plan allows the Debtors to 24 toggle to the liquidation transaction if the Debtors
25 determine in their business judgment that the sale

1 that the sale transaction or liquidation transaction if
2 applicable is in the best interests of the estate; that 3 creditors will receive more under the plan in either the 4 sale transaction or the liquidation transaction than in a
5 Chapter 7 liquidation; that customers in supported
6 jurisdictions and unsupported jurisdictions are receiving
7 equal treatment; and that the Debtors' releases are a sound
8 exercise of their business judgment; and importantly, Your 9 Honor, that the plan is feasible.

10 You'll have the testimony of Mr. Mark Renzi, a 11 managing director of Berkeley Research Group and financial 12 advisor to the Debtors regarding the primary confirmation
13 requirements for the plan, the Debtors' liquidation
14 analysis, the plan's feasibility, and the limitations,
15 risks, and costs with endeavoring to make in-kind
16 distributions to customers in unsupported jurisdictions.

17 The Debtors will put forth the testimony of Mr.
18 Brian Tichenor, a managing director of Moelis and Company
19 who will speak to the Debtors' sale process, the sale
20 transaction and liquidation transaction, and that the plan
21 was proposed in good faith.

22 The Debtors will offer in evidence the testimony
23 of Mr. Timothy Pohl, independent director and member of the 24 special committee of the board of Voyager Digital LLC,
25 regarding the special committee investigation, the special

1 transaction no longer is the best option.

2 Your Honor, the plan is a significant achievement.
3 It consensually resolves a number of highly complex issues
4 in a manner that is overwhelmingly supported by the voting
5 classes. The plan is in the best interests of the Debtors'
6 estates, is the best alternative for stakeholders, and 7 should be confirmed.

8 Your Honor, we believe we have resolved the 9 objections of the FTC, the Ad Hoc Group of Equity Holders,
10 and the Bank of New York Mellon. Only eight customers out
11 of more than one million and whose claims in aggregate total
12 approximately 500,000, objected to the plan and we will 13 address those objections in turn, but our view is that they 14 do not present obstacles to confirmation.

15 The remaining objections, Your Honor, are the SEC, 16 New York, Texas, New Jersey, and the U.S. Trustee. Your 17 Honor, it's pretty unusual in my experience to have 18 objectors that are not going to put forth any evidence. We 19 have a number of governmental entities -- the SEC, New York,
20 Texas, and New Jersey -- that have been complaining about 21 Binance.US and the sale transaction since the conditional
22 disclosure statement hearing back in January, but they have 23 taken no discovery and put forth no evidence in support of 24 their statements.

25 Uncontroverted evidence will be submitted today

1 committee's conclusions, and the D&O settlement and in 2 support of the Debtor releases. And the Debtors will also
3 offer into testimony, the testimony of Mr. -- sorry -- Ms.
4 Leticia Sanchez, a director at Stretto, who will speak to 5 the voting report.

6 Your Honor, while we expect some of the objectors
7 to cross the witnesses, there's absolutely no evidence in 8 support of their objections. So what are they asking the 9 Court to do? They're asking you to pick apart the plan
10 including the sale transaction to say let's just modify some 11 parts they don't like and we'll go with the rest of them.
12 But that's not the plan the Debtors are prosecuting. The 13 Debtors have exclusivity.

14 We've proposed this plan in good faith and it has 15 been resoundingly accepted by creditors and the objectors
16 can't pull out specific parts they don't like, especially in 17 this case where we have a highly complex transaction that 18 will need to be executed in either the sale transaction or 19 the liquidation transaction scenarios.

20 Your Honor, we'll have much more legal arguments
21 at the back at the end of the hearing, but wanted to just 22 provide these preliminary comments.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Can I just ask for some 24 clarifications of some things before I ask some other 25 questions? I see that you filed stipulations with FTX and

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

Alameda and also last night, a stipulation with various governmental entities. Are approvals of those contemplated today or at a different time and are they conditions to confirmation or not?

MS. OKIKE: Your Honor, they -- we are not seeking approval of either of those today. The stipulation with the governmental entities is purely consensual. They are agreeing to two things. They're agreeing, one, at the -- their claims that they had to the extent that they are allowed at the OpCo entity, will be subordinated to those general unsecured creditors at that entity and also account holders. And they're also agreeing that the claims that they filed at the Top entity and the HoldCo entity, to the extent that they are allowed and they receive a recovery on account of those claims, will be contributed to the benefit customers.

THE COURT: Isn't that gifting or a Jevic issue to contribute them only to that particular class, resulting in different recoveries for that class and the general unsecureds?

MS. OKIKE: Your Honor, they're entitled to those recoveries and I think they're entitled post effective date to give the recoveries to whoever they would like to.

THE COURT: Second Circuit says no. It says no gifting, doesn't it? Says if it's given up for the benefit a violation. And so, although they have said you can make the distributions, there's not the ability, my understanding is on the Binance.US platform, to restrict trading to specific types of cryptocurrency and so there is not the ability to effectuate what Texas was requesting.

Although we're still in discussions with them and hopefully to get to a conceptual resolution similar to Vermont, it's going to require a more creative solution than what they had proposed.

THE COURT: And where does Hawaii stand in all of this? They were unsupported jurisdiction. I haven't heard anything from them.

MS. OKIKE: Your Honor, our understanding is that Hawaii, there have been productive discussions with Hawaii and they are likely to follow Vermont. They were waiting to kind of, my understanding, is to see the resolution with Vermont, but we anticipate and I know Binance can speak to this a little bit better. We anticipate that they will sign on to that same structure.

THE COURT: Okay. And where do things stand as to how the VGX token will be treated?

MS. OKIKE: So Your Honor, the VGX token will be treated like all of our coins on the Debtors' platform. Those holders will be entitled to their pro rata distribution of VGX which they will be able to, you know, of the estate, it's got to be distributed in accordance with the bankruptcy priorities. If you think otherwise, just alerting you to -- I'm not going to rule on it today, but you need to address that as an issue for me.

MS. OKIKE: Understood, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. So the -- I saw that there's an amendment to the asset purchase agreement to preserve more preference claims and also as I understand it to make clear that Vermont is not going to be treated as an unsupported jurisdiction; is that correct?

MS. OKIKE: That's correct, Your Honor. We have reached an agreement with Vermont and we are hopeful that there may be other states as well of the remaining unsupported states who sign on to that, but Vermont will not be considered an unsupported jurisdiction.

THE COURT: You continue to treat Texas as having objected, but I thought from reading the Texas submission that they thought that you didn't need any more regulatory approval to do the -- at least the additional distributions that you contemplate.

MS. OKIKE: Your Honor, that's not exactly true. In Texas, they believe that stable coins are securities and so they would, I believe to the extent that stable coins were traded, which would potentially happen to the extent that people receive distributions, they consider that to be withdraw from the Binance platform. Binance.US has agreed to submit the VGX token through it's, you know, internal processes to see if it's approved to be listed on the exchange. We obviously don't know what the outcome of that will be, but just like any other customer, VGX holders will receive their pro rate distribution, will be able to remove that distribution from the platform.

THE COURT: So if I -- and I always want to double check my understanding of how this works. Customers' claims are based on values of tokens as of the filing date.

MS. OKIKE: Correct.

THE COURT: Customers' distributions will be in kind, but based on current dollar values of the various coins.

MS. OKIKE: Correct.

THE COURT: And so that everybody -- what everybody receives may be in different form, will be calculated as being the same proportion of their prepetition claim. So how will VGX be valued for purposes of distribution?

MS. OKIKE: It will be valued the same as all other coins. So it has a price. It's traded.

THE COURT: What is the current VGX price?

MS. OKIKE: Thirty-three cents, Your Honor.

THE COURT: And if Binance does not -- what's

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

1 that?

2 MS. OKIKE: Thirty-nine cents, Your Honor.

3 Apologies.

4 THE COURT: It's all right. If Binance does not
5 do what you hope it does to allow for the trading of VGX on 6 its platform, what happens to VGX?

7 MS. OKIKE: Yes. So there are smart contracts,
8 Your Honor, which underline the token and is really what 9 provides utility to the token. Those are not being sold to 10 Binance.US in the transaction. We are actively speaking 11 with third parties who are interested in purchasing the 12 smart contracts and I anticipate we likely will have a 13 transaction at some point for somebody who intends to 14 provide utility to the token going forward.

15 And so the value of the VGX token post-closing 16 will really be, you know, determined by the utility of the 17 token. I will say, you know, some of this stuff isn't 18 intuitive. I mean, we've seen huge rises in the price of 19 VGX over the past month or so, so you know, utility or no,
20 we don't really know what the price will be going forward.

21 THE COURT: Okay. I see there are changes that 22 have been made over the last week or so. Winddown entity
23 has been changed to the winddown Debtor. You'll have a plan
24 administrator now, and I see the winddown Debtor is actually
25 going to be HoldCo, not OpCo?

1 THE COURT: Go ahead. What is your question? I'm 2 sorry, whoever just said they wanted to ask a question, what
3 is your question?

4 Okay. We'll go back to my questions for the SEC.
5 You are?

6 MR. UPTEGROVE: Good morning, Your Honor. William 7 Uptegrove on behalf of the United States Securities and 8 Exchange Commission and with me is my colleague Therese 9 Scheuer.

10 THE COURT: Good morning. You've submitted an 11 objection that has a couple of parts and one part is that 12 you think that the contemplated transfers of 13 cryptocurrencies by Voyager may be illegal. I'm sort of 14 unaccustomed to getting objections that something may be 15 wrong as opposed to either is or isn't. So what exactly is 16 your position here? Are you saying that it is wrong or that 17 you don't know?

18 MR. UPTEGROVE: We're saying, Your Honor, that 19 there are risks inherent in transactions in any crypto asset
20 transactions. There are fact specific issues that go into 21 that. They're highly complex. And those risks are always 22 going to be apparent. On the issue of the securities laws, 23 the SEC is not taking a position on whether any of the 24 transactions in the plan are violative of the federal 25 security laws. We can't take a position at this point.

212-267-6868

Page 23

1 MS. OKIKE: That's correct, Your Honor. I mean,
2 these are changes that are really designed to preserve tax
3 attributes and make sure that the structure is as tax
4 efficient as possible. It's not designed to kind of change
5 the rights of any creditors with respect to distributions or 6 with respect to the intercompany claims disputes that are 7 unresolved.

8 THE COURT: Okay.

9 MS. OKIKE: And Your Honor, I didn't answer your 10 question with respect to FTX Alameda. We're not going 11 forward with that today. We filed that motion, I believe 12 it's -- don't know the date it's set for hearing, but in 13 accordance with the rules, we provided the appropriate
14 notice. We don't believe that's a bar to confirmation. It 15 really just deals with the value of distributions under the 16 plan.

17 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Thank you very much 18 for those clarifications. Before we actually get to 19 evidence, I just have some questions for some of the 20 objectors, okay?

21 MS. OKIKE: Yes, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: I want to start with the SEC. Are 23 they here?

24 MR. WARREN: Your Honor, this is Jon Warren, pro
25 se creditor. Had a quick question for you.

Page 25

1 The SEC is a deliberative body, Your Honor and its
2 processes a nonpublic one by federal law. And that process
3 is protected by a number of statutes. Just because private
4 litigation --

5 THE COURT: Deliberative is one thing. Absent is 6 another. I mean, how long has Voyager been around? How 7 long has it been selling the tokens that it's been selling?
8 How long has Binance been around? Come here and tell me
9 that you don't have any idea, but that I should stop
10 everybody in their tracks because you might have an issue
11 that you haven't gotten around to looking at; it's kind of a
12 weird objection, isn't it?

13 MR. UPTEGROVE: I don't think so, Your Honor. I
14 think that this happens. There's also the CFIUS review, 15 which is something similar, Your Honor. Do all regulatory 16 bodies have to stop everything they're doing when a private 17 party enters into a lawsuit or files a bankruptcy plan and 18 have to come to Court --

19 THE COURT: Well, it's hardly the bankruptcy
20 that's triggered your potential review of this, isn't it?
21 You're claiming that there might be things going on here for 22 years that may be in violation of the securities laws.
23 Deliberative is one thing. What have you done? Have you
24 looked at any of this? You're not willing to take a
25 position on any of it?

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

MR. UPTEGROVE: No, Your Honor, we're not taking any position on whether or not any transaction -- there are lots of transactions. There's the rebalancing transactions and there's the sale transactions and then there's going to be transactions after that. They all have, I think -- I don't recall the exact number, but there's something like over 100 cryptocurrencies or crypto assets, I believe on the -- were on the Voyager exchange.

All of those have different attributes, they all have to be viewed independently. And so whether something is a security or not is a complex issue. There's no facts before the Court today about any of those issues, nor does there need to be because it's not, you know, whether or something is a compliant, whether the plan or transactions contemplated in the plan are compliant with non-bankruptcy law is not the issue that needs to be decided today. At least the SEC doesn't need to provide a position. It's the -- and disclose its deliberative process in an open Court.

The issue today is whether or not the plan is confirmable. That's a burden that the Debtor has and we at the very least seek full disclosure about possible risks attendant to the transactions contemplated under the plan.

THE COURT: But you've also argued that the Debtor has to somehow prove a negative here, has to prove that every one of the transactions, every one of the

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions

come in here and say the Debtor should prove the impossible. The Debtor should somehow, without any guidance from you as to what issues you think the Debtor needs to prove, the Debtor should somehow prove that nothing that's going on here raises an issue under the securities laws without even a contention by anybody in the room, or at least not from you, that what the Debtor is doing does violate the securities laws. I just don't get how that's proper or how you would expect anybody to be able to comply with what you're asking.

What is it you -- how is the Debtor supposed to do what you're asking them to do? Are they supposed to give me a tutorial on all aspects of every coin that -- in which the Debtors -- that the Debtors might be selling here and try to think about every single possible argument you might make as to each individual coin, even though you don't have arguments about those coins? Is that what you're asking us to do today?

MR. UPTEGROVE: No, Your Honor, but we do believe there should be more disclosure than there is in the current disclosure statement and plan.

THE COURT: There is disclosure about regulatory risks, you know, and so, I don't know, you haven't been specific. All you've said vaguely is that there might be an issue. Well, that's pretty much what the Debtor said. I

212-267-6868

cryptocurrencies that it might be selling do not involve transactions in securities with no guidance from you at all as to what might constitute a security, which coins they have to do that proof on, why you think any of them are securities, and no indication at all of what legal or factual issues the testimony and argument today ought to address. How is that a proper objection?

MR. UPTEGROVE: Again, Your Honor, we are raising the issues. There are risks attendant to the transactions in the plan. We are in no position to be able to provide the facts you just talked about or issue an advisory opinion on whether or not any particular transaction complies with the security laws.

THE COURT: I'm not asking for your -- an advisory opinion. I'm asking you to either object or not object. What you've said is not really an objection. It's sort of like, hey, Judge, we don't know, so you shouldn't do anything. That's essentially what you've said.

MR. UPTEGROVE: And it's incumbent upon the Debtors to explain and disclose the potential risks of what would happen.

THE COURT: You know, when I have a regulator who's charged with protecting investors, they either think there's an issue or there's not. I expect them to come in and tell me there is or there isn't. I don't expect them to

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

don't know how they can be any more specific when you're standing here and you're not willing to be any more specific.

MR. UPTEGROVE: Your Honor, again, we can't take a position on whether or not a specific transaction is violative of the security laws. As we said, there may be risks. There are risks for sure and there may be violations of the securities laws. It's just not something that we believe is, you know, we need to opine on here.

THE COURT: But you've --

MR. UPTEGROVE: The burden is not on us.

THE COURT: But you have not just raised this as a disclosure issue. You have said that this somehow affects the feasibility of the plan and that I should deny confirmation. I should deny confirmation essentially because you might have some unspecified issue about which you cannot take any position today. That's essentially what you've asked me to do. How does that make sense?

MR. UPTEGROVE: We've also said the same thing about the CFIUS review is that's another thing that's out there that is very much like the potential violation of the securities laws that could impact the plan, the consummation of the plan. There's no disclosure about what will happen if there's a negative -- I have not seen disclosure, what would happen if the plan closed or the -- excuse me, the deal closed and there was a subsequent negative finding by CFIUS. I think it's a similar thing.

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions

THE COURT: I don't think it's similar at all. CFIUS review is triggered by this specific transaction. Your objection is based on stuff Voyager has been doing for years and stuff that Binance has been doing for years. I mean, are you standing here telling me that the SEC is going to challenge whether the Debtor is selling securities?

MR. UPTEGROVE: Not today, Your Honor, but there's --

THE COURT: Are you telling me that you're going to challenge whether Binance is acting as a securities broker?

MR. UPTEGROVE: Your Honor, with respect to Voyager, the Voyager entities, we've disclosed that there is an ongoing investigation involving Voyager. So that's an issue that has yet to be determined. Again, we're a deliberative body. There's no reason, no law that would require us to -- in fact, there's laws to the contrary that you know, that's a nonpublic process.

And as to other entities, you know, that's just not before the Court. That's not one of the issues that needs to be, you know, that the government has the burden to show.

THE COURT: Well, but you've said in your papers, securities laws.

212-267-6868

THE COURT: Why wouldn't Section 1145 of the Bankruptcy Code apply to the distributions contemplated under the plan?

MR. UPTEGROVE: I don't think that Debtor is invoking 1145. I don't think it would be -- they're not issuances. I don't believe 1145 applies, Your Honor.

THE COURT: You don't think any of these are -- the Debtor would be the issuer of the security?

MR. UPTEGROVE: I don't think they are. No, Your Honor. I think these are --

THE COURT: But in your footnote, that's exactly what you suggested as to VGX. My colleague, Therese Scheuer may want to address that.

MS. SCHEUER: Good morning, Your Honor. For the record, Therese Scheuer for the Securities and Exchange Commission. Your Honor, I don't believe the Debtors are seeking 1145 treatment for any of the distributions for the rebalancing. It has not been cited in their papers and it has not been briefed, to my knowledge.

THE COURT: Well, do the Debtors have to invoke it? Doesn't it just automatically apply?

MS. SCHEUER: There has to be showing it is a limited exemption from registration and there are particular requirements that must be met.

it's an issue that has to be proved. And yet at the same time, you want to just say the government takes no position.

MR. UPTEGROVE: Your Honor, we're not in a position to -- you said earlier that, you know, what could the Debtor say. They could say all types of things to prove or to show that notwithstanding whether there is a violation or there is not, that the plan is feasible. You could put on evidence about how you would exactly do it, what witnesses and what those witnesses would say and what exhibits. I cannot tell you that's not the SEC's role. That's the role of the Debtor to come in and say, Your Honor, this is the test for feasibility.

On the one hand, if there's no action by the SEC in the future, then there's no action by the SEC in the future. If there is one, this would be the possible ramifications and notwithstanding that, the plan is feasible.

THE COURT: The argument about whether transactions in particular cryptocurrencies are transactions in securities, are you making that argument only as to the rebalancing trades or as to the distributions that the Debtor would make under the plan?

MR. UPTEGROVE: I think that that's to be determined and any transaction in an asset that is a security, you know, would fall under the ambit of the

THE COURT: Well, that's exactly the argument you made, that VGX was somehow an unregistered security of the Debtors. So why wouldn't 1145 apply to that?

MS. SCHEUER: Your Honor, it hasn't been briefed and I don't believe that ----

THE COURT: What hasn't been briefed?

MS. SCHEUER: The 1145 issue has not been briefed. It's not -- I don't believe it's ripe for discussion today and I don't believe the Debtors included it in their papers.

THE COURT: All right. As to whether Binance is operating as a securities broker, are you saying that in performing the transactions contemplated by this plan, Binance might be operating as a securities broker or are you saying that it might be engaged in other activities that make it a securities broker?

MR. UPTEGROVE: Your Honor, other than what we said in our papers, we're not in position to expound upon what a particular entity, you know, may or may not have done and what the consequences legally are regarding that conduct.

THE COURT: Even if Binance were engaged in some other activity in some other context that arguably made it a securities broker, why would that affect its ability to do what we're contemplating here?

MR. UPTEGROVE: You know, as a hypothetical, Your

1 Honor, if it were found to be a unregistered exchange, there
 2 would be consequences to -- I'm not familiar with all the 3 consequences, but it would -- you know, potentially there's 4 registration. I mean, there's -- and I don't know the 5 answer to that because I'm -- although I work for the SEC, I
 6 am not an expert in that area. I think that the Debtor has 7 hired legions of lawyers and they probably do have experts
 8 in that area and they could address the issue as if, Binance
 9 worst case scenario, Binance is found to be a unregistered
 10 exchange, these would be the consequences and it wouldn't 11 have an impact on the plan.

12 THE COURT: Those people would just be opining
 13 about what you would likely do and what you would likely 14 insist on. How can they know more than you do about that?

15 MR. UPTGROVE: I don't think it's a matter of 16 knowing, Your Honor. It is facts and circumstances and I
 17 mean, I would think, you would do the same thing -- and you
 18 know, the tax realm is, you know, the Debtor makes 19 determinations about tax issues and then, you know, post
 20 plan, the IRS or a Court may have different views than the 21 Debtor, but that doesn't preclude the Debtor to the extent
 22 there is an issue that relates to the code or confirmation
 23 of addressing potential tax issues. We just addressed tax
 24 issues --

25 MR. SHEHADEH: Judge Wiles, I'm here to ask

Page 36

1 extend -- and these issues would not go away. Obviously
 2 that's the point I just made, but as to feasibility, you
 3 know, except to the extent there were parts of the self-
 4 degradation plan that were, you know, potentially violative
 5 of the law and the --

6 THE COURT: Well, on disclosure, I read -- reread
 7 the disclosure statement and it does say that there are 8 risks that we don't know what's going to happen with 9 regulation, that there is increasing regulation that could 10 affect the ability to close the deal. I don't see how I
 11 could in hindsight, say that the Debtors had to be more
 12 specific about those risks given what you're telling me
 13 today.

14 MR. UPTGROVE: It also may be the case, Your 15 Honor, that the plans confirm, you know, in a hypothetical
 16 world, plan is confirmed, the deal closes, and then, you
 17 know, again, we're not in a position to just to say this is 18 hypothetical, but then there's some action by the SEC or 19 another regulator or government body that has some impact
 20 that would -- so the toggles over feature is over.

21 They've toggled -- it toggles to the restructuring
 22 plan and then some action happens that requires the, you
 23 know, an additional reorganization and additional 24 liquidation because of the place the Debtor finds itself.
 25 So the toggle, you know, I'm not saying that -- I think part

212-267-6868

www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

1 (indiscernible), Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Who was talking there?

3 MR. SHEHADEH: I believe, Your Honor, you
 4 addressed me at 10:01. I was having technical issues. Now
 5 I'm able to speak.

6 THE COURT: Okay, but just wait. We're in the 7 middle of something else at the moment, okay? All right,
 8 we're talking to the attorney for the SEC. So you couched
 9 these objections in terms of feasibility. Feasibility is 10 just a shorthand way of referring to the provisions of 11 Section 1129(a)(11) which requires a showing that the plan
 12 is not likely to be followed by the liquidation or the need
 13 for further financial reorganization of the Debtor unless 14 such liquidation or reorganization is proposed in the plan.

15 So in this case, there is a toggle feature in the 16 plan under which the Debtors will switch to another approach
 17 if the Binance deal can't close within four months. So even 18 if you're right about all your objections and you surprise
 19 us all with regulatory actions that after confirming a deal,
 20 we suddenly can't close by -- that wouldn't actually be a 21 feasibility issue, would it? It would just mean the Debtor
 22 would talk to the other plan.

23 MR. UPTGROVE: It may, Your Honor, but I think
 24 there would still need to be at this juncture disclosure
 25 about the inherent risks of the transaction. And to the

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

Page 37

1 of our point is, it's not as if this all goes away at 2 confirmation. These are things that will continue and they 3 may continue after the toggle feature is no longer an 4 option.

5 THE COURT: Well, if the toggle feature is no
 6 longer an option, it would only mean that the Binance deal
 7 had already closed. So how does any of that affect the 8 feasibility of the plan if something were to come up at a
 9 later stage?

10 MR. UPTGROVE: I think at the very least, it
 11 would have ramifications for creditors. And I think the 12 test is -- maybe I'm misremembering it -- but it's that,
 13 that under 1129, that for feasibility that the restructuring
 14 will not be followed by, you know a further need for 15 liquidation. That could still happen after the closing.

16 THE COURT: Of this Debtor?

17 MR. UPTGROVE: Potentially, if --

18 THE COURT: This debtor will have already 19 liquidated. Okay. You also asked about whether the 20 disclosure statement has sufficient information about 21 Binance's controls, custody arrangements, and finances. The 22 SEC, the U.S. Trustee, Texas, and New York all made similar 23 arguments in that regard. And you argued that you think we 24 need to know if third parties have access to the keys, what 25 safeguards there are to stop assets from being transferred off the Binance.US platform, and a declaration from Binance about its internal controls. Are the Debtors going to offer evidence on any of these points today? Yes?

MR. UPTEGROVE: We intend to, Your Honor, yes.

THE COURT: Do you have any evidence on these points that you want -- or plan to offer today?

MR. SLADE: No, Your Honor, but it's not our burden.

THE COURT: You know, maybe not, but it's a disclosure issue and I'm absolutely shocked, I have to say, that a regulator would come in and say, I'm charged with regulatory authority over these things. These are reasons that I have concerns because they're within my regulatory jurisdiction, but I've done nothing. I have nothing to offer to you except questions, and my excuse for that is that it's somebody else's burden in the context of confirmation. That's incredible. Absolutely incredible.

So I'll hear whatever evidence the Debtor has, but you know, I get the feeling that this objection has been made as a kind of cover yourself, so you can say later that well see, we raised these issues, but you haven't really. You've done nothing. You know, I'm trying to do the right thing here. I would like to do the right thing. I don't want to subject customers to any risks. They've already been through a bankruptcy. I don't want to put them through

Okay? I understand the concerns, but at the same time, I'm in a position where we don't usually assume that buyers are bad actors. We don't usually assume that people are bad just because other people in an industry are bad. So if there are reasons to be concerned here and worried, I need to know specifics. So kind of telling me, gosh, there's lots of problems in this industry, so you better figure it out, Judge, without offering any help, is really disappointing.

Okay. So as to the United States Trustee, I just want to make -- thank you. As to the United States Trustee, you had an objection on disclosure about how the cryptocurrencies will be held before they're distributed. The Debtors, I thought we had resolved this when I -- at the time we approved the asset purchase agreement and the Debtors have made responses at Pages 78 through 79 with their memorandum in support of confirmation. Does that answer your questions or do we need anything further on that?

MR. MORRISSEY: Your Honor, Richard Morrissey for the U.S. Trustee, and before I begin, it's nice to see Your Honor in person after three years. The U.S. Trustee's objection generally had to do with disclosure in the disclosure statement itself so that the creditors could be fully informed about what they were signing onto with the any more issues.

But to stand here and tell me, Judge, you know, I'm not going to tell you what we're going to do, but it's your job and the Debtors' job to kind of guess and to make predictions, and you know, you better be right about it; that's really not helpful.

Okay. All right. So I'll hear whatever evidence we have on that. I have to say that the disclosure objections on this point, I'll hear argument later, but they don't really strike me as really disclosure issues. They strike me as substantive objections kind of masquerading as disclosure issues. They are more in the lines of not so much that the Debtor knows something that the Debtor didn't reveal as that well, the Debtor should be getting more information from Binance and should be getting more control information from Binance, and then should be disclosing it.

Well, that's really not so much an issue about the disclosures the Debtors have made as a question of, should the Debtors be doing more in the interests of customers before we go forward with the transaction. So I'll hear what people have to say about it. I'm concerned about these points, too. Anybody who's been following what's happening in this industry, who sees what happened with FTX, who sees the examiner's report about what was going on in Celsius, you have to be worried.

Binance transaction.

One of those aspects as Your Honor mentioned had to do with the protection of the cryptocurrency. What the disclosure statement said was essentially, it's protected. They -- I believe there was a link to a website and the creditors were invited to sort of look it up. And the Debtors did more than that. They also did their due diligence. Mr. Tichenor's declaration filed the other day went into the fact that they had done their due diligence and I believe the Committee did due diligence as well.

But the information should have been, the U.S. Trustee believes, should have been in the disclosure statement itself so that they could evaluate it. And we have a contrast, Your Honor, between this and what Voyager itself did in terms of describing the measures it took to protect the cryptocurrency.

As Your Honor will recall undoubtedly I know counsel for the Debtor will definitely recall, we had a long cash management process. A lot of time elapsed between the time the motion was originally filed and the time we finally got a final order on that, but the logjam was cleared by the declaration submitted by Voyager describing exactly what it was that the -- that Voyager was doing to protect the cryptocurrency.

And then the Committee, for its part, filed a

212-267-6868

www.veritext.com

statement basically supporting what they did. That stands in marked contrast to what the disclosure statement did. So I don't know what's going to be put forth today, Your Honor, on that and other disclosure issues but our argument was simply that if the creditors were going to be fully informed what it was that they were signing up for by voting in favor of the plan, there should have been more disclosure right there in the disclosure statement.

Your Honor, I know this is a little apart from the question and I can bring this up later if you want, just to add -- just a comment about the voting and the effect of certain things on recovery. If you'd like to hear it now, it's about one or two sentences on each thing.

THE COURT: About the voting?

MR. MORRISSEY: Yes. Your Honor, as Ms. Okike said, the voting was 97 percent number, et cetera, voted yes and that is true and that is also what is relevant in determining whether there is sufficient voting in favor of a plan for a plan to be confirmed. But to put the matter in some perspective, I believe -- and Ms. Okike can correct me if I'm wrong on this, but of the eligible creditors only 6 percent of them voted. So it's a small segment, but again, I understand of course, that under the Bankruptcy Code, the 97 percent number is the relevant number.

The other issue, Your Honor, has to do with what

Office on behalf of the Texas State Securities Board and the Texas Department of Banking. Your Honor, we are continuing to work with the Debtor and Binance to see if we can find a way that Texas citizens will not be treated as a nonconsenting jurisdiction. We're not there yet. We are continuing those discussions in good faith and we'll continue to do so.

Before we get started though, one thing I wanted to clarify is that the language that has been inserted at Paragraph 141 through 142, we are not in agreement with that language, Your Honor, the State of Texas isn't, but we are continuing through this hearing to discuss language that could be agreeable. I just wanted Your Honor to be aware of that. Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Paragraphs 142 of what, the confirmation order? Is that what you're talking about?

MS. RYAN: Yes. Yes, Your Honor, the confirmation order.

THE COURT: Okay. Well, as I've said many times, I tried to read everything, but I didn't get to the confirmation order because I ran out of gas. I did read everything else, but --

MS. RYAN: I understand running out of gas, Your Honor. And again, we'll continue to discuss this language with the Debtor throughout the hearing and hopefully we'll may affect recoveries. I believe Ms. Okike explained how the disposition of the Alameda issue may affect recoveries, but I believe there's something else which is intercompany transactions. And we have counsel here on that, not only Ms. Okike but Mr. Kirpalani as well and the result of the litigation concerning the intercompany transactions, I believe, can affect the distributions to creditors under the plan as well.

I don't know the numbers. Perhaps Ms. Okike does, but I just wanted to point those things out to the Court.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. MORRISSEY: Anything further, Your Honor?

THE COURT: Not at this stage. I may have questions for you later.

MR. MORRISSEY: Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: All right. I think we have an idea of what we need to do with the evidence, so unless there's further points that people want to raise before we go to the witnesses, we'll take the evidentiary submissions.

MS. RYAN: Your Honor, this is Abigail Ryan with the Texas Attorney General's Office. If I may be heard briefly?

THE COURT: Yes.

MS. RYAN: Thank you, Your Honor. Again for the record, Abigail Ryan with the Texas Attorney General's reach an agreement, but that's the status with Texas as of right now.

THE COURT: All right, thank you.

MS. RYAN: Thank you.

MR. SLADE: Good morning, Your Honor. Mike Slade, Kirkland & Ellis, for the Debtors. We filed our witness and exhibit list at Docket No. 1129 because we thought it would make it easier for people to follow the hearing and all of the exhibits that might be used are on the docket as well.

Our first witness just to get just out of the way, I would just like to offer our voting declaration, which is the declaration of Letty Sanchez, Exhibit 4 on our witness list. It's also on the docket at Docket No. 1127 and I would offer that declaration into evidence and Ms. Sanchez is here and available to cross examine.

THE COURT: This is the amended declaration?

MR. SLADE: That's correct, Your Honor.

THE COURT: All right. Are there any objections to the admission of the amended voting declaration into evidence? Does anyone wish to cross examine the declarant as to the substance of that declaration? Okay.

MR. NEWSOM: I would, Your Honor. Can I elaborate more on that amended, whatever, declaration? What is that basically saying?

THE COURT: I couldn't understand what you just

Page 46

1 said, I'm sorry.

2 MR. NEWSOM: Can they elaborate more on that, like
3 what is that explain, they're doing for us.

4 THE COURT: This is the declaration as to what the 5 ballot results were, how many people voted in favor of the 6 plan, how many people voted against the plan.

7 MR. NEWSOM: What about when -- what about the 8 people who didn't vote? Is that -- the people that didn't 9 vote, is that considered a yes in favor of it if they didn't 10 vote at all or --

11 THE COURT: Under the Bankruptcy Code, the plan is 12 deemed to be accepted if it is accepted by certain 13 percentage of the people who actually vote one way or the 14 other. Okay? So we only look at the people who actually
15 voted for or against, and if among those people, the plan
16 was accepted by the requisite percentages in number and 17 amount, then the plan is deemed to be accepted by that 18 class. Okay? So the fact that some people don't vote at 19 all under the Bankruptcy Code is a fact that's ignored.
20 Okay?

21 MR. NEWSOM: I don't find that to be -- I don't 22 find that to be fair voting, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Well --

24 MR. NEWSOM: -- the plan have to do -- what did
25 the plan have to do -- the opt-out release and what does it

1 winddown in effect at that time? That's not really right
2 now, you know, right now we --

3 MR. NEWSOM: Yeah, I would like to see a report if 4 they can revise a report as who voted yes and who voted no
5 and who didn't vote, if that's possible.

6 THE COURT: You want to see by name who voted?

7 MR. NEWSOM: I mean, they can redact that
8 information. They can say creditor one, creditor two,
9 creditor three, yes, no, yes, no (indiscernible).

10 THE COURT: It's actually already on --

11 MR. NEWSOM: (indiscernible).

12 THE COURT: It's already on file on the public
13 docket. There's a lengthy attachment --

14 MR. NEWSOM: Yeah, which was done by the Debtors.
15 Which was done by the Debtor, which we know we don't trust,
16 because, you know.

17 THE COURT: Okay. All right. I've heard your 18 objection. I'll admit the declaration into evidence. Is 19 there any cross examination of the declarant that anybody
20 wishes to do? Okay. Do you have other evidence from that 21 witness that you wish to offer?

22 (Declaration of Leticia Sanchez entered into 23 evidence)

24 MR. SLADE: No, Your Honor.

1 have to do with releasing third parties from any type of,
2 like, you know, charges or anything that would come about 3 later on?

4 THE COURT: Well, it actually has nothing to do --

5 MR. NEWSOM: Why --

6 THE COURT: It has nothing to do with the opt-out,
7 with the opt-in release. If somebody didn't vote, they're 8 not releasing their own claims unless they have separately
9 affirmatively elected to do so. And as to whether this way
10 of doing the voting is fair, I'm afraid you'll have to take 11 that up with Congress. It's not something I have any 12 control over. It's a very clear provision in the Bankruptcy
13 Code itself.

14 MR. NEWSOM: Are you going to (indiscernible) once
15 the plan, a voting plan (indiscernible)?

16 THE COURT: I'm sorry?

17 MR. NEWSOM: Why was there a plan when FTX
18 (indiscernible) and if that didn't go through, why was there
19 a winddown effect at that time?

20 THE COURT: Well, that's not really -- right now,
21 you know, right now we're not just kind of opening the floor
22 to general question. Right now, the question is whether 23 there's any objection to the admission of the declaration as 24 to what the voting results were. Okay? extra. I'm sorry.
25 Well, is there a plan when they're -- and go through, wasn't

1 MR. SLADE: Your Honor, our next witness, we would
2 call Mark Renzi. He's the financial advisor to the Debtors.
3 His declaration is Exhibit 1 on our witness list and we
4 would offer that. It's also on the docket at Docket No. 111
5 -- it's on the docket at 1119. We would offer that. Mr.
6 Renzi is here and available for cross examination.

7 THE COURT: All right. Are there any objection to 8 the admission of Mr. Renzi's declaration into evidence? All
9 right.

10 MR. HENDERSHOTT: Your Honor, Tracy Hendershott,
11 Your Honor, pro se creditor. Is there any way we can get a 12 continuation to be able to review all of these declarations?
13 There's literally hundreds of pages of documents that were 14 just submitted within 48 hours, unlike the professional
15 organizations, us creditors do not have an army of lawyers
16 to review all of this stuff and I thought the standards were 17 that we needed a week before any hearing of submission of 18 any type of documentation for us to digest, review, and 19 actually formulate questions and whether that's with 20 testimony or against the filings themselves.

21 MR. NEWSOM: I'm in support of that.

22 THE COURT: All right.

23 MR. HENDERSHOTT: This has been actually a trend,
24 Your Honor. Excuse me. Sorry. It's hard without visuals
25 of us being in person, but I don't intentionally mean

1 interrupt in any means, but this has actually been a trend
2 throughout this entire case starting right with the first
3 plan and disclosure meeting where the Debtors in Possession
4 submit almost 1,000 pages the day before. There's no way
5 that us as pro se creditors are able to digest that in any 6 form whatsoever. And that continues to this very day.

7 THE COURT: Counsel?

8 MR. NEWSOM: (indiscernible).

9 MR. SLADE: Your Honor, we did file Mr. Renzi's
10 declaration two days ago along with our reply, consistent 11 with the deadlines that were set by the Court on Tuesday and 12 if Mr. Renzi's declaration weren't admitted, we would be 13 calling him to testify and he would say the same things that 14 are in his declaration. So I don't think that's an 15 objection to the admission of the actual document, so we 16 would ask Your Honor to overrule the objection and admit the 17 declaration. And any questions they can ask of Mr. Renzi on 18 cross examination.

19 MR. HENDERSHOTT: Your Honor, I disagree. I've 20 had absolutely no time or ability within the 48 hours of 21 being flooded with, you know, numerous submissions to be 22 able to review and even intelligently ask a question. I
23 guess the question I'm asking, is there not a standard that 24 one week before the hearing is the cutoff for submission of 25 documentation to be discussed at that hearing?

1 objected matters, let's just go ahead and do that live.

2 Okay?

3 MR. SLADE: Happy to give it a shot, Your Honor.
4 I think one of the struggles as Your Honor experienced with 5 the two objectors that you spoke to, it's not entirely clear
6 what disputed issues are, but we will certainly give it a 7 shot.

8 THE COURT: Okay, so the declaration is admitted
9 as to compliance with various provisions of the Bankruptcy
10 Code that haven't been contested and to the extent that Mr.
11 Renzi has any testimony to offer on subjects of -- to which 12 objections have been posed, we'll hear that testimony.
13 Okay?

14 MR. NEWSOM: Your Honor, Dan Newsom, pro se
15 creditor. If you want to hear objections (indiscernible)
16 right now or are we doing that at a later time?

17 THE COURT: I'm sorry? Well, the objections --

18 MR. NEWSOM: Are you wanting to hear --

19 THE COURT: Objections have been filed. We're 20 taking evidence now. Mr. Renzi is about to testify.

21 MR. NEWSOM: Okay.

22 THE COURT: Okay? Mr. Renzi, do you swear that 23 the testimony you are about to give will be the truth, the 24 whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

25 THE WITNESS: Yes.

Page 51

1 THE COURT: No, there isn't. And most of the --
2 most of these declarations were filed in response to the 3 objections that were filed only a week before the hearing.

4 MR. HENDERSHOTT: Right, so there's no ability for 5 us to be able to review them and digest them and, you know,
6 be able to have a valid exchange of questions and answers
7 during this hearing. Again, we do not have an army of 8 professional lawyers to digest all these multiple 9 submissions. It puts the credits at a disadvantage and I'm 10 sure that's part of the strategy.

11 MR. NEWSOM: I agree. I'm in support of that 12 objection.

13 THE COURT: Okay. True. Okay. Why don't you put 14 Mr. Renzi on the stand, but you know, an awful lot of what's 15 in his declaration is about compliance with various 16 provisions of the Bankruptcy Code that is pretty obvious on 17 its face and that hasn't been contested. Don't really think 18 we need further evidence on that. So if there's points that 19 you wish to argue with Mr. Renzi based on disputed issues, 20 objected issues, let's offer that.

21 As to other points, to the extent that his 22 declaration is just a kind of confirmation of compliance
23 with provisions of the code that are not in dispute, I will 24 admit it on those points. But to the extent that is 25 anything in his declaration that deals with any of the

3 THE WITNESS: Mark Anthony Renzi.

4 THE COURT: Thank you. You may sit.

5 MR. SLADE: Your Honor, may I approach the witness
6 --

7 THE COURT: Yes. You don't need permission. You
8 can go ahead.

9 DIRECT EXAMINATION OF MARK RENZI

10 BY MR. SLADE:

11 Q Good morning, Mr. Renzi.

12 A Good morning.

13 Q Can you tell the Court and the folks on the phone what 14 you do and what your role is for the Debtors?

15 A So Mark Renzi. I'm a financial advisor to the Debtors.
16 I lead our financial institutions group at BRG. I've been 17 working with the company since the beginning of this 18 bankruptcy process.

19 Q Okay. I want to try to hit the, what I understand to 20 be contested issues as directed by the Court. The first one 21 I want to talk about is feasibility. Okay? Can you just 22 tell the Court what the plan does?

23 A Yep. The plan demonstrates that, number one, that we 24 have gone out and solicited all of our customers to vote on 25 the plan. It's -- demonstrates that it's in the best interests of creditors and it demonstrates that we have overwhelming support based on my understanding that was just admitted in terms of -- from Stretto.

Q Okay, can you just describe generally what are the transactions that are contemplated by the plan?

A The transaction contemplated by the plan is the sale of the assets to Binance.US and effectively doing that, you know, in short order by April. And that has been a maximizing value transaction that we've worked through with the company and the Unsecured Creditors Committee.

Q And if the transaction with Binance does not close, what happens under the plan?

A Under the plan, there's a provision for a toggle and that toggle into liquidation. And that has been heavily negotiated and it is a provision in case there are any contingencies. And most importantly, what I think the toggle does is it helps expedite any process to get cryptocurrency and assets back to customers.

Q Okay. So let's take each one of those in turn. I want to start with the Binance transaction. What role has your team played in diligencing the Binance transaction?

A You know, our team has worked alongside with the Debtors, our investment bank Moelis, and the company to make sure that we understand how the transaction works. We've worked specifically with Binance and their counsel to make

THE COURT: Let me interrupt --

MR. SHEHADEH: -- third parties.

THE COURT: Let me interrupt you, please. Who is making the objection? Whenever you speak, you need to identify yourselves or we won't have a record. Who is making the --MR. SHEHADEH: I'm sorry, Your Honor. Alah Shehadeh. Alah Shehadeh for the record, pro se creditor.

THE COURT: Just to be clear, when the witness is testifying, you can object on evidentiary grounds, right, if there's some reason under the rules of evidence why there's something wrong. But the fact that you disagree with what the witness says is not a ground for objection. That's a ground for argument at the end of the day. It's not a ground for objection to the witness's testimony. Okay?

MR. SHEHADEH: Well, I'm objecting, Your Honor, and there's facts behind my objection. It's not just my opinion.

THE COURT: But, okay, you'll have your chance to make your argument and if you have evidence you want to offer, to offer it. But to object to the witness' testimony is really something you can only do on evidentiary grounds. If the Debtor disagrees with you, they're entitled to put on their case and you can put your case on later, but it's not a ground to object to their evidence just that you disagree with it. Okay? Go ahead.

sure that we had an opportunity to diligence how it would go, how it would work, and then we also solicited third-party information, made sure we had incredibly good detail about the markets in cryptocurrency to make sure that this transaction made sense.

Q Okay. And based on your review, do you believe the transaction with Binance makes sense?

A I do.

Q Sitting here, based on what you know today, do you have any reservations about the Binance transaction?

MR. SHEHADEH: Objection.

THE COURT: What is the objection?

MR. SHEHADEH: I object that the plan makes no sense, Your Honor. It's not a better plan. There was no toggle liquidation in the beginning when there was supposedly a bidding war.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. SHEHADEH: -- between FTX and other companies.

THE COURT: All right, let me --

MR. SHEHADEH: If that -- if they want the best interest in the creditors, they should've just released our money when the FTX bid didn't go through. They would've saved millions and millions of dollars --

THE COURT: Let me --

MR. SHEHADEH: -- on counsel --

MR. SLADE: Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: The objection is overruled.

MR. SLADE: Thank you.

BY MR. SLADE:

Q Please describe for the Court why you're comfortable going forward with the Binance transaction based on what we know today?

A I'm comfortable with this transaction because number one, our team BRG has spent a significant amount of time diligencing this transaction. Number two, Moelis has got the same, they've diligenced this transaction extensively. Number three, the advisors Kirkland & Ellis has also diligenced a tremendous amount. Number four, FTI Consulting has also diligenced this transaction and then pressure tested this and they represent the Unsecured Creditor Committee and McDermott, Will and Emery has also done the same. So with the objectivity of counterparties that are protecting the customers and with the objectivity of independent parties that are representing the Debtors, I believe based on everything that I've seen that this is a fair plan and it's been well documented.

Q So you heard a couple of the regulators before you got on the stand testify about hypothetical potential regulatory options. Are you aware of those?

A I am. I've actually written about some of the

A-1077

1 regulations in cryptocurrency.

2 Q Okay. And in spite of those, do you still believe this

3 is in the best interests of the estate to go forward sitting

4 here today?

5 A Yes, I do.

6 Q Can you describe why?

7 A I think cryptocurrencies is an evolving asset class.

8 The regulatory overlay is still developing. I heard some of 9 the remarks that were made earlier in the Court here, but

10 there's nothing that I understand based on advice from and 11 counsel that precludes this transaction from going through.

12 Q Okay. Now I want to move to the toggle transaction.

13 Why is that part of the plan?

14 A I think the -- what we're trying to do, the Debtors,

15 the company, as well as its advisors, is to make sure that

16 to the extent that there's any reason that we're

17 uncomfortable with the transaction being consummated with 18 Binance.US, we have optionality to go convert it into a

19 toggle plan. And most importantly, it provides a path to 20 get crypto back to its customers as quickly as possible.

21 And we believe that that's very important.

22 Q Does the company currently have personnel on hand to do

23 the work needed for the toggle transaction if we decide to 24 toggle?

25 A Yes, it does.

1 about?

2 THE COURT: Is the State of Texas still raising a

3 best interests issue or have they been satisfied on that

4 point? Is the -- are the state's attorneys on the phone?

5 Is anybody on the phone --

6 MS. RYAN: Your Honor?

7 THE COURT: Thank you.

8 MS. RYAN: Your Honor, I apologize. This is Mrs.

9 Ryan with the State of Texas. I was having problems getting

10 unmuted. Could you repeat your question, Your Honor?

11 THE COURT: The question was, does -- Texas had

12 raised an issue about whether under the disclosure

13 statement, liquidation was a better option than the plan,

14 which is essentially a question of best interests as we call

15 it under the Bankruptcy Code. I understand the Debtors'

16 response was that if the -- if an Alameda or other event

17 changes the plan recoveries, it would have the same

18 proportionate effect on Chapter 7 recoveries.

19 My question is, do you still have an objection on 20 that point? Do we need any evidence on it or have you been 21 satisfied?

22 MS. RYAN: Your Honor, I do still have some

23 questions on that point to get some clarification. And so

24 when the time is appropriate, I can ask those.

25 THE COURT: Okay, why don't you go ahead, put your

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

1 Q Okay. And can you just describe for the Court what will

2 happen if we have to toggle to the toggle transaction?

3 A I mean, if we have to toggle from the Binance

4 transaction, the company is prepared and its personnel are

5 prepared to execute on the transaction to distribute

6 cryptocurrency to customers. It's important to do this. It

7 would be unfortunate because it would be a little less in

8 proceeds as I'm testifying here, but nonetheless, we have

9 the ability to do it and the personnel's ready to do it and

10 a plan to do it, if we had to.

11 Q Mr. Renzi, is the only reason to believe that if the 12 plan is confirmed, it's likely to be followed by further

13 liquidation or reorganization of the Debtors?

14 A Do you mind asking that question again?

15 Q Sure. Is there any reason to believe that if this plan

16 is confirmed there's going to be a likelihood of a need to 17 further reorganize or liquidate the Debtors --

18 A No.

19 Q -- in a way other than is described in the plan?

20 A No. I think the way it's described in the plan is 21 appropriate.

22 Q Thank you.

23 MR. SLADE: Your Honor, a clarification for you.

24 Do you view the liquidation analysis best interest test as a

25 matter that's in dispute and I need to inquire the witness

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

1 best interests case on.

2 MR. SLADE: Sure, Your Honor.

3 BY MR. SLADE:

4 Q Mr. Renzi -- and I want to talk about the best interest

5 test and liquidation analysis that your team did, okay?

6 A Sure.

7 Q You just describe for the Court what you did to 8 evaluate the plan versus a hypothetical Chapter 7

9 liquidation?

10 A So number one, the declaration is quite extensive on 11 this, but I'll do the short version. Essentially, what we

12 did is evaluate all of the assets that we have, so the 13 coins, and make sure that we understood, you know, what kind

14 of proceeds we could get for rebalancing the portfolio. We

15 looked at that systematically. We looked at that with, you

16 know, being able to test and call market participants in the 17 market and understand how to monetize these assets to 18 rebalance, to make distributions in kind.

19 That is a complicated process based on the way the 20 markets work in cryptocurrency. And so, having the ability

21 to do that is very important in the plan for the Binance

22 plan. If we have to do it for the toggle, it would -- we

23 also considered that under the toggle and both of those are 24 key for the plan. And then we evaluated how those proceeds

25 will flow through the waterfall of creditors, you know,

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

1 through the priority waterfall, and then down to account
2 holders. And so -- and then we juxtaposed that analysis,
3 that those two analyses against the liquidation. In a
4 liquidation, we believe that the ability to monetize these 5 assets is a little bit more problematic because these 6 markets are particularly complicated.

7 There are unsupported coins and monetizing unsupported
8 coins quickly is likely to have a very heavy discount. And 9 because of those factors, we believe that the proceeds that 10 we get under an immediate liquidation under a Chapter 7
11 would yield lower recoveries for customers. So I think in 12 general, to summarize at a high level that the plan has 13 higher recoveries for all three entities, legal entities,
14 versus a liquidation, a Chapter 7 liquidation, and that 15 satisfies the best interests of creditors test.

16 Q Is that true for all creditors?

17 A Yes.

18 Q Does it doesn't matter whether or not FTX prevails in 19 its litigation that it has initiated against the Debtors?
20 Does that make a difference for purposes of liquidation
21 analysis?

22 A No.

23 Q I want to turn now to the unsupported jurisdictions.
24 What does the plan provide with respect to the 4 out of 50
25 states that have not licensed Binance.US?

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

1 entire platform over the Binance, so in order for Voyager to 2 distribute to the three remaining states, they would have to 3 do it manually. In my opinion, 120,000 customers with over,
4 I believe, it's 106 coins, is incredibly problematic and 5 fraught with -- to do it manually. So I would be very 6 concerned if that was the path that we would have to take.

7 Q Can you just describe for the Court what some of the 8 risks would be?

9 A The risks, I mean, when you have a very well-developed
10 platform such as Binance.US, they have the ability to 11 understand, you know, KYC and AML issues to make sure that 12 there's a good record keeping. That platform can be -- you
13 know, track all of that very well. I think a manual process
14 is very labor intensive. I don't think it's easy to check, 15 KYC and AML issues for making distributions. Those are some 16 of the issues that I would have if it had to be done
17 manually.

18 MR. SHEHADEH: Your Honor, I'd like to object to 19 that because if you look at Binance's asset shuffling, it's 20 very similar to FTX and this is by (indiscernible), Your 21 Honor. Summarizing Binance's, ongoing lies and deception
22 with the (indiscernible) financial transparency, comingling
23 customers' funds, (indiscernible) assets. So you wanted to 24 (indiscernible), then they have liquidity issues and then 25 they file for bankruptcy. Then what happens next? Is that

www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

1 A I was under the impression now it's three, but wanted
2 to confirm that, Your Honor.

3 Q So what does the plan provide for those customers?

4 A So the plan provides for a period of time for the three
5 states that remain to be able to have distributions in kind
6 for customers. I think effectively all customers are 7 treated on a pari passu basis with equal footing and they 8 will all get the same amount of recovery based on their 9 class. So that's the most important thing. And regardless
10 of state. However, there are some technicalities within the 11 states, three states that I'm aware of, that I don't really 12 fully understand the technicalities within those states, but 13 I understand that there's some problems for distribution.
14 However, there's a six-month hold period, you know, to 15 address that, to provide enough time for the states to get 16 comfortable with distributions to customers.

17 Q Just so we're clear, do the customers in the 18 unsupported jurisdictions get the same recovery as the 19 customers in the supported jurisdictions?

20 A Yes, they do.

21 Q Okay. Can you describe for the Court, whether it's 22 possible for Voyager to facilitate distributions in kind to 23 creditors in the unsupported jurisdictions and do the 24 Binance transaction at the same time?

25 A I mean, the Binance transaction effectively sells the

1 the best interest in the creditors?

2 THE COURT: I --

3 MR. SHEHADEH: I feel like if (indiscernible)

13 THE COURT: Please. Please stop.

14 MR. SHEHADEH: They want to liquidate it and milk
15 as much money --

16 THE COURT: Please stop for a moment. Stop for a 17 moment, please. You need to understand, disagreeing with 18 the witness' conclusion is not a ground to interrupt the 19 witness' testimony. You have your own arguments, you may 20 have your own evidence, but that's not a basis on which to 21 interrupt the witness' testimony. It is not a proper 22 objection to what the witness has said. If you have 23 questions of the witness, then you can ask them when the 24 direct examination is finished. If you have evidence, you
25 will have a chance to offer it after the Debtors have

1 finished their case, but I know you're not a lawyer, but
 2 please listen to me. You cannot interrupt a witness'
 3 testimony or object to it on the ground that you disagree
 4 with it. That is not a proper objection. Okay? It is only
 5 a proper objection if there's something wrong under the 6 rules of evidence with what is being offered. And if you
 7 disagree, that's a point either for argument or for cross
 8 examination or for the presentation of your own evidence.
 9 Okay?

10 MR. SHEHADEH: Yes, Your Honor, I understand that 11 but I'm not arguing on it. I'm just stating the facts. I 12 objected to the fact that the witness is saying that that is 13 the best --

14 THE COURT: That is arguing.

15 MR. SHEHADEH: -- thing for the creditors --

16 THE COURT: Stating what you believe are contrary
 17 facts is argument. So you have to wait. Okay? That's not 18 a basis to interrupt --

19 MR. SHEHADEH: It's not what I believe --

20 THE COURT: -- this witness' testimony.

21 MR. SHEHADEH: -- are facts, what I understand.

22 THE COURT: Okay. Please don't interrupt the 23 witness' testimony and -- with that kind of issue again,
 24 okay? All right. Had you finished your prior answer?

1 risks involved in these transactions from a security
 2 perspective for the customers?

3 A Well, rebalancing is very -- is complicated. So making
 4 sure you have the right counterparties, making sure that 5 they can transfer money in and out within accounts in an 6 appropriate fashion is imperative. I believe that those are 7 among the things that they're doing to address risks.

8 Q And how about the actual transaction where we're
 9 transferring the money either to Binance in the Binance deal
 10 or directly to customers in the toggle?

11 A Absolutely. The transaction and distribution of funds
 12 or coins in kind is incredibly important to get done. I
 13 think you can't reverse a wire in crypto. It's what you
 14 distribute to a wallet. It's permanent, and undoing that 15 is, to the best of my knowledge, I don't think you can undo
 16 a mistake. And in a bank context, you can reverse a wire,
 17 as -- by way of example.

18 Q And can you describe for the Court whether the risks
 19 are higher or lower of those transactions, if the employees
 20 that are still at the company leave?

21 A My opinion is it's much higher if the employees at the 22 company leave. They're experts in the space. I believe 23 that it's hard to find people like them. I think if it was 24 to be someone independent, by way of a Chapter 7 Trustee, I
 25 think it would be much more complicated and obviously, in my

1 THE COURT: Okay.

2 BY MR. SLADE:

3 Q Just a few more questions, Mr. Renzi. I want to talk
 4 about the remaining personnel at the company. Okay? Can
 5 you describe the role of the remaining personnel at Voyager
 6 in executing on either the sale to Binance or the toggle
 7 transaction?

8 A The remaining personnel have, you know, in-depth
 9 knowledge of cryptocurrency markets, how the operations
 10 work, how to do things, you know, within the constructs of 11 legal entities that they have, and they're experts within 12 Voyager. So they'll help facilitate rebalancing, which is a 13 major transaction to get done and it is very, very 14 complicated. They'll also help with, you know, making sure
 15 the records are maintained properly and any other things
 16 that are required by the trust.

17 Q What would be the impact on for -- just as an example,
 18 the security risks to these transactions if the employees
 19 were to leave?

20 A I would be very concerned if the employees had to 21 leave. They were -- have been protecting these assets
 22 during the bankruptcy case. They understand how to address
 23 security issues and they have intimate knowledge of how to 24 transact within the cryptocurrency marketplace.

25 Q So can you just describe for the Court like some of the

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

1 expert opinion, I believe it would cost -- it would be not
 2 value maximizing under those scenarios.

3 Q Okay. That's actually the last topic I wanted to 4 cover, which is the possibility of the appointment of a
 5 Trustee. Do you believe an appointment of a Trustee would 6 be good or bad for creditors?

7 A It would be bad.

8 Q Can you describe why?

9 A I think the most important thing we've heard from some 10 of the customers on the phone is to get their cryptocurrency
 11 back. So timing is very important. We believe that if 12 there was a Trustee, it would extend the timeline for 13 customers to get their cryptocurrency back.

14 We also believe that there's a higher probability of a
 15 conversion to a seven, and right now, we already have 97
 16 percent of customers voting in favor of this plan. And then 17 lastly, we've been doing this in a transparent and 18 collaborative way with the Unsecured Creditors Committee and 19 advisors. So I'm not -- really don't understand, other than 20 the downside of appointing a Trustee.

21 MR. SLADE: Thank you, Your Honor. Pass the 22 witness.

23 THE COURT: All right. Is there anybody in the 24 room -- start with the people who are present in the room --
 25 who wishes to cross examine Mr. Renzi?

CROSS EXAMINATION OF MARK RENZI

BY MS. SCHEUER:

Q Good morning, Mr. Renzi. For the record, Therese Scheuer for the Securities and Exchange Commission.

A Morning.

Q Mr. Renzi, what are market constraints?

A I think simply put, and I know this is a newer asset class, but simply put, market constraints really mean by way of example, Bitcoin and ETH have a very deep market trading volume. And there are others that have, you know, a large market cap. But there are a number of less common, more obscure coins that don't have as much of market depth.

And so as I in my decoration, I used to be -- I used to be a trader a long, long time ago and understand markets very well. And if you are selling coins that don't have a lot of market depth, there's a tremendous amount of concern that it will move in the market. I think Bitcoin and ETH have a much larger market, so by way of example, it's harder to move that market unless there's very large blocks, but that's the general concept of -- that you were asking about.

Q Thank you. And I'm going to paraphrase, but I think Paragraph 76 of your declaration provides that a mass sale of coins in illiquid markets is expected to move the market significantly. Do you agree with that?

A Yes, I agree with that.

issue is that there are unsupported coins. Unsupported coins are much easier to address if you're distributing them in kind versus trying to liquidate those coins. We went to market makers to understand what that would look like if we had to transact quickly and were given rates of decrease, you know, in the market. And then then lastly, I'll say my expert opinion from having to trade derivatives, if you try to move trading derivatives quickly, people will generally try to take advantage of that and then it will be a much worse outcome.

Q Okay. Are you familiar with the stipulation that Voyager recently filed with the FTX debtors?

A I'm familiar, but I would like a refresher if somebody has a copy of that for me.

Q This stipulation regarding FTX's preference actions. Does that refresh your recollection at all that Ms. Okike mentioned at the beginning of the hearing?

A Yes.

Q Broad brush, what is your understanding of what settlement provides?

MR. SLADE: I'll object to the relevance of this question.

THE COURT: Well, I don't know if it's relevant or not. It seems to be not what this witness is testifying about. Is there a different witness that you plan to offer

Q Okay. And in a Chapter 7 case, you assume that a Chapter 7 Trustee would liquidate coins immediately, which would move the market lower and your declaration provides it would reduce distributions by 20 to 26 percent; is that correct?

A Yes. That's correct.

Q But the market depth constraints were not as significant for a sale or toggle plan, correct?

A That's correct.

Q And why was that?

A Well, under -- number one, you know, having the ability to rebalance with time, you know, maximizes value and that's important. I think to the -- and we also have verified that if we had to do this quickly, there'll be tremendous pressure on the market. So I think if you're going into a liquidation, straight liquidation, without a prescribed plan, so a Chapter 7 liquidation, there'd be a tremendous amount of pressure on the market, and that's also validated by market makers in the industry, Moelis, BRG, and also in consultation with the UCC advisors.

Q And are those -- are the market constraints what accounts for the difference in recoveries and the different scenarios, the sale toggle, the liquidation? Is that the primary difference?

A That is a primary difference. I mean, I think the on the -- as to the FTX stipulation?

MR. SLADE: That's not up for today, so no.

MS. SCHEUER: Your Honor, I don't plan to question in depth regarding that stipulation. It just goes to the effect that might have on distributions.

THE COURT: The stipulation or the underlying claim.

MS. SCHEUER: The stipulation.

THE COURT: You can answer to the extent you know.

BY MS. SCHEUER:

A I think that I'd like to look at the continent before I answer you in depth, but in general, I understand that if we have to reserve more funds for FTX Alameda, that it would apply across all scenarios equally, so it would reduce recoveries equally in general. But that's --

Q Is your understanding that four -- over $400 million would be set aside in connection with those preference actions? Is that --

A Under a hypothetical scenario, yes. It would have to be set aside, but I don't -- I can't opine as to how, why. And I just understand the math.

Q Is that your understanding of what the general settlement currently provides? That --

A I understand --

Q -- $400 million would be set aside.

212-267-6868

1 A -- 400-plus million. Yes. Sorry. Sorry to interrupt
 2 you.

3 Q That's quite all right. I'm sorry if I was talking
 4 over you. But that 400 million, 445 million, would that be 5 set aside in coins or is it being set aside in cash?

6 A Your Honor, I'm not sure I know the answer to that.

7 Q If it had, if $445 million worth of coins had to be
 8 liquidated now and set aside in cash, would there be market
 9 depth constraints in liquidating those coins?

10 A I mean, I think the same issue applies. If you -- to 11 the extent that you had to set aside funds, we would work
 12 with the Unsecured Creditors Committee and also the company
 13 and our advisors to find out what's the optimal way to set
 14 aside funds so that we don't have the market constraint
 15 issues that I described earlier. But we had to set aside
 16 them, it would certainly be a significant amount of money.
 17 And if we have to liquidate coins, it's subject to all of 18 the issues that I just formerly testified to.

19 Q And the 445 million is almost half of the coins on the 20 value of the coins on the Debtors' platform? Is that right?

21 A The value has gone up, so it's a little less than half
 22 now.

23 Q Okay. And what steps would you take to mitigate 24 against those market depth constraints?

25 MR. SLADE: Your Honor, I would object. I'm just

1 MS. OKIKE: Yes.

2 THE COURT: Okay.

3 BY MS. SCHEUER:

4 Q Mr. Renzi, was part of your assumption that 450 million
 5 would be converted into cash immediately or --

6 A I --

7 Q Your assumptions in the sale toggle or liquidation
 8 analyses, did you assume that 455 million would be converted
 9 into cash immediately?

10 A I don't think my declaration addresses the 455 -- 445
 11 million.

12 Q But your declaration does provide that if you had to 13 liquidate those coins immediately it would be a significant
 14 depreciation in a Chapter 7 case between 20 to 26 percent
 15 for liquidating all of the coins; is that correct?

16 A Your Honor, I don't follow the -- I don't understand
 17 the question.

18 THE COURT: Explain --

19 MR. SHEHADEH: I don't think (indiscernible)
 20 question was clear.

21 THE COURT: How -- explain how the value of the 22 coins is being determined under the Binance deal.

23 THE WITNESS: Well, the issue that we're getting 24 at is a math issue. So if we have to do it under any 25 circumstance, it's going to affect them all equally. So to

212-267-6868

1 having a hard time connecting any of these questions to the 2 SEC's objection.

3 MS. SCHEUER: Our Paragraph 7 of the SEC's
 4 objections noted that creditors and stakeholders are 5 entitled to know what the sale transaction provides.
 6 They're entitled to know the benefit of the sale transaction
 7 versus the toggle or a liquidation. I'm paraphrasing.

8 THE COURT: This isn't really a feature of the 9 sale transaction. The -- you know, the Bankruptcy Code says
 10 that administrative claims have to be paid in full. The FTX
 11 preference, Alameda preference claim is asserted as an 12 administrative claim. The only way you can comply with the 13 Bankruptcy Code requirement is to reserve the amount that's 14 in dispute until such time as the claim is resolved. I 15 think, no matter what, that the Debtors are selling coins to 16 Binance and holding cash -- but you can correct me if I'm 17 wrong -- but that Binance will be, whether it's -- whether 18 Binance -- anything that Binance will not be distributing 19 directly to customers as their original distributions is my 20 understanding, is being converted to cash; is that right?

21 I'll ask the Debtors.

22 MS. OKIKE: That's correct, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Okay. I think that's been stated in 24 the plan. So what's been held in reserve, am I right, is 25 just cash?

212-267-6868

1 the extent that you have to do it under a Binance plan or a
 2 toggle plan or even a liquidation plan, it still
 3 demonstrates that the plan, under a Binance plan or a toggle
 4 plan, is still better than a Chapter 7. So to the extent
 5 that it's just simple math, to the extent that you have to 6 liquidate a portion, into cash immediately, it's going to 7 affect all plans relatively equally in terms of the math.
 8 It's -- it'll be -- it'll decrease the recoveries overall.

9 THE COURT: Ms. Okike, under the Binance deal, is 10 there a particular date as of which the values of the coins
 11 will be measured?

12 MS. OKIKE: The value of the coins?

13 THE COURT: Yes.

14 MS. OKIKE: Yes, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: And what is that date?

16 We're going to take a ten-minute break while you
 17 figure that out. I thought I remembered that under the 18 Binance deal, the value of the coins would be determined as 19 of market prices on a particular date. In other words, they 20 wouldn't just be whatever they happen to be actually sold at 21 when the transfers happened.

22 MS. OKIKE: Yes, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: It would be fixed based on other
 24 market terms.

25 MS. OKIKE: So it's no later than the date that is

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions

one business day prior to the closing.

THE COURT: Okay. All right.

MS. OKIKE: It's a moving target.

THE COURT: So in other words, they'll be based on a market that will be -- that won't be affected by these particular coin transfers.

MS. OKIKE: Correct.

THE COURT: It'll be fixed at that market price.

MS. OKIKE: Correct.

THE COURT: All rights. Let's just take ten minutes, okay? We are in recess for ten minutes.

(Recess)

THE COURT: Please be seated. By the way, I'm not sure that the disclosure statement is officially in evidence. I think it ought to be.

MR. SLADE: Yes. Your Honor, we move to -- we offer Exhibit 12 and 13 off of our exhibit list, which are the order scheduling the hearing with the disclosure statement and the actual disclosure statement. Those are at Dockets No. 861 and 863.

THE COURT: I'll admit those into evidence. So they need to be in evidence, because that's what some of the objections are addressed. Please proceed.

(Exhibits 12 and 13 entered into evidence)

MS. SCHEUER: Thank you, Your Honor. For the

Are you asking him if they will be liquidated before the closing or are you asking him, would it have such an effect?

MS. SCHEUER: Would it have such an effect.

THE COURT: If it happened.

BY MS. SCHEUER:

A I think the goal is to do as much rebalancing as possible, you know, before closing. So to the extent that that's done, it -- the answer is, it depends. I mean, if you're not able to do a sufficient amount of rebalancing between now and then and then you have to do immediately, then it's certainly very problematic but right now, we're trying to avoid having that problem.

Q So is liquidating $445 million worth of coin, that would be -- that's part of your rebalancing transaction?

A I believe it is part. It's part of it. We're trying to rebalance. We're rebalancing every day, throughout the day, right now.

Q And so you're trying to balance as much as you can prior to closing; is that correct?

A We're trying to rebalance as much as we can prior to closing.

Q I think your --

A And hopefully, we'll be -- we'll meet that goal.

Q I think your prior testimony was that the major delta between the sale transaction and a Chapter 7 liquidation or record, Therese Scheuer for the Securities and Exchange Commission.

BY MS. SCHEUER:

Q Hello again, Mr. Renzi. Mr. Renzi, just before the break, I think we heard that the value of coins would be fixed two days prior to the closing of that, correct?

A I believe so, yes.

Q And when will closing occur?

A I think that it's -- I understand it's a moving, a little bit of a moving target, but sometime in April hopefully.

Q So could the -- could liquidating $445 million worth of coins affect the value of coins when they're fixed at that date?

MR. SLADE: Your Honor, I would object to relevance, and it's also outside the scope.

THE COURT: You can answer. I'll overrule the objection. You can answer.

BY MS. SCHEUER:

A You mind asking again? Thank you.

Q Sure. So could liquidating the $445 million worth of coins in connection with the FTX settlement, could liquidating that amount of coins affect the value of the coins when they're fixed two days prior to closing?

THE COURT: Can I just make sure I understand?

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

the toggle transaction but primarily the Chapter 7

liquidation was having to sell all of those coins by April 18th; is that correct?

A Well, the issue is, and I think I spell it out in my declaration, is if we have to convert, there's a period of time that you have to convert and it will take more time to address any issues that the Chapter 7 Trustee would have and monetize into cash to the extent that we have it. And then furthermore, there are unsupported coins that aren't going to be able to be addressed easily in a Chapter 7.

Q But your prior testimony was that the market depth constraints were the -- I think the significant reason for the difference between the sale transaction and the Chapter 7 transaction because in Chapter 7, you assumed the Trustee would liquidate the coins immediately by April 18th.

A To the extent that, I mean, if any of the rebalancing hasn't been done or we have to monetize any other coins and convert it into cash, there is going to be a significant amount of issues in terms of market constraints and it will lower recovery.

Q Do you -- is it your view that liquidating $445 million worth of coins now would it impact the liquidation analysis that we've set forth?

A If you have to liquidate coins immediately, right now, it will decrease the amount of recoveries across all

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

scenarios.

Q But in the sale transaction, your assumption was that they would all be liquidated immediately. So isn't the impact really on the sale transaction or the toggle in decreasing the recovery so that the delta between the sale and Chapter 7 is much smaller than is in your liquidation analysis?

A I don't think you stated my testimony correctly.

Q How so?

A You just said, I think what -- number one, I think you had made a statement. I'm not sure I follow all of your statement, but I think the issue is that, you know, under a transaction, a sale, you're maximizing value. You are rebalancing these coins. You are getting proceeds from the Binance transaction and there's less of a market discount because you're doing it in an orderly fashion.

To the extent that you don't do it in an orderly fashion and it has to convert, it's left to people that are less familiar with cryptocurrencies. There's going to be a diminution in value.

Q Okay. All right, I think we can move on. Thank you. Mr. Renzi, how do you assess the impact of pending regulatory actions and investigations? Did you assess what that impact would be on investor recovery or could be on investor recovery? Was that included in your analysis?

A I think -- are you asking -- I don't understand the question. Are you asking if CFIUS prevents the transaction?

Q Mm hmm.

A Yes, there -- we would have to go into a toggle plan.

Q And what happens if CFIUS decided to deny approval after the sale had closed? What would happen to investors?

A I would defer to counsel.

Q But that wasn't included in your numbers, your estimates?

A If we need to toggle, we have the provision to toggle into a toggle liquidation plan.

Q But if CFIUS denies approval after closing, the toggle plan is no longer possible. That wasn't included in your numbers; is that correct?

A I don't think there's any numerical quantification of --

Q Okay.

A -- CFIUS.

Q Okay. Why do you think this is a good deal for investors?

A This deal is -- satisfies the best interest test. It's approved by 97 percent of our customers. It is maximizing value, as proven by the analysis that's provided in my declaration. Those are among the most -- the reasons.

Q It is approved by 97 percent of your customers --

A I discussed any regulatory issues with counsel, make sure that I understood them.

Q Was that modeled in your analysis, included in your numbers?

A It is included.

Q How so?

A There -- to my understanding and actually in the discussion earlier today in Court, there are issues that are still unresolved by regulators. And so as far as I know, everything that we're doing in terms of rebalancing has been improved -- approved by the Court to do so. And we're following the Court rules and what's been approved to do by the Court.

And we've done that in a transparent fashion with the approval of the UCC and their advisors and I don't think that that speaks to your question in terms of how that is addressed from a regulatory environment that's evolving and we're trying to comply with whatever -- all the rules that we -- have been set out for us by this Court.

Q But there was no kind of risk or a some kind of percentage in your numbers that could -- that kind of covers regulatory risks?

A No.

Q Whether CFIUS approves the transaction impacts whether stakeholders get paid; is that right?

THE COURT: Okay, who is speaking right now?

MR. SHEHADEH: Alah Shehadeh, Your Honor, for the record.

THE COURT: Mr. Shehadeh, you cannot interrupt questions and answers to argue over the answer. Okay? You can only speak when it is your turn to question a witness or when it is your turn to offer evidence or if you have an objection that is based on a rule of evidence as to the form of a question. I've said this now, I think, three times. You cannot interrupt just to disagree with the witness. It is not appropriate and you have to stop doing it, okay?

Please proceed, counsel.

THE WITNESS: Your Honor, I'm happy to rephrase my statement.

3 coins back into their own wallets without this uncertainty?
4 A I'm sorry, can you repeat the question, please?
5 Q Wouldn't account holders be just as well off if they 6 could get coins back into their own wallets without this 7 uncertainty?
8 A I believe that this transaction provides incremental
9 value for customers and is overwhelmingly voted in favor and 10 the customers that are voting believe this, too. So I
11 believe that what we're doing is value maximizing.
12 Q And that incremental value is that the 20 million
13 that's being paid by Binance?
14 A It's at least 20 million, for sure, but also we believe 15 that the amount of recoveries is going to be higher based on 16 the construct of the Binance plan.
17 Q Mr. Renzi, I just have a couple of questions left.

5 Q More than 10 million. More than 20 million?
6 A It -- they have more than $20 million of cash.
7 Q More than 40 million?
8 A Yes, they have more than $40 million of cash.
9 Q And what will that cash be used for under the plan?
10 A It's spelled out in the plan in terms of, to the extent
11 that administrative costs need to be paid and priority costs
12 need to be paid, the cash will be used to be paying 13 administrative and priority claims.

3 Q If I understood your direct testimony correctly,
4 Voyager has the personnel and ability to toggle to

6 A They have the ability to execute under a Binance plan
7 and a toggle plan.
8 Q Okay. And under a toggle plan, cryptocurrency will be 9 returned to account holders, correct?
10 A Yes.
11 Q Okay. Should the sale transaction go forward, 12 customers in supported jurisdictions have the option to 13 become customers of Binance.US; is that correct?
14 A Yes.
15 Q Okay. And if a person in a supported jurisdiction
16 chooses not to become a customer of Binance.US, their claims
17 will be liquidated and paid out in cash three months after 18 closing; is that correct?
19 A Believe so.
20 Q Okay. And if an account holder in an unsupported
21 jurisdiction -- let me rephrase. An account holder in 22 unsupported jurisdiction in the circumstances Binance.US
23 does not attain licensure, has to wait for six months after 24 closing for their claims to be liquidated, correct?

2 the supported states to work with customers, it'll take
3 another six months.

4 Q Okay. And that additional time is so that Binance.US
5 has the opportunity to become licensed in unsupported
6 jurisdictions?

7 A Yes. I think they do have the opportunity to become 8 licensed in unsupported jurisdictions.

9 MR. ST. JOHN: That's all. Thank you, Your Honor.

10 MR. BRUH: Your Honor, Mark Bruh for the United 11 States Trustee. While we didn't formally object to a 12 liquidation, I would like to ask the witness a few questions
13 if the Court would allow.

14 THE COURT: Go ahead.

15 MR. BRUH: Thank you.

16 CROSS EXAMINATION OF MARK RENZI

17 BY MR. BRUH:

18 Q Mr. Renzi, my name is Mark Bruh. I'm an attorney for 19 the United States Trustee and I just have a few questions
20 regarding liquidation, specifically Chapter 7 analysis from 21 your affidavit and declaration that's admitted into 22 evidence. But before I start that, I just wanted to ask a
23 background question, kind of pivot -- I guess piggybacking
24 on the question from Ms. Scheuer and the SEC. You said the 25 cash position of the Debtors is in excess of $40 million; is

1 A The issue, Your Honor, is that we're rebalancing coins
2 every day. And so to the extent that those have been
3 rebalanced, I don't have those numbers in front of me.

4 Q Okay.

5 A But it's happening --

6 Q The -- my questions were going to the FTX settlement
7 because it's my understanding under the proposed settlement
8 which hasn't been approved by the Court yet that $445
9 million worth of crypto would be converted to fiat currency.
10 And do you know which crypto will be converted?

11 MR. SLADE: Your Honor, I object again. This is 12 not in front of the Court. I don't see how this is 13 relevant.

14 THE COURT: Can I -- there's an awful lot of 15 confusion reflected in the questions here. Let me just --
16 let me just ask something. As I understand the Binance
17 deal, all of the Debtors' cryptocurrency will be transferred 18 to Binance. It will be designated -- or there will be 19 designations as to what will be distributed to customers.
20 But other than what is distributed to customers, it'll just 21 be bought by Binance; is that correct?

22 MS. OKIKE: Your Honor, the plan is actually set
23 up that crypto will only move to Binance as customers sign 24 up for --

25 THE COURT: As and when they need it. Okay.

212-267-6868

1 that right?

2 A I did.

3 Q Okay. Do you know how the crypto holdings are broken
4 down by the Debtor as of today?

5 A In terms of the coin balances?

6 Q Or for example, when the plan was submitted, there was 7 -- it said there was about $1.1 billion of assets, not 8 including the infusion from Binance, and today we heard that 9 it's about 1.34 billion, so there's been an increase because 10 there's cryptocurrency and it's gone up in value.

11 A Yes.

12 Q Do you know how much stable coin the Debtors hold today
13 that's pegged one to one with the U.S. dollar?

14 A I have supporting schedule, not in front of me, but I
15 would have to refer to that schedule.

16 Q Can you refer to it? Was it attached to your 17 declaration?

18 A I don't believe it was attached to my declaration.

19 Q Do you know how much Bitcoin the Debtors are holding
20 today?

21 A I believe it's over 8,000 Bitcoin, but --

22 Q Eight thousand. Okay. And do you know how much
23 Ethereum they're holding today?

24 A I don't have that in front of me.

25 Q Okay. And then the rest --

Page 93

1 MS. OKIKE: So it will transfer on a weekly basis
2 for the customers that have signed up during, you know, the 3 prior week.

4 THE COURT: And what crypto that the Debtors hold
5 that is not necessary or not part of those initial 6 distributions to customers?

7 MS. OKIKE: The Debtors will continue to hold that 8 cryptocurrency as customers sign up and it'll be transferred 9 on a weekly basis.

10 THE COURT: But I thought I understood that, you
11 know, the Debtors will make initial distributions. There
12 are all kinds of reserves that need to be established, so
13 people will get their initial distributions. I thought
14 otherwise, the Debtors were liquidating their cryptocurrency
15 holdings; is that right?

16 MS. OKIKE: Your Honor, we will be liquidating,
17 but we have the opportunity for customers in supported
18 jurisdictions, they have three months post closure to sign
19 up. If they don't want to sign up for the Binance platform
20 at that time, their distributions are liquidated into cash.
21 They'll be sent back to the company and the company will 22 make those distributions. Same for customers in unsupported
23 jurisdictions. We're hopeful, again, that approvals are 24 reached, you know, five or six months, but if they're not,
25 that cash will be liquidated either by --

Page 94

1 THE COURT: So whatever cash you need to set up
2 this reserve for FTX Alameda will be obtained by market
3 liquidations or by sale to Binance?

4 MS. OKIKE: Market liquidations, Your Honor, and 5 Binance may be a counterparty to that.

6 THE COURT: Okay.

7 MS. OKIKE: But over time. We've already
8 obviously begun the rebalancing exercise and we are doing it
9 with the understanding that we are going to likely have to 10 hold back 445 million, given the asserted administrative 11 priority claim.

12 THE COURT: But when you say that the Debtor has 13 1.3 billion of cryptocurrencies and that the Binance deal is 14 therefore 1.32, from what you're telling me now, Binance
15 isn't buying all of that.

16 MS. OKIKE: They're not purchasing crypto, yes,
17 Your Honor. The crypto -- they're really serving as a 18 distribution agent for customers under the plan. They are 19 providing incremental value both in terms of the up-front
20 cash consideration as well as the expense reimbursement and 21 the transaction structure really provides over 100 million
22 of incremental value than the toggle transaction because of 23 the feasibility of --

24 THE COURT: Yeah, I understand the arguments about 25 why it results in more, but it's just -- so in other words,

Page 96

1 those transaction fees de minimis?

2 A They are. That's on average, 2 percent.

3 Q But so --

4 A They -- sorry. It's on average 2 percent from my 5 testimony, but you're right, for stable coin, it is less.

6 Q So that's what I was getting at was trying to figure
7 out, because I haven't really seen the coin report as to how 8 much the Debtors' holding is in USDS as opposed to Bitcoin, 9 which I understand has a higher transaction cost, or 10 Ethereum and piggybacking on that, the liquidation under the 11 FTX deal or the transaction, we don't know what coins are 12 going to be sold to convert the crypto to fiat currency; is 13 that right?

14 A I mean, it depends on what scenario we're under, but I
15 think one thing to just clean up is that there is the 2
16 percent friction cost, but then there's a market depth
17 issue, so --

18 Q Right.

19 A The market depth issue and speed also matter. So to 20 the extent that you have to move and liquidate, you know, 21 crypto quickly, you're going to have issues in terms of the 22 market depth, even in Bitcoin and Ethereum.

23 Q And is that the 20 percent number that you had in 24 Paragraph 88 of your declaration?

25 A I can't speak to exact paragraph because it's not in

212-267-6868

1 Binance is not buying all of your crypto. Some of it will
2 be liquidated in the market.

3 MS. OKIKE: Correct. We actually don't view them
4 as buying the crypto. We view them as a distribution agent
5 who's facilitating distribution under the plan through their 6 platform.

7 THE COURT: So the only thing they will take 8 custody of is what they distribute to people who become 9 customers --

10 MS. OKIKE: Correct.

11 THE COURT: -- or if in the market you sell them
12 something?

13 MS. OKIKE: Correct.

14 THE COURT: Okay.

15 BY MR. BRUH:

16 Q My concern with the -- talking about FTX was that the 17 conversion to fiat currency, if that's going to happen
18 sooner than later, the settlement is approved, would then 19 your 2 percent projection of transaction fees under a -- for 20 the sale of cryptocurrency, would that be affected by that 21 transaction?

22 A I don't think the 2 percent would be affected, no. I
23 think it's just the estimate for the friction cost to 24 transact in cryptocurrency.

25 Q Now, isn't it -- doesn't transactions of USDC, aren't

1 front of me --

2 Q Right.

3 A -- if I had that, but I -- yes, there are discounts, I
4 because of those issues in terms of market depth. So I'm 5 sure you're referencing the right paragraphs.

6 Q I mean, I don't have it in front me, but --

7 A But nonetheless, around --

8 Q But it's the 20 percent number.

9 A There's a 20 percent and then a 26 percent.

10 Q Right. And does that take into account, because on 11 September 2nd of 2022, Bitcoin was trading at about, just 12 under 20,000 and today it's trading in excess of 23,000. So
13 is that 20 percent number still accurate?

14 A It is and more importantly is that it wasn't just done
15 by -- it wasn't done in aggregate. It was done by coin and 16 then it was done with market makers and Moelis and the UCC
17 advisors to make sure that we had the appropriate
18 comprehensive set of information to make sure that we 19 understood what would happen relative to market depth and 20 moving coin quickly or slowly in a rebalancing transaction.
21 So it was very well informed, well analyzed, you know, not
22 only with the advisors here but also with market
23 participants that are market makers.

24 Q What is your basis that a Chapter 7 Trustee cannot make 25 in-kind distributions to creditors if the case is converted?

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

Page 98

1 A Basis is based on discussions with counsel and that the 2 understanding is that in my assumptions that would need to 3 be done quicker and that in-kind distributions would be 4 quite challenging. You know, if a U.S. Trustee -- excuse
 5 me, if a Chapter 7 Trustee was to do that.
 6 Q So for Chapter 11, if -- strike that. If the Debtor
 7 toggles to a liquidation, the Binance deal doesn't go
 8 through and the Debtor has to make distributions to its 9 customer base, can Voyager do that or will it have to go out
 10 to a third party platform to make those distributions?
 11 A Under what scenario? I'm sorry.
 12 Q Under liquidation, if the Binance deal doesn't go
 13 through.
 14 A So under a toggle plan --
 15 Q Right.
 16 A -- you can use the Voyager platform to make 17 distributions.
 18 Q So Voyager would have to be restarted and then it would 19 start making distributions to its customer base; is that 20 right?
 21 A Yes. It would -- they would make distributions.
 22 Q And it's your opinion that under a conversion to 23 Chapter 7, a Chapter 7 Trustee doesn't have a platform to 24 make these distributions, so there would be some sort of 25 costs associated with it; is that right?

 4 you the same warning. Go ahead, Mr. Bruh.
 5 MR. BRUH: Thank you, Your Honor.
 6 BY MR. BRUH:
 7 Q And I understand that, because the crypto today is not
 8 being held in a bank account; isn't that right?
 9 THE COURT: Mr. Bruh, Section 704(a) of the 10 Bankruptcy Code says "the Trustee shall collect and reduce 11 to money, property of the estate." Are you saying that's 12 not what the Trustee has to do in the Chapter 7 case?
 13 MR. BRUH: No, Your Honor.
 14 THE COURT: Then what's the point of these
 15 questions?
 16 MR. BRUH: Okay, I'll move on, Your Honor.
 17 THE COURT: Go ahead.
 18 BY MR. BRUH:

1 A There is a cost associated with it. There -- we
 2 believe that also it's a timing issue, too.
 3 Q Can you explain the timing issue to me a little more,
 4 elaborate on that?
 5 A My understanding is you have to set a new bar date.
 6 You have to restart part of the process. It would take 7 quite a bit of time to effectively get cryptocurrency to 8 clients. And then, furthermore, I would be very concerned
 9 about the employees under a Chapter 7 plan if they would be 10 participants in a Chapter 7 plan.
 11 Q Yeah. Okay. There's -- but a Chapter 7 Trustee can 12 make interim distributions to creditors, right?
 13 A Yes. I believe so. But they would -- if we had to 14 make distributions it would be in cash, is my understanding.
 15 Q But there's no -- what is your -- what is that based on 16 that it has to be in cash? Why can't a Chapter 7 Trustee
 17 make in-kind distributions on an interim basis to the 18 customers?
 19 A You can't deposit cryptocurrency into a bank account.
 20 Q Correct.
 21 A That's why.
 22 Q But it's being held --

1 who wishes to cross examine the witness? Okay. Is there
 2 anybody on the line who wishes to cross examine the witness?
 3 MS. RYAN: Good afternoon, Your Honor. This is 4 Abigail Ryan with the State of Texas and I have some 5 questions for the witness.
 6 THE COURT: Okay, Ms. Ryan, please proceed.
 7 MS. RYAN: Thank you, Your Honor.
 8 CROSS EXAMINATION OF MARK RENZI
 9 BY MS. RYAN:
 10 Q Good afternoon, Mr. Renzi. I'm going to kind of shift
 11 to a more basic question for you. You're aware that Alameda
 12 has a loan facility claim for $75 million, right?
 13 A I am.
 14 Q And is it the Debtors' plan to subordinate that claim?
 15 A Yes.
 16 Q And do you have an estimated likelihood of success that 17 it will be subordinated?
 18 MR. SLADE: Your Honor, I object. That's not 19 relevant. It's also outside the scope of this witness'
 20 testimony.
 21 THE COURT: I'm not sure how this ties into your 22 objection or as to the issues, Ms. Ryan. Could you explain
 23 to me where you're going with this?
 24 MS. RYAN: Absolutely, Your Honor. My objection
 25 is that the account holders weren't given enough disclosures

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

as to the percentage that their recovery could drop down to in different situations. Mr. Renzi in his affidavit testified that his numbers are based upon the Debtors getting the $75 million at Alameda loan facility subordinated, but there's no mention in his declaration what the numbers would be under the Biance plan or toggle plan -

THE COURT: Okay.

MS. RYAN: -- if they weren't successful in subordinating.

THE COURT: Do you know the answer, Mr. Renzi?

THE WITNESS: It would be the amount of recovery on the $75 million, the percentage recovery there, and then it would dilute the rest of the claims pool. I'd have to spend a little bit of time running that number.

THE COURT: Ms. Ryan, are you asking the witness what would happen if the loan was not subordinated at the holding company and TopCo level or are you asking him what would happen if the operating company were found to be liable on the loan?

MS. RYAN: Well, they'll be -- I have two questions, Your Honor. One is, as to the --

THE COURT: You do understand --

MS. RYAN: -- subordination of the loan facility

THE COURT: You do understand, don't you, that two, this $445 million preference claim, Alameda wins on.

THE COURT: But you just told me that creditors were entitled to know it, but didn't you just read the answer from the disclosure statement?

MS. RYAN: So one would think that would be the answer, Your Honor; however, the disclosure statement and the affidavit submitted by Mr. Renzi, they kind of conflict in this regard. Under a Chapter 7 in the disclosure statement, the creditors would actually do better than the toggle plan and that's not discussed in Mr. Renzi's affidavit that under the toggle plan if the two Alameda issues were successful in Alameda's favor, toggle plan, sale plan both, it's going to drop to 24 to 26 percent, depending on which paragraph you read in the disclosure statement.

THE COURT: Aren't you assuming that the Alameda issues only affect recoveries under the Chapter 11 plan and would not also affect recoveries under a Chapter 7 liquidation?

MS. RYAN: No, Your Honor. I think it would affect recoveries under a Chapter 7 liquidation, too. And so what I would like Mr. Renzi to explain to me is if Alameda is successful on both of those counts as they set out in the disclosure statement, what percentage of recovery or range -- because I know we have moving parts here -- would account holders receive under the Biance plan, under under the terms of the loan documents, the named borrower is not the operating company where the customers are. Alameda has asserted that the named company, that the operating company should be liable. So are you asking what would happen if the operating company were found liable on that loan or are you asking about what would happen at the parent company levels, because subordination at the parent company levels really doesn't mean anything for the recoveries of the customers.

MS. RYAN: So I'll explain this in a different way and maybe you'll see where I'm going, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay.

MS. RYAN: In the disclosure statement on Page 55, it states that recovery for both account holders' claims and OpCo General Unsecured Claims would be reduced to approximately 24 percent from 51 percent under the sale transaction if the Alameda loan facility claim is not subordinated and Alameda prevails in its alleged preference claim.

And so they're asserting in the disclosure statement that both would have an effect on distribution. And so what I'm wondering is, that was not mentioned in Mr. Renzi's declaration, but it is something that creditors have the right to know. What would happen to the recovery if one, as they say, the subordination isn't successful; and the toggle plan, and under a plan of liquidation, because it's not clear from the disclosure statement or Mr. Renzi's affidavit.

THE COURT: Do you know the answer, Mr. Renzi?

THE WITNESS: Your Honor, it would take some time to do that, but it would decrease the recovery across all scenarios but still under the plan and under the toggle plan, it would still be greater than under a liquidation scenario.

BY MS. RYAN:

Q Mr. Renzi, in the disclosure statement itself, it specifically says on Page 55 under Item B, the Alameda loan, that underneath the toggle transaction and in the Chapter 11 cases, the recoveries would be reduced to approximately 24 percent. And likewise, in the disclosure statement, it says that under Chapter 7, the possible return would be a 35 to 39 percent. So doesn't that show that a Chapter 7 would actually be more beneficial than the toggle plan for the sale?

THE COURT: You can answer the question. Go ahead.

BY MS. RYAN:

A Yeah. So number on, I don't follow your math. It's just -- it's very simple. You can't just pick and choose whether or not -- it only works whether or not the 75

1 million is subordinated only in the liquid -- under the
 2 Binance plan and then not in the liquidation. I mean, I
 3 think you have to use it uniformly, in my expert opinion,
 4 across all plans.
 5 Q I agree with you.
 6 A So the issue --
 7 Q I completely agree with you.
 8 THE COURT: Does the 39 --
 9 BY MS. RYAN:
 10 Q But in the disclosure statement --
 11 THE COURT: Does the 39 percent number that was 12 quoted by counsel assume that there is no Alameda claim in a
 13 Chapter 7 liquidation?
 14 THE WITNESS: In my declaration, it highlights and 15 if I could have my declaration, that'd be great so I can 16 answer you directly, Your Honor. It highlights the 17 recoveries you have under a subordination of the $75 million
 18 claim.
 19 THE COURT: Okay.
 20 THE WITNESS: Under all four --
 21 BY MS. RYAN:
 22 Q And does your affidavit include a scenario if Alameda's
 23 $445 million preference claim is successful?
 24 A It would further -- it would be a further reduction,
 25 yes, under all four scenarios.

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions

1 it makes it look like the toggle plan would be worse than
 2 the Chapter 7 and I don't believe there was adequate
 3 information in Mr. Renzi's affidavit to show, okay, let's do
 4 the math. If Alameda's successful, how much do they all
 5 decrease by? And I think that that should have been 6 disclosed and it's not.
 7 THE COURT: Are you saying that you think
 8 customers were misled into thinking that the Chapter 11 plan
 9 was a bad deal? I mean, 97 percent of them voted in favor
 10 of it.
 11 MS. RYAN: I'm saying --
 12 MR. SHEHADEH: Yes.
 13 MS. RYAN: Your Honor, I'm saying that I don't 14 believe they were given adequate information as to what 15 would happen if this Alameda $75 million loan facility claim
 16 and the preference claim of $445 million was successful in 17 Alameda's favor and what that would look like for them.
 18 I believe that regardless of whether it's 19 stretched out across Binance plan, toggle plan, liquidation
 20 plan is that we all decrease by that amount, meaning the 21 Binance plan would still be higher under simple math; they 22 still should have been given those numbers because, yes, the 23 disclosure statement is a bit misleading when you read a
 24 portion of it and it says under the Chapter 7 scenarios,
 25 you'll get 34 to 39 percent back, but if Alameda is

1 Q But is that in your affidavit? Did you discuss the 2 $445 million preference claim?
 3 A I'm testifying to that now.
 4 Q Okay, so it wasn't in your affidavit, right?
 5 THE COURT: Ms. Ryan -- Ms. Ryan, just, I'm
 6 confused by all this because isn't this basic mathematics
 7 that if you calculate percentage recoveries in three 8 scenarios and you conclude certain amounts and then you
 9 calculate what the percentages would be if you add
 10 additional unsecured claim amounts in each of the same three 11 scenarios, as long as you're doing apples to apples
 12 comparison, you still find out that the -- if under the 13 original calculation, the Binance came out highest, it still 14 would. If the toggle came in second, it still would. And 15 if the Chapter 7 calculation came in third, it still would.
 16 That's just indisputable.
 17 MS. RYAN: Your Honor, I agree.
 18 THE COURT: It's indisputable mathematics.
 19 MS. RYAN: It is simple. It's very simple 20 mathematics. However, this information wasn't presented to 21 any of the creditors in the disclosure statement and this is 22 something that I believe should have been disclosed so that 23 they can have a fair reading of these percentages and what 24 could possibly happen. When reading the disclosure
 25 statement, you know, and specifically in the Paragraph 55,

1 successful under the plan and under the toggle, you're only
 2 going to get 24 percent back. And in another section, it
 3 says 26 percent back. I don't think that our accountholders
 4 have actual numbers that they can hang their hat on.
 5 THE COURT: Okay. So do we need more evidence on 6 this point or is the rest of that for argument as to whether 7 the disclosure was sufficient?
 8 MS. RYAN: Your Honor, I would appreciate, if 9 there is more evidence, I think the percentages would be 10 very helpful in that regard. The witness doesn't -- witness
 11 said he'd have to sit down and try to figure them all out.
 12 So it's not something that he actually has right now. So it
 13 wasn't in the disclosure statement. It's not something we 14 have available at the moment.
 15 So I'm not sure what other evidence -- we can save
 16 it (indiscernible) Your Honor.
 17 THE COURT: I'm sorry --
 18 MS. RYAN: We can save it for argument, Your 19 Honor, and I'll change my subject of questioning.
 20 THE COURT: Okay.
 21 MS. RYAN: Thank you.
 22 BY MS. RYAN:
 23 Q So when you were determining if the Binance deal, Mr.
 24 Renzi, was in the best interests of the creditors, did you
 25 read the Binance terms of use?

1 A Members of my team did.

2 Q And were you made aware, since it's your team, of the

3 possibility that the accountholder's information can be

4 stored anywhere in the world that Binance.US sees fit?

5 MR. SLADE: Your Honor, I object. That assumes

6 facts not in evidence.

7 THE COURT: All right. I guess that's right,

8 technically. I don't have the Binance terms of use on file.

9 Is there a dispute as to what they say?

10 MR. SLADE: Actually --

11 MS. RYAN: I can re-ask --

12 MR. SLADE: -- a problem.

13 MS. RYAN: I can re-ask that question, Your Honor.

14 BY MS. RYAN:

15 Q So under -- the terms of use were ready by people on 16 your team, correct?

17 A Yes, I believe so.

18 Q And did they bring any concerns to your attention

19 regarding those terms of use?

20 A They're not lawyers. I think they just brought up the 21 fact that to the extent that the Binance plan does not work,

22 we have a toggle plan, and if the terms of use become so

23 problematic as you're highlighting, we do have an option to 24 go to the toggle plan.

25 Q And are you an expert in regulatory issues?

1 in a six-month period?

2 MR. SLADE: Your Honor, I object. That assumes

3 facts not in evidence.

4 THE COURT: Well, the question was, do you know

5 that to be a fact. Do you? Do you have any idea?

6 THE WITNESS: No.

7 THE COURT: Okay.

8 MS. RYAN: Okay, Your Honor, I will pass the 9 witness. Thank you very much.

10 THE COURT: Okay. There anybody else on the line

11 who wishes to cross examine the witness?

12 MR. SHEHADEH: I'd like to cross examine, Your

13 Honor.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Is that Mr. Shehadeh?

15 MR. SHEHADEH: Yes, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Okay, go ahead.

17 MR. SHEHADEH: Your Honor, I'd just like to ask

18 him about the plan.

19 CROSS EXAMINATION OF MARK RENZI

20 BY MR. SHEHADEH:

21 Q When they made that deal with FTX, like (indiscernible)

22 go through or why wasn't there a toggle done then? There

23 would've been more return for the creditors. And I see that

24 both sides have disclosed critical information

25 (indiscernible) the voting and they said in an email that

1 A No. I'm not.

2 Q Did you have anyone on your team who was reviewing the

3 terms of use that was an expert in regulatory issues?

4 A No.

5 Q Do you know under the Binance plan, is it possible for

6 Binance to make a one-time distribution to creditors?

7 A I understand that the Binance plan that those weekly

8 distributions to -- through the Binance platform and to the 9 extent that someone elects to have an account with them and

10 they would like to take the crypto off of the exchange, that 11 would be the methodology for -- to do that.

12 Q Okay. And so it's my understanding the six-month

13 waiting period for the nonconsenting jurisdictions is to 14 give Binance the ability to get licensed in those 15 jurisdictions; is that right?

16 A Yes, that's my understanding.

17 Q And do you know or do you have knowledge that Binance

18 has yet to file a request for licensure with the Texas State

19 Securities Board or the Department of Banking?

20 A My understanding is they're working with your

21 jurisdiction. I don't know the extent, where that lies

22 right now.

23 Q And are you aware that it is virtually impossible for a

24 license to be approved, whether it be for Binance or anyone

1 was sent out to customers, they said that if we agree with

2 the deal, we would get a higher return than we would if we

3 did the toggle down effect, which was defective. Don't you

4 agree? Because (indiscernible) not true.

5 MR. SLADE: Your Honor, it's a compound question -

7 MR. SHEHADEH: And what is --

8 THE COURT: Let's break your question down. Let's

9 break your question down. I think you asked, why was there

10 no toggle at the time of the FTX deal?

11 MR. SHEHADEH: Yes.

12 MR. SLADE: Your Honor, I would object to 13 relevance.

14 THE COURT: Well, go -- let's go ahead.

15 THE WITNESS: Happy to answer, Your Honor.

16 BY MR. SHEHADEH:

17 A So number one, we -- when we were initially, you know,

18 the initial --

19 Q When you say we, who are you referring to?

20 THE COURT: Don't interrupt, please. Let the 21 witness talk. Go ahead.

22 THE COURT: Thank you.

23 BY MR. SHEHADEH:

24 A When we initially were analyzing the transaction with 25 FPs, we worked in consultation with a number of people

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

including the Unsecured Creditors Committee advisors, the company, the Moelis and the rest of the advisors and we all agreed as well as did many of the states and other -- in congress believed that FTX was a viable entity. Unfortunately, what's been proven to all of us on the Wall Street Journal every day is that it was a fraud.

So our belief at the time, based on the information that we had that FTX was a viable transaction, it was vetted by multiple parties, both the Unsecured Creditors Committee advisors and the company advisors, in terms of the transaction and the toggle plan was not needed.

However, based on the facts that we saw unfold over the past few months, we believe that we don't want to see another issue where to the extent that we are uncomfortable with the transaction with Binance for whatever reason, that our main objective was to get crypto back to our customers as quickly as possible, and thus a toggle plan was warranted to make sure that we could do that.

Q So to get the crypto back to customers as fast as possible, wouldn't it have just made more sense to just open up the exchange and allow customers to (indiscernible) their crypto off the platform? Isn't that the whole reason behind the Chapter 11 organization? You guys, (indiscernible) the company so you guys would've filed Chapter 7, then Chapter 11. And the money that you guys (indiscernible) to Coinbase comply with the laws of this country. So I'm trying to do that.

Q Object. There's no relevance. We're talking Bankruptcy Court. We're not talking about laws of this country. If you want to talk about laws of this country then everybody in Voyager would be charged with criminal charges right now. So let's not really get into that right there. Anyway, back to my point.

Like I said, you guys made a public statement stating that assets were fine, the company was fine, and they are still operable. Five days later, the company filed for bankruptcy. (indiscernible). So instead, you guys (indiscernible) find somebody to buy the company, which is not reorganization, but so when the FTX deal didn't go through, there was a bidding war and I quote -- and this is on Forbes and you can look it up, on Wall Street, there was a bidding war for Voyager and there was a good faith deposit from each one of these companies that wanted to buy Voyager. Where is the good faith deposit and why wasn't it sold to second-highest bidder?

And if that didn't work out, why wasn't there a winddown or whatever you guys call it done then? Why was it more months of delegation, litigation, and moving (indiscernible) going to pay Moelis and Kirkland exorbitant fees, that I might add, because they didn't charge Celsius every day, what is going on with that money? What is that money used for?

THE COURT: Okay, you have to ask one question at a time, Mr. Shehadeh.

BY MR. SHEHADEH:

A Mr. Shehadeh, I think there are a number of assumptions that you would have to make that -- where you would be correct. So the assumption would be, is that there was no bankruptcy laws, and that we could just take assets and move them as quickly as possible. The issue with that assumption is number one, you have to make sure that you're doing things in a fair, transparent way and that is well documented.

There is a process of checks and balances in our Court system, in the Bankruptcy Court system. That's imperative and that is to make sure that the company is working through to maximize value in consultation with the Unsecured Creditors Committee and that all customers have the ability to vote for this. And unfortunately --

Q (indiscernible).

THE COURT: Don't interrupt the answer, please. Go ahead.

BY MR. SHEHADEH:

A Unfortunately, the construct that you have provided does not provide the provision for voting, nor does it the same fees that they were charging us. Well, we're not going to get into that. It's a whole other subject. But I just want to know, toggle down now with the Binance deal.

212-267-6868

MR. SLADE: Your Honor --

BY MR. SHEHADEH:

Q And the SEC objected to. Go ahead.

MR. SLADE: Your Honor, I object. To the extent what was a question, he already answered.

THE COURT: I think he --

MR. SHEHADEH: That was a completely different question. He can answer it.

THE COURT: I think the only question I heard there was why was there not a toggle deal, but also why was there not a backup bidder at the time of FTX. I don't think he asked about the backup bidder at the time of FTX before, so you can answer that question.

BY MR. SHEHADEH:

A We tried to have a backup bidder during the transaction and we were not successful in having one that we could turn to right away.

Q So the whole bidding war, that was just all media propaganda? That was a lie?

A Your Honor, I don't know how to answer that question. It's talking about --

MR. SLADE: It's talking about -- it assumes facts

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

not in evidence again.

THE COURT: So you --

MR. SHEHADEH: You don't know how to answer a lot of questions.

THE COURT: The question is, is the reason why you didn't have a backup bidder, that there wasn't anybody else interested and that the statements that there were other people who were bidding was a lie.

THE WITNESS: The statements that I understand are not a lie, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay.

BY MR. SHEHADEH:

Q (indiscernible) when FTX bided for Voyager, only FTX submitted a bid for Voyager?

A No, I'm not saying that.

Q Okay, then. So there obviously was other bidders. Do you have the name of those other companies

A Your Honor, is that a question for me, Your Honor?

THE COURT: Mr. Shehadeh, he said there were other bidders. He said they didn't have one who was willing to be --

MR. SHEHADEH: Right, which just proves that he just lied and contradicted himself.

BY MR. SHEHADEH:

Q But anyway, can you name me the other bidders, sir,

212-267-6868

here, we're dealing with crypto. You know, it's a different situation than giving regular money.

THE COURT: You have to ask --

MR. SHEHADEH: (indiscernible).

THE COURT: You -- let me finish. You have to ask questions on matters that relate to what's actually in front of me today. It's not an open mic. It's not a town hall. It's not a gripe session. It's not a radio call in-show for sports news or crypto news. It's not a forum for everybody to air every complaint they have --

MR. SHEHADEH: Yes, I understand that, Your Honor.

THE COURT: -- about everything that's happened in the past.

MR. SHEHADEH: It's not a podcast, it's not (indiscernible). I understand that.

THE COURT: Okay, so we have --

MR. SHEHADEH: I'm asking a question, Your Honor, I just want an answer to.

THE COURT: We have issues in front of us today that don't include why things weren't -- you know, things that weren't done at the time of FTX. Those -- I don't see how that's at all relevant to any of the issues.

MR. SHEHADEH: Well, the relevance today, Your Honor, which I'm saying is because had they just did that before, there would've been more money for the creditors.

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions

please? Do you know?

A Binance was one of the other bidders.

Q So Binance was another bidder. Let's include all the other companies. Binance was -- when we seen that FTX, they (indiscernible) with you guys, was wasn't the deal sent to Binance? And on top of that, why was Binance's deal and incentive lower than what it what it would have been to Celsius? Because Binance (indiscernible) Celsius' people a $50 incentive. We didn't get nothing like that.

A Your Honor --

Q So if FTX fell through, why would (indiscernible).

THE COURT: I don't understand where --

MR. SHEHADEH: That's my question.

THE COURT: I don't understand. You know, you've got to stop making speeches and just ask questions, Mr. Shehadeh. We're trying to give you an awful lot of leeway because I know you're not an attorney, but there are rules to how this proceeding goes. It is not time for you to just make argument or complaints, particularly about things in the past that aren't really in front of us today.

MR. SHEHADEH: I understand that, Your Honor, and I apologize. You're right. I'm not attorney, Your Honor, but what I'm stating is simple fact and creditors deserve answer so. My money is not a toy to be played with. And this is different situation. We're not dealing with fiat

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

We would've never had that clawback and I don't even see how there is a clawback when we give Alameda $650 million loan. Isn't that the whole reason why we went into bankruptcy, because they defaulted on that loan? So how do we owe them $455 million? That's my question.

THE COURT: We are where we are. So how does any of that have anything, any bearing on what we ought to do today?

MR. SHEHADEH: I'm sorry, can you repeat that, please?

THE COURT: I said, we are where we are. We can't undo the past, so how do your questions on those points other than you're being angry about them, how do they have any bearing on what we ought to do?

MR. SHEHADEH: Yes, Your Honor. I'm very angry because I have had over $100,000 in Voyager and they want to give me back 12,000, 13,000 (indiscernible). And my portfolio balance, let's say 18, 19, 25 (indiscernible). So what happened to that extra money? Does that make any sense? I give -- Your Honor, I give you -- you want to buy a hot dog and I give you a hamburger.

THE COURT: You have to ask questions.

MR. SHEHADEH: (indiscernible).

THE COURT: You have to ask questions that are focused on the transactions and proposals that are in front

1 of us today. Okay? I know you're angry about these things,
2 but I don't know how many times I can explain to you that
3 you have to calm down about them and focus on --

4 MR. SHEHADEH: I understand that, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: -- what we're trying --

6 MR. SHEHADEH: I understand --

7 THE COURT: You also have to -- you also have to 8 not interrupt me when I'm speaking to you. Okay? That's a
9 cardinal rule.

10 MR. SHEHADEH: Your Honor, last time --

11 THE COURT: Stop.

12 MR. SHEHADEH: -- allow me to speak and you cut me
13 off the courtroom --

14 THE COURT: Stop it, stop it, stop it, until I am
15 finished. All right? My patience is wearing thin with you, 16 Mr. Shehadeh. You are not listening to me. You want to 17 conduct the hearing in the manner that you want to conduct
18 it. You have to listen to me. There are issues in front of 19 us today that I am trying to give you the chance to address
20 and I am bending over backwards to tolerate multiple 21 interruptions and refusals to abide by my instructions.

22 But you have to listen to my instructions. You
23 have to abide by them. It's a Court proceeding. I cannot 24 let you hijack it to deal with other gripes that you have 25 about the past. You must understand that and you must

1 question for the witness about what we're dealing with 2 today, please ask it.

3 BY MR. SHEHADEH:

4 Q Okay. Back to with the FTX and (indiscernible). Why
5 wasn't Binance considered a valid backup bidder when FTX
6 deal didn't go through and when that didn't go through, why
7 was there not a winddown then? (indiscernible) that answer.

8 THE COURT: Go ahead.

9 BY MR. SHEHADEH:

10 A They didn't agree to be a backup bidder.

11 Q I'm sorry?

12 A Binance did not agree to be a backup bidder.

13 MR. SHEHADEH: Your Honor, did you hear what he 14 just said?

15 THE COURT: Yes. He said back in the time of the 16 FTX deal, Binance did not agree to be a backup bidder.

17 BY MR. SHEHADEH:

18 Q So if I'm dealing on something and I was bidder one and 19 then he decided not to, wouldn't I be the next step in mind
20 to be a bidder? So if they didn't want to be a backup
21 bidder, that does not make any sense.

22 A I don't understand the rationale for -- Binance is an
23 organization that's well advised. They can make their own
24 decisions. The process for auctioning the assets was well
25 documented and marketed by Moelis. There are multiple

1 accept it and you must calm down and listen to my
2 instructions. And if you have questions, please ask
3 questions about the merits of what we are trying to do today
4 and whether it makes sense to do this today. But all your 5 complaints about other things that happened in the past, I
6 can't change those things. They don't affect what we're 7 doing today. You have to focus on what we're doing today.
8 And if you have objections to what we're doing today, you
9 have to ask to the extent you want evidence and then you
10 have to make objections and arguments based on what we're 11 doing today. But there's an order in which these things
12 have to be done. I can't let you continue to just interrupt
13 the proceedings with gripes about the past. That's not what 14 we're here to do today. It's not what the business of the 15 Court is today. All right? Do you understand that?

16 MR. SHEHADEH: I understand that, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Can you follow --

18 MR. SHEHADEH: So can you explain to me --

19 THE COURT: Can you follow those --

20 MR. SHEHADEH: -- what the business of the Court
21 is?

22 THE COURT: Will you -- can you follow those 23 instructions? Are you capable of following them?

24 MR. SHEHADEH: Yes. Yes, I am, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: All right. Then if you have a

1 participants and it was done in a fair and transparent way,
2 and when you're trying to sell the business to, at that
3 point in time, FTX was the highest bidder, it was done with 4 a number of representatives from the Unsecured Creditors
5 Committee, their advisors, as well as the company and the 6 company's advisors. So it was done completely transparent
7 in my opinion.

8 Q Again, like Judge Wiles said, we're not here about 9 opinions. We're here about facts. So what facts do you
10 have on that?

11 A I believe what I said is a fact.

12 Q In your opinion. We're not here for your belief, sir,
13 we're here for facts. You have any documentation that shows
14 that?

15 A Your Honor, I --

16 Q (indiscernible).

17 A Your Honor, I participated directly in the auction. I
18 can state for a fact that what I said is true.

19 Q Is there any type of information stating about the 20 purchase agreement and what terms it was?

21 MR. SLADE: Your Honor, I object. He answered
22 this question.

23 THE COURT: Sustained. Sustained. We've spent
24 enough time on the -- on last fall. We're here to talk 25 about the deal that's in front of us today. So the objection is sustained. MR. SHEHADEH: Which is what, Your Honor? Can you explain?

THE COURT: The objection is that questions about what happened at the time of the FTX deal had nothing to do with what we're doing here today and so they are irrelevant to our proceedings.

MR. SHEHADEH: I understand.

THE COURT: So I have sustained the objection to your question.

MR. SHEHADEH: Okay. So what are we talking about today, this hearing? What does this hearing pertaining to?

THE COURT: The hearing today is whether we confirm the plan that is currently proposed, which is to sell to Binance and in the event that transaction doesn't go through, to toggle to the toggle plan under which Voyager will to the extent it can distribute assets. Although the testimony so far is that it -- there are certain kinds of coins that I guess could be distributed through Binance that Voyager would not be able to transfer.

The question is whether we are going to confirm that plan. That's the issue we have today.

MR. SHEHADEH: Okay, I understand that, Your Honor.

MR. SHEHADEH: Binance has liquidity some and they become (indiscernible) Your Honor.

THE COURT: The question is, what evidence do we have on any of these points? The proposal --

MR. SHEHADEH: I mean --

THE COURT: It's not up to me.

MR. SHEHADEH: -- there's plenty of evidence, Your Honor.

THE COURT: It's not up to me to formulate a plan. I have a proposed plan in front of me that proposes the sale to Binance and most of the people who will be affected by that have voted in favor of it. So you don't like it, but the question is, is there evidence --

MR. SHEHADEH: (indiscernible) Your Honor, you know what I mean?

THE COURT: What's that?

MR. SHEHADEH: Robbed of their hard earned money.

THE COURT: Okay, do you have questions about -- for this witness on these subjects?

MR. SHEHADEH: I'll pass the witness, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. SHEHADEH: There's other people (indiscernible).

THE COURT: I'm sorry, I couldn't understand you.

MR. SHEHADEH: In case that Binance does become -- has liquidity issues and then goes bankrupt or files for Chapter 11 or whatever, and then what happens?

THE COURT: Then you'd be -- then if you elect to become a Binance customer and Binance goes into bankruptcy, then you would be in another bankruptcy proceeding. But --

MR. SHEHADEH: So is that in the best interest of the creditors, you think, Your Honor?

THE COURT: Well, I'm not -- you know, I'm not the one to answer your questions. I'm the one to hear argument and to make a decision, but so far, most of the people who have actually taken the time to vote, have voted in favor of this. I understand, you know --

MR. SHEHADEH: Yes, but --

THE COURT: I understand your questions but, you know, I don't know if Binance is in -- you and a few other people and to some extent the regulators have sort of said, well, gosh, we have questions. But I'm looking for some evidence. I don't want to do anything that's going to hurt customers. I want to do what's best for customers. I think if the Debtors had reason to believe Binance was going to go into bankruptcy, they wouldn't want to do business with Binance. Nobody wants to do that.

THE COURT: I can, but who do you represent?

MS. DIRESTA: I am a pro se creditor. I represent myself.

THE COURT: Okay.

MS. DIRESTA: So, before I ask the witness the question, just so you know because I do a good amount of the creditors that's on this call, I received some text messages saying that we can't really hear you well. So if you maybe -- I don't know whether the mic is positioned, so we do have a hard time hearing you, just so you know.

THE COURT: Okay.

MS. DIRESTA: And then as for my question for the witness.

CROSS EXAMINATION OF MARK RENZI

BY MS. DIRESTA:

Q For the people -- for the creditors who do not want to move over to Binance in order to get their assets and they would rather just wait out their three months and get liquidated, would those creditors' KYC information still be transferred over to Binance?

A I don't know the answer to that specific question for KYC information. I believe that if you're going to open an

1 account at Binance, then they will make sure that you comply
2 with KYC as AML.

3 Q Yes, but my question isn't if I'm going to open an 4 account with Binance because that makes sense. You would
5 need the KYC information. My question was, if I do not want
6 to open an account with Binance and I want to wait the 7 three-month period and get cash out, which is an option,
8 will my KYC information still be transferred over to 9 Binance.

10 MR. SLADE: Your Honor, I object. He already said
11 he didn't know, but the -- I'm not -- didn't get this 12 creditor's name, but I don't think she filed an objection.

13 THE COURT: That's okay. I'm going to hear her. I
14 think as I understand --

15 MS. DIRESTA: No, I did not.

16 THE COURT: -- the submissions -- if I understand
17 the submissions that were made, the information would be 18 transferred to Binance; isn't that right?

19 MS. OKIKE: Yes, that's correct, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Okay. Even if --

21 BY MS. DIRESTA:

22 Q Is that information --

23 THE COURT: Even if this customer doesn't want
24 anything to do with Binance, Binance would get her
25 information?

1 BY MS. DIRESTA:

2 A So I believe that if you elect to go over to Binance,
3 we already discussed how that would work. I think your 4 question is if you don't. I believe that the funds stay at 5 Voyager and you get cashed out at Voyager, if that's what
6 you elect to do. And then the way it's transmitted, I
7 believe you can do an ACH or a check, but I would need to 8 confirm that.

9 Q Okay. So it would be simply everything would stay at 10 Voyager and then a check would get cut to me directly from 11 Voyager. There would be no transfer of assets to Binance;
12 however, there will be a transfer of my KYC information
13 regardless to Binance. Is that correct?

14 A I think I was just informed by counsel that yes, the 15 KYC information will be at -- they'll be provided to 16 Binance, but under the scenario that you're highlighting, I
17 think, you know, Binance would not be the distribution agent
18 in that case that (indiscernible).

19 Q Okay. So my next question is the UCC held a Twitter
20 Spaces Town Hall on November 4th. And during that town
21 hall, the subject matter was the FTX deal because FTX had 22 not gone bankrupt yet. And during that town hall, someone
23 had asked a question about the percentage of distribution
24 that people were going to get and I can't remember who on 25 the panel answered the question. I think it was someone

Page 131

1 MS. OKIKE: Correct, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Okay.

3 BY MS. DIRESTA:

4 Q And is that information provided in the disclosure
5 statement?

6 MS. OKIKE: Your Honor, we can check it. It's in 7 the APA but we'll double check. We did send out our 8 customer migration protocol which sort of laid this all out.

9 THE COURT: I believe it is, if that's your 10 question. You may not have seen it or not, but I believe it 11 is.

12 BY MS. DIRESTA:

13 Q Okay, and then if we're getting cashed out, the 14 creditors want to get cashed out, what would be the process
15 for that? And to be more specific, could it be a situation
16 where we would just get a check directly from Voyager or is 17 it a situation where all of my assets would still then 18 technically go to Binance, my crypto assets would go to 19 Binance, then they convert that to cash and then send that 20 back over to Voyager and then I get a check from Voyager or 21 I get a check from Binance? Like, how would that exactly 22 work?

23 THE COURT: To your knowledge the answer?

24 THE WITNESS: I think I know most of it, but there
25 was a lot of if this then that.

212-267-6868

Page 133

1 from FTI, but they basically said that for every $20 million
2 dollars that FTX was giving Voyager as part of the sale, for 3 every $20 million, it only equated to about 1 percent of the 4 creditors' recovery. So with that information, since 5 Binance is only offering $20 million, which is way less than 6 what FTX was offering, then doesn't the same logic hold true
7 that we're only getting about 1 percent additional recovery
8 with the Binance deal?

9 A Roughly. Yes. You're correct. And it's -- but it is,
10 $20 million is a significant amount of money in general, but 11 there is a large claim pool so that just gets to the math
12 that you're highlighting. But I --

13 Q Okay --

14 A -- can't speak for FTI, but I can speak to the math.

15 Q Okay. So then earlier in the hearing, someone asked 16 you the question of the $20 million that Binance is 17 offering. Is that all going to be going to the creditors or 18 would some of that be spent on some administrative cost, and 19 you didn't really answer the question. You just said that 20 the cash is, you know, fungible, which means it can really 21 go anywhere, right? Like there's no guarantee that all of 22 that cash is going to go to the creditors. So even if all 23 of the cash did go to the creditors, it's only 1 percent of 24 our recovery and if, say, only $10 million of it goes to the 25 creditors because the other $10 million is spent elsewhere,

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

Page 134

1 then that drops down to like 0.5 percent or maybe none of it
2 goes to us and it drops down to 0 percent.

3 So I set this up to ask this question. How is it then 4 that the Binance deal is actually a better option than the 5 toggle option, when the lawyers are constantly saying that 6 you guys are trying to get the most amount of recovery in 7 the shortest period of time, when the recovery seems to be 8 the same with the Binance deal and the toggle option and 9 then the shortest period of time is the toggle option? So
10 how is the Binance deal better than toggle option, given
11 everything I just laid out?

12 MR. SLADE: Your Honor, I object. That was a 13 speech, not a question and he answered it when it was asked
14 the first time.

15 THE COURT: Well, I'll sustain the objection, in 16 part, because the -- there's a false premise in the 17 question, which is that somehow if $20 million more is paid
18 by Binance, that it's not really $20 million more. Whatever 19 the professional fees are, whatever other expenses there are 20 of the estate, they have to be paid and they have to be paid
21 if there's a toggle deal or if there's a Binance deal. It
22 actually makes no sense to ask where the $20 million will 23 go, because all of the expenses will be the same but in the 24 Binance transaction, there will be $20 million more.

25 Now I understand that you don't think that that's

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

Page 136

1 and I understand that percent is not a significant number, 1
2 percent, but it is higher. It is better. And $20 million
3 in general is a lot of money. And then furthermore, the 4 support of the coins is very important. So those are two
5 reasons, at least two reasons.

6 Q Okay, you're saying the support of the coins and I'm
7 kind of confused because my understanding is with the toggle
8 option, is just the Voyager app opens up and then people can 9 attach their wallet and withdraw their crypto and then now
10 it's theirs. They have it. It's been distributed to them
11 or if they choose to cash out, then they can, you know, get 12 the cash.

13 So how is that not a better option than going through 14 all this trouble of, you know, moving over to Binance,
15 especially when someone else said, I can't remember if it
16 was someone at Kirkland just earlier in this hearing that 17 Binance is essentially just a distribution agent. Why can't 18 Voyager act as its own distribution agent with the toggle
19 option and just open up the app, let people plug in their 20 wallets so that they don't lose their coins or if they want 21 to cash out, give them that option? Why can't we do that?

22 THE COURT: You can answer.

23 BY MS. DIRESTA:

24 A Yeah, you're asking my opinion on which one is better.
25 The Binance transaction is better than the toggle plan. The

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

Page 135

1 much in terms of how -- as a percentage matter it affects
2 recoveries. That I understand. But the premise of your 3 question that somehow it will be used for some other
4 expenses and therefore not available, well, money is 5 fungible. Those expenses have to be paid from somewhere.
6 Necessarily, if there's $20 million more, then there's $20
7 million more for creditors. There's no other way to do the 8 math.

9 Now, if you want to ask him, why are we doing this 10 just for a 1 percent increase in creditor recoveries, that's 11 fine. Go ahead and ask him that.

12 MS. DIRESTA: Okay. Thank you, Your Honor.

13 BY MS. DIRESTA:

14 Q So why are we going through all of this struggle and 15 spending all of this time and money for a 1 percent recovery
16 to creditors when the toggle option is obviously faster and 17 almost equivalent?

18 A So 1 percent is $20 million, as you already just 19 generally agreed on. I think that's number one. Number 20 two, Binance supports all of these coins, so there are 21 roughly 35 coins that are unsupported and our concern is 22 that in an unsupported format that you're going to get, you
23 will get to the best of my knowledge and market experts, you
24 will get less money. So to the extent that you can 25 effectuate this transaction, $20 million in my opinion is --

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

Page 137

1 toggle plan is a contingency plan.

2 THE COURT: I think the question was, the coins
3 that will be made available through the Binance plan. Can't 4 they all, all of them, be made available through the toggle
5 plan? And if that's right, why don't we just do the toggle
6 plan? I think that -- you think you said they can't --

7 MS. DIRESTA: Thank you, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: -- you need to explain what you mean
9 when you talk about unsupported coins --

10 THE WITNESS: My --

11 THE COURT: -- and what the difference would be in 12 the in-kind distributions that you could do under the toggle
13 plan versus the Binance plan.

14 THE WITNESS: Yes. Thank you, Your Honor. So my 15 understanding is that there are 35 coins that are 16 unsupported that do create problems for distribution through 17 the Voyager platform. So that's the first answer. And then 18 secondly, I think the question is, you know, why are we 19 doing this. I think the answer is that it is mathematically
20 better and I think we had that discussion earlier.

21 THE COURT: What do you mean when you say they're 22 unsupported?

23 THE WITNESS: My understanding is that on the 24 Voyager platform, you have issues in terms of distribution
25 and support of 35 coins. It's just what's been represented

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

to me in terms of distribution and I think the benefit of the Binance plan is that all coins are supported. And not all coins are -- it's not as if they're all on one universal exchange. It's, there are multiple exchanges. So there's some exchanges where some coins are more obscure and unfortunately, it would not be equal footing to the extent that one customer who is pari passu with another customer but has different coins may be adversely affected.

THE COURT: So in other words, under the Binance deal, people who want in-kind distributions can get them no matter what their coins are. Under the toggle deal, there are certain kinds of coins you would not be able to do an in-kind transfer on?

THE WITNESS: That's right, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay.

BY MS. DIRESTA:

Q Okay, so as a follow-up question to the unsupported coins on Voyager, I'm sure, given all of the developers that not only Voyager has or that, you know, out there in the industry, that there is a very simple way to make this unsupported crypto become supported, because if Binance is doing it, right, they have the capability to do it, then I'm sure Voyager should be able to have the capability of doing it. So why doesn't Voyager just support the unsupported coins? What is the problem there? Why can't we do that?

212-267-6868

are saying is accurate.

MR. SLADE: Your Honor --

BY MS. DIRESTA:

Q So is there a way for us to get information like that?

MR. SLADE: Your Honor, I object. That's not a question. And every creditor had the option to take discovery and did not.

THE COURT: Well, let me ask you, are you planning to offer any testimony from anybody else that can explain in more detail what the problems are in terms of the unsupported coins? It is after all, one of the bases on which you kind of touted the Binance deal as being better.

MR. SLADE: So we have one other witness that could probably speak to that in some degree, but it's a, I mean, it's a highly complicated process and it's probably different by coin. There's 35 separate coins, so I don't think we have anybody here today that can explain for each of the 35 coins what would have to happen for the Voyager platform to support it.

THE COURT: All right. Well, we'll see what your other witnesses can do, but it sounds like this witness has exhausted his own technical ability to explain the issue. Am I right about that?

THE WITNESS: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay.

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

A Your Honor, this -- I'm sorry, this doesn't just magically happen. You'd have to have developers. You'd have to spend more time. You'd have to figure out a methodology that everybody would agree to, to do that, and in my opinion, that delay is -- will further delay distribution to unsecured creditors.

Q Is there a way for us creditors or for you guys to provide exactly what those steps would be and how long it would take to make something unsupported become supported?

A I'm sure I (indiscernible).

THE COURT: Are you capable of answering that question or would somebody else has to answer?

THE WITNESS: I'm not capable of answering all the technical abilities to change from supported to unsupported coins, but I have a general understanding that it will take some time, effort, and money.

BY MS. DIRESTA:

Q And the thing about those vague answers is that, like, anybody can give a vague answer and I'm just supposed to be satisfied with it and trust you on that, but I would really like to see the evidence laid out, you know, kind of like how crypto has white paper that lays out the plan of how it's going to function, how it's going to work. So I'd like to see what that plan is and what the timeframe is and how much it's supposedly going to cost to see if what you guys

THE WITNESS: Thank you, Your Honor. I'm done.

THE COURT: Okay. Anybody else on the phone?

MS. DIVITA: Good afternoon --

MAN 1: Your Honor -- ladies first.

MS. DIVITA: Thank you. Good afternoon, Your Honor. This is Michelle Divita and like to ask some questions related to some trustee comments made by the witness.

THE COURT: Okay.

CROSS EXAMINATION OF MARK RENZI

BY MS. DIVITA:

Q First question, did your due diligence related to the Binance transaction include any data privacy considerations?

A I do not personally conduct any data privacy due diligence.

Q Are you aware that there is a provision for Binance to purchase customer selfies from Voyager?

A Could you ask the question again, please? Thank you.

Q Yeah. So as part of the Binance transaction, there's a specific provision that allows Binance to also purchase customers' selfies so something, you know, take a picture of your face. That is explicitly enumerated in the purchase agreement. Were you aware that that was a component when you conducted your due diligence?

A I knew that Binance was trying to acquire you know, the

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

Page 142

1 possibility of having new customers that they would have a
2 good experience on that platform and that that hopefully the 3 customers would elect to go over the platform and that there
4 were conditions in doing that. So, yes, I'm generally aware
5 of it.

6 Q Okay, but you did not identify any risk as part of the 7 transfer of customer biometric data, correct?

8 A My understanding is that it's laid out in, you know, in 9 the documents that have been presented here and I can't 10 speak to whether or not it was biometric or not. I just 11 can't.

12 Q So generally, the -- your analysis in terms of whether 13 or not the plan of reorganization is a better option for 14 creditors versus a liquidation plan, does that analysis or 15 that model does not contemplate any data privacy risk for 16 customers, correct?

17 A I think the analysis stands on its face and it's been 18 voted by 97 percent of customers that did vote, that they 19 accept the terms and conditions of the plan. And then
20 furthermore, I'm not a data security expert. So I, you
21 know, I can't speak to any questions about that.

22 Q Okay. You mentioned the 97 percent of customers that 23 did vote. Based on just your professional experience, 6
24 percent -- is a 6 percent voter turnout for a large customer
25 class typical?

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions

Page 144

1 who signed up already in the Binance plan, she says it
2 sounds like more people have done that than have actually
3 voted on the plan. Do you have any idea why that would be?

4 THE WITNESS: No.

5 BY MS. DIVITA:

6 Q Okay. So it sounds like maybe more than 6 percent of 7 customers are interested in, you know, doing this Binance
8 transaction, but when you say a majority of customers have 9 voted in support of plan that contemplates the discrepancy
10 between the number of customers who signed up versus those 11 that have voted.

12 A Well, I think --

13 Q Right?

14 A I think people have the ability to elect to vote or to 15 not to vote and in our country, I believe that's one of our 16 rights. So -- and you know, to the extent that somebody
17 didn't vote but elects to go to Binance that seems to make - 18 - that makes sense from a math perspective. So if you don't 19 vote and you want to go to Binance, that can be 20 mathematically true. So I see no logic flaw there.

21 Q Okay. So in terms of customers that aren't signing up
22 for this Binance, then and there's about 700,000 people in 23 (indiscernible), is that (indiscernible) roughly correct?

24 THE COURT: She's asking you if there are something like
25 700,000 customers who have not yet signed up for Binance.

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

Page 143

1 A I can tell you that 97 percent is a very high
2 percentage of voting in favor of a plan in something as 3 complicated as this. And since this is the first large
4 cryptocurrency case in this country, you know, 6 percent
5 turnout is what it is on its face. I would have liked to 6 see a larger turnout but people all have the ability to turn
7 out.

8 Q Do you think or do you have any thoughts in terms of 9 why, believe someone previously mentioned 175K customers
10 have opted in to use the Binance platform; whereas, think 11 only like 60,000 voted in favor of the plan?

12 A I don't understand. I can't understand -- I don't 13 understand your question. Can you say it again? It's not 14 very clear what --

15 Q Yeah.

16 A -- asking.

17 THE COURT: She says it sounds like more people --
18 MS. DIVITA: So --
19 THE COURT: More people signed up for the Binance
20 platform than actually voted on the plan. Can you explain
21 why that might be?

22 THE WITNESS: More people -- Your Honor, could you
23 -- I just don't follow.

24 THE COURT: Based on the numbers Ms. Okike said at 25 the beginning of the hearing about the number of customers

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

1 BY MS. DIVITA:

2 A I believe there's a period of time in which customers
3 can continue to sign up, but the numbers obviously will 4 continue to change over the coming weeks.

5 Q So as of today, then, assuming those customers don't 6 sign up or sign up and some sort of gathered basis, at least
7 -- what's the minimum timeframe that those 700,000 customers
8 could receive a distribution if they did not opt in or sign
9 up for Binance?

10 A The minimum amount of time to come over, is the
11 question?

12 Q Sorry, for the cash distribution from Voyager.

13 THE COURT: I'm sorry, we're having trouble
14 hearing you clearly enough to understand the question.

15 MS. DIVITA: I know, I'm sorry. One second. Is 16 this better?

17 THE COURT: Try again.

18 MS. DIVITA: Is this better?

19 THE COURT: I won't know until you try the 20 question again.

21 THE WITNESS: And slower, please.

22 MS. DIVITA: Okay --

23 THE COURT: Maybe a little slower.

24 MS. DIVITA: I'm sorry.

1 Q So this is in the context of the timeline of creditor
2 customer recovery. If 700,000 people today have not signed
3 up for Binance and I understand that they have three months
4 to sign up, assuming no one signed up for those 700
5 customers, what is the soonest they can receive a cash
6 distribution from Voyager?

7 A The difference in time? I believe that the Binance,
8 the Binance plan is the most expedient way for distribution
9 to customers, if you elect to go to Binance. I think the 10 toggle will take longer, but hopefully not much longer.

11 THE COURT: I think she's saying --

12 BY MS. DIVITA:

13 Q So if you elect to go to Binance.

14 THE COURT: I think she's asking if you don't sign
15 up for Binance, when do you get your cash?

16 BY MS. DIVITA:

17 A I believe it's before June under a toggle plan, so --
18 but in a Binance transaction, hopefully it's effective, goes
19 effective in the middle of April.

20 Q So is there a way to opt out of the Binance plan? So
21 for example, I'm not signing up for Binance. If I -- so I 22 have three months to sign up. I know that I don't want to 23 sign up. Am I receiving a distribution three months from 24 April or is it -- is there an option for me to receive a
25 distribution sooner?

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

Page 148

1 MS. DIVITA: That is well said. That is my
2 question.

3 THE COURT: In other words, if you converted to 4 Chapter 7, would people get cash sooner than what they would
5 get -- sooner than three months?

6 BY MS. DIVITA:

7 A I think the issue if you convert to a Chapter 7 is not
8 -- number one, I think it does take longer than the Binance
9 plan. Number two is that if you immediately -- and as Your 10 Honor read (indiscernible), if you have to distribute in 11 cash, that really will have issues in terms of the current 12 market and it will have a significantly lower recovery.

13 So, it's an issue of timing and overall recovery. So,
14 I am certain that if you have to monetize obscure
15 cryptocurrency assets quickly, that the performance on that 16 recovery is going to be significantly diminished and in some 17 cases, you know, over 50 percent reduction. And that's from 18 market makers.

19 So, the concern is that as you think through all
20 customers being treated equally, ones that have more obscure
21 cryptocurrency certainly bear the brunt of (indiscernible)
22 transactions, monetization.

23 Q Got it. That's actually very helpful and kind of 24 segues me into my next question. So, you're saying that the 25 rebalancing approach is the same under the Binance

Page 147

1 A I believe the timing is before June, so -- the exact
2 amount of time, I don't have in front of me.

3 Q I'm just trying to get to, you know, extending the 4 timeline for creditors when we have 700 creditors that 5 aren't opting in to an expedited timeline. And this is in 6 comparison between the plan of reorganization and the 7 liquidation.

8 A Your Honor --

9 THE COURT: I'm not sure that's a question. Let 10 me ask Ms. DiVita, what exactly is your question?

11 MS. DIVITA: I am just trying to clarify the 12 timing. So, one of the assumptions in why this plan of 13 reorganization is preferable for creditors is because it
14 expedites the timeline for recovery. But based on the 15 numbers as they are presented today, it sounds like this 175
16 (indiscernible) people, that's not a large portion and 17 doesn't necessarily support the contention that a majority
18 of creditors are looking at or interested in an expedited
19 timeline. And to just kind of further maybe drill down on 20 that point. But I don't know --

21 THE COURT: So, if I understand the question for 22 the witness, it is if customers who don't want to go to 23 Finance have to wait three months to get cash, is that 24 longer than it would take to get cash if we didn't have a
25 plan?

Page 149

1 transaction and the Chapter 7 liquidation with the trustee?

2 A No.

3 Q Okay, so it's different.

4 A I'm not saying that. I'm saying that the rebalancing
5 is optimizing what's going on in the market right now,
6 trying to do it in the least disruptive way. That is what
7 we're doing right now. I think under a liquidation, Chapter
8 7 liquidation, the timeline to monetize those assets has to 9 be quicker to monetize that and you will have a
10 significantly lower recovery.

11 Q Because --

12 A Because you have to convert into cash.

13 Q Got it. So, you're talking about the marketability of 14 the assets.

15 A Right. I mean, bitcoin has --

16 Q Okay.

17 A Sorry. Go ahead.

18 Q Oh no, go ahead.

19 A As we testified earlier and as a fact, Bitcoin has a 20 much deeper market in market (indiscernible) second largest 21 market (indiscernible), my understanding, for 22 cryptocurrencies.

23 Q So, I guess I don't exactly follow how marketability
24 differs between Binance and liquidation. Is it because 25 Binance is just getting a transfer of these more volatile or

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

Page 150

1 less widely held cryptocurrencies?

2 THE COURT: I think what the witness has said is
3 that under the rebalancing approach, the Debtors can spread
4 transactions over time to avoid the kinds of immediate 5 impacts on the market that you would have if you had to sell
6 everything all at once. Is that right?

7 THE WITNESS: Yes, Your Honor.

8 BY MS. DIVITA:

9 Q Okay, that is very helpful. So, then in terms of the I
10 guess sale or rebalancing act, couldn't -- I guess since the 11 assets aren't one to one, like this is an exercise that 12 could have been started well before the Binance transaction, 13 correct? And the marketability risk isn't specific to 14 Binance, kind of been known from the beginning, right?

15 A Well, I can't answer all of your questions the same
16 way. So, the first question is could we do it during the 17 pendency of the case. We were not authorized to do it. It
18 took some time to get authorized. There are certain
19 protocols to do it. There are safety procedures that needed
20 to be done. We have to make sure that we are in compliance
21 with the APA. So, rebalancing is a very regimented process
22 to be the least disruptive that we can be to the marketplace
23 to monetize assets in a way where you can receive those 24 coins in kind and then be the least disruptive to the 25 marketplace. So, that process is ongoing. And you're

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

212-267-6868

516-608-2400

Page 152

1 even better in terms of the recovery because of the way it's
2 being done, which is being done in a very regimented process
3 and to be the least disruptive for the market.

4 Q Got it. So, the tax benefits under a distribution in 5 kind offsets any really purchaser or buyer risk I guess kind
6 of in -- so there are securities risks, there are regulatory 7 risks, you know, as we've seen from the FTX transaction.
8 There's liquidity risk. And so, you're saying that the 9 preference of customers to get their cryptocurrency in kind,
10 which is predominantly driven by a tax benefit -- which I 11 don't know what -- we'll say 35 percent -- that offsets any 12 quantified risks, transaction risks?

13 A I wouldn't characterize my testimony as I understand
14 everybody's tax basis. All I can say is that there is a 15 preference for crypto in kind and that does have the 16 advantageous aspect for some that have a tax basis that 17 would prefer to receive it in kind. There are, as you
18 pointed out, over 700,000 customers. I can't speak for all
19 of them, but we have taken into consideration the issues
20 that have been brought before us, and the preference is in 21 kind. That's one.

22 And then two, because of market conditions, if we had 23 to liquidate all crypto in due cash, we think that the 24 recovery levels would be significantly lower, at least 20
25 percent lower, because of the items that I've already

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

212-267-6868

516-608-2400

Page 151

1 right, it is not created to be one to one. There are some
2 coins that we have too much of them and we will sell them,
3 and then we will buy other coins to rebalance the entire 4 portfolio.

5 Q Got it. So, the rebalancing is not -- it's required
6 for both -- I guess both methods. But one has to be 7 effectuated quicker?

8 A I'm not sure of the exact question. But I think
9 rebalancing is important because for, among other things
10 that I've heard on the town halls is that receiving, pulling 11 in kind is one of the preferences of the majority of 12 customers instead of cash because it might have adverse tax
13 consequences. And I don't know what those numbers would be,
14 but that's been expressed by multiple customers. And we 15 designed the plan in concert with the unsecured creditors'
16 committee advisors to make sure that we were thinking about 17 issues such as that to make sure we can do distribution in 18 kind to the best of our ability. And that's what the 19 Binance plan calls for. And it supports all the coins.

20 Q So, that --

21 A So, it's not just one factor for this plan.

22 Q Yeah.

23 A The plan is to try to do the best. One is to do the 24 best in terms of maximizing value. It's at least $20
25 million better just on the face of it. The execution is

1 testified to.

2 Q Okay. This is my last question then.

3 A If you can understand, like, you're not flooding the 4 market with coins if you rebalance it.

5 Q Right.

6 A You're selling all into cash, you're flooding the 7 market with more coins.

8 Q Got it. So, you have to flood the market under Chapter
9 7.

10 So, then I guess this is my last question. In terms of 11 -- you mentioned that when you did your quantification, your 12 accounting for all these various marketability, rebalancing,
13 et cetera, but you also mentioned that this analysis didn't 14 include any quantification of data privacy risks. Did it
15 include any other adjustments for risks such as securities,
16 solvency, anything like that in your calculation?

17 A I think I already testified to that in terms of 18 regulatory bodies and that risk. That's not been quantified
19 mathematically, but it's described that obviously there are 20 -- you know, the regiment for regulation for cryptocurrency
21 continues to be worked on right now by governmental
22 agencies. So, it's hard for me to opine on that because I
23 don't know the outcome and I don't think many do know the 24 outcome at this point.

25 Q So, risks inherent to a cryptocurrency transaction were

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

212-267-6868

516-608-2400

Page 154

1 not quantified even though they don't exist in a liquidation
2 context? But only -- I guess they do, but only in a bad
3 way. And that's because you're flooding the market.
4 A (indiscernible). My testimony stands on its face. I
5 can't -- the way you just described things, I was confused
6 by it, honestly.

7 Q Okay, that's fine. I'm done. Yeah. Thank you.

8 THE COURT: All right. Is there anybody else --

9 MS. WALL: Hi, this is Jennifer Wall.

10 THE COURT: Who is it?

11 MS. WALL: This is Jennifer Wall. I am a creditor
12 and wish to speak.

13 THE COURT: Okay.

14 MS. WALL: May I speak, Judge Wiles?

15 THE COURT: Yes. You can ask questions.

16 MS. WALL: Okay. Thank you very much.

17 CROSS-EXAMINATION OF MARK RENZI

18 BY MS. WALL:

19 Q I have heard about the in-kind and that that is the 20 majority for the base of the Voyager creditors. However, I
21 am in the state of Texas and I want my claims to be in kind,
22 but Binance does not support Texas and I have not heard from 23 Texas if it's allowed. And what I have gleaned is that 24 (indiscernible) probably won't be allowed.

25 So, from a toggle perspective, wouldn't it be better

212-267-6868

1 their coins off of Voyager.

2 Another question that I have -- and I didn't know
3 if you've been speaking or testifying -- you made somewhat
4 of I think an absolute statement as saying that by going
5 with Binance, it's the most efficient and everybody receives
6 their coins in kind (indiscernible) or their cash, but you
7 just said that it's going to be six months for Texas
8 residents and the other three unsupported states to 9 potentially get their money back or their coins. And the 10 odds of giving all of the regulations (indiscernible) not 11 only from a national perspective but also from a state
12 perspective, I kind of see that highly unlikely. So, I
13 guess I'm just saying that I don't think that you're really 14 speaking in the four states that are not going to be 15 supported by Binance. I don't believe I'll really be 16 equally represented here. Okay. Sorry about that.

17 THE COURT: Okay. That's not really a question.

18 That's more an argument. And we --

19 MS. WALL: Okay.

20 THE COURT: We'll have argument at a different
21 point in the proceeding. Right now --

22 MS. WALL: Oh, sorry about that.

23 THE COURT: Okay.

24 BY MS. WALL:

25 Q Okay. My other question will my KYC information be

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

Page 155

1 for those individuals that are in the state of Texas and the 2 other three non-supported states to be able to receive their 3 coins in kind through the toggle perspective and not have 4 that tax issue being cashed out?

5 A Number one, I think that there is a period of time for 6 Binance to get the proper authorization to distribute in 7 kind. I believe that's up to six months. So, -- and 8 hopefully there will be a quick resolution to that. But I
9 can't speak to the regulatory authorities in Texas in 10 regards to allowing Binance to do that for you in Texas.

11 A Okay. (indiscernible).

12 THE COURT: Would Voyager -- would Voyager itself
13 be under the same restrictions as Binance in Texas in terms
14 of the ability to distribute to customers?

15 THE WITNESS: (indiscernible).

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 MS. WALL: Okay. I appreciate that statement,
18 Your Honor. Thank you for that. Because that is another
19 question I've had, is why can't, for those states that are 20 not supported -- and I understand that there were issues
21 late in the game, if you will, with Voyager that none of us
22 -- none of the residents in Texas knew about. We thought
23 all the license was there. And now we're being penalized.
24 It would be appreciative if the State of Texas and Voyager
25 could come to an agreement to allow those customers to get

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

Page 157

1 sent to Binance even though I'm in Texas?

2 A I'm not sure, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: The witness doesn't know the answer.

4 MS. WALL: Okay. So, can that be (indiscernible)?

5 THE COURT: So, what?

6 MS. WALL: Could that be -- can that be verified,
7 if my KYC information will be sent to Binance? Because I
8 would prefer if we're not allowed to use Binance, that that 9 type of information not be sent to Binance.

10 MR. SLADE: We'll answer her question, Your Honor.
11 We'll get to the answer.

12 THE COURT: What is the answer?

13 MS. OKIKE: Your Honor, all customer information
14 is transferred to Binance under the purchase agreement.
15 Under the customer agreement, we do have the right
16 (indiscernible) customer information. And that's what we're 17 relying on with respect to that transfer.

18 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Isn't that Delaware,
19 California data privacy code with consumers --

20 THE COURT: Whoever is -- you can make your 21 arguments later, but don't interrupt witness testimony with 22 argument. Okay?

23 BY MS. WALL:

24 Q Okay. So, my last question. So, what I'm hearing is 25 that that will be verified, or that that is what's going to

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

happen. My personal information will be sent to a company that I will not be able to transact with. Is that correct?

MR. SLADE: Just to clarify, the APA provides that that information will be provided to the extent permissible under applicable law. That's Docket Number 835 if you look at Page 16. That's that part of the APA.

MS. WALL: Okay. And my last question -- and thank you very much for the time to speak today.

BY MS. WALL:

Q My last question is from the tax perspective, for all of us that have invested X amount of money and we're certainly not getting that out, are we going to be able to use those amounts for a tax loss over the coming years?

A I'm not an expert in tax basis, and it's hard for me to answer that for all of the customers.

Q Is there a way that that question can be taken back and looked at? Because I am hearing different things of yes, we will be, no, we won't. And if there's anything -- and realizing that through Judge Wiles' statement, this is the first cryptocurrency case, so it would be nice to know that we're -- we're victims of what has occurred, and we would not be able to use this as a tax loss would be the second impact on us.

THE COURT: There are disclosures in the disclosure statement about tax issues. But in the end, the taxing

(indiscernible) that the Binance is the best deal here for the creditors. And some of these questions of the risks of pushing all of the creditors over to Binance have not been answered to my satisfaction. Has anyone evaluated whether Binance comingles all user funds, which was significant because of why we're all suffering currently under the Voyager model of the same action.

A I believe they have the ability to (indiscernible) the assets and then also rehypothecate assets. Yes.

Q So, all user funds, are they individualized to where the users have ownership of it, or are they comingled in the same manner that Voyager did?

MR. SLADE: I'll object for lack of foundation, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Overruled. Do you know the answer to the question?

MR. HENDERSHOTT: Well, they should --

THE COURT: The objection is overruled. Do you know the answer to the question?

BY MR. HENDERSHOTT:

A I believe that the funds are going to be in effect a custody -- you know when they're transferred over into custody. But to the ability -- to the extent that there is a wallet that's a broader wallet, I suspect it could be comingled in a broader wallet, but still in the custody authorities will take their own positions on these things, and the Debtors aren't really in a position to kind of make any assurances or guarantees as to how any individual customer's taxes will work, I'm afraid.

MS. WALL: Well, those are all my questions. Thank you very much.

THE COURT: We're nearing our lunch break. We probably passed on. I would have preferred a lunch break. Is there anybody else on the phone that has questions that have not already been asked of this witness?

MR. HENDERSHOTT: I do, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Who was that?

MR. HENDERSHOTT: Tracy Hendershott, pro se creditor.

THE COURT: Okay. Go ahead, Mr. Hendershott.

MR. HENDERSHOTT: Thank you.

CROSS-EXAMINATION OF MARK RENZI

BY MR. HENDERSHOTT:

Q Mr. Renzi, I thank you for this time. I know this is quite painful for all of us (indiscernible). So, I do want to extend my gratitude.

But when we first started, I had missed what your role is and who you work for.

A I lead BRG in financial advising for the company.

Q All right. Thank you, sir. So, your testimony is perspective. I don't know -- I don't think it's going to be in individual wallets (indiscernible).

CLERK: Judge, I believe the parties are falling off the line. I believe Mr. Hendershott will probably call back if you want to conclude with the witnesses before you take the break.

THE COURT: We've reached our four-hour time limit on Court Solutions. Well, that's a good time to take a lunch break then. And we'll resume at 2:40. Okay?

UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Why won't you guys let the --

(Recess)

THE COURT: All right, please be seated. Mr. Renzi, please retake the stand. You are still under oath. Do you understand that?

THE WITNESS: yes.

THE COURT: Okay. I believe before the automated telephone system cut you off, Mr. Hendershott, I believe you were in the middle of asking your questions.

MR. HENDERSHOTT: Yes, sir. Thank you. And I was glad to hear it was automated. (indiscernible) that got booted out, but (indiscernible) clarified that for me, so I was happy to hear that. Hope everyone had a good lunch.

BY MR. HENDERSHOTT:

Q So, picking up, Mr. Renzi. When we left off, we were

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

Page 162

1 talking about your beliefs and testimony about Binance as
2 (indiscernible) for all of us creditors. And by the way,
3 are you perchance a creditor yourself, Mr. Renzi?

4 A No.

5 Q Yeah. I mean, that's frustrating when we keep getting
6 told over and over again by others (indiscernible). But I'm 7 glad that (indiscernible) pick your brain and utilize your 8 expertise here. But let's move along.

9 So, we ended with the comingling of user funds that put 10 us in this precarious situation right now with Voyager just 11 exactly over at Binance. I'm asking (indiscernible)
12 questions that differentiate between Binance and Voyager in 13 (indiscernible) environment. And with Binance, my 14 understanding is the sole shareholder of Binance U.S. is 15 Binance Global. Is that your understanding as well?

16 A It's my understanding.

17 Q Yeah. So, if you were to take any legal action against 18 the parent company, the holding company, my understanding is 19 Binance refuses to give any global domicile to be able to 20 initiate any legal action against. Is that your 21 understanding doing your due diligence as well?

22 A I'm not an expert on their legal structure.

23 Q So if you wanted to write a letter then just 24 congratulating (indiscernible) on this acquisition. Is 25 there a legal headquarters or domicile that you would have

www.veritext.com

212-267-6868

Page 164

1 where we can take legal (indiscernible).

2 How about comingling the funds between the affiliates,
3 between Binance U.S. and the global affiliate, which I
4 believe has even been confirmed by (indiscernible) publicly
5 and stated that was in the past, but they have better
6 controls in place now. Are you aware of that, sir?

7 A I believe they're separate legal entities. I can't 8 speak to all of the innerworkings of Binance between its 9 legal entities.

10 Q So, during your due diligence, you never came up with 11 any discussions about comingling between the U.S. entity and 12 the global entity that has no legal address?

13 A I don't agree with your statement that they have no
14 legal address. I just don't know the legal address. But 15 I'm sure you can find it.

16 Q I would have hoped that you would have done that 17 previous to this call in due diligence. But I'm asking
18 about the comingling of funds between the U.S. --

19 THE COURT: Mr. Hendershott. Mr. Hendershott.
20 Mr. Hendershott.

21 MR. HENDERSHOTT: yes.

22 THE COURT: You've got to stop making comments
23 after the answers. Just ask questions and get answers.
24 Okay? You can make your arguments later.

25 MR. HENDERSHOTT: Sure. Can we also have the

1 identified during your due diligence that you would --
2 that's the parent company?

3 A I know that we've met with individuals from Binance, at 4 least my team, in New York City. Or Binance --

5 Q That would be Binance U.S. I'm assuming. Yeah. I'm 6 talking about the parent company, the single shareholder,
7 the parent company.

8 A I have not met with the parent company of Binance U.S., 9 no.

10 Q So, I didn't ask if you met with them. I asked where 11 would you send any type of legal or just pleasantry
12 communication to the parent company for their global 13 domicile address.

14 A I don't know. I would ask. Happy to look it up.

15 Q That's concerning. One, that the creditors have 16 expended significant funds on their due diligence, and two,
17 that you are sitting here testifying to Judge Wiles and the 18 rest of us that this is the best solution for us.

19 MR. SLADE: Your Honor, I would object. Can we 20 just have questions and not speeches?

21 THE COURT: Objection sustained. Just ask
22 questions, Mr. Hendershott.

23 BY MR. HENDERSHOTT:

24 Q Okay, moving on. So, that puts us in a worse scenario
25 than Voyager, which actually does have a domicile address

2 comments in?

3 THE COURT: I think the witness has been fine.

4 So, just ask your questions and the witness will answer your
5 questions.

6 MR. HENDERSHOTT: Okay.

7 BY MR. HENDERSHOTT:

8 Q So, again, I haven't received an answer. The 9 comingling of funds between the U.S. entity and the global 10 entity.

11 A I don't know if they are comingling funds between the 12 U.S. entity and global entity.

13 Q That did not arise in your due diligence efforts?

14 A We have discussed many things with many different 15 people. I am not the sole person doing due diligence on 16 Binance.

17 Q But you are the leader and the chosen representative to 18 answer our questions. Moving on.

19 No declarations --

20 THE COURT: Mr. Hendershott. Mr. Hendershott.
21 Stop making comments after the witness testifies. Ask
22 questions and just get answers. Okay?

23 MR. HENDERSHOTT: Okay. Sorry, sir.

(indiscernible) practices, which we already heard from the State of Texas. We've already seen several, numerous agencies state this as their concerns of Binance. And we also heard from the attorney general's office in Texas that Binance hasn't even attempted to file any type of documentation highlighting their internal controls or practices.

In your due diligence, sir, have you been able to identify the internal controls and practices of Binance?

MR. SLADE: Your Honor, I object to numerous parts of the preface of that question (indiscernible). No facts in evidence to support those.

THE COURT: Well, let me also ask --

MR. HENDERSHOTT: We have the attorney general (indiscernible). Can you maybe clarify with her?

THE COURT: No. I want you to not interrupt me when I'm speaking.

MR. HENDERSHOTT: I'm sorry, sir.

THE COURT: Let me ask the Debtor's counsel. In terms of due diligence, is this your primary or your only witness on this point?

MR. SLADE: No, Your Honor. Mr. Tichenor will also be testifying about due diligence.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. SLADE: They serve different roles. Mr.

MR. HENDERSHOTT: Can I ask follow-up questions for that, Your Honor?

THE COURT: You can ask follow-up questions.

BY MR. HENDERSHOTT:

Q Mr. Renzi, I find your statement that you think they have auditors as defective and concerning, that you are sitting her unequivocally testifying that Binance is the best solution for us, but you think that they might have financial auditors, which is --

THE COURT: Okay. That's not a follow-up question. That's a follow-up argument. Please try to keep the difference in mind. Ask him what he knows. If you don't like what he knows or if you don't think he's done enough, you can argue about it later. But just ask him what he knows and what he did.

MR. HENDERSHOTT: Okay. Thank you, sir.

BY MR. HENDERSHOTT:

Q So, Binance. How about USD dollar banking relationship for onboarding and offboarding of fiat? Is Binance global, parent company, sole shareholder of Binance U.S. (indiscernible) that relationship currently?

THE COURT: Do you understand the question?

THE WITNESS: I -- I don't know the answer.

MR. HENDERSHOTT: Should I move on or is this going to be the response for all the questions with Binance?

Tichenor is the investment banker. Mr. Renzi is the manager advisory. They work together.

THE COURT: Okay. So, Mr. Hendershott, when you ask a question, it's not proper to kind of first make an argument and then ask your question. It's not proper to kind of state what you believe to be facts and then ask a different question. Just ask questions. Okay? Ask him what he knows and what he did. And if you think it was deficient --

MR. HENDERSHOTT: Sure. I'll --

THE COURT: If you think it was deficient later, you can make arguments about what you think is deficient. You can ask him what he found out and what he checked and what he knows.

MR. HENDERSHOTT: Okay. Thank you, sir. Thank you for the guidance.

BY MR. HENDERSHOTT:

Q Okay. Going back to why Binance is better than Voyager question. So, the next one, no financial auditors for the parent company, is that your understanding as well, sir?

A I have not reviewed financial audited statements.

Q Is that because Binance has no financial auditors?

A I can't answer the question, Your Honor. I think they have auditors. I just don't know specifically. They have accounting functions for sure.

THE COURT: I don't know how to predict that.

MR. HENDERSHOTT: Okay, well how about just one last one.

BY MR. HENDERSHOTT:

Q You are aware, Mr. Renzi, that Binance is actually paying (indiscernible) for the various national -- possibly with some states, I'm not clear on that one. Certainly, at the national level for regulatory noncompliance settlements.

A If the question is am I aware that they're trying to be in compliance with state regulations, I think that they are trying. And to the extent that there's anything that's deficient, I'm sure they're going to try to cure that. But to be specific about it, I don't know specifically any state fines that they're addressing right now. I'm sure that it's an ongoing thing in all cryptocurrency to make sure that they're addressing any new (indiscernible).

Q Okay. So, you're sure that they are collaborating with state regulatory agencies. Were you in the courtroom or available when the attorney generals of Texas stated that they have taken no action of filing regulatory documentation?

A Well, in discussions with the company and their advisors, my understanding is that Binance is trying to cooperate to the best of their ability. I was not in the courtroom in regards to what they heard in the Texas

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

1 courtroom that you referenced. But I believe they --

2 Q (indiscernible).

3 A -- were operating as a company in the United States

4 appropriately.

5 Q I was talking about this courtroom, sir. Earlier when

6 the Texas attorney general's representative clarified

7 (indiscernible) they had not filed any documentation with

8 Texas. In the courtroom, did you hear that portion of the 9 trial?

10 A I didn't hear his question, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: He's asking if you heard the question

12 asked by the Texas attorney, which question asserted that

13 Binance had not made any filings in Texas.

14 THE WITNESS: No.

15 BY MR. HENDERSHOTT:

16 Q Okay. So, after identifying probably six very

17 significant regulatory concerns of noncompliance worse than

18 with Voyager, all of those questions I asked you previously,

19 Voyager could comply with, yes. Six of them Binance could 20 not. Can you please reiterate again why you feel Binance is 21 a safe and the best methodology to be pushing all of those

22 creditors into?

23 MR. SLADE: Again, I object. That's a speech and 24 it assumes facts not in evidence.

25 THE COURT: Just answer the question. Why you

1 names. But I think just a numerical number would be

2 beneficial. And the follow-up question is did each one of

3 the backup bidders refuse to be -- did each one of the other

4 bidders beyond FTX and Binance, did they all refuse to be

5 backup bidders?

6 MR. SLADE: Your Honor, I'm going to object to 7 relevance. It's not relevant to what's before the Court

8 today.

9 THE COURT: Well, I agree. But go ahead and 10 answer the question. Did all of the other bidders decline

11 to be backup bidders?

12 THE WITNESS: I knew that FTX was the best bid and 13 that we did not have a backup bidder and that we had an

14 extensive auction. I believe it was over a week. It may 15 have been up to two weeks for someone to come in as a backup

16 bidder. But we did not achieve that. So, FTX was the 17 highest bid at that point in time.

18 BY MR. HENDERSHOTT:

19 Q Yes. And (indiscernible). I was curious about all the 20 other bidders that participated in that auction. Did all of 21 them refuse to be a backup bidder?

22 A I think I answered the question.

23 THE COURT: I think you did answer the question.

24 MR. HENDERSHOTT: I'm sorry, Your Honor, I didn't

25 hear the answer. I heard that FTX was the number one

1 think Binance is the safe and better alternative?

2 BY MR. HENDERSHOTT:

3 A I believe that Binance provides the maximum recovery.

4 The Binance transaction provides the maximum recovery to all

5 unsecured creditors. To the extent that that recovery or we

6 have any doubts in Binance, we have the ability to toggle.

7 And then (indiscernible) is the second-best option that we

8 have. So, to the extent that there's a disagreement in

9 construct, I believe that the construct that's set up

10 maximizes recovery for unsecured creditors as demonstrated

11 in my declaration and provides optionality to the extent

12 that there are concerns.

13 Q Okay. So, still you believe Binance is the best

14 solution for creditors is your testimony, is that correct?

15 A I just testified, Your Honor.

16 Q Yeah. Okay. Moving on. Yes, sir?

17 A I was coughing. Excuse me.

18 THE COURT: Go ahead, Mr. Hendershott.

19 BY MR. HENDERSHOTT:

20 Q Moving on. Earlier, there's been fairly extensive

21 conversations about the backup bidding process

22 (indiscernible). You stated that Binance at the FTX round

23 was a backup bidder that they had no interest to be a backup

24 bidder. You did not clarify how many other bidders were

25 there. And we respect NDAs, we don't need to know their

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions

1 bidder. I didn't hear that all the bidders refused to be a

2 backup bidder. Because that's a critical element, Your

3 Honor. You approved the bidding plan. The backup bidder

4 was included from the beginning, that would have shaved six

5 months off this trial, probably hundreds of millions of

6 dollars if it was (indiscernible). And Your Honor --

7 THE COURT: Stop.

8 MR. HENDERSHOTT: -- a person that's been involved

9 in the (indiscernible) would have been --

10 THE COURT: Just stop. Whether you think that's

11 true or whether it is true makes no difference to what we're

12 doing here today. Right? They didn't have a backup bidder

14 MR. HENDERSHOTT: It was --

15 THE COURT: Let me finish. Whether that was right

16 or wrong doesn't change the situation we are standing in

17 today and doesn't change in one iota the question of whether

18 we should or shouldn't confirm the plan that is currently in 19 front of us.

20 Today is not about recriminations for plans,

21 different plans that maybe could have been pursued in the 22 past. I don't know what you think is accomplished by any of 23 that, but I promise you it's nothing. You might be upset,

24 but it doesn't have any bearing at all, none, on what we

25 should to today. They could have made the worst mistake --

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

MR. HENDERSHOTT: (indiscernible).

THE COURT: They could have made the worst mistake in the history of bidding to have picked FTX and/or not to have had a toggle plan at that time, but it doesn't matter. I can't change the past. Nobody can. We are where we are. And so, your fixated anchor on these points is of no help. Okay? You've got to move on and you've got to address the issues that we're dealing with today.

MR. HENDERSHOTT: From that perspective, Your Honor, just to respond to you. I believe it is relevant. I believe there is no accountability for their actions is your proposal, that we ignore everything that happened in the past. I mean, there was material damages to the creditor class because they failed to follow the bid plan. It's standard practice. And there is a monetary value that can be associated with it. As well as there should be some accountability for their failure to follow it.

THE COURT: There is no issue in front of me today, none, about whether they did something in the past that caused damage for which they should be held accountable. Absolutely that is not an issue in front of me today. It's just simply not.

Now, if you want to say that there's some dishonesty as opposed to a mistake and that it somehow means that even at this stage of the proceedings I should appoint

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

that you have sitting in front of you that's on the agenda for today.

THE COURT: He's testified -- he's testified that they didn't have a backup bidder. You want to ask him that same question ten times. You're accomplishing nothing. They didn't have a backup bidder, and they didn't have a toggle plan at the time of FTX. You can ask him that same question a hundred times, and it's the same thing. You're not showing me anything that's relevant to anything I need to do today.

MR. HENDERSHOTT: Yes, Your Honor. I understand. Moving on.

BY MR. HENDERSHOTT:

Q So, again, for the various reasons, that, Mr. Renzi, you highlighted whether Binance is the best bid, you called out that KYC would be required for a liquidation for the release of tokens to the individual creditors and that would only be possible by going through (indiscernible) organization like Binance. So, my question for you, sir, is Voyager has KYC has -- has already been mentioned on this trial. People are concerned about it being shared with Binance. And so, every single creditor -- so could you expand on where is the challenge of Voyager with the preexisting KYC?

MR. SLADE: Your Honor, I object. I don't

212-267-6868

a trustee, that's fine. But I know you're not lawyers, but you have to understand every court hearing is not an open invitation for you to ask for every single thing that you might want without a pending motion, without justification, and without evidence. It is not how a court hearing works. We have specific motions in front of me today. And the primary one is for confirmation of a plan that has been accepted by the voting classes. If there is an objection to that confirmation that is based on the criteria I need to consider in the bankruptcy code, I am more than willing to hear it. But I promise you, recriminations over the FTX negotiations last fall have zero to do -- zero -- with whether or not this particular plan should be confirmed.

If you want to argue that they made a mistake before, therefore I should assume that they're making a mistake again, you can make that argument. But just beating up the witness about why he didn't have a backup bidder is pointless. Do you under?

MR. HENDERSHOTT: I hear you, Your Honor. But you do have an objection or a motion in front of you from the creditors explicitly stating that for cause removal for fraud, dishonesty, and competence and gross management. I believe establishing the sequence of incompetence, gross mismanagement, potentially fraud and dishonesty right from the very beginning for this date is part of the objection understand the question. I don't know how the witness could.

THE COURT: I understand the question. He's talked about the provisions in the witness's prior declaration that talked about KYC issues and why the Debtor isn't equipped to pursue them. And he's asking you why not. So, go ahead.

BY MR. HENDERSHOTT:

A Effectively the transaction with Binance is -- they're paying us for those transactions. It's over $20 million. So, in order to do that, they want to make sure that they have the ability to do, you know, KYC information and make sure there isn't any money laundering or making sure that things are done appropriately.

So, in terms of Voyager, Voyager, if we have to go to the toggle plan does have the ability to distribute some of the (indiscernible). However, not all. And I think I testified to that. And I do think that they have a tremendous amount of information about their customers.

Q So, just so I am clear, Voyager has full KYC documentation that would allow them to liquidate and return assets directly back to customers?

A I believe they have --

Q Is that correct?

A I'm not a hundred percent certain, but I believe they

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

Page 178

1 have -- I believe they have a significant amount of
 2 information.
 3 Q Okay. I must have misheard you earlier when you said
 4 that was an obstacle then. So, that's great to know they 5 have the ability to do that.
 6 Next question. You -- sorry?
 7 A I think -- I want to make sure we're clear because I
 8 don't want to recharacterize my testimony. I think what I'm 9 saying is that we have the ability to move to a toggle plan.
 10 However, there are -- the Binance plan, there's a hundred 11 percent support on coins. The toggle plan, we obviously 12 have some unsupported coins.
 13 Q So, I'm curious on that. When you say unsupported,
 14 Voyager was never an exchange. So, Voyager bought coins
 15 from true exchanges. What is the obstacle again? I heard a 16 statement earlier that all of this programming and 17 complexity involved with it, they already had the 18 programming to receive the code, to buy the coins from the 19 exchange, to allocate that to the client base. And forgive
 20 my ignorance, I don't understand why it is challenging to 21 then take those digital keys and coins and put them back to 22 the exchange that they bought them from.
 23 A They have to invest time and money to make sure that 24 those coins are supported. And that is not one of the 25 things that's contemplated right now.

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

Page 180

1 are unsupported. So, in order to address them, they would
 2 have to liquidate them.
 3 And so, because we understand that customers would
 4 prefer to have coins in kind, this is an issue. Binance
 5 wants all the coins.
 6 THE COURT: And I guess the problem is we're
 7 having some trouble understanding what being unsupported
 8 means.
 9 THE WITNESS: The issue is for the company; they
 10 cannot make those distributions in kind for those 35
 11 unsupported ones. That's the simple version of it.
 12 THE COURT: Okay.
 13 THE WITNESS: The technical repercussions are 14 beyond what I can testify here today.
 15 THE COURT: Okay.
 16 BY MR. HENDERSHOTT:
 17 Q Thank you for that clarification. That was helpful.
 18 But just so I understand, you can liquidate them as part of 19 a rebalancing to U.S. dollars. And so, is that occurring 20 actually right now with the $445 million liquidation that's 21 ongoing? These coins are being liquidated to dollars?
 22 A The company is rebalancing coins now. And to the 23 extent that they need to set aside funds (indiscernible) for 24 cash, they will be doing so.
 25 Q And as a liquidator (indiscernible) unsecured --

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions

516-608-2400

Page 179

1 Q Supported by the exchange that they bought them from?
 2 A For them to make distributions in those coins.
 3 Q I'm not saying distributions back to the customers.
 4 I'm saying about (indiscernible) from. I recall that you
 5 said that that was a significant obstacle for the 6 liquidation process. And I'm confused on why. The bottom,
 7 it's one way, from the exchange to Voyager. Why isn't it
 8 not possible for it to go back from Voyager to the exchange?
 9 A So, the distribution would be made to customers, not to 10 an exchange, correct?
 11 Q We're talking about a liquidation. You said that's why
 12 (indiscernible) liquidate (indiscernible). I'm sorry, go
 13 on.
 14 A I don't know what the question is. I'm sorry.
 15 Q We're talking about a liquidation. You said that that 16 was problematic because there is (indiscernible) for the 17 coins to be liquidated.
 18 MR. SLADE: Yeah, I object, Your Honor. I think 19 it's --
 20 THE COURT: The question is if Voyager was -- if 21 people were able to buy these coins in the first place
 22 through Voyager, why can't they be put in their names by 23 Voyager?
 24 THE WITNESS: The issue, Your Honor, is that 25 distribution of these coins by Voyager, they have 35 that

212-267-6868

516-608-2400

Page 181

1 unsupported claims?
 2 A I am not -- I don't think so.
 3 Q Okay. All right. So, talking about the liquidation,
 4 you said that the problem of the toggle -- or actually of 5 Chapter 7 liquidation is the risk of collapsing the market.
 6 You indicate that a trustee would try to dump the entire
 7 treasury within a day or two, which I have never heard Judge
 8 Wiles or anyone say that that would be the plan going
 9 forward. So, I'm very curious why your strong belief is a 10 liquidation would collapse the global market of any coin,
 11 even one with less market liquidity than bitcoin or 12 Ethereum. And I am curious (indiscernible) a coin that is 13 on Voyager that you would collapse the global market by 14 doing a thoughtful and strategic liquidation over a period
 15 of say two months.
 16 A I never testified that this would collapse the global
 17 market of cryptocurrencies, Your Honor.
 18 Q On a specific coin, sir. You said that it would 19 collapse it down in I believe 30 -- I've heard 26 percent, I 20 believe. I heard 35 percent. But that would be the 21 slippage damage caused by a liquidation or a trustee coming
 22 in and liquidating because the global market for that 23 specific coin could not handle the influx of Voyager's
 24 volume. So, I'm curious, called out by name, but this is 25 not effective for bitcoin or Ethereum. I am curious if you can identify a coin where this would collapse a given market in that specific coin.

MR. SLADE: Your Honor, I object again. We're hearing speeches, not questions.

THE COURT: Can you identify a particular coin for which the market would suffer the effects that you had previously discussed?

BY MR. HENDERSHOTT:

A There are a number of coins that -- like Shiba Inu that coin, VGX, if you had to just sell it all immediately into cash, these coins don't have the deep market, and that's an issue. Those are the examples.

Q Thank you, Sir. Shiba and -- can you tell me how much --

A I would say to you I never testified that it would collapse the market. What's important to understand is that the market liquidity is a differentiator. And because bitcoin and eth have a significant amount more market cap and liquidity, it's easier to sell those coins and sell or buy those coins. So, the more obscure coins are difficult to monetize quickly.

Q That's what I'm questioning if you could give examples. And you gave Sheba as an example of that. Do you know what the global market cap is for Shiba Inu?

A I don't have that in front of me.

monetizing collateral that's harder to -- that has a smaller market cap than the two biggest ones that we've discussed, yes, that's absolutely true. Not only from the -- but more than a dozen advisors and market participants have validated this information.

THE COURT: In terms of the one you identified. Not VGX, the other one. Shiba...

THE WITNESS: There are many -- there's 106 coins, Your Honor.

THE COURT: What is the volume that Voyager holds, and are you aware of any statistics as to what the ordinary trading volume is as to that?

THE WITNESS: I have a chart. It's not in front of me. So, I could answer that, Your Honor, if I can get the chart.

THE COURT: Any objection to him consulting his chart?

MR. HENDERSHOTT: None from me, sir.

THE COURT: Well, let's go ahead.

MR. SLADE: Your Honor, (indiscernible) print a copy.

THE COURT: And if he has any idea what the ordinary trading...

MR. SLADE: Apologize, Your Honor. We're trying to --

Q I have it open. You know whether I can introduce this right now and it -- I have it open right now. It's 6.7 billion. So, is the volume that Voyager has, even if you liquidated it in a matter of days versus doing it responsibly, or the months, would the volume of Voyager Shiba Inu collapse or significantly drive down the price point of $6.7 billion market cap?

THE WITNESS: So, how did I testify before, Your Honor? A number of these coins may have significantly larger market caps. By way of example, Bitcoin has a significantly larger market cap. Same with eth. The issue that we're bringing up is that this is not just my opinion, this is the opinion of market makers that, you know, deal with these coins day in and day out. They may have a high market cap, but it's hard to trade them. And those are issues that we've seen throughout in cryptocurrency. And the issue that you have is that if you have to liquidate coins quickly, even more obscure coins, that it will move the market. It will not collapse the market, hopefully will not collapse the market, but it will move the market (indiscernible). That's not only -- that's diligence that's been done by myself, it's been done by their investment banker, Moelis, it's been done by the unsecured creditor committee advisors.

And so, when we talk about the discount to

THE COURT: I understand.

MR. SLADE: Your Honor, could I have a five-minute recess to find the right files?

THE COURT: Okay. We'll take five minutes.

(Recess)

THE COURT: All right, please be seated.

Mr. Renzi, you are still under oath. Have you had a chance to look up the answer of the question?

THE WITNESS: I have, Your Honor. Thank you for the five minutes.

So, other examples besides VGX of issues in terms of relative market cap and trading issues, BET would be an example, (indiscernible) would be an example, BTT would be an example. STMX would be an example. CKB would be an example, DGB. Those are other examples, to answer Mr. Hendershott's question directly (indiscernible).

THE COURT: And as to Shiba, have you been able to figure out what does Voyager hold and how does that compare to ordinary trading volumes?

THE WITNESS: I think Mr. Hendershott is right, there is still an issue in terms of relative volume. But I am looking at the amount of claims that's $93 million that I have in this schedule on a dollarized basis. And so, Shiba is less of an issue than the other ones that I just mentioned.

THE COURT: Okay.

THE WITNESS: But still an issue.

THE COURT: Okay.

BY MR. HENDERSHOTT:

Q So, what's the daily trading volume for Shiba against the Voyager $93 million Shiba -- assets under management for Shiba specifically?

A I don't have daily. I have seven-day average, $243 million is their seven-day average volume.

Q Right, average per day. So, a quarter of a billion dollars traded with only $93 million on voyager, that could be distributed over the course of a month or two. So, did I mishear earlier when you said that the reason why a trustee could not handle this is because it would collapse or reduce --

THE COURT: Are you saying that what Voyager has is more than a third what the average daily trading volume is?

MR. HENDERSHOTT: That's correct. $93 million total. I'm sorry, I'm not sure who that question was for.

THE WITNESS: To answer your question, Your Honor, they have a claim of $93 million. And the position is $70 million approximately. And the average daily trading seven-day average volume is $243 million. And so, I am not saying that this would collapse the market. I am saying that they trustee would a statutory obligation to convert to cash. I don't know of any trustee that would sit around and take market risk and try to figure out how to time those kinds of sales. And what the witness has basically said is that he thinks that the kind of imperative that a trustee would face to sell would be very different from the sort of being able to do it as you think fit in the rebalancing exercise in that there would therefore be a much stronger market effect if were in Chapter 7 than in Chapter 11. That's what I understand that he's testified to so far.

THE WITNESS: Your Honor, I just (indiscernible). Thank you.

MR. HENDERSHOTT: Great. Thank you. And thank you, Mr. Renzi. I will cede the podium. Thank you, sir.

THE COURT: Okay. Is there anybody else on the phone that wishes to cross-examine the witness?

CLERK: Your Honor, there's no one else on the phone (indiscernible).

MR. LOREN: I would like to (indiscernible), Your Honor.

THE COURT: Who is speaking now on the phone?

MR. LOREN: This is John Loren, pro se creditor. Can you hear me?

THE COURT: What was your name again?

MR. LOREN: John Loren.

will move the market. Especially if it needs to be done quickly.

BY MR. HENDERSHOTT:

Q So, that's -- and thank you for that. I don't see how $93 million spread out over a month or two can move the market when it's doing a quarter of a billion every day. But I keep hearing that if you have to do it quickly -- am I missing something that a trustee being appointed would have to liquidate everything in a day or two? Did they not have the same courtesy to be able to distribute this over the course of a month or two like we're doing with the rebalancing right now?

MR. SLADE: Your Honor, I object. That's a speech, and it was already asked and answered by this witness.

THE COURT: Yeah. We've covered this, Mr. Hendershott.

UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: That's not an objection.

MR. HENDERSHOTT: I don't remember the answer. He just (indiscernible) that I would have to be done quickly. And I am questioning why he keeps making that statement. There's nothing that would have to instill a two-day liquidation with the assignment of a trustee.

MR. SLADE: (indiscernible).

THE COURT: Yeah. What he said, you know, a

THE COURT: Okay, Mr. Loren.

CROSS-EXAMINATION OF MARK RENZI

BY MR. LOREN:

Q To the witness (indiscernible) rebalancing the portfolio, that a big selloff would (indiscernible) the market lower. Did you do any research on the VGX token?

THE COURT: What is it you want to know about the BTX did you say?

MR. LOREN: VGX token. I'm curious what analysis was done on that in regards to the rebalancing of the portfolio.

THE WITNESS: Could I just confirm that he said V as in Victor, G as in good, X as in x-ray? Is that correct?

MR. LOREN: Correct. VGX Voyager token.

THE WITNESS: Yes, we have done research on the VGX token. We have been careful to make sure that we have been opportunistic in selling some of the token in terms of the rebalance. The amount of holdings is relatively significant relative to the market cap for VGX with the company. And so, yes, the answer is yes.

MR. LOREN: What percentage of VGX is currently locked on the Voyager app?

THE WITNESS: Your Honor, I have a procedural question in terms of being discrete about rebalancing versus answering this question. Because I'm afraid that it will

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

1 have an effect on the market. So, I'm --

2 MR. SLADE: Let me object to the relevance of
3 (indiscernible).

4 THE COURT: I had trouble hearing the question.
5 What was it exactly?

6 MR. LOREN: My question is what is the rough
7 percentage of VGX on the Voyager app.

8 MR. SLADE: Yeah. I object, Your Honor. It's not
9 relevant. I'm worried that he might be asking questions
10 that (indiscernible) rather than get information that's 11 relevant to this --

12 THE COURT: Okay. I will sustain the objection.

13 BY MR. LOREN:

14 Q So, this is exactly why I wanted to ask the question.
15 Let's say roughly 80 percent of VGX is locked on the app. I 16 would to know your price analysis of VGX when 80 percent of 17 this token gets locked all at once on Binance.

18 MR. SLADE: Yeah. I have the same objection.

19 THE COURT: Yeah. Objection sustained.

20 BY MR. LOREN:

21 Q (indiscernible) the price of VGX would plummet to zero.
22 How would you combat this?

23 A Your Honor, the whole idea of rebalancing is to do it
24 in a way that is opportunistic and make sure that the 25 trading is done in an appropriate manner and also consistent

1 have a plan. The plan does highlight a rebalancing
2 transaction, and that rebalancing will eliminate the concern
3 that you exactly have in my opinion.

4 Q So, that may help during the rebalancing portion. But 5 once the tokens VGX has sent to Binance and users have 6 access to their VGX tokens, 80 percent of supply being 7 released at once is going to plummet the price. We were 8 given a claim that (indiscernible) but we won't be able to 9 actually get that (indiscernible) value from VGX
10 (indiscernible). Reason being is, like I said, it would be 11 a bloodbath. It would be a huge selloff even mention that 12 if you do have a big selloff, the price will tank. So, what 13 would be used to combat this selloff?

14 MR. SLADE: Your Honor, I object to the extent
15 that was the question he just answered.

16 THE COURT: I don't think so. As I understand the 17 question, the question is will VGX in the real world have 18 the value that's being ascribed to it for distribution
19 purposes.

20 THE WITNESS: Your Honor, I understand the 21 question. I think the ultimate decision of each account
22 holder is up to each account holder. So, each account holder
23 decides as soon as they have access to VGX and they just 24 want to sell it, yes, I suspect it will go down more than it
25 would otherwise go down. However, I think that some of the

1 with the APA. And so, what we're trying to do is spread out
2 trading at times that are opportunities so that we don't 3 flood the market, as this gentleman is highlighting. And we
4 are trying to do that in a way that is being transparent
5 with the Unsecured Creditors' Committee and believe that our 6 methodology is working thus far.

7 Q So, aside from the -- aside from rebalancing, I am
8 referring to once the VGX token, which I believe that's 9 roughly 80 percent of VGX currently locked on the app, then
10 80 percent of supply is released to (indiscernible) Binance,
11 what will happen to the price? One could easily determine 12 there would be a bloodbath and the price would plummet to 13 zero. How is that fair in regards to the recent 80 percent
14 of the market (indiscernible) at once?

15 A We're rebalancing. We're not releasing all of the 16 coins into the market. So, what's important is we're 17 distributing -- let me -- just let me finish for a second.
18 We are trying to rebalance to the right proportionality so
19 we don't have to sell it all down and then we can provide it
20 and return it in kind.

21 So, to the extent that we were under a scenario of a
22 liquidation, I actually a hundred percent agree with you
23 that it would be a very challenging situation in terms of 24 recovery if you had to sell it all immediately or in very 25 short order into cash. But we are not doing that because we

1 -- I think the customers are sophisticated. They understand
2 that this would move markets significantly. And we'll take
3 that into consideration before deciding all at once to sell
4 down their assets and do it in a timely fashion. Just as,
5 for example, if you have an unusual commodity, I think that 6 you would look to try to address it in the market in the 7 right way and not just sell it down immediately. So, there
8 are scenarios that if everybody was coordinated and all 9 agreed to sell at once, I think you're right. It would 10 massively reduce the value of VGX in total. But that's a
11 coordinated effort. And I don't see that happening
12 initially, but it's possible.

13 BY MR. LOREN:

14 Q I do not believe that at all. 80 percent supply being 15 released into the market in a single day. You know what 16 will happen. People will sell. (indiscernible).

17 THE COURT: Mr. Loren, I'll have to tell you the 18 same thing I've been telling other people. I know you're 19 not an attorney, but cross-examination is for the purpose of 20 asking questions, not stating your opinion, not arguing with 21 the witness. For purposes of asking questions and eliciting
22 evidence. Okay?

23 MR. LOREN: Thank you for that, Your Honor.

24 BY MR. LOREN:

25 Q My next question relates to Binance. During your

Page 194

1 research in due diligence, what would you find on how
2 Binance is more credible than FTX. As we know, FTX is a
3 fraudulent company. So, why is Binance more credible? What 4 was your research?

5 A Binance is one of the largest exchanges in the U.S.
6 They also try to hold one-for-one reserves on their 7 exchange. They have a tremendous amount of volume and 8 capacity on their exchange. And then lastly, one thing that 9 I feel is confirmatory diligence that 97 percent of 10 customers that have voted also believe that this transaction
11 makes the most sense for them. So, besides our own 12 diligence that has been done by Moelis and BRG and the 13 company as well as by the unsecured creditors' advisors, we 14 believe that this is a value-maximizing transaction with a 15 company that is one of the largest players if not the 16 largest player in the U.S.

17 And to the extent that we feel as if -- that there are 18 issues that arise between now and closing, we have the 19 option to move into a toggle plan.

20 Q You state that Binance have good recordkeeping. Can 21 you tell us what research you completed in order to come to 22 this conclusion?

23 A My team as well as the Moelis team had the opportunity
24 to interview Binance and its management team as well as its 25 advisors to go through a number of concerns that they had as

1 And we continue to learn from the issues that FTX had. And 2 that is part of the questions that we had are addressed by 3 the meetings that we had even this week in terms of our 4 diligence in regards to Binance. So, the diligence was more
5 rigorous.

6 Q Okay. So, you believe that Binance (indiscernible)
7 solvent company (indiscernible) analysis and research. What 8 happens when we transfer our claims over and Binance goes
9 kaput, they go bankrupt? What's the next step?

10 MR. SLADE: I'll object. It's a hypothetical
11 question that assumes facts not in evidence.

12 THE COURT: Do you know the answer?

13 BY MR. LOREN:

14 A I think you're asking if to the extent that unforeseen
15 circumstances occur and Binance goes bankrupt? Is that 16 correct? Is that what you're asking of me?

17 Q That's correct. I am referring to claw backs, et 18 cetera. What would happen with our claims is Binance goes 19 under?

20 A I do not have full access to all the financials of 21 Binance to answer your question completely. But you would 22 be an unsecured creditor or a creditor of the Binance estate
23 to the extent that there was a bankruptcy of Binance. But I
24 don't know if you would be unsecured or secured depending on 25 what you elect to do during the hypothetical period between

1 well as the Unsecured Creditors' Committee advisors. And 2 those diligence meetings did not deter having this hearing
3 today with the current trajectory that we're on.

4 Q Great. Did you do the same meetings with FTX?

5 MR. SLADE: Your Honor, can I object? This
6 inquiry is about the past. It's not relevant.

7 THE COURT: Overruled.

8 MR. LOREN: It's very relevant.

9 THE COURT: The objection was overruled. The 10 witness can answer the question.

11 BY MR. LOREN:

12 A We did due diligence on FTX. As we all know, FTX is a 13 fraud. They defrauded not only millions of customers, but 14 also a number of regulatory bodies in the United States.
15 They were vetted by the same constituents. We believe that 16 we're fortunate that we did not get wrapped up in that 17 transaction and we believe that this transaction with 18 Binance is significantly better.

19 Q If you did the same due diligence with FTX in these 20 meetings, why would we trust you and say that you are 21 credible when you had the same meetings with Binance?
22 What's the difference?

23 A We didn't do the same diligence. We did more diligence
24 on Binance. And the reason being is that we are more 25 informed about the issues about FTX. Every day we all are.

1 when you become a customer and when that hypothetical
2 bankruptcy could occur.

3 Q Okay. I'm curious if there's any way to get any claw
4 back protection from Voyager funds being transferred to 5 Binance if Binance goes under.

6 THE COURT: What was the question?

7 BY MR. LOREN:

8 Q Do we have any claw back protections if let's say we 9 transfer the money from Voyager to Binance. Binance then 10 goes bankrupt, and then (indiscernible) money from Binance.
11 Would Binance be able to claw back our funds or can we have 12 protection from Voyager-specific funds?

13 THE COURT: The modifications to the sale
14 agreement that were made in January after I raised some of 15 these very same issues and the order that I entered that 16 approved the sale agreement are very clear that until such 17 time as the distributions are made to the customers, Binance
18 will hold anything that it holds strictly in trust. It will 19 not be considered Binance's property.

20 Once a customer keeps items in its account -- and 21 I think the customer is going to be in whatever boat other 22 Binance customers are going to be in. But for purposes of 23 the initial distributions, we I believe changed the terms of 24 the deal to make it clear that nothing would get stuck. So,
25 if you want your crypto and you withdraw it from Binance

1 right after it's distributed to you, my understanding -- and
 2 I'll ask the Debtors and the Binance people here to correct
 3 me if that's wrong. But my understanding is that it would 4 never be considered property of Binance and that it would 5 have been distributed to you by Binance solely in its 6 capacity as a distribution agent and couldn't get stuck in a
 7 Binance bankruptcy. Is that right?

8 THE WITNESS: Yes, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: And is there -- did we set it up so
 10 that there's a period of time within which customers can 11 make those withdrawals before we have any issues? I can't 12 recall.

13 MS. OKIKE: Your Honor, the way the plan -- sorry,
 14 the transaction works is we will send crypt to Binance on a 15 weekly basis as customers sign off. That crypto has to be 16 put in the customer's account within five business days.
 17 And upon that time, they can immediately withdraw
 18 (indiscernible).

19 THE COURT: And did we put in the trust provisions
 20 and the custody provisions that that custody arrangement
 21 lasts up until a certain amount of time after items are put 22 into customer's accounts so that customers who want to take 23 it out right away will know that they're not at risk from 24 doing so?

25 MS. OKIKE: Sorry. I couldn't hear the last part,

18 MR. SHEHADEH: You were answering a question for a 19 witness and you were not allowing them to answer. You were 20 answering for them.

21 THE COURT: You've --

22 MR. SHEHADEH: I'm asking a simple question. How

1 Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: I don't want there to be an argument
 3 that the trust relationship or the custody relationship
 4 ended the nanosecond that something hit an account and 5 before a customer actually meaningfully could withdraw it.
 6 So, it seems to me that provision about custody and trust
 7 needs to be in effect for some period of time after it's 8 nominally credited to a customer's account so that if there
 9 is a customer out there who wants to take it out right away,
 10 that customer can do it without being told that, contrary to 11 our expectations, they've been made potentially an unsecured
 12 creditor of Binance.

13 MS. OKIKE: Understood, Your Honor. I don't 14 believe that we addressed timing with respect to that, but 15 we can of course discuss with Binance (indiscernible).

Now, is there anybody on the phone who hasn't already questioned the witness who would like to question the witness?

MR. JONES: Yes, Your Honor. Seth Jones.

THE COURT: Who is this?

MR. JONES: Seth Jones.

THE COURT: Seth Jones? Okay.

MR. JONES: I have a question. Earlier, the witness said that the toggle wasn't needed in the FTX deal. But contrary to that, UCC said that FTX wouldn't allow (indiscernible). So, which is it?

THE COURT: I'm afraid I couldn't hear you clearly they weren't allowed to have it. So, I mean, which is it?

MR. SLADE: Your Honor, I object to the relevance of that.

THE COURT: Well, I am not sure what statement by the UCC are you referring to, Mr. Jones?

MR. JONES: UCC said that FTX, they wanted to have a toggle, a backup toggle. And FTX refused to allow them to have a toggle in the first APA of FTX.

MS. OKIKE: Your Honor, I'm happy to answer the question.

THE COURT: Yeah, go ahead, Ms. Okike.

MS. OKIKE: So, it is correct that we requested a toggle from the FTX plan, and FTX refused. And it was removed from (indiscernible).

MR. JONES: Thank you. I just wanted to clarify that.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. JONES: Thank you.

CROSS-EXAMINATION OF MARK RENZI

enough. You said that the UCC earlier --

MR. JONES: The toggle. You said the toggle wasn't needed for the FTX deal, but the UCC said that FTX would allow them to add the toggle to the plan.

THE WITNESS: I understand.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. JONES: So, which is it?

THE WITNESS: Sir, let me try to paraphrase your question. You're asking -- and just if you could tell me if I've got it right. You're asking if we had a toggle plan when there was the FTX initial bid. Is that correct?

MR. JONES: No, yeah. You said that -- earlier you said that the toggle wasn't needed in the FTX deal because FTX was a vibrant company. But the UCC in the court documents said that FTX wouldn't allow them to add the toggle to the plan.

THE WITNESS: I think at that point in time, we believed that the FTX deal was appropriate. We did not have a toggle; I think as you correctly stated. I think -- and what we've learned from that situation and the fraud that FTX has perpetrated upon you and all of us and many other citizens, we made sure that there's a toggle to address the fact that there wasn't a toggle.

MR. JONES: I understand. But UCC wanted the toggle. But the UCC said that they wanted the toggle, but evidence. I'm not sure what he's talking to.

THE COURT: Are you aware of the Forbes article about Binance and do you have any knowledge about any of the issues that are raised there?

THE WITNESS: I have not read the Forbes article.

BY MR. JONES:

Q (indiscernible) there's a lot of them that -- coming out just like with FTX raising significant concerns (indiscernible). I just wanted to -- the due diligence you did in the Binance deal (indiscernible) the FTX deal.

A Yeah. We've spent more time doing due diligence on Binance, including this week. We have met with the company and its advisors to make sure that a number of the questions have been addressed to the best of our ability. We've also been in coordination with the UCC advisors to make sure that all of their questions were addressed. They were also present in those meetings and we believe that we have a construct in hand and in place to address the fact that if the Binance deal does not work, we have a toggle plan. So, yes, we feel as if the diligence has been more robust, it's been ongoing. I believe that it occurred this week, earlier this week, on top of other days prior to this week. And we believe that it's been more robust than what it was with FTX.

Q You said that Binance holds a one-to-one ratio of 1 coins, but you also said the same thing about FTX saying

 2 that they held one-to-one assets in coins. So, how do we 3 know it was not (indiscernible) deal?
 4 A I don't think I testified that FTX holds one-to-one.
 5 Q I got confused with the (indiscernible). Sorry about
 6 that.
 7 A No problem. No problem.
 8 Q All right. That's all my questions for now. Thank
 9 you.
 10 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. Anybody else
 11 on the phone?
 12 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Yes, Your Honor, I have a 13 few questions.
 14 THE COURT: Who is this?
 15 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: This Andre (indiscernible),
 16 pro se creditor.
 17 THE COURT: Okay. Please proceed.
 18 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: So, can you -- Mr. Renzi,
 19 can you tell me again once again what the estimated recovery
 20 would be if the Binance deal does go through, the 21 percentage?
 22 THE WITNESS: Excuse me. The estimated recovery
 23 for the Binance deal I believe in my declaration is 24 approximately 50 percent as of the 12/18 prices that are 25 represented in my declaration. I know --

Page 208

1 THE WITNESS: Just once second. I'll turn to it.
 2 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Okay.
 3 THE WITNESS: So, again, my declaration -- I'll 4 just go left to right if that's okay, if it helps you. If I
 5 look at accountholder claims and recovery under the Binance
 6 plan, it's roughly 50 percent. Under the toggle plan it's 7 roughly 45 percent. In the high case scenario and in a
 8 liquidation, it's 38 percent. In the low case scenario,
 9 it's 35 percent. Hopefully, that answers your question.
 10 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Okay. Thank you for that.
 11 THE WITNESS: Hopefully, that answers your
 12 question.
 13 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Yeah, it does. And now
 14 earlier you had mentioned an issue with unsupported coins.
 15 If I understand right, why Voyager couldn't just distribute 16 whatever assets are remaining because of these unsupported
 17 coins. What percentage of the total crypto assets are in 18 unsupported coins?
 19 THE WITNESS: I believe I -- if you give me one
 20 second, I have it also in my declaration. So, sir, on 21 Paragraph 120 -- I'll just read this to you in case we don't 22 have it. There are technical limitations that would prevent 23 the Debtors from making in-kind distributions on certain 24 types of cryptocurrency on the Debtor's platform. There are 25 35 cryptocurrency tokens for approximately 17 percent of the

1 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Okay. And if the deal
 2 doesn't go through?
 3 THE WITNESS: I also know that the prices have 4 appreciated in your favor and that the recovery levels are 5 in the 70 percent range. I've been on the stand most of the 6 day, so I am not sure what's happening in the markets, but I
 7 think it's roughly in the 70 percent range now.
 8 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Okay. So, in December --
 9 as of December 18th, it was roughly 50 percent. But you're 10 saying as of today it's potentially roughly 70 percent?
 11 THE WITNESS: In the seventies, that's correct.
 12 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Is that correct?
 13 THE WITNESS: Yes.
 14 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Okay. And if the deal
 15 doesn't go through, what would the recovery percentage be?
 16 Or is it the same?
 17 THE WITNESS: So, I can -- so I can -- I'm happy
 18 to do it, I would like to grab my declaration just so I can 19 remind myself of my chart if you would give me a second.
 20 THE COURT: You have to clarify the question. Are 21 you asking what would happen if we did the toggle plan
 22 instead of the Binance deal, or are you asking what would 23 happen if we had no plan and went to Chapter 7?
 24 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: No, if we went to the 25 toggle plan, what would the recovery percentage be. Yeah.

1 debtor's cryptocurrency portfolio based on equivalent USD
 2 value. Hopefully, that answers it. That is Paragraph 120.
 3 BY UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER:
 4 Q I'm sorry, so that's 70 percent of the (indiscernible)
 5 on these unsupported coins?
 6 A No, you probably misheard me. It's 17, one, seven.
 7 Seventeen.
 8 Q Seventeen.
 9 A Yes.
 10 Q Seventeen percent. Okay. Okay. So, roughly 83
 11 percent --
 12 A Yeah. Let me just do the numbers one more time to be 13 helpful. So, it's 35 coins. And the USD representation of 14 that is 17 percent overall. So, it's obviously -- those 15 coins are of lower overall value, but it's still 17 percent,
 16 which is meaningful. That's Paragraph 120 if you're looking 17 for it.
 18 Q Right. Roughly -- let's just say $200 million out of 19 the $1.3 billion, right?
 20 A Mm-hmm.
 21 Q Okay. The majority of crypto assets could be returned
 22 to the Voyager platforms if need be.
 23 A Yes. And I think that's right. And that's certainly a 24 majority, especially if you do the math if there's -- let's
 25 just keep it simple. If there's a hundred coins, it's 65 --

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions

Page 210

1 you know, 65 percent. Or if you do it on a dollar-weighted
2 basis, you're right, it's 83 percent as of the time that 3 this analysis was done, which was around 12/18. That 4 proportionately should be roughly the same. So, you're 5 absolutely right. They can do most of it on a proportionate
6 basis or on a dollar proportion basis also.

7 Q Okay, great. Great. And if I understand right
8 (indiscernible) with the Binance deal, the assets would be 9 basically placed in a trust, in some kind of trust. And 10 Binance would just essentially be the distribution medium
11 for us to get our funds back. Is that correct?

12 A I think you said that well.

13 Q Okay. Okay. So, is there really any risk then -- I
14 mean, what -- maybe I'm not thinking about this correctly,
15 but what is the risk then of going to Binance if our assets
16 will be held in trust and they're just going to just be the 17 distribution medium. Is it really just post...

18 A Yeah. You were hearing from my testimony that we 19 acknowledge that some have different views of risk than 20 others. That's the first premise. The second premise is 21 that we try to take into consideration some due diligence
22 and make sure that we understood the bid, we think that 23 Binance is the highest and best value, and that to the 24 extent that we feel uncomfortable with that transaction in 25 any way, we have a toggle. But to your question

1 know that members of my team were on site with their
2 advisors and some of the company members. And I believe
3 that they've gone through a number of books and records to 4 make sure that we're comfortable.

5 And furthermore, because there's checks and balance,
6 the unsecured creditors' committee advisors also were preset
7 at that meeting. So, it's not just the Debtor's advisors,
8 but it's also your representatives were also in the room,
9 too.

10 Q Okay. That doesn't hold much value anyway. Okay.
11 That is all my questions. Thank you.

12 A Thank you.

13 THE COURT: Okay. Is there anybody else on the 14 telephone who wishes to cross-examine the witness? All 15 right. Committee counsel?

16 MR. KIRPALANI: Yes, Your Honor. Thank you.

17 CROSS-EXAMINATION OF MARK RENZI

18 BY MR. KIRPALANI:

19 Q Mr. Renzi, good afternoon. So, you testified that you
20 conducted diligence on Binance, correct?

21 A Yes, my team has.

22 Q And in connection with that diligence, Binance made a
23 number of representations to you and others?

24 A Yes, they ha.

25 Q And do you recall the question from one of the

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions

516-608-2400

Page 211

1 specifically, I think you may have a different risk
2 tolerance than others obviously based on my testimony today
3 and questions today. Others perhaps don't see it the same
4 way you do. But nonetheless, we think the way -- the 5 construct and process that we've laid out could get
6 cryptocurrency back in kind. We think it is very well
7 thought out, and we have a toggle plan if the Binance plan
8 doesn't work. Hopefully, I answer your question.

9 Q Yeah. And just to be clear, I'm definitely not in 10 support or not in support. I'm just trying to understand 11 what the actual risk is, where is my risk by going to the 12 Binance deal. And from what I'm seeing, if all our assets
13 are being (indiscernible) in a trust okay, which will not be 14 Binance property and, you know, we'll have a period of time, 15 as the Judge was saying earlier, there's not going to be an 16 a-ha after they transfer our funds to the Binance
17 (indiscernible), well, now it's ours or now, you know,
18 whatever. So, if there's no risk of that and they're just a 19 distribution mechanism, then really -- again I might be 20 seeing this wrong. Maybe the risk is contained, I guess. I
21 might have just answered my own question. No problem.

22 One last question. In your due diligence with Binance, 23 have you seen their books? Has anyone really dug into their 24 books?

25 A We've reviewed numerous documents with the company. I

Page 213

1 questions about the comingling of cryptocurrency?

2 A I did.

3 Q And didn't Binance represent to you and other
4 professionals that Binance U.S. segregates customer crypto
5 from Binance U.S.'s cryptocurrency?

6 A I believe so. I checked my notes. I believe that's 7 right.

8 Q Okay. There were a series of questions about the 9 relationship between Binance U.S. and Binance Global. Do
10 you recall that?

11 A I do.

12 Q The purchasing entity here is BAM Trading Services
13 Inc., DBA Binance U.S. Isn't that right?

14 A Yes.

15 Q And they are a Delaware corporation?

16 A I believe they're a Delaware corporation.

17 Q And in connection with the diligence that you did and 18 the other professionals, did you look into the financial 19 capabilities of BAM Trading Services Inc., DBA Binance U.S.?

20 A We reviewed numerous documents about their books and 21 records.

22 Q Based on the diligence of BAM Trading Service Inc., DBA
23 Binance U.S. on their finances, are you comfortable that 24 they have the financial wherewithal to close?

25 A As of today, yes.

1 Q Another representation made to you by Binance was that 2 only employees of Binance U.S., not Binance Global, are able
 3 to move or withdraw customer cryptocurrency over Binance
 4 U.S.'s platform? Isn't that right?
 5 A I believe it's only Binance U.S. employees.
 6 Q Okay.
 7 A Correct.
 8 Q There was a question asked to you about the difference
 9 between how Binance U.S. holds customer crypto versus how 10 Voyager held customer crypto. Do you remember that?
 11 A I do.
 12 Q Another representation made to you was that Binance
 13 U.S. does not lend or rehypothecate customer crypto. Do you
 14 remember that?
 15 A I do.
 16 Q There were some comparisons being drawn between the 17 deal with FTX and the deal with Binance. Do you recall
 18 those questions?
 19 A There were many.
 20 Q One of the protections that was put in place in the 21 Binance deal is that customer crypto go through Binance over
 22 time. Is that right?
 23 A Yes. Over -- in succession and over weeks.
 24 Q In succession. And so, customer crypto will only go to 25 Binance U.S. once that customer has (indiscernible) with

1 A Yes.
 2 Q Based on the diligence that you've done to date, are
 3 you still supportive of the Binance deal?
 4 A Yes, I am.
 5 MR. KIRPALANI: I pass the witness, Your Honor.
 6 THE COURT: All right. Any redirect by the 7 Debtors?
 8 MR. SLADE: No, Your Honor.
 9 THE COURT: Okay. Just briefly, Mr. Renzi, you
 10 just said that you -- that Binance represented that it
 11 doesn't lend or rehypothecate. Maybe I misheard you, but I
 12 thought you said earlier in your testimony that they do
 13 rehypothecate?
 14 THE WITNESS: Yes, Your Honor. I think I was 15 mistaken. I went back and checked my notes. They do not 16 rehypothecate. They hold it one for one. I think that's a
 17 correction.
 18 THE COURT: Okay. Now, in some of the objections, 19 there have been questions about specific matters. One was 20 whether you have any knowledge of safeguards that exist to 21 stop assets from being transferred off the Binance U.S.
 22 platform, I assume at the direction of the parent or 23 somebody else. What safeguards are in place to prevent that 24 from happening to your knowledge?
 25 THE WITNESS: Your Honor, do you mean Binance

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

Page 215

1 Binance U.S. Isn't that right?
 2 A That's my understanding.
 3 Q And that limits the time period that customer crypto
 4 will be on Binance U.S. if they choose to get
 5 (indiscernible). Isn't that right?
 6 A Yes.
 7 Q So, what protections does that give? Why is that more
 8 protectorate of customer crypto than the FTX deal?
 9 A Well, the FTX deal is going to be transferred quickly
 10 and in bulk. This is over time and more protective, make 11 sure that it's done ratably and slowly to determine if there
 12 are any problems as we are doing it. So, I think it's much
 13 more conservative than the way we are approaching it.
 14 Q So, to put it plainly, all the crypto doesn't go to 15 Binance U.S. right away, right?
 16 A Correct.
 17 Q It goes on a weekly basis and only for those customers
 18 that have onboarded with Binance U.S., right?
 19 A Correct.
 20 Q So, if something were to happen with Binance U.S., it's 21 only the customer crypto that went over (indiscernible),
 22 isn't that right?
 23 A That's right.
 24 Q You submitted a declaration in support of the plan
 25 which includes this Binance deal?

1 itself or just from the customer perspective? Which
 2 perspective? Sorry.
 3 THE COURT: Well, I know you said that they
 4 represented to you that only the U.S. employees have access
 5 to the keys. What procedures are safeguards are in place to 6 prevent the parent from telling the U.S. employees to just 7 transfer things off to the parent?
 8 THE WITNESS: I believe they are separate legal 9 entities with separate management teams that they 10 specifically hold them differently. I can't anticipate if 11 there's malfeasance. But to my understanding, they will try 12 to do everything they can to protect it. But I can't 13 survive how far an entity might redirect a U.S. entity.
 14 THE COURT: Is that a possibility you discussed
 15 with them or did you get any assurances from them on that 16 point?
 17 THE WITNESS: Other than what I've already
 18 represented, they said that they wouldn't. But I don't know
 19 any other procedures that they have in place to do that.
 20 THE COURT: This might be more of a question for 21 Mr. Tichenor. But in his declaration, he says as part of 22 the due diligence that in response to news reports about the 23 transfers of $400 million to Merit Peak Limited, that the 24 Debtors have done supplemental due diligence. And it was a 25 little vague about what questions were asked and what the

1 answers were and whether that loop has really been closed or 2 whether it's still a point of discussion. Do you have any 3 knowledge of that?

4 THE WITNESS: I would defer to Mr. Tichenor on 5 that subject, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: I'm sure he appreciates that.

7 THE WITNESS: I spent quite a lot of time with you
8 this afternoon, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Let's (indiscernible) next.
10 All right. Thank you very much. You are excused.

11 All right. It is 4:30. Do you want to begin with 12 another witness or continue tomorrow?

13 MR. SLADE: We would like to try to finish. I
14 think our next witness, Mr. Kirpalani (indiscernible).

15 MR. KIRPALANI: Good afternoon, Your Honor.
16 Susheel Kirpalani for Quinn Emanuel on behalf of the 17 Debtors. And more specifically speaking through the special
18 committee of independent directors of Voyager Digital LLC.

19 The next witness that we'd like to call is Mr.
20 Timothy Pohl, who is one of the two independent directors of 21 Voyager Digital LLC. Mr. Pohl, who doesn't live in New 22 York, just has some restrictions on his availability
23 tomorrow. And so, we would like to attempt to get his 24 testimony done today if that's at all possible.

25 THE COURT: We can try, but my guess is we're not

Page 220

1 THE COURT: Mr. Pohl, do you swear that the
2 testimony you are about to give will be the truth, the whole
3 truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

4 MR. POHL: I do.

5 THE COURT: State your full name for the record,
6 please.

7 MR. POHL: Timothy Pohl.

8 THE COURT: All right. Counsel, please proceed.

9 MR. KIRPALANI: Thank you, Your Honor. Your 10 Honor, we filed -- it's Exhibit 3 for the trial record
11 today, the Declaration of Timothy Pohl, as his direct 12 testimony. It's Docket Number 1111. I understand the prior 13 declaration received objections as to being admitted as 14 direct. We would like to ask for this witness that his 15 declaration be deemed admitted for his direct. He is 16 available for cross-examination. And in particular, I would 17 like to point out that much of his direct testimony relates 18 to the special committee's independent investigation and 19 report which has been on the docket since February 14th, 20 2023 for all parties in interest to review. And to my 21 knowledge, no specific objections at confirmation related to 22 any of the particular findings therein. But he is here and 23 available to answer cross-examination. But I will proceed
24 any way Your Honor thinks appropriate.

25 THE COURT: On the first stance, are there any

Page 219

1 going to be able to. I mean, he's testifying about the 2 releases, right?

3 MR. KIRPALANI: The estate releases, yes.

4 THE COURT: Yeah. I suspect based on how many 5 questions we had on Mr. Renzi's issues, that we're probably 6 going to have a lot on Mr. Pohl's issues, too.

7 MR. KIRPALANI: Can I confer with co-counsel?

8 THE COURT: Sure.

9 MR. KIRPALANI: Thank you.

10 MR. SLADE: Your Honor, just briefly, if we were 11 to continue, how long would Your Honor be prepared to go
12 today?

13 THE COURT: I haven't asked the court staff how 14 long they are set up to go. I mean, it's usually not an 15 issue for me. I don't know if you have any issue. You're 16 okay? Certainly, we could go -- you're all right, Danny?
17 Certainly, we can go to 6:00 or a little later. I mean, I
18 don't have any personal issue.

19 MR. KIRPALANI: Yeah, we'd like to plow ahead,
20 Your Honor, if possible.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Let's do what we can do.

22 MR. KIRPALANI: Thank you, Your Honor. Again, for 23 the record, Susheel Kirpalani of Quinn Emanuel on behalf of 24 the Debtors. We would like to call Timothy Pohl to the 25 witness stand.

3 Anybody who desires it will have an opportunity to 4 cross-examine him. But there are no objections, so his 5 declaration is admitted into evidence.

6 MR. KIRPALANI: Thank you, Your Honor.

7 DIRECT EXAMINATION OF TIMOTHY POHL

8 BY MR. KIRPALANI:

9 Q Mr. Pohl, I will just ask you briefly. Have you had a 10 chance to review your declaration since it was filed two 11 days ago?

12 A I have.

13 Q Do you have any changes that you would make to the 14 declaration?

15 A No.

16 Q Okay.

17 MR. KIRPALANI: We have nothing further on direct,
18 Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: All right. Is there anybody in the 20 courtroom who wishes to cross-examine Mr. Pohl?

21 Hang on a second. I'll get to the telephone
22 people in a minute. I just want to start with the people
23 who are here in the courtroom. Is there anybody here in the 24 courtroom who wishes to cross-examine Mr. Pohl? Okay. How 25 about on the telephone? Is there anybody on the telephone that wishes to ask questions of Mr. Pohl?

MR. HENDERSHOTT: Your Honor, this is Tracy Hendershott, pro se creditor. Again, Your Honor, I haven't even seen this submission, so hard to ask questions. Can we get a summary of it from him verbally? Is that possible?

THE COURT: Sure.

MR. KIRPALANI: Absolutely, Mr. Hendershott. This is Susheel Kirpalani from Quinn Emanuel. And we will definitely give a summary of his testimony and then we can pass the witness to the extent you've got questions.

MR. HENDERSHOTT: (Indiscernible) --

BY MR. KIRPALANI:

Q Very briefly, Mr. Pohl, can you describe your background and experience for the Court?

A Sure. I've been in restructuring business for a little over 30 years. I started as an attorney at Jones Day where I had been an associate for about seven years and then became a lawyer at Skadden Arps in 1999 where I stayed until 2008. By the time I left, I was the co-head of Skadden's worldwide restructuring practice. In 2008, I left to become a managing partner at Lazard Freres where I was an investment banker in restructuring for the next decade. I retired from Lazard in the summer of -- or the fall of 2019. And I have been doing a variety of things ever since, including sitting on some boards of distressed companies as

Q Are there any other members of the special committee at Voyager Digital LLC?

A Yes. Ms. Jill Frizzley is the other (indiscernible).

Q Did you know Ms. Frizzley before serving on the board with her?

A I do of her. She was an attorney for I want to say around 20 years. I know by the end I think at Weil Gotshal. Or maybe the whole time. I'm not sure. I'm not I've had -- I've cross paths with her from time to time, but I didn't know (indiscernible).

Q Did you ever serve on a board with her before?

A No.

Q In your review, how did the board function? Well, poorly, acrimony, consensus?

A Well, I mean, the two of us were the two independent directors at Voyager LLC. You know, we were there for a particular purpose, which was to conduct this investigation. We hired counsel and we moved on from there.

Q Okay. And what did you consider the primary role for the special committee?

A Our primary role was to investigate historical transactions, really mostly about the -- the real impetus for the special committee I think was to look into the lending practices around the (indiscernible) capital loans that the company made. But as part of that, we looked at an independent director.

Q Thinking about boards of distressed companies that you've sat on, are any of those companies, companies that Kirkland & Ellis has been counsel to?

A Voyager is the only company I have been asked by Kirkland and nominated by Kirkland to be a director on. I was asked in one other instance to be a director by creditors. Kirkland represented the company.

Q Okay. And what about my firm, Quinn Emanuel? Have we represented you as an independent director in any other engagements?

A (Indiscernible).

Q Do you have any connections with any potential party that you've been investigating in the course of your duties as a member of the independent special committee here?

A No.

Q How did you come to serve on the board of Voyager Digital LLC and can you tell us when that happened?

A I think right before the July 4th (indiscernible) called me and asked me if I would be interested in being an independent director, and specifically being on the special committee that was going to be charged with conducting an internal investigation (indiscernible) conducting. I said that I would. (Indiscernible) that's the only time I have been asked by Kirkland to be on a board (indiscernible).

(indiscernible) transactions and regulatory issues, we looked at the company's lending practices, the company's risk management practices. We sort of looked at everything to determine (indiscernible) with the assistance of counsel of course to whether or not there were any viable causes of action owned by the estate.

We specifically did not look at and were not charged with looking at individual causes of action, customer causes of action, regulatory causes of action, but estate-only causes of action arising out of historical transactions and practices.

Q Did the special committee consult with the statutory unsecured creditors' committed in the course of its work?

A We did extensively. One of the first things that we determined, particularly in light of the nature of the company's balance sheet with the creditors were and there was a creditor's committee, and that they were going to conduct their own investigation as it were. There was no reason not to be completely cooperative and hand-in-glove with them in that exercise, and that's what we set out to do.

Q And you said there was no reason not to be cooperative with them. Was there a reason to be cooperative with them in your view?

A Yeah. They're the primary fiduciary constituent

Page 226

1 representing really the only real creditor class in this 2 case.

3 Q So, did you consider their views important to you?

4 A Very important.

5 Q What did the special committee do in terms of an
6 investigation? You hear that word investigation, what does
7 it actually mean?

8 A So, the first thing you do of course is hire counsel.
9 And we hired you. And we then set out to -- I just call it
10 discovery phase where we talked about the types of 11 information that we would like to review and to have you
12 review from the Debtor. And so, there were a series of -- 13 I'm doing this from memory, but 25 or 30 separate 14 information requests that were (indiscernible) over the 15 course of the investigation asking for documents. There 16 were phone conversations and then there were a series of 17 interviews that were conducted. I think there were 12
18 separate interviews that people conducted of company
19 officers and employees. And that was how we conducted the 20 investigation.

21 Q And did the special committee have any financial 22 advisor available to it?

23 A We didn't hire our own, but we were -- we had complete
24 access to BRG and Mr. Renzi and his whole team. And we in 25 fact availed ourselves of that and we had information

Page 228

1 conclusion of the special committee as to whether the estate
2 had any causes of action against insiders of Voyager?

3 A Our ultimate conclusion was that there may be 4 cognizable claims for breaches of fiduciary duty to care
5 against two of the company's senior officers, Mr. Ehrlich
6 and Mr. Psaropoulos.

7 Q And what did the special committee do with those 8 findings or with that conclusion?

9 A Well, we did a number of things. So, first of all, I
10 think our conclusion was that there may be cognizable causes
11 of action, non-frivolous causes of action. That's not the 12 same thing as concluding that there would be -- that they 13 were wonderful causes of action or slam-dunk winning causes
14 of action, but cognizable causes of action that -- number
15 one. Number two, we concluded that they would be pretty 16 hard to prosecute successfully, which we talk about. And 17 three, we spent some time determining whether or not those 18 two individuals had the financial wherewithal to pay
19 significant judgement. And then number four, we were sort
20 of very cognizant of the fact that this director and officer
21 liability insurance that remains intact and is staying and 22 could be available to satisfy potential judgements or
23 (indiscernible).

24 So, with all of those things in mind, we thought that 25 the best course of action and judgement was to see if we

1 sessions, Ms. Frizzley and myself with you, in order to 2 understand things better things that we didn't understand.
3 I think (indiscernible) at the beginning of the case we were 4 crypto neophytes. So, we had a lot to learn. So, we
5 availed ourselves as that. And I (indiscernible) as well
6 separate and apart from Ms. Frizzley and myself. We 7 certainly had access to Kirkland & Ellis (indiscernible) any 8 conversations as part of the investigation.

9 Q Did the special committee's investigation culminate in 10 any written report?

11 A There was a written report. So, the investigation
12 lasted approximately two months. I think it was July and 13 August. A little longer than two months. And in early fall
14 your firm prepared a draft. We reviewed it, we discussed
15 it, and I think the culmination of that work was a -- I want 16 to say about a 60-page, single spaced report that was 17 finalized I think it was in early October if I remember
18 right. That was the report.

19 Q And just so that we have it in the record, to your 20 knowledge was that report filed publicly on the docket in a
21 redacted form?

22 A It was. Not at that time, but it was filed I think in 23 redacted form I want to say in February. Does that sound
24 right?

25 Q Docket Number 1000, yes. And what was the ultimate

1 could put together a settlement that would include
2 protecting the D&O policy for the benefit of the creditors
3 to the best of our ability as well as to obtain some 4 monetary judgement from the monetary contribution from those 5 two potential parties. Keeping in mind, you know, what 6 their financial wherewithal was.

7 Q You said a lot there. But rather than me home in on 8 each element of your testimony, perhaps I can ask you to 9 just summarize the terms of the settlement reached with Mr.
10 Ehrlich and Mr. Psaropoulos. And if you need to refer to 11 your declaration, it is in evidence. You can do that. And 12 then perhaps we can pass the witness in the interest of 13 time.

14 THE COURT: Let me just ask. Somebody on the 15 telephone, we've got some noise coming over your line.
16 Please mute yourselves unless you are asking questions or 17 unless you have an evidentiary objection to a question.
18 Okay? Thanks.

19 BY MR. KIRPALANI:

20 A Let me do the easy parts first (indiscernible) there's 21 some more complicated legal parts which I might refer to my 22 declaration to make sure I say it right. But in essence,
23 the settlement -- let's do them one at a time.

24 With respect to Mr. Ehrlich, the settlement is for him
25 to pay to the estate -- he had received a bonus prior to

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

Page 230

1 filing the bankruptcy (indiscernible) the filing of the 2 bankruptcy. He receive a bonus in the ordinary course of 3 business in our view of about $1.9 million. And he paid
4 taxes on that. So, his net bonus net of taxes was 5 approximately $1.12 or $1.13 million. And we as part of our 6 settlement negotiated for him to return those funds, all of 7 them, to the estate, as well as to have the ability to, if 8 it's available, if there is a tax refund that is applicable
9 to the unwinding of that bonus, if you will, then the estate
10 would get the benefit of that as well.

11 That amount of money was a pretty significant amount of 12 money relative to what his ability to pay. But that's what 13 we got from him as part of the settlement.

14 Q And let me just interrupt you there. You said it was a 15 pretty significant part relative to his ability to pay. How 16 do you know what his ability to pay was?

17 A So, before we were willing to consider what settlement
18 we would be willing to support, we asked -- we required that 19 there be disclosure of his personal financial assets and 20 liabilities and we required that those be provided under 21 oath, if you will. There was both a -- I don't think it was 22 an affidavit, but there was a sworn statement. And then he 23 was deposed.

24 Q Thank you. And were there any other elements to the 25 Ehrlich settlement before we move on?

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

Page 232

1 A To me it's easier to think about it that way. And then
2 with respect to Mr. Psaropoulos, where I think we thought
3 that the relative strength of the claims were different and 4 not exactly the same -- still not frivolous. We had a
5 similar approach. We insisted on gaining information under 6 oath and through depositions about his personal financial 7 situation. And the settlement with him is that he is -- has 8 some crypto on the exchange. Right? So, he is essentially
9 subordinating 50 percent of his rights to receive whatever
10 he would receive under the plan as -- that's how he is 11 contributing financially. That value of that is 12 approximately -- I think the last time we calculated fell at 13 $60,000. And then he is also waiving his rights to 14 indemnification (indiscernible). And then there is for both 15 of them the more complicated piece with respect to the 16 (indiscernible) insurance policy.

17 Q Okay. You mentioned that the estate was not actually 18 releasing the claims against them, but just agreeing not to 19 seek recourse against their personal assets beyond what they 20 were contributing. Did I get that correct?

21 A You did.

22 Q What about customers who have claims against the Debtor
23 or claims that they believe they have against individuals?
24 Are those being released under the settlement that we 25 reached with them?

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

Page 231

1 A Yes. A couple. And now it gets a little harder to
2 describe (indiscernible). So, (indiscernible)
3 subordinating. He has rights to indemnification for the 4 company if he is sued -- I just want to back up for a
5 second. The estate's claims against those two individuals
6 are not being released. So, part of the settlement was that 7 those claims are not released so that the claims against 8 them can continue to be prosecuted. And to the extent that 9 there's a judgment or a settlement, the estate can look to 10 the D&O coverage with respect to (indiscernible).

11 On top of -- but as a result of monetary payment, there
12 is no more recourse against his personal assets. And the 13 reason I said it that way is because he has the right to be 14 (indiscernible) for both and (indiscernible) and he also has 15 the right (indiscernible). And he also has the right to be 16 indemnified for defense costs, which (indiscernible).

17 So, with respect to the settlement indemnification
18 rights, he has waived his rights essentially to receive
19 indemnification from the estate.

20 The next thing if we're going to do it person-by-21 person, there's a little bit of complexity around the 22 insurance policies. So, I think it's probably easier just 23 to go and stay with the monetary pieces between the two 24 people and then talk about the insurance.

25 Q Sure.

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

Page 233

1 A They're not being released. So, the only releases
2 (indiscernible) that are being released under the plan are 3 (indiscernible). The only releases with respect to them are 4 releases of estate causes of action. So, individual
5 customers who believe that they have claims against either
6 of them or any other officer and director, those claims are 7 not being released. Same with (indiscernible). They're not 8 released.

9 Q Do you recall there was a time in the internal 10 investigation when you became aware of an insurance policy
11 that was obtained by the debtors shortly before the filing?

12 A Yes.

13 Q And what was your reaction to learning that 14 information?

15 A Here's what we learned. So, the company had a policy
16 or a number of policies that essentially amounted to 17 (indiscernible). Shortly before (indiscernible) filing,
18 getting ready for the filing, the company procured a second
19 policy as part of a larger improvement in their overall D&O
20 insurance situation. So, what we came to learn was that the 21 company paid -- I think it was around $15 million for a
22 basket of goodies. One of those goodies, but not the only
23 goody, was another $10 million called the (indiscernible)
24 policy, another $10 million of D&O coverage. So, ten plus
25 ten is 20. That wasn't the only thing that the company

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

1 obtained in exchange for that.

2 Q Do you recall what else the company obtained?

3 A I do. The company also obtained six-year tail coverage

4 under both policies. So, the original $10 million policy

5 and (indiscernible) purchased and I think, though I'm not a

6 hundred percent sure, but I don't think they had the 7 contractual right -- they had to negotiate with the

8 insurance carrier to obtain six years of tail coverage under

9 both policies, and there was money associated obtaining that 10 benefit.

11 And then the other was the original policy was as I

12 understand it excluded coverage for customer and regulatory

13 claims. Those exclusions were removed from both the 14 original policies and they did not apply to the new policy.

15 And so, those were all the things that happened at once for 16 a sum of fifteen-point-something-million dollars.

17 Q Despite that, it sounds like from your testimony there

18 was a basket, to use your phrase, of goodies, meaning

19 benefits to the debtor. Is that what you mean when you say

20 that?

21 A Yes.

22 Q Okay. Despite that, did you have a reaction given your

23 experience as a restructuring professional as to whether the 24 transfers to the insurance company on the eve of filing

25 might be avoidable for the benefit of the estate?

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

1 A I do.

2 Q Why do you think that it is?

3 A Well, we conducted a pretty thorough investigation. We

4 looked at the company's risk management practices around --

5 particularly around (indiscernible). We concluded that

6 there were risk management practices in place. They were

7 not perfect. They were a work in progress at that phase and

8 time. But there was some level of diligence done. There

9 were decisions made for reasons that made sense. There was

10 an absence, a notable absence of any indicia of self-

11 dealing, improper motives. There was nothing in it for 12 these executives other than their genuine belief that making

13 those loans was good for the company. They were investors.

14 They had currency on the platform. Didn't find any of the 15 red flags that you sometimes find in other types of 16 situations. And so, whether or not there were breach of 17 duty of care claims based on criticism of the depth and the 18 detail around the risk management practices and how they

19 went into business with (indiscernible). We thought there

20 were some good facts and there were some bad facts. And 21 under the law as I remember it and as I have certainly been

22 reeducated by counsel, really you would have to find for

23 there to be a breach in duty of care. That's a gross

24 negligence standard. You would have to find that they were

25 grossly negligent (indiscernible), grossly negligent in

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

1 A I think one of the things that stuck out to us was that

2 it appeared that despite the way I just described it, it

3 appeared in the paperwork as it was reported to us that the

4 $10 million new (indiscernible) policy cost the company $10

5 million. Whether that's the (indiscernible) described or

6 not, (indiscernible) of the greater sum that was paid for

7 the basket of goodies in some sense I think the insurance

8 company (indiscernible) sort of the thought behind it is $10

9 million of new coverage for $10 million. I don't know

10 whether that's accurate or not. But when we observed that,

11 our reaction to that was, huh, that seems unusual and

12 (indiscernible) there could be a fraudulent conveyance claim

13 against the insurance company for whether or not they

14 provided the estate with (indiscernible) in exchange for the 15 $10 million that they received.

16 Q Did you do anything with that thought, that it may be

17 an avoidable transaction?

18 A We did. As part of the overall settlement, we

19 preserved that cause of action, did not release

20 (indiscernible) and that cause of action, along with the 21 causes of action against the two individuals, are being

22 transferred to (indiscernible).

23 Q Okay. Do you have a view as to whether the settlement

24 reached with Mr. Ehrlich and Mr. Psaropoulos is in the best

25 interest of the estate?

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

1 probably going about doing the things that I just talked

2 about and making decisions (indiscernible).

3 And while we thought that there were colorable claims,

4 we thought that there were also pretty colorable

5 counterpoints. So, when we coupled that with the fact that

6 you can't get water from a stone. If you see somebody

7 (indiscernible) anybody can sue anybody for anything. They

8 not only might not win, but they're not going to have

9 anything to give you if you do win. And we looked at their

10 financial assets, and we thought that (indiscernible) in our

11 business judgment and in the best interest of the estate

12 would be negotiate the best deal that we could from them,

13 obtain some positive value, and really maintain the source

14 of recovery that is (indiscernible), which is the $20

15 million (indiscernible). And so, we thought that taking all

16 that into account, that that was extremely beneficial for

17 the estate and we were -- we felt good about our business

18 judgement. Not that we relied on the judgment of others,

19 but it supported our belief that that was a good settlement

20 under the circumstances that the creditor's committee

21 reached the same conclusion.

22 MR. KIRPALANI: I have nothing further, Your

23 Honor, for the witness.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Anybody in the courtroom who

25 now wishes to question the witness? Yes?

UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Your Honor, I have only one question.

THE COURT: You have one behind you who I acknowledged first there.

MS. COWEN: I am Stacey Cowen. I am a creditor. (indiscernible). I am an investor. I have had 177,000 shares of Voyager that I bought from 2020 until May of 2022 that at high was three-and-a-half million. Now it's zero. And I -- you know, followed investor relations, press releases, interviewed Mr. Ehrlich, had correspondence with Mr. Ehrlich in text about the company. And I actually had a question. I guess when was he paid off that bonus and when was that additional insurance taken out?

CROSS-EXAMINATION OF TIMOTHY POHL

BY MS. COWEN:

A So, I think I can refresh my recollection and give you exact dates if you want. But I believe that the bonus was in February of 2022, before there was any lending made to (indiscernible), by the way.

Q Okay.

A And then the insurance policy was procured in July of 2022, right before the filing. The additional insurance.

Q Okay. And (indiscernible) correspondence. I didn't say what the texts were, but (indiscernible). I said, "Is Voyager in trouble? I have almost all my savings and my

212-267-6868

And also, I have a question about the equity, whether the intercompany claims that are in question at Topco, if there's going to be an independent committee that is going to be appointed to oversee that. It's not related to either management, the group here. There's going to be someone independent to look at these intercompany claims and see if the equity holders can get an answer --

THE COURT: Okay. That's quite a mouthful, and it's -- a lot of it's not really a question, I guess.

MS. COWEN: Well, intercompany I guess (indiscernible).

THE COURT: It's okay.

MR. SLADE: Your Honor, we would be happy to answer her questions.

THE COURT: Yeah. As I understand it, the first part of your question relates to your personal communications and communications Mr. Ehrlich may have had with others that you think were misleading. And that perhaps gave rise to liability to you or to other investors. It's important, and I think there's been a lot of confusion about this, none of those claims are affected by this plan. Your claims against the Debtor had to be asserted in a proof of claim, but if you have claims against individuals who allegedly committed fraud, the only way they would be affected is if you voluntarily executed the opt-in form to kids' wrapped up in your company. And since the equity (indiscernible) customer assets".

He writes back, "Who said we were in trouble?"

I said, "It's just the stock has been down so much and that's been blocked by Celsius while that stuff is going on".

He said, "Every fin-tech company that's public is getting slaughtered in the market".

And I said, "Totally aware. Just wanted to make sure, again. I have my entire retirement savings gone at this point".

And then June 22nd, when the (indiscernible) Capital news came out, Voyager Digital (indiscernible) the article. (indiscernible). He writes, "Nope".

I say, "Great. Thanks". And that's June 22nd, right before the bankruptcy was filed.

Not just me. Other equity investors relied on (indiscernible) about (indiscernible) and adding stocks to the platform about the (indiscernible) to uplift in terms of price. You know, so it wasn't just (indiscernible) Capital (indiscernible) falling it was, you know, additional information that was being transmitted by the CEO saying that the company was healthy. And that's why I held on. So, I think there is some personal liability for the executives of the company.

agree to give those releases. Otherwise -- and somebody correct me on the Debtor's side if I'm misstating this -- otherwise, your claims against him if you have claims against him are totally unaffected. Totally left in place. Okay? I did want to make sure you understand that.

MR. SLADE: That's correct, Your Honor. Unless they (indiscernible).

THE COURT: Right.

MS. COWEN: That's assuming I have money to pay legal fees if (indiscernible).

THE COURT: I understand. One of the unfortunate things as a bankruptcy judge is I am accustomed to seeing people who have suffered financial losses. Sometimes people who can endure the, and sometimes not. And we can't always do anything about it. And I do sympathize with your situation, I really do. But if you have a claim, I can at least assure you that that hasn't been extinguished by the bankruptcy. The stock may turn out to be worthless. There's nothing I can do to resurrect that.

MS. COWEN: Will there be that independent committee for the intercompany claims that are --

THE COURT: On the intercompany, this may not be the witness, but let's let the Debtor answer your question.

MR. SLADE: Yes. We could direct you to the lawyers who are representing the Topco individually after

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

1 this hearing.

2 MS. COWEN: Okay. It would be an independent, not
3 part of the committee --

4 MR. SLADE: There is a different independent
5 director at the Topco who is not Mr. Pohl. And he has 6 separate counsel.

7 THE COURT: So, in other words, the intercompany
8 issues will be debated. They will be followed by an 9 independent director at Topco. And I believe, if I read
10 correctly the latest amended version of the plan that was 11 filed, there is an agreement that even if there's a 12 settlement of intercompany issues, if it's over a certain 13 dollar amount, that it has to be presented to me for 14 approval, at which time if Topco doesn't like it, it can 15 object.

16 MS. COWEN: And would the equity be subordinated
17 to claims let's say of all the estates, $60 billion or 18 whatever it ends up being, by all the estates that are 19 claiming --

20 THE COURT: I am afraid that would be the case.
21 Because their claims, whether subordinated or not -- first 22 of all, to the extent that they have claims against the 23 subsidiaries, they would have to be paid before any of the 24 subsidiaries could pay any money up to their equity owners.
25 So, any claims against opco and holdco would have to be paid

1 and-a-half-million-dollar (indiscernible) before bankruptcy
2 as well that they then sold another 12-and-a-half-million-
3 dollars in the form of NFTs. All of the executives are 4 still part of Particle Foundation. Is there any ability to 5 claw back any of that in terms of either the artwork,
6 priceless artwork I see, Love Is In The Air, or the NFT sale
7 commissions that (indiscernible), Steve Ehrlich, all those 8 people that are on the board of Particle Foundation
9 Collective. It's a non-profit.

10 MR. SLADE: Well, I'm not sure this is going to 11 answer your question, but I can tell you that we looked at 12 Mr. Ehrlich's assets, what he owns that was available. And 13 none of that was there.

14 MS. COWEN: The assets you looked at, were they 15 U.S. bank statements, were they blockchain? Because 16 obviously someone could (indiscernible) blockchain and 17 (indiscernible) that's not in a U.S. bank statement.

18 MR. SLADE: All I can say is that he testified
19 under oath essentially that what we saw was all that he had.

20 MS. COWEN: What happened to his $30 million of 21 stock that he sold less than a year ago?

22 MR. SLADE: Most of it was not his. Family,
23 friends. Not his.

24 MS. COWEN: Okay. But Madoff, they clawed back
25 from family, friends. I mean, that's a way to...

1 before any of their money went up to, by way of dividend
2 anyway, up to Topco. Now, Topco may have, if it wins on the 3 intercompany claims, they just have direct recoveries. And 4 then if the regulators have valid claims against Topco,
5 those would have to be paid before equity could be paid
6 because creditor claims have to come first. I don't know if 7 they have -- one way or the other if they have any claims
8 against Topco, to tell you the truth.

9 MS. COWEN: I have another question. Market
10 Rebellion, did they receive any payments or ability to 11 exercise any options right before the bankruptcy? Were they 12 able to get any money out of their deal with them? Market
13 Rebellion is the company that is going to list stocks on 14 their platform in addition to crypto and they never 15 delivered on that, and they said starting at the beginning
16 of 2022 that was going to happen. Is there any exercising
17 of any (indiscernible) options, anything like that with 18 Market Rebellion before the bankruptcy was filed that could 19 be clawed back?

20 MR. SLADE: I believe the answer is no, but I
21 would be happy to talk to you about that after the hearing.

22 THE COURT: Okay.

23 MS. COWEN: (indiscernible) others. And my last 24 question was Particle Foundation. All of the executives of 25 Voyager are also on Particle Foundation, which bought a 12-

1 MR. SLADE: We looked at whether or not as a legal 2 matter there was any basis to, and there wasn't any.

3 MS. COWEN: Okay. And May 12th when he texted me
4 about -- you know, I said all my assets are tied up, you
5 know, is there anything to worry about. He said no. I
6 think within a day of that, Francine Ehrlich took out a home
7 equity loan and bought a $2.3 million property in Nashville
8 in her name. It's a bankruptcy homestead protected state.
9 I don't know if you looked into that.

10 MR. SLADE: We know she had some of her own
11 assets, yes. And we asked whether or not there was any 12 legal way to pull those into his -- you know, for settlement
13 purposes or (indiscernible) settlement if that would be 14 available to (indiscernible) and the legal answer was no.

15 MS. COWEN: Okay. Even though the timing happened
16 to correspond with the bankruptcy right after that?

17 MR. SLADE: (indiscernible).

18 MS. COWEN: Okay. I would be curious about Market
19 Rebellion, because (indiscernible). So, that's all. Thank 20 you.

21 THE COURT: All right. You're very welcome. Yes.

22 MS. CALANDRA: Thank you, Your Honor. John 23 Calandra from McDermott Will & Emery on behalf of the 24 Committee, Your Honor.

25 CROSS-EXAMINATION OF TIMOTHY POHL

1 BY MR. CALANDRA:

2 Q Mr. Pohl, I just have one question. It's been a long

3 day. I just wanted to clarify something you said about the

4 scope of the investigation. I think -- I believe you said

5 that you investigated the estate's claims that it may have,

6 but I wanted to be clear that that was against only the 7 insiders, not against anyone and everyone.

8 A Correct.

9 MR. CALANDRA: No further questions, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Who do you mean by insiders?

11 THE WITNESS: Officers and directors.

12 THE COURT: Okay.

13 THE WITNESS: I'm thinking to myself whether there

14 were (indiscernible), but I can't think of any.

15 THE COURT: All right. Anybody else in the 16 courtroom who wants to question the witness?

17 Is there anybody on the telephone --

18 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Your Honor, I am a pro se

19 creditor.

20 THE COURT: Yes. What is your name?

21 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: My name is (indiscernible).

22 I had a couple of questions for the witness regarding Mr.

23 Psaropoulos.

24 THE COURT: Okay, please proceed.

25 BY UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER:

212-267-6868

1 There was nothing significant there. We looked at how much

2 he has in his bank accounts. There was nothing significant

3 there. He has a retirement account that's relatively

4 modest. And so, there wasn't a lot to get. And so, if you

5 didn't settle and you sued him and you won, you would be

6 depleting (indiscernible) entitled to have the D&O policy

7 advance his costs to defend himself. It eats into the $20

8 million policy. He has the right to be indemnified if you

9 settle the one, you have that claim against the company.

10 And when we put all of that together, we thought let's

11 preserve the D&O policy assets, let's get the dollars that

12 he can afford to pay without it being in his interest to 13 fight it. And that's how we thought about the settlement

14 with -- really with both of them. But they had different

15 financial profiles, so we didn't reach the same outcome.

16 Q Thank you. No further questions.

17 THE COURT: Okay. Anybody else on the telephone

18 who has questions for Mr. Pohl?

19 MR. HENDERSHOTT: Yes, Your Honor. Thank you.

20 It's Tracy Hendershott, pro se creditor.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Go ahead, Mr. Hendershott.

22 MR. HENDERSHOTT: Thank you, sir.

23 CROSS-EXAMINATION OF TIMOTHY POHL

24 BY MR. HENDERSHOTT:

25 Q Mr. Pohl, I appreciate your time. I especially 212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions

1 Q I heard in your earlier testimony that half of his

2 claim on Voyager he was contributing is worth roughly

3 $60,000. I also noticed in the filing that his net worth is

4 redacted. Just for the creditors, could we know how much

5 money is there, so we know there's nothing to pursue or give

6 us a ballpark figure for that net worth for Mr. Psaropoulos?

7 MR. KIRPALANI: I would just caution the witness

8 that we do have a confidentiality obligation with respect to 9 Mr. Psaropoulos and his counsel. You can answer the 10 question with that instruction.

11 BY UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER:

12 A Sure. I'll try to follow that. He does have some

13 other assets. He has a house. He has some money in a 401K

14 plan. And he has some money in a bank account. They are

15 not what I would describe as significant amounts of money

16 (indiscernible). And certainly not anywhere close to what

17 is available under the D&O policies. Not remotely close.

18 And so, when we thought about settling -- and nobody settles

19 by giving up every single penny that they have -- we did not

20 -- he had one house. I was about to say we didn't -- we

21 thought it was not -- we would never get settlement offer

22 going after a person's house. If a person had owned 14

23 houses, that would be different. But he owned one house,

24 owns one house.

25 So, we looked at his house, we looked at his value.

1 appreciate you and counsel from Quinn Emanuel of starting

2 off with the nice summary. That was very helpful.

3 Your focus was exclusively -- I believe you stated with 4 (indiscernible) activity and series of events leading up to 5 that loan. Did I hear that correctly?

6 A No, not quite. It wasn't our exclusive focus. I think

7 when this case started, everybody understood that that was a

8 big part of what had gone wrong here. And so, that was at 9 the top of everybody's mind that ought to be looked --

10 Q Okay. A primary focus. So, what I'm asking is not

11 necessarily whether you have a lot of details of how that 12 whole sequence of events went. I'm curious if you are aware

13 of whether the executives of voyager were personally aware

14 of the collapse of 3AC specifically if they were notified by 15 3AC that the founders were on the run, nonresponsive, and 16 were recommended to immediately call back all of the loans.

17 A Yes, I am. In fact, we spent a lot of time staring at

18 the timeline of the events, culminating in a -- I am doing

19 this from memory without refreshing my recollection. I

20 think that was in mid-June. It was around the 13th or 14th

21 or 12th, one of those dates where they were told for the

22 first time that they've got to try to recall the loans. And 23 that it was because they were on the run, the 3AC founders.

24 Q So, in the filing of the investigation that the UCC

25 counsel performed, it does state June 14th. So, that

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

1 recollects with your memory as well it sounds like.

2 A Good. I'm glad to hear that.

3 Q And at that -- or also in the filing from the UCC

4 counsel, they state Mr. Psaropoulos, Mr. Ehrlich were in

5 direct communication with 3AC. That's when they were told

6 the founders are on the run. I think in quotes here it says

7 they are (indiscernible) and the suggestion is that you

8 recall of its loans immediately. And the testimony in your

9 investigation (indiscernible) states Mr. Psaropoulos and Mr.

10 Ehrlich (indiscernible) to that knowledge. Does that 11 correlate with your memory?

12 A It does.

13 Q Great. Also, did you look at any of the communications

14 that was released? I know we just heard the other creditors

15 saying how they have materially false statements coming from 16 their executives. Was that part of your investigation on 17 the larger scale specifically with press releases

18 (indiscernible) on a large-scale basis?

19 A Well, you broke up there a little bit, so I missed some 20 of those words, but I think I get the gist, which is -- and

21 again, so we had counsel review -- ask for and then review --

22 -- as I said, there were 30 information requests. I'm sure

23 it included all communications that were relevant to this.

24 There were, I don't know about, 10,000, 11,000 documents,

25 40,000 pages that were reviewed, something like that. You

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions

1 larger investigation?

2 A I recall knowing that there was (indiscernible).

3 Q And so, release of that information on the exact same

4 day that they notified that we're headed towards the path of 5 bankruptcy, would you quantify that as materially false?

6 MR. KIRPALANI: I'm going to object, Your Honor.

7 It calls for a legal conclusion.

8 THE COURT: that's true. It does. Sustained.

9 MR. HENDERSHOTT: We can't get the opinion of the 10 lead director for the investigation what their consideration

11 of facts? He talked earlier that he didn't feel that the 12 actions (indiscernible), so I think it's relevant to 13 understand his --

14 THE COURT: Just let me be clear. The exact words

15 you used called for a legal opinion. You can ask him if he

16 considered that it gave rise to any claims on behalf of the 17 company and if so, how he evaluated and whether he pursued

18 them.

19 BY MR. HENDERSHOTT:

20 Q Okay. So, Mr. Pohl, did this action give rise to 21 claims against the company that would warrant actions

22 (indiscernible) --

23 A I think not. Right? I think whether or not they were

24 false at the time they were made, highly unclear. Things

25 were moving very, very quickly. 3AC turned out to be a

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

1 know, Ms. Frizzley and myself didn't manually review those

2 ourselves. We had counsel review that and write a report

3 for us and flag issues for us that they thought were worth

4 flagging. I can't -- (indiscernible) specific communication

5 one by one that I can tell you for sure was looked at.

6 Q Would you say that you looked at all of the press

7 releases which, you know, very significant loss distribution

8 intended to (indiscernible) customers?

9 A Yes.

10 Q So, do you recall that there was a press release on the 11 very same day that the executives of Voyager found out that

12 basically there was (indiscernible) fifty percent of their

13 assets under management at the time, by being directly

14 (indiscernible) by 3AC, that the very same day they released

15 the press release -- and I can I quote this to you, or do

16 you recall it?

17 A You can quote it to me.

18 Q So, one sentence on this press release specifically

19 attributed to Mr. Ehrlich, chief executive officer and 20 founder. And I quote, "The company is well-capitalized and 21 in a good position to weather this market cycle and protect

22 customer assets."

23 On the very same day, they were notified by 3AC

24 basically that they were headed towards bankruptcy. Do you

25 recall investigating that press release as part of the

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

1 gigantic fraud. Nobody understood, appreciated. And with

2 the benefit of hindsight, things were moving with extreme

3 rapidity. They were doing the best they could. Did they

4 (indiscernible) --

5 Q But just to clarify, you said you thought they were not

6 false?

7 A No. I said I don't know whether they were false at the 8 time that they were made. I don't know. But what I do know

9 is --

10 Q You thought that press release was not false?

11 A I said I don't know if it was false at the time that it

12 was made. But what I do know is that whether or not --

13 Q So, --

14 A Could I finish?

15 THE COURT: You have to let him finish, Mr.

16 Hendershott.

17 BY MR. HENDERSHOTT:

18 A What I do know is that whether or not there is an 19 estate cause of action or breach of a fiduciary duty in the 20 middle of a crisis --

21 Q Hello?

22 A Yes. Can you hear me? Okay. We're trying to, at a

23 time when we believed that things were going to be

24 relatively controllable. Turned out to be wrong about that;

25 doesn't mean he didn't believe it. You know, did that rise

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

1 to gross negligence or bad faith, sufficient to give rise to
2 an estate cause of action for a breach of his fiduciary
3 duties? We didn't think so. A claim that you could 4 prosecute and win? We didn't think so.

5 THE COURT: Are you still there, Mr. Hendershott?

6 MR. JONES: Your Honor, I think Tracy fell off the 7 line.

8 THE COURT: What happened?

9 MR. JONES: Seth Jones here. Tracy got 10 disconnected somehow, I think, but can I ask a few questions
11 until he gets back?

12 THE COURT: Sure.

13 CROSS-EXAMINATION OF TIMOTHY POHL

14 BY MR. JONES:

15 Q I have a question. Is taking out a $10 million
16 insurance policy the day before filing for bankruptcy
17 standard practice?

18 A Actually, it is. It depends on, you know, whether it's 19 standard practice or not -- let me answer it this way, every 20 case is different. Depending on what the current company's 21 state of their D&O insurance is, it is not at all uncommon
22 headed into a restructuring to need to bulk up -- sometimes
23 that means obtaining new insurance, sometimes it means
24 adding to insurance that you have, but to end up -- and it
25 costs money to do this if you need to do it -- to have a

1 said before was that they did a number of things with 2 respect to their insurance; that was only a part of the 3 package. And the officers and directors were doing that on 4 the advice of counsel and they're entitled to rely on that,
5 so they did. It's not uncommon. It was expensive.

6 And again, whether or not if you thought an
7 officer or director did something wrong by approving it,
8 they still -- I'll use the same phrase again -- you still 9 can't get blood from a stone. They did not have the 10 financial wherewithal personally to pay a significant 11 judgment, so we preserved the ability to go after for these 12 things the party that does have the financial wherewithal to 13 pay a significant judgment, which is the insurance
14 companies, including with respect to that $10 million that 15 was paid.

16 Q What about loaning out 208 million three days before
17 the platform froze while the platform had a cap on 18 withdrawal limits; is that standard practice?

19 A I don't know what you're talking about.

20 Q The Alameda loan, 50,000 Ethereum and 6500 Bitcoin was 21 loaned out on June 27 and the 28th to Alameda and the 22 platform froze on July 1st. And obviously we had a big hole
23 already, so they give out 208 million just to freeze the 24 platform on July 1st.

25 A Well, if you're asking me about loans that they made to

1 complement of insurance coverage for your officers and 2 directors who you need to be willing to stay with the 3 company in the bankruptcy proceeding, as well as to attract
4 independent directors, such as myself, to be willing to get 5 involved in a distressed situation, so it is very common to 6 obtain policies.

7 Q Okay. But as the judge has said before, it was 8 basically an escrow of this fee because it's a $10 million
9 policy just to pay out $10 million. So, where's the benefit
10 for the creditors?

11 A I think what you're saying -- again, it was hard to 12 hear -- is that there seems something odd on the surface
13 about paying $10 million for $10 million of coverage. We 14 agree with that if that's the right way to describe it. We 15 agree with that, which is why we preserved the ability to go
16 after the insurance company for doing -- to see if we can 17 recover, the estate can recover the $10 million that was 18 paid from the party that got the money, the insurance
19 company.

20 Whether there's a good claim there or not, it
21 seemed to us it was a good enough potential --

22 Q But that's not ethical to do what they did. It's for a 23 $10 million payout, but $10 million of creditor money on the 24 board; is that not ethical?

25 A Well, I think they didn't only do that. So, what I

1 Alameda in the month of June, Alameda at that time was
2 certainly not believed to be -- it wasn't Three Arrows. It
3 was not believed to have any financial distress. It was 4 viewed everywhere in the marketplace as an excellent
5 counterparty. Everybody wanted to do business with Alameda
6 and the company, Voyager, made money for its customers by 7 making its loans; it was an integral part of its business.

8 Q I understand, but --

9 A So that was -- look, in hindsight, the fact that 10 Alameda turned out to be Alameda, you know, hindsight is 11 20/20, nobody at the time that those loans were made thought
12 that there was anything wrong with making money and being 13 paid -- by being paid for loaning assets to Alameda. That 14 was not the --

15 Q Is that the right thing to do when you have a goal, you
16 know, so you give out 208 million and then you close down
17 the shop three days later. That money could have gone to 18 other customers or made the hole smaller in hindsight.
19 Obviously, you have issues. Why are you lending out $208
20 million after you just lost 650 million on an 21 uncollateralized loan? Is that not lack of due diligence or 22 what, negligence, anything?

23 A Well, it wasn't a lack of due diligence with respect to 24 the counterparty in that transaction.

25 Q If they would have held onto that money, maybe they could keep going longer, right, the business?

A Well, again, if Alameda was a creditworthy counterparty, then they were obligated to pay you back that money with interest. That was a business to pay --

Q Yeah, and that would have paid back --

A That was a core part of the business that Voyager was in. So, if your questioning is suggesting that once the Three Arrows situation unfolded that the only thing Voyager should have done was shut down its business and if they did anything short of that, they were somehow doing the wrong thing, I guess I would have to say we wouldn't agree with that.

Q I mean, but they knew how much they were going through. They blew through that 35 million that quickly, right, so what happened in those three days; did they have a bad bank run or what?

MR. KIRPALANI: Objection, Your Honor. I think this question has been asked and answered.

THE COURT: I'll let him go just this one.

THE WITNESS: I'm not sure what the question is.

THE COURT: I'm not sure either. What exactly are you asking, Mr. Jones? There was a loan you say on the 27th.

MR. JONES: It's a --

THE COURT: A loan is not a gift, right? A loan

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

that we entered into a sales transaction with them, which was the plan that was originally filed. The whole world was defrauded by FTX and Alameda blowing up and nobody understood it and I think people still don't understand it.

But certainly, in June of 2022, trying to stay in business in the business that you were in, making a loan to what everybody believed was a completely credible as a party. And then, in fact, actually having loan repaid, in fact, and you made interest in the meantime certainly didn't suggest to us that there was anything inappropriate about that transaction.

THE COURT: Okay.

BY MR. JONES:

Q Steve Ehrlich said that pre-bankruptcy, they had one offer proposal, but it was too low of a -- a lowball offer to swallow, so to speak. Can you speak on that one offer?

A I think what -- again, our job was to look to see if we thought there were estate causes of action against insiders. The observation that you just made, which we're aware of, is consistent with appreciating that there were no improper motives here; they were on the same side. They believed that the business was able to be rehabilitated and they did not have contrary interests that would give rise to sort of, you know, violation of their duty of loyalty, which is in legal terms, what you're sort of getting at; it was an

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

is not a gift. A loan --

MR. JONES: Right, right, right.

THE COURT: So, what issue --

MR. JONES: They already knew that -- they knew they had a $650 million hole on June 18th.

THE COURT: Right.

MR. JONES: So, they had a big hole and they decided, oh, let's keep lending out money with an unstable market, maybe they would have helped the business to go a little longer instead of giving away $208 million to FTX.

THE COURT: Mr. Pohl, did you examine that transaction and did you and the special committee reach any conclusions about it, whether the company had any claims based on?

THE WITNESS: We looked at all of the transactions and we did not believe that there were any viable claims with respect to that transaction.

THE COURT: Why in respect to this -- was the loan repaid? Is this the loan that's the subject of the preference action now?

THE WITNESS: This loan ultimately, in fact, was repaid, number one. And again, number two, at that time, even after we filed for bankruptcy, there was no indication at that time that Alameda and FTX were anything other than completely credible. In fact, that was so much the case,

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

indicia of just the opposite. They were believers that the company was healthy and had value, so much so and they were stockholders, that they did not pursue a transaction that I'm sure today everybody wishes had happened. It wasn't really a transaction; it was an offer, but you get my point.

Q Can you tell me how fast they blew through that $35 million from FTX?

A I don't recall, as I sit here, when they got it back. I know that when we filed the case, there was discussion about that was the plan was to go get those monies back and eventually they were gotten back.

Q I mean FTX gave it to Voyager. Now it's subordinated, right, the plan?

MR. KIRPALANI: I'm sorry. Is the question -- just one clarification. Is the question asking about money that FTX loaned to Voyager or that assets that Voyager loaned to FTX?

MR. JONES: FTX gave it to Voyager.

MR. KIRPALANI: And what's the question with respect to the $75 million?

BY MR. JONES:

Q 75 million. I believe they're, what, allowed to claim that once a month; was it 500 million originally. FTX told them you can only send, what, 75 million a month?

A Well, I'm trying if I'm following your question. We

1 were certainly aware that FTX had agreed to loan money to
 2 Voyager in installments. I don't remember as I sit here
 3 today what the rules were. They couldn't borrow it all at 4 once. They borrowed what they were allowed to borrow, which 5 was the initial 75 million, and then I don't think they were 6 ever allowed under the terms of that loan to borrow anymore,
 7 but that's what they borrowed.

8 MR. JONES: That's all I have. Thank you.

9 THE COURT: Mr. Hendershott, are you back on the 10 line?

11 MR. HENDERSHOTT: I am, sir, thank you. I've been 12 having a little bit of technical challenges. Appreciate
 13 (sound drops). Hello?

14 THE COURT: Yes, we're here. You may proceed.
 15 You may ask your questions.

16 MR. HENDERSHOTT: All right, thank you.

17 CROSS-EXAMINATION OF TIMOTHY POHL (CONT.)

18 BY MR. HENDERSHOTT:

19 Q So, thank you, Mr. Pohl, for letting me jump back in 20 here. Before I got disconnected, we were talking about the 21 press release with the statement that the company is well
 22 capitalized in a good position to weather the market cycle
 23 and I couldn't understand if you were saying that that was 24 false or not.

25 A I don't know whether it was false or not.

1 of $650 million to 3AC was the precipitating event for the 2 bankruptcy, but it precipitated people wanting to withdraw,
 3 they had to raise the gets. It set off a chain reaction
 4 that ultimately led to the bankruptcy, I think that's right.

5 BY MR. HENDERSHOTT:

6 Q Okay. (Indiscernible) thank you for the clarification.
 7 So, at one point did the executives at Voyager know
 8 definitively they were filing bankruptcy?

9 A You know, I'm not a hundred percent sure. We were 10 appointed on the eve of the filing or the day before the 11 filing, so certainly by then they knew because we were 12 appointed as part of the filing process. How many days
 13 before that, it was a foregone conclusion; I could only 14 speculate.

15 Q You can only speculate. There was no review of 16 internal communications? You know, I would assume that that 17 was a critical element you identify as part of a thorough
 18 investigation.

19 A I mean, not really. The exact date that they --

20 THE COURT: Mr. Hendershott, let me just interrupt
 21 to explain something here. What the witness was charged
 22 with doing was figuring out if the estate -- in other words,
 23 Voyager itself -- had claims to pursue against officers and 24 directors.

25 Your claims are all about whether the officers and

Page 263

1 Q You do not.

2 A No. At the time the statement was made, I don't really
 3 know if it was false. I don't know what -- more
 4 importantly, I don't know whether he thought it was false.

5 Q Did we not just clarify on the same day that 3AC
 6 notified them that their founders were on the run and it's 7 really bad and we have to recall our loans? I'm struggling
 8 to understand the dichotomy of the facts here. You're 9 agreeing that both are coming to a conclusion that you think
 10 that it might be truthful.

11 A All I'm saying is the loans to 3AC were not the only 12 loans that they had. They had a credit facility with 13 Alameda. They have a lot of other -- that was one part of 14 their business, it was significant, but what was happening
 15 with 3AC was evolving in real time. Nobody completely 16 understood it other than with the benefit of hindsight, and 17 he was I think in good faith trying to keep things as calm
 18 as possible and figure out what to do next, that's all.

19 Q So $1 billion hole from 3AC is you feel there was other
 20 root causes for the bankruptcy?

21 MR. KIRPALANI: Objection. Lacks foundation with 22 that $1 billion reference.

23 THE COURT: Not really. I think I can't count the 24 number of papers I've read about this $1 billion hole.

25 THE WITNESS: I think we all think that the loss

1 directors issues public statements that were misleading to
 2 customers or to investors, in which case the injured parties
 3 would have been the customers or investors, not Voyager
 4 itself, in which case it wouldn't be a claim belonging to 5 the estate; it would be a claim belonging to the account
 6 holders and the investors.

7 So, when you're asking this witness whether he 8 thought these events, you know, were problems and the 9 witness is trying to I think tell you he's trying to 10 evaluate whether the estate had anything to pursue on those 11 points. Do you understand the difference there?

12 MR. HENDERSHOTT: I do, but I'm still a little 13 confused. Would you be the one that determines whether it's 14 gross mismanagement, fraud, dishonesty, because the witness
 15 is actually throwing out legal terms and I thought that that 16 was the point of his investigation is to determine causes of 17 action that results in potential claw backs or penalties.

18 I'm confused, Your Honor. I'm not sure who 19 determines whether these actions are material faults,
 20 whether there is harm, whether there's dishonesty. Is that 21 you, sir, Judge?

22 THE COURT: Well, let me just -- I only rule on 23 lawsuits and motions that are in front of me. I don't have 24 any free reigning authority to just make rulings on things
 25 that aren't actually brought properly in front of me.

212-267-6868

1 But as to whether false statements were made about
2 Voyager's financial condition, it's hard for me to see how
3 that would give rise to a claim by Voyager against its own
4 officers because Voyager wouldn't be the injured party;

5 arguably, it would be the perpetrator through its officers.
6 So, what kinds of claims Voyager might have is if 7 there were things that were done recklessly, carelessly, in 8 breach of fiduciary duty that injured Voyager itself, okay?

9 MR. HENDERSHOTT: Correct.

10 THE COURT: Not so much whether there was anything
11 wrong of any kind that was done with respect to any human 12 being, but rather whether Voyager, either by virtue of the 13 bankruptcy laws or other state law, had rights of its own to 14 pursue, and if it did, whether they should be pursued or 15 resolved.

16 So, claims based on misrepresentations about
17 financial statements would not ordinarily, and I doubt here,
18 be thought of as claims that belonged to Voyager to be 19 evaluated by Voyager or investigated by Voyager really.

20 If customers, creditors, you know, account holders
21 think that they were misled as to the financial statements,
22 then they may or may not have claims based on that. If they 23 wish to assert such claims against Voyager itself, it should 24 have been part of the proofs of claim. If they think they 25 have claims against the officers, I can't express any

1 a relevant concept. We have three members of the board: two 2 of us are independent and we're newly appointed and we're
3 two of the three members of that board.

4 Q And is this standard procedure that the person that's 5 being investigated for their actions would actually be the 6 board member that you are a member of with no leadership?

7 A Well, all powers to investigate and dispose of, through 8 settlement or release or otherwise, of Voyager LLC causes of 9 action against any officer or director, including Mr.

10 Ehrlich, would delegate it to the special committee that he 11 is not on. So, he doesn't have any authority over, even as 12 a board member, over the subject matter that we're talking 13 about, not even the little authority that he would have if 14 it wasn't delegated and the two of us as independents could 15 outvote him two to one on any topic. So, he doesn't have 16 any authority as a board member over the subject matter that 17 we're discussing.

18 Q Interesting, thank you. So, who appointed you to this 19 special committee and this board?

20 A I think Miss Frizzley and myself were recommended to 21 the full board of the parent company by Kirkland & Ellis.
22 We were interviewed by -- I can't say the whole parent
23 company board, but I remember being interviewed by some 24 people. And then we were -- and I don't think we were the 25 only people who were interviewed, not that I know that for

1 opinion about whether they are or are not valid, but they
2 probably wouldn't be in my court because I'm a bankruptcy
3 court and they would probably be in some other court against 4 the other individuals.

5 There's nothing about the bankruptcy process or 6 the fact that the estate is evaluating its claims they would 7 really bring here the issue of whether somebody defrauded
8 you about the financial condition, for example. Does that 9 help?

10 MR. HENDERSHOTT: It sounds very -- you know, a 11 huge disparity of in favor of the Debtors. But, yes, thank 12 you for the clarification.

13 BY MR. HENDERSHOTT:

14 Q Okay, Mr. (indiscernible) very long. So, can you share
15 who is currently on your board and when were they appointed
16 to their board position?

17 A Well, there's more than one board, right. At the 18 Voyager LLC, which is the board that I'm on which is the 19 operating company, it's myself, it is Jill Frizzley, and I
20 think we're the only -- oh, and Steve Ehrlich I think is 21 also a board member, but he's not a member of the special
22 committee, so there are three board members at Voyager LLC,
23 the operating company.

24 Q Are you the chairman of that board?

25 A I'm not even sure we have a chairman. It's really not

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

1 sure but that's not common -- and then we were selected.

2 So, the board of the parent company advised by
3 recommendations from their advisors recommended us.

4 Q And that would be the (indiscernible) of the holding
5 company; is that correct?

6 A I think it was the board of the holding company, that's 7 right, and I couldn't remember, unless my recollection was 8 refreshed, the name of every member of that board.

9 Q And who's the chairman of the holding company?

10 A I want to say I think it's Mr. Ehrlich, but I'm not 100
11 percent sure. It's really, the reason I'm not 100 percent
12 sure is that it's really not relevant to what we did.

13 Q And relevant to me, sir.

14 A No, I know. I'm just explaining why I don't know the 15 answer off the top of my head.

16 Q So the holding company chairman of the board created
17 and hired you specifically to investigate itself. And who 18 paid for your services, sir?

19 A Voyager LLC.

20 Q Pardon?

21 A Voyager LLC, the company of the board that I'm on.

22 Q I got it. Just for my knowledge, per chance, you know,
23 Steve Ehrlich sign your check and paid for your services?

24 A I don't think he signs my check. Actually, I don't get 25 a check; I get an ACH, so I don't know. I do know that

212-267-6868

1 everything that we do --

2 Q So as chairman of the board -- go ahead.

3 A No, no, go ahead.

4 Q I was going to say as chairman of the board, he would

5 be -- ultimately, so he selected you. The investigation of 6 (indiscernible), he's the one that compensates you, as he

7 does all board members. Am I understanding this correct?

8 A Again --

9 MR. KIRPALANI: Objection. Mischaracterizes

10 the...

11 THE WITNESS: Yeah. The company pays us --

12 THE COURT: He can answer.

13 THE WITNESS: -- like everybody else.

14 THE COURT: The company pays. You're not saying

15 Mr. Ehrlich paid out of his own pocket, are you, Mr.

16 Hendershott?

17 MR. HENDERSHOTT: No, no. I said he has the final

18 authority to compensate all board members, including Mr.

19 Pohl, and there's no one above the board or Mr. Ehrlich as 20 chairman of the board that would compensate the board if

21 it's not a treasurer that's compensated.

22 THE COURT: He's chairman of the board; he's not

23 God.

24 MR. HENDERSHOTT: He's chairman of the board

25 that's making that decision.

1 total, something like that, seven? Again, you'd have to

2 refresh my recollection.

3 Q So, yeah, typically, it's an odd number. I'm not sure,

4 so that's why I'm asking. But I have been made aware that

5 six weeks before filing bankruptcy, there was significant

6 revision to the holding company boards by Mr. Ehrlich, the 7 chairman, replacing and appointing board members and I

8 believe even expanding it at that point. Are you aware of 9 that significant transition?

10 A No.

11 Q Okay. All right, so do you know -- and I believe you

12 already covered (indiscernible) and forgive me, I did lose

13 connection for a while. So, you said that the $15 million,

14 there was a basket of other services that out of that

15 carveout of the $15 million, there was a dollar-for-dollar

16 transfer 24 hours before filing bankruptcy. Then the 17 potential recovery for the creditors, there was an exclusive

18 legal defense policy for the officers. Did I hear that

19 correct?

20 A Not quite, that's not quite what I said. I think there

21 was $15 some odd million dollars paid for a combination of 22 things. One of those things was an incremental $10 million

23 D&O policy. Whether or not one would characterize that $10

24 million policy as having been paid for with 10 million of 25 the $15 million dollar for dollar is probably a matter

Page 271

1 THE COURT: You know, Mr. Hendershott, he's

2 chairman of the board; he's not God. It's not like he

3 doesn't answer to anybody else. He answers to the rest of 4 the board.

5 MR. HENDERSHOTT: And that's a good question.

6 BY MR. HENDERSHOTT:

7 Q So when I first asked you, Mr. Pohl, who are the 8 members of the board, I was referring to the holding company

9 board. Could you just -- do you know all the members of the 10 board?

11 A Not off the top of my head, no. You'd have to refresh

12 my rec- -- it's public information. You'd have to refresh

13 my recollection. I didn't report -- I don't report to the 14 holding company board, so that's not why it's not relevant

15 information to me. I don't report to them. Nothing that I

16 was tasked with doing is sort of in their purview. I don't

17 believe that they actually have the power to fire me,

18 although some days, I wish they would; that's a joke. And

19 so, that's why it's not really relevant, which is why I

20 don't remember all the names of all the people on that

21 board.

22 Q Could you just say how many members are on the holding

23 company board?

24 A Nine, is it up to? There's an independent director at 25 the holding company also. Is it eight, nine members in

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

Page 273

1 that's going to get litigated. But because it could be

2 characterized that way, we identified that there is a

3 potential fraudulent conveyance claim against the insurer

4 and we preserved it.

5 Q I'm sorry. Preserve it means what?

6 A It means that the winddown estate for the benefit of

7 creditors has the right to sue the D&O carrier who received

8 the $10 million to return that $10 million on -- I'll do

9 this at a super plain English level -- on the theory that

10 the company, Voyager, didn't really get any benefit from 11 paying $10 million for a $10 million policy. I'm not

12 opining as to whether that's a meritorious claim or not, but

13 that's the type of claim that, in some form or fashion,

14 might have merit and has not been released under the plan.

15 Q Okay. Thank you for that clarification. Speaking

16 about releases, are you part of the decision making to grant

17 releases to all of the executives, officers, and employees

18 of Voyager?

19 A No, we weren't part of the decision making. What we

20 did do was make our own business judgment as to whether

21 there was anything inappropriate about those releases. As a

22 result of all of the things that we investigated and with

23 respect to, as I've testified, with respect to Mr. Ehrlich

24 and Mr. Psaropoulos, we were not comfortable with them being

25 released from certain claims and causes of action as a

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

1 result of our investigation, and so we preserved those
2 claims. We preserved the ability for the winddown estate to 3 sue them for those things. We limited the recovery to the 4 D&O policy, and we settled with the two of them by having 5 them actually pay into the estate as part of the 6 (indiscernible). We did not find --

7 Q So you did make the decision on releases.
8 A We did not find that there were any other Voyager
9 company estate causes of action that had any merit against 10 other officers and directors, and so, we support the 11 releases with respect to other people. And I would note
12 that there was an important estate benefit from obtaining 13 those releases, which is that those parties have, at least 14 the senior officers, have rights to be indemnified and they 15 have rights to be reimbursed if they are sued from the D&O
16 policies which would deplete them.

17 So, the idea that we wanted to preserve the $20
18 million potential D&O recovery for the claims that we 19 thought did have merit and not see that potential pool of 20 assets that could be settled going forward or litigated to 21 conclusion depleted by having other officers and directors
22 against whom frivolous claims could be brought have the 23 right to deplete that by having their expenses reimbursed.
24 So, in the cost-benefit analysis of the whole package
25 because we didn't think that there were good claims against

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

1 with you.
2 Q So we're keeping faith in that one as a benefit, but
3 your perspective is that was not taken from the credit
4 recovery pool inappropriately?

5 A Well, I don't know, but I know that the ability to 6 probably get it back from the only person that has the 7 wherewithal to give it back has been preserved. And I also 8 know that the officers and directors who, when the board
9 approved spending the money to get that policy, they were 10 doing so on the advice of counsel.

11 Q Okay. All right, well, thank you, sir. One last 12 question. Going back to the person that's being 13 investigated being the chairman of the board that selects
14 you and ultimately is responsible for your compensation, how 15 do you as a professional -- and thank you for being one -- 16 how do you as a professional distance yourself from the 17 influence of the individual that is financially supporting
18 you?

19 A I think that's a fair question honestly. I'm 20 completely distanced from it. So maybe you -- so, look,
21 I've been retired for the last three or four years, right?
22 I don't get paid a significant sum of money relative to the 23 amount of money that I made when I was working to take on 24 these assignments, not even close, number one.

25 Number two, I am independent. I don't have any

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

1 the other officers and directors and because we wanted to
2 preserve the maximum amount of the D&O policy to be 3 available for where the claims might be good; that's why we 4 supported them.

5 Q Okay. So going back to the $20 million D&O policy, the 6 $10 million was taken from the creditor recovery pool 24
7 hours before filing bankruptcy. Could you share what the 8 cost was for the previous historical $10 million that 9 preceded that one; is that dollar for dollar? You don't 10 know.

11 A I don't know, but I doubt it.

12 Q Right. What would be standard in that (indiscernible)
13 experience?

14 A I'm not an insurance expert, but D&O insurance is 15 expensive. I don't know how long those policies were in 16 place. I think it's actually not one policy, it's a number
17 of policies, so I don't know the answer.

18 Q Would you assume that they were dollar for dollar?
19 Typically, with insurance in my experience, you get a higher
20 potential payout when the claims or the --

21 A Yes.

22 Q -- fees that you incur?

23 A I would assume that they were not dollar for dollar,
24 which is why the later one that could be construed as dollar
25 for dollar is one that raised a red flag to us, so I agree

212-267-6868

1 relationship with any of these people. I didn't work at 2 Kirkland & Ellis. I didn't work at any of these other
3 firms. None of these people used to work for me. They
4 don't put me on their boards of directors. This is the one
5 and only time I've ever been put on a board or recommended
6 to be put on a board by this law firm. I had never heard of 7 any of these people before. I had never heard of Voyager
8 before. I could barely spell Bitcoin before.

9 So, I am completely independent and it doesn't 10 really make much difference to me, you know, whether or not 11 I find that they did something wrong or whether I find that 12 they didn't do anything wrong. I don't have any skin in the 13 game. I don't have any stake. I am as independent as it --
14 I don't know how you could be more independent than that, at 15 least as I understand what the word independent means.

16 The can't fire me. I guess they could fire me,
17 but they'd probably have to deal with the judge. So once
18 this process begins and you form a special committee and you
19 retain people who are, in fact, independent and you set out
20 to have a special committee investigation, I suppose if Mr.
21 Ehrlich -- not that he would ever do this -- but if he 22 wanted to, if he didn't like where it was going and he tried
23 to fire, you know, the people who are investigating him, I
24 think that probably wouldn't come out that way; that's not 25 how it works.

1 Q So, you know, we would hope not. Absolutely, that's
2 how it works. So, is it possible that by you having, you
3 know, a reputation in this small niche market that you're 4 providing being hired by the person that's being
5 investigated and binding releases and a lot of other, you
6 know, kind of softball penalties for the investigation,
7 would that not put you in kind of a higher echelon of 8 getting hired by the next bankruptcy CEO who's being 9 investigated; would there be a financial incentive?

10 A I'm not sure I understand your question, although I'll 11 resist the temptation that I think you're insinuating
12 something.

13 Q Well, I'm asking, you know, just in this small niche
14 market that you're in of being an independent investigator,
15 wouldn't a favorable outcome of prohibiting releases and 16 findings, would that be favorable for your next assignment?

17 A I'm not in a niche market. This is the only
18 investigation that I have ever done as an independent 19 director. I did some -- I led some when I was a lawyer and 20 I was involved in some when I was a banker, but I'm not out
21 there looking for board seats. People call me from time to 22 time and if I think I can help and it interests me for 23 whatever perverse reason, sometimes I say yes because I can
24 only play so much golf, but I don't -- I'm not thinking
25 about the next deal. I'm not in the business of doing

2 CROSS-EXAMINATION OF TIMOTHY POHL

3 BY MS. DIVITA:

4 Q My first question here is, do you mind clarifying who
5 exactly was responsible for conducting the financial review
6 portion of the special committee's investigation? I believe
7 you mentioned there was no financial advisor appointed.

8 A Well, no. I think when the special committee hired 9 expert outside, they did the primary legwork factually with 10 respect the factual underpinnings of our conclusions; that's 11 the meat of the investigation. We did not retain, and we 12 don't think we needed to retain, a financial advisor to 13 assist us.

14 If we had financial advisor type questions about 15 the business or about something historical that was sort of 16 beyond the purview of what lawyers could answer or were 17 qualified to answer, we from time to time availed ourselves
18 of the Debtors' professional financial advisors at BRG.
19 There wasn't really a lot of that. The only thing financial 20 with respect to our investigation per se was, you know,
21 looking at the financial information of Mr. Ehrlich and Mr.
22 Psaropoulos, which we did, and we didn't need a lot of 23 financial expertise to understand the information that they 24 provided to us.

25 Q Okay. So, you didn't see anything at least unique in

1 investigations.

2 Q Got it, great, and I certainly didn't mean to assume
3 anything. I'm just trying to learn more about, you know,
4 all these case rules I've never been exposed to.

5 MR. HENDERSHOTT: So, thank you, sir, for your
6 time and I can cede the podium. Thank you.

7 THE COURT: Very good. Anybody else on the phone
8 who wishes to cross-examine Mr. Pohl?

9 MAN 1: I have one question.

10 CROSS-EXAMINATION OF TIMOTHY POHL

11 BY MAN 1:

12 Q For the avoidance of doubt, I know you sort of 13 clarified this earlier, Mr. Pohl, but when you state
14 insiders were the primary focus of your investigation, that 15 does not include business partners such as Market Rebellion?

16 A No, it does not.

17 MAN 1: Okay, thank you.

18 THE COURT: Anybody else?

19 MS. DIVITA: This is Michelle DiVita. I have some 20 questions as well.

21 THE COURT: I'm sorry, who was it again?

22 MS. DIVITA: Michelle DiVita.

23 THE COURT: Okay, Ms. DiVita.

24 MS. DIVITA: Sorry, take it off speakerphone.

25 THE COURT: Go ahead.

1 the financial statements that would have independently
2 warranted an expert beyond outside counsel or professionals
3 already retained by the Debtor, correct?

4 A No, we did not.

5 Q And then does the Debtors' current financial advisor
6 have experience in cryptocurrency advising and/or the 7 banking industry?

8 A Yes, they do.

9 Q So you mentioned that the financial investigation was 10 submitted to the statements provided by the CEO and COO. Do
11 you mind clarifying why financial or counterparty exposure
12 is not part of a financial review?

13 A Not sure I'm following your question. The company --
14 we were investigating the company's practices around the 15 loans and related activities that they were undertaking, and 16 so we certainly obtained information from the company about 17 the analyses that they did at the time that they made loans
18 and decided to enter into business relationships with the 19 parties that they entered into their relationships with. We 20 didn't need independent financial advisors to understand
21 what that information was that they provided to us.

22 Q Okay. So, to clarify then, you were examining the 23 initial loan agreement, not necessarily the viability or 24 risk management related to subsequent term sheets provided
25 thereafter.

212-267-6868

Page 282

1 A We were looking into whether we thought that the
2 totality of the diligence that they performed before
3 deciding whether to make loans to Three Arrows Capital,
4 whether there was anything sufficiently unusual about how 5 they went about their business that it was so widely off the 6 mark that it would give rise to a claim that satisfied the 7 legal requirement for a breach of fiduciary duty claim,
8 which is very strict, very high.

9 Q Got it. So, you did or did not find a breach of 10 fiduciary claim then related to the 3AC loan?

11 A We found that there might be a claim that has merit
12 related to the risk management practices around that 13 transaction, and we preserved the claim for the benefit of 14 the estate. We limited who the estate could get money from 15 to, number one, the $20 million of officer and director D&O
16 coverage and, two, we settled the exposure, the personal
17 exposure, of Mr. Ehrlich and Mr. Psaropoulos by entering 18 into settlements with them where they paid some money.

19 So, the claims against them are preserved, they're 20 not released, they can be sued. And, if that lawsuit has 21 merit, which it might, it certainly is a non-frivolous legal 22 theory based on the facts and the law as we analyzed it in 23 our business judgment and if the winddown estate, which is 24 going to own the right to prosecute that litigation, they 25 can do what they want with it. They can sue them, they can

1 have expected.

2 Q I'm sorry, can you repeat that?

3 A Less diligence and less of the kind of diligence that
4 we would have expected.

5 Q So what information was provided then that gave you
6 confidence that the Debtors would heighten its standard of 7 due diligence in its administration or management of the 8 estate during bankruptcy?

9 A I'm sorry. I didn't hear the last part of what you
10 said.

11 Q So what additional I guess, like, change gave you
12 confidence that the amount of due diligence performed after 13 3AC would not give rise to another breach of duty of care in 14 the Debtors' management or directors' and officers'
15 management of the Debtors' estate in bankruptcy?

16 A I still am not following your question. You analyzed
17 specific transactions that they did to see if there's 18 anything actionable as a result of them. They did the Three 19 Arrows transactions between March and May of 2022, the world
20 blew up in June, and they were in bankruptcy by July. There 21 weren't -- right, so things happened very quickly. Those 22 transactions weren't in 2021 or 2020; they were in March,
23 April, and May of 2022, and this company was in bankruptcy
24 by the time fireworks were over on July Fourth.

25 Q So I guess what additional information provided in the

1 settle with the D&O carriers, and they can get paid either
2 through settlement or by litigating and winning if they do
3 from the officer and director liability carriers up to $20
4 million, minus however much is depleted defending the 5 lawsuit.

6 Q Okay.

7 A And as to the individual, while they will be sued, they 8 have already will have paid in settlement the amounts of 9 money that I went through before.

10 Q Got it. So then was there anything unique about the 11 3AC due diligence? It was my understanding that it was the 12 risk management policies in general that allowed or maybe
13 warranted this potentially colorable claims.

14 A Yeah, there were a few things about 3AC that were, I
15 think in our judgment, a little lax relative to other 16 counterparties. There were some things that, in our 17 judgment -- by the way, the officers and directors wouldn't 18 agree with this, but that's why their claims that we're 19 preserving -- we did think that there were some specific 20 things or the absences of some specific things around the 21 decision to make loans to Three Arrows Capital that were 22 different than the decisions to make loans to other parties
23 that they made loans to, less diligence.

24 Q Was that, like -- okay.

25 A Less diligence and less of the diligence that we would

212-267-6868

1 special committee's report gave you confidence that, you
2 know, things were good in March when, you know, this lax due
3 diligence occurred that when things are, you know, under 4 pressure, the Debtors and their directors and officers would 5 be able to perform adequate due diligence in the 6 administration and management of the bankruptcy proceeding?

7 A Well, again, I'm going to try my best to answer that
8 question as I can understand it. We're not investigating
9 generically whether or not they have risk management
10 practices that were good. What we're investigating is 11 whether there were transactions that they did that they 12 shouldn't have done because their risk management practices
13 were deficient in some way.

14 So, it's not a theory -- you have to have a thing
15 that they did that they shouldn't have done that blew up in 16 their face, to use a colloquialism, that you're looking 17 into. What were the circumstances around that and as a
18 result of what they did or didn't do in a specific area,
19 transaction that damaged the company, whether or not you
20 think that they breached their fiduciary duties.

21 Q Got it. So, a company that is in the business of, you
22 know, taking customers' deposits and, you know, managing 23 this -- we'll call it an offering or I don't know if that's 24 the right word, but this kind of business relationship here.
25 And you're saying that that business that could -- you were

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

Page 286

1 only looking at transactions rather than the business
2 activity as a whole, correct? I just want to make sure I'm 3 following.

4 A I think so. Again, it's hard to really understand the 5 question, but we were not evaluating the business as a
6 whole. We were evaluating whether anybody did anything
7 wrong with respect to the transactions that didn't work out
8 for the company.

9 Q Got it. So, is it normal in your (indiscernible)
10 experience to have a single transaction take down a
11 multibillion-dollar company?

12 A Well, having 25 percent of your assets that were on 13 loan that you thought that you could get back any time, you 14 know, having that suddenly not be true because you were 15 defrauded in the context of the industry having its own
16 macro issues, for lack of a better way to say it, those are 17 the types of circumstances that put companies in bankruptcy
18 in lots of industries; that's what happens. You don't just 19 find yourself in bankruptcy. Something precipitous often 20 happens that leads to a chain of events that puts you in a
21 position where you end up bankrupt.

22 Q And precipitous then doesn't include the I guess
23 counterparty or financial risk management of the Debtors,
24 correct?

25 A I'm not sure I'm following what your question is.

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions

Page 288

1 the filing, only the CEO and COO were identified as parties
2 responsible for entering into this 3AC loan; is that
3 correct?

4 A They were the decision makers and it was really
5 predominantly the CEO.

6 Q Okay. And since your investigation didn't look into 7 the general risk management policies, nothing, there was no
8 red flag there that, you know, two people, only two people
9 had decision-making authority in this matter.

10 A No, I didn't say that. That's a good question. We 11 looked at the whole risk management process, all the people
12 that were involved, as I said, I think much earlier now,
13 today. We conducted a dozen interviews, not two interviews.
14 We interviewed everybody, almost everybody in the group of 15 people that they called the risk management committee that 16 in some way touched the thinking around or the vetting of a
17 potential counterparty.

18 But the way that their process worked, the buck
19 stopped with two people and really mostly the CEO, and they 20 were the only ones that had real authority. They were the 21 only ones that made decisions. There were no votes taken by 22 any larger group. There was just information provided and 23 the terms and conditions of the actual loans that were made,
24 as opposed to the decision that it's okay to enter into 25 loans with the counterparty conceptually.

212-267-6868

Page 287

1 Q So if a 25 percent, you know, of -- that's what this
2 transaction represents of the Debtors' assets? What you're
3 saying is that the reason that a 25 percent transaction
4 could justify a bankruptcy filing can only occur because of 5 some, like, outside source, not because of how the Debtor
6 has managed its internal financial affairs to address
7 adequately counterparty risk and loans and things like that.

8 A I don't know if I'm saying that. I'm saying that if 9 they had loaned 25 percent of their assets to Warren
10 Buffett, we all wouldn't be here. I'm not trying to be 11 glib.

12 Q Got it. Okay, that's helpful.

13 A I'm trying to make the point that it's because of what 14 happened to the counterparty that we're here. And the 15 question is whether they should have been in business with 16 the counterparty and the other question is whether, as they 17 went into business with the counterparty, did they do
18 anything so grossly unusual or inappropriate that those 19 individuals who participated in that have personal
20 liability; that's the question.

21 Q Okay. That actually is very helpful for me to 22 understand, so I like your Warren Buffett example. In the 23 case of -- I don't know how to phrase this. I'll skip that 24 question for now.

25 So, you only identified, or I guess at least in

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

Page 289

1 Once the group decided, okay, we're going to do
2 business with counterparty X, how much money to lend and on 3 what terms was the decision, that information didn't even 4 make it to the rest of the group that those things were 5 decided and only decided by Mr. Ehrlich and, to a lesser
6 degree, Mr. Psaropoulos. And that's why we believe that
7 they are the two people against whom there are cognizable
8 potential claims, not the other people.

9 Q Got it. So, if the CEO or COO, it sounds like they 10 kind of really managed the counterparty exposure, financial 11 element of this, would the estate have any claims against 12 either of those two for making statements that were not 13 consistent with the company's risk management policies? So 14 maybe -- here's an example -- if an officer is representing 15 that a company's financial exposure, counterparty exposure,
16 is X, but in reality it's Y, the estate wouldn't have any --
17 that's not a cause of action or is it?

18 A Well, again, you're giving me sort of a hypothetical.
19 But again, we didn't -- we looked at all of the facts and we 20 did not think that there was anything in those facts that 21 gave rise to an estate, as opposed to an individual 22 customer, an estate, a company cause of action against 23 officers and directors.

24 Now, if an individual customer thinks that they 25 were misled in some way, whatever that way is, and they

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

Page 290

1 think that they have a claim against an officer or director
 2 for whatever they think the basis is of that claim, we 3 didn't investigate that and, most importantly, it's not 4 released under this plan. Those claims are free to be 5 brought.
 6 Q Okay, and then just a few more. So, is this
 7 profitability analysis for a director and officer conduct
 8 claims, like, typical in bankruptcy?
 9 A I don't even know what that means. Profitability --
 10 Q So when you're examining the personal assets of the CEO
 11 and COO --
 12 A I'm sorry, now I understand.
 13 Q -- you know, is that typical?
 14 A I'm sorry, now I -- I think what you mean is was it
 15 typical for us to have looked at whether -- I'll use Mr.
 16 Ehrlich as an example. Is it typical for us to have looked 17 at whether -- at his personal financial situation; is that 18 your question?
 19 Q Yes, exactly.
 20 A Okay. Well, I would say -- let me rephrase your 21 question for you because it's a good point and we did look
 22 at it and we looked at it for a reason. We looked at it
 23 because we were trying to, in our business judgment, obtain 24 the best possible result for the estate that we could as a
 25 legal and as a practical matter. And so, while on the one

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions

Page 292

1 So, if you're settling with somebody -- I'm 2 rephrasing your question -- is it typical in a bankruptcy to 3 look at every individual officer and director's personal
 4 assets? No. If you're trying to figure out what a good
 5 settlement is from an individual, that's probably something
 6 you want to look at, and so we did.
 7 Q Got it. As part of that settlement analysis or I think
 8 part of the justification of agreeing to a settlement at all
 9 with someone who doesn't have any assets, it's this 10 indemnification and D&O insurance policy issue, right?
 11 Like, those are the two kind of reasons that a settlement
 12 was favorable in this instance?
 13 A Yeah. I think to answer to your question is we 14 reasoned that the D&O policy was a bigger pool of money by a 15 lot than the pool of money that these individuals had. We 16 preserved it 100 percent, and we got from them what we 17 thought was a reason- -- in our judgment, in our business
 18 judgment, that's what it was based on the facts and we 19 uncovered all the facts, including about what they're worth,
 20 we thought that that was a good settlement for the benefit
 21 of the creditors, which are really the customers. Better
 22 than the alternative, which is not to settle with them, not
 23 to get the money, and not be able to get anything from them
 24 anyhow if you could win litigation that if it was brought is 25 going to be hard to win anyhow because the standards are

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

Page 291

1 hand we thought that there might be good claims against him
 2 for the reasons I've articulated, and while it's true it's 3 America, anybody can sue anybody for anything, it doesn't
 4 mean you can get something from somebody even if you win;
 5 they have to have something to get.
 6 So, we wanted to know what there was to get from 7 them so that we could figure out what would be, in light of 8 that, a good settlement. And so, a settlement from him for 9 $10 would not have been a good settlement; he had more to 10 five than that. A settlement from suing him, not settling,
 11 a settlement where you got a million dollars from him, we 12 thought was a good settlement because you could sue him for 13 $10 million but he doesn't have $10 million, he doesn't have 14 $5 million.
 15 So, we were trying to assess, doing the best that 16 we could -- we didn't have any reason to want to do anything
 17 other than that -- we didn't have to settle with him. We 18 thought it was a good idea to settle with him on the terms
 19 that we settled for in part because we looked at what does 20 he have to give and it wasn't very much. So, we got, in 21 relation to that, what we thought was a reasonable and a
 22 fair amount, better than getting nothing from him,
 23 especially when coupled with we didn't actually have to 24 release him so that we could go after the $20 million pool
 25 of money that's potentially available from the D&O carrier.

1 tough.
 2 Q Yeah. So then for this D&O insurance piece, especially
 3 a Side A policy, the premium, that's a risk calculation,
 4 right? It sounds like the premium on that Side A policy was 5 $10 million and then the payout max -- I don't know if it's 6 a maximum -- was also $10 million, correct?
 7 A We didn't make any -- we didn't write the policy.
 8 We're not the insurers. I'm not sure I know what your 9 question is. Insurance companies --
 10 Q Did you review the policy?
 11 A -- decide what they'll charge for the coverage that 12 they offer.
 13 Q Correct. And so, insurance companies, they're charging
 14 for risk, correct? That's my understanding.
 15 A Well, I don't know what goes into their calculation. I 16 mean, conceptually, that's what they're doing, but it's not 17 a simple business.
 18 Q Oh, I'm well aware. So, this would at least imply that 19 the person it's insuring is risky enough to justify a 100
 20 percent premium amount. Is that a reasonable statement to 21 you?
 22 A No, I really don't know what they were thinking.
 23 Q I mean, because the insurers are probably coming out
 24 ahead of you if there isn't much risk if your premium is 100
 25 percent the policy amount. I think you previously mentioned

212-267-6868

1 that, you know, it was counsel's recommendation to enter
2 into this policy. But in terms of, like, special or 3 investigation, there wasn't any additional, you know,
4 inquiry into why this amount equaled the payout. Like, it's 5 a weird insurance term, right? You don't buy insurance for 6 the same amount or you pay a premium for the same amount a 7 policy is. So, I guess clarifying that there was not any 8 additional investigation there, right, into why the CEO
9 or...

10 A Well, again, the investigation was -- investigation is 11 a strange word for that. We understand what the facts were.
12 We preserved the ability to go try to get that money back
13 from the only party that has the ability to pay that money
14 back and we thought it was important to preserve that. We 15 found that. Nobody came to us and said, hey, good idea,
16 don't you want to make sure we can go after the insurance
17 policy, you know, on a fraudulent conveyance claim for the 18 $10 million because something seems odd, you know, all this 19 money was paid for that much coverage.

20 We flagged that issue because we uncovered it --
21 not uncovered, no one was hiding it from us. We read all 22 the documents, we asked for information, we talked to 23 people, and we said, just like you just said, huh, that 24 seems unusual. We're not going to let that just go away.
25 We're going to make sure that it gets preserved so that it

MS. DIVITA: Yes.

2 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry, ask me that -- what are 3 you asking me? That's just because it's hard to hear.

BY MS. DIVITA:

5 Q Oh, sorry. They were an insider based on the number of 6 shares they held shortly before bankruptcy and the canceled
7 a certain subset of those shares and no longer, I think at 8 least Canadian public filing standards, qualified as an 9 insider shareholder. Is there a reason that Alameda, who 10 was a shareholder -- or I'm sorry -- insider shortly before
11 bankruptcy was not included in the investigation of other 12 insiders?

13 A Yeah. I mean, whether they're an insider or not, I'm 14 not 100 percent sure. But assuming that they are, it never 15 occurred to us that they would ever be released, so we 16 didn't need to investigate them; there's no release for 17 Alameda. We were investigating officers and directors
18 because of the possibility that releases would be proposed 19 and we would be asked about whether or not we thought that 20 was appropriate. There was never any idea that Alameda
21 would be released from anything, so there was nothing to 22 investigate. The estate can sue Alameda until the cows come 23 home if they want to.

MS. DIVITA: Okay, that's all I have. Thank you.

1 could potentially be unwound if legally there's a basis to 2 do that, and we suspect that there might be.

3 Now, sure, the insurance company doesn't think so,
4 and I'm sure other people don't think so, but we've 5 preserved it. We didn't litigate it to conclusion, we 6 didn't let it go; we preserved it. I would preserve it for 7 the same -- based on the same observation that you are 8 making.

9 Q Okay. So, did you identify any colorable claim from 10 the D&O insurer that may justify avoiding paying out any 11 insurance claims?

12 A Are you asking me whether we think that the D&O carrier
13 has any basis to deny coverage; is that what you're asking
14 me?

15 Q Correct, yes.

16 A I don't. I'm not aware of any, but it wasn't -- we 17 certainly investigate that, but nothing that we did
18 investigate stands out as a red flag.

19 Q Got it. One more question. Alameda was an insider
20 shortly before it canceled shares I think a few weeks, maybe 21 a few days leading up to bankruptcy. Is there a reason they 22 were excluded from the investigation as insiders?

23 A I don't understand your question. Who is --

24 Q So Alameda --

1 ANDRE: I'm sorry, Your Honor. I have some 2 questions too.

THE COURT: Who is that?

4 ANDRE: This is Andre (indiscernible), pro se
5 creditor.

THE COURT: Okay.

CROSS-EXAMINATION OF TIMOTHY POHL

BY ANDRE:

9 Q Okay. Mr. Pohl, your committee was basically tasked to 10 investigate the company's policies to see if they did their 11 -- investigate the company's practices on their due
12 diligence. In your opinion, did they perform sufficient due
13 diligence against 3AC?

14 A No.

15 Q And what would -- why not?

16 A Well, I think they did conduct some due diligence.
17 They had a process. They did have a series of phone calls.
18 They asked for certain information and they got some of the 19 information they asked for, but not all of it. They were 20 aware importantly that there was another company that was 21 making loans to 3AC that was known to have a very rigorous 22 due diligence process of their own, so they took comfort in 23 the fact that --

24 ANDRE: I'm sorry. There's some background noise.
25 I can't hear you.

THE COURT: Somebody else has got an open telephone line; they need to mute it.

THE WITNESS: Okay. So, they got a whole bunch of different kinds of information in different ways. They conducted interviews. They asked for certain information. They got some public information. They had knowledge of other companies --

BY ANDRE:

Q Did they investigate the --

A Can I --

Q I'm sorry. Did they investigate the company's books?

A That's what I'm -- let me answer --

THE COURT: Who is speaking? Who asked that question?

ANDRE: I'm sorry.

THE COURT: Who asked that question?

ANDRE: Oh, I did. Andre (indiscernible).

THE COURT: Okay. You got to let the witness finish. You can't interrupt him.

THE WITNESS: So, they did a whole number of things, including asking for financial statements from Three Arrows. They did not get financial statements from Three Arrows in the conventional sense. They got a very short what's called an NAV statement, it was signed, that said from Three Arrows that they had a net asset value in the

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

They had a series of interviews. They looked at -- let me finish.

Q Series of phone calls with who?

A People at --

Q Be more specific please.

A People at Three Arrows, including one of the two founders.

Q Okay.

A So they conducted interviews. They looked at the documents that they were provided. They looked at public information. They knew that --

Q What documents were those?

A They knew that there were other people doing business that had their own rigorous -- their own due diligence processes which were believed to be rigorous. Three Arrows Capital at the time they did business with them was a marketplace darling, much like Alameda. There was -- we weren't the only -- Voyager wasn't the only company doing business with Three Arrows, just the opposite. All of those things in total combined was the diligence they did. They did that diligence over a roughly a one-month period.

Q This is, like, more like pseudo due diligence because at the very least, they didn't look at the company's books, they didn't look at their financial statements. They didn't ensure that they were capitalized.

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

multiple, multiple billions of dollars. That was part of the group of things that they relied upon, not the only thing, but it was part of it. It was not very robust. We did not think that that was very sufficient. That was one of the things that we thought was deficient.

But it wasn't the only thing that they relied upon, so we can't sort of point only to one factor. We reviewed what they did, what they looked at, and we did not think that it was as robust as it should have been. And that's why we did not believe that -- that's why we did believe and do believe that there are potential claims for violation of the duty of care against the two individuals that ultimately decided to make those loans anyhow.

Now it's not a clearcut winner. They did do some due diligence. Other people were doing business. It's not even clear that, even if they had done better -- in my view, better due diligence, that the answer would have been any different. They were defrauded. They were defrauded, they were being lied to.

BY ANDRE:

Q Yes, I'm sorry. So, what other due diligence did they do then?

A I just described it.

Q Exactly, like, what other?

A I just described it. They had a series of phone calls.

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

A They did -- all I can say is they did the diligence they did and we did not find that the result of that diligence was so robust that there was no potential claim. That's why we preserve the claims and entered into the settlements that we did.

Q And you believe that that was after the risk management...

A I think I just said the opposite.

Q Okay. Well, that's what I'm actually getting to, is that you have a company here that has, let's just say, 1.3 billion in assets that are ready and willing to lend out half of their business to another party because they told them we have 3.7 billion of net assets that you can go in with, you can do business with us. What I'm trying to get here is that I think this is just more than, oh yeah, we found some negligence. We found that, you know, they didn't really the do less diligence; they didn't do any diligence, yeah?

A What's the question?

Q Is that the -- that's the question. It sounds like they didn't do any diligence and you're saying they did some diligence.

A I just described the diligence.

Q And the --

A I just described the diligence.

1 Q Right. But ultimately, these actions caused the
2 downfall of the entire company. In one month, it caused 3.5
3 million customers, you know -- all right, I'm going to move
4 on from that.

5 What was Stephen Ehrlich's net worth or what did
6 Stephen Ehrlich have? You said, oh, he didn't have much.
7 What did he have?

8 A I'm a little handicapped by confidentiality agreement,
9 so I'll try to answer it, again, the way I answered it
10 before. He has a house; he has some money in a retirement
11 account and he had some money in a bank account. Can I --

12 Q This is Stephen Ehrlich's?

13 A Yes. I'm answering your question, yes.

14 Q Okay.

15 A The house, he had some money in a retirement account,
16 and he had some money in a bank account. The lion's share
17 of the money in the bank account he's giving back to us.
18 The retirement account was smaller and the value of the 19 house I think is smaller too. It's right around the same.
20 I can't remember the exact...

21 Q And that --

22 A So we did not take his house. If we had insisted on 23 taking his house and his IRA, there would have been no
24 settlement because he would not have agreed to it.

25 Q Okay. And what did you recover from Mr. Ehrlich?

212-267-6868

1 of time, did you consider whether these individuals lived in
2 community property states, such that their wives assets
3 might be available to satisfy a judgment against them
4 because there was references to that earlier too.

5 THE WITNESS: So, let me start with him and then
6 I'll go to his community property so that it's clear. Try
7 it again, maybe I wasn't clear. I think you can think about 8 what he has in three buckets: he has a house, that's one
9 bucket; he has some money in an retirement account, that's 10 the second bucket; and then he had some money in his bank
11 account.

12 We have most of the money from his bank account
13 coming back to us, the estate. We did not get his house and 14 we did not get his retirement account. If we had insisted
15 on either of those two things, there would be no settlement
16 and we would not have had the $1.125 million.

17 With respect to his wife -- with respect to his 18 wife, his wife has assets. We looked at legally whether or 19 not if he were sued, would there be an ability to get at his 20 wife's assets, and the legal answer in the state that he 21 lives in or that she lives in is no, there is no legal 22 recourse to her assets. So, it may be the amount of her 23 assets are not relevant because there's no way to get to 24 them. We looked.

1 A $1.25 or $1.125, one of those two numbers, $1.125
2 million plus, to the extent that as a result of giving us
3 that money, he is entitled to a refund from the IRS, which 4 he might be, we get that also.

5 Q Okay. And then from Mr. Psaropoulos, what -- again, so
6 can you answer, does Stephen Ehrlich have a network of more
7 than 5 million?

8 A No.

9 Q No, you can't answer or no, he doesn't.

10 A No, he doesn't.

11 Q Does he have a net worth of more than a million?

12 MR. KIRPALANI: I'm just going to object, Your 13 Honor, on the basis of confidentiality and I don't want my 14 witness to be sued for violating a confidentiality
15 agreement. I think he's answered the questions about this 16 and the scope of the assets.

17 THE COURT: Is there anything else?

18 ANDRE: I'm trying to --

19 THE COURT: Is there anything else you can say
20 about the range of Mr. Ehrlich's net worth within the limits
21 of your confidentiality agreement? I presume it was over a
22 million or he wouldn't have paid a million.

23 MR. KIRPALANI: Yes. I think you can -- I think
24 you've tried, but please, Mr. Pohl. And please also answer
25 because it was referred to earlier and just in the interest

1 Q And that they would be Connecticut?

2 A I think he's Connecticut, right. I might confuse
3 between the two of them who lives where, but one of them is 4 Connecticut, and that was legally --

5 Q And the house is -- and this house of his is in 6 Greenwich?

7 A I don't know where his house is.

8 MR. KIRPALANI: Your Honor, I'm advised -- sorry
9 to interrupt the question, but if I could just try to 10 clarify something -- advised by counsel to the creditors'
11 committee that filed on the Docket 112-1 was the committee's 12 own report where it was disclosed that Mr. Ehrlich reported
13 his net worth as approximately $2.57 million. Mr.
14 Psaropoulos declined to allow his net worth to be disclosed,
15 so that's the number.

16 THE WITNESS: Okay. I didn't know that. I knew
17 what the number was; I didn't know it had been disclosed.
18 So, I think you can see that we did settle with him for a 19 very significant percentage of his net worth and,
20 importantly, the net worth of his that we did not obtain is 21 not the same; it's in different categories, it's a house and 22 it's a retirement account.

23 ANDRE: I'm sorry (indiscernible). Say it again.

24 THE WITNESS: I didn't understand --

25 ANDRE: Can you hear me?

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions

Page 306

THE WITNESS: Yeah. Say that again please?

ANDRE: Just saying I got dropped from the call, so I'm letting you know that I'm back on.

THE COURT: Oh, all right. Well, I don't know if you were on, but Mr. Kirpalani pointed out that it's been previously revealed in a filing on the docket that Mr. Ehrlich's reported net worth was $2.75 million.

MR. KIRPALANI: $2.57.

THE COURT: $2.57, excuse me. I'm getting dyslexic as I get tired. And that the witness then said he believed that they had settled for a significant percentage of the total net worth and for most of the cash that was had and that he considered it a good settlement in light of the fact that he couldn't get at -- or unlikely to get at the house and the IRA.

THE WITNESS: Okay. I also said that we did look at his wife's assets. We were trying to -- we were looking to get everything that we could reasonably get, and we concluded based on legal advice that we would be unable to get to his wife's assets. If someone didn't settle and sued and won -- a lot of ifs there -- but if you didn't settle and you sued and you won, could you get at her assets? No, you couldn't.

BY ANDRE:

Q Right, okay. I don't want to deflect too much from the

www.veritext.com

don't want to be misconstrued. The fact that there may be claims against them is not the same thing as saying that those are slam dunk winners; they're not slam dunk winners, legally, they are not slam dunk winners. There's a lot of uncertainty about whether you could sue them and succeed, and so, that had to be factored into account.

And our goal wasn't to make them poor. The goal was to get the most for the estate that we reasonably could under the circumstances and that's what we did.

Q Well, by my comment of making them poor, I mean taking everything they have from them and putting it into the estate so that all the other creditors can at least get a little bit more. And, quite frankly, I mean, they should have nothing after their decision.

One last question. If you do not opt in --

THE COURT: Did you look at exemptions available under Connecticut law?

THE WITNESS: You mean on the marital property, Your Honor?

THE COURT: On the house and on the IRA or in the event that Mr. Ehrlich declared his own bankruptcy?

THE WITNESS: No. We were really focused on her property because it was more. And when we -- the house and the IRA, again, those amounts are smaller even comb -- you know, were not as significant as the cash. So, you know, in

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

212-267-6868

516-608-2400

Page 307

main course here. What were the -- how much did you recover from Mr. Psaropoulos?

A Much less. Mr. Psaropoulos is subordinating his right to 50 percent of his crypto assets, but not in the Voyager--

Q Right, okay.

A So the value is about, at the time that we calculated it -- and I know the price is moved every day, but the day that we calculated it, it's worth about $60,000; it's not nearly as much. His net worth is significantly less, number one, and number two, he was not as culpable. We thought the claims against him were weaker because it was really Mr. Ehrlich who was the decider with respect to making the loans to Three Arrows and in what amounts, so the strength of the claims wasn't the same.

Q So if I can just synthesize this correctly. Stephen Ehrlich's and Evan Psaropoulos, the main culprits in decision making, you know, with regard to the loan to Three Arrows, which ultimately brought down the company and caused a lot of harm to all of Voyager's customers. And your committee, instead of going after everything that they had and basically potentially making them poor, you agreed to settle on a smaller amount because maybe that was better than getting nothing. Does that sound about right?

A No, I wouldn't describe it that way. I think we thought that it was better than not settling. Again, I

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

212-267-6868

negotiating, when we could get the cash and get almost all of the cash, we thought relative it was total assets that was a fair deal compared to not settling at all and suing them and maybe getting nothing.

And we knew that -- no, we just didn't know, it was a settlement, it was a negotiations, but that he was not going to agree to give up his house and his IRA. Fortunately, the values of those things was not so significant that it made just getting at the cash not a good deal, all in. It made it a good deal. It was still a good deal all in.

BY ANDRE:

Q Okay. I have actually two more questions. One was if you do not opt-in to the finance deal, then you -- or rather, if you do opt-in to the finance deal, then you basically give up any rights to sue Mr. Ehrlich, yeah?

MR. KIRPALANI: Objection. Exceeds the scope of direct. But if you understand, if you know the answer to this question.

THE WITNESS: Are you asking me about under the plan if somebody opts-in to the finance, if they keep their asset --

BY ANDRE:

Q Right, they give up their rights to sue?

A If they keep their asset on the finance --

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

212-267-6868

516-608-2400

Page 310

THE COURT: No. My understanding is if you voted in favor of the plan or if you executed an affirmative opt-in to the releases, you would --

THE WITNESS: Just an affirmative opt-in, even for people who voted yes?

THE COURT: I thought you were binding people who voted -- so people who voted for the plan are not bound by the releases, okay.

THE WITNESS: Of the individual claims.

THE COURT: Okay. It's just they're only -- okay, so the only people who have released claims are people who have affirmatively opted in. That's people who checked the opt-in box on a ballot, not people who elect to become finance customers.

BY ANDRE:

Q So on the Voyager app, when it asks you do you want to transfer your data now and opt-in, that has nothing to do with giving up your rights to sue them personally or does that?

A That's correct.

ANDRE: Okay. I don't have any more questions. Thank you.

THE COURT: Okay. Anybody else on the phone?

MS. DIRESTA: Hi, Your Honor. This is Gina DiResta again, and I have a question for the witness.

of rumors about it, is there a way to investigate that after the fact? I know you guys have already done your investigation, but is there a way to do that now?

A I don't think we would be investigating social media rumors, but...

MS. DIRESTA: Okay, thank you. That's all.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. LOREN: Your Honor, this is John Loren, pro se day creditor. Can you hear me?

THE COURT: I can.

CROSS-EXAMINATION OF TIMOTHY POHL

BY MR. LOREN:

Q For the witness, I was curious if you investigated any of Steve's, like, shell companies, holdings, and/or trusts?

A Well, we requested and received sworn statements where he was required to disclose to us all of his assets and then he was deposed, so he would have been required to disclose those things to us and there was no disclosure of any other assets other than the ones we've talked about.

Q So if Steve Ehrlich votes, owns, or has a participation in shell companies, holdings, or trusts and he told he that he didn't, that's something we can potentially investigate. Am I hearing that correctly?

A I guess. If you're asking what the legal ramifications are of it were to turn out that he lied in his sworn

BY MS. DIRESTA:

Q Hi, Mr. Pohl. I heard a bunch of rumors that Voyager employees and even some of the customers were supposedly tipped off that the Voyager platform was going to get shut down and told to take their assets off the platform before it got shut down. Did you do any kind of investigations along these lines?

A I am not aware that we saw anything consistent with that.

Q Did you hear any kind of rumors around those lines at least?

A No, I'm not -- I for sure did not hear any rumors and no one else has told me that they heard those rumors either.

Q Okay. Because it's actually, like, a lot of people say it and, like, then, you know, it doesn't necessarily mean it's true, but a lot of people have been spreading that on different social media platforms. So, I didn't know if it's something that -- I'm surprised you haven't heard of it just because it's, like, rampant out there, and then I wanted to know if you guys did any kind of investigation along those lines.

And since you guys didn't do any investigations and I just now got to your attention that there were a lot testimony to us, I'll defer to the lawyer to answer that question, but I'm sure there would be some.

Q Wonderful, okay. And then there's a new article that came out, basically there's a new fund coming out in Tampa, Florida, and Steve Ehrlich is actually one of the employees or, I guess, one of the partners in this fund; it's called Druid. Have you heard anything about this?

MR. LOREN: Okay. That's all I have. Thank you.

P R O C E E D I N G S

THE COURT: Please be seated. All right, are we ready to continue?

MR. SLADE: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Let me just log into my computer screen. We'll be all set.

MR. SLADE: Sure.

THE COURT: Okay. Can I ask a question about the evidentiary presentations?

MR. SLADE: Certainly.

THE COURT: A number of the objections have criticized the selection of the proposed plan administrator. Do you have any witnesses who are going to address that?

MR. SLADE: We do intend to introduce his resume into evidence, and that was one of the things I was going to cover right now.

THE COURT: All right. And do you anticipate any testimony from anybody from Binance?

MR. SLADE: We do not.

THE COURT: So --

MR. SLADE: We have asked them to provide a witness, and they declined.

THE COURT: That seems odd, doesn't it?

MR. SLADE: Not in my experience, Your Honor. I mean, I've done a lot of these where the buyer, we ask the

1 buyer to testify and the buyer declines to testify. So in
2 that respect -- I mean, this is an unusual case which is why
3 we made the request, but I understand the question. We 4 asked it as well.

5 THE COURT: Well, I have a host of objections
6 asking me, based on what's happened in the industry in 7 general, to try to be careful about Binance and about how it
8 treats customers and how it segregates customer payments,
9 and essentially you're asking me to rely entirely on unsworn
10 hearsay on those points.

11 MR. SLADE: We are going to -- Mr. Tichenor is 12 going to testify about the additional diligence that we did 13 and --

14 THE COURT: But in the end, his diligence is 15 largely hearsay, right? It's what Binance tells him.

16 MR. SLADE: Is it largely hearsay. We have some 17 evidence, some of which was provided confidentially that I
18 would want to confirm that I'm allowed to disclose.

19 THE COURT: Yeah.

20 MR. SLADE: But I understand Your Honor's
21 questions and concerns and we are asking the same questions.

22 THE COURT: Okay. I had mentioned yesterday, and 23 these are things for you to discuss with Binance because 24 they're things I'm thinking about and maybe there are issues
25 that are easy modifications that would make points go away,

1 distributions and don't want to be Binance customers, why do
2 they have to wait six months? Why can't they get the same
3 three-month treatment that people in other states get?

4 MR. GOLDBERG: Well, Your Honor, essentially the 5 business deal that was struck between Binance and the Debtor
6 --

7 THE COURT: I don't care what the business deal
8 is. From the bankruptcy point of view, why can't they have 9 the same terms as people in other states? Why, just because 10 I live in Texas, if I am absolutely sure that I don't want 11 to be a Binance customer, why can't I do the same thing as 12 somebody who's in Ohio and just get cashed out in three 13 months? Why do I have to wait six months?

14 MR. GOLDBERG: The objective with that provision,
15 Your Honor, is to attempt to reach a solution that complies
16 with applicable regulations to permit distributions in kind,
17 which is the goal of creditors.

18 THE COURT: But if I don't want an in-kind
19 distribution, I live in Texas and I say I'd rather get my 20 cash in three months, I don't want in-kind distributions,
21 why do I have to wait six months?

22 MR. GOLDBERG: Well, Your Honor, the -- Binance's
23 transactions to acquire all of the customers onto the 24 platform and serve as distribution agent to --

25 THE COURT: But you know you're not acquiring all

1 but I had mentioned the length of the custody trust
2 relationship to make sure that it continues until somebody's
3 had an actual meaningful opportunity to withdraw their 4 crypto, if that's what they choose to do.

5 I'm still unclear in the unsupported
6 jurisdictions, if somebody does not want to be a Binance
7 customer, do they have to wait six months or can they get 8 cash in three months like people in other states can get?

9 MR. GOLDBERG: Your Honor, Adam Goldberg of Latham
10 and Watkins on behalf of Binance.US. The terms of the deal
11 are that customers in unsupported jurisdictions would be -- 12 their cryptocurrency would be held by the Debtors for six 13 months from the closing date until there is a solution with 14 any of the unsupported jurisdictions. As I think Your Honor
15 is aware, Binance.US, the Debtors, and the State of Vermont
16 have reached an agreement on the terms of distributions to 17 Vermonters and we're working earnestly to achieve similar 18 resolutions with other unsupported jurisdictions and I'm 19 hopeful we'll be able to do so.

20 THE COURT: I understand the reasons why the 21 parties say that as to people who want crypto in-kind
22 distributions, why you can't do it in violation of law, why
23 you want six months try to work it out. I understand all 24 that. But as to people in the unsupported jurisdictions, if 25 I'm using the correct phrase here, who don't want in-kind

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

Page 13

1 of the customers in Ohio. You know, those people don't have
2 to go to Binance. They have a right to just be cashed out
3 in three months if that's what they want. So if I'm in 4 Texas and I similarly don't want to be a Binance customer,
5 why don't I get the exact same opportunity? I don't 6 understand it.

7 MR. GOLDBERG: Essentially the goal there was to 8 align the terms for all other customers which was to provide 9 custom -- Binance with the ability to acquire all of the 10 customers and deliver the crypto to customers as quickly as 11 possible for those who want to be part of the Binance
12 platform. That transaction enabled the Debtors to receive
13 the maximum amount of value available for Binance to benefit
14 the estate as a whole and --

15 THE COURT: You know -- but look. I understand
16 that you want to give everybody a chance to get in-kind
17 distributions. I understand that you want on behalf of 18 Binance to get customers if you can. But obviously, we 19 can't force customers to go to you. And as to customers in 20 48 states, you have recognized that they don't have to open
21 Binance accounts and if they don't, within three months,
22 that they get cash distributions.

23 My question is, why can't somebody in Texas, New 24 York, Vermont, Hawaii, whatever your unsupported
25 jurisdictions still are, why can't they say in that same three-month period, I don't want to go to Binance? This -- you know, why do you get longer to try to convince them to be Binance customers than you get with respect to people in Ohio? Don't get it.

MR. GOLDBERG: Well --

THE COURT: Why can't they have the affirmative right to tell you, I don't want this, I want my cash, so that I can have -- so that I can have the same rights that somebody in Ohio has? I can't give them the same rights to in-kind distributions because there are state laws in effect. I understand that. I can give them the same right to get cash distributions as the same time as people in other states have and I'm having a lot of trouble understanding why I'm not -- why I shouldn't do that, in fact, why I'm not required to do that.

MR. GOLDBERG: I understand Your Honor's point. I think our position there is, Your Honor, that the creditors do have the same opportunity to recover value from the estate as quickly as possible in accordance with applicable law and that part of the value proposition that is benefiting the estate and that was voted on by creditors, is to provide that opportunity for Binance, the Debtors, and each of the unsupported jurisdictions to seek to achieve a resolution that enables distributions to customers within that time period. And once the resolutions occur, as was hard?

WOMAN 1: Your Honor, we just got a notification that people on the phone can't hear.

MR. GOLDBERG: I hear you loud and clear, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Yeah, would you -- thanks.

the case with Vermont, the -- those states will no longer be considered a unsupported jurisdiction.

THE COURT: That's fine. And I have no problem with your trying to work that out, but you may not be able to work it out. You've got, at least New York seems to be an obstacle for you. So my -- I'm left with this problem, right, that I understand all your explanations about how you can't change the past. You can't give yourself a regulatory approval that you don't have. You can't distribute crypto in kind in New York like you can elsewhere because New York says you can't.

I understand all that, but none of that explains why you can't give New York customers the same right to a cash distribution in three months as you give to people in other states. There's no explanation for that other than, I suppose, your desire to market Binance to people in New York. But why people in New York then have to take an extra three months than people in Ohio if they don't want to go to Binance is a mystery to me.

It's easily solvable. All you have to say is that people -- customers can tell you if they elect not to go to Binance. You don't have to wait this three months. They should be able to just make an election not to go to Binance and if they do that, they get their cash distribution in the three-month period that you've specified. Why is that so unknowingly to me kind of bounced off the call here with the Court Solutions connection going down. I don't know how much you heard and didn't hear. Does anybody here have any idea when the connection stopped?

WOMAN 1: We lost four minutes and 20 seconds.

THE COURT: Thanks. Okay. Unfortunately, I can't rewind in my head that precise amount of time. I was asking some questions about the evidence that's going to come in today. You probably heard that. And then I was identifying -- in the process of identifying three issues that I would like the Debtors to be discussing with Binance because they seem to me to be relatively small changes in the arrangements here that might go a long way to eliminating some of the objections.

The first was that I have previously said in the order approving the Binance agreement that any assets transferred to Binance were absolutely held by Binance nominally only and were held in trust and in custody for either the Debtors or the customers until the distributions were completed. I had said that in the order that we entered that approved the Binance transactions subject to this hearing.

But I also yesterday indicated that it seemed to me that maybe we ought to make clear that that custody provision continues for -- I'll let people tell me -- a reasonable time so that we don't find that we've sort of had it end instantaneously upon the crediting to a customer's account so that if somebody actually wants to make a withdrawal, which was the whole point, somebody wants to actually make a withdrawal without having subjected themselves to undue risk, they can actually do so.

Doesn't have to be a real long period of time, but it shouldn't be a second and it shouldn't be a minute. It should be something that's meaningful so that people can actually act to get what they want within this time period that this custody and trust provision applies.

Another issue I was raising here is that I still will hear argument of course, from the states and the unsupported jurisdictions about whether there is unfair discrimination, but I do understand at least the contrary argument that as to in-kind distributions, we can't change the past. We can't undo the failure to have regulatory approvals and we can't do what regulations in different jurisdictions do not allow us to do.

And you know, the only way to have equal treatment as a result of that is to make 48 states wait just because we can't do everything in all 52 states, which seems like a not very perfect solution. But at the same time, it seems to me that the whole program is set up so that people in 48 states who do not want to be Binance customers get cashed

But do you need to transfer all information that you have about a customer, all of the know your customer and other data you have, bank account records and whatever information it amounts to, do you need to transfer all of that up front? Isn't it easy, relatively, to modify this so that that information, other than the contact information, only gets transferred when the customer elects to be a Binance customer?

Is there any reason why Binance needs all of that other information for people who don't elect to be Binance customers? Isn't it a little safer and better protection for those customers if we do the transfer of that kind of data in stages and in pieces? I'm not asking you to give me a definitive answer. I'm just suggesting to you that these are things that seem relatively easy to change to me. They may not be as perfect as you would like, but they don't really seem to me to have an impact on your business deal and they'll go a long way towards addressing a lot of the concerns that people have expressed. Okay?

MR. GOLDBERG: Thank you, Your Honor. I hear you loud and clear on those issues and we'll work with my clients to --

THE COURT: Great.

MR. GOLDBERG: -- endeavor to respond. I would -- I can definitively answer the first question, however -- out in three months; whereas, people in the unsupported states have to wait six months even -- not just because we're trying to solve the ability to give them crypto, but even if they don't want in-kind distributions, even if they would prefer to be cashed out, they nevertheless still have to wait six months.

And I don't -- I am having a lot more trouble understanding a proper basis for that different treatment. And I'm suggesting that perhaps the agreement could easily be changed so that if somebody in the unsupported jurisdictions simply makes an election in a form that the parties can designate, that they too can get their cash within three months. I think that would go a very long way towards resolving the arguments about unequal treatment of the creditors and of the customers.

And the other provision I wanted to address that came up a lot yesterday was the transfer of customer information. And I understand the argument about the Debtors' rights to sell the information. I understand that at least part of what's going on here is an effort to give Binance the chance to market itself to customers. I understand that. And I understand for that reason that you want -- I certainly understand why you want to contact information with the customers' email addresses, addresses, so you can try to convince them to be part of your platform.

THE COURT: Yeah.

MR. GOLDBERG: -- which was we included language in the confirmation order which is at the end of Paragraph 99 to make clear that the -- any cryptocurrency that is delivered to Binance remains property of the Debtors and remains property of the customers to which those coins should be allocated. And we are happy to include any language that provides comfort on that issue.

THE COURT: Very good.

MR. GOLDBERG: That is absolutely the intent.

THE COURT: Very good. I appreciate that. Thank you.

MR. GOLDBERG: Thank you, Your Honor.

MR. SLADE: Good morning, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Good morning.

MR. SLADE: Mike Slade for the Debtors. Before -- we have one more witness, but I want to offer a number of the, what I'm hoping will be noncontroversial exhibits into evidence first. Is that okay?

THE COURT: Yes. Please.

MR. SLADE: First, I would like to offer Docket No. 1125, which is the most recent version of the plan of reorganization.

THE COURT: All right. It seems to me I have to have that in evidence as it's what we're debating today, so I will admit that into evidence.

MR. SLADE: And then from our exhibit list, which was filed at Docket No. 1129, I first want to offer the exhibits related to the purchase agreements so that's Exhibits 7, 6, 8, and 9, Docket No. 248, 748, 775, and 835. And those are the asset purchase agreement and the first amendment and the notice of successful bidder and also Exhibit 11, Docket No. 860, which is, Your Honor, order approving our entry into the asset purchase agreement.

THE COURT: All right. I think I can take judicial notice of those documents and I will do so and they are admitted into evidence.

(Exhibits 6, 7, 8, 9, 11 entered into evidence)

MR. SLADE: Thank you. I would like to offer the plan supplement documents, so that again, off of our exhibit list, Exhibit 15, 16, and 20 through 23. Those are Docket Nos. 943, 951, 986, 1006, 1035, and 1115.

THE COURT: Once again, these are documents for which approval is being sought. I can take judicial notice of them and I do so. They are in evidence for this proceeding.

(Exhibits 15, 16, 20 through 23 entered into evidence)

MR. SLADE: Thank you, Your Honor. I offer the customer agreement, which is Exhibit 19, also Docket No.

THE WITNESS: Brian Tichenor.

THE COURT: All right. Counsel, you may proceed.

MR. SLADE: Thank you, Your Honor.

DIRECT EXAMINATION OF BRIAN TICHENOR

BY MR. SLADE:

Q Just to finish this up quickly, I'm handing you a copy of what is Exhibit 19 which was also on the docket at Docket 1074 at Pages 16 to 55. That's the Voyager customer agreement. Are you familiar with that document, Mr. Tichenor?

A In a limited capacity, yes.

Q Have you reviewed it before?

A Yes.

Q And have you served as investment banker to the Debtors since the petition date?

A I have.

MR. SLADE: Your Honor, I offer Exhibit 19.

THE COURT: All right, is there any objection or any desire to voir dire the witnesses to that exhibit? Okay. The exhibit is admitted.

(Exhibit 19 entered into evidence)

MR. SLADE: Thank you, Your Honor. I do have some supplemental direct for Mr. Tichenor, but before I get there, I would like to offer his declaration which is on the

THE COURT: This is -- okay. That's not a document that's presented for my approval. Is there somebody who can verify that that's the true and correct copy of the customer agreement?

MR. SLADE: I can ask Mr. Tichenor who's our last witness.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. SLADE: Sure. And the other document I mentioned earlier, Docket No. 1109-2, which is the resume of proposed plan administrator.

THE COURT: Somebody's going to need to testify and verify that, I think.

MR. SLADE: Fair enough. We'll --

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. SLADE: -- work with the Committee and figure that out.

THE COURT: Great. Thanks.

MR. SLADE: And our last witness, Your Honor, is Mr. Tichenor.

THE COURT: Mr. Tichenor, do you swear that the testimony you're about to give will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth so help you God?

THE WITNESS: I do, Your Honor.

docket at Docket No. 1113. It's also Exhibit 3 on our exhibit list which was, again, back at 1129.

THE COURT: Are there any objections to the admission of Mr. Tichenor's declaration into evidence? All right. Anybody will have the right to cross examine him. The declaration is admitted.

(Declaration of Brian Tichenor entered into evidence)

MR. SLADE: Thank you.

BY MR. SLADE:

Q Okay. Mr. Tichenor, I want to get into a number of the issues that we talked about during the hearing yesterday. First, I think you heard it, some of the regulators and some customers have expressed concerns and reservations about Binance.US; would you agree?

A I would.

Q Now, I want to discuss exactly why the Debtors decided to go through the complexity of having a Binance deal as plan A and the toggle as plan B. Okay?

A Okay.

Q How much value leakage would there be if the Debtors decide to exercise their fiduciary out and move away from Binance towards the toggle plan?

A We would estimate that the differential would be $100 million, approximately.

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

Q Can you describe for the Court what the $100 million of value leakage consists of?

A So of the $100 million of value leakage, 20 million of that would relate to the differential from the purchase price perspective relating to Binance's upfront purchase price consideration of $20 million. The remaining $80 million relates primarily to value leakage associated with two components.

One would be estimated incremental value reduction associated with VGX token and the lack of support from Binance.US perspective and inability to potentially create additional value for that token. That is a relatively small component of the estimated $80 million. The remaining component relates to additional discounts that would likely be associated with the liquidation of the 35 unsupported tokens on Voyager platform.

Q Okay. I want to provide the Court with some more detail on that than we received yesterday. So there was discussion about what it meant for there to be 35 unsupported coins. Can you describe for the Court what that means?

A Yeah. So the unsupported coins -- and again, this is based on my understanding and discussions with the management team of Voyager is that there are 35 tokens for which the company's Bedrock code which is the foundation for

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

transfer. It might be transaction, so I apologize if I have that backwards. But generally, when people think of AML and KYC, it relates to an onboarding process. KYT relates to the sending of funds and so what that really ultimately relates to is that the party, which is sending the funds, in this case Voyager, knows the counterparty on the other end of that transaction.

And the primary purpose of that is to make sure that you're complying with federal regulations related to, for example, not sending funds to North Korean wallets or Iranian wallets. And so generally, what happens for cryptocurrency platforms, given the ecosystem more broadly and the ability to easily transfer funds to third-party wallets is that there's a list of blacklisted wallets effectively, through FinCEN for example, that publishes that.

And so what these third party providers do is they allow Voyager to make sure that they are not sending crypto to parties that are banned in the United States from an AML and KYC perspective. So it allows them to continue to comply with federal law relating to the transfer of funds.

Q And is what you were saying that the -- with respect to the unsupported coins, Voyager doesn't have the services in place to do the KYT process?

A That is my understanding, and in part that relates to

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

which the company uses in order to facilitate the withdrawal and transfer of cryptocurrencies for customers, does not support the protocols for those 35 tokens. So there's not an ability for that Bedrock code to be used in order to be able to execute and facilitate the withdrawal of those tokens into customers' wallets.

Historically, the company has never offered an ability to withdraw those 35 tokens. They've always been done on a basis whereby a customer would use cash on the platform to acquire the token. Voyager would, through market maker arrangements, acquire the token from market makers. It would hold them in its own wallets and then to the extent of a customer sought to withdraw, they would need to sell those tokens into cash and the subsequent trade would occur on the other end.

In addition to that, there are limitations from, for example, an AML and KYC perspective that also enable the ability for Voyager to appropriately comply with AML and KYT procedures around the withdrawal of tokens and they utilize third-party providers such as chain analysis to verify the party and wallet address that that token is being sent to. That functionality is not integrated into the platform related to those 35 as well.

Q Can you describe for us what KYT is?

A Yeah, so it's a -- and I believe it's know your 212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

the functionality of those third-party providers. Not all of them support all of the tokens. So there are inherently limitations around that and we understand that there are limitations with the primary third-party verification provider for those tokens that Voyager uses. They don't -- they are not supported.

Q So one of the customers asked us yesterday, what would be necessary for Voyager to develop the internal capability to be able to support the 35 unsupported tokens?

A So based on my discussions with management, my understanding is that it would require developers to be brought in in order to rewrite a large portion of the Bedrock code to enable that system to be able to support from a protocol perspective the actual ability to facilitate those withdrawals.

It would also require the company to engage with other third-party providers related to KYT wallet verification, onboard those, integrate those into its platform. Generally, my understanding is that it would take about 6 to 9 months -- this is what's been described to me -- to revise the Bedrock code per protocol. I do imagine that some of that could be done in parallel, but we do understand it to be a lengthy process.

And what is not surprising in our minds, given the fact that you would, you know, generally for a code update like

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

that want to do things like verifications and test transactions, so it is -- we understand to be a very lengthy and likely expensive procedure in order to be able to do that.

Q Okay. Can you give us an order of magnitude of the additional cost?

A I would imagine that it would likely be in easily the single-digit millions, if not tens of millions. I don't have a specific number, though.

Q Okay. So given this, in your opinion, is it realistic if Voyager were to toggle to plan B and do the self-liquidation for Voyager to also develop the capabilities to distribute the 35 currently unsupported coins directly to customers?

A I do not. I believe that the cost and time delay would not merit the decision to pursue that.

Q Okay, so what happens to the 35 unsupported coins in the toggle scenario?

A In the toggle scenario, the Debtor would in its best efforts seek to liquidate those coins into cash and it would liquidate those coins into cash using best efforts in order to minimize any potential value leakage associated with it, but it would likely involve the sale of that coin into the market or via block trade transactions with third-party OTC market makers.

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

Q When will that decision be made?

A It would likely be made at a time three to four weeks from approval of the plan in advance of a closing. We would confer with our board of directors from an advisory perspective. The advisors would also work together with the UCC in consultation to make a determination and recommendation on which path to ultimately move forward with.

Q Okay. And I just want to be absolutely clear to all the customers that are listening on the phone. Are you ready, sitting here today, to tell the Court and customers that for sure, if the Court confirms the plan, we're going to be selling to Binance?

A Do you mind repeating the question again? Sorry.

Q Sure. I want -- sorry, maybe it was even unclear. I just want to be absolutely clear for all the people that are listening. Okay? Are you sitting here today telling the Court and all of these customers that if the plan is confirmed, we're going to be selling to Binance?

A No.

THE COURT: Just to be clear, Mr. Tichenor, that's the current intent, but you have the right to change your mind; is that essentially what you're saying?

THE WITNESS: What I'm saying, Your Honor, is that we are continuing to do due diligence on Binance. At this

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

Q And has the company gone out and gotten quotes for what it would receive for those 35 unsupported tokens in that scenario?

A It has. We spoke with multiple market makers when evaluating the toggle scenario in order to validate what we believed appropriate discounts would ultimately be relating to those tokens.

Q And what were the quotes that you got?

A They were very large. In many instances, they were 50 percent plus and we did speak with what we believe to be a number of the largest market makers in both the traditional finance as well as crypto market making capacity. In some instances, they do both. But we did seek and receive quotes from multiple parties.

Q Just so we're clear, you're talking about a 50 percent discount?

A Fifty percent discount relative to the current prices, yes.

Q Okay. So is the potential $100 million in leakage caused by a potential toggle the reason that the Debtors have the Binance transaction as option A?

A Yes, among other things.

Q Okay. Has Voyager decided definitively today that it will close the Binance transaction?

A No.

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

point in time, we would feel comfortable with the toggle scenario. That obviously is a path that the Debtor has an ability to fully control. But we do continue to do work around Binance and there are, you know, for example, allegations that are occurring in real time as early as this morning that we continue to evaluate. We would continue to evaluate in advance of any closing.

BY MR. SLADE:

Q Okay. So I want to step back and just describe for the Court the diligence that you've done. And so can you just describe for the Court what diligence have you done on Binance.US?

A Yeah, so as outlined in my declaration, we have reviewed audited financial statements from their 2021 audit. We reviewed interim unaudited financial statements. We reviewed their available liquidity. We reviewed various party services agreements. We've reviewed their AML and KYC procedures. We've had multiple discussions with them relating to --

THE COURT: Slow down and repeat all those things.

THE WITNESS: Yes.

THE COURT: The 2021 audited financials, 2022 unaudited, did you say?

THE WITNESS: Yes, that's correct, Your Honor.

THE COURT: What else?

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions

1 THE WITNESS: We also reviewed their available
2 funds and liquidity including a proof of funds.

3 THE COURT: Okay.

4 THE WITNESS: We reviewed related party services
5 agreements.

6 THE COURT: Okay.

7 THE WITNESS: We have reviewed their wallet
8 infrastructure. We had discussions with them relating to 9 that. And by saying reviewed, we have had discussions
10 relating to their wallet infrastructure and representations
11 have been made to us about it.

12 THE COURT: Okay.

13 THE WITNESS: Additionally, we reviewed their AML
14 and KYC procedures and manuals.

15 THE COURT: Okay.

16 THE WITNESS: Their money transmitter licensing

18 THE COURT: Okay.

19 THE WITNESS: Business plans that they had

22 THE COURT: Okay.

23 THE WITNESS: Additionally, above and beyond that,
24 we have reviewed information independently relating to some

1 Q Does Binance.US hold customer assets solely in a

3 A Yes.

4 Q Who can move and transfer crypto assets away from the 5 Binance.US platform?

6 A Only Binance.com -- excuse me, Binance.US employees.

7 Q Got it. All right. Does Binance.US lend or 8 rehypothecate customer asset?

9 A No.

10 Q Have you seen Binance.US organizational charts?

11 A I have.

12 Q Where is Binance.US incorporated?

13 A In Delaware with a headquarters in Palo Alto.

14 Q Who owns Binance.US?

15 A We understand it to be 20 percent owned by Series A 16 seen investors and 80 percent owned through an ultimate
17 owner CZ.

18 Q Do you have an understanding of Binance.US' security
19 protocols?

20 A Yes.

21 Q Can you just describe that as a high level for the 22 Court?

23 A Yes. So we reviewed security protocols relating to 24 documents that were provided to us, for example, relating to 25 their ISO 27001 standards which relate to general IT

1 with them relating to a range of factors around risks
2 associated with Binance.US as a potential counterparty.

3 THE COURT: Thank you.

4 BY MR. SLADE:

5 Q Can you tell the Court just approximately how many 6 meetings and phone calls you have doing diligence about
7 Binance.US?

8 A It would be dozens over a multi-month period.

9 Q You said you reviewed proof of funds. What was that 10 specifically that you received from them?

11 A We received a bank statement from them.

12 Q This -- you mentioned you got audited financial 13 statements from 2021. This also came up in hearing
14 yesterday. Do you know if Binance has an auditor?

15 A They've made representations to us that they do have a
16 new auditor. Yes.

17 Q Okay. This also came up yesterday. Does Binance to 18 your knowledge have a fiat banking relationship?

19 A Yes.

20 Q Okay. So I want to ask you this question for your 21 understanding based on the diligence you've done of 22 Binance.US, okay? It's a series of questions with that 23 premise. Okay? Does Binance.US maintain digital assets on 24 a one-to-one reserve basis?

25 A Yes.

212-267-6868

1 security protocols. We also reviewed a third-party audit
2 relating to SOC 2 compliance, which relates to protection of 3 underlying customer funds from an IT security perspective.

4 And then from a wallet infrastructure perspective, we've had 5 multiple discussions with them relating to where, for 6 example, private keys are stored, the ability to move funds,
7 who has authorization to be able to move funds, how 8 transfers work. So we've had a number of discussions with 9 them relating to that.

10 Q Okay. And the Court asked this question yesterday. I
11 just want to pose it directly to you. Are their safeguards
12 to prevent crypto from being taken off the Binance.US
13 platform?

14 A That is my understanding, yes.

15 Q Okay. Do you understand where the keys to crypto at 16 Binance.US are held?

17 A I do.

18 Q And what can you say publicly about that?

19 A So we are bound by confidentiality. We do take some of 20 the key elements very seriously relating to privacy concerns
21 around that. We understand the keys to be held at 22 enterprise grade cloud storage facilities that in -- for the 23 majority of those keys are at a level that would meet
24 military grade standards.

25 Q Are you familiar with the facilities at which these

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions

Page 38

1 keys are held?

2 A I'm aware of the facilities, yes.

3 Q Okay, just so we're clear, have you visited that?

4 A I have not.

5 Q All right. So all that said, are there aspects of 6 Binance.US' business that you are still doing diligence on?

7 A Yes.

8 Q What are the issues you continue to track?

9 A So for example, you know, as I think we outlined in our

10 -- in the declaration, we have had discussions with

11 Binance.US as early as Wednesday. There was a large meeting

12 with both Moelis and various other advisors relating to

13 Binance.US' relationship with Merit Peak and allegations

14 that were made relating to a Reuters article that was 15 published.

16 For example, our understanding based on information

17 that was provided to us relating to that, we don't believe

18 that for example, there was any comingling of customer

19 funds. So for example, we understood that deposits relative

20 to withdrawals were effectively on one-for-one basis and so

21 therefore there wasn't any inappropriate withdrawals of 22 underlying customer funds. But that is an item, for 23 example, that we continue to do due diligence on.

24 Q Okay. Are there any other items you're tracking?

25 A Yes. So after the hearing yesterday, we became aware

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

Page 40

1 A I don't recall the exact words that were used, but CZ

2 had tweeted in a reply to an article relating to this exact

3 hearing around the Voyager, Binance.US transaction what

4 seemed to be concerns around potentially pulling out of 5 either the U.S. or the transaction more broadly.

6 Q Okay. And was there a follow-up tweet?

7 A There was. That's my understanding, yes.

8 Q And what was the follow-up tweet?

9 A That they were still very interested in moving forward

10 with the deal as is and that the tweet didn't relate to the 11 specific transaction.

12 Q Okay. So just so we're clear, Mr. Tichenor, if the 13 Court confirms the plan, how will the decision be made

14 between closing of the -- between either closing the Binance

15 transaction or toggling to the self-liquidation option?

16 A So the decision will be made among the advisors

17 ultimately making a recommendation, and that would include

18 Moelis, Kirkland, BRG on the Debtors' side having a

19 discussion ultimately with the board of directors and the 20 special committee to determine which appropriate path would

21 be made on a go-forward basis. We would make that

22 recommendation in consultation with the UCC and its various

23 advisors including McDermott and FTI. And ultimately, the 24 determination would likely be made relating to whether it

25 was the appropriate path on a risk adjusted basis to

1 of a letter that was sent to Binance.US and CZ from three

2 senators including Elizabeth Warren relating to allegations

3 that, you know, would largely seemed to reflect articles

4 from Reuters. That said, this came out last night and we

5 are actively engaging in and having discussions and we had

6 discussions minutes leading up to the hearing this morning

7 with Binance around that and we'll continue to have

8 discussions with them post this hearing relating to that.

9 Q And speaking of this morning, did you see CZ's tweet

10 from this morning?

11 A I did.

12 Q All right. What was your reaction?

13 THE COURT: Somebody tell me what it is.

14 MR. SLADE: We can provide it to the Court. There

15 were -- there are --

16 THE COURT: -- the witness first, tell me what it

17 is.

18 MR. SLADE: Sure.

19 THE COURT: Tell me his reaction.

20 MR. SLADE: I apologize.

21 THE COURT: His reaction's going to mean nothing

22 to me if I don't know what it was.

23 MR. SLADE: Totally fair, Your Honor.

24 BY MR. SLADE:

25 Q Just describe the tweet for the Court.

1 continue to move forward with.

2 Q Okay. Well, wherever we are, Mr. Tichenor, why not

3 just toggle now, given what you are talking about, the

4 concerns of the regulators and the Merit Peak issue and the 5 issues you're still dealing with and the media reports and

6 congressional letters and the tweets? Why not just toggle

7 now?

8 A Because based on our analysis, the Binance transaction

9 potentially provides up to an incremental $100 million of 10 additional value for customers which we view as being

11 material. In addition, you know, we do believe that it's 12 like a potentially faster path for customers being able to 13 recover funds as well, just given logistical and operational

14 elements of executing on a self-liquidating toggle.

15 MR. SLADE: That's all, Your Honor. Thank you.

16 Pass the witness.

17 THE COURT: All right. Is there anybody here in 18 the courtroom who wishes to cross examine Mr. Tichenor?

19 MR. BRUH: Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Yes, Mr. Bruh.

21 MR. BRUH: Thank you. Mark Bruh for the United 22 States Trustee.

23 CROSS EXAMINATION OF BRIAN TICHENOR

24 BY MR. BRUH:

25 Q Good morning, Mr. Tichenor. I just have a couple of quick questions for you. You spoke about the letter by the three U.S. senators to Changpeng Zhao -- CZ, that is -- and Binance.US and you kind of gave a broad brush as to what that letter is about. Isn't it correct that the letter deals with respect to potential sanctions evasion, money laundering, and unlicensed money transmission?

A I don't recall the exact specifics. I apologize. We were reading this very late last night. But that's my understanding, yes.

Q Okay. And did you or your team look into this at all, those issues?

A We looked into a number of issues as I think I outlined relating to Binance.US' specific AML and KYC procedures. For example, we have had multiple discussions with them. We have performed extensive diligence in part relating to a lot of the allegations that were outlined in various Reuters articles, but I can't speak to, for example, elements of Binance.com as a counterparty. That would not be within our scope of diligence.

Q Today, you spoke about that the -- in the event the Debtors toggle, that the plan -- the sale to Binance, it would be $100 million difference; is that right?

A That was the estimate, yes.

Q Yes. But yesterday, Mr. Renzi testified that the $20 million infusion by Binance would only be about a 1 percent remaining 80 million, my recollection was that approximately 20 million of that was relating to an estimated incremental reduction in value associated with VGX as a specific token with the remaining portion of that being 60 million relating to liquidity discounts associated with the full liquidation of 35 tokens which cannot be returned to customers on an in-kind basis through the Voyager platform.

212-267-6868

MR. BRUH: Okay. I have no further questions. Thank you.

THE COURT: Anybody else who's here who wishes to cross examine Mr. Tichenor?

MR. EVANS: Your Honor, Joe Evans from the UCC. If possible, if the creditors on the line have questions, I'd like them to go first so we can follow up, or we can go now if you prefer.

THE COURT: All right, well before we go to the people on the line, is there anybody other than the Committee who has questions that they wish to ask.

MR. UPTEGROVE: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Hang on one second. We have not quite --

MR. UPTEGROVE: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: -- the telephone yet. Anybody else here in the courtroom? All right, anybody on the telephone who wishes to ask questions?

increase to customers and then -- isn't that right?

A That's my recollection, Mr. Renzi's testimony yesterday, yes.

Q And then he further testified based upon certain questions by the pro se customers than in actuality, that 1 percent would be less when you take into account the administrative costs incurred by the estate; isn't that right?

MR. SLADE: Your Honor, I would object. I don't think that's what he said.

THE COURT: I don't think it is either, so I'll sustain the objection.

BY MR. BRUH:

Q Can you just explain how you come to the $100 million number as opposed to the 1 percent number for me?

MR. SLADE: I object. I don't think those are the same things. You can answer the question.

BY MR. BRUH:

A Yesh, so as I think I previously stated, the components of the $100 million -- approximate, again, $100 million differential because it does move in real time --

Q I understand.

A -- were that it was $20 million relating to the up-front purchase price consideration with the remaining 80 million, so out of 100, you know, less the 20, of the

MR. UPTEGROVE: Yes, Your Honor. William Uptegrove on behalf of the United States Securities and Exchange Commission.

THE COURT: Okay.

CROSS EXAMINATION OF BRIAN TICHENOR

BY MR. UPTEGROVE:

Q Good morning, Mr. Tichenor. I'd like to ask you some questions about the safeguards for protecting customer assets once those assets have been transferred to the Binance.US platform. You've already testified some about that. What specific role did you have in the Debtors' due diligence of Binance.US?

A So I'm an investment banker to Voyager and my specific involvement was participation in various discussions and meetings with Binance.US relating to the diligence. I was also involved in, for example, preparation of diligence questions in connection with that work.

Q Anything else?

A I'm not sure I follow the question.

Q Any other part -- with respect to your role, is there anything else that you did in connection with the due diligence of Binance.US?

A I believe we outlined the work that we had done previously. You know, we've had multiple discussions with them. No. I mean, I think I stated previously the work

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

1 that we have performed.

2 Q Presumably it was part of a team. Who overall was 3 responsible for conducting the Debtors' due diligence?

4 A It would be -- I am a member of our team at Moelis.
5 I'm one of several individuals, so it would include myself
6 and many others that are also on the Moelis team in addition
7 to myself. It also included K&E, for example, as counsel to 8 the Debtor. It included BRG who is the financial advisor to 9 the Debtor. You know, we have done this diligence in 10 connection with the UCC's advisors, for example.

11 So as I mentioned, I think previously, for example, the 12 Merit Peak review that we had on Wednesday, I was unable to 13 physically participate in that. We did have representatives
14 from Moelis at that meeting, but it included representatives
15 from all of the firms that I listed, including, you know,
16 the UCC's advisors. So it's not just a Moelis-specific 17 diligence effort.

18 Q Is there anybody on the Moelis team that has a
19 background in crypto asset security?

20 A In which context? From a legal perspective? I'm 21 sorry. I don't follow the nature of the question.

22 Q No, in a technical capacity. So you know, whether or 23 not the crypto assets are safely custodied on the platform
24 and access issues and keys all of that stuff, in a technical 25 way. Is there somebody on the Moelis team that had that

1 perspective that we would view as being critical and kind of 2 foundational from a safeguard perspective.

3 Q I'm sorry, said there was the ISO certificate and then
4 what was the next thing that you reviewed?

5 A A SOC 2 audit.

6 Q That like sock, like you put on your feet?

7 A It's S as in Sam, O as in orange, and C as in car.

8 Q And then, so is the ISO certificate, the SOC 2
9 compliance, there was an audit, too, right, a third-party
10 audit?

11 A We did. We reviewed their third-party 2021 audit --
12 audited financials.

13 Q So the third-party audit was of financials. Was there
14 an audit done of the internal controls and safeguards over 15 crypto assets?

16 A I don't recall personally reviewing any documents
17 relating to, for example, like an internal control report.
18 I do know we received representations relating to, you know,
19 internal controls and procedures, you know, being in line
20 with leading industry standards, for example, but I didn't
21 personally review any documents related to that, no.

22 Q So just to be clear, when you say that you reviewed a
23 third-party audit, you're talking about the audit of the 24 financials: balance sheet, income statement, statement of 25 cash flows?

1 type of expertise?

2 A We have individuals on the team that for example, focus
3 specifically on the cryptocurrency sector. That is an 4 industry group that from a firm perspective we do coverage
5 work on. But to be clear, Moelis is an investment bank. We 6 are not a consultancy group relating to, for example, you
7 know, what would be appropriate from an IT or custody
8 protocol perspective. We don't do code reviews, for 9 example. We do work that is in line with what scope and 10 services investment bankers typically perform.

11 Q So the answer is no?

12 A Yeah, I would say the answer would be no.

13 Q Is there anyone else on the Debtors' due diligence team
14 that has that type of technical expertise?

15 A Not to my knowledge.

16 Q With respect to the nature of the wallet infrastructure
17 and safeguards, did you personally review any specific 18 documents?

19 A I personally reviewed, I would say, several documents.
20 The two documents that I think I previously mentioned, which 21 were the ISO 27001 certificate and audit report. That's a 22 certification that's performed by a third-party firm. We 23 also reviewed their SOC 2 compliance report. Additionally,
24 too, we did receive sworn statements from company officers
25 relating to a number of these elements from a consideration

1 A So when I was speaking of the audits, there were three 2 types of audits. One would be the financial audit, which is
3 one that you would be referring to. Additionally, the ISO
4 and SOC 2 reports are both technically audits. They're 5 audits from an information security perspective and they are 6 performed by third-party firms.

7 Q Got you. So that leads to my next question. Can you
8 elaborate a little bit more about what ISO is, who performs 9 it, what it entails, what the steps are, and what would be --
10 -- well, break that down. First, who conducted the ISO
11 audit?

12 A I don't recall the exact firm.

13 Q Do you recall whether it's a household name or somebody
14 you'd have to google?

15 A It was not a name that I'm familiar with, but I'm not 16 as familiar with reviewing ISO audits generally speaking, so
17 I can't speak to the nature of whether that's a well-known
18 firm, for example, that performs that type of audit.

19 Q Do you have a sense of their technical capacity and 20 certification and experience in this area?

21 A I think I answered that. I can't speak to that.

22 Q Do you know whether it has two employees or two hundred
23 employees?

24 A I don't recall.

25 Q What was the main finding of the ISO report?

Page 50

1 A That they were in compliance with the ISO 27001
 2 standards which I understand to relate to ISO being a third-
 3 party International Standards Organization and my 4 understanding -- and again, this is -- you know, we are 5 investment bankers. This is outside of our normal scope of 6 services. My understanding is that they were in compliance
 7 with these standards which relate primarily to IT security
 8 protocols and best practices, procedures.
 9 Q Yeah. I'm a lawyer, so if someone gave me a ISO
 10 certificate, I wouldn't know, you know, heads or tails of 11 it. Who did -- so I understand, who did the Debtor give it
 12 to that -- let me rephrase that. Who on the Debtors' team
 13 reviewed the ISO certificate that had adequate industry and 14 technical expertise to opine on whether it was a sufficient
 15 and adequate review of the Binance security protocols?
 16 A I don't believe that there was any -- I don't know the 17 answer.
 18 Q So as far as you know, no one with adequate knowledge
 19 on the Debtors' team reviewed ISO report?
 20 A I can't speak to, for example, whether there was an 21 individual at BRG, which would be appropriate, you know,
 22 from that perspective. But from the Moelis perspective, I
 23 can speak to what I know from us as a firm.
 24 Q What does this SOC 2 -- is it a report?
 25 A It's similar to a compliance certificate from a third-

212-267-6868

Page 52

1 protection of customer PII specifically.
 2 Q What was the conclusion of the SOC 2 report?
 3 A That they met the standards.
 4 Q Were there any exceptions?
 5 A I don't recall.
 6 Q (Indiscernible). How long is the SOC 2 report?
 7 A I don't recall. I read it a couple weeks ago.
 8 Q Two pages, 200 pages?
 9 A I don't know. I don't recall it being --
 10 Q Who on the Debtor --
 11 A -- two pages. I remember it being longer than that,
 12 but I don't know how long.
 13 Q Do you remember how long it took you to review it?
 14 A I read it an afternoon. I don't recall it being 200
 15 pages. I don't recall it being two pages.
 16 Q You read it in an afternoon, as you read it during the 17 afternoon or you read it, it took you (audio drops)
 18 afternoon?
 19 A I read it during an afternoon.
 20 Q Was there anyone on the Debtors' team who reviewed the 21 SOC 2 report that had adequate technical experience and 22 expertise to verify what was in the report?
 23 A I can't speak to that, and candidly, I don't even think 24 as an investment banker I would be in a position to 25 determine who even would be, given my knowledge of, you

Page 51

1 party auditor relating to their compliance with SOC 2
 2 standards.
 3 Q How is it different than the ISO certificate?
 4 A My understanding is that ISO is a separate
 5 organization. SOC, I believe, relates to ISCPA standards
 6 relating to the privacy or the custody and protection of 7 customer privacy information as a financial services banker.
 8 For example, this is something that typically comes up in 9 the context of M&A transactions when dealing with financial 10 services organizations that deal with the protection of 11 customer PII.
 12 It's -- my understanding is it's an industry and 13 worldwide recognized standard relating to the protection of 14 customer PII and the safeguarding of such.
 15 Q You might have said it there and I apologize, but are 16 there differences between the ISO and SOC 2 reports or 17 certification?
 18 A I believe there are.
 19 Q What are they?
 20 A Excuse me, I didn't hear that.
 21 THE COURT: What are they?
 22 BY MR. UPTGROVE:
 23 A Oh, what are they? My recollection is that one relates 24 to general IT security protocols and standards. The other 25 relates specifically to safeguards relating to the

1 know, these reports and industry standards.
 2 Q You mentioned previously in your testimony that there
 3 were multiple discussions with people at Binance, correct?
 4 A Correct.
 5 Q And those discussions touched on the issues of asset
 6 security and wallet infrastructure, right?
 7 A That's correct.
 8 Q And did those discussions involve people on the 9 Debtors' side other than Moelis people?
 10 A I believe so. I don't --
 11 Q Who were those people?
 12 A -- specifically. I believe BRG --
 13 Q -- a financial -- was that a financial advisor, right?
 14 I'm sorry.
 15 A Go ahead. I know I recall at least one discussion that 16 involved K&E. We also had discussions with, for example,
 17 management relating to, you know, what we learned during 18 those discussions to determine at least in their judgment
 19 whether or not what was being presented to us made sense and 20 met industry standards, for example.
 21 Q And in those discussions with people from management
 22 and other advisors to the Debtor, was there anyone in those 23 meetings who had adequate technical expertise and experience
 24 to opine or ask questions about the SOC 2 or ISO
 25 certificates or reports?

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions

516-608-2400

1 THE COURT: That's the third or fourth time you
2 vaguely asked about people with adequate technical 3 experience. I'm going to stop it because I don't know what
4 it means. You know, presumably you get an audited report
5 from somebody who has adequate technical experience, so what
6 are you asking? Did you have another auditor review this 7 audit? Or are you saying, you know, like did you have 8 another financial auditor review the financial audited
9 statements? So I don't really know what you're asking. So 10 you've got to be more clear, because otherwise it's not 11 helpful to me.

12 MR. UPTEGROVE: Understood.

13 BY MR. UPTEGROVE:

14 Q Mr. Tichenor, you had previously testified that there
15 was -- strike that. So when there was discussions among 16 management and the Debtors' advisors regarding crypto asset
17 security and wallet infrastructure issues, how many of those 18 meetings have there been? Let me rephrase that. Sorry,
19 strike that. How many meetings have there been regarding 20 issues of asset security and wallet infrastructure at 21 Binance.US --

22 A I would say --

23 Q -- among the Debtor and its advisors?

24 A Numerous. I can't give you an exact number, but it's 25 something that in light of everything going on from a market

1 what we had learned during those discussions and discussions
2 with our board.

3 Q At those discussions, was there anyone that you would
4 term a technical expert on issues of wallet infrastructure
5 or the security of crypto assets?

6 A There would be members from, for example, the Voyager
7 management team that operate a crypto exchange and would be 8 familiar with those.

9 Q What about the advisors?

10 A If you're asking if we had any specific technical 11 advisors relating to these dynamics that focus specifically 12 on code reviews or technical elements, we did not hire an 13 additional external advisor relating to that, no. Or the 14 Debtor did not engage on.

15 Q And you said -- I'm sorry.

16 A If that's the question that you're asking.

17 Q When you say, who were the Voyager management people
18 you're referring to in this instance?

19 A So for example, the CEO Steve Ehrlich.

20 Q Anyone else?

21 A I'm sure that there were others on those meetings. I
22 don't recall specifically, at any specific instance.

23 Q Do you happen to know whether Mr. Ehrlich has technical 24 expertise in wallet infrastructure and crypto asset
25 security?

1 perspective was top of mind for us from a diligence
2 perspective.

3 Q From the Debtors' perspective, who is typically present
4 at those meetings (audio drops) typical?

5 MR. SLADE: Your Honor, can I lodge a brief
6 objection? I guess I'm concerned that these questions are 7 not being asked as being relevant to this proceeding, as 8 opposed to additional proceedings that the questioner is 9 anticipating bringing later. Seems -- this seems 10 irrelevant.

11 THE COURT: Overruled. You can answer.

12 BY MR. UPTEGROVE:

13 A My -- excuse me, do you mind repeating the question
14 again?

15 Q Sure. Just to the extent there was a typical 16 representation, what was the typical representation on the 17 Debtors' side for the meetings relating to discussions on 18 crypto assets, security, and wallet infrastructure?

19 A Generally, I believe it involved myself, others from 20 Moelis, and then in certain instances, other advisors that 21 have been advising both the Debtor and the UCC. And I know
22 we've had discussions with the UCC for -- the UCC's
23 advisors, for example, relating to these dynamics. We also 24 had discussions with our board of directors relating to this 25 and presented findings under confidentiality relating to

1 A I think he's familiar with what our industry protocols
2 and standards, which was the basis for the discussion
3 largely relating to the ability of any single individual,
4 for example, to move funds or how structurally, for example,
5 like a hot wallet/cold wallet structure would work.

6 Q Was Moelis engaged by the Debtor to assess the 7 safeguards Binance.US has in place for crypto assets?

8 A No.

9 Q In Paragraph 23 of your declaration, you state Moelis
10 is not a technical expert on matters relating to the 11 appropriateness of information security or other custody
12 protocols. Can you explain what you mean by that?

13 A Moelis is a investment bank. The work that we 14 generally perform is consistent with investment banks. It
15 relates to financial analysis. It relates to the financial 16 capacity generally of the counterparty. It would relate to 17 valuation, for example, but as an investment bank, we are 18 not technical experts in the sense of a third-party
19 consultancy group, for example, that oftentimes, you know,
20 we'll see engaged in certain situations M&A situations that 21 we'll perform, for example, technical reviews. That's not 22 inside of the scope of services of Moelis and I don't
23 pretend to be an expert on a code review, for example.

24 Q Did anyone at Moelis conduct any assessment or audit of 25 the safeguards Binance.US has in place over customer crypto

1 assets?

2 A I think I just answered that question. I -- you know,

3 as an investment bank, look, we sought to perform

4 incremental reviews on things that we believed would be

5 important from a counterparty perspective. We sought to get

6 assurances from the counterparty relating to such, including

7 sworn statements around those facts. But, you know, I

8 wouldn't characterize anybody at Moelis as being an expert

9 in that sense. It's not what we do as a firm.

10 Q Are you familiar with something called Binance.com?

11 A I am.

12 Q What's the relationship between Binance.US and 13 Binance.com?

14 A My understanding is, and representations have been made

15 to us, are that there are several commercial agreements

16 between the two entities and that they share a common UBL in 17 CZ.

18 Q Does anyone -- I think you testified about this, but I

19 just want to make it clear. Does anyone from Binance.com or 20 its affiliates have access to the wallets or keys of 21 Binance.US customers?

22 A What's been represented to us is that only Binance.US

23 employees are able to move or transfer crypto and that

24 Binance.com employees don't have the ability to access keys.

25 Q A famous President once said, "Trust but verify." Or I

212-267-6868

Page 60

1 representations.

2 A We sought to get representations. That was the work

3 that we did.

4 Q There was an earlier purchase agreement in this case

5 with FTX, correct?

6 A There was.

7 Q And you stated in your declaration that FTX and its

8 affiliates unexpectedly collapsed shortly after the Court

9 approved the purchase agreement; is that right?

10 A That's correct.

11 Q What did you mean by unexpected there?

12 A I believe everybody found the FTX bankruptcy to be

13 unexpected. It occurred over a very short period of time

14 and it subsequently turned out to be, from what we

15 understand, a fraud of historical proportions.

16 Q The Debtors conducted due diligence in connection with 17 the FTX transaction, correct?

18 MR. SLADE: Your Honor, can I object? Again, this

19 is not relevant. This is the past and not relevant to 20 what's happening today.

21 THE COURT: I'll allow it. Go ahead.

22 BY MR. UPTGROVE:

23 A So we conducted diligence that is traditional in nature

24 relating to entering into a transaction in a bankruptcy

25 proceeding that includes, for example, reviews of their

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

Page 59

1 should say, a President famously said once, "Trust but

2 verify." What did -- what if anything did Moelis do to

3 verify those representations?

4 A We had discussions with them. We've had numerous

5 discussions with them. We sought to get sworn statements

6 relating to that. You know, but again, like we don't do,

7 for example, like a code review as I think Mr. Slade

8 mentioned. You know, we didn't visit on site, for example,

9 the enterprise storage facility that the keys are hosted at.

10 We sought to get assurances above and beyond typically what

11 we would do in a transaction like this, perform counterparty

12 due diligence, but it would be difficult for me to even say

13 how to perform a independent verification the way that

14 you're describing.

15 Q I think you previously testified that it's your

16 understanding that Binance.com or affiliates of Binance.US

17 do not have the ability to transfer crypto assets on the 18 Binance.US platform; is that right?

19 A Yes, I believe they don't have the ability to move or 20 transfer funds. That's my understanding.

21 Q Did Moelis or the Debtor do anything to verify that 22 other than getting representation?

23 A Are you asking if we did like tests, for example, or

24 internal reviews? I'm not sure I understand the nature --

25 Q Any -- just anything. Just anything other than

Page 61

1 ability and financial capacity to be able to close a

2 transaction. We had multiple discussions with management.

3 We received assurances from their advisors including their

4 counsel, S&C. We were aware and listened to, for example,

5 testimony that their CEO made in front of Congressional

6 hearings attesting to the fact that they safeguarded assets

7 and that customers have rights and title to assets. We

8 reviewed, for example, their terms of service related to 9 such. So, you know, that was the nature of diligence that

10 we performed. And we were aware of many of the investors

11 that were in their business as well and had discussions with 12 them about FTX.

13 Q As part of its due diligence, did the Debtor identify 14 any of the problems that ultimately led to FTX's, as you

15 characterized it, collapse?

16 MR. SLADE: Your Honor, I'll object. That's not

17 relevant here.

18 THE COURT: I'll allow it.

19 BY MR. UPTGROVE:

20 A So generally speaking, to the extent that somebody is

21 performing a fraud that, let's say, is $50 million, there's

22 a balance sheet gap of something of that size, that's 23 something that can be, you know, oftentimes potentially a

24 failure from a diligence perspective. As we understand it,

25 the balance sheet hole and theft of funds relating to FTX is

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

close to $9 billion. The only way to perpetuate a fraud of that scale is through widespread and consistent failure from a primary perspective to provide false statements and assurances. You can't perpetuate fraud of that scale just by you know, a one-off issue, for example. It inherently has to be widespread.

Q So the answer is no.

A In that instance, no. Yeah.

Q What if anything has the Debtor done -- the Debtors done differently during the due diligence in the Binance.US transaction?

A So in light of what happened with FTX and generally, what was going on with the industry more broadly and concerns relating to any counterparty -- and to be clear, this isn't just a Binance.US specific issue. This related to work that we were performing on various parties that sought to engage with the Debtor post the collapse of FTX around a potential transaction. We sought to review their financial capacity and ability to operate as an ongoing business.

We asked some questions around the nature of their operations and assurances that they had previously given to us around the fact that they hold, for example, reserves only on one-for-one basis. We asked for additional verification relating to the fact that they don't that in FTX.

Q That's what I'm looking for. So you got in the context of Binance.US, you got sworn statements from Binance.US personnel; is that right?

A That's correct.

Q You didn't previously do that in FTX. That right?

A That's correct and that's uncommon in the context of any M&A or restructuring related situation to get those types of sworn statements. Be highly --

Q What other --

A -- unusual.

Q Understood. Other than that, what other specific steps did the Debtor take that it didn't previously take in the FTX transaction?

A I think the other incremental steps that we took were to ensure from, for example, an APA perspective that to the extent that there were transfers of crypto that we were ensuring that customers, for example, were already signed up to the Binance.US platform. They would already be customers of it. You know, we were not planning to, for example, transfer the crypto in a manner and you know, the protections that were built in around this, to ensure that to the extent there was, you know, widescale fraud, for example, that was being perpetuated that the Debtor itself wasn't exposed on that interim basis in a way that it would rehypothecate any assets. We looked at their website. We asked numerous questions.

We performed multiple, multiple meetings and diligence sessions with them to understand and seek to understand facts around the way that they operate their business to identify areas that we understood to have caused issues in other crypto-related bankruptcy situations and that tend to be cause for you know, these types of failures.

Q So I'm not clear, Mr. Tichenor. Did you not look at the website and have multiple meetings in the FTX transaction? What's different -- let me let you answer that question, sorry. I'll rephrase it. Strike that. So the Debtors not have some of those things like meetings and review websites in the FTX transaction?

A We did. I would characterize the scope of the diligence as being broader in this instance. We, you know, had multiple meetings with them. We -- and we had multiple meetings with FTX as well, right? But I would just characterize the breadth and duration and scope of the diligence as being much higher.

Q How so?

A So we asked for walk throughs, for example, of wallet infrastructure relating to how assets are custodied and, you know, seeking additional assurances. We sought a sworn statement from the company relating to this. We didn't do have been in the FTX transaction.

212-267-6868

Q Any other, you called them incremental steps that the Debtor took in connection with the due diligence of Binance.US that it didn't take with FTX?

A I -- we've discussed a lot of them. I don't recall anything else. I'm sure there was. I just don't recall anything else off the top of my head.

Q So slightly pivoting to a related subject, in Paragraph 32 of your declaration, you discuss certain supplemental diligence and I think you sort of seem to -- well, you touched on it a little bit today. When did the supplemental due diligence begin?

A I would characterize the -- so do you mind, I'm going to turn to this. This relates to the Merit Peak work.

Q Okay.

A Is that the right paragraph?

THE COURT: Yes.

BY MR. UPTEGROVE:

Q All right, I don't -- turn to it. Paragraph -- it's Paragraph 32.

A So yes, I'm looking at that now. So the supplemental due diligence related to, you know, upon the publication of the Reuters article relating to, you know, a perceived relationship between Merit Peak and Binance, in particular Binance.com and CZ and Binance.US, upon seeing that, we

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

reached out to Binance.US and its advisors. We scheduled diligence conversations to engage with them and a better understanding of the nature of the allegations, as I think outlined -- and that included multiple telephonic and Zoom meetings as well as in person meetings relating to reviews of trade data.

And to be clear, this was not a -- just a Moelis set of supplemental diligence. This included meetings of Moelis, Kirkland, BRG, FTI, McDermott all participated in to review enhanced documentation around the nature of the relationship and in particular with regards to the allegations that were made, you know, the concern would be that to the extent that there was a withdrawal of, for example, customer funds that would obviously be very concerning from the Debtors' perspective.

And so the diligence that we performed and information that we received, you know, largely seemed to indicate that the flow of funds relating to these transactions were on offsetting basis. So in this context, it would be, you know, a market maker depositing value on a platform and then withdrawing cash on the back end. We understand that to be in the typical scope of what market makers do. But I want to be clear, this isn't a -- you know, we're not done with our diligence on this. We continue to do diligence. We had a meeting with them Wednesday and had the hearing Thursday.

transaction?

A Are you asking, is there specific open due diligence items prior to February 16th? I'm not sure I understand --

Q Correct.

A I don't recall specifics. I know that there were, I just don't recall specific items.

Q Regarding the supplemental -- excuse me, the supplemental due diligence that's now ongoing, what's the scope of that due diligence?

A I think it would largely relate to, for example, you know, continued work relating to the Merit Peak allegations. We need to receive, I think we're still waiting on the audited year-end financial statements, for example. We will continue to and are seeking to have a discussion with the company relating to the letter that was put forward yesterday by the three senators.

We will need to have additional discussions relating to the tweets that were put out this morning by CZ and we will continue to evaluate various articles and news publications. And you know, any allegations that remain with -- to the extent that there are additional allegations, we'll continue to make sure that we get assurances relating to any allegations that are made around the nature of the operations. And then I think we would also seek --

Q What about current ongoing due diligence --

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

Page 67

We'll continue to have discussions with them and as I think I said, we have a plan that allows for a toggle approach. We will not -- we will confer and seek to review and make sure that parties are comfortable prior to executing any transaction and to the extent that we're not, we would seek to execute the toggle that the plan allows for.

Q When did that Merit Peak article come out? Do you remember roughly?

A I don't. I think it was February 16th, is what it seems to be.

Q The -- what's dubbed in your declaration as the supplemental due diligence would have started February 16th or shortly thereafter?

A Yeah, as it relates to the specific item, that's correct.

Q Was there something else that -- was there other ongoing due diligence at that time?

A We were performing and can continue to have conversations with Binance over the course of -- from when we began in discussions with them post the collapse of FTX through as early as I think 9:55 this morning.

Q As of February 16th, or thereabouts -- or excuse me, let me rephrase that. Before February 16th, what was left in regard to the due diligence in the -- for the Binance

212-267-6868

A -- to do kind of bring-down due diligence session ahead of any closing.

Q I'm sorry, what is a bring-down due diligence or whatever -- what'd' you call it?

A A bring-down due diligence. So this is oftentimes an analysis that is done in connection with, for example, public M&A transaction or a general M&A transaction where the advisors will have a discussion with the counterparty relating to assurances of a range of factors, for example.

So oftentimes the bring-down due diligence will include basically a update and verification of prior diligence assurances that have been made by the counterparty to assure that they are currently still in compliance with that. So for example, oftentimes a bring-down due diligence session will seek to get assurances from a counterparty relating to the fact that they're not having any issues relating to being a going concerns from their auditor. That's a very common bring-down due diligence item.

Q Does the current diligence include a review of procedures and controls relating to the security and custody of crypto asset?

A I think we've answered that question.

Q I'm sorry, I apologize. I missed it. Could you answer the question?

A So I think we'll continue to perform work relating to

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

the nature and protocols that Binance.US uses relating to the custody and wallet infrastructure, to the extent that's the question, and we would seek assurances in advance of any close relating to such, even prior sworn statements that we received.

Q Could the current diligence impact the date of the closing?

A Excuse me, I wasn't able to hear you.

Q Could the current due diligence impact the date of the closing?

A Absolutely.

Q How so?

A We -- so as I think we mentioned, we would anticipate closing probably in the range of three to four weeks from approval of the plan. There's still work that needs to be done from the Debtors' perspective in order to be able to prepare for the closing of the transaction, that includes its ability to, for example, meet the requirements under the rebalancing ratio and work that needs to be done around that. There's operational work that would still need to be done from an integration and transfer perspective.

So there's a lot of work that obviously needs to be performed in advance of a closing. So that's not something that would occur immediately. We plan to continue to perform due diligence in advance of a closing and to the

Additionally, the other consequence would really be around the ability for certain creditors to receive in-kind distributions relating to the 35 tokens that are unsupported, and so there may be, for example, adverse tax consequences associated with those 35 coins which would need to be returned in cash as opposed to on an in-kind basis.

Q Turning back to your declaration, in Paragraph 42, you state that you're not in a position to vouch for the bona fides of Binance.US. What did you mean by that?

A So what I mean by that is that we have received assurances from Binance.US. We've received sworn testimony from them. But you know, as an organization, for example, we're don't do forensic audits from a detailed books and records perspective, right. To the extent -- and I think what we were getting at is to the extent that they were perpetuating a fraud, I don't think we would be in a position to be able to say such.

Q At the end of that paragraph, you state, "And if events since May 2022 have taught us anything, it is that the benefits of having a decentralized and largely unregulated cryptocurrency business are counterbalanced by the challenges in identifying and preventing fraud." What did you mean by that?

A So what I meant by that is specifically as it relates to items like what happened with FTX. So from a

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

212-267-6868

516-608-2400

extent that there were issues that were raised in -- prior to that period, in advance of closing that caused concern, we would have two options. We would either -- and we would do this in consultation with the UCC, to be clear. This would not be just a Moelis decision.

We would confer with our board of directors. We would confer with various professionals. We would confer with the UCC and advisors. And to the extent that parties felt that it was worth, for example, delaying a close by a week to understand whether or not it made sense to run down and get assurances relating to any new issues that arose during that period, we would evaluate that relative to the self-liquidating transaction and whether it would make sense to pivot towards a toggle in that instance.

Q In the case that the Debtor had to pivot to the toggle, what would be the consequences for customers and creditors?

A So the consequences in that instance, as I think we outlined in the declaration, are that there would be an estimated reduction of value of approximately $100 million. Additionally, in that instance, it would likely result in a delay relating to the implementation of such a plan. So operationally, there's just some additional work that would ultimately need to be done before the platform would be in a position to be able to reopen and make sure that we had all of that work in place.

decentralized perspective with regards to cryptocurrencies, one of the benefits is the ability to track and validate transactions as they occur on the blockchain. It's -- the primary use case for it is that you see exactly what is occurring from a transfer perspective and it's public and anybody can see that.

That said, you know, with the emergency of additional exchanges and the way that, for example, omnibus wallets work and inherently have to work in a lot of ways on these exchanges, you know, it's difficult to see what activity is occurring within the exchange itself and, you know, I would also say the industry itself is evolving in real time in a lot of ways. So, you know, for example there aren't really clear industry standards relating to what appropriate due diligence is for these types of businesses.

Federal regulators haven't put forward views and we do understand that they are coming out in real time and we do follow this, but you know, there is not a set of legal standards, for example, that firms need to operate in that operate in the space around, for example, like federal banking, safety, and soundness standards. It's not a concept that, you know, we would be able to rely on. So that presents unique challenges when diligencing any business in the cryptocurrency ecosystem, whether that's Binance.US or any other party, just given the lack of

www.veritext.com

212-267-6868

516-608-2400

standards and how new the ecosystem itself generally is.

Q Why should the Court confirm the plan before the Debtors finish ongoing due diligence?

A So the plan allows for an option for the Debtor to be able to pivot to a toggle transaction to the extent that that's in the best interest. The Debtors would take that very seriously, as I think I said at the beginning. You know, at this point, I wouldn't say, you know, we are fully in a position to say that we would move forward with Binance.US.

We're still continuing to perform due diligence. We take the allegations in public information that's out there very seriously and this is not a decision that we would take lightly. We would continue to perform work and up until the point where we push a button to try and close, we would continue to perform work in the best of our abilities around those dynamics.

Q Are there any external constraints that are causing the Debtor to need to confirm the plan now as opposed to waiting to see if everything works out in due diligence?

A So as it stands now, we have a plan that has overwhelming support from creditors who are looking to get their cryptocurrency back as expeditiously as possible. You know, I understand and I'm not a lawyer. My understanding is that to the extent that we were to, for example, delay a

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

A So do you mind repeating that again? I apologize, because I may not follow it.

THE COURT: He's asking --

BY MR. UPTGROVE:

Q Sure. Are there --

THE COURT: -- is there anything forcing the confirmation to happen on the current timeline? Are there any external factors; why do it now? That's what he's asking.

BY MR. UPTGROVE:

A I think that's a legal question. I'm not sure I'd be in a position to answer it. I'm not an expert on how plan confirmation worked in timing of such. You know, we have a plan today that we believe is, in my mind, has overwhelming support and we would seek to, you know, get it approved to allow for these options.

Q There's no issue of the Debtor running out of money in the next three or four weeks?

A Given the rebalancing transactions that have occurred to date, I don't believe that there would be any monetary constraints. You know, that -- it does result in a real cost, though, to creditors from a potential recovery perspective to the extent there are delays. It was a very important point from our perspective to be able to try and move a case forward, to be able to move and allow for

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

plan confirmation, irrespective of whether it's a toggle plan or not, it would further delay the ability of these customers to be able to receive their funds. It would have incremental costs associated with it.

And in our minds, you know, this provides for that optionality and the decision would be made, and again, not just by Moelis, but by the -- a range of parties ultimately, in their judgment around the ability to feel comfortable moving forward under those facts and circumstances. So we have a plan that we believe is confirmable today. It has overwhelming support of creditors.

It allows for a backup option and that's a critical component. That was something that we attempted to negotiate for in FTX and were ultimately blocked. It was a very contentious negotiation. So we believe, you know, those safeguards are critical to this plan and the ability to move it forward as is.

Q I don't think that answered my question. Are there any external factors that necessitate the Debtor confirming the plan on the current timeline?

MR. SLADE: Your Honor, I object. He just answered it, to the extent he didn't it's because the question is vague.

THE COURT: I'll allow the question. Go ahead.

BY MR. UPTGROVE:

distributions of funds back to creditors as quickly as possible. It's been a very key consideration from our perspective, from the onset of the bankruptcy proceedings.

Q What would cost be -- delay it?

A So I don't know the exact answer. I think it would depend on the facts and circumstances of how long the delay is. I'm generally aware of what the cost is from the estate perspective, kind of approximately $10 million dollars a month, but I can't speak to the exact specifics based on the nature of the questions. And I think it would also depend on, you know, if the concern is, how long would it take to ultimately feel comfortable with Binance before moving forward, I think it depends on what happens at that future point in time. Like, it's in part asking about a future unknown, depending on what information is learned or what happens over that time period.

Q But you haven't done any analysis to determine the exact cost of two-week delay, a three-week delay, a four-week delay?

A I think a multi-week delay, as I mentioned, it's, you know, from an estate perspective, it's approximately $10 million a month. I can't speak to, you know, specifics based on that analysis. I'd have to -- I'd have to run the numbers, to be candid. I don't know.

Q That's the question. You didn't run the numbers.

1 A I -- so we've run analysis relating to this specific
2 plan. You're asking about a hypothetical scenario that I'm
3 not in a position to be able to answer right now.

4 Q Are you aware of any covenants that would be breached
5 or be noncompliant with if the Debtor didn't close on the 6 current timeline?

7 A So I would need to review the specifics in the APA. I
8 do know that there are outside dates, for example. I know
9 that there are, you know, requirements from the Debtors'
10 perspective to be able to try to and move expeditiously. I
11 don't recall the exact dates, though, based on the specifics
12 of the APA.

13 THE COURT: Can I just ask, counsel must know
14 this. There is a requirement that the Debtors move as 15 expeditiously as they reasonably can to get confirmation,
16 isn't there?

17 MR. SLADE: Yes, there's a milestone specifically 18 of March 6th for entry of the confirmation order. That's 19 Monday. That's Section --

20 MR. UPTEGROVE: What happens if --

21 MR. SLADE: That's Section 8.1(i)(iv) of Exhibit
22 9.

23 THE COURT: That's a requirement that in Binance -

1 think, previously discussed in the hearings, the APA does
2 provide for the crypto to be treated in a trust and custody
3 relationship upon its transfer to Binance.US in -- during 4 each of those interval periods.

5 Q You mentioned the KYC requirements. Are there any 6 other steps that users need to take to access their assets
7 on Binance platform?

8 A I don't know.

9 Q Is there anywhere users can go to read about what they 10 need to do to access their assets?

11 A I believe it's outlined in the customer migration
12 protocol and I know that there have been communications that 13 the Debtor has sent to creditors, but I can't speak to the 14 specifics of those.

15 Q Do you know if there's a place right now, if creditors
16 on the line, that you could tell them where they need to go
17 to find that information?

18 A I don't recall.

19 Q Under Section 6.12 of the APA, if users do not satisfy
20 certain requirements within three months, then Binance.US
21 can convert those users acquired coins into U.S. dollars at 22 the then then prevailing rate; is that right?

23 A I don't have the APA in front of me, but what you're 24 describing is -- sounds consistent with my understanding of 25 how that works.

10 THE COURT: Go ahead. Continue with your 11 questions, please.

12 MR. UPTEGROVE: Thank you, Your Honor.

13 BY MR. UPTEGROVE:

14 Q Mr. Tichenor, I'm going to move on to a new subject
15 which is user withdrawals and customer access. Under the 16 plan and APA, when will users to be able to access their 17 assets? My understanding is that users will be able to 18 access their assets?

19 A My understanding is that users would be able to access
20 their assets upon signing up and going through KYC
21 procedures to become a customer of Binance.US. Upon closing
22 and in subsequent one-week intervals, crypto would transfer 23 as users migrate and sign up. Upon crypto having been 24 transferred, I believe the APA requires that it be deposited
25 into customers' accounts within a five-day period and as, I

1 Q Would somebody would be able to give you a copy, just 2 because I have a couple questions about that. It might be
3 helpful to have it in front of you as we talk.

4 MR. SLADE: You want the amendments of the 5 original APA?

6 MR. UPTEGROVE: The original.

7 THE COURT: You can give him that, but we're going
8 to take a ten-minute recess at the moment, and then you can 9 continue your questions after our ten minutes.

10 (Recess)

11 THE COURT: Please be seated. Okay. Does the SEC
12 wish to continue with its cross examination?

13 MR. UPTEGROVE: Yes, Your Honor. Thank you.

14 BY MR. UPTEGROVE:

15 Q Mr. Tichenor, I believe we left off speaking about the 16 APA, in particular Section 6.12 of the APA which I think 17 provides if users do not satisfy certain requirements within 18 three months, then Binance.US can convert the user's
19 acquired coins into U.S. dollars at the then prevailing
20 rate. Is that correct?

21 A That's correct.

22 Q What happens to the value of the users accounts if the 23 price of the crypto assets in those accounts declines during 24 the three-month period?

25 A So the way that the plan works is that the distribution

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

Page 82

1 is effectively made at the time of closing, which relates to 2 the amount of crypto that a customer would get under their 3 pro rata share relative to the rebalancing ratio and the 4 size of the initial distribution versus their claims on a
 5 prepetition basis. So in this instance, we would view the 6 distribution as effectively having occurred at the time of 7 closing of a transaction, regardless of whether that 8 customer is ultimately migrated to the Binance.US platform.
 9 And so whether the period is after the three-month period or 10 even any period post the rebalancing date, those users are 11 exposed to potential fluctuations in the price of 12 cryptocurrencies to the extent that they wish to monetize
 13 them.

14 Q How will creditors learn about the closing when it
 15 happens?

16 A So I believe under the customer migration protocol
 17 that's addressed. We actually have some outstanding 18 questions around that relating to whether or not there would 19 be, for example, like an automatic email that would be sent 20 to customers through the Binance.US platform once the crypto
 21 has been deposited into the account. It's currently an 22 outstanding question.

23 Q If Binance.US were to send a notice out, would that 24 also apply to creditors or users who haven't yet registered
 25 on the Binance.US platform?

1 Q Yes.

2 A so --

3 Q Yes.

4 A My understanding is that to the extent that CFIUS
 5 blocks a transaction prior to closing, we would be unable to 6 close with Binance.US and in that instance, presumably, we 7 would pivot to a self-liquidating toggle scenario at that
 8 point.

9 Q What happens if it denies the approval after closing?

10 A I don't know the answer to that. That's a legal
 11 question.

12 Q You haven't been party to conversations in which that's 13 been discussed?

14 A CFIUS is a very technical legal element. I'm not a
 15 CFIUS expert.

16 Q So then you wouldn't know the impact on creditors if 17 CFIUS was to deny approval of the transaction after closing?

18 A I do not.

19 Q Are you familiar with the term user asset migration
 20 date as it's used in the APA?

21 A I may need to refamiliarize myself. Do you mind?

22 Q Sure. I think -- it is on Page 85 of the document.
 23 It's four U's and it refers back to user migration
 24 preparation on a previous page. You see that?

25 A I see that.

1 A I don't know.

2 Q If there's something else that, material event happened
 3 during the course of post-closing or you know, through 4 closing, before closing, if there's a material event that 5 happened, is there a way to communicate that to creditors?

6 A I don't know.

7 Q The Committee on Foreign Investments in the United
 8 States, AKA CFIUS, is conducting a review of the Binance
 9 transaction. Is that right?

10 A That's my understanding.

11 Q And the review remains ongoing?

12 A That's my understanding.

13 Q Does the Debtor know what the outcome of that review
 14 will be?

15 A I personally do not know.

16 Q What if CFIUS denies approval of the Binance
 17 transaction? What would happen?

18 MR. SLADE: Your Honor, I object. That calls for 19 a legal conclusion.

20 THE COURT: Well, do you know the answer to the
 21 question?

22 BY MR. UPTEGROVE:

23 A To the -- I guess the question would be, to the extent
 24 that CFIUS blocks the transaction prior to closing? Is that 25 correct?

Page 85

1 Q Can you explain what the user asset migration date does
 2 in connection with the APA?

3 THE COURT: What does this have to do with any 4 objection that's been filed? I mean, you're asking him an 5 awful lot of questions and taking up a lot of our time to 6 get information that if you'd read the documents on file,
 7 you'd already know the answers to. So what is the point of 8 this?

9 MR. UPTEGROVE: The point is, I think it's 10 Paragraph 7 of our objection, is what economic benefit this 11 has, the transaction has to creditors and this issue goes to 12 whether or not there's an economic benefit for the creditors
 13 at the timing of the transaction when people will be -- the 14 assets will be available, when they won't be available,
 15 whether people will be paid, how they will be paid.

16 THE COURT: But we've already had testimony and 17 we've already had descriptions in the disclosure statement
 18 that we'll have a closing. There'll be a migration. When 19 people are ready on the Binance platform, they get 20 distributions. If they're not ready within three months,
 21 they get cash. What else do you need? What do you want him
 22 to try to pinpoint it to nanosecond?

23 MR. UPTEGROVE: I'm not at all clear that's the 24 case, Your Honor. If you -- so the question is, all I
 25 really wanted to know from him is what -- I don't understand

212-267-6868

Page 86

1 it, Your Honor, but the user asset migration date, I've
2 heard a lot of people talk about the five days. I don't
3 understand how this -- I have read it, Your Honor, and I
4 haven't understood how this user asset migration date
5 corresponds to the five day and the rollout, the weekly
6 rollout.

7 And so all I wanted to get from this witness is 8 how if at all does this asset migration date impact the 9 user's ability to withdraw and what's already been on -- 10 people have testified about.

11 MR. SLADE: Your Honor, perhaps I could --

12 MR. UPTEGROVE: That's all I want to do.

13 MR. SLADE: We would've been happy to field
14 questions about this from the SEC had they asked us before
15 this hearing. If they look at the amendment, that 16 definition, user asset migration date actually has been 17 deleted and it's been replaced by a separate definition
18 called asset migration date which describes it in some 19 detail. So if you look at the exhibits that are online that 20 we uploaded, you'll be able to answer that question. I'm 21 not sure if the witness can.

22 MR. UPTEGROVE: That's helpful. Thank you. So we 23 can move on.

24 BY MR. UPTEGROVE:

25 Q Mr. Tichenor, are you familiar with the terms of use

Page 88

1 I think obviously to the extent that there was a halting of 2 trading, that would be a material event from the debtor's
3 perspective in determining whether or not it would send
4 funds to Binance.US.

5 Q I guess the question was, since you're -- you don't 6 recall that specific provision in the terms of use, you're 7 not aware of any specific provision that would limit the 8 discretion or halting trading or access to the platform?

9 A I'm not.

10 Q Different subject --

11 A I would say that, look, that is something that we 12 track. If we were aware that there was halting of trading
13 on the platform, as I said, that would be a very material
14 concern from Debtors' perspective with their willingness to 15 move forward with this counterparty.

16 Q Are you going to track it after the deal closes?

17 A I -- prior to each subsequent distribution, I believe 18 that there will be parties that will be looking at that,
19 yes. I mean, it -- and by the way, that's not just Moelis.
20 That would be the liquidating trustee who would be executing
21 transfers, management team. There's, you know, each bulk
22 transfer that occurs is not a simple process. It's manual
23 in a lot of ways. And so, you know, there's an expectation
24 of in-depth material coordination between the Debtor and 25 Binance.US post any closing in order to, again, continue to

Veritext Legal Solutions

1 for the Binance.US trading platform?

2 A The terms of use? Excuse me, I just couldn't hear you.

3 Q Yes. Yes, the terms of use for the Binance.US trading
4 platform.

5 A I'm broadly familiar with it. We -- I have read it.
6 That's an item, too, where you know, we're discussed that in 7 connection with counsel which is better situated to be able
8 to opine on any legal matters associated with terms of use
9 than I would be. But yes, I have read it.

10 Q Are you aware that pursuant to the trading portion of 11 the terms of use, Binance.US in its sole and absolute 12 discretion may halt trading or restrict access to the 13 trading platform?

14 A I don't recall that specific provision.

15 Q So you wouldn't recall, you don't know if there's 16 anything in the APA that would limit that discretion.

17 A I don't recall. I know in the APA we have protections, 18 for example, around to the extent that there is a halting of 19 trading on the Binance.US platform, that it allows the 20 Debtor to, for example, not send funds or provides the 21 liquidating trust, I believe, the option to not use them for 22 purposes of distributions. And broadly speaking, and again,
23 I don't recall the exact specific sections.

24 I recall that there was discussion around, for example,
25 you know, halting of trading and concerns that would have.

1 migrate on the weekly basis.

2 And so to the extent that parties were aware, for 3 example, of a halting of trading prior to any of those 4 subsequent migrations, I would be -- I would highly, highly 5 doubt that parties would move forward with continuing to 6 transfer subsequent funds in that instance, for example.
7 But look, it's a fact and circumstance specific, too, so.

8 Q Just to be clear, so if after the closing, there's a,
9 you know, shortly after the closing, there's a run on the 10 bank so to speak, and Binance in its discretion halts
11 trading, what if anything could the Debtors do?

12 A Well, I think at that point -- and I think there are a
13 couple of points in there, to be clear.

14 One, one of the important elements, you know, from the 15 Debtors' perspective when performing the diligence was 16 assurances, for example, around the fact that they have one-
17 to-one reserves. And so one of the things that we had 18 thought about was, you know, the ability to, for example,
19 support a run on the bank. Theoretically can't have a run
20 on the bank for a business that's only has one-for-one, you
21 know, kind of -- I'll call it, acts as like a cashbox to a 22 degree, right, in custody capacity like that. So that was 23 an important element.

24 Two, you know, there could be reasons that are 25 explainable that I can't think of right now relating to why

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

212-267-6868

516-608-2400

there could be theoretically a justification for halting of training that would still justify people feeling comfortable moving forward. You know, if there was a technical glitch with a cloud provider that resulted in an issue that was only temporary for a very short period of time. Like there are countless hypotheticals I that can't necessarily speak to, but to the extent there was a halting of trading, it would be a very important element for purposes of the Debtor at that point.

And I think that would they continue to transfer funds over? In all likelihood no, if there was a real concern around what the basis for that was, and that's a pretty low threshold for what that concern level would ultimately be to the extent you're talking about something as severe as a halting of trading on a platform.

Q Switching gears a little bit, if Binance.US was determined to operate as an unregistered securities exchange, what impact would that have on the Voyager customers who moved over from the Binance -- or excuse me, yeah, the Voyager customers who moved over from to the Binance platform?

MR. SLADE: Your Honor, I object. That calls for a legal conclusion.

THE COURT: Do you have any ability to answer that question?

asked whether or not, for example, there are pending litigations or investigations relating to Binance.US, the answer to that is yes. We did ask. We had a number of conversations relating to various pending investigations for the -- relating to the purchaser. If that's the extent of the question.

Q What did they disclose?

MR. SLADE: Your Honor, I object. This is not relevant and it seems like --

THE COURT: Overruled.

BY MR. UPTGROVE:

A So they disclosed that there were investigations ongoing from several various federal agencies. They disclosed to us that they had provided, for example, written documentation to those the parties relating to requests and inquiries made in connection with those investigations. We were not aware of any actions that were ongoing relating to Binance.US, but I can't speak for anything beyond that. I'm not aware of any, you know, pending for example, lawsuits against Binance.US by a federal agency./

Q With respect to the government investigations, what did they disclose?

A That was subject to confidentiality. I'm not sure I can discuss that. I mean they -- I think I tried to mention what I could, which was that they provided us information

THE WITNESS: I do not.

THE COURT: Okay.

BY MR. UPTGROVE:

Q Mr. Tichenor, can you go to paragraph -- or Section 4.7 of the APA, please?

A Is this -- this is the nonamended version? No litigation?

Q Yeah. Is there an amended portion of this?

A No, I'm just making sure I'm referencing the right exhibit.

Q Do you see that provision?

A The knowledge qualifier?

Q Well, just to make sure we're looking at the same thing, on my 4.7 it says, "No litigation. There are no actions pending or to the knowledge of purchaser threatened against or affecting purchaser that will materially and adversely affect purchaser's performance under this agreement or purchaser's ability to consummate the transaction." Are we looking at the same thing?

A I see that paragraph, yes.

Q During the course of due diligence, has Binance disclosed to the Debtors or have the Debtors learned of any material or any actions pending against Binance.US?

A To the extent the question relates to -- excuse me. To the extent the question relates to whether or not the Debtor relating to the nature of the injuries. They provided us disclosure. And these were discussions that we had, that we participated in with multiple sets of counsel including Binance.US' counsel on various matters. We're aware that they had provided information to various agencies in connection with those requests. And that's what we're aware of.

Q So your understanding is that the identity of the governmental agencies investigating Binance.US is covered by a confidentiality agreement?

A I'm aware of various federal agencies doing investigations. I -- speaking to every single one of them right now, trying to recall them off the top of my head, I have difficulty, but I'm aware of some major financial agencies such as, you know, the SEC and other parties that I think are public information around the nature investigations, you know, and when we deal with financial companies, generally speaking, it's not uncommon for us to see situations where, you know, there are various inquiries that various federal regulators and state regulators may make in connection with parties that they regulate.

Q You said that they disclosed that the SEC had an investigation relating to Binance?

A They did.

Q What did they say?

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

212-267-6868

516-608-2400

Page 94

1 A That they had received requests relating to information
2 on relationships, for example, with third parties and 3 certain affiliates.

4 Q Anything else?

5 A I don't recall. That conversation took place a while -
6 - long enough ago that I just don't recall the exact
7 specifics. I'd have to reference my notes.

8 Q When did it happen?

9 A Probably in -- I would say it was -- I know it was 10 prior to the signing of the APA and I think we've had some 11 continued ongoing discussions with them relating to these 12 members. It's not a static element, but I just don't recall
13 the exact dates.

14 Q So you knew prior to entering into the APA that there
15 was investigation by the SEC of Binance?

16 A We were aware that they had requested information and 17 that they -- that there was an investigation, yes.

18 Q Have they updated you on the status of the 19 investigation?

20 A I don't believe probably within the last couple weeks,
21 but I just don't recall, candidly.

22 Q The Debtor, do the Debtors view that, those 23 governmental investigations as important matters?

24 A We did.

25 Q Did the Debtor understand the nature of the

Page 96

1 moving forward with them. As we evaluate -- to the extent
2 that we moved forward with the plan, we got approval for it,
3 and prior to closing we were evaluating the risk adjusted
4 elements of moving forward with a transaction with 5 Binance.US relative to the tradeoff and the costs associated 6 with self-liquidating toggle. That would be one of the 7 potential considerations. Absolutely. If there was a
8 material change, for example, that would obviously be a
9 consideration. It's very hard to say what that will look
10 like in three to four weeks.

11 Q At any time since the entry into the APA has Binance.US
12 informed the Debtor that there's been some material change
13 in any of the government regulatory investigation?

14 A Not to my knowledge, but counsel may have participated
15 in calls that I wasn't on.

16 Q What if anything have the Debtors disclosed about any 17 of the investigations that it has learned during the course
18 of due diligence?

19 A Do you mind repeating the question?

20 Q Yes. What if anything have the Debtors disclosed about 21 the government investigations that it has learned about 22 during the diligence?

23 A I don't recall what the disclosure in the plan
24 disclosure statement is relating to any of that.

25 Q Do you think that the status of government

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

Page 95

1 governmental investigation?

2 A We understood the nature of what the requests related
3 to. We asked questions relating to -- and follow-up
4 questions relating to the nature of what the inquiries were,
5 what information was provided, what the status of those
6 pending discussions were, whether or not there were follow-
7 up requests, for example, compliance. So we asked a number
8 of questions relating to any -- relating to those 9 investigations and proceedings, yes.

10 Q Did Binance.US share any documentation with the Debtors
11 concerning those governmental investigations?

12 A They may have with counsel. It's highly unusual for 13 investment bankers to ever receive information relating to 14 communications between a regulator and a counterparty.
15 Worked on a number of financial institution related
16 situations and generally those reviews being privileged, so
17 it's highly atypical for us to see primary documents
18 relating to those investigations, as non-lawyers.

19 Q How did those -- understood. How did those 20 investigations relate to the Debtors' ongoing due diligence?
21 Is that anything that the Debtors are considering?

22 A Yeah, we -- yes. We would obviously consider any 23 changes relating to ongoing investigations that we became 24 aware of from a federal agency as material facts potentially 25 in assessing the counterparty and the risks associated with

1 investigations is a relevant consideration for creditors in 2 voting on the plan?

3 MR. SLADE: Your Honor, I would object. Lack of 4 foundation.

5 THE COURT: He can answer.

6 BY MR. UPTGROVE:

7 A To the extent that I think it would depend on what the 8 nature of those investigations are and whether or not those 9 relate to, for example, normal course investigations or 10 they're criminal proceeding investigations, for example,
11 against the company, I think it's a bit of a question that 12 depends a lot on the nature of what the facts and 13 circumstances are. I think it's hard to say in the absence
14 of -- it's a very broad question.

15 Q Do you believe that the Debtors have disclosed all 16 material facts to creditors about ongoing investigations and 17 litigation?

18 MR. SLADE: Yeah, Your Honor, I object. That -- 19 his opinion on that is not relevant and also the SEC did not 20 object on this basis.

21 THE COURT: Well, it would be troubling if his 22 opinion was no, but, you know, he's obviously not being 23 asked as a lawyer or as an ultimate fact finder, but do you
24 think the Debtors have failed to comply with their 25 disclosure obligations?

THE WITNESS: I hope that the Debtors have not failed to comply with disclosure obligations, Your Honor. We have spent countless hours working with counsel to make sure that, you know, we're properly disclosing key considerations related to the plan. Again, it's a very long document and so for me to reference a very specific element of it in a very specific question, I just don't recall the specifics of it, but yes, I mean, I believe that the Debtors have sought to disclose important information in connection with the plan. And I don't think --

MR. UPTEGROVE: That's all the questions I have.

THE WITNESS: -- we would be here today looking for approval on that basis, to the extent that we felt like there were any deficiencies.

MR. UPTEGROVE: Thank you, Mr. Tichenor. That's all I have. Thank you.

THE COURT: All right. Is there anybody else on the telephone who would like to cross examine --

MS. RYAN: Yes.

THE COURT: Okay.

MS. RYAN: Good afternoon, Your Honor. This is Abigail Ryan with the State of Texas Attorney General's Office on behalf of the State Securities Board and the Texas Department of Banking.

Q Who would liquidate 35 coins --

A Yeah.

Q -- that aren't supported?

A Look, I think that is a -- it's an unknown at this point. As I was saying, I think the Debtor would seek to maximize value for the estate in connection with any transactions that would need to occur on those coins. It would be at the Debtors' discretion.

THE COURT: There's a bit of confusion built into the question when you ask who would liquidate. Are you asking who would decide how to sell and to whom or are you asking to whom coins would be sold? There's a difference.

MS. RYAN: I'm asking who would do the selling.

THE COURT: Okay. So would voyager do the selling or would it ask somebody else to do it?

THE WITNESS: Yeah, so -- and I think this relates more broadly to the rebalancing transactions. We have worked hand-in-hand with the UCC in connection with the rebalancing transaction and have been in full agreement with them to date around the nature of various third-party proposals that we received, for example. And I mention this because it's broadly consistent with how a liquidation of those 35 coins would ultimately work, is that it would be in consultation with the UCC. We would in all likelihood, is the Debtor would seek to get third-party potential

BY MS. RYAN:

Q Good afternoon, Mr. Tichenor. And one thing, I've heard your name said Tichenor and Tichenor. What is the correct pronunciation?

A It's Tichenor. Thank you.

Q Okay. That's important.

A A lot of times, people say Tichenor which is not a --

Q Thank you for letting me know. Names are important. So good afternoon, Mr. Tichenor. I just have a few (audio drops) and I want to clear up a couple of things. In your declaration that was filed, it stated that if you went to the toggle plan, Binance would help in liquidating the coins, but earlier you testified Voyager would liquidate it? who would be liquidating it under the toggle plan?

A Liquidation of the 35 unsupported coins?

Q Just all the coins. So if somebody else is doing the 35 and somebody else is doing the remainder who are those companies?

A Well, I don't believe that there would be any other companies that would do the remainder. I think -- are you referring to, like, a seven situation where there would be like --

Q Oh, no. I can be more clear. Under the toggle plan who liquidates the 35 coins?

A Who what?

proposals. It may seek to liquidate them itself using its existing smart order router or third party systems that it has access to. So I don't know the full answer yet. I think it would depend on the specific facts and circumstances of the situation and what the collective agreement was between both parties to move forward on that basis.

THE COURT: But there's no plan to say --

MS. RYAN: Okay, so --

THE COURT: There's no -- for example, you're not planning in the event of the toggle plan to say, here Binance, here's all our crypto, sell it for us?

THE WITNESS: Absolutely not, Your Honor. Yeah.

THE COURT: Okay. That's what I think the implication of the question was. got it.

MS. RYAN: Thank you, Your Honor. That was exactly right.

BY MS. RYAN:

Q So in Paragraph 37 of your declaration it says that the asset purchase agreement provides that in the event Debtors pivot to a liquidation transaction, Binance.US will provide certain services to facilitate the liquidation transaction to ensure the Debtors can rely on the Binance.US platform to minimize leakage with cybersecurity risks when returning cryptocurrency to creditors. So in the toggle transaction,

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

1 what are these services that Binance.US would provide?

2 A So I think what they have indicated is that they would
3 be helpful in supporting services and facilitating and 4 assisting in the transaction to the extent that it was 5 possible. I think the specifics around what exact services
6 they would provide, we haven't fully fleshed out in 7 connection with them and I think that is, in our minds an 8 add-on, right. It's not something that we necessarily have 9 to do. It would be that they would offer services
10 potentially to the Debtor, but it doesn't mean that the 11 Debtor has to use those services.

12 Q Under the toggle transaction, would all (audio drops)?

13 A Sorry, I -- you were breaking up there. I apologize.

14 THE COURT: Somebody is bumping against a
15 microphone. I don't know who it is, but anybody who's not 16 actually asking questions right now, please mute your line.
17 Please go ahead, Ms. Ryan.

18 MS. RYAN: Thank you. Can you hear me better now?

19 THE COURT: Yes, we can.

20 MS. RYAN: Thank you.

21 BY MS. RYAN:

22 Q So it's my understanding under the toggle transaction,
23 all Bitcoin would be sold and reduced to U.S. dollars; is 24 that right?

25 A Under the toggle transaction? No. I don't believe

1 relative to what people may think of as a liquidation in the 2 context of a Chapter 7 liquidation which is, insofar as in 3 that instance, the majority of cryptocurrencies being the 4 non-35 tokens that are unsupported from being distributed in 5 kind would be distributed in kind.

6 So it's the same construct from a rebalancing
7 perspective except the difference is that for the 35 that we 8 can't distribute back, we need to distribute cash to those 9 creditors instead on an equivalent value basis under the 10 same construct. But the concept is still the same with 11 regards to the way the rebalancing would work, so for 12 example, for example, BTC is not liquidated. ETH is not 13 liquidated. SHIB is not liquidated. Anything that is a 14 supported token would not be liquidated. It would be 15 rebalanced under the construct of the plan in a similar 16 manner to Binance, the Binance.US deal.

17 Q That was really helpful. Thank you for that 18 explanation. So it sounds like under the toggle
19 transaction, unsupported jurisdiction customers could 20 actually move theirs off and into a third-party wallet; is 21 that right?

22 A That would be correct, yes. I believe -- to the extent
23 --

24 Q Okay.

25 A -- they're allowed to (indiscernible) for Voyager as a

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

1 that's the way the toggle transaction would work.

2 Q Can you explain to me how it would work?

3 A Yeah. So the toggle transaction is in many ways
4 analogous to a transaction with Binance.US, but it has 5 certain key differences and considerations and I would 6 characterize those as being really relating to the fact that
7 there are 35 tokens, for example, that cannot be distributed
8 back to customers on an in-kind basis through the Voyager
9 platform given the technical limitations that I think we 10 discussed at the beginning of my testimony. And I'd be 11 happy to discuss those further.

12 The other difference is that it would occur through the 13 Voyager platform and would only be made available for 14 withdraws over a limited period of time such that customers
15 would have an ability to access and transfer that crypto
16 from Voyager to a third party or a third-party digital 17 wallet or self-custody wallet, for example. And then after 18 a certain period of time, the platform would liquidate
19 whatever had not been moved.

20 It would use the cash proceeds from those liquidations
21 to distribute funds and then would effectively, you know,
22 shut down for all intents and purposes. But those are the 23 key differences. And so when you think about a liquidation
24 transaction in this context, there is a big and materially
25 key difference between a self-liquidating toggle transaction

1 platform, yes.

2 Q Right. That -- fair enough. So under -- making the 3 decision as to whether you go with Binance or do the toggle
4 transaction, is that a unilateral decision on behalf of the 5 Debtor?

6 A So I believe it would be a decision that ultimately 7 would be made by the board of directors of the Debtor, but 8 it would be in consultation and discussion with, for 9 example, the UCC and, you know, presumably the advisors
10 would be providing a recommendation for example, to the 11 board. But it would ultimately, I believe, be a decision of 12 the board of the Debtor.

13 Q Okay, thank you. Moving to the audited financials from 14 2021, were you able to get any audited financials from 2020?

15 A I believe their audit covered two years, but I just 16 don't recall. I apologize.

17 Q That's okay. Do you remember who the auditing firm was 18 that did their financials?

19 A I do.

20 Q Who are they?

21 A I believe we're subject to confidentiality, but it's a
22 large known audit firm in the techs ecosystem. I mean, I
23 can answer it to the extent --

24 Q Okay. Do you know -- I'm sorry, I didn't catch that 25 last part.

1 A I was saying, I could answer that to the extent the
2 judge wanted me to, but we were subject to confidentiality.
3 Q Okay.
4 A I don't know if Binance is okay with that.
5 Q I understand. Do you know if Binance currently has an 6 accounting auditing firm?
7 A Yes, they made a representation to us that they have a
8 new auditor and we understood that their relationship with 9 their prior auditor, that they had been in the process of 10 transitioning to a new auditor in advance of the collapse of 11 FTX. So the change in auditor was not something that was 12 specifically triggered, for example, by that -- as we 13 understand it, was not triggered by that audit firm, for 14 example, seeking to terminate them. It was a mutually 15 agreed decision where Binance.US was seeking to transition
16 to a new auditor.
17 Q Okay, thank you. When reviewing their audit, their 18 books, their records, did you review whether Binance has 19 made loans to any other cryptocurrency companies?
20 A So one of the key considerations that we looked at, and 21 again, the audited financials that we reviewed related to 22 Binance.US. I want to be clear on that. One of the items
23 that we reviewed was an overview of the assets as outlined
24 in the audit relating to -- which, you know, is where loans
25 to third parties would ultimately show up, we were not aware

2 Q So I know that the gentleman with SEC was asking about
3 reviewing Binance legal matters and things and I understand
4 that's not your wheelhouse. Who does review them to decide
5 whether a legal matter is material?
6 A You know, we have active discussions with the counsel,
7 with our counsel K&E -- or the Debtors' counsel, excuse me,
8 which is Kirkland. I know that they're in active dialog
9 with the UCC's counsel, which is McDermott, for example.
10 There's active dialog with the company which also has 11 independent counsel and it would also include, I think,
12 discussions with Binance's U.S. counsel, so I mean, there's 13 a lot of professionals. Our lawyers that have been engaged
14 by various parties in the situation and I'd say to date
15 people have worked in a very collaborative manner.
16 Q Thank you. How did you verify that -- and I'm going to 17 get this wrong. I am not an expert in crypto by any 18 stretch, but how did you verify the one-to-one ability of 19 Binance, to (indiscernible) the coins?
20 A That's a great question. So we did look at, for 21 example, wallet -- a list of wallets that was provided to us
22 from the company and looked at, you know, balances in those 23 wallets. We then compared them to our understanding of what 24 had been disclosed in the financial statements. To say that 25 we did a thorough, you know, for example, like a proof of

Page 107

1 of any loans based on that audit review that had been made
2 to third parties.
3 That was an important element from our perspective in 4 understanding, you know, the dynamic around whether or not
5 they had an ability to, for example, you know, rehypothecate
6 crypto for, you know, for example.
7 THE COURT: You just said third parties. What 8 about affiliates?
9 BY MS. RYAN:
10 Q Did you see if loans made to -- I'm sorry.
11 THE WITNESS: To affiliates? That would include
12 affiliates as well, Your Honor.
13 THE COURT: I'm sorry, Ms. Ryan. I kind of spoke
14 over you because I wanted to ask a question before I forgot
15 as time went on. He had said third parties and I asked if 16 that included affiliates. And he said, yes.
17 THE WITNESS: I would say more broadly, Your 18 Honor, it included all loans that would be made to -- it was 19 a big concern of ours in light of, obviously, what's 20 happened in ecosystem.
21 THE COURT: Thanks. Thanks for the clarification.
22 I'm sorry --
23 MS. RYAN: That was going to be my next question,
24 Your Honor, so thank you.

1 reserves on Binance.US' reserve ratio, though, you know,
2 that is well beyond the scope of what a firm like Moelis
3 performs.
4 There are generally third party auditors, for example,
5 that perform those types of scopes of service. One thing
6 that we did look at, though, and was an important
7 consideration is that that dynamic is discussed and 8 disclosed in their audited financials and treatment of 9 customer crypto in the audited financials, the structure is 10 such that it was determined to be a custody relationship,
11 that there was no, you know, rehypothecation, for example,
12 and those elements.
13 And then on top of that, excuse me, we did receive 14 obviously sworn statements from Binance, and this wasn't an 15 area where it is -- it was a key consideration for us, so as 16 part of diligence, for example, we would ask for information
17 on a primary, a document basis. We would ask questions in 18 different ways in order to make sure that we understood and 19 didn't have inconsistencies with what information was 20 provided to us. But I would say, you know, look, we did not 21 do a, for example, like a proof of reserves to the extent
22 that's the nature of the question.
23 Q No, that's a perfect answer. Thank you. Did -- in 24 reviewing the financial documents, were you able to tell
25 what Binance entity actually keeps custody of U.S.

customers' electronic wallets?

A My recollection -- I don't recall.

Q Are you aware that in 2019 it was a Binance Cayman Island company that purportedly held the electronic wallets for U.S. customers?

A I'm not aware of that, no.

Q Do you know if Binance.US has the technical infrastructure to run its business without dependence on Binance.com?

A It has been represented to us that they would. Our understanding of the way that they operate is that there are certain commercial services and licensing ingredients, for example, relating to technology that they license from Binance.com, but you know, similar to -- and again, this is my understanding, right?

Similar to, for example, if I were to receive a copy of Windows, I may not need to be able to rely on Microsoft as a firm continuing to operate. So my understanding is that the services that are provided by Binance.com are limited to functions that would allow Binance.US to continue to operate to the extent that Binance.com no longer existed. That was something that we specifically asked about during our diligence.

Q Okay. So for instance, if Binance.com technical infrastructure were to crash, Binance.US would not be

Q Mr. Tichenor, good afternoon. You stated that a toggle would diminish the value or the return of value on VGX. You also stated that Binance doesn't intend to create value for VGX. Can you explain why there's a difference in the value of VGX in a toggle versus a sale?

A Yeah. So the difference was relating to the fact that Binance.US was agreeing to seek to try to list the token on their platform. Our view, and again in discussion with various people at the company around VGX and other, you know -- who are more familiar with specifics around, for example, specific cryptocurrency assets, the view was that the ability to create value and utility, for example, relating to a sale of the smart contracts in that instance, was likely greater to the extent that the token was listed.

There was a perception of support for it on a go-forward basis, but it was an estimate and you know, what we would say is that ultimately, I don't think that would change the conclusion, which is an important element. We would still view under those facts and circumstances if that element was normalized between those two, that the Binance plan still provides for potentially higher recovery value.

But you know, it was an important element for us to also include relative to this, you know, self-liquidation. But I wouldn't say it was a determining factor, if that's part of the question.

affected?

A So that is a representation that has been made to us. It was a question that we asked. It was an important element. I can't specifically represent whether or not there's some piece of code that results in a callback function to a server that's -- there's a lot of elements that could cause that to be the case. What has been represented to us is that it's not, and that's as much as I can say.

Q Okay. When you say it's been represented to you, in what manner was it represented? Was it orally, in writing?

A Both. We've had multiple calls. We've had in-person meetings. We've had physical document reviews. Received sworn statements around items like this.

MS. RYAN: Thank (indiscernible) finished. I pass the witness. Have a good afternoon.

THE WITNESS: Thank you. You, too.

Q Thank you. Would a toggle transaction not also contemplate the sale of VGX smart contracts?

A It likely would, yes.

Q So in your opinion, in either case, the value or utility of VGX is ultimately dependent on the sale of the smart contract?

A In part. I think the likelihood of finding a, for example, high quality party that is seeking to get, you know, the -- and has an interest in the smart contract utility on a go-forward basis, one of the factors that we understand based on discussions with, you know, the parties that we've engaged with is the forums that that smart contract is listed on, a lot of the value from their perspective in a number of ways, if somebody was to take over that smart contract and seek to turn it into more of utility on a go-forward basis, is in part reliant on the fact that VGX is a known commodity for all intents and purposes.

It's out there. It's listed on a number of exchanges. It trades. People know it from the case. And so that has value for people. And so part of the view I think was that to the extent that a party like Binance.US listed it, one, it shows support from this plan and two, the likelihood of attracting that type of party is arguably better in that circumstance. But again, I do want to be clear that the calculation around VGX was not the determining factor in the comparison.

Q Sure. Understood. So when will we know whether Binance.US intends to list VGX or not?

A I can't speak to what their internal review process looks like, unfortunately.

MR. NEWSOM: Okay. No further questions, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Thank you. Is there anybody else on the phone who wishes to cross examine the witness?

MR. HENDERSHOTT: Yes, Your Honor. Tracy Hendershott, pro se creditor. Ladies first. Is that Gina? Gina? Okay, I guess I'll go, with Your Honor's permission.

MR. HENDERSHOTT: Yeah, sure.

MR. HENDERSHOTT: I'm sorry, Your Honor, you were breaking up. You said something about lunchtime?

THE COURT: We're pretty much at our lunchtime, but how many questions do you have, do you think?

MR. HENDERSHOTT: I have eight questions

others, in assessing what those discounts could be. I mentioned the 50 percent number in that I would have to go back, but I don't believe the estimate for purposes of the discount was exactly 50 percent on those coins. I do recall that we received a number of bids, though, that were at 50 percent, if not greater.

Q So -- and I guess that's where my confusion is, and so do I recall correctly that you said 100 million would be the slippage for the process of liquidation in total due to these illiquid coins?

A In total, yes. I think the estimate for those specific coins, if I'm not mistaken, is like 60 million specifically. I'd have to check --

Q Okay --

A -- the numbers, though.

Q Okay, so you're saying the slippage is 50 million, not 100 million?

A Correct. The 100 million also includes foregone proceeds that we would receive from Binance.US to the extent that we didn't close with them, which is, you know, obviously the purchase price and then I think I mentioned the VGX element.

Q Okay, but let's stick with the liquidation. $60 million of damage due to slippage because of the illiquid nature of 35 coins; is that your statement?

currently, but depending on the answers, it may extend.

MR. HENDERSHOTT: Okay. Thank you, sir.

CROSS EXAMINATION OF BRIAN TICHENOR

BY MR. HENDERSHOTT:

Q Good afternoon, Mr. Tichenor. I'm a pro se creditor in this case. I'd like to go back to -- thank you. I'd like to go back to your opening statements when you highlighted obstacles and called out that this was one of the rationale of why the Binance deal is better than the toggle or even a liquidation. And I just want to confirm, did I hear you correctly that in relation to the liquidation, the illiquid coins would result up to a 50 percent slippage commission structure; is that correct?

A Yeah, it would be up to. The analysis was done on a coin-by-coin basis and it was based on a number of factors. So it was -- and I would call it an educated estimate that was done in connection with management and individuals at the company that, you know, have experience in trading crypto currencies. We solicited as I think I mentioned multiple proposals from various different OTC market makers, for example, and collected all of those facts together in determining and working, you know, collaboratively again, you know, not just Moelis, BRG, the company management,

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

A That's my recollection of the numbers, yes.

Q Okay. Thank you, sir. So this is where my confusion is. The day before the Debtors turned off access to our investments or even today, you know, go to Coinbase, go to Binance, I go anywhere, I can make a $5 million transaction at a 5 percent commission. So I'm struggling to understand how, Moelis, you know, the rainmaker, dealmaker, why are you being faced with 50 percent haircut when I can make a $5 to $10 million transaction with a 5 percent commission rate?

A So I think even to the extent that we're talking about a $5 million trade, I think, you know, what happened last night is a good example of what market depth means within crypto, in the cryptocurrency space. We saw a very precipitous drop in the price of Bitcoin and all other -- all coins as a result of what I understood based on what I've seen publicly, to be relatively small trading volume in Bitcoin.

It's -- you know, just even training a $5 million block of Bitcoin is very, very different than the estate trying to liquidate a large portion if not a majority portion in some instances of very illiquid tokens. And liquidity has a lot of different elements to it. It can be trading volume that's being reported, but ultimately, you know, as we think about market depth, it really relates more to, you know, what the marginal buyers are at various prices.

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

And so to the extent you have in some instances, highly, highly concentrated ownership in some of these tokens, the ability to be able to trade out of those and find marginal buyers in certain instances can be very difficult.

THE COURT: The 50 percent or up to 50 percent you're talking about is not a commission. It's what you think --

THE WITNESS: Correct --

THE COURT: -- the effect would be on what people are willing to pay?

THE WITNESS: That's exactly right, Your Honor. We -- there were no -- there would not be a condition, for example, on the block trade. It's already embedded. They're taking the risk in that instance. When the estate does transactions, it uses a range of exchanges, for example, OTC desk, if it were to just sell into the market on its own over a long period of time and the transaction fees on that -- and that's similar to we're doing on the rebalancing. We've negotiated very, very low fees, on a fee basis. To the extent you're talking about a commission, so in comparison to like a 5 percent commission, you know, for illiquid tokens it's, you know, sub 25 basis points.

BY MR. HENDERSHOTT:

Q Could you give us an example, because yesterday and the 212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

A Sorry. The 35 tokens that we were talking about, you know, as Mr. Renzi put in his declaration, they represent around 17 percent of the total assets on the platform today. They do represent a number of tokens that happen to be more illiquid. The large, well-known tokens like Bitcoin and Ethereum or USDC, for example, are all supported. The 35, based on the distribution, happen to fit in a bit of an odd, sweet spot between being sizeable from a dollar value perspective, but also being illiquid.

Q Okay. If there is a decision made to go to the toggle and any of the estate assets are being sold at a 50 percent discount, would any of the creditors have the first opportunity to buy such discounted assets at that discount price?

A Theoretically, they would have an ability to buy anything that they want in the market. You know, the estate --

Q No, no. The market's not offering the 50 percent.

A Well, there's a big difference, though, between buying a small trade at a 50 percent discount and buying a very large block trade for tens of millions or hundreds of millions of dollars at those levels, so if there are creditors that would like to have discussion around multi-hundred million dollar block trades, I think we'd be happy to have those conversations.

212-267-6868

same conversation came up with (indiscernible) BRG, the example that was presented yesterday which I've heard you contradict today was Shiba Inu as one of the illiquid coins, but earlier today in your testimony, you highlighted the Shiba Inu is not illiquid.

A So --

Q Is that correct?

A I don't believe that's what I said. I said that Shiba Inu was a supported token, I believe.

Q Okay. So could you give us an example of a token where we would expect this 50 percent haircut due to, you know, this liquidation process?

A So from what I understand, and again, this is not just (indiscernible). This is based on, you know, discussions with a lot of parties analyzing a range of these factors. A couple examples would be BTT, VET, and StormX, all of which would fit in that category.

Q Thank you. And can you tell me what the value of BTT, VET, and StormX is on Voyager currently as part of your estate, the total assets for those particular coins?

A I don't have the specific numbers in front of me. I know they're in the tens of millions each.

Q Each or total?

A No, each. And to be clear, the 35

Q Okay. (indiscernible) exercise --

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

Q But we're not talking about hundreds of millions, right? You said only 17 percent of the total value across all 35 coins, (indiscernible) 75 -- 17 percent.

A Seventeen percent across all of the crypto currency of the estate. It's across 1.2 to 1.3 billion.

Q So it's about 130 million, divided by 35 coins? Thank you, sir. You also brought up as an example the illiquidity caused the volatility that we experienced in the overall market last night. Would you associate that with some event of illiquidity or more of the revelation of the Congress issuing the letter that they did last night to Binance raising, you know, significant red flag?

A I can't --

Q It would be more credible for --

A I can't speak to exactly what drove the decline in the market last night. The point that I was trying to highlight is that within these markets and a big reason why you see these big discounts in certain coins is that cryptocurrency markets have historically been more volatile than what we see in a lot of traditional markets, and these are markets where you have a -- the largest token being Bitcoin with a multi-hundred billion dollar market cap that trades tens of billions of dollars a day that declined very material amount of value in the course of minutes, and so, you know, as market makers, for example, are looking at doing block

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

trades and quoting risk, for example, that's risk that they then assume and they price for that.

And so you know, what they're pricing for in large part -- and again, you know, what you see in a lot of instances is there's higher beta, for example, between these illiquid tokens relative to something like a Bitcoin. And so what they're trying to work through is a dynamic of not being in a position where, you know, they may acquire a block trade and it could be down 20 percent after they've acquired it, as a result of the trade.

And so that's part of what, you know, we've seen when pricing these and to be clear, this is why we reached out to multiple parties with very significant financial capacity to be able to execute on these types of transactions. We did not reach out to just regular parties. We reached out what we understood based on discussions with people in the space, to be, you know, some of the largest participants in this ecosystem for doing these types of transactions. And we received multiple ones --

Q So, thank you, sir --

A -- which also, you know, they weren't aware of what was going on. They weren't talking to each other (indiscernible) companies.

Q Thank you. You keep referring to the danger in slippage of block trades going back to the (indiscernible)

Debtor has been executing these trades upon, you know, getting the ability to do such from the judge, over a long period of time to try and minimize any of that negative impact it may have on prices.

Q Yes, that sounds absolutely prudent to me. And so I guess when you are taking such a thorough process of breaking it out to where it does not move the market on any given day or any given exchange, I still struggle to understand how you come up with a 50 percent loss on that transaction.

A So to be clear, you know as I was saying, we do obfuscate trades and there are tokens that from what we understand and what's been communicated to us, you know, the levels that they're trading at today and what would be required may already be pushing down prices potentially in some of those, and so, you know, there would be a concern.

There's a big difference between doing, for example, you know, a million-dollar or $2 million trade on any one of those tokens versus trying to be in a position where, you know -- and so in that instance, let's say you moved from, you know owning -- and these are all purely hypotheticals, right? If, to the extent that the state owned 40 percent of an individual token and it needed to own 30 percent post rebalancing, that means it needs to sell 10 percent interest over potentially a multi-week period.

just because we went through these numbers yesterday, I believe the number was 91 million of SS for that particular coin currently (indiscernible) Voyager. And you are tasked with either liquidating, rebalancing or liquidation, you know, action for this case.

Would you market the whole $91 million as one block or would you break it out, you know, 10, 20 different transactions over a defined period of time?

A So I don't want to speak to specifics of exactly how the estate is currently executing the transactions related to the rebalancing, in part because what we don't want to do is telegraph at this hearing anything that may adversely impact creditor returns from parties who may be listening in and trying to front run any of those transactions.

What I can tell you is that the Debtors and their advisors -- and again, this is multiple advisors, not just Moelis -- as well as the UCC's advisors in this instance, M3, have been in complete coordination around the nature of the transactions, the forum that we're doing them in, the way that they are being executed, and it is being done in a manner that allows for, you know, an attempt to obfuscate as much as possible the nature of the trades that the Debtor is doing in order to try and maximize value.

And it is doing it over, you know, what we're trying to do is over a long enough period of time and this is why the

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

To the extent that needs to go from 40 to 0, that's a very different transaction. And in some instances, that's, you know, what the estate is dealing with. Again, you know, these are hypotheticals but it's the basis for the analysis that was being done.

Q Okay, thanks for that. And -- sorry. I like to move on to the other obstacle which is a new term for me. In instead of KYC, it was KYT for the transaction. You said that that prohibited, you know, the toggle or at least was an obstacle to the toggle and would require liquidation of all of these illiquid coins on Voyager. And (audio drops) option or what was the other option there?

A So there were two primary issues. One is, the platform itself, the code base, doesn't work to be able to distribute those token in kind. And so, you know, to the extent that you're familiar with different protocols and coins, right, every coin is a little bit different and not all of them are ERC-20s, right, and so in this instance, we have 35 tokens. The code itself, the code base, does not have an ability to distribute those tokens through the Bedrock code, which is my understanding of how they -- they're able to distribute those tokens back to the customers. It doesn't support them.

And so it would require a rewrite of the code base, with subsequent upgrades to be able to bring on additional

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

protocols to allow those tokens to be withdrawn. So that's one leg of the issue. The second leg of the issue is the KYT issue, which relates to the ability to actually validate the party and the wallet address that you're sending funds to and that has two elements to it.

One relates to, for example, the inability to distribute those 35 tokens. The other also in part relates to potentially unsupported jurisdictions and the ability to, for example, return coins if the company didn't have a platform to be able to return coins through.

Q So two elements. You said the technical foundation, Bedrock and then the other one is, you know, the other controls of understanding where the transaction is occurring. And let's start with the first one, Bedrock.

Has anyone reached out to actually the originators, the developers, the designers of Bedrock, which would be the Ethos organization to be able to overcome this obstacle?

A The company has developers. It has acquired the Bedrock code. It has maintained it. The people that we talked were the management team of the company that operates the code base today. This was made -- this was based on representations that were made us, you know, by them and, you know, our understanding is it would take some time to potentially allow for that, to do those upgrades. And on a prudent basis --

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

have because there was a follow-on impact. So this would be something where to the extent that the company were to do an upgrade on the code base like that, to allow for support of additional tokens, it's not something that I think people would take lightly in this specific instance.

Q Yes, security concerns, but still I haven't heard an answer to my question if anyone reached out to the developers (audio drops).

MR. SLADE: I object. Lack of foundation.

THE COURT: Overruled. Go ahead.

BY MR. HENDERSHOTT:

A I'm not aware of the company having reached out to the original developers of the code base that the company currently maintains.

Q Okay. Thank you. And then the second part of your obstacle (indiscernible) was having to know the recipient of the wallet. So I can go, the day before they blocked my access, I can go in and transfer any of the supported coins to my wallet. It's a single address. It doesn't vary as a wallet address based on the coin.

So I'm not clear on how the Debtors in Possession can actually buy the asset, put -- transfer it to their wallet, and then find a third party when I enter a sell order, transfer that asset to a other third wallet, or that they've already validated the KYT for me whenever I want to do any

Q Yeah --

A -- to the extent that you're upgrading code base that relates to a distribution, potentially, of a billion dollars, I don't think that anybody would take a code upgrade lightly to the extent that it could have, for example, negative impacts. I mean, with debugging and you never know what the follow-on impact could be, right?

Q So I'm not clear. Is the (audio drops) not originate the code or is the challenge that the engineers who made Bedrock refuse to collaborate with (audio drops) in possession?

A That feels very leading. I don't think I said anything about the developer is not willing to work on it. I was making a statement around what we understood the timeline to be for implementing that and what I was trying -- and I apologize if I wasn't clear on this. What I was getting at was more that implementing a code upgrade in the context of the situation that we're in and the negative impacts that getting that wrong could have, mean that the Debtor would want to make sure that it's being very thoughtful.

The last thing that we would want, given the fact that this a, you know, final distribution for all intents and purposes for certain parties, would be in a situation where somebody put in a bug and all of a sudden a creditor received five times the amount of coins that they should

212-267-6868

of the supported wallets. So can you highlight where the obstacle is there?

A Yeah, it's a good question. So that the company has historically operated, and this was the basis for why the -- again, this is my understanding. I can't, you know, purport to have done a code review on this -- is that for those unsupported tokens that can't be withdrawn and have never been able to be withdrawn, the issue is that, and the way that the company historically worked is that it works with OTC market makers, for example, to do all sorts of transactions, right?

And so the -- what would occur if you were to try and buy one of these unsupported tokens historically would be that you would put cash fiat into your account. You would seek to by that token. Voyager would have quoted you a price for where that transaction would occur at. Voyager then through it's smart order router would do a trade with a market maker on the other side.

They would do daily settlements at the end of the day to actually settle dollar funds relative to coin, with the coin in those instances for those unsupported wallets -- for those unsupported tokens being transferred from a white listed OTC market maker wallet to Voyager's wallet that is held on fire blocks in that instance. So because they are transacting with a white labeled OTC market maker with a known wallet address, the trades are only occurring between a handful of parties. The token, the coin transfer in those instances is only between a limited subset of wallets and it occurs once a day, effectively. It's not occurring on an ongoing basis.

Q Right.

A So when you're removing coins, what the Bedrock code is doing is -- and again, my understanding is that it's validating every single transaction as it's happening in small amounts and it has to be automated to do that, given the number of customers and the number of coins that it supports. There would be no way to do that manually.

Q Got it.

A Yeah.

Q So it's Bedrock that is the limitation? It's not really about knowing --

A No, I wouldn't --

Q -- confirmation of the wallet because they've already -- excuse me, sir, if they've already validated my wallet address when they transferred the coin in Ethereum.

A That -- so that's not my understanding. My understanding is that -- and I know, I understand this to be the case, right. Not every wallet supports every type of token, right? If I have an Exodus wallet, it doesn't support every type of token. If I -- Binance doesn't investment banker. What was the guiding document that you were obligated to follow for, you know, the auction process?

A I'm not sure I follow. Are you talking about the bid order or the auction procedures?

Q Yeah, the bidding (indiscernible). This was a real guiding document that you had to follow that was approved by the Court.

A Yes. There were -- and I apologize for forgetting the exact name of the documents, but there were procedures that were filed with the Court relating to bidding procedures in -- and the auction procedures in connection with the auction.

Q And when we have that guidance document approved by the Court, did that dictate the terms of the action or are bidders allowed to dictate their own terms in the auction?

A Auctions can be very complicated and so while the bid procedures outline what a qualified bid would ultimately be, it doesn't mean that parties that participate in the auction will follow necessarily, all of those rules. The fact that they may not follow all those rules does not necessarily preclude us from potentially selecting the highest alternative to the extent that that's the one that presents itself. It's -- to a degree, there is a judgment call.

Q Right. Well, I mean, how far can you deviate from what the Court approved bidding plan is? Of course, there's some support -- or excuse me, Coinbase support every type of token, right? So to say that you could just transfer to any wallet, you know, I don't believe that to be the case, based on my knowledge of how cryptocurrency works.

212-267-6868

And my understanding as has been represented to me is that a number of these tokens, for example, the third-party provider that the company uses for that KYT validation on the wallet that the funds are being transferred to does not support all of those tokens, and so that party has to run its own set of procedures. It's a third-party service provider. I can't represent what those look like, but at least what has been told to me is that they do not support all of those tokens.

And so what it would require is potentially then integrating new third parties that do this or other systems. I don't know what that would ultimately look like but, you know, I would imagine, for example, doing an API upgrade to allow for a multi-party API authentication check between a new third party that's being integrated for these purposes, it's not a small task. At a minimum, I imagine it would take months.

Q Yes, we've had nine months and so that -- would have fit into the schedule. So thank you. If I can move on, I know we want to move on to lunch break here. So just some block and tackle type questions about your role as an judgment. The Court approved the bidding plan intentionally to protect the process, protect the estate; is that correct?

A I don't recall the exact specifics of the -- of what was allowed under the bid procedures, but I would imagine that it provides for that type of flexibility. I just don't know. I don't know.

Q (indiscernible) the bid process?

A Yes, but this occurred months ago.

Q Okay. And so as part of the bidding plan approved by the Court, was a backup bidder element, you know, standard in that plan or not?

MR. SLADE: Your Honor, I object. This is not relevant. We discussed this yesterday.

THE COURT: I'll allow --

MR. HENDERSHOTT: Yesterday, Your Honor, BRG could --

THE COURT: I'll allow a few questions on it. Go ahead.

BY MR. HENDERSHOTT:

A So the --

MR. HENDERSHOTT: Thank you, sir.

BY MR. HENDERSHOTT:

A -- bid procedures did my recollection is that the bid procedures did require qualified bids to act as a backup bidder to the extent that they were to be viewed as a qualified bid. That's my recollection.

Q And so can you share with us who overrode that critical, pretty standard -- well, first of all, isn't that a standard element of an auction bidding process?

A It's something that is often asked for. It's not always actually abided by.

Q We just -- as Mr. Slade just said, we did discuss this yesterday but we couldn't get confirmation. We were told that Binance refused to comply with the bidding plan. We couldn't get confirmation on the other four bidders. Do you have a better recollection of the FTX auction and the four other bidders, what their refusal or acceptance as a backup bidder was?

A At the end of the auction, there was no party that was willing to be a backup bidder that conformed with the requirements of an order entry. So there was no ability to --

Q So --

A -- appoint a backup bidder at the end of the auction.

Q Being professionals in a corporate auction (indiscernible) activity which I've sat across your team many times, is there an attempt for a backup bidder to introduce competitive tension to ensure that the best bid and the most efficient bidding process is concluded with the first round of bidding and the competitive tension forcing provision to the extent that they were a backup bidder, that would have required an expense reimbursement that did not conform with the bid procedures. And so they were not selected as a backup bidder at that time because it was not a bid that conformed with a ability to actually enter to the extent that we were to select them. In hindsight, we wish that we had them as a backup bidder and had paid for it, of course, and in light of what happened with FTX, of course, we wish that we weren't in this situation.

THE COURT: So in other words, they said to you, were not willing to make a qualified bid. We'll make a bid on different terms.

THE WITNESS: And we want to be paid. Basically, they said that they want to be paid to be a backup bidder which is not something that is standard in the auction process.

THE COURT: Right. So they gave you the option to seek a variation from the bid terms and try to entice you with a deal, but it wasn't actually something that you had the ability to accept and make them an automatic backup bidder; is that right?

THE WITNESS: That's correct, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. Does that explain things, Mr. Hendershott?

MR. HENDERSHOTT: It does, thank you. Thank you

each bidder to give the best offer at the first round of bidding?

A It's one of many factors. The reason we ran an eleven-day auction which is unprecedented as far as auctions occur was to maximize that competitive tension and I can at least represent from the beginning of where the auction started to the value that was ascribed to the winning bid, it was increased in many multiples on a dollar value basis. We ran a, you know, in our judgment, a very competitive, long, hard auction option to try and drive as much value as possible.

Q Well, I'm confused, though, because if compliance with the written plan was actually followed, the original bid of Binance was 50 million would have returned more creditor value than the follow-on bidding cycle of 20 million. Do you see that differently, sir?

MR. SLADE: Your Honor, I object. This is not relevant.

THE COURT: Go ahead and explain.

MR. HENDERSHOTT: It is relevant, sir and --

THE COURT: No, no, no, no -- I've overruled the objection. I'm ask -- I'm telling the witness to go ahead and explain just what happened. Why did we not have a backup bid from Binance at that time? Did they --

THE WITNESS: We did not have a backup bid from Binance at that time because their final bid included a both for that.

BY MR. HENDERSHOTT:

Q So what I'm hearing then is there's no qualified bidders, backup bidders, at the FTX round.

A Well --

Q Is that correct?

A I think there's a difference -- I mean, obviously, the bid that we accepted we viewed as being a qualified bid because we ultimately entered it, but it was viewed as the highest and best at that point in time, based on facts and circumstances at that point in time.

Q But not in compliance with the bid plan.

A Excuse me, I couldn't hear that.

Q Is that correct?

A I'm sorry, I --

Q Bids were not in compliance -- yeah, not in compliance with the bid plan which calls for backup bids.

A Well, if that were the case, we wouldn't have an auction at all.

Q Right, because there was no qualified bidders according to the bid plan. Then would that logically then lead the discussion to go into the toggle option at that point when there is no qualified bidders?

A Well -- and again, I want to be clear. When, you know, the focus is very much on the backup bid right now. We went

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

212-267-6868

into an auction. We had received bids. They had qualifications relating to parties acting as backup bidders or not. I can represent that this was a very much discussed topic at the auction. Again, we ran an eleven-day auction. It was not something that was missed by parties. The view was, you know, while people were expressly unwilling to do this despite every attempt from the Debtor to try and actually get also a party to act as a backup bidder and we tried a number of different strategies in order to try and have that happen.

We ultimately drove the price up. We, you know, had the situation that we did, which was we appointed FTX based on the facts and circumstances at the time, the nature of their bid, and decided to move forward with that and did not have any other parties that were backup bids because they would have required, for example, the expensive reimbursement.

So we were unable to select one. But with that said, said because of the dynamics at the auction and the competitive tension, again, we drove up the purchase price at that auction multiple, multiple times over where the auction value started at.

Q Okay. I mean, (indiscernible). I appreciate that clarification, the insight. Again, block and tackle, how is the contract between the Debtor in Possession and yourselves

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

A I believe our fee declines by a million dollars. It's a $12 million to an $11 million fee.

Q Okay, so 12 million if a purchaser is achieved, $11 million if we go to a toggle.

A That would be my understanding, yes.

Q Okay. So -- and thank you for that. So is there an estimate -- there's only $1 million difference there, so -- and I'm not saying what the outcome is going to be, but with the monthly retainer fees and the transaction fees cumulatively, do you just have a round estimate of what the total value of your contract is going to be with the Debtors in Possession?

A I apologize. I don't off the top of my head.

Q Well, you know, we can start with 12 and 11 then, as a base. Is there -- can you share what the monthly retainer is?

A I don't recall what the monthly retainer fee is. I don't. I know --

Q Is there other transaction --

A Excuse me?

Q Is there other transaction fees besides the 11 or 12 million?

A Not transaction success based fees. My recollection of our engagement letter, which is tradition and, look, was negotiated on arm's length basis as well with the UCC and,

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

structured, you know, from a -- is the payment and compensation a time and materials or is it a event-based payment structure?

A I believe our engagement letter is publicly filed, so it depends. We have a --

Q I --

A From Moelis' perspective, we have a monthly retainer fee that we are paid and then there are different types of transaction-based fees.

Q Okay. So I guess I'll be more specific. I've heard, and I don't recall reading your specific contract that the transaction is a combination of an acquisition (indiscernible) $12 million payout; is that correct?

A In a sale transaction? I --

Q Yes, for a transaction payout --

A I believe that's correct.

Q Okay, thank you. Is that transaction payout still in effect if the Binance deal does not go through and we move to a toggle?

A There is a, I believe, a different feature, to the extent that that would occur, be a restructuring transaction.

Q And forgive me for having you repeat. You said it was public information, could you just share with me what that alternative transaction structure is?

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

you know, other parties, is traditional and market based for situations like this. And typically, you know, in this instance, the, for example, oftentimes fees are negotiated relating to things like DIP facilities or an ability to raise equity capital. Obviously, in this instance, none of those transactions would contemplate that.

Q Safe to say it's 15 million cumulative?

A That feels high based on the number of months and crediting features, but I -- again, I don't have our engagement letter in front of me so I apologize. Like, speaking to the exact numbers, I just can't. I can't speak to that.

Q So the reason why I'm asking is you presented that the Binance deal is the best one for the creditor class because of the guaranteed $20 million payout and (audio drops) another $80 million (audio drops) value. But (audio drops) $20 million if $60 million of that is going from the wallets, including my calculations that's a 75 percent cost.

You know, on ROI I'm receiving 20 million. I've (indiscernible) frequently. I never recall paying 75 compensation for any deal we engaged in and I'm curious. Can you tell me what, you know, percentage-wise, how frequently your clients ever accepting a 75 percent cost to any deal they negotiate with you?

THE COURT: I will -- I see an objection coming and I'll overrule it. You completely misstated his testimony, Mr. Hendershott.

MR. HENDERSHOTT: I'm sorry, I misstated it?

THE COURT: Yes, you did.

MR. HENDERSHOTT: Okay, can -- help me if you would, $20 million payout from Binance is --

THE COURT: You've misstated it to suggest that the $20 million goes entirely to his fee as though that fee wouldn't otherwise be there anyway, which is wrong. Okay? You've suggested that --

MR. HENDERSHOTT: No --

THE COURT: -- there's only a $5 million incremental value which is flatly contrary to what he's testified. His fee is there, whether there's that $20 million or not. It's a $1 million difference, is what he testified to. So if you go to the toggle, his fee is $1 million less. So if you go to the Binance deal, essentially what he's testified to is since his fee would be slightly higher, there'd be a $99 million advantage instead of $100 million. That's what he's testified to.

MR. HENDERSHOTT: Okay. Thank you for the clarification, sir. Thank you, Mr. Tichenor. I cede the podium.

THE COURT: Okay, before we have any other questions, we'll take our luncheon break and we'll resume at how it's done, that Binance has said that's how it's done. That's what everybody here seems to want to have some verification of. What's so hard about putting that in a declaration and filing it?

MR. SLADE: So Your Honor, Mike Slade for the Debtors. Obviously, that's up to Binance. It would be great if they did that. In our discussions, I mean -- and I think some of the cross examination has borne that out that I think if their witness was -- were to swear to this, were to be subject to cross examination, which would be as broad in scope as some of the cross examination that has occurred during the past couple of days --

THE COURT: Well, you know, I've allowed an awful lot of questions and I think that the kind of questions and torment that the witnesses have gone through would probably scare anybody off on willing to say anything, but I'm not asking for that. I'm just asking for a sworn declaration for what presently is just hearsay, something I can rely on that is by way of verifying what they have already told the Debtors.

MR. SLADE: We understand the request.

MR. GOLDBERG: Your Honor, Adam Goldberg of Latham and Watkins on behalf of Binance.US. So may I just ask Your Honor a question? Because I understand that -- I'm just confused as to whether it's just a statement to the Court

(Recess)

THE COURT: Before we continue with the witness examination, I have a question for the Debtors' attorneys and for Binance's attorneys. We've had an awful lot of questions about due diligence matters and about Binance's practices in certain regards and it sounds like from what the witness is saying, Binance has been willing to give sworn statements to the Debtors on some of these points, but I don't have them. I don't have any declaration. I have no Binance witness. I don't even have copies of what Binance has given to the Debtors.

What would be so hard about filing a declaration on behalf of Binance that simply says that that with respect to customers, Binance maintains assets on a one-to-one ratio with respect to customer deposits and intends to continue to do so; that it keeps customer cryptocurrency in separate wallets segregated from other cryptocurrencies, that it does not lend or rehypothecate customers' cryptocurrencies; that no one outside Binance.US has access to the keys for the customer wallets; and that Binance.US intends or its current practice and its intended future practice is to transfer or use customer cryptocurrency only as directed by the customers themselves?

I mean, I've had repeated testimony that that's for the Court's benefit or whether the -- whoever the declarant, would be exposed to cross examination?

THE COURT: I'm not anticipating cross examination, I'm just, for my own comfort, asking for a sworn statement to verify what has already been told to the Debtors.

MR. GOLDBERG: Thank you for that clarification, Your Honor. Please allow me to consult with my client.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. GOLDBERG: Thank you.

THE COURT: All right. It would give -- it would help me a lot because I'm -- it's odd. It strikes me as extremely odd to have so many questions raised about relatively straightforward business practices and to have nothing but hearsay and no Binance witness or a kind of verification at all, seems odd to me.

MR. SLADE: Completely at their request, Your Honor. We made it prior to hearing and I think the reluctance is for the reason that I stated, that you never know how broad the cross examination would get.

THE COURT: Right. Okay. All right, back to Mr. Tichenor. Is there anybody else on the phone now who wishes to cross examine?

MR. RIZK: I do, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Who is this?

MR. RIZK: My name is Andrew Rizk. I'm a creditor.

THE COURT: Okay, please proceed.

MR. RIZK: Okay, I just got two -- I just have two really quick questions.

CROSS EXAMINATION OF BRIAN TICHENOR

BY MR. RIZK:

Q One, you know, if you were in kind of our shoes as a creditor and had the knowledge that you have of this potential sale transaction, what would be your personal concerns or fears, if any, of this going through?

A I think, you know, things that we believe and understand the creditors care about are items -- you know, threefold, I would say. One, you know, we understood from the onset of the case that speed and the ability to return funds to people as quickly as possible was paramount. It was a focus that we had. It was very much -- I think we were aligned with the UCC around that. We sought to do everything possible from the very, very beginning of this case to try and do that.

Unfortunately, obviously, there were things that happened with FTX that set that back, but we do understand speed is an important dynamic. I think, you know, our understanding is that the ability to get in-kind recoveries is very important. There are people that have very low tax long process and try and restart everything upon the failure of FTX. We engaged immediately in discussions with people that we knew were aware. We had additional inbound. We ran that down as fast as possible and we -- I would say too, I don't believe that the timeline that we're working off of is any different than what would have happened if we had also chosen to potentially pivot to a self-liquidating toggle post that collapse.

There was a lot of work that was even done post that, around what self-liquidations could even look like with all these factors in mind. So, look, to me, those were things that I think, you know, I would be thinking about and I appreciate, too, the counterparty elements are going to be important, which is why we have also tried to engage in diligence on the nature of the counterparty asking questions, asking important questions around safety and soundness. Those are all things that I would imagine creditors care about in this situation.

Q Right. So you mentioned the potential, you know, with this, with the sale, the potential sale, there's potential risks. You know, just from a layman, not really understanding all the lingo in the disclosure statement, what are some of those risks with the sale transaction?

A Look, I think --

bases, for example, in these assets and we do understand the nature of a lot of the underlying. They bought the crypto with the understanding that that was what they were going to get back.

I personally would think if I -- I'm a customer of E-trade, right, and if I had a share of GE and there was a problem with E-trade, I wouldn't want something different than that back. That's, you know, what I thought was mine at that point in time. And so, you know, we are trying to do that in the contours of the Bankruptcy Code and I think the other thing in it was recovery value. We've -- you know, I personally listen to a lot of Twitter spaces including the UCC's ones.

I listen to a lot of the other ones. You know, we follow social media channels like -- you know, we do understand and hear from creditors that people have faced pain associated with this situation. This has not been easy for people. And we do care about trying to maximize value and that's something that we've been focused on. And that's part of the reason why we're presenting these two options.

We believe one of them potentially provides for a higher recovery value, but we understand that there may be potential risks associated with that relative to a self-liquidation. But what we did not do during this was run a

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

A -- that's the basis for a lot of the discussions that we're hearing today. I think that the primary risk would be around comfort levels with moving forward with the counterparty and having sufficient diligence being completed that on a risk-adjusted basis, the value associated moving forward with the sale relative to pursuing the self-liquidating toggle is ultimately worth it.

And that's something that, you know, that decision isn't going to be made today, but will be several weeks from now and is not something that I think we would take lightly. I think there will be a lot of consultation with the UCC, other advisors that are involved in this process, and obviously, ultimately, the board of directors of Voyager Digital LLC.

Q That's understood. Thank you for that response. The last question I have, I wasn't understanding yesterday when I was listening in, so the 73 percent recovery that was mentioned on the call would be the potential recovery if the sale goes through, but Alameda is not successful in clawing back whatever they're trying to claw back. But if they are if they are successful, I heard 24, 26, 48 percent. What is it? What's that going to be if they're successful in clawing back the 400 million or 75 million or combined or whatever it is they're trying to claw?

A Yeah, and I apologize, because I don't remember the 212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

exact number that was quoted at the hearing yesterday and I apologize for that. My recollection is that it's in the mid-40s. I want -- believe it was 44 percent, I'm not mistaken.

Q So if they're successful with that -- I saw online initially it was 26 percent, but --

A Yeah.

Q -- I think you guys liquidated or gave some money back during your selloffs, recent selloffs. So that 24 percent is now -- so if this sale goes through as a creditor, worst case I'm getting 48 percent of my money, best case I'm getting 73 percent?

A Well, so there are a number of factors, right? And so I think one of the big differences is that in the initial disclosure statement as people were looking at the recoveries and the basis for that mid-twenties number which, you know, we did see and I followed that closely on Twitter, for example, because I know it's been quoted a lot. The basis for that is based on the 1.002 billion of estimated crypto value owned by Voyager based on -- I believe it's a 30-day market average on December 18th.

And so from a market value perspective what has happened is that the price of cryptocurrency fortunately has increased quite a bit over the period. And so when we look at the recoveries today, those are based on current market based on the proposed settlement with FTX around these matters would be that of the crypto broadly speaking that the estate has, it would need to sell effectively an additional 445 million in volume to cash holdbacks to potentially deal with FTX-related clawback issues. To the extent the estate succeeds on that basis, those funds then would be subsequently distributed on a cash basis and we could discuss if there was a new accounting ability to do that. But I think the operating plan would be that it would be a cash -- future cash distribution to creditors of that value. So you should think of it as that mid-40s under any scenario is likely what's going to be distributed up front. Again, dependent on market movement. And then there would be a subsequent cash distribution to the extent the estate wins around those ultimate points.

THE COURT: Thank you. All right. Is there anyone else on the phone who would like to ask questions of Mr. Tichenor?

MS. DIRESTA: Yes, Your Honor. My name is Gina DiResta. I am a pro se creditor. I would like to speak.

THE COURT: Yes. Do you have questions or are you...

MS. DIRESTA: Yes, yes. I'm sorry, I'm just pulling up my notes.

prices as well. That mid-40 is now adjusted real time as well leading up to ultimately a distribution. We don't really know what that number is ultimately going to be because the prices used for determining those values will be based on future market prices that we don't have yet. So it could move up, it could move down. It depends on what happens with crypto.

Q Okay. But as of yesterday, whatever it was when we were talking, it was worst-case 44, best case 73?

A Those numbers sound correct. But again, I don't have the exact numbers in front of me.

Q Yeah, that's fine. I'm just trying to understand. I saw the formula and I get how it's calculated. And then I think that's pretty much the questions that I had. Thank you for your time. Thank you, Your Honor, for letting me speak.

THE COURT: Just to make sure -- thanks. Just to make sure everybody who is listening understands Mr. Tichenor, we're not saying that the initial distributions, the first distributions would be 73 percent. There have to be reserves while these issues are discussed so that the first distributions would be more in line with what the minimums are that we've been talking about, right?

THE WITNESS: That's absolutely correct, Your Honor. And so the way that it would work under the plan is

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

Q So yesterday when the BRG gentleman was the witness, I had asked him some questions and he said something different from this witness today. I am a creditor who does not want to open a Binance account and I just want to get cashed out. And I also don't want my KYC or any other kind of information to go to Binance. But unfortunately, yesterday it was said that I don't have a choice in that, that all of my information is going to go to Binance anyway.

But then I had asked if I'm getting cashed out, does that mean that I am just -- that -- will my assets get transferred to Binance and then Binance cashes it out and then gives it back to Voyager and then Voyager cuts me a check?

And the BRG gentleman said that my assets would stay at Voyager and then Voyager would cash me out and then I would get a check that way. But then today when you were being asked a question, you said the opposite. You said that my assets would get transferred to Binance nonetheless and then they would cash out my assets and I'm assuming then give it back to Voyager and then they cut me a check, which just seems so time-consuming and ridiculous. I just don't understand why I can't just keep my private information, all of my KYC, my banking information, my driver's license picture, all that stuff. I don't see why that has to be transferred to Binance. I don't see why my assets have to

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

Page 154

1 be transferred to Binance if I just want to get cashed out
2 and I want absolutely nothing to do with Binance.

3 A I appreciate the concern. The terms that we negotiated
4 in the APA with Binance were ultimately that they deeply
5 cared about the ability to potentially market to customers
6 is the primary consideration from their perspective. There
7 were a number of items within the APA that were hard fought.
8 There is no situation ever from an M&A negotiation
9 perspective where you get everything that you want. So
10 there were tradeoffs that were made. And so under the 11 proposal and terms of service that Voyager has, it has an 12 ability to sell customer information. That was critically 13 important we understood from a value perspective for 14 Binance. Do I wish we could potentially have something 15 different? Of course. But this was the deal that we 16 ultimately negotiated and agreed on with them that provides 17 for both of those elements. The estate has the ability to 18 sell the information under the terms of service. It was 19 something that they were seeking, and that was the deal that 20 ultimately -- you know, we felt like this was a value-
21 maximizing potential alternative that would provide for 22 enhanced recoveries. And those were some of the tradeoffs
23 that we had to make.

24 Q So then for me, what is the process since, like I said,
25 everything is going to Binance whether I want it to or not.

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions

Page 156

1 you would have been a Binance.US customer prior to any of 2 the funds being transferred to Binance.US associated with 3 your account.

4 To the extent you choose not to and you don't want to 5 migrate, you don't open an account, the crypto associated 6 with that does not leave Voyager for that three-month
7 period. Voyager will continue to hold that crypto on fire
8 blocks in its other third-party services or exchanges to the 9 extent that's the case. It will not migrate to Binance.
10 And at the end of the three-month period for those parties
11 that are in supported jurisdictions under the existing APA
12 or proposed plan, the way that that would work is that user
13 base's crypto would then transfer to Binance and would be -- 14 Binance would ultimately sell that crypto on behalf of the 15 Debtor effectively and then transfer back the cash proceeds
16 associated with it.

17 And then Voyager would ultimately cut checks. I can't 18 speak to the party that would be acting in that regard. I
19 just don't know.

20 Q Okay. Got it. So my next question. So on March 1st 21 the U.S. Senate Office, they issued a letter addressed to 22 both Binance and Binance.US. And I'm just going to read one
23 sentence from that letter. And it says, "Binance now faces
24 investigations into criminal sanctions evasion, money
25 laundering conspiracy, unlicensed money transmission,

212-267-6868

Page 155

1 Do I just sit around for three months and then after the 2 three-month period Binance cashes me out? And then who
3 sends me the check? Or do I have to do anything to express
4 that I want to be cashed out?

5 A On your last point first, maybe I'll address that. I
6 don't know the answer to whether or not you have to do
7 anything to be cashed out or not. I would have to review
8 how that's contemplated under the plan. I imagine that 9 there's a mechanism that wouldn't require you to necessarily 10 do anything. But I do want to be honest, I don't know the 11 answer to that. So I would recommend reviewing the plan. I 12 think there's a customer migration protocol that's been 13 published. So I would look at the Stretto website for 14 additional information on that.

15 With regards to the mechanics of how the crypto
16 transfers would work in the instance that a customer chooses 17 not to migrate. So -- and maybe I'll start with how the 18 migration works for customers that do sign up.

19 So if a customer does sign up, they would go through 20 KYC procedures on Binance.US Upon that customer being 21 validated as a Voyager customer, Voyager at closing or at a 22 period thereafter, at least one week, Binance.US would 23 transfer that user's crypto associated with that account to 24 Binance, who would then distribute that to the customer's
25 account directly. So at that point, you know, inherently

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

Page 157

1 questions about its financial health and increased scrutiny
2 over its intentionally-opaque corporate structure. So
3 within that letter -- so that's -- you know, that's pretty
4 heavy allegations. And in that letter, they asked for a
5 bunch of production of documents with a deadline of March
6 16th, which is just about two weeks away. So let's say
7 March 16th comes and Binance does not provide those 8 documents. How does that affect the Voyager deal?

9 A So the letter was news to use yesterday, too. So after 10 I left the courtroom yesterday, we found out about it last 11 night. Obviously in light of that, there were a number of 12 discussions in the evening as well as this morning.

13 To be clear, we are still digesting that as well. It's 14 new information from our perspective. Look, I think it
15 relates to statements that we had made this morning around -
16 - you know at this point in time, are we ready to move
17 forward with Binance? No. There is still incremental due
18 diligence that would need to be done in order for us
19 ultimately to feel comfortable moving forward on that basis.

20 The plan now, which has the support of 97 percent of 21 the creditors, provides for this backup option, which we 22 think is greatly important. And so ultimately that 23 determination around whether or not we'll move forward with 24 them is likely to be several weeks down the road. I in my 25 personal view don't see a scenario where we likely would be

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

able to close ahead of the 16th. And so would that potentially be a factor and it goes into our decision? Of course it would. But there is additional work that we need to do. We plan on having conversations with them. We had a conversation with them this morning about it. But there is more work to do there. And at this point in time, I'm not in a position to say exactly how that is going to play out at a future point. But I can tell you we're going to do work. I know the other parties that are advisors in this case are going to continue to do work as well. We'll work in consultation with the UCC and ultimately it will be a recommendation and a determination by the Board at that point in time, which is likely to be after the 16th.

Q Okay. And then assuming that -- I heard said earlier that if an order isn't entered into by Monday, which is March 6th, that Binance can pull out of the deal and it triggers the reimbursements. I don't understand what that is. Can you explain that to me?

A I'm not as familiar with the specifics of that. I would have to ask counsel on the exact timing.

THE COURT: Can one of the Debtor's counsel just explain that provision to deal with that question?

MS. OKIKE: Yes. So there is what's known as a milestone in the APA and it requires us to have the order confirming the plan entered and approved by the Court by saying, that that's one of the benefits of the Binance deal, that with the toggle option, there are 25 unsupported tokens. And if Voyager went through the time and effort to make them supported, it would take six to nine months and, you know, cost millions of dollars. And if it was liquidated instead of becoming supported, if it was liquidated, then it's like we're moving about $60 million, about $100 million loss that you were talking about earlier with the toggle option.

But instead of cashing it out, if Binance is offering to help with the toggle option and they have the ability to deal with the unsupported coins, couldn't they then just help out with that portion?

A So that's not something that we have specifically discussed with them. So I would have to ask around their willingness or desire to do something like that. Additionally, candidly, I think we'd have to do some additional work on our side to understand what the financial implications and operational logistics of that kind of construct would ultimately look like. The plan construct that we put forward was relating to either we feel comfortable with Binance as a counterparty and we would potentially pursue a deal with them in the context of that being a value-maximizing solution or we don't. To the extent that we don't, to me it would on the surface feel

March 6th. To clarify one of my prior statements, taking a look at it over the break, it's unclear whether that actually -- the failure of the entry of an order by that date would trigger the expense reimbursement. There is a requirement under the APA to have that order entered by Monday.

MS. DIRESTA: And can you explain to me what it means by expense reimbursements?

MS. OKIKE: Yes. So there is a provision in the APA which was approved when we got authority to enter into the APA which provides for reimbursement of Binance's expenses up to $5 million in certain circumstances where the APA is terminated.

MS. DIRESTA: Okay. Thank you.

BY MS. DIRESTA:

Q So now back to Mr. Tichenor. Earlier I think I heard you correctly, so correct me if I'm wrong. But it seemed like you said when the topic was about the toggle plan, it seemed like you said Binance offered their services to help with the Toggle plan. Is that correct?

A They have agreed to offer services to assist in the toggle plan. That's correct.

Q Okay. So if that's the case, then instead of -- if we do the Binance deal, then all of the coins and tokens are -- can be transferred, right? That's what everyone keeps potentially a little unfair to those customers to say, well, for those 35 unsupported coins, we're uncomfortable moving forward with that counterparty to do the X, Y, and Z factors for everybody else. But for you, you have to. You know, that to me also feels like an unfair tradeoff or unfair treatment potentially of those customers relative to everybody. To me, it's more of probably a binary decision. Either there's enhanced recoveries or there are not enhanced recoveries.

Q Okay. I understand your point. But is it something that you guys would look into? And not even just Binance. Because, you know, there might be other exchanges out there who would support those 35 unsupported coins. Would you at least look into that option as well?

A I can take this back and have a discussion internally around that. I would have to --

Q Okay. Okay, great. Thank you. Okay. Give me a second as I go through my notes here.

During your due diligence with Binance, did you guys -- did Binance provide documentation showing both assets and liabilities?

A So we reviewed the -- excuse me?

Q I didn't say anything.

A Okay. Apologies. I thought I heard something. So during our due diligence with Binance, we reviewed the

Page 162

1 audited and unaudited financial statements which would
 2 include both their assets and their liabilities from a BAM
 3 Trading Services perspective. One thing to note is because 4 of the way that they treat their customer crypto, for 5 example, for audited financial statements, the way that it
 6 works is that to the extent that you view something as a
 7 custody relationship let's say, to the extent that you don't 8 view yourself as having ownership rights over underlying 9 crypto as an example, right? The audit standards would say
 10 that that is not property of that business and so therefore 11 those assets don't get consolidated in. That said, they are 12 disclosed via footnotes. And so to the extent the question
 13 relates really to one element from a reserve perspective on 14 crypto, that's not something that would be disclosed as a
 15 separate set of information, audited financial statements.
 16 And I'm not aware of the standards requiring that. But we 17 did review the assets and liabilities of the business as
 18 (indiscernible).

19 Q Okay. My next question is earlier in this hearing, the 20 SEC was asking a bunch of questions. And the first line of 21 questions was about the due diligence that you guys did with 22 the crypto security protocols and all the different meetings
 23 that you guys had, the wallets and the transfers and all 24 that stuff. And when he was asking who all was part of the 25 meeting, you said that people at Moelis and some of the

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

Page 164

1 businesses and plans to operate and be able to compare that 2 and say, look, is this standard? Do they feel like they 3 have more (indiscernible) or less (indiscernible), right?
 4 There's dynamics there too that we wanted to make sure we
 5 were also independently checking and verifying beyond
 6 discussion with management and the consortium of 7 professionals involved in this situation.

8 Q Okay. Because during the SEC's lines of questioning,
 9 it seemed like they were trying to determine if you guys
 10 basically had had any crypto experts that was able to verify
 11 all of the information that Binance was giving you.

12 Because, you know, he was asking questions like, you know,
 13 what is this certificate versus that certificate and how do
 14 you know that, you know, it's good and that kind of stuff.
 15 And he was kind of asking kind of the same stuff I'm 16 wondering too. If you guys had crypto experts, and you said
 17 you guys didn't hire any crypto experts. So I'm just 18 wondering, like, who really reviewed all of the 19 cryptosecurity protocols if you guys didn't hire any 20 experts. And let's say the chief technology officer of 21 Voyager was not a part of the meetings and stuff like that.

22 A So it's a good question. What I would say is we -- and 23 to be clear too, we did this work as an investment bank and 24 this is generally well outside the scope of things that are 25 covered from a diligence perspective that we do. But, you

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

Page 163

1 attorneys and other advisors were there. And when he asked
 2 who from Voyager attended, the only name you provided was 3 the CEO's name, Steve Ehrlich. Can you remember any other
 4 employees from Voyager attending those cryptosecurity
 5 protocol meetings?

6 A Well, I want to be clear. I want to make sure from 7 Steve's perspective with regards to attending the meetings.
 8 I would have to go back -- I don't know if he attended the 9 meetings directly. It's not uncommon, right? And from a 10 confidentiality perspective it would not be uncommon for 11 something where a counterparty relating to something with 12 this level of potential concern would want to limit it to a 13 professionalized-only basis. And so oftentimes what that 14 means is that it's limited just to parties that operate in - 15 - and if you're familiar with -- like this is part of our 16 core business, is maintaining confidentiality.

17 And so what I want to be clear on is we had discussions
 18 with the management team around information that we learned
 19 around those discussions. We've had discussions with a 20 number of parties. You know, as I said, the company -- we 21 discussed at the board level, we discussed it with other
 22 professionals. We compared it to how we understand other 23 organizations to work. So it's not like this is just 24 something we're -- you know, we left it at that level. We 25 went out and compared that to how we understand other crypto

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

Page 165

1 know, we sought to try to confirm these elements because it
 2 was important to us from a counterparty due diligence
 3 perspective to be able to say that we were doing the work.
 4 We've continued to have conversations with them around these
 5 elements. There are generally a lot of concerns that people
 6 have around sharing of this type of information too from a
 7 security perspective. And I say this because even to the 8 extent that we did hire let's say a third party firm, it's 9 not clear to me that they -- that the counterparty would 10 have necessarily allowed for a third party to have done an 11 independent code review and on-site forensic diligence
 12 session and, you know, potentially a multi-month process in 13 order to be able to verify all of those elements. That's 14 highly, highly atypical in these types of situations from a
 15 transaction perspective. But in addition to that, it does -
 16 - and we do understand this to be the case -- does create
 17 potential security concerns for them. They do operate a
 18 business on a day-to-day basis, and the more people that you
 19 let under the tent around what those security protocols look
 20 like, the more risk that that potentially presents to them
 21 as an organization. So what we did do and sought to do is 22 also seek sworn assurances around these elements from 23 executives at the company where we at least would be able to 24 rely on that as an enhanced level relative to even just 25 statements that they're making on calls or Zoom, or even

1 based on documents that they may have received. It's just a
2 heightened standard. And so that was something that was 3 also very, very important from our perspective to be able to 4 get.

5 THE COURT: Just to interrupt you for a second.
6 The ISO and SOC 2 documents that you had described, those 7 are not Binance people telling you things. Those are 8 outside people reviewing what Binance does and telling you
9 that it complies with certain standards, right?

10 THE WITNESS: That is correct, yes. For the SOC 2
11 and the ISO statements, that's correct.

12 THE COURT: And Binance paid those people to do
13 those reviews, but those reviews were provided to you.

14 THE WITNESS: And they were provided to us by 15 Binance. So...

16 THE COURT: Yeah.

17 THE WITNESS: Yeah.

18 THE COURT: But the reviews themselves are by 19 other people certifying that they've looked at it and it
20 complies with whatever the standards are that 21 (indiscernible) described.

22 THE WITNESS: With standards and -- like, I think 23 beyond those, I haven't received the report, but we've been 24 told that they also comply with PCI, DSS standards, which 25 relate to requirements under credit card transfers and

1 equates to one percent of recovery for the creditors. So
2 with the toggle option, you said we would leave about $100
3 million. So that equals about five percent recovery lost.
4 Is that correct considering what the BRG value confirmed
5 with the math?

6 A That's correct.

7 Q So yesterday the percentage that was given was as of 8 February 27th, the recovery would be 73 percent if the 9 Alameda loan -- I'm sorry, Alameda clawback does not go
10 through. If the Alameda clawback does go through, then that 11 73 percent gets reduced to 38 percent. So assuming the 12 clawback does not go through with the 73 percent, we would 13 lose five percent with the toggle option, making it about 68
14 percent as of the date of yesterday if we did the toggle
15 option approximately, right?

16 A So based on those numbers, my recollection is it's a
17 five to six percent differential between the two. So 18 between the plan option with Binance relative to a self-
19 liquidation of recoveries.

20 Q Okay. Give me one second.

21 A And to your point yesterday, it's beginning to think of 22 the recoveries associated with Alameda as either succeeding 23 or not succeeding. So it's a parallel shift depending on 24 ultimately what happens.

25 Q Okay. So jumping to my last question. I don't really

Page 167

1 what's needed. So I mentioned those two because those are
2 the two reports that we received. But I am --

3 THE COURT: Okay.

4 THE WITNESS: I've at least been told that there
5 are additional standards above and beyond that.

6 THE COURT: Very Good. Sorry to interrupt your 7 questions. I just -- sometimes I have to interrupt or I'll 8 never remember all my own questions at the end. Please 9 proceed.

10 BY MS. DIRESTA:

11 Q Did you have anything else to add, Mr. Tichenor?

12 A I don't believe so on those points. Hopefully I
13 answered your questions.

14 Q Okay. Okay. And then earlier someone was asking how 15 much you guys were going to get. So I believe you confirmed
16 that if you guys make a sale, you would get $12 million.
17 But if it's the toggle option, you guys get the $11 million.
18 Is that correct?

19 A That is correct.

20 Q What do you guys get if it's a Chapter 7 liquidation?

21 A I would need to go through. I believe it's still 22 covered under -- I don't know the answer. I would have to 23 go back through our engagement letter.

24 Q Okay. Yesterday the BRG witness confirmed for me that 25 for every $20 million in recovery, it pretty much only

1 want to spend a lot of time on, you know, asking you too
2 many questions about the past. But I know that I and 3 several creditors are curious, did you guys entertain bids -
4 - because it seemed like you guys attempted to entertain
5 bids that were heavy cash up front bids versus long-term
6 plans even if they weren't heavy cash upfront. But in say a 7 year or two, in the long term, the creditors would be able 8 to recover like a hundred percent of their assets because 9 the company let's say providing the long-term plan, you
10 know, maybe they're getting, like, 60 percent of our assets
11 now, but then they provide incentives to stay on the 12 platform because they're actually saving the Voyager app
13 versus killing it, they're actually saving VGX versus it
14 dying off. It's saving all of these things. And then they 15 have all these upsides so that in say a year or two, we 16 would have made whole. Did you guys, one, have those kinds
17 of bids, and two, did you seriously entertain them?

18 A We had a range of different types of proposals. We did
19 receive certain proposals including, for example, equity
20 components to them. But I want to be clear, with proposals
21 that also included equity components, it wasn't like in that 22 instance the parties were getting a hundred percent of the 23 equity in that business. Right? And I think that's 24 something that sometimes may be missed.

25 And so the short answer is yes, we did entertain

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

proposals like that. We evaluated them. We evaluated a number of different types and forms of proposals. We had some with earnouts, we had some with up-front cash considerations. We had some with trading credits. You know, every form and flavor.

And so one of the things that we did -- and again, in agreement and in consultation also with the UCC and their advisors around this is, you know, sought to evaluate and compare those. And one of the things that doesn't always necessarily come up is as we were evaluating those, we were also factoring in dynamics of counterparty risk and feasibility as well. You know, if you're establishing a new newco, for example and we were to transfer all the assets over there, we wouldn't want to be in a situation where that business wasn't appropriately capitalized, right? And so one of the things relating to that is that, well, people may think I would have an ability to, for example, participate in potential upside of the platform, you know, we also evaluated what does that platform look like, what are the business lines associated with that, do you think that that would be compliant from a regulatory perspective in light of what's going on with the underlying industry. What is their business plan associated with it? We didn't want to do a transaction with a party we didn't think necessarily had fully fleshed out and thought through all of the really

Q Okay. And earlier when you were answering a question regarding backup bids, was I correct in hearing that you said that there weren't any other companies -- so we determined that Binance was the second-highest bid, but they did not want to be considered a backup bidder. But say the third-highest bidder and so on, were they asked to be a backup bidder and they also refused?

A That's correct.

Q I was trying to understand how you were answering that question.

A You are correct. And there were extensive negotiations around these exact points at the auction. This is one why we had an 11-day auction in part because of these exact types of dynamics. But that's correct. There was no party that was willing to be a backup bidder.

Q Okay. So you did ask, and they all refused is what you're saying.

A Yes, correct. And I want to be clear on the Binance one, there was a contingency that would not have qualified them to be a backup bidder. So you had a backup bidder proposal, but it would require the estate paying an expense associated with that that was not approved under bid order and is highly, highly atypical. And so it was not accepted as a backup bid at that point.

Q Yeah. And I guess --

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

critical dynamics of overhead, staffing, employees. There's a lot of factors, right? Do they have an exchange that they operate, do they not?

And so we took all of that, we evaluated it. We sought to place value on equity components, for example, in valuating bids. You know, the firm, we have a structure around what that looks like. But these are things that we thought through. They were key considerations. There were very long debates and discussions around it. And ultimately the plan that we put forward was one that was focused on what we thought was a value-maximizing proposal that provided the best outcome for people that also didn't take money out of their pockets either, right? And that's what I was getting at with the capitalization element, is to the extent that let's say we have a billion of crypto, we needed to hold back, I don't know, $150 million in order to capitalize that entity, that's money that you don't receive today. Right? And you would get in the equity and hopefully that succeeds. But there's always a risk that it doesn't. And so these were all things that we thought long and hard and had very extensive debates with our board about, we had very extensive debates with the advisors about.

So to answer your question in a longwinded way, we were not dismissive of anything that came forward.

212-267-6868

A that was the only one that was --

Q Okay, now you confused me by saying that's the only one that was available.

A Well, to the extent that --

Q I thought we just --

A So to the extent that the Debtor would have tried to have accepted that backup bid or plan, there would have been additional proceedings relating to trying to pay an expense reimbursement, for example, that was not approved. And as I said, it is highly, highly atypical to that type of a feature. So at that point in time based on the facts and circumstances, we didn't seek to try and move forward on that basis.

Q Oh, okay. I think I understand what you're saying.

What you're saying is let's just say five, we asked five of the bidders do you want to be a backup bidder. All of them said no except for Binance. Binance said yes, but only contingent upon if you pay us to be a backup bidder. And you guys are like no, we don't want to do that. And so that's why they were not chosen to be a backup bidder. Is that correct, how I understand --

A That is a fair characterization, yes.

Q Okay.

A And the number of parties is a little off, but yes, that's a fair characterization.

Q Yeah. I just threw an easy number out there. Okay. I'm just looking at my notes real quick to make sure I got all my questions. I think I do. Okay, yes. Thank you. I'm done.

THE COURT: Thank you very much. Is there anybody else on the phone who desires to cross-examine the witness?

All right. Did the Committee have questions --

MR. JONES: Yes. Seth Jones.

THE COURT: I'm sorry, who is that?

MR. JONES: Seth Jones. I have a few questions.

THE COURT: All right. Go ahead, Mr. Jones.

BY MR. JONES:

Q So you negotiated a $12 million contract with Voyager. What value did you expect to bring back to the estate in the bankruptcy process?

A I'm sorry, could you repeat that? I wasn't able to hear this voice.

Q When you negotiated a $12 million contract with Voyager, what value did you expect to bring back to the estate in this bankruptcy process?

A We negotiated what we viewed was an arms length fee. I know that there were also discussions with the UCC around that. We looked at comparable situations.

You know, I think one thing to remember here too, right, is that there's upfront consideration and there's

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

obviously things changed and there was a lot that evolved over the course of this case. Would I have, in hindsight looking back in June, expected that in the interim, FTX was the second-largest exchange and an individual would get in front of congress and testify to the nature of the business to collapse? No. But, you know, we sought to maximize value throughout. And again, I think the foregone value in a lot of ways is also what we think is a really important element to the plan. It's been a very key consideration from our perspective.

Q (indiscernible) granted permission to start rebalancing the coin from January 10th. One of the professionals I believe was BRG during the first APA disclosure hearing. But they estimated it would cost $30 million in slippage fees and one month to rebalance the portfolio. And they said they planned on starting in early February. Why has this process not started right away to start breaking down the liquid assets into smaller blocks and not disrupt the markets?

A So we have sought to not disrupt the market. We wanted to make sure that we were fully coordinated with the UCC on what the options were going to be for purposes of rebalancing. We engaged with various market makers, we solicited a number of different proposals. We compared those. We have obligations even under the APA relating to

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

also value in other forms. Right? And so when we think of the value pot, we understand that there is a view around the upfront consideration from the purchase price perspective being, you know, in this case $20 million. But there's -- it's not really a $20 million purchase. And I think the way that we have always viewed this is that it's a billion-point-zero-two-two -- it's 1.022 billion from a consideration perspective because we have to figure out what to do with the crypto and we have to figure out how to operate the business and we have to figure out how to maximize value. And so we ran a gauntlet of different scenarios and processes and ran everything down in order to try and make sure that we were maximizing value.

Because for example, you know, you could see a situation where somebody would say, well, why don't I just do a block trade on the crypto portfolio and run it like a Chapter 7 liquidating trustee would. Well, you know, we had discussions with market makers who actually literally participated in some of the U.S. Marshal auctions relating to liquidations of crypto portfolios that they received in connection with seized assets, for example, like Silk Road. And they gave us views on where the discounts were that they participated in those deals. And so we ran down everything and tried to run down various structures, various proposals.

Obviously I think in light of what happened with FTX,

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

(indiscernible) that Binance had negotiated for in connection with some of those transactions.

And to be clear, the fees that are being paid from a commission perspective are in our minds likely to be very, very low here. And I say that in the sense that based on the way that we are doing the rebalancing, based on the way that the trades are occurring, you know, they are likely to be in the very, very, very low single digits from a commission --

Q So single digits? This slippage is not going to be $30 million?

A If we have to pivot to, for example, a toggle plan, they could be more based on the liquidation of the alternative -- or the unsupported coins to the extent they need to be done in block trades. The strategy that the Debtor is pursuing right now is one that we believe would reduce the level of commissions and would optimize around the outcome to try to limit any movements that the transactions would ultimately have on the market itself.

Q So is that inaccurate, the $30 million?

A Excuse me?

Q Is it -- was the number -- is the $30 million inaccurate?

A So I think the $30 million was initially for and may have been a bit of a misrepresentation. I think that that

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

Page 178

1 was meant to not be necessarily commissions. It was meant
 2 to include other elements --
 3 Q Slippage fees.
 4 A Excuse me?
 5 Q I said slippage fees.
 6 A Yeah, that's right. And slippage is different than 7 commissions though.
 8 Q Slippage fee for illiquid coin. (indiscernible). No,
 9 it's not including commission. (indiscernible) my slippage
 10 fees (indiscernible) illiquid assets.
 11 A Yes. And slippage though is different than commission,
 12 right? And so when I talk --
 13 Q Yeah, absolutely.
 14 A Yeah. And so when -- you know, I believe the numbers
 15 that were reported yesterday had been based on just the 16 market prices in all crypto to the extent that effectively
 17 let's say the rebalancing has already occurred, right? It
 18 hasn't fully completed yet, but there's still -- 19 Q Yeah. I'm not talking about the (indiscernible). I'm 20 talking about how much will it cost in slippage fees. Is it
 21 $30 million?
 22 A Well, we don't know what the slippage is ultimately 23 going to be. It's a bit of a -- the one difficulty with 24 slippage is that it's kind of a counterfactual, right, in 25 the sense that there's no way to measure the impact of just

212-267-6868

Page 180

1 which is, what $580 million, that those 35 coins will be
 2 paid out in pro rata, the difference.
 3 A I'm sorry, do you mind repeating that?
 4 Q (indiscernible).
 5 A I just couldn't hear you. Do you mind repeating that?
 6 Q You talked about the 135 million in the 35 unsupported
 7 coins. Is that number before or after you have to liquidate
 8 the $445 million FTX holdback and the $135 million winddown
 9 that has to be liquidated to U.S. dollars?
 10 A Yeah, I think I understand your question. I don't know
 11 the answer to that. I would have to check the exact
 12 figures. I understand the nature of your question. I don't 13 know the specific answer.
 14 Q So it could be a lot less to liquidate you're saying
 15 (indiscernible).
 16 A I don't -- look, I don't believe so, but I don't know
 17 the answer. I would have to check.
 18 Q You talked about maximizing value. Why have the 19 partners been forced into a high stakes casino in this 20 volatile market instead of giving their assets back
 21 immediately? Waiting nine months. Creditors have lost the 22 right to appreciation of a specific asset they originally 23 invested in.
 24 A So I think --
 25 Q I believe it was a lie (indiscernible) was willing to

Page 179

1 slippage in the sales of any individual token relative to
 2 broader price movements in the underlying market. And so
 3 what we try to do is by doing the transactions over a
 4 prolonged period of time and being very careful and managed
 5 in how much individual trades are occurring in given day and 6 any given token, in any given market at any given exchange
 7 is to make sure that by doing it over such a long period,
 8 our view is that it is likely to inherently limit any 9 ability of individual trades to likely have an impact. But 10 it's an unknown. It's --
 11 Q So one month was inaccurate too. Are you saying?
 12 A No, I'm not saying that it's an inaccurate statement.
 13 I am saying that it's an estimate, and there continue to be 14 estimates around figures relating to unknowns based on where 15 the market is moving. Just like the recovery is an 16 estimate. We do not know ultimately what the value would be 17 of the portfolio at the time that the rebalancing finishes.
 18 The percentage recoveries are still going to move. They're 19 going to move based on --
 20 Q Absolutely.
 21 A -- (indiscernible) that we know happened last night.
 22 Q Absolutely. All right. You talk about $135 million in 23 the 35 unsupported coins. Is that number before or after 24 the 445 million holdback in FTX and the $135 million
 25 winddown trust that has to be liquidated into U.S. dollars,

1 help you out with that.
 2 A Sorry, are you talking about in July or at the FTX
 3 proposal?
 4 Q Yeah, or any time. Yeah.
 5 A Well, I think in hindsight we're pretty happy that we
 6 didn't go forward with FTX in July.
 7 Q Well, absolutely. But that's not decision-making
 8 correctly, obviously.
 9 A At the time --
 10 Q You want to talk about hindsight, what about the 11 Binance deal? Are we going to be saying the same thing in 12 the future?
 13 MR. SLADE: Your Honor, object. We're getting 14 speeches, not questions.
 15 THE COURT: I'm sorry, Mr. Jones. I'm not sure
 16 what your question is.
 17 MR. JONES: He wants to talk about hindsight
 18 saying thank god we didn't (indiscernible) the FTX deal or 19 didn't (indiscernible). But now he wants to talk about 20 Binance is okay. Are we going to be saying the same thing
 21 in the future?
 22 THE COURT: Well, okay. I can sense from your 23 tone and from your question that you have your own point of 24 view of that situation. But remember, please, what we're 25 doing right now is we're taking evidence. We're asking questions of the witness about the proposals that are in front of us. So let's try to focus on that. Okay? Do you have another question for this witness?

MR. JONES: No, that's it for now. I appreciate it, Judge. Thank you.

MS. TREVINO: I have a question.

THE COURT: All right. Who is this? I'm sorry?

MS. TREVINO: My name is Lisa Trevino. I am pro se. I have a few questions, please.

THE COURT: Yes, please. Go ahead.

BY MS. TREVINO:

Q Mr. Tichenor, I just have a few questions for you, please. And then maybe one follow-up depending on your answer.

What happens if the part two of the claims that we received from Stretto, the email, the claims email, what happens if the part two of the claims amount are found to be inaccurate in any way? How would those affect recovery rates?

A I don't know exactly what the part two claims are.

Q Okay. So just to clarify, the Judge, before this hearing that started yesterday, the last hearing, he discussed that specifically. I asked the Judge this and he said part one is for voting and part two is --

THE COURT: Oh, I think I know what you mean. You

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

example, we are aware of the mid-20 percent numbers that are being quoted relative to where we are now in light of -- you know, to the extent that the Alameda claims end up being valid. And so I think that's probably the biggest one. But in truth, I don't entirely know. But in some instances, I would say probably time is going to be the biggest one. So, for example, to the extent that we continue to perform due diligence moving forward, end up selecting to move to a toggle, and it's several weeks from now. And then if operationally things weren't in place to be able to properly execute it, it may result in a delay. But that to me is probably the biggest one if I were to think of (indiscernible) outside the crypto portfolio value. But, look, it's tough to know. It's an unknown, right?

Q Okay. My second question would go to Mr. Tichenor.

What is your opinion specifically, like we asked the other witnesses yesterday, your own opinion of the 445 million clawback (indiscernible), do you feel that this is a right and just situation?

MR. SLADE: Your Honor, I would object.

THE COURT: Yeah. First of all, that's a legal question. Second, I'm not sure that it's in anybody's interest to ask the Debtors officially in sworn testimony whether they think their litigation adversary is going to win or lose. They probably will want to continue to put

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

mean the objections to the substance of the claims. Yeah. The percentage results are based on the Debtor's estimates of where that will turn out. If the allowed claims are higher than the Debtor estimates, then the recovery percentages will go down. But that will be true proportionally no matter what we do. Right? Because it will just be -- the allowed claims will be the same as they would be in Chapter 7 as they would be under a toggle plan, as they would be under a Binance proposal.

MS. TREVINO: Okay. So I guess the follow-up question to that, Your Honor, would be are there any other situations or any other than what has been discussed over the past two days that would affect the recovery rates that we have not heard?

BY MS. TREVINO:

A That's a good question. There are factors potentially from timing perspectives. I mean, it's always very difficult to know exactly what's going to happen in the future. I think we tried to outline the key elements. And I think probably the biggest one is just volatility in cryptocurrency prices. Effectively the estate (indiscernible) a very large pool of cryptocurrency. We are seeking to distribute that obviously in kind and do the rebalancing trades in connection with that. But it creates volatility in recoveries and it's a large part of why, for forward the strongest defense that they can without being put to that kind of testimony under oath any more than Alameda would want to testify as to what it thinks its risks are. So I think I'll have to sustain the objection to that question. I hope you understand why.

MS. TREVINO: I do. Thank you very much, Your Honor.

THE COURT: All right.

MS. TREVINO: That's all for now from me.

MS. RYAN: Your Honor, I may. This is Ms. Ryan from the State of Texas. I have one question that I just thought of.

THE COURT: I think you -- I think you had your chance. But does anybody object to Ms. Ryan asking another question?

MR. SLADE: If it's just one, it's okay, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. You've got permission to do just one, so choose it carefully.

MS. RYAN: Thank you. I will.

BY MS. RYAN:

Q Mr. Tichenor, in doing due diligence into Binance, did you come across any company agreement between Binance.US and Binance.com that could affect Binance.US's performance?

A And by performance -- so I just want to make sure I

1 understand the question. We reviewed the agreements between 2 them that we were of the commercial agreements in nature.
3 You know, I can always think of hypotheticals that could 4 impact things. But we did review the nature of those 5 agreements and the ability, for example, of -- and we asked
6 this question very point blank, the ability of Binance.US to 7 continue to operate as a standalone business to the extent
8 that Binance.com didn't exist.

9 Q Thank you. That was all.

10 THE COURT: Okay. Anybody else on the phone who 11 has questions for Mr. Tichenor? All right.

12 Does the Committee counsel have questions?

13 MR. EVANS: Yes, Your Honor. This is Joseph Evans
14 from McDermott Emery on behalf of the committee of unsecured
15 creditors.

16 BY MR. EVANS:

17 Q Good afternoon, Mr. Tichenor.

18 A Good afternoon.

19 Q There's been a lot of discussion today about whether 20 the Binance deal closes. Do you recall that?

21 A I do.

22 Q And you referred to something called a fiduciary out.

23 A I hope I did.

24 Q What's a fiduciary out?

25 A So a fiduciary out is that as structure of the APA, we

1 judgement of the Debtor to make that kind of determination.

2 Q Okay. And are you familiar with the amended APA?

3 A I am.

4 Q Okay. You don't recall what 8.1(g) says I'm sure.

5 A I don't recall specifically 8.1(g).

6 Q Do you happen to have it in front of you? I have a
7 copy here.

8 A Is it Exhibit 9?

9 MR. EVANS: Your Honor, to refresh the witness's
10 recollection, I would like a copy of the amended APA. It's 11 Document Number 835.

12 THE COURT: Go right ahead.

13 MR. SLADE: It's Exhibit 9.

14 BY MR. EVANS:

15 A Which specific provision?

16 Q This is the second blue tab. It is 8.1(g).

17 A 8.1(g). Yeah.

18 Q So if you turn to the page right before it, which is 19 Page 63 of the contract. Article 8 is labeled Termination.
20 Do you see that?

21 A Yes.

22 Q Okay. And it says this agreement may be terminated
23 only in accordance with this Section 8.1 Do you see that?

24 A I do.

25 Q Turn to the next page, subsection G. It states, "By

1 have an agreement to move forward with Binance.US to 2 consummate a transaction. A fiduciary out allows for the 3 Debtor, to the extent that there is a proposal, even in the 4 interim prior to any closing, to evaluate and potentially 5 move forward with that party to the extent that that 6 transaction is viewed as being higher or otherwise better
7 than the existing Binance.US deal.

8 So up until the point where the transaction closes, you
9 could theoretically still move forward with a different
10 alternative?

11 Q Suppose there wasn't another alternative. But suppose 12 you found out something bad about Binance that made the 13 Debtors uncomfortable with the deal. Is there a method by 14 which the Debtors could not close the deal?

15 A We would exercise the fiduciary out and pivot to the 16 self-liquidating toggle at that point because on that basis,
17 the Debtor would argue that on a risk-adjusted basis, that 18 transaction would be higher or otherwise better than the 19 Binance.US transaction.

20 Q Only if whatever was found out about Binance rose to 21 the level that the professionals and the Debtors believed it
22 was in their fiduciary capacity to not go forward with the 23 deal. Is that right?

24 A I believe we have quite a bit of flexibility around
25 ultimately what that would look like and the business

1 written notice from seller to purchaser, which may be
2 revocable in the sole discretion of seller by written notice
3 of seller to purchaser within five business days of seller
4 or the board of directors or similar governing body of 5 seller determine in good faith and after consultation with 6 legal and other advisors that proceeding with the 7 transactions or failing to terminate this agreement will be
8 inconsistent with its or such persons or body's fiduciary
9 duties. Do you see that?

10 A I do.

11 Q And is that the fiduciary out that you were 12 referencing?

13 A That is.

14 Q Okay. You can put it down for now. There was a lot of 15 discussion today about the diligence that Moelis and other
16 professionals performed on Binance.US. Isn't that right?

17 A There has been a little bit, yeah.

18 Q And there was also some discussions about 19 representations made by Binance.US to you and the other
20 professionals. Isn't that right?

21 A That's correct.

22 Q And you did other due diligence, but in part you relied 23 on some of those representations, didn't you?

24 A Absolutely.

25 Q Okay. One of those representations was that Binance.US

Page 190

1 holds the digital assets deposited by its customers on
 2 Binance.US's platform solely in a custodial capacity and on 3 a one-to-one reserve basis. Do you remember that?
 4 A I do.
 5 Q What's a one-to-one reserve basis?
 6 A So a one-to-one reserve basis is that to the extent
 7 that have one bitcoin due to a customer, they had one
 8 bitcoin that was held in custody on the platform. So 9 effectively you could never have a quote, unquote, run on 10 the bank because effectively all that would happen is people
 11 would just withdraw the crypto. It would be very similar to 12 if a bank only had cash and the parties were seeking to 13 withdraw all the cash.
 14 Q And so if Binance is stating to you that crypto was not 15 held on the one-to-one reserve basis, would that materially 16 change -- if it was false, would that materially change your 17 opinion on whether this transaction should go forward?
 18 A To the extent it was lower, absolutely. If it were 19 higher and for some reason they chose to overcapitalize
 20 customers' accounts, I'd feel pretty good about that. But 21 to the extent that it was lower, absolutely. It would 22 materially impact our view.
 23 Q And there were some discussions yesterday about, well,
 24 how is Binance.US holding crypto any different than Voyager
 25 did. If you know, did Voyager hold crypto on a one-to-one

1 the Binance platform under their terms of service subject to
 2 their staking provisions. But from the lending perspective,
 3 to be clear, yes, my understanding is they expressly
 4 prohibit that.
 5 Q Okay. There was some discussion today and yesterday
 6 about BAM Trading Service Inc., DBA Binance.US, the Delaware
 7 Corp., versus what's known as Binance Global. Do you
 8 remember that?
 9 A I do.
 10 Q the purchaser is the U.S. entity, BAM Trading Services.
 11 Isn't that right?
 12 A That's correct.
 13 Q When you were evaluating the ability to close the 14 transaction, were you evaluating the finances of BAM Trading 15 Services Inc, or were you evaluating the finances of the 16 overall Binance?
 17 A We were evaluating the finances of BAM Trading Services
 18 Inc., which is a standalone business as we understand it
 19 separate and apart and away from Binance Global, which is a
 20 separate company from our understanding.
 21 Q When you reviewed the audited financial statements and 22 the unaudited financial statements of BAM Trading Services
 23 Inc., those were BAM Trading Services Inc. only, not --
 24 A That's correct.
 25 Q And there was some discussion about the corporate

1 reserve basis?
 2 A Not to my knowledge. Or they rehypothecated it and
 3 that's why we're in the situation that we're in today.
 4 Q Let's talk about that word, rehypothecate, for a
 5 second. What's rehypothecate?
 6 A So rehypothecation is the ability to take collateral
 7 that a party may have posted on a platform. It's very 8 common in the traditional securities sense where if you have 9 a margin account at an equity trading platform,
 10 rehypothecation is the ability to use those funds and to be 11 able to lend them out to somebody that is seeking to borrow
 12 them.
 13 So in the sense of Voyager, as people think about their 14 crypto, it's why all of the crypto is property of the 15 estate, is so that they can rehypothecate it and lend it to 16 other parties.
 17 Q And it's your understanding based on representations
 18 made to you on diligence you performed that Binance.US does 19 not rehypothecate customer crypto. Isn't that right?
 20 A That's correct.
 21 Q And just to be clear, that means Binance.US does not
 22 lend customer crypto to anyone.
 23 A That is my understanding.
 24 Q No lending, no staking, nothing. Right?
 25 A So customers I understand can elect to stake through

1 structure. Is Binance global the sole shareholder of BAM
 2 Trading Services Inc.?
 3 A No. And it is opposite of representations that have 4 been made to us based on our understanding of the 5 organization chart and ownership interests of the business.
 6 Q Let me just make sure -- because the representations I
 7 didn't get. So what you're saying is Binance Global is not
 8 the sole shareholder of BAM Trading Service Inc., right?
 9 A Correct.
 10 Q Okay. But in determining whether BAM Trading Services
 11 Inc. had the financial capability to close, you didn't just 12 take their word for it, right? You looked at information?
 13 A We did. We requested a proof of funds, which is a bank
 14 statement that they provided from their bank. And we even 15 reviewed the nature of the bank to make sure that we felt 16 comfortable with that.
 17 Q So you actually looked at a bank account statement that 18 said we have enough cash to close?
 19 A We did.
 20 Q Who is Changpeng Zhao?
 21 A He is the founder of Binance.com and he is the UBO of 22 both Binance Global as well as Binance.US.
 23 Q Okay. There were some questions about the ability of 24 Binance Global to make decisions concerning the customer
 25 assets held at BAM Trading Services Inc., Binance.US. Do

1 you recall those questions?

2 A I do.

3 Q There was representation made to you, was there not,

4 that only employees of Binance.US., not Binance Global, are

5 able to move or withdraw customer crypto from Binance.US's

6 platform. Do you remember that representation?

7 A I do.

8 Q Now, when they made that representation, you also asked

9 some follow-up questions about this representation, didn't

10 you?

11 A Of course we did.

12 Q And it was over the course of multiple sessions, right?

13 A Many, many sessions.

14 Q And did you ask, for example, does CZ have the power to 15 take customer crypto out of BAM Trading Services Inc?

16 A We did.

17 Q And what was the response?

18 A No.

19 Q Separate from the responses, you've viewed policies,

20 procedures, and protocols? Have you asked questions about

21 how the information security works?

22 A We did.

23 Q Did anything in your view call into question whether CZ

24 had the power to take customer crypto from Binance.US and 25 move it to Binance Global?

1 said. Do you recall that?

2 A I do.

3 Q Okay. So along with the policies and procedures, you

4 also received two security reports from independent third

5 parties. Isn't that right?

6 A That's correct.

7 Q And I just want to clarify the record because there was

8 a question that was asked to you by the SEC, and it was --

9 there was a bunch of questions. But one of the things you

10 said was when you sought to get representations, that was 11 the work that we did. That wasn't all the work that you

12 guys did, right?

13 A No, that's correct. We did more work than just seeking 14 to get representations.

15 Q Okay. Like, for example, you reviewed the security

16 report from December of 2022, isn't that right?

17 A I did.

18 Q And you reviewed another security report from June 1st,

19 2022.

20 A That's correct.

21 Q and those reports were all issued by independent third

22 parties, not Binance. Isn't that right?

23 A That's correct.

24 Q On February 16th, 2023, there was an article issued by

25 Reuters about Binance concerning an entity called Merit

212-267-6868

1 A We were always concerned about the ability of somebody

2 that was associated with Binance Global to be able to remove

3 crypto out or assets from Binance.US.. And it came up in 4 multiple discussions.

5 Q So you were concerned as it was a topic of diligence,

6 correct?

7 A Yes.

8 Q When you do all this diligence and you did these

9 interviews and you reviewed the policies, did you see

10 anything that indicated to you that CZ had the power to take

11 customer crypto out of BAM Trading Services Inc. and move it

12 over to Binance Global?

13 A No. And if anything, what we understand to be the case

14 is that no individual has an ability to move -- no specific

15 individual can move crypto out.

16 Q Okay. There was a couple of questions -- and let me

17 just ask the same question for Binance Global generally

18 based on your review of the policies and procedures, your

19 interviews. Do you have any reason to believe that Binance

20 Global can direct Binance.US to take customer crypto out of 21 Binance.US and send it to Binance Global?

22 A Based on the representations that were made to us, I

23 have no basis to believe that's the case.

24 Q Earlier today, the SEC raised some questions about

25 security protocols and how you know stuff like what you just

1 Peak. Do you remember that media report?

2 A I do.

3 Q And in that media report, there was an allegation that

4 $400 million was withdrawn from a bank account at Binance.US

5 to Merit Peak. Do you remember that?

6 A I do.

7 Q When you saw that article, what did you do?

8 A We immediately reached out to Binance.US to ask them

9 about the nature of the article, to immediately schedule

10 diligence discussions. And I believe the next day we were 11 beginning to have conversations with them about it.

12 Q And it wasn't just Moelis, right?

13 A Not just Moelis, yeah.

14 Q It was Moelis and a variety of other professionals that 15 were asking. Each of them had different questions, right?

16 A That's correct, yeah. I mean, I know for a fact on 17 that specific item, it did involve Moelis, it involved

18 Kirkland, McDermott, FTI, BRG. All of the advisors.

19 Q In connection with I'll call it the Merit Peak

20 diligence, there were a number of meetings with Binance

21 executives, wasn't there?

22 A There have been, yes.

23 Q And document requests?

24 A Yes.

25 Q And ultimately there was an in-person meeting the day

Page 198

1 before the first hearing where two Binance executives went
 2 through all the Merit Peak information. Isn't that right?
 3 A That's my understanding. I wasn't in attendance at the 4 meeting.
 5 Q You didn't attend, but people on your team did attend.
 6 A Correct. There were individuals from Moelis who 7 attended, yes.
 8 Q And in that meeting based on what you know from your 9 team, transaction data was shown to us.
 10 A That's my understanding, yes.
 11 Q And there was analysis done of deposits versus 12 withdrawals. Isn't that right?
 13 A That's my understanding, yes.
 14 Q And there were representations by Binance that 15 everything that they showed us was accurate. Is that right?
 16 A That would be an important one, yes.
 17 Q Okay. And there were three critical representations in 18 my view, but also you have to say. One, Merit Peak --
 19 THE COURT: Counsel, there haven't been any 20 objections, but I think just the form of that question
 21 without going further I am going to have an objection to.
 22 MR. EVANS: Okay. I'll ask this -- withdrawn.
 23 Sorry, Your Honor.
 24 BY MR. EVANS:
 25 Q Did Binance represent that Merit Peak did not withdraw

Page 200

1 onboarded with Binance.US, crypto gets released on a weekly
 2 basis. Isn't that right?
 3 A That's correct. So my understanding is that a customer
 4 would have to be a customer of Binance.US They would have
 5 signed up. They would have done their KYC. At that point
 6 in time, on a weekly basis crypto would be transferred in 7 bulk transactions. And part of that is to also minimize 8 friction costs. We're aware of things like gas fees, for 9 example, that could occur on a one-off basis. And so upon
 10 that customer signing up, they are allocated crypto on a 11 weekly batch, would be transferred over, and then 12 subsequently deposited into their account.
 13 Q Why is that safer for customers than the original deal
 14 that was proposed?
 15 A It's safer for the customers that choose not to migrate
 16 to Binance.US, for example, or who have yet to establish 17 accounts. And so in the context of let's say a bankruptcy
 18 to the extent there was fraud or theft of funds, for 19 example, and there were issues that we were unaware of or 20 unable to diligence, in that instance, the customers would 21 have signed up for the account. We probably have the 22 ability to monitor or we planned to monitor the transactions
 23 as they were coming. But it limits the Debtor as the estate
 24 and their exposure to a counterparty until the point where 25 the sale should have occurred and the transfer should have

1 customer fiat or crypto?
 2 A They did.
 3 Q Did Binance represent that Merit Peak nor any other
 4 market maker had the ability to withdraw customer fiat or 5 crypto from the Binance.US platform?
 6 A They did.
 7 Q Did Binance represent that Merit Peak no longer
 8 conducts any activity at Binance.US?
 9 A They did.
 10 Q There were some questions raised about FTX, the FTX
 11 deal versus Binance. Do you recall those?
 12 A I do.
 13 Q When the Binance deal was getting negotiated, it was 14 substantially different than what it is now, isn't it?
 15 A It evolved over many, many months. Yes.
 16 Q Okay. And in fact at first the deal was all of the 17 customer crypto would go over to Binance.US and they would 18 hold it until the customer was on board with Binance.US and 19 then get released to them. Isn't that right?
 20 A That's correct.
 21 Q Okay. And the committee and other professionals
 22 objected and pushed for a different way to distribute the 23 assets. Isn't that right?
 24 A That's my recollection, yes.
 25 Q And so the plan now is that once customers get

1 occurred and they are a customer of that entity.
 2 Q Is that because customers want to withdraw their crypto
 3 from Binance as quickly as possible, that customer's crypto
 4 is only exposed to Binance for a short period of time?
 5 A In part, yes. Yeah.
 6 Q You became aware of the letter issued by a couple of 7 congresspeople in the United States Senate.
 8 A Three senators, yes.
 9 Q Three senators. That's right. When did you become 10 aware of that?
 11 A Late last night, around 10:00.
 12 Q And you've read it I presume?
 13 A I have.
 14 Q Okay. Would you describe the diligence on this senate
 15 letter as ongoing?
 16 A I would.
 17 Q Did you talk to Binance about the senator letter?
 18 A We spoke this morning with them. Not just Moelis, but 19 all of the professionals in the case.
 20 THE COURT: Does anyone want to put that letter in 21 evidence so that we have some context about what all this 22 testimony is about?
 23 MR. SLADE: Certainly, Your Honor. We would offer
 24 the letter as Exhibit 25.
 25 MR. EVANS: Your Honor, I have a hard copy for you

2 MR. SLADE: Obviously, Your Honor, not for the 3 truth of any of the matters asserted.

4 THE COURT: Obviously not for the truth of what's 5 asserted, but just to put in context what the testimony has 6 been about.

7 MR. BRUH: Your Honor, Mark Bruh for the United
8 States Trustee. Could we just get some clarification? Is 9 this the Committee's witness or is this the Debtor's
10 witness? Because the line of questioning seems a bit
11 leading to us.

12 THE COURT: It's the Debtor's witness.

13 MR. BRUH: Okay.

14 THE COURT: If you have objections to questions, 15 just speak up. Can I see this senate letter that we've 16 introduced?

17 MR. EVANS: Yes, Your Honor. May I approach?

18 THE COURT: Yes.

19 BY MR. EVANS:

20 Q Based on your conversations with Binance this morning,
21 is your understanding that they're willing to provide more
22 diligence concerning this letter?

23 A They have represented that they are willing to continue 24 to engage in diligence relating to allegations in the 25 letter.

1 Q And the tweet said maybe we should pull out. Isn't
2 that right?

3 A That's -- I didn't remember the exact words, but that's 4 my recollection, yes.

5 Q And it was a link to an article about the SEC's
6 argument yesterday at this hearing. Isn't that right?

7 A I believe so. There was a lot happening this morning,
8 and I've been on the stand for quite a while today. So yes,
9 that's my recollection.

10 Q And then there was a call this morning, wasn't there?

11 A Yes. There were several calls this morning.

12 Q And during that call, a text message was read to you,
13 wasn't it?

14 A There was a text message that was read to me by a 15 Binance.US representative around their interests and still 16 moving forward with the transaction. We also had another
17 call with the Binance CEO directly this morning in advance
18 of the hearing relating to the same tweets and making sure
19 that we have assurances from him as well prior to walking
20 into the courtroom today around that interest.

21 Q The text message that was read during the call was from 22 Binance.US's CEO, Brian Shroder, wasn't it?

23 A That's correct.

24 Q And the text message said, "We are not going anywhere.
25 Binance.US is committed to completing this deal." Is that

1 Q Okay. And if they don't have responses that are in 2 your view sufficient concerning these allegations, would
3 that be one of the things that may factor into your decision
4 to say, well, maybe we should execute our fiduciary out?

5 A There were a number of documents that would ultimately
6 determine our ability -- or in the determination to exercise
7 the fiduciary out. There are very serious allegations that 8 are being made in that letter that obviously caused concern
9 from our perspectives that would need to be addressed. And 10 to the extent that we don't feel like they are sufficiently 11 addressed, it would be one of many factors that would go
12 into a determination to assess on a risk-adjusted basis
13 whether or not that is a transaction that is worth pursuing 14 and moving forward with or exercising the toggle, which the 15 plan allows for.

16 Q Along with the United States Senate letter, there was 17 another development this morning, wasn't there?

18 A There was.

19 Q What was that?

20 A CZ, Changpeng Zhao, who is the UBO of both Binance.US
21 as well as Binance Global, sent a tweet this morning as a
22 reply to another tweet relating to the Voyager Binance deal
23 that seemed to have referenced the SEC. It appeared based 24 on that tweet that they may have been pulling out of the 25 deal. And obviously that is extremely concerning.

1 correct?

2 A That's my recollection, yes. And that's consistent
3 with the statements that he then subsequently made to us
4 directly on another conversation involving all of the 5 professionals.

6 Q So there was a text message, then there was a phone
7 call. And during the phone call, Brian said what?

8 A So there were two things. So we had a conversation
9 with individuals at -- an individual, excuse me, at 10 Binance.US who had in the first instance read a -- I think 11 it was either a Slack message or a text message from the 12 CEO. We then subsequently had a conversation directly with 13 the CEO, Brian Shroder, given the fact that we wanted to 14 speak directly about it versus hearsay from one of his 15 employees.

16 Q And when you spoke to Brian Schroder, did he say the 17 same thing, that we are not going anywhere, Binance.US is 18 committed to completing this deal?

19 A He did.

20 Q And was there a request for a sworn statement or 21 appearance or someone from Binance to say something about 22 this statement?

23 A My recollection is yes, there was a lot of discussion
24 this morning, yes.

25 Q Right before this hearing, there was another tweet,

1 wasn't there?

2 A That's my understanding. I was about to get on the 3 stand when it came out.

4 Q Based on your understanding, if you know. You might 5 now know. But if you know. CZ tweets, "We are still in 6 support of the deal and helping returning funds to users as 7 quickly as possible if allowed to do so."

8 A That's my understanding of the tweet.

9 Q So these representations made to you by Binance.US in 10 connection with one-to-one reserve basis asset segregation,
11 the inability of assets to be -- customer assets be moved
12 off the Binance.US platform at the direction of others,
13 statements like they want to go forward with the deal,
14 notwithstanding the CZ tweet. In part you're relying on 15 those in coming to your recommendations about this plan,
16 aren't you?

17 A Those are statements that are important for us for 18 recommending moving forward with the plan. But I do want to 19 be clear as I said at the beginning of my testimony, there
20 is still outstanding diligence. I mean, to be very clear, 21 we would not say that we are in a position to necessarily 22 until we would feel comfortable around the nature of all the 23 diligence and the additional allegations. Are those facts
24 helpful? Of course they are. And the representations that 25 were made to us by them were critical and even signing an

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

1 requested and required that there were additional
2 representations that are uncommon in the context of normal
3 APAs around the nature of the operations and their business,
4 that these are not things that people normally rep to in 5 APAs, but were critically important for us during those 6 discussions.

7 Q So I have a pretty basic question. You have a lot of 8 questions for Binance, still need answers. So do some other 9 professionals. Why do you support the plan with all these 10 ambiguities?

11 A So I support the plan with the ambiguities because it
12 provides us optionality and a path to potentially maximizing
13 value for creditors. We view this as providing two options
14 at this point in time. There's plan A which would be an 15 ability to continue to move forward with the Binance.US
16 transaction at a future date and time based on additional 17 work that still needs to be done. And as we said, the 18 Debtor is not in a position still to be able to close even 19 if it wanted to tomorrow. There's still rebalancing trades
20 that need to occur over a multi-week period. Like,
21 logistically it just will not happen for multiple weeks. So 22 it provides for that option, which we believe provides for 23 potentially higher recoveries, and it also provides for a 24 self-liquidating toggle, which, while a lower recover is 25 obviously an option that the Debtor could control and

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

1 ADA with them in the first instance. So they will be
2 critical factors to the extent that we do choose to move
3 forward with Binance. And again, there is still work to be 4 done. And that decision will not be made for several weeks
5 and would not be made just by Moelis, to be clear.

6 Q Is it fair to say that you still have questions that 7 need answers until you're comfortable supporting --

8 A Absolutely. That said, the plan provides for these 9 options and the plan provides for options, which we think is 10 critically important. And our understanding that it has the 11 resounding support of creditors both on the voting as well
12 as the number of individuals that we understand who have 13 already pre-emptively signed up for Binance.US, and we're 14 going to try and get their distributions, which we view as 15 kind of a quasi vote of support, but...

16 Q Along with the representations made to you either
17 orally, in writing, or during meetings, there are also 18 certain representations that are built directly into the 19 asset purchase agreement, aren't there?

20 A There are.

21 Q Okay. And deciding and evaluating whether the asset
22 purchase agreement is a good idea or a bad idea, those 23 representations are important to you, aren't they?

24 A They are important. And I would say during the 25 negotiation and discussions with Binance around the APA, we

212-267-6868

1 exercise on its own. So it's the ability to have an
2 embedded backup plan in connection with the highest and best
3 offer with an embedded backup plan which is the basis for us
4 feeling comfortable to move forward.

5 Q Let's talk really, really quickly about benefits to 6 customers. You said that the Binance deal gives about $100
7 million more value than the toggle. Isn't that right?
8 Something like that?

9 A That's correct, yeah.

10 Q What are those -- where does that increase come from?

11 THE COURT: We've done this two or three times
12 already. Are you about -- are you trying to elicit some 13 error in the prior testimony?

14 MR. EVANS: No. I'll do it a different way then.

15 BY MR. EVANS:

16 Q You say in your declaration that the sales transaction
17 provides the highest value currently available under the 18 circumstances to the Debtor's creditors.

19 A I believe that's what my declaration says, yes.

20 Q Okay. Based on the numbers, do you still believe that 21 today?

22 A So I believe that based on the numbers, it would provide 23 the highest path. But I would say that absent clearing 24 sufficient diligence to feel comfortable moving forward with 25 that counterparty, that's what we think of as a threshold

1 matter.

2 MR. EVANS: I have nothing further.

3 THE COURT: Okay. The United States Trustee?

4 MR. MORRISSEY: Yes, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Actually, let's just take five
6 minutes. Okay?

7 MR. SLADE: I'm sorry. You guys already
8 questioned the witness.

9 MR. MORRISSEY: Your Honor, I stand for two 10 things. One is I want, without objection of course, the 11 opportunity to ask one question, plus perhaps a couple of 12 follow ups, of the witness. And based on something the 13 witness just said a few minutes ago. And also, I had a 14 question, Your Honor, about the declaration that you asked
15 for just after the break.

16 THE COURT: You have a question for me about the 17 declaration I asked for?

18 MR. MORRISSEY: Well, obviously with inviting
19 comments from others as well. What I wanted to do --

20 THE COURT: During our break, why don't you talk
21 to the Debtor's counsel about the questions you want to ask
22 and see if they object. Because you have already had a
23 chance at the witness. Okay?

24 MR. MORRISSEY: Thank you, Your Honor.

25 (Recess)

1 statements along those lines -- I don't know actually is the
2 answer.

3 Q Thank you.

4 MR. MORRISSEY: Your Honor, that's my only
5 question for the witness.

6 THE COURT: Okay.

7 MR. MORRISSEY: I didn't know if you wanted to 8 take my request or recommendation for the declaration that 9 Your Honor discussed just after the previous break.

10 THE COURT: What is your suggestion?

11 MR. MORRISSEY: Your Honor, as you will recall, 12 you gave a list of statements that should appear in the 13 declaration. And I have a request or recommendation that 14 one be added to it. I discussed it with Mr. Slade.

15 THE COURT: Is the Binance counsel here?

16 MR. SLADE: They are not, Your Honor. I explained
17 to Mr. Morrissey that what they had asked their client for 18 authority to make public was in the existing document that 19 was already a sworn statement. So I'm not sure whether 20 adding it -- what happens.

21 THE COURT: does the existing document cover the 22 five points that I mentioned?

23 MR. SLADE: I believe it does, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: What is the additional point you were 25 going to ask about, Mr. Morrissey?

1 THE COURT: Please be seated. I think the
2 official court rule is that I'm not supposed to have this
3 coffee in the courtroom. So you are ordered not to rat me
4 out.

5 MR. SLADE: Your Honor, I did give Mr. Morrissey
6 at least my permission, if he has yours, to ask his one
7 question.

8 THE COURT: Go ahead, Mr. Morrissey.

9 MR. MORRISSEY: Thank you, Your Honor.

10 BY MR. MORRISSEY:

11 Q Good afternoon, Mr. Tichenor. Richard Morrissey for 12 the U.S. Trustee. As I said before the break, I just have 13 one question for you. You had an exchange with counsel for 14 the committee a little while ago about the back and forth
15 with social media messages about people at Binance
16 threatening to back out and saying no, we're not backing
17 out. Do you recall that?

18 A I do.

19 Q Is it your understanding that Binance Global, or CZ
20 himself, either has the power to decide the fate of this 21 deal at all?

22 A That's a great question. It's one that we asked this 23 morning. I don't think we've actually come to a full 24 conclusion on that at this point in time. Where is the 25 chairman of that entity, I don't know. But I imagine that

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

1 MR. MORRISSEY: Your Honor, it's actually related
2 to one of Your Honor's points. One of Your Honor's points
3 was that crypto could be transferred only as directed by 4 customers.

5 THE COURT: Yeah.

6 MR. MORRISSEY: What I was going to suggest, Your 7 Honor, was a statement as to whether Binance Global has the 8 power to take customer crypto out of Binance, out of 9 Binance.US and transfer it to BAM Trading.

10 MS. OKIKE: That's addressed in the...

11 THE COURT: Isn't that covered by saying nobody
12 outside of Binance.US can access the customer crypto?

13 MR. MORRISSEY: Your Honor, I think that would. I
14 didn't hear -- I guess I didn't hear Your Honor say 15 Binance.US when you said that.

16 THE COURT: Yeah.

17 MR. MORRISSEY: That's fine. And again, as Ms.
18 Okike just said, perhaps that's already in the pre-existing 19 statement. Thank you, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: All right, thank you.

21 Any other questions? I think we've -- yes?

22 MR. SLADE: I have no more questions for the 23 witness, Your Honor. Thank you.

24 MR. GOLDBERG: Your Honor, Adam Goldberg of Latham
25 and Watkins on behalf of Binance.US I do have one question

212-267-6868

for the witness, and I would like to request a chambers conference regarding Your Honor's request for a statement from Binance.US

THE COURT: I'm not inclined to have a chambers conference I don't think without a really special, good reason. There are so many people interested in this proceeding. Is there really nothing we can talk about on the record?

MR. GOLDBERG: As I think Your Honor is aware, this is a sensitive issue. This is a matter that the SEC is actively looking at as we've seen in this proceeding. And I think the SEC would be welcome to join in this chambers conference with other parties or a sidebar conversation. But that would be our request, Your Honor.

THE COURT: But it's not just the SEC, right? Everybody on the telephone is interested in this. The questions you want to raise with me, you can't do that in a public proceeding? I don't understand.

MR. GOLDBERG: We will do so, Your Honor, if that's what's required. We would request it be discussed in confidence.

THE COURT: Yeah, I don't think I can do that. You know, we are in the middle of a court hearing. So I asked for something in public, so I'm not sure -- my proceedings are supposed to be public. Occasionally if

THE COURT: I see.

MR. MALIONEK: Good afternoon, Your Honor. Robert Malioneck of Latham & Watkins, sorry to double team, for Binance.US.

I think because of what counsel for the SEC is raising right now, we had anticipated exactly that and the need for that not to go onto the record. We wanted to be able to talk about what we think is the solution to the question that you asked, Your Honor, which is that there have been references to representations that have been made by Binance.US. We would like for those to be able to -- they've already been put into an officer's certificate. Mr. Tichenor has already talked about the fact that the Debtors and the professionals have relied on it. The UCC has asked questions about it. And we simply want to be able to put that into the record, but we want to be able to discuss that with Your Honor first. And I think the issues that counsel for the SEC want to raise before the SEC raises it as part of the proceedings.

So we would invite them into the chambers conference, but we do believe that we actually would need that for purposes of security.

THE COURT: But is that an evidentiary issue that you wish to discuss with me?

MR. MALIONEK: Yes, it is.

212-267-6868

there's a settlement issue or something and everybody who is affected by it is present, then I understand having a chambers conference. But I don't think we have that situation here.

MR. GOLDBERG: Yes, Your Honor. I think the idea of a chambers conference was to have -- explain our rationale for our proposal and how to address the certificate that you've requested and then come on the record and discuss it.

MR. UPTEGROVE: Your Honor, William Uptegrove with the SEC. May I be heard?

THE COURT: Yeah.

MR. UPTEGROVE: Thank you, Your Honor. I only raised my hand because we actually have a similar request that wanted to make of Your Honor. And if I may have a moment to sort of update you on what we've been working on and issues we wanted to update you about. Because it goes along with counsel for Binance's request.

THE COURT: You wanted to update me privately on what you've been working on?

MR. UPTEGROVE: Oh no, no, Your Honor. I wanted to update you publicly right now. But it relates to a similar type of issue as was just being discussed. What I'm going to say -- I am proposing to put this on the record, Your Honor.

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions

Page 217

THE COURT: This seems highly irregular. You know, if there is an evidentiary issue and I need to rule on it by only hearing from a few of the parties, then I will do so. But I really don't want to have any presentations of facts at all, or argument at all, or explanations at all. I'll just hear the evidentiary issue. That's the only thing that I can think of that it would be appropriate to step aside separately for.

And who are you suggesting being included in this? The SEC...

MR. MALIONEK: The Committee, the Debtors.

THE COURT: U.S. Trustee?

MR. MALIONEK: U.S. Trustee. And yes, Your Honor, we would simply outline for you our proposal to deal with the evidentiary issue. And then we would expect that afterwards we would come back into the courtroom so that, Your Honor, we could make public what your determination is from the sidebar in conference. In other words, we don't want to hide anything from the public, we simply want to be able to explain the rationale for it in chambers.

MR. MORRISSEY: Your Honor, Richard Morrissey for the U.S. Trustee. I would just raise a general objection on the record for the reasons Your Honor already stated. But obviously if Your Honor rules, we would be happy to participate. Thank you.

MS. RYAN: Your Honor, this is Ms. Ryan from the State of Texas. We join in that objection.

UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Your Honor, Kevin (indiscernible) on behalf of New York (indiscernible). As do we.

THE COURT: Okay. I've got --

MR. UPTEGROVE: Your Honor.

THE COURT: Yeah.

MR. UPTEGROVE: William Uptegrove for the SEC. Irrespective of whether or not you were to grant Binance's request -- if I may, I was already going to address an issue that I mentioned, which was first, I just want to apologize for any frustration Your Honor had yesterday with our position. We heard your concern. We --

THE COURT: Hang on one second. Are we finished with the witness? Yes?

MR. SLADE: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. Did you have a question for him?

MR. GOLDBERG: I had one question. And I think depending upon Your Honor's ruling regarding our proposal, it may be helpful to have the witness on the stand.

THE COURT: Well, let's finish with him subject to recall if we need to deal with whatever this other issue is. Okay?

counsel while they're in the middle of speaking about something. My only concern is that, you know, I'm not sure since we're in the phase of the trial where we're putting on evidence, is counsel for the SEC ready to put on evidence or call a witness? Because otherwise, if it's to give a speech or to give an update or anything along those lines, I'm not sure that this is the proper time to do that. That's part of why we want to be able to have the conference, Your Honor.

MR. UPTEGROVE: Your Honor, I simply have a simple request. If I can just have a minute to make a request.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. UPTEGROVE: I'm not going to make a speech. I'm not going to make an argument.

THE COURT: Okay. Go ahead.

MR. UPTEGROVE: So Your Honor had concerns yesterday about the SEC's position. We would like to be able to address them. And I'm not going to go into that to address it. I'm going to propose how we think that might be able to be addressed, at least as best as we can address it under the circumstances.

As I indicated yesterday, unlike other parties, there are statutory restrictions on our ability to share non-public information. As I'm sure Your Honor can appreciate, there are also other practical considerations as well. We do, however, want to do our best to address the

MR. GOLDBERG: Okay. Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Do you have a question with him in that context?

MR. GOLDBERG: Yes.

THE COURT: Go ahead.

BY MR. GOLDBERG:

Q Mr. Tichenor, you testified that the sale transaction would be roughly $100 million better for the estate than the toggle. Does that $100 million include any potential tax benefits or savings that customers may receive by virtue of an in-kind distribution?

A No, it does not.

Q Thank you.

MR. GOLDBERG: That's all, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. All right. Thank you, Mr. Tichenor, you are excused.

There's so much mystery here that it is difficult for me to figure out if I have any proper grounds to have a separate conference when I have objections that are pending to the idea of having a separate conference.

MR. UPTEGROVE: Your Honor, William Uptegrove for the SEC. If I may just continue with what I see as sort of a completely separate request.

MR. MALIONEK: Your Honor, Robert MalioneK again. I do not want to be in the habit of cutting off another

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

concerns being raised.

What we would request is that when it's convenient for the Court -- I think Binance would like to do it right now for us because the timing is not important -- either later today or Monday -- if the Court would like to do it now, that is fine. Whenever it's convenient for Your Honor and the other parties, we would request that we be allowed to have an in-camera conference with the Debtors, Binance, and the U.S. Trustee. And we'll defer to the Debtors and Binance with regard to whether the Committee should attend. We would prefer to do it on our part, the SEC, telephonically. But if the hearing is continued to Monday, we're willing to come to New York and be there Monday morning for the in-camera conference.

And what we would like to do there is to be able to address the concern you raised and the grounds for doing that are that we are statutorily limited to what we do in public. There are issues with us disclosing things in public. And we might be able to address some of your concerns in-camera, and then hopefully that's an acceptable way to move forward.

MR. SLADE: Your Honor, Mike Slade for the Debtors. We object to that. Okay? If the SEC wants to put on evidence, they can put on evidence. This is a continual, frustrating issue for us. We don't want the SEC to have the

1 opportunity to go to chambers and tell Your Honor something
2 that they're not actually willing to put in evidence and,
3 you know, perhaps that would influence the result. That's 4 our concern. So we object.

5 MR. AZMAN: Your Honor, Darren Azman for the 6 Committee. To the extent there is an in-camera conference,
7 obviously the Committee would like to participate. I don't 8 believe the gentleman from the SEC invited us. But I would 9 like to be invited, obviously.

10 MR. MALIONEK: Your Honor, Robert MalioneK, if I
11 may. I know you're taking notes. If I may add on.

12 It seems like we may have some joint support for a 13 request to have this chambers conference with you. From our 14 perspective, it's only for purposes of explaining an 15 evidentiary issue and how to resolve it so that there's 16 perhaps one additional question for Mr. Tichenor that we 17 could ask and then put something into the record for Your 18 Honor. We just want to be able to explain what it is. I
19 think it's -- if the SEC wants to be able to participate in 20 that, we welcome that and welcome obviously the UCC and the 21 Trustee, Debtors to join as well.

22 THE COURT: Well, if the purpose of a conference
23 is to give me information that might address questions I
24 have raised regarding this transaction and to influence how 25 I might decide things, it seems very awkward and unusual to

1 evidence before you, Your Honor, that you asked for. But 2 there are issues that we need to be able to speak to you in 3 private about, Your Honor.

4 We don't agree with the SEC that they should be
5 able to come back into chambers and put in evidence behind
6 the scenes. We don't think that that's appropriate.

7 MR. UPTEGROVE: Your Honor, William Uptegrove for 8 the record.

9 THE COURT: Just before --

10 MR. UPTEGROVE: We're not proposing to -- I just 11 want to be clear.

12 THE COURT: Go ahead.

13 MR. UPTEGROVE: I'm sorry.

14 THE COURT: No, go ahead.

15 MR. UPTEGROVE: I'm sorry, Your Honor. So we just 16 wanted to be clear about what the proposal is. Because 17 everyone has said -- not everyone, but the objectors have 18 said that we were proposing to put in evidence. That's not 19 the case. What we wanted to do is you had specific 20 questions that related to the impossibility because the SEC
21 wouldn't take a position, it wouldn't give you guidelines
22 about what the SEC thought. So it's not really argument.
23 I'm not going to -- what we would propose is actually
24 relatively brief. If we have authority to provide the Court
25 with information, our strong preference is that we would do

1 suggest that that be done in private. It's an evidentiary
2 proceeding. There are times when evidence involves trade
3 secrets or other reasons why it cannot be disclosed
4 publicly, but those are very rare. And this is a peculiar 5 situation, because usually if that's the case, I have some 6 indication, some evidentiary indication of what it is that 7 is going to be offered so that I can decide whether it's 8 something that is so sensitive that it can be considered as 9 evidence, but people can -- some people otherwise can be 10 excluded. It seems particularly hard for me to say that it
11 can be considered in evidence and not only can the public be 12 excluded, but even people who are other objectors on similar 13 grounds could be excluded. That bothers me immensely. And 14 at least some of those people, including the state
15 regulators, have issued their objections.

16 So having expressed that concern, what can you say
17 to me?

18 MR. MALIONEK: Your Honor, Robert MalioneK again
19 just because so many people have been talking, I want to 20 make sure I'm clear for the record. I absolutely agree,
21 Your Honor, and join in the objection of the Debtors that 22 the chambers conference should not be a place to offer
23 evidence. That's not what we're asking for. This is to 24 explain the evidentiary basis for how we're going to get 25 through one rule of evidence that will allow us to put the

1 it in a way that is narrowly-tailored as possible. And the 2 other parties may actually want that.

3 But the point is we are not trying to put on 4 argument. It's not going to be an argument that we're
5 intending to make. We're not trying to put on any evidence.
6 But we wanted to answer Your Honor's questions because Your
7 Honor had what I would characterize as understandable
8 frustration that, you know, that we couched things in May 9 and wanted a little more certainty. And so we were 10 proposing to provide you with the best answers that we can.
11 And doing it in-camera would be highly preferential.

12 MR. MALIONEK: Your Honor, I'm confused. Because 13 counsel for the SEC spoke up just now while we're in the 14 middle of putting on evidence, or hopefully towards the tail
15 end of putting on evidence, to say that they wanted to 16 provide you with some information and an update on what 17 they're working on. I think those are direct quotes. That 18 sounds like evidence. That's not what we want to get into,
19 Your Honor, in a chambers conference.

20 We spoke up because we want to be able to -- it's 21 not put on evidence, but we do want to explain the rationale
22 for our argument regarding an evidentiary issue so that we 23 can ask one further question of the witness. That's all.

24 MR. AZMAN: Your Honor, Darren Azman for the
25 Committee again. I don't know what we're talking about. I

1 really don't. And I don't know whether to object or not.
 2 It sounds like there's sensitive information that Binance
 3 and there's sensitive information that the SEC has. But I
 4 have a lot of concerns. You've heard all the creditors in 5 the past two days raising issues with the lack of 6 transparency in this case. So I would have concerns about 7 that. But I want to be respectful of whatever it is that 8 they don't want to talk about in court.

9 And so perhaps one solution is we could have an 10 in-camera conference to talk about whether a discussion
 11 should be held in-camera or not because I don't know what 12 they're talking about.

13 MR. MALIONEK: That sounds like a fine solution.
 14 We're not trying to hide evidence or information. We simply 15 have that evidentiary and legal argument to make, Your 16 Honor.

17 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Your Honor, pro se
 18 creditor. Would like to be involved in that discussion.

19 THE COURT: I think the suggestion is that I have 20 a conference just to address the issue of whether it's 21 appropriate not to allow you to be in on that discussion.

22 I can in my head imagine things that you would 23 want to discuss and reveal to me that you would not want to 24 put on the public record and that also may not have any 25 bearing on this proceeding. I have no idea if that's what

1 MR. UPTEGROVE: It is.

2 THE COURT: Okay.

3 MR. UPTEGROVE: I'll have to get off the line
 4 though and --

5 THE COURT: Okay.

6 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Your Honor?

7 THE COURT: Yeah.

8 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Your Honor, (indiscernible)
 9 New York (indiscernible). Is there a reason that can be 10 articulated as to why (indiscernible) cannot attend the 11 chambers conference?

12 THE COURT: Well, you know, I guess that's what 13 I'm going to be told, that apparently I have to be told in 14 private. That's one of the issues that I'll ask about.
 15 Okay?

16 (Recess)

17 THE COURT: -- worry or misapprehension about what 18 happened in our private little conference right now, I am
 19 going to say what happened.

20 There were two issues, neither of which were 21 evidentiary. One was that Binance is willing to free the 22 Debtors from their confidentiality limitations and is to 23 allow the Debtors to submit the sworn statements that 24 Binance has previously given to the Debtors and I think was 25 concerned as to whether that amounted to a tendering by

Page 227

1 this is about or whether there's some other reason why you
 2 are concerned.

3 I think what I can -- the best I can do if I'm
 4 being told that there is good reason and not an evidentiary
 5 submission to have a private discussion just of the issue of 6 whether other information should be submitted in private,
 7 that I can do that. But if in the course of that anybody
 8 says anything that I think needs to be on the public record,
 9 I'm putting it on the public record. And you ought to be on 10 notice of that.

11 MR. MALIONEK: Yes, Your Honor. We understand.
 12 We do think there is good reason.

13 THE COURT: All right.

14 MR. UPTEGROVE: William Uptegrove for the SEC.
 15 Understood, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Okay. So now how do we do this?
 17 We've got the SEC by telephone. I guess the U.S. Trustee, 18 the Committee, Binance, the Debtor, come with me to my 19 chambers and we'll -- what's the number we can reach you at 20 at the SEC?

21 MR. UPTEGROVE: 404 -- well, actually -- yeah, we 22 can do that. 404-842-5765.

23 THE COURT: Five seven what?

24 MR. UPTEGROVE: Six-five.

25 THE COURT: Is that a direct to where you are?

1 Binance of a witness, which I don't believe it does. I
 2 don't think anybody here has subpoenaed a Binance witness or 3 called a Binance witness. And so if the Debtors want to 4 offer those certificates, I would appreciate it. That's the 5 first issue that was discussed.

6 The second issue was that the SEC wished to try to 7 answer questions that I had posed at the beginning of the 8 hearing as to what the SEC's position is on some of these 9 issues. But I gather that in the first instance they were 10 asked to find out if they could tell that to me separately
 11 rather than in public. I responded that I am not 12 comfortable hearing that explanation in private. This is a 13 public court proceeding. I made very public what my 14 questions were. The SEC has made objections. Other people
 15 have made objections. Anything that further explains the 16 basis for the SEC's position it seems to me is something 17 that everybody is entitled to hear. So if the SEC has an 18 explanation, I ask that that be put on the public record and 19 not done privately. Okay?

20 So don't think we're officially closed the 21 evidentiary record, but I do have quite a bit of authority
 22 over the order of proceedings. And so if the SEC wishes to 23 make a clarifying statement as to its position, I welcome
 24 them to do so.

25 MR. UPTEGROVE: Thank you, Your Honor. William

Uptegrove for the United States Securities and Exchange Commission. Again, Your Honor, just to be clear, when Your Honor raised the issue yesterday, we went back internally within the SEC and worked as diligently as possible all throughout the SEC to try our best to answer your questions. And I have been authorized to provide the following additional information. I don't think it satisfies all of your questions, but under the circumstances, this is what I have authority to provide.

So, Your Honor, this is a complicated situation, in part because seeking relief against a defunct entity is often not productive and given the nature of our enforcement investigation, which are non-public. Additionally opinions of the staff do not reflect the views of the Commission, which has not taken a position with respect to Voyager or Binance. With that being said, the staff believes based solely on the facts and circumstances currently known to the staff that the offering and sale of BGX tokens have the attributes of a securities transaction -- securities transactions. Staff also believes that Binance.US is operating an unregistered security exchange in the United States. The Commission has not made any determination on either of these issues. The staff beliefs do not represent the position of the Commission. And that's all I wanted to provide, Your Honor. Thank you.

suppose, all the interested parties?

THE COURT: Well, I'll ask them to be put on the public record. But I think they're being offered by way of explaining the Debtor's due diligence, in which case they're not hearsay, they're evidence of things that the Debtors looked at and relied upon.

MR. SLADE: Your Honor, Mike Slade for the Debtors. We would offer the Binance officer certificate that Mr. Tichenor testified to extensively as Debtor's Exhibit 26. And if you admit it, we will put it on the public docket tonight. Or maybe tomorrow.

THE COURT: Do you have them here, by the way?

MR. SLADE: I do have -- yes. We have one copy with a one underline on it.

THE COURT: Well, just put it on the docket and I'll download it from there.

MR. SLADE: Yes, sir. We will.

THE COURT: So to the extent there's a hearsay objection, I overrule it.

MR. SLADE: Thank you, Your Honor. The Debtors do not have any more witnesses.

THE COURT: What about the objections we have as to the selection of the plan administrator. Is anybody going to address that?

MR. SLADE: Yes, Your Honor. The Committee is

MR. MALIONEK: Your Honor, Robert Malione. My understanding -- correct me if I'm wrong -- was that there would be no information or evidence that would be offered. That sounded to me to be different than what my understanding was anyway. And so we would move to strike.

THE COURT: It's not evidence. Right? It's a statement of position. Yesterday, the SEC said that it wasn't taking a position one way or the other. Today, it's saying that the staff is informing me of what it believes, but that the Commission as a whole is still taking no position. That just essentially tells me what a contention is. Okay?

So at least I know that the SEC isn't just saying maybe, that it's saying it thinks that there are issues. But I still don't have evidence and I still don't have very much clarity as to exactly why they think there are issues or how they would affect this transaction. But I guess I appreciate the limited clarification you have been able to provide. Okay?

Is there any other evidence that anybody wishes to offer? To turn back to the evidentiary record.

MS. RYAN: Your Honor, this is Ms. Ryan from Texas. The statements or affidavits being submitted by Binance, we would object to those as hearsay. And once they are submitted, will they be available to everyone, I going to put on a witness, right, or whenever Your Honor would like, to testify about that.

THE COURT: Let's go there.

MR. CALANDRA: Your Honor, John Calandra from McDermott Will & Emery on behalf of the Committee. We would like to call Paul Hage, who would be plan administrator, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay.

Mr. Hage, do you promise and swear that the testimony you are about to give will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

MR. HAGE: I do.

THE COURT: State your full name for the record, please.

MR. HAGE: Paul Robert Hage.

THE COURT: Okay. Please proceed, Counsel.

MR. CALANDRA: Thank you.

DIRECT EXAMINATION OF PAUL HAGE

BY MR. CALANDRA:

Q Mr. Hage, what is your current occupation and employment?

A I am a partner and co-chair of the bankruptcy and restructuring group at Taft, Stettinius & Hollister. And I am based in Detroit, Michigan.

Q And how large is your firm, Taft?

1 A Taft has roughly 850 attorneys, located primarily in
2 the Midwest.
3 Q Where are you admitted, sir?
4 A I am admitted in the state of Michigan, the Eastern and
5 Western District of Michigan District and Bankruptcy Courts,
6 the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals, and the United States
7 Supreme Court.
8 Q Okay. You are aware that the Committee has selected you
9 to serve as plan administrator of the winddown entity
10 pending the Court's approval?
11 A I am.
12 Q And you are willing to do so?
13 A I am.
14 Q Can you briefly describe for us your background? Let's
15 just quickly start with your education and then we'll move
16 on.
17 A Sure. I graduated with a bachelor's degree from 18 Michigan State University. I have a law degree from Loyola 19 University Chicago. And I have a master's of laws, or an 20 LLM degree, in bankruptcy law from St. John's University
21 School of Law here in New York.
22 Additionally, during law school, I interned with the 23 Honorable George Steeh, a U.S. district court judge in the 24 Eastern District of Michigan, and with the Honorable 25 Elizabeth Stong, United States Bankruptcy Court Judge from

1 Q Okay.
2 A I see I'm wearing the exact same tie in this picture
3 that I am wearing today.
4 Q That's good. You're frugal. What is the document,
5 sir, that is 1109-2?
6 A The document is my resume.
7 Q Okay. Did you prepare this document?
8 A I did.
9 Q Is it a true and correct copy of your resume, sir?
10 A It is.
11 MR. CALANDRA: Your Honor, we would like to move
12 the admission of this document into evidence as 1109-2.
13 THE COURT: Any objections? All right, the 14 Exhibit is admitted.
15 (Exhibit 1109-2 entered into evidence)
16 BY MR. CALANDRA:
17 Q Let's just take a quick look. We're not going to spend 18 too much time on this, but I have a few questions about your 19 resume that I'd like to elicit testimony on. Let's start
20 with -- I see you say that you've been twice selected by the 21 Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals for a finalist for bankruptcy
22 judgeship. Could you explain that a little bit?
23 A Sure. Those people who know me know that my career
24 goal is to be a federal bankruptcy judge.
25 THE COURT: Has this hearing changed your mind?

1 the Eastern District of New York.
2 Q And what did you do after graduation and you got your
3 LLM, what was your employment?
4 A So upon graduating from St. John's, I moved back to 5 Michigan, which is where I grew up. And I have a bankruptcy
6 attorney. It's substantially all that I do is practice
7 bankruptcy law for the last 16 or 17 years. My practice
8 primarily consists of representing unsecured creditors and 9 creditors' committees and post-confirmation fiduciaries, be 10 it a liquidating trustee type position or Chapter 7
11 bankruptcy trustees.
12 Q And now you are the co-head of the bankruptcy practice
13 at your firm?
14 A I am co-chair of the bankruptcy practice at Taft, yes.
15 MR. CALANDRA: Your Honor, may I approach the 16 witness? I would like to hand him his resume.
17 THE COURT: Yes. You don't need permission to 18 approach the witness.
19 MR. CALANDRA: Would Your Honor like a copy?
20 THE COURT: Yes, please. Thank you.
21 BY MR. CALANDRA:
22 Q Okay. I've showed you what is on the docket for the 23 record as Docket Number 1109-2. Do you have that in front
24 of you, sir?
25 A I do.

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

1 BY MR. CALANDRA:
2 A It has not. This is what I do. And so I have applied
3 on a few occasions from fairly early on my career to be a
4 judge. It's a pretty rigorous application process. There
5 is an expansive application that asks just about every type
6 of question about somebody's professional experience and 7 also their character. And I have applied and gone through 8 that process a couple of times in the Sixth Circuit. It's 9 done differently in each judicial circuit.
10 But in the Sixth Circuit, the Sixth Circuit Court of 11 Appeals appoints a merit selection panel consisting of 12 members of the local bar to conduct interviews and an 13 initial background check of each candidate. And then 14 there's a fairly fulsome interview process that is 15 conducted. From that process, the merit selection panel
16 recommends to the Court of Appeals three to five finalists
17 for the position. Usually it's three to five. I'm not sure
18 it's a hard and fast rule, but that's normally what they do.
19 And I have twice been selected as a finalist, in 2018 and 20 more recently in 2021.
21 As a finalist then, there is additional sort of 22 interview and background process and the interview with 23 judges on the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals. I've done
24 that twice.
25 Q Okay. Thank you for the explanation. You also said that you were co-director of the Conrad Duberstein National Bankruptcy Moot Court Competition. Is that why you're in town this week?

A That is actually why I'm in town this week, is that I run the -- it's the bankruptcy court competition. It's run in conjunction with the American Bankruptcy Institute in St. John's University School of Law. I help to run it. I serve as a judge at the competition and I write the problem. And I've done that with a judge in Grand Rapids for the last six years.

Q That's great. Let's just focus a little bit on your professional associations and memberships, starting with the American Bankruptcy Institute. For those who are on the phone who are not aware of that, can you explain what that is?

A Sure. The American Bankruptcy Institute I think is the largest organization of bankruptcy and insolvency professionals and judges in the country. I think it's a highly -- it's a well-recognized organization. I've been very involved with it since even before starting practice, writing articles, speaking at conferences, attending conferences.

In 2019, I was selected to be a member of the ABI's board of directors, and I have served in that capacity for the last three or four years. In 2022, I was selected from

Q Largely on what subjects?

A I do a lot of writing.

Q On what subjects?

A Entirely on bankruptcy law.

Q Okay. And then if I'm correct, your speaking engagements go on from pages 8, pages 9, and pages 10, largely on bankruptcy subjects?

A Exclusively on bankruptcy subjects, yes.

Q Okay.

A Or other insolvency-type issues.

Q I know you said you're here this week because of the Duberstein Bankruptcy Moot Court. But were you in court yesterday?

A I was.

Q Okay.

A And to clarify, given the importance of these hearings, I likely would have been here anyway. Perhaps telephonically, but certainly I recognize the importance of these hearings.

Q Have you been involved at all in any connection in the Voyager bankruptcy since it started?

A I have.

Q Okay.

A I represent Jason Raznick.

Q And who is that?

the Board to be the ABI secretary and a member of its executive committee. So it's an organization that I'm very active with.

Q Okay. And I see your professional associations span a couple of pages, and there are maybe about 20. And I don't want to spend the time to go through that, but I was -- it did catch my attention the American College of Bankruptcy fellow. Could you explain that?

A Yeah. The American College of Bankruptcy is an honorary organization that recognizes people who have done a lot and are held in high character, high regard, have done a lot in the bankruptcy community. A high standard of practice and focused on sort of the right types of things. And I was honored to be selected as a fellow last year.

Q On the top of Page 3, it lists honors and awards. And you have a number of them. They all relate to bankruptcy. Am I right?

A That's correct. Again, 99 percent of my practice really is bankruptcy law.

Q And then under books, it seems that you're an author or co-author of six books relating to bankruptcy.

A That's correct.

A That's correct.

516-608-2400

A Jason Raznick is the chair of the Creditors' Committee.

Q Okay. And what have you been doing in terms of your representation of him related to Voyager?

A In my capacity representing him, I have been actively involved with the Creditors' Committee. The Committee communicates regularly as throughout this case, meets weekly, frequently more often than weekly to discuss the very difficult issues in this case. And I have participated in not all, but probably the majority of those calls over the last seven months. I have reviewed the pleadings in the case. So I am very familiar with the case and have participated in that capacity.

Q For those who are on the phone who might be wondering, when did you first meet Mr. Raznick, when would that be?

A I was first introduced to Mr. Raznick in July of 2022, shortly after the commencement of these bankruptcy cases.

Q So prior to the commencement of these bankruptcy cases, you did not know him?

A I did not.

Q Have you actually ever met him in person?

A I have not actually met Mr. Raznick in person. We've talked regularly of course on the phone and on Zoom. In 2022, that's a lot of how we communicate.

Q Okay. And how did you come to meet Mr. Raznick and work with him?

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions

516-608-2400

Page 242

1 A Right. Well, Mr. Raznick was one of the largest retail
2 customers in this case. His brother is a partner at my law
3 firm. And so when the bankruptcy case was commenced and he
4 needed bankruptcy counsel, he was referred to me.

5 Q As the co-head of bankruptcy practice for your firm?

6 A That's correct.

7 Q What about McDermott Will & Emery? Have we ever worked
8 together, McDermott Will & Emery and you?

9 A I have not worked with McDermott Will & Emery prior to 10 this case.

11 Q Okay. And when was the first time you ever met Mr.
12 Azman?

13 A In person, yesterday. We have been on Zoom many, many 14 times.

15 Q What about me? When was the first time we met?

16 A Same.

17 Q Okay. And you said you've attended the committee
18 meetings. Is that right?

19 A Yes. And attended many of the hearings in this case as 20 well.

21 Q Approximately how many committee meetings have you
22 attended?

23 A I would estimate maybe 30. As I said, there's weekly 24 committee calls that have been held to talk about the very 25 difficult issues in this case. And at different points,

1 myself from that under that provision of the plan
2 administrator agreement and one of the three members of the 3 oversight committee would serve as the plan administrator in 4 that capacity. To be clear, I'm not aware of any conflicts
5 that might exist, but that's a protective measure that is a
6 common thing that I see in fiduciary agreements like this,
7 liquidating trust agreements, to address issues. Because 8 you just never know what's going to come up down the road.

9 Q Understood. And my question was only prophylactic. Is 10 Mr. Raznick on the Oversight Committee?

11 A He is not.

12 Q Now, did you attend the meeting -- I'm going to ask a 13 series of questions because I know there's an objection that 14 related to Mr. Raznick. And I think the allegation was 15 that, quote, "Mr. Ehrlich may have influenced Mr. Raznick's
16 decisions to not pursue third party causes of action more
17 decisively, and the UCC chair, that he may have influenced 18 other UCC members to do the same."

19 Now, were you at the committee meeting on October 16th, 20 2022 where the vote was taken to support the settlement, the 21 D&O settlement?

22 A I was.

23 Q Okay. Did Mr. Raznick speak out in favor of that 24 settlement at that meeting or against it?

25 A He aggressively opposed at that time.

1 they may be more frequently than weekly. So I would say 30
2 or 40 meetings maybe.

3 Q Do you feel you are familiar with the Committee's work
4 in the matters in this case?

5 A Very.

6 Q Okay. Do you think that will help you should you be 7 appointed as plan administrator?

8 A I do. There's a lot to get up to speed with here, and 9 I'm up to speed with a lot of it already.

10 Q Is there in place any recusal process should in the 11 future you have any conflict of any kind? What happens
12 then? What is the process under the plan as you understand
13 it?

14 A There is. At my request, there is a provision in the 15 plan administrator agreement that is in one of the plan
16 supplements that contemplates that in the event there is any 17 potential conflict of interest that might arise, that I
18 would recuse myself from that matter. And of course as an 19 attorney and as a fiduciary, I take issues of conflicts of 20 interest and ethical responsibilities very, very seriously.

21 And so in the event that I or anybody else involved
22 with the plan -- because there's a Plan Administrator
23 Oversight Committee. If I or any of the members of the Plan
24 Administrator Oversight Committee believed that there was a
25 potential conflict of interest there, then I would recuse

1 Q Did he vote for the settlement?

2 A He was the last committee member to vote, and he
3 abstained.

4 Q Okay. So to the extent there's an allegation that he 5 was influencing folks on the Committee to support the 6 settlement, what have you to say about that?

7 A That is absolutely not true to my knowledge.

8 Q Okay. One last question. What -- can you describe to 9 the Court, what is your experience in dealing with post-
10 confirmation fiduciaries?

11 A Substantial. It's a substantial part of my practice.
12 I have on many occasions represented, as I noted earlier,
13 post-confirmation in Chapter 11 cases, liquidating trustee-
14 type fiduciaries. I have also on multiple occasions
15 represented Chapter 7 trustees. And frequently the role in 16 those cases has been very similar to the role here. It is 17 investigating and pursuing causes of action for the benefit
18 usually of unsecured creditors. Causes of action like the 19 causes of action that can and should be investigated here,
20 claims involving breaches of fiduciary duties, claims
21 against insurance companies, fraudulent transfer-type 22 claims, the types of things that you determined that was 23 used earlier today, the blocking and talking of sort of 24 bankruptcy post-confirmation litigation. I am very, very 25 familiar with that law. I am very, very familiar with the different wrinkles, the legal issues that come up with those cases, the defenses that are asserted. I've negotiated with insurance companies before. It's what I do.

Q Okay.

MR. CALANDRA: Your Honor, I have no further questions.

THE COURT: All right. Any cross-examination of Mr. Hage? First start with anybody in the room who has a question. I see we have one taker.

MR. POSNER: Your Honor, for the record, David Posner from Patrick Townsend, Kilpatrick, Townsend & Stockton. I am counsel for the Ad Hoc Group of Equity Interest Holders of Voyager Digital Limited.

So for the record, I am not objecting the appointment of Mr. Hage as the plan administrator. We did have objections to the plan, which we have resolved, Your Honor. But subsequent to the resolution of them, when the second amended plan was filed and when the third amended plan was filed, there was some language in that plan which concerned us, which I've been here for the last two days hoping to address with the Court. That's more in the nature of argument.

Now that Mr. Hage is on the stand, I have some questions for him that are relevant to that language in the plan that concerns us. So if I might, I would like to ask both filed within the last two or three days.

Q I have reviewed various versions of the plan, including I believe the most recent version that's on file. It's hard, as it has been amended. But yes, I am generally familiar with the concepts with respect to the plan.

Q There's sections in the plan that deal with the appointment of the plan administrator, correct?

A There are.

Q And you probably don't have the plan in front of you. I unfortunately don't have a third amended plan with me, but I do have the second amended plan. And the provisions with respect to the -- I need my glasses to read it. Docket Entry 1117 is the Second Amended Plan. And the provision dealing with the appointment of a plan administrator start at Page 36. Are you familiar with those provisions of the plan generally?

MR. CALANDRA: Your Honor, may I object? If you're going to ask him questions about something that changed, are you representing there are no changes to this?

MR. POSNER: I haven't compared the Third Amended and the Second Amended. I don't think these provisions changed.

MR. CALANDRA: Why don't you give him the Third Amended so that we're asking him about the plan that's before the Court?

him a couple of questions.

THE COURT: Go ahead.

MR. POSNER: Okay. Thank you.

CROSS EXAMINATION OF PAUL HAGE

BY MR. POSNER:

Q Mr. Hage, you testified just before that you were actively involved in the Committee and all the meetings and the deliberations, correct?

A I wouldn't say all of the deliberations, but substantially all, yes.

Q You actively participated in committee meetings, correct?

A I did.

Q And so you are generally familiar with the issues in the Debtor's Chapter 11 cases from the perspective of the Committee?

A I am.

Q Are you familiar with --

A And from the perspective of other parties based on the pleadings and the arguments made in the case. I am very familiar with all of the issues.

Q Thank you.

A Well, many of the issues.

Q Have you reviewed the plan? In particular the second-amended plan or the third amended plan? I know they were

Page 249

MR. POSNER: I don't have the Third Amended with me.

THE COURT: Why don't we first cut out and excise all the beginning of the question and just ask him if he's familiar with the provisions of the plan regarding the selection of a plan administrator.

Are you?

THE WITNESS: I am.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. CALANDRA: Your Honor, I don't mind a little latitude, but this is well outside the scope of my direct.

THE COURT: It's okay. Unless you want me to recall the witness again later, we will do it all now.

BY MR. POSNER:

Q So you're generally familiar with the provisions with respect to the appointment of a plan administrator?

A Generally, yes.

Q And there's a laundry list in the plan that's entitled responsibilities of the plan administrator, correct?

A That's correct.

Q And there's one winddown debtor for all of the entities, correct?

A I believe that is correct, yes.

Q And so you would be the plan administrator for all of the debtor entities, correct?

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

Page 250

1 A I believe that is correct. That is my understanding.

2 Q And some of the responsibilities of a plan

3 administrator, or one of the responsibilities of a plan

4 administrator, it's in 5C, is appointing an independent

5 director at each debtor to act as a fiduciary for such

6 debtor entity in connection with the resolution of 7 intercompany claims.

8 A Well, let me just say it would be helpful to have that

9 document to look at.

10 Q Okay.

11 A I can't confirm what that says. But I will say in the 12 interest of trying to shortcut this, that I am familiar that

13 that is a provision in the plan.

14 Q Okay.

15 A I don't have the specific language or any -- you know,

16 I know that's one of the...

17 Q But you're familiar with the provision that empowers

18 the plan administrator to --

19 A I am generally familiar with the powers of the plan

20 administrator, yes.

21 Q To appoint independent -- an independent director at 22 each debtor entity?

23 A Correct, yes.

24 Q Are you familiar that there is a dispute involving

25 intercompany claims in the debtor's bankruptcy cases?

1 in the case that you've prosecuted on behalf of your

2 clients.

3 Q Are you familiar with the Debtor's schedules and 4 statements?

5 A I read them months ago.

6 Q Okay. Are you aware that when the schedules and

7 statements were initially filed, they listed the 8 intercompany claims as not disputed or contention they're 9 unliquidated?

10 MR. SLADE: Your Honor, I would object. This is 11 not relevant.

12 THE COURT: Are we litigating the merits now?

13 MR. POSNER: No, I'm just...

14 MR. SLADE: I think we are, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: What's the point of that?

16 MR. POSNER: I was just asking if he was familiar

17 with it.

18 THE COURT: Why?

19 MR. POSNER: Because, Your Honor, two nights ago

20 they amended the schedules to change that. And he is going

21 to be the plan administrator, and presumably he is going to 22 end up dealing with -- potentially dealing with those

23 issues.

24 THE COURT: So what?

25 MR. POSNER: Well, because he is going to be the

212-267-6868

Page 251

1 A I am.

2 Q And what's your knowledge of that dispute?

3 A That a dispute exists on that and that my understanding

4 is at a very high level that the settlement that has been

5 reached, subject to the revision I think that you just

6 mentioned at the beginning of your questioning, is that

7 those issues will be addressed going forward.

8 Q Okay. So it's your understanding that the intercompany

9 claim dispute hasn't been resolved, that it's going to be

10 resolved at some later date.

11 A Well, let me just say that -- yeah, that is my 12 understanding. I am not yet the plan administrator. I have

13 not been involved in negotiations about those issues. But

14 generally speaking, I have -- from what I have been able to 15 glean from reading from the documents, that is my

16 understanding, yes.

17 Q You are aware that there are currently independent

18 directors at each one of the Debtor entities?

19 A Certainly.

20 Q Are you aware that there has been ongoing discussions

21 and negotiations among the independent directors at the 22 debtor entities regarding the intercompany claims?

23 A I don't have any specific knowledge about that. It

24 would surprise me if there weren't ongoing discussions.

25 Because, as I noted earlier, I know this has been an issue

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

Page 253

1 plan administrator for all of the entities. What I wanted

2 to ask him was should the intercompany disputes continue, is

3 he going to handle them or is he going to recuse himself and

4 allow independent directors that he is going to appoint

5 handle them?

6 THE COURT: Well, you can ask him that. What does

7 that have to do with the schedules?

8 MR. POSNER: It doesn't. I was just trying to lay

9 a foundation to see if he was familiar with the topic, Your

10 Honor.

11 BY MR. POSNER:

12 Q So, Mr. Hage, you are going to be the plan

13 administrator for all the Debtor entities. The intercompany

14 claims have to be resolved. You're going to appoint

15 independent directors. Is it going to be the independent

16 directors who are going to handle that since as the plan

17 administrator for all of the entities, you couldn't

18 represent all of the entities in a dispute over intercompany

19 claims, correct?

20 A So what I would say to that is that that's an issue

21 that I have not investigated yet, as again, I am not yet the

22 plan administrator. And so it would be an issue that I

23 would look at with professionals. As all fiduciaries do,

24 they rely on the advice of professionals. It's something we

25 would look at and make a determination at that time. But I

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

am not prepared to make any statements here today about how any future litigation would be dealt with, nor do I think that would be appropriate.

Q Okay. But you would agree as the plan administrator for all the entities that there was a dispute amongst the entities, you couldn't be on both sides of the dispute.

MR. SLADE: Your Honor, I object. That is not an appropriate question for this proceeding.

MR. AZMAN: Your Honor, the Committee agrees. This is highly inappropriate. He's trying to box the witness in a future role where he hasn't even been approved to be a plan administrator. I don't understand what the line of questioning is designed to get at given what the purpose of this hearing is.

THE COURT: Well, I understand. But it seems to me that it's focused more on an objection to a plan provision rather than to the qualifications of this individual to serve as the plan administrator. And it's not clear to me that we even have a plan objection or that the witness's opinion on that subject means anything. It's my opinion about whether it's appropriate or not. So do you really need to pursue that?

MR. POSNER: I don't, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. POSNER: I don't have any more questions for

212-267-6868

www.veritext.com

and now you are nominated to be the administrator for the winddown entity. How does none of all of that constitute some kind of conflict of interest?

A As I said earlier, I take attorney ethical rules regarding conflicts of interest very seriously. I don't believe there is any conflict of interest here. I was not -- I pitched for this position to serve as the plan administrator. The Creditors' Committee, which consists of seven retail customers, each of whom have their own very strong opinions about this case, the history of the Debtors. And not all on the same page. And I pitched amongst multiple candidates for this role and was selected unanimously to serve. I have at my own insistence asked that in the plan administrator agreement which would govern my conduct going forward, the provision that I mentioned earlier that would require me to recuse myself if I or any member of the Plan Administrator Oversight Committee believed that there was any potential conflict of interest, that's what we would do. Of course all of my conduct in that capacity is subject to the supervision of the bankruptcy judge.

And in terms of Mr. Raznick and McDermott Will & Emery, as noted in the questioning that was asked to me, I don't have any -- I am not beholden to them. I don't have a long-term relationship with them. My relationship has been the witness then, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Thank you. Is there anybody else here who wishes to cross-examine this witness?

How about anybody on the telephone? Does anybody wish to cross-examine Mr. Hage?

Yes, Your Honor. I am a pro se creditor. My name is (indiscernible).

THE COURT: Okay. Please proceed.

BY UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER:

Q Hi, Mr. Hage. I just want to make sure I heard you correctly. Did you say that Jason Raznick's brother works at your law firm?

A I did. That is correct.

Q Okay. And so I just want to confirm, is his name Brian Raznick?

A Yes.

Q Okay. How is it -- because one of the things that I know within my -- you know, amongst us creditors, because we all are part of a community and we all talk pretty much on a daily basis. And I know that one of the biggest themes or concerns in this case has been this person knows this person, this person does this person a favor, and everyone is just, you know, kind of scratching each other's backs.

You are the attorney for Jason Raznick. His brother works at your law firm. You've been dealing with McDermott, exclusively in the context of this case.

212-267-6868

Q Okay. So I just want to make sure I heard you correctly. Are you saying that all seven members of the UCC voted to have you be the administrator of the winddown entity?

A Well, to be clear, because I was one of multiple people who had applied for the job, so to speak, I was not present for the deliberations. That is my understanding though, is that that's how it turned out. That was the way the vote came out.

Q Okay. Because I thought I heard you say unanimously, you were voted unanimously. So I guess I took that to mean that every member, all seven members voted for you. Is there a way to find out how many members voted to have you and how many members did not?

A I'm not sure I can answer that question. Again, I wasn't present for the vote. That is my understanding of how the vote turned out.

UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Your Honor, would someone at McDermott be able to answer that question since they represent the UCC?

MR. AZMAN: We're happy to look back at the minutes to confirm. I don't remember off the top of my head if it was unanimous. It was certainly the majority. That was the vote.

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

THE WITNESS: Well, that's what I was going to add.

MR. AZMAN: I'm also not testifying to (indiscernible).

BY MR. POSNER:

A If it was -- it may -- I believe it was a unanimous vote to my understanding. But in any event, it was a majority of the vote because I was the person elected and identified in the plan.

Q Yeah, I understand that. I guess I'm just trying to -- like, it's just if it's unanimous meaning all seven, then that makes me think, wow, like, they all don't see any conflict of interest in having you? But if say, you know, two or three, because four would be the majority, you know, objected to it, then at least I see that there are people there -- you know, the UCC members who represent us creditors, that they are along the same lines of thinking that I am, that how does this not seem like they have a conflict? It's like Jason Raznick's brother is a partner at your law firm. So he needed a lawyer. He goes to his brother, who works at your law firm. And then you are the one representing Jason. Jason is the chair of the UCC. The UCC is represented by McDermott. And there was already a lot of talk about how Jason knew Steve Ehrlich and knew Sam Bankman-Fried and, you know, we're all friends and we're all

212-267-6868

Veritext Legal Solutions
www.veritext.com

516-608-2400

not Jason Raznick. As I noted, I do not have a long-term relationship with Jason Raznick.

The theories alleged -- raised in some of the objections about the relationship between Mr. Raznick and Mr. Ehrlich, as I noted earlier, are not accurate. He argued against the proposed releases initially that are now incorporated into the plan. And while it is true that there was a professional and maybe a friendly even relationship that existed between Mr. Raznick and Mr. Ehrlich prior to the bk filing, Mr. Raznick was one of the largest retail customers in this case. That's why he was appointed to the Creditors' Committee by the Office of the United States Trustee. And any cordial relationship that existed previously with Mr. Ehrlich certainly ended at the point where Mr. Raznick's significant funds were locked up, just like all the retail customers. His goal and my goal throughout this case has been singular; to get creditors, retail customers, as much of their money back as possible as soon as possible.
